“The Theology of the Cross reminds us that it is the Cross, the Crucified Christ, which lies at the heart of the Gospel.”
A lady wrote me the other day and stated, “Brother Swaggart, every Christian should read this book.” She was exactly correct. Every Christian ought to read it.

We have done our best to give what Paul gave us as it regards the meaning of the New Covenant, all between the pages of this Book. I personally believe that the material contained therein will mean the difference between Victory and defeat. As well, I seriously doubt that the material contained therein can be found anywhere else. And yet, it’s not new, actually that which was originally given to the Apostle Paul, but which for the most part, has been lost to the modern Church.

Please take my word for this. If you don’t have a copy, you must get one. And especially considering that we’ve cut the price by a third, whatever you do, if you can, take advantage of it.

As well, you should get one or several copies for fellow Christian friends. Please believe me, they will thank you forever.

“But with the Precious Blood of Christ (presents the payment, which proclaims the poured out Life of Christ on behalf of sinners), as of a Lamb without blemish and without spot (speaks of the lambs offered as substitutes in the Old Jewish economy; the Death of Christ was not an execution or assassination, but rather a Sacrifice; the Offering of Himself presented a Perfect Sacrifice, for He was perfect in every respect [Ex. 12:5]):

BEFORE THE FOUNDATION OF THE WORLD

“Who verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world (refers to the fact that God, in His Omniscience, knew He would create man, man would Fall, and man would be Redeemed by Christ going to the Cross; this was all done before the Universe was created; this means the Cross of Christ is the Foundation Doctrine of all Doctrine, referring to the fact that all Doctrine must be built upon that Foundation, or else it is specious), but was manifest in these last times for you (refers to the invisible God Who, in the Person of the Son, was made visible to human eyesight by assuming a human body and human limitations),

FAITH

“Who by Him do believe in God (it is only by Christ and what He did for us at the Cross that we are able to ‘Believe in God’), Who raised Him (Christ) up from the dead (His Resurrection was guaranteed insomuch as He atoned for all sin [Rom. 6:23]), and gave Him Glory (refers to the exaltation of Christ); that your Faith and Hope might be in God. (This speaks of a heart Faith in God, Who saves sinners in answer to our Faith in the Resurrected Lord Jesus Who died for us)” (I Pet. 1:18-21).

In this statement given by the Holy Spirit through

“‘We know that it is the most important part simply because the Cross of Christ is the Foundation on which everything else is built regarding this great Plan of God.’

QUESTION:

IS THE CROSS OF CHRIST THE MOST IMPORTANT PART OF THE PLAN OF GOD?

ANSWER:

Yes!

While anything and everything done by the Lord Jesus Christ is of utmost significance and thereby played its part in this great Redemption Plan, irrespective as to what it might have been, still, the Cross of Christ is by far the pivotal part around which everything else revolves.

How do we know that?

We know that it is the most important part simply because the Cross of Christ is the Foundation on which everything else is built regarding this great Plan of God. It was the first thing formulated in the mind of the Godhead, making it the Foundation.

The Holy Spirit through Simon Peter said this, and I quote directly from THE EXPOSITOR’S STUDY BIBLE:

THE PRECIOUS BLOOD OF CHRIST

“Forasmuch as you know that you were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold (presents the fact that the most precious commodities [silver and gold] could not redeem fallen man), from your vain conversation (vain lifestyle) received by tradition from your fathers (speaks of original sin that is passed on from father to child at conception);
Understanding the Cross of Christ is the Foundation of the great Plan of Redemption, this means that every doctrine must be built upon this Foundation.

Peter, we have the following:

- The Cross of Christ as the Foundation Of the Plan of Redemption.
- The Cross of Christ addressed in “the Precious Blood of Christ.”
- The Resurrection of Christ proclaimed by the fact that God “raised Him up from the dead.”
- The Exaltation of Christ proclaimed by the short phrase, “and gave Him Glory.”

Understanding that the Cross of Christ is the Foundation of the great Plan of Redemption, this means that every doctrine must be built upon this Foundation. If it is built on something else, in some way it will be spurious. In fact, all false doctrine stems from a misunderstanding or the ignoring or outright denial of the Cross of Christ. Once we begin to understand this, then we begin to see how important this Message is, inasmuch as it was formulated in the mind of the Godhead from before the foundation of the world.

As we stated, God, Who is Omniscent, knew before the foundation of the world that He would make man and that man would Fall, and it would be deemed desirable by the Godhead that God would become Man, the Man Christ Jesus, Who would lay aside the expression of His Deity, while never losing possession of His Deity, all for the express purpose of going to the Cross of Calvary.

THE PRIMARY MISSION OF CHRIST

The Apostle John tells us in the First Chapter of his Gospel exactly Who Jesus is and What Jesus has done. I continue to quote from THE EXPOSITOR’S STUDY BIBLE:

“In the beginning (does not infer that Christ as God had a beginning, because as God He had no beginning, but rather refers to the time of Creation [Gen. 1:1]) was the Word (the Holy Spirit through John describes Jesus as

“In Him was Life (presents Jesus, the Eternal Logos, as the first cause).”

‘the Eternal Logos’), and the Word was with God (‘was in relationship with God,’ and expresses the idea of the Trinity), and the Word was God (meaning that He did not cease to be God during the Incarnation; He ‘was’ and ‘is’ God from eternity past to eternity future).

IN THE BEGINNING WITH GOD

“The same was in the beginning with God (this very Person was in eternity with God; there’s only one God, but manifested in three Persons — God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit).

“All things were made by Him (all things came into being through Him; it refers to every item of Creation one by one, rather than all things regarded in totality); and without Him was not any thing made that was made (nothing, not even one single thing, was made independently of His cooperation and volition).

LIFE

“In Him was Life (presents Jesus, the Eternal Logos, as the first cause); and the Life was the Light of men (He Alone is the Life Source of Light; if one doesn’t know Christ, one is in darkness).

“And the Light shines in darkness (speaks of the Incarnation of Christ, and His coming into this world; His ‘Light,’ because it is derived from His Life, drives out ‘darkness’); and the darkness comprehended it not (should have been translated, ‘apprehended it not’; it means that Satan, even though he tried with all his might, could not stop ‘the Light’; today it shines all over the world, and one day soon, there will be nothing left but that ‘Light’)” (Jn. 1:1-5).

