THE COVER

December 2012 – Volume 46 – Number 12. Merry Christmas from the Swaggart Family.
“Many times we are prone to label something as a ‘Healing,’ when in reality it has been a ‘Miracle.’”

THE WORKING OF MIRACLES

“To another the working of Miracles” (I Cor. 12:10). As we have stated, many of these Gifts work in tandem. In other words, for one to have the Gift of “working of Miracles,” at the same time, one would have to have the Gift of “Faith,” as well as the “Gifts of Healing(s).”

I personally believe that there are many more Miracles taking place presently than any of us dare realize. Anytime the Lord answers prayer for us, more than likely, He has to perform Miracles, even though they may not be seen by us, in order for that prayer to be answered. As Believers, we should ask the Lord for Miracles, and we should believe for Miracles, whatever the need might be.

Many times we are prone to label something as a “Healing,” when in reality it has been a “Miracle.” However, it is not that important that we properly define all that the Lord has done and is doing. The main thing is that we believe Him, have Faith in Him, and understand that all of these great things did not pass away with the Apostles but, are still active presently, at least for those who will believe.

I tell our people at Family Worship Center, and those who are a part of this Ministry by radio or by television, or by whatever means, and wherever they may be in this world, that we should be a people who expects God to do great and mighty things. We should get up every morning with a spirit of expectation as to what the Lord is going to wondrously do that particular day. We should go to bed at night with a spirit of expectation, believing Him for great and mighty things. I believe in a God of Might and Miracles. I believe in a God Who answers prayer. I believe in a God Who still does great and mighty things. I believe in a God Who is waiting for His People to believe Him, to step out in Faith, and to claim the treasure-house of Heaven. What I’m about to give is from the Old Covenant; however, anything that the Lord promised under the Old Covenant, He will do even much more under the New Covenant, because our “Lord is the Mediator of a Better Covenant, which is established upon better Promises” (Heb. 8:6).

Below is what the Lord told Moses under the Old Covenant, and it goes for us presently as well. In other words, what I’m about to give, you as a Believer, can have, and ought to have, if you will simply believe God. He said, first of all, the condition.

THE CONDITION

“And it shall come to pass, if you shall hearken diligently unto the Voice of the LORD your God, to observe and to do all His Commandments which I command you this day, that the LORD your God will set you on high above all nations of the Earth” (Deut. 28:1).

Now, all of us may look at this particular Passage and immediately understand that we haven’t done all “His Commandments,” which should be overly obvious. However, what is so wonderful under the New Covenant, which makes it so much better than the Old, is that our Lord Jesus Christ has, in fact, observed and done every single Commandment and has done them perfectly. And then, we must understand that He has done it all on our behalf. In other words, my Faith and your Faith in Him and what He did for us at the Cross automatically gives us His Perfection. So, when the Lord looks at us, He looks at us in the Light of the Lord Jesus Christ and marks us down as “perfect.” By Faith, we are what He is, and because He has taken what we were, and I speak of our terrible fallen condition, and atoned for it all at Calvary’s Cross. What we were, we no longer are, and what He is, we now are, all by Faith.
"When the Lord commands something, to be sure, it is going to happen."

Now, the following is what we can have in Christ Jesus, and we can have it now.

ALL THESE BLESSINGS SHALL COME ON YOU, AND OVERTAKE YOU

The Scripture says:

“And all these Blessings shall come on you, and overtake you, if you shall hearken unto the Voice of the LORD your God (the Blessings will be so abundant that they will literally chase down the people of God)” (Deut. 28:2).

This means that if you turn to the left, you will be blessed; if you turn to the right, you will be blessed; if you walk ahead, you will be blessed; and, if you lag behind, you will be blessed. And, you will be blessed so much that one Blessing won’t be used up until another Blessing overtakes you. One can only shout, “Hallelujah!”

THE LORD SHALL COMMAND THE BLESSING UPON YOU

“The LORD shall command the Blessing upon you in your storehouses, and in all that you set your hand unto; and He shall bless you in the land which the LORD your God gives you (when the Command from the Lord is given, nothing can stop that Command)” (Deut. 28:8).

When the Lord commands something, to be sure, it is going to happen. You ought to say to yourself right now, and believe it with all of your heart, that “the Lord is right now commanding His Blessing upon me.”

“AND THE LORD SHALL MAKE YOU PLENTIFUL IN GOODS”

“And the LORD shall make you plentiful in goods, in the fruit of your body, and in the fruit of your cattle, and in the fruit of your ground, in the land which the LORD swore unto your fathers to give you (everything will be bountiful)” (Deut. 28:11).

How much can we have? The answer is instant, “plenty!”

“THE LORD SHALL OPEN UNTO YOU HIS GOOD TREASURE”

“The LORD shall open unto you His good Treasure, the heaven to give the rain unto your land in His season, and to bless all the work of your hand: and you shall lend unto many nations, and you shall not borrow (the treasure-house of Heaven will be opened to you)” (Deut. 28:12).

I think we can imagine that the treasure-house of Heaven is bountiful indeed! And now He tells us that He will on our behalf, “open unto you His good Treasure.” Believe it and receive it!

“And the LORD shall make you the head, and not the tail; and you shall be above only, and you shall not be beneath; if that you hearken unto the Commandments of the LORD your God, which I command you this day, to observe and to do them (again, obedience is set before us as the condition)” (Deut. 28:13).

As we have stated, our Lord has already perfectly kept every single “Commandment,” and has done so all on our behalf. Our Faith in Him and what He did for us at the Cross gives us all of this, which was promised to Israel of old, and which Promise continues unto this very hour to Spiritual Israel, which pertains to all who will believe.

I believe!

PROPHECY

“To another Prophecy” (I Cor. 12:10).

The Gift of Prophecy is for “Edification,” which means “to build up,” and “Exhortation,” which means “to implore,” and “Comfort,” which means “to console” (I Cor. 14:3).

The Bible student must understand that having the Gift of Prophecy doesn’t mean that the person stands in the Office of the Prophet. While all who stand in the Office of the Prophet have the Gift of “Prophecy,” as well as the Gifts of “Word of Wisdom and Word of Knowledge,” and “discerning of spirits,” still, those who have these particular Gifts do not at all stand in the Office of the Prophet. In other words, just because a Believer has these Gifts, he doesn’t automatically fill the Office of the Prophet.

THE OFFICE OF THE PROPHET

To be frank, there is no relationship whatsoever, in the pure sense of the word, of the Office of the Prophet and those who have the Gift of Prophecy, etc. The Office of the Prophet is one of the fivefold Ministry Gifts (Eph. 4:11).

The one who stands in the Office of the Prophet is used by the Lord to “foretell” and “forthtell.” And yet, most of the Ministry of the God-called Prophet is to serve in the capacity of “forthtelling.” That means that the Prophet serves as a Preacher of Righteousness in order to call the Church to Repentance. Actually, John the Baptist, who Jesus referred to as the greatest Prophet born of woman, served precious little in the arena of “foretelling,” which speaks of dealing with the future. Almost all of his Ministry was in the realm of “forthtelling,” which was to call Israel to Repentance.

THE GIFT OF PROPHECY

Many times Believers get the Office of the Prophet and the Gift of Prophecy confused. They are two different things altogether. As we have stated, only a tiny few who have the Gift of Prophecy, at the same time, stand in the Office of the Prophet.

Those who have the Gift of Prophecy are used of the Lord to edify the Body of Christ by their utterances, to exhort the Body of Christ to live right, and to comfort Believers.

When someone who claims to have the Gift of Prophecy pronounces doom and gloom on the congregation, such cannot be construed as being Scriptural. As would be obvious, such does not edify, does not exhort, and does not comfort. Paul said, “He who Prophesies edifies the Church” (I Cor. 14:4).

As well, Paul said, “The spirits of the Prophets are subject to the Prophets” (I Cor. 14:32).

What did he mean by that?

