Jesus never ceased to be righteous; He never ceased to be just.”

JUSTIFIED!

Paul said about Christ:

“And without controversy great is the mystery of Godliness (refers to the Truth of the Cross previously hidden, but now fully revealed): God was manifest in the flesh (refers to the Incarnation of Christ), justified in the Spirit (vindicated, endorsed, proved, and pronounced by the Holy Spirit), seen of Angels (refers to the fact that Angels witnessed every capacity of His Birth, Life, Passion, Resurrection, and Ascension), Preached unto the Gentiles (would have been better translated, ‘Preached unto the Nations’; His Atonement was for the entirety of mankind, which Message is to be proclaimed to the entirety of the world), believed on in the world (accepted by many), received up into Glory. (His Mission was accomplished, finished, and accepted in totality by God.)” (I Tim. 3:16).

The teachers of the “Jesus died spiritually doctrine” conclude from the phrase, “justified in the Spirit” that Jesus Himself had to be justified, and had to be made sin, and possess an evil, satanic nature. Thus, they say, He had to be made righteous once more, justified, and born again. But, according to the Greek, even as we have already stated, “to justify” as it is used here is “to declare righteous” or “to show to be righteous.” Jesus was “evinced to be righteous as to His Spiritual Nature.”

The Bible, in this Passage, is not saying that Jesus was being made righteous, but that His Righteousness was being announced. Jesus never ceased to be righteous; He never ceased to be just. But as a Man, the Man Christ Jesus, the Holy Spirit, in essence, is saying that Christ is just as righteous now as He was before the Incarnation.

Therefore, without any Scriptural support whatsoever, these teachers declare, “suddenly God justified Jesus in the Pit and He was born again.”

There is no Scriptural basis whatsoever for the doctrine that says that God arbitrarily waved His Hand over Christ and said, “be Thou cleansed,” and suddenly Jesus was justified (made righteous), born again, and restored to Sonship with the Father.

THE GODHEAD

Was Jesus abandoned by God at Calvary, as these teachers claim?

No!

Jesus was God’s Own Sacrifice, chosen by Him (Isa., Chpt. 53; Jn. 1:29; 3:16) and never out of Divine Favor for one moment. He was called “an Offering and a Sacrifice to God for a sweetsmelling savor” (Eph. 5:2). This is in perfect harmony with the Old Testament teaching that the Sin Offering was “most holy” to God (Lev., Chpt. 6).

First of all, it is impossible to separate the Godhead — Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. “For in Him dwells all the fulness of the Godhead bodily” (Col. 2:9). If Jesus had died spiritually, then at the Cross — by Him being lost — He would have divided the Godhead, or at least had made the entire Godhead sinful and in need of the new birth. The idea of dividing up the Godhead for three days by sending the Son of God to Hell as a lost sinner, totally abandoned by God the Father and God the Holy Spirit, is totally ridiculous. This spurious teaching even goes so far as to say that God was no longer the Father of Jesus while He was in Hell.

THE WORDS OF JESUS ON THE CROSS

When Jesus uttered the words on the Cross, “My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?” Jesus was quoting from a Prophetic Passage, Psalms 22:1. He also said, “I thirst” (Jn. 19:28). An utterance based upon another Old Testament Prophecy, Psalms 69:21. When He uttered these words, “My God, My God,” “the religious leaders and the people of His day misinterpreted them saying, “This man calls for Elijah” (Mat. 27:47). With these words Jesus consciously identified Himself as the One of Whom the Old Testament Prophecy spoke. Someone has even supposed that Jesus recited all of Psalm 22 as well as other Prophecies concerning Him while He hung on the Cross for several hours. We do know, of course, that not everything Jesus did was recorded. Only a small portion was, in fact, recorded (Jn. 21:25).

Was Jesus forsaken by God?
No, He was not.
God had temporally “turned a deaf ear,” in that, instead of delivering His Son from death, which He did do on several occasions, the Father delivered Him up unto death when He became a Sin Offering for others; but this was not abandonment. Jesus Himself said, “Behold, the hour comes, yes, is now come, that you shall be scattered, every man to his own, and shall leave Me alone: and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with Me” (Jn. 16:32). He could say this because “God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto Himself” (II Cor. 5:19).

PHYSICAL DEATH

The Bible states again and again that Jesus offered up His Body as a Sacrifice for our sins, that He was put to death in the flesh. In other words, Jesus died physically but not spiritually. Nowhere in the Word of God does it tell us that Jesus died physically on behalf of sinners as had the Old Testament Type. So, while Scriptures repeatedly stress the Deity of our Lord Jesus Christ, in His Virgin Birth, in His Sinless Life, in His Miracles, in His Vicarious and atoning Death, in His Bodily Resurrection, in His Ascension to the Right Hand of the Father, in His personal future return to this Earth in Power and Glory to rule a thousand years. (Jn. 1:1-4; Eph. 2:13-18; Rev., Chpts. 19-20)

The erroneous teaching, it seems, is that the shedding of Jesus’ Blood was insignificant. The following are some of the ridiculous theories of this doctrine.

FALSE ASSERTIONS OF THIS UNSCRIPTURAL DOCTRINE

• When His Blood was poured out, it did not atone.
• Jesus bled only a few drops, and when people sing about the Blood of Jesus, they do not know what they are talking about.

To comment on this would be a waste of time. The efficacy of the Atonement did not depend on how much blood was shed on the Cross, or how much time was involved in the process of dying. The Atonement’s validity depended on the fact that the Son of God shed His spotless Blood and died on our behalf. This false teaching claims that . . .

FALSE TEACHING

- Jesus was “born again” in the pit of Hell as the first man to be regenerated under the New Covenant. The proponents of this doctrine apparently are referring to the Verse that says, “God . . . has raised up Jesus again; as it is also written in the Second Psalm, ‘You are My Son, this day have I begotten You’” (Acts 13:33).

- He was the first begotten from spiritual death, citing, “Jesus Christ, Who is the faithful Witness, and the first begotten of the dead” (Rev. 1:5).

- Jesus started the Church in Hell when He was “born again” in the Pit, citing, “Jesus became the Firstborn among many brethren” (Rom. 8:29).

- He was righteous while on Earth, but while on the Cross He became unrighteous, and went to Hell, and then in the Pit was made righteous once more. That seems strange when the Bible says that He is unchangeable (Mal. 3:6; Heb. 13:8).

In the preceding Verses (Acts 13:16-32) Paul spoke of Christ’s physical Death and the burial of His Body in a sepulcher. Verses 30 through 33 speak of His physical Resurrection from the dead. The Resurrection of Jesus in the Bible always has reference to the Resurrection of His Body and not of His Spirit, since His Spirit did not die (Lk. 24:36-46; 1 Cor. 15:20-23).

The term “firstborn” in Scripture is used not only to refer to the physical birth of the first child in a family, but also to speak of position and inheritance rights. So, the term refers not merely to birth, but also to birthright as well as to position or status. The firstborn always held a special position in God’s Sight, possessing special rights and privileges. In this same sense, Jesus Christ is called the “firstborn” (Rom. 8:29; Col. 1:15; Heb. 1:6). In Romans 8:29, it refers to Jesus as being the Father of the Salvation Plan.

In Colossians 1:15, it refers to Jesus being the Creator of all things.

In Hebrews 1:6, it refers to Jesus being born of the Virgin Mary.

In Colossians 1:18, it refers to Jesus being the first to be raised from the dead as it regards the Resurrection, never to die again. In other words, Jesus is the Father of Creation, the Father of Salvation, and the Father of the Resurrection. That is what the word “firstborn,” means. In fact, the Greek Scholars tell us, that the word “firstborn” is as near in English that can be obtained from the Greek word “prototokos,” but doesn’t quite give it the full meaning.

FROM THE CROSS TO THE RESURRECTION

After His Death on Calvary, Jesus did go down into Paradise, which, in effect, was a part of Hell, even as our Lord outlined it in Luke, Chapter 16, where the righteous souls — such as Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, David, and other Old Testament Saints — were kept, and one might say, against their will. Actually, they were captives of Satan, even though he could not harm them, with our Lord saying that they were comforted (Lk. 16:25).