THE REASON FOR GOD BECOMING MAN

“That was the True Light (there are many false lights; Jesus is the only True Light), which lights every man who comes into the world (if man is to find Light, it will be only in Christ, and it is for ‘every man’).

He was in the world (the Eternal Logos, the ‘Creator’), and the world was made by Him (as it was originally created before the Fall of Lucifer and the Fall of man), and the world knew Him not (the world cannot know Christ by wisdom, but only by Revelation).

THE WORD MADE FLESH

“And the Word was made flesh (refers to the Incarnation, ‘God becoming man’), and dwelt among us (refers to Jesus, although Perfect, not holding Himself aloft from all others, but rather lived as all men, even a peasant), (and we beheld His Glory, the Glory as of the Only Begotten of the Father,) (speaks of His Deity, although hidden from the eyes of the merely curious; while Christ laid aside the expression of His Deity, He never lost the possession of His Deity) full of Grace and Truth (as ‘flesh,’ proclaimed His Humanity, ‘Grace and Truth’ His Deity)” (Jn. 1:9-10, 14).

THE REASON THE WORD WAS MADE FLESH

“And they which were sent were of the Pharisees (the Holy Spirit is careful to delineate the source of these questions; the opposition now begins).

“And they asked him, and said unto him, Why do you baptize then, if you be not that Christ, nor Elijah, neither that Prophet? (They were indignant that John not only baptized without ecclesiastical authority, but baptized contrary to the practice of the Pharisees. In other words, he

World Evangelism Fellowship was born out of a deep desire of Christians from all denominational backgrounds to reach the world with the Gospel of Jesus Christ. It was realized that when Churches and Ministries band together under the anointing of the Holy Spirit to attack the strongholds of Satan, much can be accomplished.

This is the reason World Evangelism Fellowship was formed – to channel the efforts of Churches and Preachers from all over the United States, Canada, and the world into a unified, proven plan to reach the lost and dying with the Good News of the Gospel.

The call of God to win the lost is clear. World Evangelism Fellowship is answering that call and we would like to extend an invitation to you to join us. This is not a Denomination, and we pray it never will be. It is, however, a fellowship of Ministers and Churches united in their efforts to reach the world for Jesus Christ.

How do I, as an individual, affiliate with World Evangelism Fellowship?

There are several ways to join World Evangelism Fellowship, and the method you choose depends on what God has called you to do.

• Christian Worker • Licensed Minister • Ordained Minister • Church Affiliation

“2. ‘Which takes away the sin of the world:’ Of all the millions of sacrifices that had been offered previously to this, as stated, even from the dawn of time, those sacrifices did not take away even one sin.”

WHO TAKES AWAY THE SIN OF THE WORLD

“John sees Jesus coming unto him (is, no doubt, after the baptism of Jesus, and the temptation in the wilderness), and said, Behold the Lamb of God (proclaims Jesus as the Sacrifice for sin, in fact, the Sin-Offering, Whom all the multiple millions of offered lambs had represented), which takes away the sin of the world (animal blood could only cover sin, it could not take it away; but Jesus offering Himself as the Perfect Sacrifice took away the sin of the world; He not only cleansed acts of sin, but, as well, addressed the root cause [Col. 2:14-15])” (Jn. 1:24-29).

THREE THINGS HERE SAID

When John introduced Jesus, he said three things of Him that had never been said about another human being. They are:

1. “The Lamb of God:” Why did the Holy Spirit through John refer to Christ as “the Lamb of God?” He did so simply because of all the multiple millions of lambs that had been offered in sacrifices before now, even from the dawn of time, which was meant to symbolize the coming Redeemer. He would be the “Lamb of God” Who would go to the Cross in order to redeem the fallen sons of Adam’s lost race.

2. “Which takes away the sin of the world:” Of all the millions of sacrifices that had been offered previously to this, as stated, even from the dawn of time, those sacrifices did not take away even one sin. The best that animal blood could do was to cover the sin, thereby serving as a stopgap measure until Christ would come. What He did on Calvary’s Cross literally took away the sin of the world, at least for all who believe (Jn. 3:16). Truly, every person who is Born-Again, their sins have been taken away. David had prophesied nearly a thousand years earlier:

   “As far as the east is from the west, so far has He removed our transgressions from us. (This is equivalent to ‘blotting out our sins’ [Acts 3:19; Isa. 43:25; 44:22]. It is impossible to bring the east and the west together; so it is impossible to bring the forgiven sinner and his forgiven sins together. This Divine fact gives to those who believe it a peace which nothing can destroy)” (Ps. 103:12).

3. “Sin:” is used in the singular meaning, not only were all sins atoned but, as well, the root cause of sin was addressed.

“Preach the Word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and Doctrine. For the time will come when they will not endure sound Doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; And they shall turn away their ears from the Truth, and shall be turned unto fables. But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an Evangelist, make full proof of your Ministry” (II Tim. 4:2-5).

THE OLD GOSPEL TRUTHS!

Our modern culture is replete with the notion, “out with the old, in with the new!” We are obsessed with the latest fad, gossip, idea, or creature comfort. We are quickly bored, aggravated, and unsatisfied with anything last season, much less anything from centuries past. We are overly entertained and disastrously unfocused as a society. And, unfortunately, we have developed a “spiritual ADHD” (Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder) as well! Because we have listened to the siren call of changing tides and because false teachers/preachers have promised us better lands and shores, we have allowed a shift in the spirituality of our churches. Many among us have been pulled out to sea, away from the old Gospel Truths, just as the Word of God predicted!

DECEPTION

The Bible says that “… the serpent was more subtle than any beast of the field . . .” (Gen 3:1). Satan used the creature with the most intelligence to deceive Eve in the Garden, and he is using highly intelligent social-engineering to deceive men now! Practically no one backslides overnight, neither in his doctrinal belief nor his morality. The Evil One knows this, and he also knows that neither will the Church Body as a whole become apostate in an instant. So, he has crafted a slowly progressing deception that has actually been fermenting for many centuries. None of it has seemed frightening or abrupt, and every slight veer from the Truth always sounded perfectly acceptable to the undiscerning ear. Yes indeed, this plan has the marks of Satan; remember, he does not come bearing horns and a pitchfork! As you read the chart found later in this article, you will be able to more clearly see how his deception has unfolded.