He meant that if an individual claims to be compelled to blurt out at any time whatever he thinks that God has given him, that person is out of order. The Holy Spirit works with the spirit of a person with both deciding when is the right time for an utterance to be given.

As an example, if the Lord is anointing me to preach, He is not going to anoint somebody else to interrupt what I’m saying with a Word of Prophecy or Tongues, etc., as Scriptural and right as those things may be in their own capacity.
“I thought in my mind and my spirit, how in the world could this be done, the Gospel of Jesus Christ going to every city, town, and village in the Soviet Union?”

Down through the years, many times the Lord has been anointing me greatly to preach, with such registering powerfully with the congregation. And then, because of the anointing that was on me and, as well, on the entirety of the congregation, somebody would feel that they had to give an utterance in Tongues or Prophecy at that particular time, which was not a help, but rather, a hindrance. Once again, “the spirits of the Prophets are subject to the Prophets,” meaning that the Lord does not compel anyone to do anything.

Now, there have been times when I’ve been preaching that the Lord would move on someone to give an utterance in Tongues, which was meant to be interpreted, or a word of Prophecy, and it was right, Scriptural, and correct. But, once again, if a person who is used by the Lord in these capacities will ask the Lord to help them to be used at the right time, the Lord will honor that request.

These Gifts are a great blessing to the Church, if they are used correctly; however, to be used correctly, the person who has these Gifts must be consecrated to the Lord. I’m glad that I can say that virtually all of the Gifts are in Operation in Family Worship Center, for which we are so thankful to the Lord. At the same time, I cannot remember when one of the Gifts has been used out of place. Our people are led by the Spirit, and if one is led by the Spirit, one will conduct oneself correctly. In fact, the entirety of the Fourteenth Chapter of I Corinthians is given over by the Apostle Paul to instruct the Church as to how the three vocal gifts of Prophecy, Tongues, and Interpretation of Tongues are to be used.

IS PREACHING PROPHECY?

In the truest sense of the word, no, preaching is not Prophecy! And yet, at the same time, at times during the body of preaching, there very definitely can be a word of Prophecy given. Let me give you an example.

THE FORMER SOVIET UNION

Frances and I, along with Jim Woolsey, who had set up the meetings, in 1985 were in what was then known as the Soviet Union for a series of meetings. I preached in Moscow, in Siberia, and in Minsk.

I ministered in a Pentecostal Church in Minsk on a Sunday morning. The place was filled to absolute capacity. In fact, it was right in the midst of the message, as the Spirit of God moved powerfully over that congregation, that my interpreter, a KGB agent, was wondrously Saved.

As I delivered a particular statement and then paused for him to interpret it, he said nothing. I turned around and looked at him, and tears were rolling down his cheeks. At that moment he gave his heart to Christ.

Right in the middle of this message the Lord spoke through me by Prophecy, which was also a Word of Wisdom.

I made the statement that the Gospel of Jesus Christ was going to go into every city, every town, and every village in the Soviet Union. When I said those words, I knew they were from the Lord, but they were so powerful and so far sweeping that it scared me.

When the Service ended and Frances and I and others were going back to the hotel, I mentioned to her about this incident.

I thought in my mind and my spirit, how in the world could this be done, the Gospel of Jesus Christ going to every city, town, and village in the Soviet Union? This was an atheistic country that did not believe in God. But, I knew that it was of the Lord, and somehow He would bring it to pass.

JIM WOOLSEY

Jim Woolsey was in charge of placing our Telecast all over the world in country after country with it translated into various languages.

He came into my office in the latter part of 1988 and said, “Brother Swaggart, I believe that it’s possible for us to go on television in Latvia.” This was one of the Soviet Republics.

In the latter part of 1988, if I remember correctly, he was able to place the telecast, translated into Russian, on T.V.1 out of Moscow.

He went on to say that we would have to translate the program into Russian, but he thought it could be done. I told him to go ahead, but I will have to confess that I was somewhat skeptical in my spirit.

However, the Lord helped him to do just that, to get the program on in the capital city of Latvia, and the Lord used it mightily.

A few weeks later he came into my office again, and again said, “Brother Swaggart, I believe I can get our telecast on T.V.1 out of Moscow.”

Now, T.V.1 in Moscow was the world’s largest television network, incorporating over 7,000 stations, reaching every city, town, and village in the Soviet Union. Actually, it was the propaganda channel for Communism, which meant that it covered every nook and cranny of one-sixth of the world’s land surface. I will never forget my reaction when he told me that. I honestly didn’t believe he could do such a thing. But again, I told him to proceed. I did not know where we would find the money to pay for it, but I knew it was the Lord.

In the latter part of 1988, if I remember correctly, he was able to place the telecast, translated into Russian, on T.V.1 out of Moscow. To say that it was a Miracle of the Lord would be a gross understatement.

For over two years we broadcast over this network, covering the entirety of the Soviet Union, exactly that which the Lord had spoken in the midst of the message which I delivered that Sunday morning in Minsk.

A CONFIRMATION OF THE WORD OF GOD

A particular religious denomination here in the States claimed that we were lying about being on television in what was then known as the Soviet Union. One brother who was supporting our work, which support we desperately needed, I might quickly add, believed this lie and quit supporting.

But, as he told me later, he did not feel right in his spirit about what he had done. So, on one particular day he specifically asked the Lord to show him if Brother Swaggart were telling the truth, or if he were lying about being on television in the Soviet Union.

The very next day, if I remember correctly, he picked up the local newspaper and was thumbing through it and came upon an article that had been reprinted from the prestigious Washington Post. It was written by a lady reporter who worked for the Post, and who had travelled extensively in Russia and had done so for the purpose of writing this article about the changes which were taking place in that great country.

Down in the body of the article, which was quite long, and which had nothing to do with Jesus Christ, the lady wrote, “And by the way, I could not get away from Jimmy Swaggart. Everywhere I went, in every city, I saw his telecast.”

When he read that statement, he said to me in a letter, or it was over the phone, I don’t remember which, “Brother Swaggart, I turned cold all over.” He went to the post office immediately and sent a gift, asking the Lord, as well, to forgive him.

When that Word was given in the midst of that message that Sunday morning in Minsk, it looked, for all practical purposes, to be absolutely impossible. How in the world, in the midst of monolithic Soviet Union, could the Gospel of Jesus Christ go into every city, town, and village? But it did, and it was because the Lord orchestrated every bit of it.

I will have to say one more thing regarding this. It was not my Faith that brought about this tremendous Miracle of God, but rather, the Faith of Jim Woolsey. He probably made forty trips to Moscow working on this project before he finally got the approval of the powers that be for us to go on the air. But, he knew what the Lord had said, and he persevered, which opened the door for one of the greatest Moves of God that the world has ever known, for which we give the Lord all the Praise and all the Glory.

Each one of these CD/DVD Combinations, are unique in that the title song for the most part, is powerfully Anointed by the Holy Spirit and, of course, we believe the others are as well. But the title song will minister to you exactly as it did the congregation at Family Worship Center, and our congregation over Television, Radio, and the Internet. When the Spirit of God is in a song, it doesn’t leave. When we put it on CD or DVD, it remains there and will continue to bless whoever hears it.

So I would urge you, please, to take advantage of this HALF PRICE OFFER, and I guarantee you that you won’t be disappointed. It’s music that constitutes worship, which constitutes the Presence of God, which constitutes Blessings for you.

"THE ERROR OF THE WICKED" (II PET. 3:17)

Just recently, I received a letter from a pastor who was upset because of what I had written in my article in the May (2009) Issue of our Evangelist Magazine. I was pointing out how the ministers of today have no problem misusing Passages of Scripture to support their own agendas. I am alarmed at how loosely preachers treat Scripture today. There seems to be no fear or concern as to whether or not the Scripture verses used remain true to the original context of the Bible. Many times preachers try to use Passages that do not relate at all to the point of their writings and messages, so they will exegete the passage in such a way to make it appear to say one thing when it really says something else. Modern ministers have actually become quite adept at this, twisting and perverting Scripture to the point that the original meaning is totally lost! Instead of making their message line up with the Word, they attempt to make the Word line up with their message. Yet, if anyone speaks out about such abuse of the Scripture he is harshly judged and attacked on a personal level. Nobody wants to evaluate content anymore to find out if Scripture is being misused, perverted, or twisted by the preacher quoting it. Instead, they would rather attack, and often viciously, the person that speaks up and says that a particular Scripture is not being used accurately! Too many would rather defend a preacher than God's Holy Word.