All of this means that when the Old Testament Saints died, they could not be taken to Heaven, but were rather taken down into Paradise, sometimes referred to as “Abraham’s bosom” (Lk. 16:23). There was a reason that they could not be taken to Heaven at that time.

Jesus had not yet gone to the Cross, and Paul plainly stated, “For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and goats should take away sins” (Heb. 10:4). While these Old Testament Saints most definitely were Saved, their Salvation to be sure, was predicated totally and solely upon the...

“The Holy Spirit this signifying (the Holy Spirit was both the Divine Author of the Levitical system of worship, and its Interpreter), that the way into the Holiest of all was not yet made manifest (proclaims the fact [and by the Holy Spirit, at that] that access to God was blocked while the Law was enforced, except in the most limited way), while as the First Tabernacle was yet standing (show the limitations of the Levitical system):

“Which was a figure for the time then present (refers to the Tabernacle being a representation of Heavenly realities), in which were offered both Gifts and Sacrifices, that could not make him who did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience (portrays the weakness of the First Covenant, in that it was based on animal blood, which was insufficient; in other words, the conscience of the Jew was still heavy with realization that sin had only been covered, not taken away; only the Cross could take away sin [Ijn. 1:29]);

“Which stood only in meats and drinks, and divers washings, and carnal Ordinances (refers to the entirety of the Levitical system, which could only present Types and Shadows), imposed on them until the time of Reformation. (The Cross, to which all of this pointed, would address all of this once and for all.)

“But Christ being come (the little word ‘but’ is the pivot upon which all the arguments swing) an High Priest (presented by the Apostle to show how marvelously the one Offering of our Lord Jesus Christ transcends all the Types and Shadows of the old) of good things to come (should have been translated, ‘of the good things realized’), by a greater and more perfect Tabernacle (presents Christ Himself as the more Perfect Tabernacle), not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building (Christ is not a flimsy structure like the Tabernacle of old);

“Neither by the blood of goats and
”After Jesus died on the Cross, He went down into Paradise to ‘lead captivity captive’” (Eph. 4:8).”

calves (proclaims by the fact of the continued need of more Sacrifices that it was not properly effected), but by His Own Blood (presents the price paid) He entered in once into the Holy Place (presents Christ doing what no other Priest had ever done; He offered a Sacrifice that was complete, which means it would never have to be repeated; thereby, the Heavenly Tabernacle was opened to Him; and if opened to Him, it was opened to us as well), having obtained Eternal Redemption for us. (This proclaims what was accomplished by the giving of Himself on the Cross)” (Heb. 9:8-12).

As we have stated, Jesus did go down into Paradise, which was a part of Hell, where the righteous souls were, but there was no record that He ever went into the burning Pit. This is the place to which Jesus was referring when He said to the dying thief, “Today shall you be with Me in Paradise” (Lk. 23:43). He was speaking of that place in the heart of the Earth where He would go. The other thief would go to the punishment side of Hell where the rich man was.

HE LED CAPTIVITY CAPTIVE

After Jesus died on the Cross, He went down into Paradise to “lead captivity captive” (Eph. 4:8). This strange term means that all of the Old Testament Saints were actually captives of Satan, in effect, kept in this place against their will, in fact, awaiting the coming of Christ. And let it be understood, when Jesus went down into this place, He did not go there as a defeated worm, as some claim, but He went as a victorious conqueror, which, in fact, He was. That is what the Scripture means when it says that Christ descended first into Hell, the lower parts of the Earth (Ps. 16:10; Acts 2:27; Eph. 4:8-10). He captured these righteous souls from Satan, and there was nothing the Evil One could do about it, leading them captive to Heaven when He ascended on high. This fulfilled Psalms 68:18.

Prior to this, as stated, all righteous souls went into Hades or Sheol when they died, along with the souls of the wicked who went to another compartment of that place. These two compartments had a great gulf between them (Lk. 16:19-31), in effect, separating the two. Since the Cross, every Believer upon death immediately goes to Heaven to await the Resurrection of the body (II Cor. 5:8; Phil. 1:21-24; Heb. 12:23; Rev. 6:9-11).

When the wicked die, they continue to go into this torment compartment of Hades or Sheol until the end of the Millennium. Then death and Hell will deliver up the wicked souls, who will be reunited with their bodies and resurrected to be sentenced to the Lake of Fire, which will take place at the Great White Throne Judgment (Rev. 20:11-15).

In this context a person could say that Jesus went to Hell, but it in no way means that He went down into the burning flames of the Pit as a sinner. Nor was He molested by Satan, triumphed over by the powers of darkness, and then suddenly justified by God and born again as the “Firstborn among many brethren” (Rom. 8:29). This is an erroneous teaching that does not understand the Scriptural sense of the Atonement and the vicarious Sacrifice paid by Christ at Calvary’s Cross as a Sin Offering.

As well, of Jesus during the three days and nights He was in the heart of the Earth, the Scripture says:

“By which also He went (between the time of His Death and Resurrection) and preached (announced something) unto the spirits in prison (does not refer to humans, but rather to fallen Angels; humans in the Bible are never referred to in this particular manner; these were probably the fallen Angels who tried to corrupt the human race by cohabiting with women [II Pet. 2:4; Jude, Vss. 6-7]; these fallen Angels are still locked up in this underworld prison);

“Which sometime (in times past) were disobedient (this was shortly before the Flood), when once the longsuffering of God wait ed in the days of Noah (refers to this eruption of fallen Angels with women taking place at the time of Noah; this was probably a hundred or so years before the Flood), while the Ark was a preparing (these fallen Angels were committing this particular sin while the Ark was being made ready, however long it took; the Scripture doesn’t say!), wherein few, that is, eight souls were saved by water.
“He was, in fact, the Perfect Sacrifice as our Substitute, given up as a ‘Sin Offering.’ He died physically, not spiritually.”

(This doesn’t refer to being Saved from sin. They were saved from drowning in the Flood by being in the Ark)” (I Pet. 3:19-20).

What Jesus said to these fallen Angels we aren’t told, but the following must be said.

FROM THE CROSS TO THE RESURRECTION

The Word of God relates only two things to us, even as we have enumerated, which Christ did during His three days and nights in the heart of the Earth, between His Death on Calvary and His Resurrection. They are:

• He preached to these fallen Angels who were locked up and, in fact, are still locked up at this time in the heart of the Earth. They will, at the Great White Throne Judgment, be placed into the Lake of Fire with their master Satan, where they will remain forever and forever (Rev. 20:10-15).

The word “preached” as Peter used it here, is not the same Greek word used as we normally think of preaching. It actually means that Jesus made an announcement to these Angels, but it doesn’t say what that announcement was. Quite possibly, the Cross now being a fact where every sin was atoned and Redemption afforded for all who will believe, He related to them the stern fact that they had failed and failed miserably.

• He went into the place called Paradise, where He “led captivity captive,” meaning that He delivered every righteous soul in that place, taking them with Him to Heaven. The compartment called Paradise is now empty.

Those two things alone are all that the Scripture says as it regards what Jesus did between the Cross and His Resurrection. The Scripture says absolutely nothing about Jesus going into the burning side of the Pit, where He suffered as a sinner for three days and nights, etc. All of that is a fabrication.

No, Jesus did not die spiritually on the Cross. He did not go to the burning side of Hell. He was not placed under Satan’s domain. He was not subject to the Evil One. He was, in fact, the Perfect Sacrifice as our Substitute, given up as a “Sin Offering.” He died physically, not spiritually.

ARE THOSE WHO SUBSCRIBE TO THE JESUS DIED SPIRITUALLY DOCTRINE, SAVED?

Some are, and some aren’t!