THE WRONG SPIRITUAL RECIPE

It has been like gradually, over time, changing a recipe. The change in taste is hardly recognizable at each small alteration, but after many such adjustments, the new no longer tastes anything like the original. And, unless you’ve tasted the original, you cannot know the new one is different. The same is true Spiritually. Unless you’ve known the True, original Gospel, you will unwittingly eat of the wrong spiritual “recipe” because, sadly, most Christians do not read the original recipe – the Word of God – for themselves. They leave that work to church leaders whom they assume to be trustworthy when, in fact, they often are not! We at this Ministry constantly encourage listeners not to simply take our word for anything, but rather to study the Bible for yourselves. You will notice that proponents of the new false teachings tend to steer people toward practically every book other than the Bible including perverted translations of it, such as The Message. Oh, how much we need more preachers of the original/the Cross, so that the people may, once again, “...taste and see that the LORD is Good...” (Ps. 34:8), and that His timeless Truth is the sweetest thing any of us can ever know!

THE NEW SPIRITUALITY

This chart was taken from an excellent article by Berit Kjos entitled “From Truth to a New Spirituality.” Tamara Hartzell compiled this excellent chart that is used in the article. It can be found at this web address: http://www.crossroad.to/charts/new-spirituality.htm. I would like to thank both of these ladies for allowing me to use this chart in my article. Let it help you see the spiritual digression that has taken place from Biblical spirituality to New Age spirituality right within our midst!

Note: The occult quotes listed under Transition and New Spirituality were dictated by seducing spirits channeled by influential occultists such as Alice Bailey (spirit guide Djwhal Khul) and Neale Donald Walsch (a counterfeit “God”). These revealing messages were compiled by our friend and fellow-researcher Tamara Hartzell and explained in her insightful report: “Are you ‘Being led away with Error of the Wicked’ to the New Age Ark of Oneness?” The endnotes are numbered as they appear in her report.

The great preacher, C.H. Spurgeon, once wrote, “If God does not save men by Truth, he certainly will not save them by lies. And if the old Gospel is not competent to work a revival, then we will do without the revival.” Any revival without Truth is really no revival at all, and it has no power to save! Likewise, this new spirituality, this new gospel, is really no Gospel at all (Gal 1:7), and it has no power to save! All who believe and trust in it will eventually perish in their deception. Church, you must “... ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and you shall find rest for your souls ...” (Jer. 6:16).
Genesis 1:1-2 – “In the beginning (refers to the beginning of creation, or at least the creation as it refers to this universe; God, unformed, unmade, uncreated, had no beginning; He always was, always is, and always shall be) God (the phrase, ‘In the beginning God,’ explains the first cause of all things as it regards creation) created the heaven and the Earth (could be translated ‘the heavens and the Earth’ because God created the entirety of the universe).

“And the Earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep (God did not originally create the Earth without form and void; it became this way after a cataclysmic happening; this happening was the revolt of Lucifer against God, which took place sometime in the dateless past). And the Spirit of God (Holy Spirit) Moved upon the face of the waters (the Moving of the Holy Spirit signified and signifies the beginning of life).”

It has been said that “The Moving of the Holy Spirit is the first sign of life.” Everything as it regards our Born-Again experience is evidence of that great truth.

We were all born into sin and darkness, but the Holy Spirit Moved and brought the Light of Jesus Christ into our lives.

THE CREATION STORY

Genesis 1:1-2 gives to us much more information than just the Creation of the world, but, as well, we see how the Holy Spirit functions in the world, the church, and in the lives of each Believer, if they truly allow Him to have His Way.

OPERATION

Genesis 1:2, “The Earth was without form and void of life.” But, then the Text says, “The Spirit of God Moved.” When the Spirit Moved, that which was of no form and void of life immediately changed. Order came out of chaos, light out of darkness. The Holy Spirit in His Operation brought change. This is what the Holy Spirit desires in our churches and our lives. He wants to Operate, He wants to Move, He wants to bring Life, Faith, Power, and Victory.

If the Holy Spirit is not allowed to have His Way in our churches, then there is no reason to have church, for His Operation changes lives, heals the sick, mends the brokenhearted, and satisfies the man’s heart.

ILLUMINATION

Genesis 1:3 says, “And God said, Let there be light: and there was light.” It is the job of the Holy Spirit to bring illumination to our lives. He illuminates Truth, He gives Guidance, He shows us the right path by illuminating Jesus Christ. That’s His Job to shine the Light of Truth upon Christ.

SEPARATION

Genesis 1:4 says, “God divided the light from darkness.” It is the function of the Holy Spirit to bring about separation from the world and from self.

It is a complete and total way of life. Darkness speaks of sin and error, light speaks of Righteousness and Truth Who is Jesus Christ. We are to be separated unto Him and Him Alone.

CREATION

Genesis 1:21 tells us that God, through the Holy Spirit, created the animal kingdom. The Holy Spirit creates a new life in us. He creates us from death and a new man is brought forth. He creates something out of nothing; He creates order out of chaos, life out of death, prosperity out of poverty. The Holy Spirit creates.

MULTIPLICATION

Genesis 1:28 says of Earth's first inhabitants, “And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful and multiply.” He gives us more; He multiplies to us more than we could ever hope for: Justification, Sanctification, Blessings from above. He multiplies the bread and fish to feed a multitude. When the Disciples had fished all night and caught nothing, He said, “Launch out into the deep . . . for a draught (catch).” Where there had been no fish, He multiplied the catch that it not only filled up his boat but James’ and John’s boat also. The Holy Spirit wants to multiply in our lives that which we need. The Holy Spirit Moved; let Him Move in you and through you. Let Him Move in our churches as days of old. Let Him Operate, let Him illuminate, let Him separate, let Him create, and let Him multiply your loaves and fishes.

I GET SO BLESSED FROM YOUR PROGRAMS

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I just want you to know how happy I am that I just found you on the DISH Network. I was watching on my computer, when I heard Brother Jimmy say that you were now on DISH. Praise God for this! I will keep you on day and night because I want the Word and singing going through my whole house. I love the preaching and the singing so much, and I get so blessed from your programs.

Thank you for loving the Lord and making these wonderful programs available so people like me can have praise and worship going in the home at all times.

SONLIFE BROADCASTING NETWORK

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I have just discovered SonLife Broadcasting Network this week on my DirecTV®. Just let me say I did not know how hungry and thirsty I really was for your kind of Christian TV. I grew up watching you on TV. Not by choice in the beginning. My daddy watched you every Sunday morning. It seemed every Sunday you gave him something to say to me. I wanted to be a Country Music singer/songwriter. In April 1984, I gave my heart to Jesus in a revival at my local church. I received the Baptism with the Holy Ghost the same night. To say the least, my future dreams changed. I married in September of 1984, and now my husband and I watch you every Sunday.