JUDGING?

Romans 2:1 is always used in an attempt to silence those who speak out: "Therefore you are inexcusable, O man, whosoever you are who judges (presents this segment as directed to the Jews): for wherein you judge another, you condemn yourself (in effect, says that God judges one who judges another in the same manner in which he himself has judged, hence, ‘condemning himself’ [Mat. 7:1-2]); for you who judge do the same things (in effect, says that the Jews were no better than the Gentiles, whom they constantly berated).” But, does Romans 2:1 mean that we are never to judge? Does Romans 2:1 mean that we are to ignore blatant mistreatment of God’s Word? Of course not, because John 7:24 states, or I should say commands, that we are to judge righteous judgment, which is judgment based upon the Word of God: “Judge not according to the appearance, (in effect, says, ‘if you think you have not violated the Sabbath in Circumcision, then how can you think I broke the Sabbath when I healed one of you who had been helpless for thirty-eight years?’), but judge righteous judgment (says that judgment must be rendered according to the whole Word of God, and not merely by taking a part and perverting it to one’s own satisfaction).” And, only when judgment is made in another way, a way other than by the standard of God’s Word, is it a violation of Matthew 7:1, which states: “Judge not, that you be not judged (this statement made by Christ harks back to Verses 25 through 34 of the previous Chapter; the idea is, God may permit poverty to test His Child, but fellow Believers are not to err, as Job’s friends did, and believe the trial to be a judgment for secret sin; as well, the word, ‘judging,’ as used here, covers every aspect of dealing with our fellowman).”

DISCERNMENT

A faithful Christian must always discern (a word not often used in the modern church). It is one of the Gifts of the Spirit. “Discernment” means to discern whether or not what you are hearing is the Spirit of God, human spirits, or evil spirits. Example after example of discernment is given in the Bible. In this very same Chapter, which says, “Judge not, that you be not judged,” Verse 15 goes on to say: “Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep’s clothing, but inwardly they...”
clearly; this is speaking of character assassination analyze ourselves, then, and only then, can we 'see our personal situation is worse; when we properly brother's eye out the beam out of your own eye; and then you hypocrite Lord says about the person that judges in this way: "you life .  Verse 5 of Matthew 7 goes on to tell you what the one for his sin while you have sin dominating your own son of these verses is plain; you cannot accurately judge another who may have a mote in his eye.  The total les- beam in his own eye is certainly not capable of judging "judged.)  Now, it is becoming more evident that Verse far worse spiritual condition than the one being the fact that the person doing the judging is in your own eye?; and, behold, a beam is in Jury, and Executioner) (the seriousness of setting ourselves up as Judge, brother, Let me pull out the mote out of your eye (the Believer is not to be looking for fault or wrongdoing in the lives of fellow Believers), but consider not the beam that is in your own eye?  (We have plenty in our own lives that needs eliminating, without looking for faults in others.  The 'mote' and 'beam' are contrasted!  The constant judging of others portrays the fact that we are much worse off than the one we are judging.)"

MOTIVES

Going on to Verse 4: "Or how will you say to your brother, Let me pull out the mote out of your eye (the seriousness of setting ourselves up as Judge, Jury, and Executioner); and, behold, a beam is in your own eye?  (Once again draws attention to the fact that the person doing the judging is in far worse spiritual condition than the one being judged.)"  Now, it is becoming more evident that Verse 1 refers to hypocritical judgment.  A person who has a beam in his own eye is certainly not capable of judging another who may have a mote in his eye.  The total lesson of these verses is plain; you cannot accurately judge one for his sin while you have sin dominating your own life.  Verse 5 of Matthew 7 goes on to tell you what the Lord says about the person that judges in this way: "You hypocrite (aptly describes such a person), first cast out the beam out of your own eye; and then you shall see clearly to cast out the mote out of your brother's eye (the very fact that we do not address ourselves, but rather others, portrays the truth that our personal situation is worse; when we properly analyze ourselves, then, and only then, can we 'see clearly'; this is speaking of character assassination and not the correction of doctrine)."

JUDGING PERSONALLY

The letter I received from this minister said, and I quote, "I was greatly disappointed when I read how Mrs. Swaggart referred to Joel Osteen as false teaching.  Saying he misquoted scriptures, etc.  I have known Joel Osteen since he was 10 years old . . . took him fishing; know him very well.  I know of no more humble and loving man.  He and I both are amazed at the favor God has given him.  She may say she was only attacking his teaching, but I saw it as an attack on him personally."

This minister quotes Romans 2:1 (as mentioned earlier), and then he quotes Ephesians 4:29 which says, "Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may Minister Grace unto the hearers."  Now, the truth is that this man is judging me personally, while at the same time quoting Romans 2:1 to me.  See the double standard?  He first says we are not to judge, but then he turns right around and judges me, saying I am attacking someone on a personal level when I am not.  I am only pointing out the error in his teaching.  In this minister's letter, not once does he mention the verse of Scripture that was being perverted and whether I was right or wrong in what I had said in my article about it.  So, the minister does not even himself discern the true meaning of the verse.  Instead, he quoted another verse of Scripture to me (Eph. 4:29), which, again, had nothing to do with the statement I made in my article.  Ephesians 4:29 refers to slander.  I, in no way, slandered anyone in my article.

PLEASING MEN OR PLEASING GOD

Besides, how can Grace be ministered if Scripture is misquoted?  It is only when the Word of God is properly used that Grace and Healing can be ministered.  If God's Word is distorted, it will do nothing for any individual.  He then closes out his letter with this statement: "This article did not edify me nor did it minister grace to me."  If he felt that way about my article, he should have pointed out to me where I had misused or twisted Scripture, but he didn't because I didn't misuse any Scriptures.  It was Joel Osteen who failed to minister Grace to his people with his improper use of Scripture, not me when I used Biblical discernment.  I would say this to this pastor: "For do I now persuade men, or God?  (In essence, Paul is saying, 'do I preach man's doctrine, or God's?') or do I seek to please men?  (This is what false apostles do.) for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the Servant of Christ (one cannot please both men and God at the same time)" (Gal. 1:10).  In fact, the whole First Chapter of Galatians would be beneficial to read.

THE ISSUE

Another point I want to make pertains to his feelings for Joel Osteen. Certainly, it is only right and normal to love our friends, and it is only right to not want to see them misrepresented in any way. But, whether someone is humble and loving or whether he is the opposite is not the issue here. The issue is: was Scripture misused or misrepresented? If it was, then we cannot protect our friends no matter how nice his personality. We have to love God and His Word more than we love our friends. If our friends err in their use of Scripture, then we must obey II Thessalonians 3:6 which states: “Now we command you, Brethren, in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ (the Apostle is saying that what he is telling the people is ‘the Word of God,’ and must be heeded!), that you withdraw yourselves from every brother who walks disorderly (literally means, ‘to walk out of the ranks of the Word of God’; in abbreviated form, it means we should withdraw fellowship from those who teach something other than the Cross; it does not speak of excommunication), and not after the tradition which he received of us (after the teaching which Paul had given, which was definitely from the Lord; ‘tradition,’ as it is used here, does not mean ‘unwritten doctrines,’ as this word normally means; the Apostle is referring to what the Lord had given him, which he had faithfully taught to the people).” If we really and truly love our brothers, then we must stand true and faithful to the Word of God that will bring them blessing as well! II Timothy 4:2 says, “Preach the Word (refers to the whole body of revealed Truth, which means the entirety of the Word of God); be instant in season, out of season (presents the idea of the Preacher holding himself in constant readiness to proclaim the Word); reprove (the Preacher is to deal with sin, both in the lives of his unsaved hearers and in those of the Saints to whom he Ministers, and he is to do so in no uncertain tones and terms), rebuke (a suggestion in some cases of impending penalty); exhort with all longsuffering and Doctrine. (This tells us that the ‘reproving’ and the ‘rebuking’ must be done with gentleness. As well, the ‘longsuffering’ refers to a gentleness that continues even when the Message is met with rejection. However, the ‘Doctrine’ is not to change, even though it is rejected.)”