If it is to be noticed, those who are in this particular doctrine claim that it’s not their business to try to get people Saved, but rather to lead them to a deeper experience with God, which, in effect, will tell them how to get rich, etc. So, precious few people are Saved under these particular Ministries, whoever they might be.

The reason should be obvious, what they are preaching is error and, in fact, a person cannot be Saved by believing that error. So they don’t even try to get people to come to Christ.

The truth is, many of the people in this doctrine, gave their hearts to Christ, and were truly Saved, before believing this particular fabrication. In fact, most people in the Word of Faith teaching have little or no understanding at all of the “Jesus died spiritually doctrine.” As stated, they have already given their hearts and lives to Christ under other types of ministry. If the cover be pulled off this teaching, most have embraced its concepts, thinking that it is their avenue to riches. To be sure, there are riches involved, but it’s only for a few of the preachers and not for the people at all.

Regrettably, the “Jesus died spiritually doctrine” repudiates the Cross, referring to it as “past miseries,” and “the worst defeat in human history.” Many, if not most, of their Churches refuse to even sing songs about the Blood, about the Cross, about the great Sacrifice of Christ, concluding and claiming that such are “defeatist.”

All of that is strange when Paul said, “I, Brethren, when I came to you, came not with excellency of speech or of wisdom, declaring unto you the Testimony of God. ”

“For I determined not to know anything among you, save Jesus Christ and Him Crucified” (I Cor. 2:1-2).

If the Cross of Christ was the primary Message of the Apostle Paul, it had better be our primary Message as well!

Karl Marx (May 5, 1818 through March 14, 1883) was a German philosopher, sociologist, economic historian, journalist, and revolutionary socialist. He was heavily critical of the socio-economic form of society and taught that Capitalism must be destroyed. Marx tried to make Capitalism the cause of all society’s ills, but history has proven this notion wrong time and time again. Marx's theories about society, economics, and politics, collectively known as Marxism, hold that all societies progress through the dialectic of class struggle. Dialectic is a dialogue or method for resolving conflict between two or more people holding different points of view about a subject. To Marx, this dialectic occurred between two main classes, the proletariat and the bourgeoisie. The proletariat is the labor or working class, the people who earn their livelihood by selling their labor power and being paid a wage or salary for their labor time. The bourgeoisie are those who earn their income not from labor as much as from the surplus value they appropriate from the workers who create wealth. And, according to Marx, the income of the Capitalists is based on their exploitation of the workers (the proletariat). He thought that this conflict could not be abolished without replacing the system of Capitalism itself. You see, for Marx, democracy under Capitalism is actually a bourgeois dictatorship.

THE COMMON MAN?

Now, at first glance, his theory makes Marx appear to be a man concerned for the “common man” and a friend to all, but let's dig a little deeper, first into Marx’s psyche (and real beliefs), and secondly into the negative effects the system of Socialism always has on a country. Keep in mind that, in order to change things, you must create a crisis, a reason for needing change. Marx used our human compassions for the poor to bring about his own political power, which was a power that would deny religious freedom in the end. The poor were not his cause but his vehicle to produce revolution. Marx often quoted the phrase, “Religion is the opium of the people.” We Believers may concur with this statement in general, agreeing that yes, true Christianity is NOT a religion, but when Marx said it, he was referring to all religions, including true Christianity. You have to keep in mind that his Marxist system, which was designed similarly to Communism, would be used to oppress true Christianity as is evident in the testimony of Brother Richard Wurmbrand, a Believer who spent eight years in a Communist prison for preaching the Gospel and ideas contrary to Communist doctrine. Remember, Socialism is something that sounds good on the surface but, in reality, is not. Its practical application does not hold up to its naive ideals. Yes, some employers and business owners take advantage of Capitalism and exploit their workers, but we cannot forget that Capitalism has a very important aspect. It allows for freedom! If we allow for the loss of any freedom, eventually we will lose all freedoms, even religious freedom! Carefully read this quote by Marx: “The abolition of religion as the illusory happiness of man is a requisite for their real happiness. The call to abandon their illusions about their conditions is a call to abandon a condition which requires illusion. . . .” (“Was Karl Marx a Satanist?” by Richard Wurmbrand, Diane Brooks Pub. Co., 1976, p.6.) If we do not allow the opportunity for Americans (or people of any country) to make as much money as they desire, we eliminate the opportunity for all to make their desired amounts of income. God will take care of those who abuse the privilege. “Behold, the hire of the laborers who have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth: and the cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of the Lord of Sabaoth” (James 5:4).

WITHOUT GOD!

In his youth, Karl Marx professed to be a Christian. His father, a lawyer, was relatively prosperous and came from a Jewish background, and his mother was a Dutch Jew from a prosperous business family. His maternal grandfather was a Jewish Rabbi. Prior to Karl’s birth, his father converted from Judaism to the Protestant Christian denomination of Lutheranism. This is believed to be because he was barred from the practice of law due to being Jewish.

http://www.notablebiographies.com/Ma-Mo/Marx-Karl.html. So, the conversion could have been more for business reasons rather than actual spiritual ones. Nevertheless, Marx’s first written work was called “The Union of the Faithful”, so there is evidence Marx adhered to Christian beliefs early on. However, for reasons unknown, he started to become very anti-religious! A new Marx began to emerge. He began to display a terrible hatred toward God. What exactly produced this hatred, no one seems to know. He wrote the following line in his poem, “Invocation of One in Despair”: “I shall build my throne high overhead.” In another poem he wrote, “Then I will be able to walk triumphantly, like a God, through the ruins of their kingdom. Every word of mine is fire and action, my breast is equal to that of the Creator.” In his poem, “The Pale Maiden”, he wrote, “Thus Heaven I’ve forfeited, I know it full well. My soul, once true to God, is chosen for Hell.” Clearly, this man was very tormented. He went from blasphemous claims of considering himself equal to God to acknowledging he was going to a Devil’s Hell.

THE DANCE OF DEATH

In reading Marx’s poems, one quickly discovers not only that he hated God, but actually the gods of any religion. In a little known drama he composed, “Oulanem”, you see a very dark side of Karl developing – Devil worship and the Black Mass. During a Black Mass, the Bible is burned and an orgy follows. In a poem called “The Player” he pens these words, “The hellish vapors rise and fill the brain, till I go mad and my heart is utterly changed. See this sword? The prince of darkness sold it to me. For me beats the time and gives the signs. Ever more boldly I play the dance of death.” Now, in the higher initiations of a Satanist’s cult, an “enchanted” sword, which ensures success, is sold to the candidate. He pays for it by signing a covenant, a blood-oath. Yes, blood taken from his wrists, and he agrees that his soul will belong to Satan after death! In “The 18th Brumaire” (pg. 119), Marx quotes this, “Everything in existence is worth being destroyed.” These were the words of Mephistopheles in “Faust,” and Marx loved these words. Stalin actually acted on these words and destroyed even his own family. In “Faust,” “the spirit that denies everything is called Satan. In his poem, “Human Pride,” Marx admits his aim is not to improve the world, reform, or revolutionize it, but simply to ruin it and to enjoy it being ruined. He wrote, “With disdain I will throw my gauntlet full in the face of the world, and see the collapse of this pygmy giant whose fall will not stifle my ardor. Then will I wander godlike and victorious through the ruins of the world, and, giving my words an active force, I will feel equal to the Creator.” You see, in further, deeper study of Karl Marx, I found a man that had a deep hatred for God and for man as well. It was his desire to draw all of humanity into the abyss and to follow them laughing. And really, there is every evidence that Karl Marx was actually a Satanist. He is even buried in Highgate Cemetery in London. Highgate Cemetery is Britain’s center of Satanism. Mysterious rites are held and celebrated at this tomb.