Thank you for all that you do for trying to reach sinners, and helping Christians as well. I love the Classics! No other Christian TV network seems to care as much as you about reaching the lost at such a late hour. May God bless you!

MY RELATIONSHIP WITH GOD IS DEEPENING

Dear Sister Frances,

I have listened to Jimmy Swaggart Ministries via radio for quite some time, but I was very excited about you guys being on DirecTV®. The channel is very seldom changed to anything else. When I turned on my TV a few days ago, one of your Services was being broadcasted. Someone was speaking in Tongues and the message was interpreted. That is something I don’t think I’ve ever heard on TV before. How refreshing to hear this compared to what is usually heard on Christian TV. I am a Pastor’s daughter, and have been Saved for many years and active in the Work of the Lord. However, I am finding that my relationship with God is deepening since listening to your broadcasts and reading The Expositor’s Study Bible. I have watched many of your Services and have been blessed, most of the time having “church” in my own living room. This has been so helpful to me and has especially helped me through some trials I am now experiencing.

Thank you all so much for your dedication to the Work of the Lord and your compassion for the lost! Thank you also for keeping us informed on things we as Christians should be aware of!

BELIEVE WHAT JESUS CHRIST HAS DONE AT THE CROSS AND WHO HE IS, WOW!

Brother Swaggart and Family,

May God bless you all. I love the great work that you do through God! I wake up to your program, listen to it all day, and go to bed listening to you. I don’t even watch TV, couldn’t tell you what’s even going on with the local news. I’ve always loved God, but never understood a lot of things until listening to your teaching. Now that I understand to have Faith in the Cross and believe what Jesus Christ has done at the Cross and Who He is, WOW! What a huge difference in my new walk, I want to thank you!

“LIVING WATERS”, WITH GABRIEL IS SUCH A BLESSING AND SO ANOINTED

Dear Brother Swaggart,

We just discovered SonLife Broadcasting Network (SBN) last week, and I absolutely love it. The new music concept, “Living Waters”, with Gabriel is such a blessing and so anointed.

Thank you so much for caring enough to share God’s Word, and I know that lives are being affected.

YOUR COMMITMENT TO OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST AND THE MESSAGE OF THE CROSS

Dear Brother Swaggart,

Thank you for your faithfulness, obedience, and service to our great God. Without each of you and your work for the Lord, I would not have the privilege of seeing and hearing you all each week via the Internet. There is nothing more precious to me than each one of you at Jimmy Swaggart Ministries and Family Worship Center.

Thank you for the many blessings that I have experienced in my life because of your commitment to our Lord Jesus Christ and the Message of the Cross.

THE WONDERFUL MUSIC AND PREACHING

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I just want to say thank you for all that you and your family are doing to get the Word of God out to all the world. I love listening to your radio station and the wonderful music and preaching. I am especially grateful for your station because it has helped my husband and me to draw closer to the Lord in every way. The other night we heard a brother giving his testimony about quitting smoking, and it inspired my husband to quit!

Thank you, thank you, thank you!

THE GOD-GIVEN MESSAGE AND THE CROSS IS THE ANSWER

Dear Brother Swaggart,

This has been our means of church for quite some time! We are sad at what is going on in the church world today, and we believe that Jimmy Swaggart Ministries (JSM) has the God-given message and the Cross is the answer. We look forward to even being more a part of JSM, and have been for three plus years and way back.

Thank you, thank you, thank you. We love you all.

THANK YOU SO MUCH FOR WARNING YOUR READERS ABOUT THE MESSAGE BIBLE

Dear Sister Swaggart,

I am writing to thank you and to say how I have been blessed by your expose’ on the King James Version of the Bible versus The Message Bible. I couldn’t believe my eyes when reading your comparison. I noticed from your recent study on Hosea that The Message Bible was careful not to refer to the “spirit of whoredoms.” Apparently the author doesn’t want Believers to know that they have authority over spirits of darkness in the mighty Name of Jesus Christ.

Once again thank you so much for warning your readers about The Message Bible. I am grateful for you and Brother Swaggart and your conviction to preach the Message of the Cross. People really need to know the difference with translations that confuse the Plan of Salvation. God bless you.

I HAVE READ THE EXPOsITOR’S STUDY BIBLE AND IT’S INCREDIBLE

Dear Brother Swaggart,

You have been quite a blessing to me over the years. I have read The Expositor’s Study Bible and it’s incredible. In fact, because I read it so much the Lord has to get on me to put it down so I can pray and do other things! He has to do the same thing with SonLife Broadcasting Network (ha ha). You will be pleased to know that the Message of the Cross has broken the gambling habit in my life. I am now studying to be a Minister. You have no idea how this has helped me out, and I fully intend to spread the Message to the homeless and the addicts that I deal with.

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I am glad that you have expanded to Dish Network. My only problem is now I have trouble turning you off and getting to my real job. God bless all involved in your Ministry, and I pray that God will surround you with His Blessings and Protection for the stand you so boldly take in this last day and time. The Truth is much needed!

I’M READING THE BIBLE ALL THE TIME

Dear Frances and Friends,

Thank God for The Expositor’s Study Bible. I received mine a couple of months ago, and I’m reading the Bible all the time. I used to get lost, and I wouldn’t be able to read a whole Book in the Bible because it would be hard for me to understand and I found it kind of boring. But, with The Expositor’s Study Bible it comes alive and is real! I am now reading it all the time and can’t put it down! I love it!

THE EXPOsITOR’S WORD FOR EVERY DAY, A DAILY DEVOTIONAL

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I am writing to let you know how blessed I am to have the The Expositor’s Word for Every Day, A Daily Devotional. When I first received it I thought it was too deep for me. Later on I picked it up again, and the Holy Spirit opened up my understanding, plus I study each Scripture mentioned in the Devotional. It is deepening my relationship with God. Thank you Pastor Swaggart for your Ministry and this Devotional.

were cursed by God for some infraction. The perfect family was made up of many sons and a few daughters to boot. Elisha went to the woman (incidentally, we are never told her name) and promised her that within a year she would have a son. Immediately the woman responded, “Don’t lie to me.” This promise was more than she could have ever hoped for. It was evident that her heart longed for a child and that disappointment over being childless seemed a cruel burden to bear. The hope of having this “curse” lifted from her life seemed too good to be true. Our God knows what delights the hearts of His People. He knows what all people desire and need. Elisha stood as the mouthpiece of God. In essence, when Elisha promised her a child it was God’s Word. There are promises that await all of us, that seem, at times, too good to be true. We dare not believe them because they are so great and treasured. But sure enough, true to His Word, the couple was favoured by God with a healthy baby boy within a year. The Promise came to pass.