PERVERTING THE GOSPEL OF CHRIST

Paul warned the Galatians about those who “pervert the Gospel of Christ.” Galatians 1:6 through 9 says, “I marvel that you are so soon removed from Him (the Holy Spirit) Who called you into the Grace of Christ (made possible by the Cross) unto another gospel (anything which doesn’t have the Cross as its Object of Faith): Which is not another (presents the fact that Satan’s aim is not so much to deny the Gospel, which he can little do, as to corrupt it); but there be some who trouble you, and would pervert the Gospel of Christ (once again, to make the object of Faith something other than the Cross). But though we (Paul and his associates), or an Angel from Heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you (Jesus Christ and Him Crucified), let him be accursed (eternally condemned; the Holy Spirit speaks this through Paul, making this very serious). As we said before, so say I now again (at sometime past, he had said the same thing to them, making their defection even more serious), If any man preach any other gospel unto you (anything other than the Cross) than that you have received (which Saved your souls), let him be accursed (‘eternally condemned,’ which means the loss of the soul).”

EXPOSING FALSE DOCTRINE

It is sad to say that today’s modern church is preaching a perverted gospel. We are told that we must cooperate with such modern teachers in Evangelism and other Christian works, but the Bible teaches, instead, that we must expose the false prophets. If we do not, we have betrayed Christ and His Gospel! The entirety of the Bible abounds with examples of false prophets who are named and exposed. All of this modern talk about “love” is used as an excuse for not exposing error, but such is not really Biblical Love at all. Biblical Love tells the Truth. Hebrews 5:14 says, “But strong meat belongs to them who are of full age (refers to those who are mature in the Lord), even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil. (Such a person is walking after the Spirit. This refers to placing one’s Faith in the Cross and not after the flesh, the flesh refers to depending on other things [Rom. 8:1-2, 11]).” A person who is able to discern between good and evil has at least one of the major marks of Spiritual Maturity. Vine’s Expository Dictionary says that the meaning of “discern” is to examine, scrutinize, question, determine, decide, test, or prove. Judging is translated “discerning” of spirits, judging by evidence whether evil or good. Those who are unwilling or incapable of discerning and/or judging between good and evil are revealing either their disobedience or their immaturity in the things of God.

Galatians 5:11 – “And I, Brethren, if I yet preach Circumcision, why do I yet suffer persecution? (Any message other than the Cross draws little opposition.) then is the offence of the Cross ceased. (The Cross offends the world and most of the Church. So, if the preacher ceases to preach the Cross as the only way of Salvation and Victory, then opposition and persecution will cease. But so will Salvation!)”

“The Offence of the Cross,” or as Kenneth Wuest says, “The Stumbling Block” of the Cross is not new, hence the writing of the Book of Galatians. The purpose of the Book is to restate the foundation Doctrine of Justification by Faith and not through the keeping of the Law, especially circumcision for all Gentile male Christians. Galatians is a letter of correction and rebuke to the Galatian Christians who were being deceived into the lie that simple Faith in Christ was not enough but they had to also keep the Law of Moses. The following will give you a brief overview as to why the Holy Spirit had Paul to write this Epistle.

1. That they had been at first devotedly attached to the Apostle Paul, and because he had been the instrument in bringing them to Christ; consequently, they received his commands and instructions with implicit confidence when he was among them.
2. They had been perverted from the Doctrine which he taught them soon after he had left them.
3. That this had been done by persons who were of Jewish origin, and who insisted on the observance of the rites of the Jewish Religion.
4. These false teachers claim to have come directly from Jerusalem, and to have derived their views and their authority from the Apostles there (not the original Twelve).
5. That they taught that the Apostle Paul was inferior to the Apostles there; that he had been called more recently into the Apostolic Office, if at all; that the Apostles at Jerusalem must be regarded as the source of authority in the Christian Church; and that, therefore, the teaching of Paul should yield to that which was derived directly from Jerusalem.
6. That the Laws of Moses were binding, and were necessary in order for Justification. That the Rite of Circumcision especially was a binding obligation; and it is probable that they had prevailed on many of the Galatians to be circumcised, and certain that they had induced them to observe the Jewish festivals.
7. It may even be possible, that they also claimed that Paul himself had changed his views since he had been among the Galatians, and now maintained the necessity of circumcision. Perhaps they alleged this, from the undoubted fact, that Paul, when at Jerusalem (Acts 21:26) had complied with some of the customs of the Jewish Rituals.
8. That they urged that all the Promises of God were made to Abraham, and that whoever would partake of those Promises must be circumcised as Abraham was. This Paul answers in Galatians 3:7; 4:7.
9. That in consequence of the promulgation of these views, great dissensions had arisen in the Church, and strifes of an unhappy nature existed, greatly contrary to the spirit which should be manifested by those who bore the Christian name.

From this description of the state of things in the Churches of Galatia, the design of the Epistle is apparent, and the scope of the argument will be easily seen (Barnes). There is no doubt that Paul was angry when writing this Epistle. In Galatians, Chapter 1, Verses 6-10, Paul writes, “I marvel that you are so soon removed from Him Who called you into the Grace of Christ unto another gospel. Which is not another; but there be some who trouble you, and pervert the Gospel of Christ. But though we or an Angel from Heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that you have received, let him be accursed.”

Kenneth Wuest, the noted Greek Theologian of the Twentieth Century, in his book, “WORD STUDIES IN THE GREEK NEW TESTAMENT” says of these Verses:

“‘I marvel that you are so soon removed.’ ‘Marvel’ is from ‘thaumazo’ which means ‘to wonder at, to marvel.’ Its cognate adjective means ‘wonderful, marvelous.’ Thus Paul considered the defection of the Galatian Christians as an extraordinary thing. Alford says of this word, ‘a word of mildness, inasmuch as it imports that better things were expected of them – and of condescension, as letting down the writer to the level of the readers and even challenging explanation from them. Still, like many such mild words, it carries to the guilty conscience even sharper rebuke than a harsher one would.’ ‘Are removed’ is from ‘metatithemi’ which means ‘to transpose two things, one of which is put in the place of the other.’ In Classical Greek, it was used of a turncoat. The word is used of one altering his opinion or becoming of another mind. The word was also used of desertion or revolt, frequently of a change in religion, philosophy, or morals. The present tense indicates that when Paul wrote, the defection of the Galatians was yet only in progress. Had he used the perfect tense, that would have indicated that the Galatians had actually and finally turned against Grace and had come to a settled attitude in the matter. The mind of Paul wavers between fear and hope as to the outcome. Paul was trying desperately to arrest the progress of this new doctrinal infection if he could. The Judaizers had not yet achieved any decisive success, although the Galatians were disposed to lend a powers of perception, that failure being due to a moral defect. It is always true, as it was with the Galatians, that the act of a Christian who embraces false doctrine, is due to sin in his life. The Galatian defection was not due to any fickleness of the Gauls. They are not prominent in the picture. Paul sends this stinging rebuke therefore,
'O Galatians, who fail in the first characteristic of the Galatians, namely, the ability to use their heads and appreciate the finer values of life.'

"Who has bewitched you?" The word 'bewitched' is from 'baskaino.' Paul's metaphor is derived from the popular superstition of the evil eye. The word denoted either the fascination of an evil eye or some malignant influence akin to it. The infatuation of the Galatians is attributed to the baneful effect of some mysterious power of evil."