THE COMMUNIST MANIFESTO

In college Marx became involved with a group of radical thinkers known as the “Young Hegelians,” who gathered around Ludwig Feuerbach and Bruno Bauer. The Young Hegelians were critical of G.W.F. Hegel’s metaphysical assumptions, but still adopted his dialectic method, in order to criticize established society, politics, and religion. Marx befriended Bauer, and the two scandalized their class in Bonn by getting drunk, laughing in church, and galloping through the streets on donkeys. It was in Paris, on August 28, 1844, that Marx met German Socialist, Friedrich Engels, and these two began a friendship that would last a lifetime. On February 21, 1848, Marx and Engels’s most famous work was published, which came to be known as, “The Communist Manifesto.” Marx and Engels both came from privileged families and both held a grudge against all religions. “Running left-wing movements has always been the prerogative of spoiled rich kids. . . . The phoniness of the claim to be a movement of the working class was blatant from the beginning. When Engels was elected as a delegate to the Communist League in 1847, in his own words, ‘a working man was proposed for appearances sake, but those who proposed him voted for me.’ ” (Thomas Sowell, 1993 book, “Is Reality Optional”. Hoover Institution, p. 81.) Marx also met Moses Hess, a man who played a most important role in his life, the man who led him to embrace the Socialist ideal. No, Karl Marx did not love mankind. He was not prompted by concern for the poverty of his fellowman. He did not love them, but rather referred to them as nuts, asses, and rascals. He even described them using obscenities. No, Marx’s chief aim in life was the destruction of religion and to send mankind to Hell. Marxists always appealed to the basest passions of men, such as stirring up envy toward the rich and encouraging violence. Marxists will exploit things such as racial differences or the so-called generation gap. They encourage an abolition of all morals, making everything permissible.

OCCULT SATANISM

Socialist and Communist movements are, in reality, front organizations for occult Satanism. Karl Marx (and his satanic Marxism) is not a model for countries to follow, and any country that does follow this socialistic path will wind up broke with its people living in poverty, which is Satan’s desire, to destroy God’s Creation! The doctrine of Socialism is seething with contradictions. Its theories are at constant odds with its practices. Indeed, no precise distinct Socialism even exists. Instead, there is only a vague, rosy notion of something noble and good, of equality, of communal ownership, and of justice. It is believed that the advent of these things will bring instant utopia and a social order beyond reproach. Yet, in any country that practices Socialism or Communism, you will not find any semblance of anything pertaining to a glorious future for its citizens. Look at China, Russia, and Europe. Look at the bloody experiments at the time of the Reformation utopias of European thinkers, the intrigues of Marx and Engels, the radical Communist measures of the Lenin period, or the heavy-handed methods of Stalin! So, why is Socialism being pushed down the throats of the American people today when it has always been a failure in any country of the world? It’s plain and easy for anyone to see that Socialism seeks to reduce human personality to its most primitive levels and to extinguish the highest and most God-like aspects of human individuality. Actually, Socialism has already proven to be a failed experiment here in the United States of America. The Pilgrims, the 104 people who arrived at Plymouth Rock on December 21, 1620, were organized under a charter which imposed a seven year period of joint ownership. Thus, the day they arrived in the new world, all clothing, houses, land, crops, and cash were jointly owned. So, no matter how hard a man might have worked, he had little hope of personal gain for his effort.

THE PILGRIMS

Thus, the Pilgrims started life in the New World with a system of common ownership forced on them by Plymouth Colony investors. That quasi-socialist arrangement proved to be disastrous. It had to be scrapped for one that gave these first Americans the right to keep the fruits of their labor and incentive to produce more. The communal arrangement also ill-fitted the Pilgrims for the demands of life on the edge of a “cruel” wilderness. The Pilgrims buried forty-four people within the first three months, and a total of fifty died within the first year. The ground proved to be unyielding, so Pilgrims gathered a “small harvest” and celebrated their first Thanksgiving with the Indians in the autumn of 1621. Another small harvest followed in 1622. Such a meager return came in part because the Pilgrims were unskilled at farming and because of the sandy New England soil. However, it was the lack of any promise or return for their labors that caused even these God-fearing and devout settlers to fail to fully work the land. It also led to a social order at odds with the dictates of human nature, so there were dissensions and insubordination in unthrift and famine.

PRIVATE ENTERPRISE

In March of 1623, Governor Bradford allowed each man to plant corn for his own household and to trust themselves for that. So, every family was assigned a parcel of land, according to the proportion of their number. This proved to be very successful. It made all hands very industrious, so that much more corn was planted than would have been by any other means anyone had devised. Suddenly, these heretofore mediocre farmers made their own Capitalist “great leap forward.” Whereas 26 acres of corn, barley, and peas were planted in 1621, they planted nearly 60 acres the next year and, in 1623, they planted 184 acres. Governor Bradford reported that, instead of famine, God gave them plenty, and things changed. And they gave thanks to God. Under the new system of private enterprise, the Pilgrims grew in prosperity and were soon able to buy out the interest of their investors and obtain clear titles to their land. Governor Bradford wrote this, “The experience that was had in this common course and condition, tried sundry years and that amongst godly and sober men, may well evince the vanity of that conceit of Plato’s and other ancients applauded by some of later times; that the taking away of property and bringing in community into a commonwealth would make them happy and flourishing; as if they were wiser than God.”

Private enterprise is “God-given” and what this Nation was founded on. Socialism, Marxism, and Communism were all founded in Satanism. Private industry is what America was established on, and it has resulted in the greatest nation ever produced on the face of the Earth.

Frances Swaggart
Timothy 4:1 – “Now the Spirit (Holy Spirit) speaks expressly (pointedly), that in the latter times (the times in which we now live, the last of the last days, which begin the fulfillment of Endtime Prophecies) some shall depart from the Faith (anytime Paul uses the term ‘the Faith,’ in short he is referring to the Cross; so, we are told here that some will depart from the Cross as the means of Salvation and Victory), giving heed to seducing spirits (evil spirits, i.e., ‘religious spirits,’ making something seem like what it isn’t), and doctrines of devils (should have been translated, ‘doctrines of demons’; the ‘seducing spirits’ entice Believers away from the true Faith, causing them to believe ‘doctrines inspired by demon spirits’).”

This Verse, as given by the Holy Spirit to the Apostle Paul, expressly warns us what is going to happen in the Church in the Last Days.

“Now the Spirit speaks expressly”

This speaks of the Holy Spirit. The words, “speaks expressly,” refers to the fact that it was not by mere hints or even symbols, but given to Paul in an open and plain manner. In other words, there was no hesitation or waffling on the part of the Holy Spirit. What He stated to Paul was unmistakably clear.

In Revelation, Chapters 2 and 3, seven times it says, “He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the Churches.” It is the Work of the Holy Spirit to reveal what is going on and what is going to happen, and whatever the Holy Spirit says will come to pass, then it will come to pass.

“That in the latter times”

This statement refers to the last years ending the Church Age and before the Millennial Reign of the Lord Jesus Christ. Actually, it is speaking of this present time. The problems the Holy Spirit mentioned have always existed in the Church; however, as we grow closer to the Rapture of the Church, these problems will be more pronounced and common. In the Greek, the word “latter” means “afterward, at the last of all.” What is being said here is that the Church is in the last great apostasy of the Church Age.

“Some shall depart from the Faith”

This speaks of a departure from the Word of God, but more particularly to the major Theme of the Bible, the Finished Work of Christ, the Cross. Today, Doctrine is laughed at, dismissed, and lampooned. But without correct Biblical Doctrine, the Church is like a ship adrift at sea with no engine. Where there is an absence of Doctrine, Satan will always see to it that which is false will fill the void. The Message of the Cross is being openly attacked and dismissed as never before.

Understand this: the Cross of Christ is the dividing line between the True Church and the apostate Church. Take note of my words. Those who reject the Cross and disdain it, they will be lost. If you don’t embrace the Truth of Christ and Him Crucified and Resurrected, and proclaim that great Truth as the only means of Justification and Sanctification then you are going to lose your soul and you will spend eternity in Hell.

Joshua 24:15 still says, “And if it seem evil unto you to serve the LORD, choose you this day whom you will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served who were on the other side of the Flood, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD.” And you can’t serve the Lord outside of Calvary.

