THE COVER

January 2012 – Volume 46 – Number 1. Evangelist Jimmy Swaggart preaching at Thanksgiving Campmeeting 2011 Service. Join us for Easter Campmeeting, April 4-8, 2012; you don’t want to miss it!
In this one Verse, the Apostle tells us what the Gospel of Jesus Christ actually is. It is the Message of the Cross.

This means, if the preacher is not preaching the Cross, then whatever it is he is preaching, in its own way it may be good, but it's not the Gospel, and it will not help anyone. In fact, the only Message that will save, help, heal, bless, instruct, lead, guide, empower, is the Message of the Cross. In our next Chapter we will address the means by which all of this comes about.

Unfortunately, the modern Church is little preaching the Cross anymore. As a result, whatever is being preached is not the Gospel, at least for the most part, and will do precious little, if any, good.

The message that is being preached presently is one of “morality” and “ethics.” Now those two words sound very good to most, because most everyone wants better morals, and most everyone wants that which is ethical. But to treat this subject in the way that it is presently being treated, one is really only treating the symptoms. Man’s real problem is not a lack of ethics or immorality; even those things are the end results of his state. Man’s problem is sin, and there is only one answer for sin, and that is the Cross of Christ.

But modern man, at least according to most preachers, is not really a sinner, he’s just not properly motivated, or else he really doesn’t know how wonderful and good he actually is. So he needs a preacher to tell him these things, which will solve his problems; however, the sad truth is, no problems are solved at all by this means.

The Gospel of Jesus Christ, and we are speaking of the Message of the Cross, is not a Gospel of diplomacy. It is rather an ultimatum! We do the thing God’s Way or else it’s not done at all.

AN ILLUSTRATION

Some time back I saw a cartoon that explains the modern Ministry to the proverbial “T.”

Two men were standing and looking at a huge...
The idea is, when Jesus died on the Cross, He atoned for all sin, past, present, and future, at least for all who will believe (Jn. 3:16).

The Evangelist

“We believe . . .

. . . The Bible is the inspired and only infallible and authoritative written Word of God. (Ps. 119; Mat. 4:4; Lk. 24:27)
. . . there is one God, eternally existent in three Persons: God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit. (I Jn. 5:7)
. . . in the Deity of our Lord Jesus Christ, in His Virgin Birth, in His Sinless Life, in His Miracles, in His Varied and atoning Death, in His Bodily Resurrection, in His Ascension to the Right Hand of the Father, in His personal future return to this Earth in Power and Glory to rule a thousand years. (Jn. 1:1-4; Eph. 2:13-18; Rev. 19:20)
. . . in the Blessed Hope — the Rapture of the Church at Christ’s Coming. (I Thess. 4:13-18)
. . . the only means of being cleansed from sin is through Repentance and Faith in the Precious Blood of Christ. (Rom. 5:1; Eph. 2:8-9, 13-18)
. . . Regeneration by the Holy Spirit is absolutely essential for personal Salvation. (Jn. 3:5-8; Titus 3:5)
. . . the Redemptive Work of Christ on the Cross provides Healing of the human body in answer to believing prayer. (Ex. 15:25-26; James 5:14-15; 1Pet. 2:24)
. . . the Baptism with the Holy Spirit according to Acts 2:4 is given to believers who ask for it. (Acts 2:4; 10:44-46; 19:1-7)
. . . in the Sanctifying Power of the Holy Spirit by Whose indwelling the Christian is enabled to live a holy life. (Rom. 6:1-3; 8:1-2, 11)
. . . in the Resurrection of both the saved and the lost: the one to Everlasting Life and the other to everlasting damnation. (Rev. 20:4-6, 11-15)

The Priceless Corner

We have set aside this corner of THE EVANGELIST to show God’s Plan of Salvation. If you are unsure where you will go when you die, please listen to what God has said in His Word.

FIRST . . . GOD LOVES YOU!

“For God so loved the world that he gave His only Begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have Everlasting Life.” (Jn. 3:16)

SECOND . . . MAN IS A SINNER, AND SIN HAS SEPARATED HIM FROM GOD!

“For there is not a just man upon Earth, that doeth good and sinneth not” (Eccl. 7:20).

“For all have sinned and come short of the Glory of God” (Rom. 3:23).

THIRD . . . JESUS CHRIST IS THE ONLY REMEDY FOR SIN!

“For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that He might bring us to God . . .” (I Pet. 3:18).

“Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under Heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved” (Acts 4:12).

FOURTH . . . YOU MUST RECEIVE JESUS CHRIST AS YOUR PERSONAL LORD AND SAVIOUR.

Jesus calls this experience the “new birth.” He told Nicodemus: “. . . Except a man be born again, he cannot see the Kingdom of God” (Jn. 3:3).

We invite you now to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as your personal Saviour. “But as many as received Him, to them He gave Power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on His Name” (Jn. 1:12).

