Chairman and
General Secretary

GREETINGS

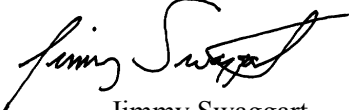

The last Epistle that was written by the Apostle Paul is the one we know as The Second Epistle of Paul the Apostle to Timothy. (Paul's words in II Timothy 4:6-8 lead us to believe that he knew this would be his last Epistle.)

In his admonition to Timothy, Paul told him to "Preach the Word . . ." (II Tim. 4:2).

He warned, though, that the Word of God would not always be appreciated. He said, "For the time will come when they will not endure sound Doctrine . . ." (II Tim. 4:3). He said, however, that irrespective of the opposition, the Lord would stand by us and strengthen us (II Tim. 4:17) that we might preach "Christ, and Him Crucified."

There could be no greater task and no greater calling than to preach this glorious Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ. We believe that World Evangelism Fellowship has been raised up by the Holy Spirit to support this purpose.

As I salute you, I can say nothing that surpasses what our beloved Paul said as he closed the Book of II Timothy: "Grace be with you. Amen."

Jimmy Swaggart