"THE OFFENCE OF THE CROSS"

In the Greek, "offence of the Cross" means "a trap, a snare, temptation," or "stumbling block." Paul uses it in the sense of that which is so offensive to the natural mind that it arouses fierce opposition. Why should Paul link his refusal to approve Circumcision for the Gentiles to an offence to the Cross? For the same reason he opposed any of the Law being added to Faith and Grace. The Cross proclaims that man can do nothing to save himself. The keeping of the Law which was impossible to do, could not save, but Salvation can only come through Faith in Christ's Atoning Work on Calvary's Cross.

In researching this article, I came across two articles concerning this Verse. One written in 1886 by C.H. Spurgeon and the other written in 1932 by T. Austin Sparks, both famed English ministers of the Gospel.

In the first, Spurgeon wrote:
"Paul intends here to declare that the offence of the Cross never has ceased, and never can cease. To suppose it to have ceased is folly."

"The religion of Jesus is most peaceful, mild and benevolent."

"Yet its history shows it to have been assailed with bitterest hate all along. It is clearly offensive to the unregenerate mind."

"There is no reason to believe that it is one jot more palatable to the world than it used to be. The world and the Gospel are both unchanged."

Part II will continue next month.

OVER-THE-AIR (DTV) TELEVISION

For those of you who are not familiar with digital television, these are free "old fashioned TV channels" that are able to be picked up with a digital tuner and antenna. Most new televisions are equipped with built-in digital tuners or you can purchase a tuner from your local electronics store (Best Buy®, Radio Shack®, etc.). As well, you can purchase the proper antenna at your local electronics store. Many viewers under the broadcast signal of the television station can use a small, digital antenna inside the home. For those on the outer edge of the signal or to receive the best signal, an outdoor antenna may be required. Both indoor and outdoor antennas are available for less than $50!

THE GOSPEL OF JESUS CHRIST

Dear Brother Swaggart,

Greetings and love in the mighty Name of God. I am Founder and Chairman of a Pentecostal church in Pakistan, and we have been preaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ in Pakistan since 1978. Thousands of souls have been won for the Kingdom of Heaven, and about 50 Pastors and Evangelists are prepared for the Lord’s field, and are preaching the Gospel in different areas of Pakistan. I and my family watch your programs daily, and receive blessing from Family Worship Center. When I see your programs it makes me very happy!

THE “MESSAGE OF THE CROSS” FOR SANCTIFICATION

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I am in the U.K. I have just finished watching the Message of the Cross this evening, and I want to thank you also very much for continuing to tell us this message. I did not get it straight away. I am a Saved person, for some 30 years, but I did not understand the “Message of the Cross” for Sanctification. But I have recently removed myself from a church that had gone down the “new thing” route, and finding SBN has been so wonderful to me. I have been delivered from bad dreams and other difficult problems in my life. I feel a freedom in the Lord I have never known before. So, I say, “thank you.” Thank you to everyone at SBN, I love the music and the singing, I drink in the preaching, and I have an Expositor’s Study Bible en route to me as I type!

THE WORD OF GOD

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I just want to thank you for the blessings I received tonight via SonLife Broadcasting Network. I was watching the Sunday Service on DirecTV®, and I felt the Presence of the Holy Spirit fill me. I broke down in tears, and could not stop praising the Lord with thanks for all the Blessings that He has given me in my life. I love the “Revelation Song”, as it has always spoken to me. But hearing it sung by your singers, choir, and congregation just brought it to a whole new level. I have never been a “hand raising” Christian, although I have watched others in church and felt that they were a blessing to our congregation. I stood up in my living room half way through the song, arms stretched out in praising, and I think I finally felt what they were feeling. I am so grateful and blessed to have tuned into your station when I did.

Thank you so much for everything you do to spread the Word of God, and the Message of the Cross to so many around the world. You have helped me get closer to God and learn how to invite the Holy Spirit into my life.

PRAYED THE SINNER’S PRAYER

Hi Brother Donnie,

I just have to give you my Testimony. Two months ago my Uncle died, and I was feeling low. I was flicking through my TV channels, and heard the music from a Telecast. I had been slain in the Spirit 14 years ago, but had backslid. I heard you preach, and prayed the sinner’s prayer with you. I also asked for healing from my burden of nicotine. Well, I started to talk in Tongues, and haven’t smoked since! Keep up the good work.

THE LORD IMPRESSED UPON ME TO GIVE

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I own an earthmoving company, and things are really slow at this time. In September my truck had a very expensive repair, and I didn’t know where the money would come from to fix it. I was watching the September Share-a-thon, and the Lord impressed upon me to give. I was going to give an amount, but did not have peace about it, so I gave a little more. This past week I received a check for almost 4 times the amount it cost to fix my truck! God is awesome and has never let me down. I know I fail Him daily, but I have an Advocate and His Name is Jesus. I really appreciate the preaching and music. Keep doing what you are doing, and I will continue to see God’s Blessings upon JSM.

ALABAMA
Dear Brother Swaggart,

Some years back, I was led by the Holy Spirit to purchase The Expositor's Study Bible, Giant Print Edition. I bought three. It has helped enlighten my knowledge in continuing to get to know Christ. I see a love and emphasis on the Cross of Christ. Truly, you are right on point. I was asked a few months back to go on radio and over the Internet teaching the Bible. I use your Edition of the Bible all the time, and it blesses me and I am sure others are blessed over and over again.

ILLINOIS

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I want to let you know how much your Podcast has blessed me Brother Swaggart. My Spirit is leaping from the messages you've preached. I am 26 years old, and been saved all my life. I've sung in church, and God has given me songs to write now some many years, and I'm just starting to preach. I've grown up hearing you sing and preach, and God has led me to your Podcast and SBN and it has got me so thirsty for the things of God. I've heard 7 of your messages in the past 3 days, and I look forward to them each day. When one is finished, I start another! What a blessing you are. May God bless you and your family. I am just one of the many people who will lie down tonight thanking God that there is a Jimmy Swaggart preaching the Cross, showing people Jesus, and how to serve Him. In closing, because of your messages, I am craving God like never before. Thank God!

ILLINOIS

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I am on a fixed income, and get food stamps, $160 a month. But since I became a Media Church Member, and started paying my tithes, I have saved $116 on my food this month! God bless you.

WASHINGTON

Dear Frances & Friends,

I just received The Expositor's Study Bible this past weekend in the mail, and I can't put it down! I just finished Romans, and I get it! I get the Message of the Cross! I keep reading Chapters 5 through 10 over and over! Every time I read it, God opens up the Word like never before. I felt it in my Spirit as I read Romans, I felt Jesus pouring it into my Spirit what Paul was given, and Brother Swaggart too. I really understand now how to have Victory and how to live for God! Thank you and everyone at your Ministry. The Expositor's Study Bible is great, and it explains so very much. I am getting this Bible for all of my family members! I love your Ministry and all who are preaching and teaching the Word of God. Thank you for carrying this burden you have for saving souls through our Lord Jesus Christ. We love you, and may God bless everyone there!

"PAUL THE APOSTLE" BOOK

"Paul the Apostle" book by Brother Swaggart has blessed and encouraged me. Thank you so much for giving us this greater understanding of the Revelation of the New Covenant given to Paul as the Lord revealed it to you. Because I come from a Nazarene background, perhaps you can appreciate my struggle with holiness and Sanctification, which is impossible to obtain by self-efforts instead of Faith in the Redemptive Work of the Cross. I am barely finished reading the book and was challenged today by someone from the Church of God who said I should keep the Sabbath, not eat meat, and that Christ didn't die on a Cross but a pole. I will refer to Paul often, and The Expositor's Study Bible!

God bless you all at JSM.

CROSSFIRE BIBLE

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I bought a Crossfire Bible for my son, he is in prison. He sent me a letter today that I would like to share with you. “I got a little surprise in the mail today, that I think you had something to do with. I got this new Bible that I haven’t been able to put down since I got it. It explains everything in specific detail, and so far I love it! Thank you! It is really helping me with more of the in-depth questions in my Bible study courses.” I just wanted to share this response with you, I love your Ministry!