Pray this prayer and mean it with all of your heart:

Dear Lord Jesus, I now realize that I am a sinner. I accept the fact that You died for me on the rugged Cross of Calvary. I now open my heart’s door and receive You as Saviour and Lord of my life. Please take full control of me and help me to be the kind of Christian You want me to be. Amen.

If you prayed this prayer in all sincerity, you are now a Child of God. So that we might rejoice with you, we invite you to fill out this coupon and mail it to Jimmy Swaggart Ministries, P.O. Box 262550, Baton Rouge, LA 70826-2550. In Canada, mail to Jimmy Swaggart Ministries of Canada, P.O. Box 1020, Niagara Falls, Ontario, L2E 6V9. We will send you a free copy of Jimmy Swaggart’s book What Must I Do To Be Saved? This book will help you grow in grace and knowledge.

DEAR JIMMY:  TODAY I ACCEPTED JESUS AS MY LORD AND SAVIOUR.

The Cross of Christ was a legal work. It satisfied a legal debt that man legally owed God, but could not pay. When the Law was satisfied, which it was by the Death of Christ, then the Holy Spirit could come into the heart and life of the Believer to reside permanently (I Cor. 3:16). As stated, He is the One Who has the Power. But it is the Cross of Christ that has made it all possible.

Unfortunately, most in the modern church don’t know this. In other words, they don’t know how the Holy Spirit works. In fact, this which we are bringing to you is so much a legal entity, that the Holy Spirit calls it a “Law.” He said:

THE LAW OF THE SPIRIT OF LIFE IN CHRIST JESUS

And I quote from THE EXPOSITOR’S STUDY BIBLE:

“For the Law (that which we are about to give is a Law of God, devised by the Godhead in eternity past [I Pet. 1:18-20]; this Law, in fact, is ‘God’s Prescribed Order of Victory’) of the Spirit (Holy Spirit, i.e., ‘the way the Spirit works’) of Life (all life comes from Christ, but through the Holy Spirit [Jn. 16:13-14]) in Christ Jesus (any time Paul uses this term or one of its derivatives, he is, without fail, referring to what Christ did at the Cross, which makes this ‘life’ possible) has made me free (given me total Victory) from the Law of Sin and Death (these are the two most powerful Laws in the Universe; the ‘Law of the Spirit of Life in Christ Jesus’ alone is stronger than the ‘Law of Sin and Death’; this means that if the Believer attempts to live for God by any manner other than Faith in Christ and the Cross, he is doomed to failure)” (Rom. 8:2).

To show how close the Sacrifice of Christ and the Holy
“As we have stated, the Cross of Christ is the Foundation on which all doctrine must be constructed.”

SPIRIT WORKS

Many so-called Christians ignore the Holy Spirit altogether. Even Pentecostals and Charismatics, at least for

THE SLAIN LAMB AND THE SPIRIT OF GOD

The following is the Scripture and the notes concerning this subject, taken directly from THE EXPOSITOR’S STUDY BIBLE. John the Beloved wrote:

“And one of the Elders said unto me, Weep not (states that man’s dilemma has been solved): behold, the Lion of the Tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has prevailed to open the Book, and to loose the Seven Seals thereof (presents Jesus Christ).

“And I beheld, and, lo, in the midst of the Elders, stood a Lamb as it had been slain (the Crucifixion of Christ is represented here by the word ‘Lamb,’ which refers to the fact that it was the Cross which Redeemed mankind; the slain Lamb Alone has Redeemed all things), having seven horns (horns denote dominion, and ‘seven’ denotes total dominion; all of this was done for you and me, meaning that we can have total dominion over the powers of darkness, and in every capacity; so there is no excuse for a lack of victory) and seven eyes (denotes total, perfect, pure, and complete illumination of all things spiritual, which is again made possible for you and me by the Cross; if the Believer makes the Cross the Object of his Faith, he will never be drawn away by false doctrine), which are the Seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the Earth (signifying that the Holy Spirit, in all His Perfection and universality, functions entirely within the parameters of the Finished Work of Christ; in other words, it is required that we ever make the Cross the Object of our Faith, which gives the Holy Spirit latitude, and guarantees the ‘dominion,’ and the ‘illumination’ [Isa. 11:2; Rom. 8:2]).

“And He (the Lord Jesus Christ) came and took the Book out of the Right Hand of Him (God the Father) Who sat upon the Throne. (All of Heaven stands in awe as the Lamb steps forward to take the Book)” (Rev. 5:5-7).

THE MANNER IN WHICH THE HOLY SPIRIT WORKS

Most so-called Christians ignore the Holy Spirit altogether. Even Pentecostals and Charismatics, at least for the most part, have little idea as to how the Holy Spirit Works. They think that whatever He does is automatic. Consider the following:

If the Holy Spirit, without our cooperation, automatically did whatever it is that needed to be done, this would mean that there would never again be another failure on the part of the Believer, never again a sin committed, etc. But we all know that’s not the case, don’t we?!