THE TEST

It seems that with every Promise comes a test. That test may vary in time or intensity, but for reasons unseen to us, God often tests the recipients of Promise. In this case, the boy grew, and one day, as a very young lad, went out with his father into the fields. Perhaps it was the sun, we are not told for sure, but, for whatever cause the lad grew sick and faint. He was taken to his mother who held him in her arms. Then he died. What does a Believer do when a Promise from God dies? The breath left the boy, the life left the boy, even as the mother held him. What do you do with a dead Promise? This woman laid the boy down on the bed of Elisha and without explaining her actions told her husband that she needed to find Elisha. When asked why, all she would say is, “It is well.” If God gives a Promise that the Devil tries to take away, don’t be in a hurry to bury that Promise. If it came from God, Faith may be able to see life return. What God gives He doesn’t intend for Satan to steal. So, look at that situation, that unfruitful ministry, that relationship problem, that financial difficulty and say, “It is well!” If God has given you a Promise don’t be quick to release it to the enemy. Encourage yourself in the Lord and say, “It is well!”

THE RESTORATION

The woman rode on a donkey many long hard miles that day. When she finally did find Elisha and was asked, her response to concerns about her family were, “It is well!” She ultimately explained the situation to Elisha who traveled to her home and miraculously raised the young child from the dead. Her Faith wouldn’t let go of the Promise, even in the face of the fact of death. God is greater than the facts! He’s bigger than the impossibility of your situation! He didn’t give you that Promise just to make you watch it die. Believe the Lord! Turn to Him and with all your heart say, “It is well!” Even as the Shunammite woman of old, you too could see a miracle if you won’t quickly give in or give out! With Jesus on our side, “It is well!”

Il Kings 13:17 – “And he said, Open the window eastward (why eastward? The sun rose in the east; therefore, the Lord, through Elisha and this symbolism, was telling the king of Israel that if true Repentance would be forthcoming, Israel’s sun would not be setting, but rather rising). And he opened it (thus far, the king operates in faith). Then Elisha said, Shoot. And he shot. And he said, The arrow of the LORD’s deliverance, and the arrow of deliverance from Syria: for you shall smite the Syrians in Aphek, till you have consumed them (what a promise!).”

Syria had made several strikes against Israel, and even at the time of this Text is pressing in one more time. Joash, who was king of Israel, the Northern Kingdom (for the Nation of Israel is divided) not knowing what to do seeks out the Lord’s Prophet, Elisha. First of all, this was not something that was usually done by kings, for kings did not wait upon the Prophet. It was usually reversed; the Prophet would wait upon the king. But because of the decline in health of the Prophet of God, Joash had no other choice, he had to come to where Elisha was.

HIS PEOPLE

Elisha, as other Prophets before him, was called to the Northern Kingdom, Israel. These people had rebelled against God time and time again, but they were still referred to by God as “His People.” That should give us hope, for it does not matter how many times we might turn our backs on God, still, God does not turn His Back on us. No matter how many times we go following after strange gods, God refuses to leave us. The Lord now, as He did then, will send a man or woman, armed with a Message, which will always be to turn away from false gods, and come back to the Cross of Jesus Christ.

Elisha was, without a doubt, one of the greatest men of God to have ever lived. He asked for a double portion of Elijah’s anointing, and God granted it to him. Just a side note, Elisha performed exactly double of the amount of miracles that Elijah performed, twelve miracles to six miracles. Elijah was a type of the Law, whereas Elisha was a type of Grace, which is why he performed twice the amount of miracles as did Elijah. “Moreover the Law entered, that the offence might abound (the Law of Moses, that the offence might be identified). But where sin abounded, Grace did much more abound (where sin increased, Grace super-abounded, and then some more on top of that)” (Rom. 5:20). Outside of Christ Himself, Elisha performed more miracles, and some of the most astounding miracles at that, than any other person recorded in the Bible. Here, in this text Elisha was 80 years of age, with just a few more breaths left in his mortal body.

JOASH KNEW THE WORTH OF ELISHA, BUT WOULD NOT SERVE HIS GOD

With Syria pressing towards Israel, Joash, who did not worship the God of Elisha, knew the worth of this great man, and came to where the ailing Prophet was. But even though he understood the worth of Elisha, not only to him, but also to the Nation of Israel, he still would not serve the God of Elisha. Now, why would this be? I believe that if Joash would have forsaken the idols that he had help establish, and take down the ones that were there before him, and turn to the Lord, that he would have lost some friends in the process, but he would have had the Blessings of God.

SIN IS PLEASURABLE FOR A SEASON

How different is it today? Many know that the God is the One True God, and they understand the worth of the true Child of God, but they simply refuse to serve God. They believe that they would miss out on what the world has to offer, when in actuality, they would gain so much more than they would stand to lose. How many times have we heard young people say that if they serve the Lord, then they would miss out on the fun that life would bring? The fun that they refer to could be drinking, smoking, premarital sex, and so forth and so on. Those things might be pleasurable, for the Bible tells us in Hebrew 11:25 that sin is pleasurable. But, before we know it, it has us completely hooked, with no way of escaping its destructive tentacles on our own accord. The only answer for the sin of this world is the Cross of Christ. As well, the only answer for our Youth is the Cross of Christ. You might read this article every month, and you may wonder why I do not prescribe a different answer that fits our young people “better” than the Cross. Simply put, there is no answer that is a “better” fit than the Cross of Christ, yes, even for our Young People! The Cross of Christ is not just one answer out of many, but it is THE ONLY ANSWER!

“THE ARROW OF THE LORD’S DELIVERANCE”

When pressed, Joash hears from the ailing Prophet, who gives him certain instructions given to him by the Holy Spirit. These instructions were that Joash would take a bow and arrows, which speaks of war, open his window eastward, which speaks of the sun rising and not setting, and place the arrows in his hand, with the Prophet’s hand placed on top of the king’s hand, and shoot the arrow.