I CAME TO CHRIST

Sister Frances,

As for me and my house, we shall serve the Lord! I came to Christ one night while Brother Donnie was preaching, and your husband is teaching me how to have victory over my sin in Jesus! I was a harlot, I quit my job as a stripper back in 2011, and since then I am 4 books away from reading the whole Bible, and I have started my own cleaning business. Thank ya'll for doing what you do, preaching Jesus saves. Jesus has changed my life, but it was your programs that have helped me and are the only outside teaching, besides the Bible, that I have ever had! I know what ya'll are doing is right. If the country strays from God, the people suffer. That's what is happening in America today, as our leaders are so far away from God. We need to get back to Jesus and what He has done for us!

“JOY TO THE WORLD”

Luke 2:10-14 – “And the Angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people (includes all races).

“For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord (this Baby was not to become a King and a Saviour — He was born both).

“And this shall be a sign unto you; You shall find the Baby wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.

“And suddenly there was with the Angel a multitude of the Heavenly Host praising God, and saying (many other Angels had been with the Angel who spoke to the shepherds, but now the shepherds can see them as well; this presents sinless Angels praising God for sending the Redeemer; if they did so, certainly we should as well),

“Glory to God in the highest, and on Earth peace, good will toward men (Jesus is that ‘Peace’; during His approximate 33 years of life on this Earth, the Roman Empire was relatively at peace; it was because the Prince of Peace was here; peace will not return until Jesus returns).”

A TEMPORARY DIVERSION

In the last few months we have been bringing you a series of articles on “Why My Faith Is In The Cross” based on Colossians 2:11-15. I felt impressed to digress this month and testify to the Goodness of the Lord. We will continue with the series in the January Issue of The Evangelist Magazine, the Lord willing.

DECEMBER, 1985

I suppose that for most people, Holiday memories are good ones. In most cases Christmas is a time of being with loved ones and family, a time of sharing and giving, a time that raises the human heart in hope. But for some, the holidays are a dreary reminder of just how awful and lonely life can be. In December of 1985, I was hurting. The cost of my own choices and decisions were starting to become more and more evident to me with each passing day. When I first started drinking alcohol, it had been fun. It had seemed harmless. Why, everyone partied a little bit, didn’t they? But now, some 15 years later, the alcohol was no longer fun, it was a necessity. If I only had enough money for a six-pack of beer or dinner, it was the six-pack of beer that was purchased. The trouble that alcohol had produced was painfully obvious. The results were bad decisions, wrecked cars, multiple DUI’s, and destroyed relationships.

I found myself working in construction, but starting off the day with a red beer to ease the pain of the drinking from the night before. The marijuana use and the cocaine use had escalated over the last several years as well. Now, ten minutes after getting up I was smoking my first joint. The results of the drugs were similar to that of the alcohol. Wreckage everywhere. Finances depleted or nonexistent. I had a great deal of debt owed to those who had fronted me drugs, which I was supposed to sell. But instead of selling them, I used them. These days, due to incessant smoking of pot and cigarettes, part of my mornings were spent spitting up blood in the bathroom.

As the holidays came into view, I tried to find joy in the lights, the Christmas tree, the season, but to no avail. I remember thinking to myself that if I hadn’t cleaned up my act with the drugs and alcohol by my next birthday, in May of the upcoming year, I might want to see about going into drug rehab somewhere. I remember vividly one morning after a specifically crazy night in my home,
The decisions for change, those realizations of bondage and wreckage, could never alter my course of action for longer than a few short hours. Though I desired to live differently, the pull and the attraction of the drugs and alcohol would usually end my resolve to change by the time night came. This particular day started off just like any other day. It ended the same way so many others had. With me sitting by myself, doing the drugs I was supposed to be selling, drinking myself into oblivion. But on this night, January 6, 1986, something happened. The cocaine had made me “wired” and by 2:00 a.m. I was wide awake and bored. Having nothing better to do I picked up a family-sized Bible sitting on my fireplace hearth. It was there for decoration, not for use. But this night, God had other plans. I picked up the Bible and without any forethought flipped it open. It fell open to the Book of Proverbs and as I read the Words of Scripture, conviction and guilt of sin weighed heavily. By the time I had reached the close of Chapter Six, God had convinced me of my rebellion and my sin. With head bowed low I cried upon the Name that I had misused for so many years.

JANUARY 6, 1986

The Evangelist
Mark 10:14 – “But when Jesus saw it (saw what the Disciples were doing), He was much displeased (was moved with strong indignation), and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto Me, and forbid them not: for of such is the Kingdom of God (to start a child out right, is to insure its Salvation [Prov. 22:6]).”

On January 22, 1973, a landmark case that appeared before the United States Supreme Court shook the very foundation of the United States of America. This turning point, decided by the Supreme Court, declared that a woman, no matter her circumstances, had the right to choose to have an abortion. This debate had been disputed for nearly 40 years, and has pitted homes, families, towns, and cities against each other. It has reshaped national politics and divided the United States into two groups, Pro-Life and Pro-Choice.

PRO-LIFE AND PRO-CHOICE

The camp that is known as “Pro-Life,” believes that at the moment of conception, the fetus is a living, breathing soul, and that life begins at conception. The other side that is known as “Pro-Choice,” believes that at the moment of conception, that fetus is not a person until the moment of birth, or until it can live on its own, and that the fetus has no rights outside of its mother, and the woman who carries the fetus has the right to decide whether they will be born or not. Despite what has been declared as to its legality by the Supreme Court, we must not look to our Courts to decide what abortion really is, but as Christians, we must look what the Bible says about this topic.

WE ARE MADE IN THE IMAGE OF GOD

First of all, according to the Bible, human beings are made in the Image of God. Genesis 1:27-28 declares, “So God created man in His Own Image (the word ‘man’ should have the definite article, and should read ‘the man,’ that is, Adam – the same man Adam spoken of in 2:7; these are not, therefore, two accounts of the creation of man, but one Divine Statement), in the Image of God created He him (the Image of God was lost at the Fall; however, the restoration of the Image was carried out at the Cross, but the completion of that restoration will not take place until the First Resurrection); male and female created He them (represents, at least as far as we know, the first time that God has created the female gender, at least as it regards intelligent beings; there is no record of any female Angels).

And God blessed them (again, speaks of the ability to reproduce), and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the Earth (the word ‘replenish’ carries the idea of a former creation on the Earth before Adam and Eve; according to Isaiah, Chpt. 14 and Ezekiel, Chpt. 28, Lucifer ruled this world for an undetermined period of time, and did so in Righteousness and Holiness as a beautiful Angel created by God; if, in fact, he did rule the world at this time, it would stand to reason that there has to be some type of creation on the Earth for him to rule; the word ‘replenish’ refers to that creation). . . .”

So, if God created every person in His Image, that should let us know that we are more than a random batch of cells thrown together, with no rhyme or reason attached to it. We reflect, or display, God, Who called us into being with a specific design and purpose. The Lord told the Prophet Jeremiah, “Before I formed you in the belly I knew you,” which tells us that even before that fetus is born, that God knew us. God has taken the time with each and every single one of us, to form us in our mother’s womb, to give us talents that only could come from Above, to show the world that something beautiful could come out of the Fall, a human LIFE.

CHILDREN ARE A BLESSING FROM THE LORD

Secondly, all Children are a Blessing from God. The Psalmist said, “Lo, children are a heritage of the LORD: and the fruit of the womb is His reward” (Ps. 127:3). We have the privilege of bringing life into the world, not to take life from this world. I remember the times when both of our daughters were born. It was the most exciting time of our lives. I can remember when the nurse put both Sam and Abby in my arms, and I had the opportunity to hold them for the very first time. As I looked down at the both of them, during their respective births, the first thing that came over me was joy. Never in my life had I experienced such excitement, joy, euphoria, in all my life, barring my Salvation experience. Each one of my children are a Blessing from the Lord, and they should be looked at as such.