The truth is, if the Believer doesn’t place his faith exclusively in Christ and the Cross, and maintain it exclusively in Christ and the Cross, the Holy Spirit will be greatly limited as to what He can do in us, by us, or for us. As we have stated, He Works strictly within the parameters of the Finished Work, i.e., “the Cross of Christ,” which demands that our Faith be exclusively in the Cross of Christ. The reason is simple, that’s where the price was paid, and the Victory was forever won (Rom. 6:1-14; I Cor. 2:2; Gal., Chpt. 5; 6:14; Eph. 2:13-18; Col. 2:14-15).

The Holy Spirit doesn’t require much of us, but He does require one thing, and without reservation. Our Faith must exclusively be in Christ and the Cross, understanding that this is God’s Prescribed Order of Victory.

THE CROSS OF CHRIST IS THE FOUNDATION OF ALL DOCTRINE

The heading means that every doctrine in the Bible must be built on the Foundation of the Cross, or else in some way it will be spurious. An erroneous understanding of the Cross of Christ, or ignoring the Cross of Christ, or denying the Cross of Christ, presents the seedbed of all false doctrine. This is where we go astray, that is if we do not have a correct interpretation of the Cross of Christ. If our faith is in something other than the Cross of Christ, whatever is produced will be false.

As we have stated, the Cross of Christ is the Foundation on which all doctrine must be constructed.

How do we know that?

Peter said:

“Forasmuch as you know that you were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold (presents the fact that the most precious commodities [silver and gold] could not redeem fallen man), from your vain conversation (vain lifestyle) received by tradition from your fathers (speaks of original sin that is passed on from father to child at conception);

“But with the Precious Blood of Christ (presents the payment, which proclaims the poured out Life of Christ on behalf of sinners), as of a Lamb without blemish and without spot (speaks of the lambs offered as substitutes in the Old Jewish economy; the Death of Christ was not an execution

or assassination, but rather a Sacrifice; the Offering of Himself presented a Perfect Sacrifice, for He was Perfect in every respect (Ex. 12:5):

“Who verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world (refers to the fact that God, in His Omniscience, knew He would create man, man would Fall, and man would be redeemed by Christ going to the Cross; this was all done before the Universe was created; this means the Cross of Christ is the Foundation Doctrine of all Doctrine, referring to the fact that all Doctrine must be built upon that Foundation, or else it is specious), but was manifest in these last times for you (refers to the invisible God Who, in the Person of the Son, was made visible to human eyesight by assuming a human body and human limitations)” (I Pet. 1:18-20).

The Cross of Christ is the Foundation of all doctrine, meaning that all doctrine must be built on this Foundation, simply because it was the first Doctrine formulated in the Mind of the Godhead, even before man was created, or even the world was created.

This means many things, of which the following two are a beginning:

1. The Cross of Christ is the dividing line between the Church and the Apostate Church. In fact, it has always been that way. We find the first account given to us in the Fourth Chapter of Genesis, as it regards Cain and Abel. Because we are nearing the end, however, I believe this dividing line of the Cross is more prominent than ever.

2. The Cross of Christ is the only answer for sin. There is no other, because there need be no other. The Message is ageless. It will never have to be amended in any form, simply because it is perfect (Heb. 13:20).

THE CROSS OF CHRIST IS THE STORY OF THE BIBLE

One might say that “Jesus Christ and Him Crucified,” is the Story of the Word of God, even as the Word of God is the Story of “Jesus Christ and Him Crucified.”

The very first example of the Cross is found immediately after the Fall. At that time, the Scripture says as it regards Adam and Eve:

“So the eyes of them both were opened (refers to the consciousness of guilt as a result of their sin), and they knew that they were naked (refers to the fact that they had lost the enswathing light of purity, which previously had clothed their bodies); and they sewed fig leaves together, and made themselves aprons (sinners clothe themselves with morality, sacraments, and religious ceremonies; they are as worthless as Adam’s apron of fig leaves)” (Gen. 3:7).

Concerning their nakedness, the Scripture says:

“Unto Adam also and to his wife did the LORD God make coats of skins, and clothed them (in the making of coats of skins, God, in effect, was telling Adam and Eve that their fig leaves were insufficient; as well, He was teaching them that without the shedding of blood, which pertained to the animals that gave their lives, which were Types of Christ, is no remission of sin; in this first sacrifice was laid the foundation of the entirety of the Plan of God as it regards Redemption; also, it must be noticed that it is the ‘LORD God’ Who furnished these coats, and not man himself; this tells us that Salvation is altogether of God and not at all of man; the Life of Christ given on the Cross, and given as our Substitute, provides the only covering for sin; everything else must be rejected)” (Gen. 3:21).