“gIvINg hEEd To SEdUCINg SPIRITS”

This statement tells us the cause of the Church’s departure from Truth. “Seducing” in the Greek is “Planos” and means “wandering, roving, misleading, leading into error.” The word “spirits” refers to evil spirits actually putting into motion human agents of the “spirit of error.” “Seducing spirits” means exactly what the word implies. Evil spirits actually seduce preachers and laity, just as a harlot seduces a man. These seducing spirits appear as Angels of light. These seducing spirits move one away from the true Word of God, the King James Bible, to the perverted translations that literally change the meaning of Scripture. As seducing spirits, they blind the Church to what is the real truth to the point where truth is called a lie, and the lie is called the truth.

After these seducing spirits blind the Church, the next step is to bring the world and its ways into the Church until the people become so blind and in such a stupor that they are worshipping Satan thinking it is Jesus. Satan is no longer outside of the Church, but he is literally in charge of far too many pastors and their congregations. Today, preaching is laughed at. The Holy Spirit is no longer welcome. Instead of singing the great songs of Faith, we have substituted secular, worldly music. We have brought Hollywood movies into the Sanctuary of God. Too many services resemble nothing more than a night club. But I remind you of the Word of the Lord in Ezekiel 5:11, “. . . because you have defiled My Sanctuary with all your detestable things, and with all your abominations, therefore will I also diminish you; neither shall My Eye spare, neither will I have any pity.” God’s Sanctuary has been turned into a gathering place of demonic spirits.

“dOCTRINES OF dEvILS”

This phrase should have been translated “Doctrines of Demons,” for there is only one Devil, a fallen Angel, and many demons who are Satan’s servants. It is important to note that Paul finds the source of false doctrine in these demons who entice God’s Children away from the True Faith, causing them to believe doctrines inspired by demon spirits.

Never forget that what is preached and taught from behind the pulpit is always empowered by a spirit. If it is Truth, then it is backed by the Holy Spirit and the Bible. If it is false doctrine, then it is empowered by demon spirits. There is no middle ground. The modern church has been by and large seduced by demon spirits.

THE ANSWER

The only hope for the Church is Revival and one can only have Revival by returning to the old paths. The Church must come back to the Cross and repent.

What I have written is negative, but I am going to end on a positive note. In spite of the worldliness of the church, there is still a remnant left. There are still 7,000 who haven’t bowed the knee to Baal. There is still some Daniels out there who won’t stop praying. There are still some Moses’ out there who will look Pharaoh right in the eye and proclaim, “Let my people go.”

I do believe we will see a great Move of God. I still believe in II Chronicles 7:14, “If My People, who are called by My Name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek My Face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from Heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.”

Your Evangelist,

Donnie Swaggart

World Evangelism Fellowship was born out of a deep desire of Christians from all denominational backgrounds to reach the world with the Gospel of Jesus Christ. It was realized that when Churches and Ministries band together under the anointing of the Holy Spirit to attack the strongholds of Satan, much can be accomplished.

This is the reason World Evangelism Fellowship was formed – to channel the efforts of Churches and Preachers from all over the United States, Canada, and the world into a unified, proven plan to reach the lost and dying with the Good News of the Gospel.

The call of God to win the lost is clear. World Evangelism Fellowship is answering that call and we would like to extend an invitation to you to join us. This is not a Denomination, and we pray it never will be. It is, however, a fellowship of Ministers and Churches united in their efforts to reach the world for Jesus Christ.

How do I, as an individual, affiliate with World Evangelism Fellowship?

There are several ways to join World Evangelism Fellowship, and the method you choose depends on what God has called you to do.

• Christian Worker • Licensed Minister • Ordained Minister • Church Affiliation

OVER-THE-AIR (DTV) TELEVISION

For those of you who are not familiar with digital television, these are free “old fashioned TV channels” that are able to be picked up with a digital tuner and antenna. Most new televisions are equipped with built-in digital tuners or you can purchase a tuner from your local electronics store (Best Buy®, Radio Shack®, etc.). As well, you can purchase the proper antenna at your local electronics store. Many viewers under the broadcast signal of the television station can use a small, digital antenna inside the home. For those on the outer edge of the signal or to receive the best signal, an outdoor antenna may be required. Both indoor and outdoor antennas are available for less than $50!

THANK YOU SO MUCH FOR SPREADING THE WORD OF GOD

Dear Brother Swaggart,

Taking care of myself is breaking down constantly. I lost my job, I have no money, and to top it off I am currently living with my parents, and they just lost their house. To be completely honest, I was thinking that suicide was the best way out because I am so tired of things constantly falling apart. I’m never happy or content with anything. But after watching your program, I lifted my hands to God along with your congregation through the television. And the Anointing was so incredibly strong. I feel so relieved to know that Jesus Lives, and He Created us and understands us completely. I no longer feel useless in this world. God can use what the world considers as trash, and turn it into something great for His Glory. I will continue to believe, because I know He will come through. Thank you so much for spreading the Word of God. I know never to doubt him again, and not to worry about what people say. This is God’s world, and His Ways are not like our ways, and I trust Him totally. I can’t thank you enough for your powerful sermons.

YOUR PROGRAMS, THEY ARE TRULY OF THE LORD

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I just wanted to say, “I enjoy your Programs, they are truly of the Lord.” I just got The Expositor’s Study Bible, and it is the finest Study Bible available anywhere bar none! Thank you, thank you!

THANK YOU FOR WHAT YOU DO FOR THE KINGDOM OF GOD

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I just wanted to let you know how much your Ministry means to me. I’ve listened to you as a child growing up in a household that would stack your records on the record player, and your anointed singing would play in that old farmhouse. As a teen growing up and watching your Telecast over TV, and how it would feed my soul as just a young person, and now as I am older seeing your Broadcast over Internet, I am sharing this anointed music and preaching with my children. I so much enjoy hearing Donnie, Frances, and Gabe, and how the Lord is using them! I want to thank you for standing for the Truth! Thank you for what you do for the Kingdom of God. Jimmy Swaggart Ministries is such a blessing and a tool the Lord is using for hurting ones. I am joyful in Him. I support you with my prayers and gifts as the Lord makes a way. God bless you!

THE MESSAGE OF THE CROSS

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I just had to write and express my gratitude for your determination to follow the Leading of the Lord in proclaiming the Message of the Cross. I am a Pastor, and I have been a Christian for 38 years. Shortly after conversion, I received a call to Ministry and a Revelation of the Message of the Cross. Because of denominational doctrine and the teaching I received from those more educated and experienced than I, I began to believe I was wrong. Over the years I could not shake the Message of the Cross which God had placed deep within my soul. I found the SonLife Radio station and it has been such a blessing. Now I am teaching and preaching the Message God gave me all those years ago to the Church God has given me to pastor. God bless you all.

THE GIANT PRINT EXPOSITOR’S STUDY BIBLE IS ABSOLUTELY AMAZING

Dear Brother Swaggart,

The Giant Print Expositor’s Study Bible is absolutely amazing, I love it! It has so much information in the study notes. It is now my personal number one Bible. I suggest to everyone that they need this Bible, it is essential for reading. Thank so much, and I believe God will bless your Ministry for giving this amazing, great, and innovative Bible to the world!

I’M BEGINNING TO KNOW THE INNER PEACE THAT ONLY JESUS CAN SUPPLY

Dear Brother and Sister Swaggart,

I just want to say, “The Message of the Cross has changed my life, saved my life, and keeps my life.” Hearing this message four years ago has brought me out of a tumultuous life. I’m beginning to know the inner peace that only Jesus can supply. If the Lord tarries, I will be an avid student and supporter of your Ministry all of my days.

A SONG CAN SAY IT ALL IF IT IS OF THE LORD!