Now, what does all of this mean and how does all of this apply to us? First, by Joash doing what Elisha instructed him in regards to the taking of the bow and arrows, this was signifying war. This life is a life of war. Paul tells us in I Timothy 6:12, “Fight the good fight of Faith,” which in actuality means, “war a good warfare.” This is the only war we are told to engage in, and it means to ever keep our Faith anchored in the Cross of Christ. With the hands of Elisha on top of the hands of Joash, it tells us that our Victory does not come from us, but rather comes from the Grace of God, which comes to us on the basis of the Cross of Christ.

Secondly, he was told to open the window eastward, which means this: the east was meant to portray the rising of the sun. If we would turn away from the false gods and false ways, the sun would be rising and not setting. Our decisions that we make now will chart the course for the rest of our lives, and we can either experience the sun rising, which speaks of victory, or we can experience our sun setting, which speaks of failure.

BLESSED ASSURANCE

What did God supply to Abraham as an assurance that he would inherit the land? Faithful Abraham asked God, “Whereby shall I know that I shall inherit it?” God would take him to the sacrifice. I say the sacrifice because the Promise God would make to Abraham could only be assured by the Cross. The Cross is the “only” means that we can receive anything from God. The very word Covenant means “a cut” indicating sacrifice. God instructs Abraham to take certain animals and to cut them in half and lay them apart. God would then cause a deep sleep to fall upon Abraham and God would tell Abraham the things that would happen to his seed and the delay for them to inherit the land.

Genesis 15:13-21 – “And He (the Lord) said unto Abram, Know of a surety that your seed shall be a stranger in a land that is not theirs, and shall serve them; and they shall afflict them four hundred years (the four hundred years pertain to the time from the weaning of Isaac to the deliverance of the Children of Israel from Egyptian bondage; the time frame covered the time spent both in Canaan, before it belonged to them, and Egypt, as well);

“And also that nation, whom they shall serve, will I judge (Egypt): and afterward shall they come out with great substance (much gold and silver, etc., given to them by the Egyptians when they left [Ex. 11:1-3]).”

God, in His Infinite Mercy, would forestall His Judgments against the nations that possessed the Land He promised to Abraham. God’s Mercy is Patient and He is Longsuffering not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to Repentance. In His Foreknowledge, God knew that the Amorites would not repent, but He still gave them many years of opportunity.

MODERN DILEMMA

Is it any different today? The world court of public opinion holds Israel as interlopers, illegal occupants, and oppressors in the land God promised them. The world is vastly moving towards isolating Israel by forcing her to part her land to a people who have no history. The so-called modern Palestinian people have no historical language of their own. They have no currency to call their own. They are not mentioned as a unique people in one history book. For example, on March 31, 1977, the Dutch newspaper Trouw published an interview with Palestine Liberation Organization executive committee member, Zahir Muhsein. Here’s what he said,

“The Palestinian people do not exist. The creation of a Palestinian state is only a means for continuing our struggle against the state of Israel for our Arab unity. In reality today there is no difference between Jordanians, Palestinians, Syrians and Lebanese. Only for political and tactical reasons do we speak today about the existence of a Palestinian people, since Arab national interests demand that we posit the existence of a distinct ‘Palestinian people’ to oppose Zionism.

“For tactical reasons, Jordan, which is a sovereign state with defined borders, cannot raise claims to Haifa and Jaffa, while as a Palestinian, I can undoubtedly demand Haifa, Jaffa, Beer-Sheva and Jerusalem. However, the moment we reclaim our right to all of Palestine, we will not wait even a minute to unite Palestine and Jordan.”

THE COVENANT

In the meantime, the custom of the covenant (B’rith) was understood to be two parties entering into an agreement and sealing the agreement through a sacrifice. The animals were cut in half with their blood spilling out on the ground. The pieces of the severed animal bodies were then laid apart on either side of the blood soaked ground. The parties in covenant then walked between the sacrificed animals on the blood; signifying that if one breaks the oath the same judgment that the animals’ experienced would happen to them. The most fascinating aspect of God’s Covenant to Abraham was that God walked through the animals while Abraham was asleep, “. . . behold a smoking furnace, and a burning lamp that passed between those pieces.” The burning lamp represented the Judgment of God. God then makes another Covenant with Abraham that promises the land will also go to Abraham’s seed for an inheritance.

COVENANT BORDERS

There is, no doubt, from God’s Word that God set the borders (Gevulot Ha-aretz) of the land he promised to Abraham and his seed, “. . . from the river of Egypt unto the great river, the River Euphrates.” The Bible gives account of the borders in several places: Genesis 15-18-21; Exodus 23:31; Numbers 34:1-15; and, Ezekiel 47:13-20, to name a few. For us to better appreciate the vast geography involved with the land inheritance we must look at the boundaries a little closer.

Early Jewish tradition, expressed in the commentaries of Rashi and Yehuda Halevi, coupled with the Aramaic Targums (Jewish commentaries), understood the “Brook of Egypt” (Nachal Mitzrayim), as mentioned in Numbers, Deuteronomy, and Ezekiel as the Nile River in Egypt. Based on this information the expanse of the land promised to Abraham extended from the Nile River in Egypt to the Euphrates River in Iraq. God would further mention to Abraham the nations of peoples that possessed the land, “The Kenites, and the Kenizzites, and the Kadmonites, and Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Rephaims, and the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Gergashites, and the Jebusites.” In modern geographical terms Abraham and his seed would inherit part of Egypt (the Sinai), Israel, Palestine, Jordan, Lebanon, Syria, and a large portion of Iraq, up to the River Euphrates.

MODERN BORDERS

Prior to World War I all of these nations were part of the Islamic Ottoman Empire. After the war the land mass was taken from the Ottoman’s who threw their lot in with Germany and the axis, and then divided between France and England in what was known as the Sykes-Picot agreement.