The Fourth Chapter of Genesis proclaims in vivid detail the Substitute. The Lord had related to the First Family even though fallen, that they could have forgiveness of sin and fellowship with Him, and He gave the manner in which this could be done.

They were to build an Altar, which was a Type of the Cross, and they were to kill a lamb, which was a Type of Christ, burn its little body on the Altar, a Type of the Judgment of God, which came upon our Lord, instead of upon us, with the blood poured out at the base of the Altar. The blood signified Him giving His Life. Hence, the principle of Redemption is spelled out, in the offering up of the slain lamb. Thus was the Sacrificial System introduced on the first page of human history, and continued through the centuries. When the Law of Moses was given, the Sacrificial System was the very heart of the Law. In fact, had it not been for the Sacrificial System, Israel would have been doomed, just as man is doomed now unless he takes hold of the Christ of the Cross.

All of this was a stopgap measure until Jesus would come, Who would be the literal Sacrifice.

His very purpose of coming to this Earth, of God becoming Man, the Man Christ Jesus, was to be a Sacrifice. The Apostle John outlines it perfectly in the great Gospel that bears his name. He said:

THE INCARNATION

“In the beginning (does not infer that Christ as God had a beginning, because as God He had no beginning, but rather refers to the time of Creation [Gen. 1:1]) was the Word (the Holy Spirit through John describes Jesus as ‘the Eternal Logos’), and the Word was with God (‘was in relationship with God, and expresses the idea of the Trinity), and the Word was God (meaning that He did not cease to be God during the Incarnation; He ‘was’ and ‘is’ God from eternity past to eternity future).

“The same was in the beginning with God (this very Person was in eternity with God; there’s only one God, but manifested in Three Persons — God the Father, God the Son, God the Holy Spirit).

“All things were made by Him (all things came into being through Him; it refers to every item of Creation one by one, rather than all things regarded in totality); and without Him was not anything made that was made (nothing, not even one single thing, was made independently of His cooperation and volition).

“In Him was Life (presents Jesus, the Eternal Logos, as the first cause); and the Life was the Light of men (He Alone is the Life Source of Light; if one doesn’t know Christ, one is in darkness).

“And the Light shines in darkness (speaks of the Incarnation of Christ, and His coming into this world; His ‘Light,’ because it is derived from His Life, drives out ‘darkness’); and the darkness comprehended it not (should have been translated, ‘apprehended it not’; it means that Satan, even though he tried with all his might, could not stop ‘the Light’; today it shines all over the world, and one day soon, there will be nothing left but that ‘Light’)” (Jn. 1:1-5).

JOHN THE BELOVED

Then John the Beloved said:

“And the Word was made flesh (refers to the Incarnation, ‘God becoming man’), and dwelt among us (refers to Jesus, although Perfect, not holding Himself aloof from all others, but rather lived as all men, even a peasant), (and we beheld His Glory, the Glory as of the Only Begotten of the Father,) (speaks of His Deity, although hidden from the eyes of the merely curious; while Christ laid aside the expression of His Deity, He never lost the possession of His Deity) full of Grace and Truth (as ‘flesh,’ proclaimed His Humanity, ‘Grace and Truth’ His Deity)” (Jn. 1:14).

And now John gives the reason for the Word being made flesh. He records the statement about Christ given by John the Baptist. He said:

“The next day (refers to the day after John had been questioned by the emissaries from the Sanhedrin) John sees Jesus coming unto him (is, no doubt, after the baptism of Jesus, and the temptation in the wilderness), and said, Behold the Lamb of God (proclaims Jesus as the Sacrifice for sin, in fact, the Sin-Offering, Whom all the multiple millions of offered lambs had represented), which takes away the sin of the world (animal blood could only cover sin, it could not take it away; but Jesus offering Himself as the Perfect Sacrifice took away the sin of the world; He not only cleansed acts of sin but, as well, addressed the root cause [Col. 2:14-15])” (Jn. 1:29).

GOD’S PRESCRIBED ORDER OF VICTORY

When we say “victory” we are speaking of Victory in every capacity, be it spiritual, financial, domestical, physical, etc. God’s Prescribed Order for this Victory is “the Cross of Christ.”

Of course, the primary victory of which the Bible addresses itself is Victory over sin. That properly handled and addressed, everything else will fall into place.

Paul said:

“But this Man (this Priest, Christ Jesus), after He had offered One Sacrifice for sins forever (speaks of the Cross), sat down on the Right Hand of God (refers to the great contrast with the Priests under the Levitical system, who never sat down because their work was never completed; the Work of Christ was a ‘Finished Work,’ and needed no repetition);

“From henceforth expecting till His enemies be made His footstool. (These enemies are Satan and all the fallen Angels and demon spirits, plus all who follow Satan.)