Dear Brother Swaggart,

We are members of the Media Church and try to get down there in Baton Rouge for the Campmeetings every year. You people above all will understand how a song can say it all if it is of the Lord! In the eighties when I brought one of our daughters down to Jimmy Swaggart Bible College & Seminary and attended church on Sunday, I went home shouting glory, and singing “I’ll Never Be Lonely Again.” In this day of “self,” people are still running to “helps” because their hearts are lonely for the Creator, and they don’t know and never have heard God is Love, accept Him, and look up, for your Redemption is come! Thank you Brother Swaggart for bringing that song to the forefront again on CD.

THE EXPOSITOR’S STUDY BIBLE IS ONE OF THE MULTITUDES OF BLESSINGS THE LORD HAS BESTOWED UPON MY LIFE

Dear Brother Swaggart,

The Expositor’s Study Bible is one of the multitudes of Blessings the Lord has bestowed upon my life. The Holy Spirit has used it to open up Scriptures to me. I’m not a new Christian, nor am I a Bible novice. But we must be open to the Lord to ever continue to learn and study His Holy Word. I heard a quote many years ago, and it says, “No one ever graduates from Bible study until he meets the Author face-to-face.”

"THE WAY OF CAIN"

Jude 1:11 – “Woe unto them! (Concerning apostasy and apostates, the Holy Spirit says to them, ‘Woe!’) for they have gone in the way of Cain (the type of a religious man who believes in God and ‘religion,’ but after his own will, and who rejects Redemption by blood), and ran greedily after the error of Balaam for reward (the error of Balaam was that he was blind to the higher morality of the Cross, through which God maintains and enforces the authority and awful sanctions of His Law, so that He can be Just and the Justifier of the believing sinner; he loved the wages of unrighteousness in coveting the gifts of Balak [Num. 22:7, 17, 37; 24:11; II Pet. 2:15]), and perished in the gainsaying of Core (the gainsaying of this man was his rebellion against Aaron as God’s appointed Priest; this was, in principle, a denial of the High Priesthood of Christ [Num., Chpt. 16]).”

INTRO TO JUDE

In the little New Testament Book of Jude, the author spends the majority of his time describing false teachers, both their attitudes and actions. He warns the Believers of the First Century Church to beware of those who meet the descriptions given as they will greatly affect their Faith in a negative way. It seems that Jude had intended on giving a discourse in regard to the wonder and benefits of true Salvation, but as he began to write, the Holy Spirit interrupted his train of thought and sent him down another Path. That new Path was one in which Jude would exhort Believers to “earnestly contend for the Faith.” He is greatly concerned for the welfare of the Saints and wants them to both recognize and remove themselves from any teachers who would fit his stated description.

RECOGNIZING THE WAY OF CAIN

What is the way of Cain? Literally the word “way” is “hodos” in the Greek and means “a road.” However, when it is applied to a person, as it is in this Text, it indicates a commitment to a certain direction, a way of life, a belief system, or an approach to relationship with God. Therefore, Cain’s belief system, his approach to relationship with God is what is being discussed.

By searching out the Third and Fourth Chapters of Genesis, we find that God had specifically laid out the means by which man could stay in relationship with Him after the Fall. He promised that the “seed of the woman” (a Redeemer) would come (see Gen. 3:15) and resolve the dilemma created by the First Family’s sin. Many scholars believe that at the same time God Himself instituted the idea of blood sacrifice when He clothed Adam and Eve with the skins of slain animals (indicating a blood sacrifice) in Genesis 3:21.

When Chapter 4 opens we find that a sacrificial system, with a specific routine had been given to Adam and Eve and that they had trained their sons, Cain and Able, to participate in the appropriate way in order to maintain a relationship with God. It is very obvious that a blood sacrifice (a Type of Christ’s Atoning Work on the Cross) was what they were to participate in, but at a certain point in time, Cain decided that he was going to change the pattern of sacrifice given to a way that pleased him. He would offer to God that which he had produced from the ground. Being a farmer, or one that was “a tiller of the ground,” Cain decided to offer the bloodless sacrifice of the work of his hands. God refused to receive his offering, even as he refuses to accept any way other than the Cross as the means to Salvation or progressive growth. God cannot accept a bloodless sacrifice. Neither can He accept the tawdry work of man’s devices as a means of Deliverance from a besetting sin or growth.

THE WAY OF BOTH SALVATION AND SANCTIFICATION

The Church must remain true to God’s Plan regarding both Redemption and growth. There is no other plan outlined in Scripture other than the Plan of Faith and Grace. Man places his Faith in the Finished Work of Christ and receives the Grace of God in order to qualify for the Holy Spirit’s Work of Regeneration and inner Sanctification. There is no other way to be Saved. There is no other Biblical way to grow Spiritually. With our Faith properly placed in that which is pleasing to God, the Holy Spirit becomes the Supernatural Sanctifying Agent that equips the Believer to overcome sin and helps us to experience the necessary changes in our heart. No other way will work. No other way is acceptable to God. While most of the Protestant Church still believes (I pray that this is a true statement) in the Cross as the Way of Salvation, they have opted for the ways of man when it comes to the progressive Sanctification of the Believer. No amount of works, Biblical or not, can ever bring the Believer into true Spiritual Growth. If our Faith is not in the Cross as the means by which we are sanctified, we are traveling in the age-old error of Cain. We have rejected God’s Plan and like Cain, we have come up with one of our own. As with Cain, God will reject our efforts, no matter how zealous and honest we may be in our attempt to do the right thing. Ours must be the obedience to the Faith which brings the produce of the Spirit. The end result of this way is Holiness and Righteousness. It brings the product of good works. It brings a life changed and the Gospel lived and proclaimed. Faith in any other way other than Faith in the Cross for either Salvation or progressive Sanctification is the way of Cain.

THE PROPER REACTION TO THE WAY OF CAIN

The only proper reaction to those who preach and promote the way of Cain is separation. The Believer must separate from every way or means of Salvation outside of Faith in the Cross. The Believer must separate from every device, pattern, scheme, or routine of man designed to bring about progressive growth, other than Faith in the Cross. A failure to do so will birth the heart of Cain into the heart of the Believer. And like Cain of old, you will find yourself attempting to kill or destroy Abel, whose Faith was in nothing but the blood sacrifice, a Type of the Cross.

I Chronicles 11:4 – “And David and all Israel went to Jerusalem, which is Jebus; where the Jebusites were, the inhabitants of the land. (As a type, the Jebusites symbolize a stronghold that Satan erects within our hearts and lives. Saul never did defeat the Jebusites, who were within; consequently, the Philistines, who were without, eventually defeated him. Likewise, if we do not defeat the strongholds that are within our lives, strongholds of Satan, those without will ultimately overcome us. In connection with this, Paul said: ‘For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strongholds’ [II Cor. 10:4]. This is done, as it only can be done, by the Believer placing his Faith exclusively in Christ and what Christ has done for us at the Cross. That being the case, the Holy Spirit will then mightily help us, without Whom these great battles cannot be won [Rom. 8:1-2, 11].)”

David is now king over all Israel. There was a space of about seven and a half years between the time of his second anointing and his third anointing. In fact, David was anointed on three different occasions, first as a fifteen year old boy, the second as King of Judah, and the third as King of Israel. This should be a lesson to us, that there will always be a space of time between when God Calls us, to when that Call is fulfilled.

THE CALL OF GOD ON MY LIFE

I was Saved at the age of five, Baptized with the Holy Spirit at the age of eight. After I was Filled with the Spirit, I felt the Call of God on my life, the Call to preach the Gospel. However, it was fifteen years before I began to fulfill the Call of God. It was during that time that the Holy Spirit would begin to do a Work in my life, to prepare me for this Journey, and to reveal to me the Message of the Cross. And I can honestly say that if it was not for the Holy Spirit opening my heart to the Message of the Cross, I do not know where I would be. Likewise, it will be the same for most all Christians, a space between the Call and the fulfillment of that Call, as it was with David.