It was agreed that France was to exercise direct control over Cilicia, the coastal strip of Syria, Lebanon, and the greater part of Galilee, up to the line stretching from north of Acre to the northwest corner of Lake Kinneret (Sea of Galilee), referred to as the “blue zone.” East of that zone, in the Syrian hinterland, an Arab state was to be created under French protection (Area “A”). Britain was to exercise control over southern Mesopotamia (the “red zone”), the territory around the Acre-Haifa bay in the Mediterranean, with rights to build a railway from there to Baghdad. The territory east of the Jordan River and the Negev, south of the line stretching from Gaza to the Dead Sea, was allocated to an Arab state under British protection (Area “B”). South of France’s “blue zone,” in the area covering the Sanjak of Jerusalem, and extending southwards toward the line running approximately from Gaza to the Dead Sea, was to be a “brown zone” under international administration. (*Jewish Virtual Library)

CHRIST OUR COVENANT

The unique Covenant God made was not so much “with” Abraham and his seed but “to” Abraham and his seed. Abraham did not walk through the sacrificed animals. God alone swore unto Himself that He would give an inheritance to Abraham. Throughout the history of the Bible God would repeat himself through various writers that He would remember His Covenant with Abraham and, thereby, extend Mercy to his seed.

Jesus Christ would likewise fulfill a unique Covenant by representing both God and man, in the New Covenant (II Cor. 5:19). What responsibility did Abraham and his seed have to display to gain the benefits of the Covenant promises God made to them? To be continued next month.

II Samuel 1:20 – “Tell it not in Gath, publish it not in the streets of Askelon; lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice, lest the daughters of the uncircumcised triumph.”

These were the words of David, which he composed as a song of lament known in Jewish History as, “The Song Of The Bow”. This lament was written on the occasion of David being told of the death of King Saul, of Saul’s son Jonathan, and of the armies of Israel who had been slain on the mountains of Gilboa in a great climactic battle against the Philistine army.

The Bible tells us that God described King David as “. . . a man after His Own Heart . . .” and that “the LORD hath commanded him (David) to be Captain over His People . . .” (I Sam. 13:14 ). I believe we can find great insight into why God chose David and rejected Saul when we see how David reacted to the news of the death of his enemy. I further believe that this is a prophecy of the condition of the “church” and its “leadership” in the last days prior to the second coming of the Lord. We will take our time in this article and examine the profound revelation given to us by God as to what the heart of true Christ centered leadership is to be in this final hour as we focus this and next month on “The Song Of The Bow”.

THE ANOINTING

The life of King David is one of an extraordinary and dramatic example of how God deals with the lives of His anointed and chosen servants. David’s life was marked by both feats of magnificent triumph and yet, also great personal failure. David was thrust to national prominence in Israel on that heroic day when he went down into the Valley of Elah and destroyed the Philistine champion (Goliath of Gath) when David was just a boy of 17. This event would forever alter the course of his life and bring David into the court of King Saul where he would be taken from his father Jesse’s house and be appointed to be a Captain over the armies of Israel at the command of Saul.

The great Prophet Samuel at the direction of God had been sent to the House of Jesse the Beth-lehemite in order to anoint one of Jesse’s sons to be the future King of Israel. David was just a simple shepherd boy. The youngest and eighth of Jesse’s sons he was not recognized as anything special by his father or his elder brothers yet God saw in David not a shepherd boy but a King.

God would have Samuel anoint David in the midst of his brethren with a full horn of oil and in so doing proclaim over David’s life that it would be David and not his brothers whom God had selected to be the future King of Israel.

The anointing of God upon an individual’s life begins a process that (though not understood by many) brings with it great hardship and trial. Such was the case with David.

How could a young boy such as David ever comprehend what the anointing on his life would cost him? The life of Saul represents that which man chooses and the life of David represents that which God chooses. Saul represents the flesh while David represents the Move of the Holy Spirit . . . more on this later.

David’s ascent to the throne was not a bed of roses. It was the anointing on David’s life that set in motion a series of events that would cause King Saul to grow increasingly jealous of David. God was with David and prospered whatever he set his hand to do. Saul would grow more and more paranoid of the favor that was on David’s life as he knew in his heart of hearts that God had left him and His presence was now resting solely upon David. Saul became a tormented soul; for while Saul had the loyalty of Israel as their King it was David who had the hearts of the people.

THE WILDERNESS OF PREPARATION

Over the course of time, King Saul would grow to resent David’s very presence. Driven by a demonic hatred, Saul would seek to destroy David’s life, for in his eyes, David was an ever-present threat to his power and the legacy of his throne. Determined to eliminate David, Saul would plot to kill him, but David being warned by Jonathan (the King’s son) would flee for his life into the wilderness of Israel.

David would find himself in the deserts of Israel, a man without a home driven into exile by a King whom he had fought for and to whom he had given his allegiance to. This is where, we as believers struggle to understand the way of God when it comes to the preparation of His Servants for Service in the Kingdom of the Lord. What had David done to deserve such treatment? Why did God allow this to come upon His anointed? Surely the Lord could have defended David by striking down King Saul. Why allow David to suffer such humiliation and isolation?

As we study the Scripture we will see that every great Servant of the Lord at one time or another would first pass through a wilderness before coming to their ultimate calling and destiny in God. Moses would spend 40 years in the wilderness being prepared by God to become the deliverer of His People. The great Apostle Paul would spend three years in Arabia and Damascus before going to Jerusalem to confer with the Apostle Peter and then another 14 years before returning to Jerusalem to communicate the Gospel which had been revealed to him. John the Baptist was “in the wilderness until the time of his shewing forth unto Israel.” Even the Lord Jesus himself was driven by God into the wilderness to be tested, tried, and tempted of the Devil; a wilderness experience from which He would emerge “... in the Power of the Spirit ...” (Lk. 4:14) and so it would be with David. King Saul would relentlessly pursue David over the course of the next 10 years yet at every turn God was with David protecting him and forging within the heart of David life lessons that would ultimately thoroughly furnish and prepare him to assume his rightful place upon the throne of Israel. The wilderness is where we must go, for it is there that alone with our self and alone with God, we come to depend upon His Strength and His Strength alone to bring us to that place of His Promise fulfilled in our lives.

“THE SONG OF THE BOW” PART TWO

The account of the death of King Saul and how David reacted to it is not only instructive to us on a personal level, but is also a prophecy of the type of leadership that God will bring forth in this final hour. In Part Two of this article we will examine these issues further and prayerfully come to understand that a transition no less dramatic than the decline of a Saul type ministry and the ascent of a Spirit-filled David like ministry has indeed already begun.

SONLIFE BROADCASTING NETWORK

SonLife Broadcasting has been raised up at this hour to bring forth a Message of Mercy and Grace through the preaching of the Cross of Jesus Christ and Him Crucified. In a world where at every turn people tear one another down, this Ministry stands as an oasis of hope to a lost and dying world. Your support at this time is more vital than ever before. “Truly the harvest is great but the laborers are few. Pray ye therefore the Lord of the Harvest that He will send forth laborers into His fields.”