“For by one Offering He has perfected...
forever them who are Sanctified. (Everything one needs is found in the Cross [Gal. 6:14])” (Heb. 10:12-14).

The first five Verses of Romans, Chapter 6 proclaim to us God’s Prescribed Order. Of course, the entirety of the Sixth Chapter of Romans opens up to us this great truth, and in every capacity; however, the first five Verses tell us what the Prescribed Order actually is.

THE PROBLEM IS SIN

More particularly as it regards the Believer, the problem is the sin nature.

The sin nature is that which happened to Adam and Eve at the Fall, and which passed down to all thereafter. It means that their very nature became one of sin, transgression, iniquity, disobedience, etc. It is the cause of all the difficulties, war, crime, man’s inhumanity to man, that’s in the world presently and, in fact, ever has been the cause. Every unbeliever is ruled by the sin nature 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. When the believing sinner comes to Christ, at that moment, the sin nature, although not removed, is made dormant. But unfortunately, every single believing sinner, after coming to Christ, fails the Lord in some way. It happens to every one of us. Now, sin is abhorrent to the Believer. Now knowing God’s Prescribed Order of Victory, the Believer sets about to try not to commit the same sin again. Every time, he will place his Faith in something other than the Cross. While many other things may be very helpful in their own right, and very legitimate, still, the answer for sin, and the only answer, is the Cross of Christ. But inevitably, the flesh gravitates toward works, i.e., “law.”

Now, the Believer doesn’t understand that he is placing his faith in that which God cannot bless, and it will be some time before he fully understands this. Regrettably, and because of a lack of teaching on this all-important subject, most Believers never come to a place of proper understanding; therefore, they remain in the Seventh Chapter of Romans all of their spiritual existence. That’s the reason the teaching of the Cross as it regards both Salvation and Sanctification is so very, very important. In fact, it is the single most important body of understanding that the Believer could have. The tragedy is, irrespective of its great significance, most Christians, even preachers, have no idea as to the part the Cross plays as it regards our Sanctification, i.e., “How we live for God on a daily basis.”

The only way to have victory over the sin nature, and we speak of perpetual Victory, even on a daily basis, is for the Believer to place his faith exclusively in Christ and the Cross, and maintain his Faith in Christ and the Cross. Then and only then can the Holy Spirit work within our lives, thereby bringing about the Fruit of the Spirit and, thereby, helping us to be what we ought to be in Christ. That is God’s Prescribed Order. Concerning this, Paul said:

THE SIN NATURE

“What shall we say then? (This is meant to direct attention to Rom. 5:20.) Shall we continue in sin, that Grace may abound? (Just because Grace is greater than sin doesn’t mean that the Believer has a license to sin.) “God forbid (presents Paul’s answer to the question, ‘Away with the thought, let not such a thing occur’). How shall we, who are dead to sin (dead to the sin nature), live any longer therein? (This portrays what the Believer is now in Christ)” (Rom. 6:1-2).

THE CROSS OF CHRIST

Now the Apostle tells us the answer to the sin nature and, in fact, the only answer. He said:

“Know you not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ (plainly says that this Baptism is into Christ and not water [1 Cor. 1:17; 12:13; Gal. 3:27; Eph. 4:5; Col. 2:11-13]) were baptized into His Death? (When Christ died on the Cross, in the Mind of God, we died with Him; in other words, He became our Substitute, and our identification with Him in His Death gives us all the benefits for which He died; the idea is that He did it all for us!) “Therefore we are buried with Him by baptism into death (not only did we die with Him, but we were buried with Him as well, which means that all the sin and transgression of the past were buried; when they put Him in the Tomb, they put all of our sins into that Tomb as well): that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the Glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in Newness of Life (we died with Him, we were buried with Him, and His Resurrection was our Resurrection to a 'Newness of Life').

“For if we have been planted together (with Christ) in the likeness of His Death (Paul proclaims the Cross as the instrument through which all Blessings come; consequently, the Cross must ever be the Object of our Faith, which gives the Holy Spirit latitude to work within our lives), we shall be also in the likeness of His Resurrection (we can have the ‘likeness of His Resurrection,’ i.e., ‘live this Resurrection Life,’ only as long as we understand the ‘likeness of His Death,’ which refers to the Cross as the means by which all of this is done)” (Rom. 6:3-5).

Perhaps the following formula, as simple as it is, will help us to understand this all-important subject to a greater degree.

THE WAY OF THE SPIRIT

FOCUS: The Lord Jesus Christ (Jn. 14:6).

OBJECT OF FAITH: The Cross of Christ (Rom. 6:1-14).

POWER SOURCE: The Holy Spirit (Rom. 8:1-2, 11).

RESULTS: Victory (Rom. 6:14).

Now let’s use the same formula, but the manner in which it is being used by most Believers.