LIFE IS SACRED

Third, and this is the most important, Life is sacred to God. In the Old Testament, even before the Law of Moses was given, we can read in Genesis 9:6, “Whoso sheds a man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed: for in the Image of God made He man.” As well, in the Ten Commandments, God told Moses in Exodus 20:13, “You shall not kill.” All this means, is that if a person, adult, child, or fetus, is killed, it is looked at by God as murder. Yes, I will say this again, every child that is aborted in this Nation, or around the world, God looks at it as murder.

MORALITY CANNOT CHANGE

Some of you reading this article will bring up the legislation that was passed some forty years ago, and try to tell me that the United States Supreme Court has given women the right to choose. However, murder is a Moral Law, and a Moral Law cannot change. It really does not matter as to how many laws are passed by Congress, or the Senate, or even the Supreme Court, you cannot change morality. To answer the question that is at the beginning of this article, “Is abortion really murder?” There is only one answer, YES.

Ladies and Gentlemen, my position, as it should be of every Child of God in the world today, is that according to the Word of God, which is the heartbeat of this Nation, abortion is murder. And that the blood of 1.5 million babies aborted in this Nation alone, per year, will be on the hands of politicians, Presidents, doctors, and parents. I know and understand that this article might make many of you uncomfortable, and might cause you to become incensed, but I must take this stand according to the Word of God, that every LIFE is special, and that every LIFE begins at the moment of conception. The Bible is the Final Authority on the matters of LIFE and death, and I “choose” to stand on the side of the Bible. I choose “LIFE!”

In Him,
Pastor Gabe

FAMILY WORSHIP CENTER
8919 World Ministry Ave.
BATON ROUGE, LA 70810-9099
It seems, right before our eyes, we’re watching the demise of our nation. The cost of living is rampant as oil prices have escalated to $117 a barrel. The U.S. currency has fallen off its throne and is now a stepping-stone that the world is running over to obtain Euro’s. Oh, what should a Christian do? Wrong question. Oh, what should a Christian believe?

AMALGAMATION

The amalgamation of the United States of America, Canada, and Mexico has officially been created not by an act of congress or a vote of the American people, but by three men with a plan from the organization called, The Council on Foreign Relations, CFR. Through a special task force, the CFR produced a report on “Building A North American Community.” The completed report became the framework for a meeting between U.S. President Bush, Canadian Prime Minister Martin, and President Fox of Mexico on March 23, 2005 in Waco, Texas. Quoting from a fact sheet at the www.SPP.gov website, “The leaders of North America agreed to advance the agenda of the Security Prosperity Partnership, SPP.” The focus will be on five high priority initiatives: 1) Smart and secure borders; 2) North American emergency management; 3) North American energy Security initiative; 4) Advancing cooperation on Avian and pandemic influenza; and, 5) The North American Competitiveness Council.

NORTH AMERICAN UNION

Their intention is to create a North American Union, NAU. America can say welcome to open borders, Free Trade Agreements like the North American Free Trade Agreement, NAFTA, and the net loss of jobs associated with these agreements. They tell us not to worry though, because the answer we’re given about losing our jobs is, they’ll make retraining available through our nation’s Community colleges. Our potentially fastest growing segment of society may be the unemployed casualties of Free Trade Agreements. Yet we’re to be encouraged since these casualties can be retrained and repatriated to new jobs, only with less pay and minimal benefits. I suppose our planners feel with universal health care and government sponsored education, which demands tuition be repaid in community service, that everyone will be taken care of. Who’s to pay for all this wonderful socialism? The social work will be handled by the church and its newest army of volunteers. I am still left with a couple of unanswered questions. The first question that comes to mind is, retrain for what jobs? The second question is, who is going to provide for the families while the head of the household is studying for a new job? What’s a Christian to do? Wrong question. What’s a Christian to believe?

GLOBALIZATION

Globalization is the mantra chanted at the political, business, and church sectors. In fact, the church has already been indoctrinated to what it means to be a global citizen thanks to Rick Warren and his unscriptural book, “The Purpose Driven Life”. Warren, who has embraced the globalization mantra by speaking at the United Nations and at the Council on Foreign Relations, prepares his readers by defining what a world-class Christian should do. From his book, “The Purpose Driven Life”, in chapter 38 he says a world-class Christian should, “Shift from self-centered thinking to other-centered thinking . . . Shift from local thinking to global thinking.”

THREE SECTIONS

The ultimate thrust of bringing the three sectors of politics, business, and church together is their unified effort to resolve the world’s problems. Global warming, poverty, and so-called universal health care, with an emphasis on AIDS, aims to unite us together, so we’re to believe.

SOCIALIZATION

If we can all just sacrifice a little for the benefit of society and join the army of the human doings we’ll collectively solve all the world’s problems. Sounds like their globalization is repackaged socialization. Welcome reader to the United Nations Agenda 21. The new global plan for redistribution of the world’s natural resources and money, all under the auspicious of Sustainable Development. Included in their motif is the unification of religions through dialogue. Seeking common ground verses doctrinal differences is heralded at global meetings sponsored by the United Nations, The World Economic Forum, and a host of other organizational meetings. Their first step towards uniting religions was engineered by a contingency of Muslim scholars who held out the proverbial olive branch by inviting the Vatican and Evangelical leaders to enter into dialogue. Representing the church of the human doings was Rick Warren; the head of the National Evangelical Association, Leith Anderson; Bill Hybels, founder of seeker-sensitive Willow Creek church; and, a who’s who list of other Evangelical leaders. They responded in a letter apologizing to Muslims for the Crusades! These Evangelicals want the “dialogue to build relationships that will reshape the two communities to genuinely reflect our common love for God and for one another.”

Their response letter to the Muslim scholar’s further states, “If we fail to make every effort to make peace to come together in harmony, you correctly remind us that our eternal souls are at stake as well.”

God didn’t call the church to enter into dialogue with the lost. We can’t negotiate the Word of God. Islam and Christianity don’t have any common ground! The Koran twists and perverts every Bible truth. The stories of the Koran change the lives of: Jesus, who they deny is God, Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Mary, and many other Bible characters.

WHAT’S A CHRISTIAN TO BELIEVE?

What’s a Christian to do? Wrong question. What’s a Christian to believe? The only hope for America is the preaching of the Gospel of Jesus Christ and Him Crucified. Our sole responsibility is to get the message out to a lost and dying nation and world. The results are up to God. But woe unto us, and the souls who don’t hear, if we fail God’s Great Commission, “Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature” (Mk. 16:15).

PHENOMENAL OFFERS

As I think would be obvious, there are some phenomenal offers in this Magazine of which we would pray that you would take full advantage. And please believe me, there is still time to get some of these great offers for Christmas – that is if you'll do it now. This we guarantee: whatever you choose will keep Christ in Christmas, and will be a tremendous blessing to the recipient. And while we are on the subject, a great big Merry Christmas to you. As somebody has well said, Jesus is the Reason for the Season, and to be frank, the only Reason.

FAMILY WORSHIP CENTER MEDIA CHURCH MEMBERS

There is no way that I can properly express to you the joy of my heart as it regards the FAMILY WORSHIP CENTER MEDIA CHURCH MEMBERS who are located literally all over the world. You are a part of something that's touching the world for Christ. And please understand, we are anticipating the greatest Harvest of souls that the world or the church has ever seen. And you are an integral part of what the Lord is doing.

We have many who ask us, “Brother Swaggart, where do I pay my tithe?” or words to that effect.

Actually, the answer to that is very, very simple. Every Believer should pay their tithe where their soul is fed. Where you get your Spiritual Nourishment, Instruction from the Word of God, and where the Spirit of God Moves as it regards the music, the singing, and the worship, that is what you should support.

For those of you who would like to join the FAMILY WORSHIP CENTER MEDIA CHURCH, all you have to do is drop us a note with your name and address. Of course we take it for granted that you are “born again.”