SAUL: A WORK OF THE FLESH

David was supposed to be the first king of Israel, but Israel jumped the gun and chose Saul. Saul was a work of the flesh, which meant that he was chosen by the people, and not by God. This is what the people of Israel wanted, for they wanted to be like the other nations. Once again, we must explain that it was the Will of God for Israel to have a king, but it was not supposed to be Saul. Saul looked kingly, for he stood head and shoulders above all the rest. His stature was awe-inspiring, but his heart was not after the things of God, thus, it ended in abject failure. Anything that is a work of the flesh will result in failure, for it means that the person is depending upon self for the answer.

DAVID: A WORK OF THE SPIRIT

David was a Work of the Spirit, and even though no one experienced the highs and lows of life like David, still his life would be one of a Conquering King, for he was a Type of Christ, the Conquering King over death, Hell, and the grave. He brought peace to Israel for a certain space of time, but our Heavenly David will one day bring Peace to the entirety of the World, and for all time.

SATAN WANTS TO ERECT A STRONGHOLD IN OUR LIVES

It was during the reign of Saul that there was an enemy of Israel, the Jebusites, who erected a stronghold right in the middle of Israel. They called it Jebus. It was a fortification built by this manic group of individuals who were so strong, that even the mighty Egyptian army would not stand against them. There was no Scriptural record that Saul ever came against this enemy. Now, this must be understood, that this fortification was built right in the heart of Israel. In other words, they were looked at as an inward foe. Saul never could defeat the inward foe, so the outward foe eventually defeated him. In the Spiritual, there is an inward foe that dwells inside of all Believers, and if we do not overcome the inward foe, the outward foe will soon defeat us.

As a type, the Jebusites symbolize a stronghold that Satan looks to erect in our hearts and lives. That is why it is so important that we must ever continue to preach Jesus Christ and Him Crucified. Without this Message, we will suffer tremendous defeat at the hands of the enemy. And this is the reason that the Holy Spirit told David, as soon as he became king, to take down the stronghold of Jebus. The reason that Satan builds these strongholds in our lives is because he knows that God intends for that area of our lives to be our strong point. If we try to overcome this stronghold by the means of the flesh, we will be defeated every single time.

THE WEAPONS OF OUR WARFARE ARE NOT CARNAL

As Paul would write, “(For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal) (carnal weapons consist of those which are man-devised), but mighty through God [the Cross of Christ (I Cor. 1:18)], to the pulling down of strongholds; Casting down imaginations (philosophic strongholds; every effort man makes outside of the Cross of Christ), and every high thing that exalts itself against the Knowledge of God (all the pride of the human heart), and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ (can be done only by the Believer looking exclusively to the Cross, where all Victory is found; the Holy Spirit will then perform the task)” (II Cor. 10:4-5).

This stronghold had to be removed, totally and completely. There could be nothing that could remain, and it could not have been done in any other manner. Once again, Saul could not do it, simply because he was a work of the flesh, which tells us that anything that is not Christ and the Cross is a work of the flesh. I understand that this is a strong statement, but it is the Truth. If we come against Satan by the means of the flesh, which is self-dependence, self-effort, self-motivation, we will be defeated. The weapons that we have at our disposal do not come from self, but rather from the Holy Spirit. There is only One Way for the Christian to be an Overcomer, and that is through Faith in Christ and what He did for us at Calvary.

Our young people are facing the powers of darkness like never before, and no amount of education, (and I’m not knocking education) can change their lives. No amount of money can change their lives, and no amount of self-help seminars can fix the problems that they face. There is only One Way for their lives to be changed, the preaching of the Cross. When a young person hears and believes the Message of the Cross, which is simply to understand that everything we receive as a Christian was paid for by Christ and what He did at the Cross, it is then that a Greater Power begins to Work, the Power of the Holy Spirit. And there is no power greater than the Power of the Holy Spirit. It is the Work of the Holy Spirit that brings about the change needed, as long as our Faith is in Christ and the Cross.

The significance of modern Israel and the second regathering of Jews mark the most obvious fulfillment of Bible Prophecy of this Age. For centuries God scattered the Jews throughout the world to protect the presence of Jews in the world. The Covenant Promises God gave to the Patriarchs shall be fulfilled very soon. In order to better understand and comprehend Bible Prophecy it is necessary for us to avoid allegorizing every Scripture that pertains to Israel by claiming the Church replaces Israel. Replacement theology, also called Supersessionism, believes the Old Testament is replaced by the New Testament or the Promises made to Israel by God were instead given to the Church because of Israel’s rejection of Jesus Christ as Messiah. Roman Catholicism’s supportive view of replacement theology is affirmed by its teachings that the Roman Catholic Church inherits all of the Promises of God, instead of Israel. There are many Protestants that have succumbed to Satan’s deception and believe God’s Promises to the Patriarchs no longer apply to Israel. The Bible does not teach replacement theology. It is a myth perpetuated throughout human history by Satan to destroy any remnant of Israel. God had to scatter the Jews throughout the world to preserve them from annihilation so He may restore them as a Nation and finally bring them to Jesus Christ in order to fulfill His Covenant Promises to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

Psalms 105:8-11 – “He has remembered His Covenant forever, the Word which He commanded to a thousand generations. Which Covenant He made with Abraham, and His oath unto Isaac; And confirmed the same unto Jacob for a Law, and to Israel for an Everlasting Covenant: Saying, Unto you will I give the land of Canaan, the lot of your inheritance.”

This will occur towards the end of the Tribulation, also called “the time of Jacob’s trouble,” when Israel will call upon the Name of the Lord for help from the Antichrist and his armies seeking to destroy her.

Isaiah 11:11-12 – “And it shall come to pass in that day, that the Lord shall set His Hand again the second time to recover the remnant of His People, which shall be left, from Assyria, and from Egypt, and from Pathros, and from Cush, and from Elam, and from Shinar, and from Hamath, and from the islands of the sea. And He shall set up an ensign for the nations, and shall assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the Earth.”

Isaiah is not referring to the first regathering of Israel under Ezra and Nehemiah; when Judah returned from seventy years of captivity in Babylon and Israel from Assyrian captivity, because Isaiah says that they will be regathered, “a second time.” Isaiah was writing before the first dispersion under Nebuchadnezzar in Eighth Century B.C. The return from Babylonian and Assyrian exile was the “first regathering” mentioned in Isaiah 10:20-27; 44:26-45:8. Furthermore, this cannot refer to the regathering of the Exodus under Moses from Egypt as some claim, because Isaiah promised a “remnant” will be regathered. Moses’ Exodus was not a remnant because all of Israel was gathered with him when leaving Egypt.

Isaiah states that this will be a regathering of global proportions including “. . . the islands of the sea . . . from the four corners of the Earth,” rather than a local regathering, as witnessed in the first regathering.

By evaluating the context of Isaiah, Chapter 11, we see it explains that this is a global regathering that will occur in last days. In Verses 1 through 5, Isaiah speaks of the Branch, the Messiah. In Verses 6 through 9, he speaks of the Messianic Kingdom. In Verses 10 through 16, he speaks of the political or physical regathering of Israel. In Chapter 12:1-6, Isaiah speaks of the Spiritual regathering in Israel. This occurs during the time of King Messiah. Isaiah mentions the “Root of Jesse,” which is synonymous with the Messiah.

Another observation we must make is that Isaiah mentions the specific countries from which the Jews will return in the second regathering. However, with regard to the first regathering under Ezra and Nehemiah approximately 50,000 Jews from Babylon returned under Zerubbabel (Neh. 7:6-7, 66-67). Nearly one century later, Nehemiah led another group from Shushan in Persia (Neh. 1:1; 2:1-11). The Bible does not mention any other countries from where Jews returned in the first regathering. Among the names of the Jews who returned, we find only Babylonian and Persian names, indicating that the Jews had lived only in these areas. There is no evidence of return from other lands besides Babylon and Persia.

THE WITNESS OF SCRIPTURES

Isaiah 43:5-6: “Fear not: for I am with you: I will bring your seed from the east, and gather you from the west; I will say to the north, Give up; and to the south, Keep not back: bring my sons from far, and my daughters from the ends of the Earth.”