MAN’S WAY

FOCUS: Works.

OBJECT OF FAITH: Performance.

POWER SOURCE: Self.

RESULTS: Defeat!

Regrettably and sadly, the latter formula is the manner in which most Believers are attempting to live this life for the Lord. They aren’t doing it God’s Way, but rather man’s way, with the latter always leading to continued failure.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO PREACH THE CROSS?

Paul said:

“For the preaching (Word) of the Cross is to them who perish foolishness (Spiritual things cannot be discerned by unredeemed people, but that doesn’t matter; the Cross must be preached just the same, even as we shall see); but unto us who are Saved it is the Power of God. (The Cross is the Power of God simply because it was there that the total sin debt was paid, giving the Holy Spirit, in Whom the Power resides, latitude to work mightily within our lives)” (I Cor. 1:18).

Most preachers, at least those who claim to preach the Bible, preach the Cross of Christ for Salvation, and rightly so! However, most preachers have no idea whatsoever as to the part the Cross plays in our life and living as it regards Sanctification. That’s the reason that the church is constantly putting forth one scheme, one fad after the other, trying to address the problem of sin, in other words, failure in the lives of Believers. There is only one answer, and that is the Cross of Christ.

If the Preacher is truly preaching the Cross, this means that he understands that the Cross of Christ pertains not only to our Salvation, where all sin was atoned, but, as well, to our daily life and living, in other words, our Sanctification.

And how does the Cross apply to our Sanctification?

When the Believing sinner comes to Christ, the truth is, he knows nothing about the Lord, and he certainly knows nothing about the Cross. He just simply calls on the Name of the Lord, means it in his heart, and he is Saved (Rom. 10:9-10, 13).

But after the believing sinner comes to Christ, is made a new creation, with old things passing away, and all things becoming new, in other words, he is truly Born-Again, he is to understand, that as his Salvation is in the Cross, his Sanctification is in the Cross also. This means that we are to place our Faith unreservedly in the Cross of Christ, in fact, ever making the Cross the Object of our Faith. This is to be done constantly, ever understanding, that all that we need, is found in what Jesus did at the Cross.

And please understand, when we speak of the Cross, we aren’t speaking of a wooden beam, but more particularly, the benefits of what Jesus did for us there. These benefits, upon Faith, will continue to come to us forever and forever.

The idea is this:

THE HOLY SPIRIT AND THE BELIEVER

What we need to be in Christ, we cannot bring it about by our own machinations, strength, or power. This is what Jesus was talking about when He said, that if we were to come after Him, that we had to “deny ourselves” (Lk. 9:23). To be sure, He wasn’t speaking of asceticism, which refers to denying ourselves all things that were comfortable or pleasurable, but rather, denying our own ability, talent, education, motivation, strength, power, in

“IS THERE MORE THAN ONE WAY TO GOD?”

“For God so loved the world that He gave His Only Begotten Son, that whosoever believes in Him should not perish, but have Everlasting Life” (Un. 3:16).

God’s Word tells us that without the shedding of blood there is no remission of sin (Heb. 9:22). Fallen humanity’s only choice then, is find blood that is pure, untainted by sin, and, thereby, able to take our place in death. Thank the Lord, that Blood has been provided! We must ever let it be known that it was the Lord Jesus Christ who was the Only One Worthy, the Only One whose Blood can wash clean the souls of men! Death was the price for sin, and it was Jesus, Hallelujah, who paid this price and died in the place of those who would come to Him! “For the wages of sin is death; but the Gift of God is Eternal Life through Jesus Christ our Lord” (Rom. 6:23). Jesus is without question the One and Only Way to God! Revelation 13:8 says that Jesus was the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world. None can be rescued from Hell who refuse the Blood of God’s Only Son.

CHRIST ALONE!

The reason human beings experience a sense of distance or disconnect with God is because of our sin. God’s Holiness prevents Him from fellowshipping with unrighteousness. You see, man cannot save himself, because all men have inherited a sin nature. Neither can one man die for another. Not even the death of an innocent animal is enough. In the Old Testament, the Lord instituted the animal sacrifices, but this only served as a temporary covering for sin until Christ would completely take sin away. “For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins” (Heb 10:4). Yet, even in this temporary situation, God always only had one specific place, one Tabernacle, and/or one Brazen Altar in which He would accept the sacrifices. His Conditions were designed to typify the Sacrifice of Christ which was to come. Some depraved individuals throughout history even tried sacrificing babies upon evil heathen altars in a desperate attempt to atone for sin. But, Christ Alone was spotless, making Him the only suitable Sacrifice for our sin. Eternal Life and Salvation is only available to those who identify with His substitutionary Death at Calvary! “Therefore we are buried with Him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the Glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life” (Rom. 6:4).