God Bless you and keep looking up,

LOOK WHAT THE LORD HAS WROUGHT . . .

As you hold this Magazine in your hands, we are now reaching upwards of 50,000,000 households in the USA alone. We are also reaching some 10,600,000 in the United Kingdom, plus about 1,000,000 households in Europe.

By the time you read this, we should be airing in Botswana, Namibia, Swaziland, and Zimbabwe, South Africa.

As well, we are airing in several countries in Central and South America, with all programming in those areas translated into Spanish.

THE WORLD

Actually, before very long we will probably be translating not only into Spanish, but, as well, into Portuguese (for Brazil and Portugal), and into Russian. We believe our Commission from the Lord is the entirety of the “world.” Of course, as we all know, it is not easy at all to get into some countries, which are Muslim, etc. But, we are to reach every country and every city that we can, in other words, every home.

We believe that the “Message of the Cross” is what the Holy Spirit is presently saying to the modern Church. And as it regards what the Lord has called us to do, and as Paul said, “We must not be disobedient to the Heavenly Vision.”

ATTENTION CANADA

The Glorystar Satellite system carries the SONLIFE BROADCASTING NETWORK. Plus, it has all type of other channels, news, sports, etc., that would be of interest to anyone.

Anyone in Canada who would so desire, can pull-down this Satellite system for a one-time fee. I don’t know exactly what that fee is, possibly from $100 to $300; however, as stated, it’s only a one-time fee, and there are no more charges.

If you are interested, as many Canadians are already doing, please call 866-419-5004 or go on-line to http://sonlife.glorystar.tv. As well, if you so desire, you can keep what you already have, such as Cable or other television service providers.

As it regards Christian programming here in the States, you can bring in, if you so desire, Sky Angel. It, as well, carries a whole bevy of channels, plus the SONLIFE BROADCASTING NETWORK. The difference in this and Glorystar, is there is a small monthly charge for Sky Angel.

FAMILY WORSHIP CENTER MEDIA CHURCH

Hundreds and hundreds of people all over the world are joining the FAMILY WORSHIP CENTER MEDIA CHURCH. And, to say the least, we are very glad to have you. This means that you worship with us every Service, or as you can.

To join the Media Church, which means that you are then a member of FAMILY WORSHIP CENTER, there are no strings attached. The only requirement is that you be Born-Again.

As it regards financial support, we would only ask that you support that which feeds you. We are very grateful for the support given us by so many of the FAMILY WORSHIP CENTER MEDIA CHURCH MEMBERS. We consider you to be an integral part of our efforts for the Cause of Christ. And, to be sure, as you worship with us, in a sense we feel your presence. We pledge to you that we will be faithful to the Gospel, in other words, to give you “thus saith the Lord.”
HOW DOES ONE JOIN?

All you have to do is call the office and tell the operator that you want to be a member of the FAMILY WORSHIP CENTER MEDIA CHURCH. They will take down your name and address, and a couple of weeks later, Frances, Donnie, or Gabriel will read your first name over the air and the State/Province in which you reside.

We have stopped reading your full name and the city, in order to protect the privacy of all of our Media Members. That’s the reason we are now doing it as we are.

A WITNESS

I’m going to ask every one of you, please, who receive the SONLIFE BROADCASTING NETWORK, whether Radio or Television, to tell others about the programming. I believe it will be and is one of the greatest favors you will have ever done that person.

The material that we’re giving the people through the Media, we think, will help you to grow in Grace and in the Knowledge of the Lord, as never before. In fact, we believe the Message of the Cross is the only manner and the only way that one can really grow in Grace. So, what is coming your way 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, is not spiritual fluff, but rather the solid meat of the Word. And I thank the Lord for the scores of people who are constantly writing or e-mailing us, saying how that they have learned more from the Word of God since listening to the Network, than ever before. There is nothing more special than that. The Word of God is the single most important thing in the world. And, to be sure, as Believers we must do everything within our power to understand it as far as is humanly possible.

And, incidentally, we believe that THE EXPOSITOR’S STUDY BIBLE is the very finest tool that could ever be placed in one’s hands to help you understand the Word to a greater degree. If, in fact, this Bible accomplishes that, then it’s worth all the labor we have put into this effort. And, the good thing about it is, we know beyond the shadow of a doubt that THE EXPOSITOR’S STUDY BIBLE is helping people to understand the Word to a greater degree than ever. I say this because we get your letters, your e-mails, your phone calls, and your Testimonials. And we thank the Lord for each one.

As well, from the depth of my soul, I thank each and every one of you who have helped to make this Ministry possible by your prayerful support and your financial support. Without you we simply could not do what we are doing.

As well, thank the Lord for the multiple thousands of you who understand that the Lord has placed you in a very important position at this particular time. He has called you for such a time as this. Don’t take it lightly! Don’t think little of this of which the Lord is doing! I personally believe that you are personally involved in that which the Lord is doing in these last days. What a privilege! What an honor! How we give the Lord all the praise and all the glory. I personally believe, before this great push by the Holy Spirit is over, that millions of souls are going to find their way into the Kingdom of God. I believe it’s going to be the greatest harvest of souls that the world has ever known. That the Lord allows all of us to be a part of this is exceptional indeed!

Pray for us, again as Paul said, that the Gospel “may have free course.”

In the Master’s Service, yours,

Jimmy Swaggart
The Protection of Your Assets, Your Family, Your Future, and the Work of God

Many people have the mistaken idea that a will is the best legal instrument for the protection and designation of the distribution of their assets. However, by and large, that is incorrect. A will can be contested and is often changed by contentious parties. The very best legal instrument for this purpose is a Living Trust. Call us for further information.

What is a Living Trust?

A Living Trust is a legal document to transfer all of your property, assets, cash, or whatever you desire from your individual name to the name of your Trust.

What are the advantages of a Living Trust over a Will and other legal instruments?

1. A Living Trust is one of the very best ways provided by the United States’ tax laws to save on taxes.
2. You, the principal, have total control over your Living Trust, and you can change it as desired at any time.
3. A Living Trust can be secured regardless of your marital status or age.
4. A Living Trust is the best legal instrument to protect your family, to insure the distribution of your assets according to your desires, and to benefit the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Why not call our Planned Giving Department at (225) 768-3157 and ask for information concerning Living Trusts?