We will add your name to our role, and you will get a certificate through the mail a little later. As well, Frances, Donnie, or Gabriel will read your name (your first name), and the State in which you live or the country, during our Sunday morning Service, a week or two after getting your request. Every month we’re having an average of about 500 to join, and if you feel like this is what the Lord wants you to do, we would like to have you as well.

TELEVISION

By Satellite we have just gone on Television in Germany, France, and Spain. Actually, the programming will be translated into Spanish for Spain. The Network is going into some 25 million homes 7 days a week, 24 hours a day. How we thank the Lord for this privilege. We feel like that God has called us for the entirety of the world. We are praying now about China, about Brazil, in fact, every nation in the world. Of course, with some of these, the Lord Alone can open the door, but He is perfectly capable of doing so. I want you to pray with us, and I very much need your prayers.

The Lord told me sometime back that even though He had decreed into the Spirit World that of which I speak, in other words that it be done, still He told me that we were going to have to use our Faith. So that’s what I’m asking of you, pray for us and have Faith in what we’re saying, and believe with us. Faith is the key! Faith is the answer! But it must be Faith in Christ and the Cross, which translates into Faith in the Word, simply because the Bible is the Story of “Jesus Christ and Him Crucified” (Jn. 1:1, 14, 29). We have a big job ahead of us, but we have a big God. As you’ve heard me say many times, my Grandmother taught me, “Jimmy, God is a big God, so ask big.” That’s exactly what we are doing. And that’s exactly what God has called us to do – World Evangelism.

ONE MORE THING . . .

As it regards World Evangelism, we get very little financial help from the countries that I have mentioned, in fact, any country except America and the United Kingdom. So, our expenses are more, which means the income has to be more. So here’s what I’m asking of you, please:

I’m asking that each and every month, each of you would seek the Face of the Lord as to what He would have you do that month. And this I guarantee, you being a part of what the Holy Spirit is doing all over the world, I can guarantee you the Blessings of the Lord.

Somebody said the other day, “Well I just give my money, and whatever the preacher does with it is between him and the Lord. I’m not responsible thereafter.”

Oh yes you are!

Not only must we give, but we must know where our money is going, and what it is doing. God will not bless that which supports false doctrine, or a false way. He will only bless that which supports HIS WAY.

Again, a very Merry Christmas to you and yours, and also from the entire Staff of Family Worship Center and Jimmy Swaggart Ministries.

In the Master’s Service, yours,

Jimmy Swaggart

World Evangelism Fellowship was born out of a deep desire of Christians from all denominational backgrounds to reach the world with the Gospel of Jesus Christ. It was realized that when Churches and Ministries band together under the anointing of the Holy Spirit to attack the strongholds of Satan, much can be accomplished.

This is the reason World Evangelism Fellowship was formed – to channel the efforts of Churches and Preachers from all over the United States, Canada, and the world into a unified, proven plan to reach the lost and dying with the Good News of the Gospel.

The call of God to win the lost is clear. World Evangelism Fellowship is answering that call and we would like to extend an invitation to you to join us. This is not a Denomination, and we pray it never will be. It is, however, a fellowship of Ministers and Churches united in their efforts to reach the world for Jesus Christ.

How do I, as an individual, affiliate with World Evangelism Fellowship?

There are several ways to join World Evangelism Fellowship, and the method you choose depends on what God has called you to do.

- Christian Worker • Licensed Minister • Ordained Minister • Church Affiliation

We believe every one of these songs are Anointed by the Holy Spirit. That being the case, this will be much more than music. It will be worship. Any song where the Spirit of God is prevalent constitutes worship.

Music and singing carries such a place in living for the Lord, in fact, the greatest place of all as it regards praise and worship. We know this because the great Book of Psalms, which constitutes 150 songs, all written by the Holy Spirit, and given to David and others, constitutes the longest Book in the entirety of the Bible. This tells us of the value placed by the Holy Spirit on anointed singing and music.

In fact, songs that are Anointed by the Holy Spirit will drive demon spirits away. The Word says:

“And it came to pass, when the evil spirit from God was upon Saul, that David took an harp, and played with his hand: so Saul was refreshed, and was well, and the evil spirit departed from him” (I Sam. 16:23).

Our notes from THE EXPOSITOR’S STUDY BIBLE read concerning this Verse:

“When we read this Verse, we are actually reading the very first mention of God’s use of music for worship, for refreshing, and for healing. In fact, music is one of the greatest healing agents on the face of the Earth, and it is derived from the 23rd Verse. ‘So Saul was refreshed, and was well;’ however, for such to be, it has to be music that is ordained by the Lord and, thereby, sanctified by the Spirit.”

“David” is without a doubt one of the most striking characters in the entirety of the Bible. He was a man who saw higher heights and deeper lows possibly more than any other human being, at least one used by God, has ever seen.

It was through his family that the Messiah of Israel and the Saviour of the world would come. That’s the reason the New Testament begins with “The Book of the Generation of Jesus Christ, the Son of David, the Son of Abraham” (Mat 1:1).

I believe this book will take you through the life of this great man, and that it will speak to your own experience with the Lord. As stated, there was none quite like “David.” We begin to realize how great this man was when we hear the statement, as it refers to our Lord, “Jesus Christ, the Son of David.”

The Evangelist
We have enclosed our 2013 Catalog with this Magazine. You can look in the Catalog and choose whatever music you desire. This is a phenomenal offer, and I would pray that you would take advantage of it.
But this time, I was calling on Jesus Christ as my Saviour. And just like He will do for all who call on His Name, He accepted me, Saved me, and made me a New Creation in Christ Jesus. Within the next ninety days God freed me from alcohol, cocaine, all drug use, all tobacco use and by the Grace of God from that day to this day, I have never used any of the above again. Within six months the Lord had led me to a Spirit-filled Church, filled me with the mighty Baptism with the Holy Spirit, and called me to preach the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ.

CHRISTMAS, 2012

This Christmas season my family and I will celebrate the Birth of our Saviour. I will celebrate with my wife Hannah and our four wonderful children, all of whom are serving the Lord. Our eldest daughter, Joy with her husband Stephen and our two grand babies, Caleb and Avery, live in the Tampa, Florida area. They work in a Church there with the youth. Grace and Joseph will be singing on the platform of Jimmy Swaggart Ministries’ Family Worship Center Church. Rachel will be singing with Crossfire and honing her skills for the future. Truly, life with Jesus has caused me to rejoice with the words of the Angel spoken so long ago, “Glory to God in the Highest.” But if by chance, you’re Christmas season is starting off like my December of 1985, why don’t you make today your day of change. Call on the Name of Jesus. If He can save and deliver someone like me, He can do it for anybody!

Merry Christmas from Loren, Hannah, Joy, Grace, Joseph, and Rachel Larson.

THE PROTECTION OF YOUR ASSETS, YOUR FAMILY, YOUR FUTURE, AND THE WORK OF GOD

Many people have the mistaken idea that a will is the best legal instrument for the protection and designation of the distribution of their assets. However, by and large, that is incorrect. A will can be contested and is often changed by contentious parties. The very best legal instrument for this purpose is a Living Trust. Call us for further information.

WHAT IS A LIVING TRUST?

A Living Trust is a legal document to transfer all of your property, assets, cash, or whatever you desire from your individual name to the name of your Trust.

WHAT ARE THE ADVANTAGES OF A LIVING TRUST OVER A WILL AND OTHER LEGAL INSTRUMENTS?

1. A Living Trust is one of the very best ways provided by the United States’ tax laws to save on taxes.
2. You, the principal, have total control over your Living Trust, and you can change it as desired at any time.
3. A Living Trust can be secured regardless of your marital status or age.
4. A Living Trust is the best legal instrument to protect your family, to insure the distribution of your assets according to your desires, and to benefit the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Why not call our Planned Giving Department at (225) 768-3157 and ask for information concerning Living Trusts?