JESUS, THE ONLY WAY TO GOD

Tragically, however, we have many in both the church and the world today who are teaching that there is more than one way to God. These say that as long as you sincerely pursue goodness in your life and follow your conscience to the best of your ability, whatever path you take will ultimately lead you to God and bring you to Heaven one day. These individuals could make no greater mistake! It may be hard in this modern age, with all our creature comforts, entertainments, and distractions to comprehend the dire consequences of sin. Yet, it is the actual reason our physical bodies die, and spiritually-speaking we are already “…dead in trespasses and sins” (Eph. 2:1). But, unlike the Jews, we do not have to watch the fires consume the flesh of the animal sacrifices. Nor do we have to physically apply the blood of an innocent lamb across the doorposts of our homes to escape an Angel of Death like the Jews did in Egypt (Ex., Chpt. 12). And, we did not see God strike dead the priests who offered up “strange fire” to Him (Lev.10:1-2), meaning their offering failed to typify Christ’s Sacrifice. The Lord allowed such vivid events, however, to try to show man the spiritual magnitude that Christ’s Death on the Cross would have. It was, in fact, the Only Way God could have ever reached us!
A DANGEROUS DIRECTION

Sadly, one of most outspoken proponents that Jesus is not the Only Way to God is Oprah Winfrey. Although raised Baptist, she has come to embrace an entirely different and dangerous spirituality. This is not only sad for the sake of Oprah’s soul, but also for the souls of the many she is now leading astray. Several years ago, on her own program, Oprah emphatically stated that, “there couldn’t possibly be just one way!” Here is the resulting dialogue when a woman in the audience reminded her of Jesus.

Oprah (speaking to the woman in the audience): “Do you think that if you are somewhere on the planet and you never hear the name of Jesus, but yet you live with a loving heart, you lived as Jesus would have had you to live, you lived for the same purpose that Jesus came to teach us all, but you are in some remote part of the earth and you never heard the name of Jesus, you cannot get to Heaven, you think?!”

Woman: “God knows the heart.”
Oprah: “Does God care about your heart or does God care whether you call His Son Jesus?”
Woman: “Jesus cannot come back until that Gospel is preached in the four corners of this earth, so, you know, figure it out.”
Oprah: “OK, I can’t get into a religious argument with you.”

What a sarcastic statement Oprah ends this conversation with, as if she had not been having a religious discussion all along!

WITHOUT EXCUSE

Thank God, we still have a few brave Christians in this world. I’m sure this lady in the audience had no idea how far-reaching her defense of Jesus would be that day. And though this lady was right, in that the Gospel will be preached to the four corners of the Earth, according to Scripture, it is also true that even if someone does not hear the Name of Jesus, they still stand before God without excuse. “For the invisible things of Him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even His Eternal Power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse” (Rom. 1:20). “Behold, the former things are come to pass, and new things do I declare: before they spring forth I tell you of them” (Isa. 42:9). God does not fail to make Himself known to us. This lady was also correct in that God knows our hearts. If our heart is truly seeking Him and is repentant of sin, then it is the job of the Holy Spirit to lead us to Christ and His Cross!

The Holy Spirit, who is God, will never fail to lead us to Jesus! “Howbeit when He, the Spirit of Truth, is come, He will guide you into all Truth: for He shall not speak of Himself; but whatsoever He shall hear, that shall He speak: and He will show you things to come. He shall glorify Me (Christ): for He shall receive of Mine, and shall show it unto you. All things that the Father has are Mine: therefore said I, that He shall take of Mine, and shall show it unto you” (Jn. 16:13-15). Christians should never apologize for their Faith in the Glorious Gospel of our Lord! God is Just, and He will always do what is fair and right in the life of every person on the Planet!

DIFFERENT ROUTES?

In an October 26, 2004 ABC News interview with Charles Gibson, President George Bush responds to the question of whether or not Christians and Muslims worship the same God:

“I think we do. We have different routes of getting to the Almighty . . . But I want you to understand, I want your listeners to understand, I don’t get to decide who goes to Heaven. The Almighty God decides who goes to Heaven and I am on my personal walk.”

President Bush, who has professed to be a Born-Again Christian, also made this heretical statement in an interview on Al Arabiya television:

“I believe in an almighty God, and I believe that all the world, whether they be Muslim, Christian, or any other religion, prays to the same God . . . I believe there is a universal God. I believe the God that the Muslim prays to is the same God that I pray to. After all, we all came from Abraham. I believe in that universality.”