Jeremiah 16:14-15: “Therefore, behold, the days come, says the LORD, that it shall no more be said, The LORD lives, Who brought up the Children of Israel out of the land of Egypt; But, The LORD lives, Who brought up the Children of Israel from the land of the north, and from all the lands whither He had driven them: and I will bring them again into their land that I gave unto their fathers.”

Jeremiah 31:8-9: “Behold, I will bring them from the north country, and gather them from the coasts of the Earth, and with them the blind and the lame, the woman with child and her who travails with child together: a great company shall return thither. They shall come weeping, and with supplications will I lead them: I will cause them to walk by the rivers of the waters in a straight way, wherein they shall not stumble: for I am a Father to Israel, and Ephraim is My firstborn.”

Ezekiel 36:24-28, 33-35: “For I will take you from among the heathen, and gather you out of all countries, and will bring you into your own land. Then will I sprinkle clean water upon you, and you shall be clean: from all your filthiness, and from all your idols, and I will cleanse you. A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you: and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you a heart of flesh. And I will put My Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in My Statutes, and you shall keep My Judgments, and do them. And you shall dwell in the land that I gave your fathers; and you shall be My People, and I will be your God. Thus says the Lord GOD; In the day that I shall have cleansed you from all your iniquities I will cause you to dwell in the cities, and the wastes shall be built. And the desolate land shall be tilled, whereas it lay desolate in the sight of all who passed by. And they shall say, This land that was desolate is become like the Garden of Eden; and waste and desolate and ruined cities are become fenced, and are inhabited.”

Ezekiel 37:21-22, 25: “And say unto them, Thus says the Lord GOD; Behold, I will take the Children of Israel from among the heathen, whither they be gone, and will gather them on every side, and bring them into Continued on page 43
FROM ALL OVER THE WORLD

How thrilled we are at the letters, e-mails, and phone calls that we’re getting from all over the world concerning the programming of THE SONLIFE BROADCASTING NETWORK (SBN). These letters, e-mails, and phone calls are a result of Satellite Television, plus the Internet.

So many say, “We had just about given up, and then we found SBN.”

The Lord has Called us to do our very best to touch the entirety of the world, which we are attempting to do. We believe THE MESSAGE OF THE CROSS is the Message of the hour, actually that which the Holy Spirit is presently saying to the Churches. If that in fact is correct, and I believe with all of my heart it is, then this means this Message is of utmost significance. In other words, the Holy Spirit wants it given to all of mankind, at least where it is humanly possible. And that we are attempting to do.

THE BIBLES, BOOKS, CD’S, ETC.

We believe our material, whether it’s THE EXPOSITORY’S STUDY BIBLE, or the CD’s, Books, Study Guides, etc., constitutes some of the best in the world of its type. In other words, when you order something from this Ministry, once you get it in your hands, I want you to feel that you have received far more than your money’s worth. We want the material to bless you Spiritually, to inform you Scripturally, and to encourage you in the Lord in every respect. According to your favorable response, that is exactly what is happening.

ARE YOU COMING OUR WAY?

If you come anywhere close to Baton Rouge, we are going to encourage you to make time to be with us, even as many, many do, at FAMILY WORSHIP CENTER. Our Sunday morning Services are at 10 a.m.; the Sunday night Service is at 6 p.m.; and, the Wednesday night Bible Study is at 7 p.m. And, of course, I’m going to do everything within my power to twist your arm that you make at least one of the Campmeetings each year. It will be an event that you will never forget. I think I can sum it all up by saying, “The Lord will do you good.”

Incidentally, please allow me to change the subject and encourage you to take advantage of the most excellent offers that are in this Magazine. We’ve done our best to cut the prices to the bone and, as stated, we feel what we are giving you is well worth the money several times over. So, take advantage of these excellent prices.

OUR BUSINESS

Our business is the preaching of the Gospel in order to see souls Saved, lives changed, Believers baptized with the Holy Spirit, and the sick healed by the mighty Power of God. That’s our business. That’s what God has Called us to do. And I believe the greatest Harvest of souls the world or the Church have ever known, is soon to touch this world. And I believe this Ministry, “Jimmy Swaggart Ministries,” is going to have the privilege and opportunity of playing a part in this great Move of God. And please understand, if you are a part of this Ministry, then you will have a part in this great Harvest as well.

ONE MORE THING . . .

How thrilled we are at the average of about 150 people a week who are joining FAMILY WORSHIP CENTER MEDIA CHURCH. We are so glad to have you, we are so privileged to have you, and we pledge to you that we will be true to the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Let me say it just one more time concerning tithing. So many ask the question, “Brother Swaggart, where do I owe my tithe?” The answer to that is very, very simple.

Every Believer owes his tithe to where your soul is fed. No more no less, that hits it right square on the head. If you are eating meals at a certain restaurant, and the food is good, you would not go down the street and pay another restaurant would you? No! I’ll be a little bolder if you will allow me to do so. If each of you who are associated and a part of FAMILY WORSHIP CENTER MEDIA CHURCH would pay your tithe to this Ministry, it would help immeasurably. I would so very much like for us to come to the place that we would only have to spend two days a month raising funds, instead of four. And yet, at the same time, the Spirit of God Moves in these efforts, to where it doesn’t seem like it’s fundraising, but rather a Revival. That’s the way we want it, and that’s the way it is, and we thank the Lord immeasurably so.

Some of you are paying your tithe to this work, for which we so very much appreciate. I would pray that all of you who aren’t would pray about it, get the Mind of the Lord, and then do what He tells you to do.

In the Master’s Service, yours,

Jimmy Swaggart

their own land: And I will make them one nation in the land upon the mountains of Israel; and one King shall be King to them all: and they shall be no more two nations, neither shall they be divided into two kingdom any more at all. And they shall dwell in the land that I have given unto Jacob My Servant, wherein your fathers have dwelt; and they shall dwell therein, even they, and their children, and their children's children forever: and My Servant David shall be their prince forever.”

At the time of Ezekiel’s writings king David had long been deceased. This Passage refers to the end of history because it deals with the return of the Messiah to dwell as King over Israel. It is obvious that this hasn’t happened yet. Therefore, when we read the entire 37th Chapter of Ezekiel we can rest assured it reveals the regathering of Israel in the later days; 1948! Ezekiel presents this restoration and regathering as a process. The bones gain sinews, then flesh, and they are finally covered with skin. Likewise, modern Israel has developed slowly and is still in the process. The current state of Israel is more secular than Spiritual. There will come a time when she will receive Jesus Christ as her Messiah and

“In that day
there shall be a Fountain opened to the House of David
. . . for sin and for uncleanness” (Zech. 13:1).

THE SIGN OF THE JEW

God is Faithful. He will honor his Covenant to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, made of old. These wonderful Promises were made before the Law at Sinai. Although Israel broke the Law it did not nullify the Promise made before the Law. God would instead give Israel a New Covenant, Jesus Christ! He kept the Law for all who believe upon Him and at the Cross He satisfied the penalty of the broken Law. He guarantees that Israel will be regathered, restored, and reign in Righteousness with Him as her King. We know this because “Christ is the end of the Law for Righteousness” (Rom. 10:4). When Israel accepts Jesus Christ as Messiah she will inherit all the Promises given to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: Justification by Faith, and the land of Israel. While Satan has done his best to use sinful man to destroy Israel and Jews from the face of the Earth, we can rest assured that the land is Israel and not Palestine. Satan has tried to destroy any semblance of Israel by changing its name to Palestine, but God says, “the land is Mine”
(Lev. 25:23). The lie of replacement theology was Satan’s try to remove the future restoration of Israel. The majority in the world hate Jews, especially Muslims. God said, “There shall come out of Zion the Deliverer” (Rom. 11:26). It is not the Jews that they hate. Satan has deceived them to use Jews as an excuse. It is really God whom they hate.

Next month we will explore the wonder of Israel as a Nation again and why she is the object of Satan’s hatred.