Let’s now look right within the professing Christian Church itself. Here is a television dialogue between Billy Graham and Robert Schuller on May 31, 1998 (as reported in the May-June 1997, Foundation magazine):

Schuller: Tell me, what do you think is the future of Christianity?
Graham: Well, Christianity and being a true believer, you know, I think there’s the Body of Christ which comes from all the Christian groups around the world or outside the Christian groups. I think everybody that loves Christ, or knows Christ, whether they’re conscious of it or not, they’re members of the Body of Christ . . . And that’s what God is doing today, He’s calling people out of the world for His name, whether they come from the Muslim world, or the Buddhist world, or the Christian world, or the non-believing world, they are members of the Body of Christ because they’ve been called by God. They may not even know the name of Jesus, but they know in their hearts that they need something that they don’t have, and they turn to the only light that they have, and I think that they are saved, and that they’re going to be with us in Heaven.

Schuller: Well, what I hear you saying, that it’s possible for Jesus Christ to come into human hearts and soul and life, even if they’ve been born in darkness and have never had exposure to the Bible. Is that a correct interpretation of what you’re saying?

Graham: Yes, it is, because I believe that. I’ve met people in various parts of the world in tribal situations, that they have never seen a Bible or heard about a Bible, and never heard of Jesus, but they’ve believed in their hearts that there was a God, and they’ve tried to live a life that was quite apart from the surrounding community in which they lived.

Schuller: This is fantastic! I’m so thrilled to hear you say that! There’s a wideness in God’s mercy!

Graham: There is. There definitely is.

Actually, the Roman Catholic universal catechism, page 224; paragraph 847 says almost exactly the same thing: “Those who, through no fault of their own, do not know the Gospel of Christ or his church, but who nevertheless seek God with a sincere heart and, moved by grace, try in their actions to do his will as they know it through the dictates of their conscience, those too may achieve eternal salvation.” This is also very similar to Oprah’s response to the woman in her audience that if a person tries to be good, sincere, and loving, they can make it to Heaven without Christ. But again, no amount of good works can atone for sin! It took the Death of a Perfect Sacrifice!

In a June 16, 2005 CNN interview with Larry King, Billy Graham made these statements:

King: “But what about those faiths, the Mormons and the others that you mentioned, believe in Christ. They believe they will meet Christ. What about those like the Jews, the Muslims, who don’t believe they. . .”

Graham: “That’s in God’s hands. I can’t be the judge.”

King: “You don’t judge them?”

Graham: “No.”

King: “How do you feel. . .”

Graham: “. . . going to Hell and all that.”

King: “How do you feel when you see a lot of these strong Christian leaders go on television and say, you are condemned, you will live in Hell if you do not accept Jesus Christ, and they are forceful and judgmental?”

Graham: “Well, they have a right to say that, and they are true to a certain extent, but I don’t—that’s not my calling. My calling is to preach the love of God and the forgiveness of God and the fact that He does forgive us. That’s what the cross is all about, what the resurrection is all about, that’s the gospel. And you can get off on all kinds of different side trends, and in my earlier ministry, I did the same, but as I got older, I guess I became more mellow and more forgiving and more loving. . . .”

ONE NAME ONLY!

This is quite shocking, because the Bible makes it completely clear that Salvation comes by One Name only! Matthew 7:14 says, “Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leads unto life, and few there be that find it.” Acts 4:12 says, “Neither is there Salvation in any other: for there is none other name under Heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.” In Acts 16:30-31, a prison guard asks Paul and Silas this question when he sees that the Power of God had broken their prison bands: “. . . Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and you shall be saved, and your house.” The list of Scriptures go on and on: “He who has the Son has Life; and he who has not the Son of God has not Life” (I Jn. 5:12). “Jesus said unto him, I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life: no man comes unto the Father, but by Me” (Jn. 14:6). “Then said Jesus unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the Door of the Sheep. All who ever came before Me are thieves and robbers: but the Sheep did not hear them. I am the Door: by Me if any man enter in, he shall be Saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture” (Jn. 10:7-9). We hope that these confusing statements made by Billy Graham in recent years are due to some of the medical complications he has experienced, because in Graham’s early ministry, he clearly preached that Jesus was the only way! However, we must warn those who would take his recent statements to heart and head down the path of apostasy as a result of their confidence in Graham.

SIN!

What so many of these leaders have done, is avoid the subject of sin altogether or somehow redefine it so that the solution can be something other than Christ. In “Self-Esteem, The New Reformation,” Il John 9-11 – “Whosoever transgresses, and abides not in the Doctrine of Christ, has not God. (The ‘Doctrine of Christ’ is in brief ‘the Cross.’ If one leaves the Cross, one transgresses, and no longer has the Lord, which means that the soul will be lost if such direction is continued.) He who abides in the Doctrine of Christ, he has Both the Father and the Son (Gal. 5:1-6).

“If there come any unto you, and bring not this Doctrine (Jesus Christ and Him Crucified), receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed (to receive such shows acceptance):

“For he who bids him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds. (To help or finance false Apostles makes the person doing such a part of the false doctrine, which is serious indeed!)

John begins this letter to “the elect lady.” This states that she was a Christian woman of some prominence. The word “lady” in the Greek is “Kunia,” it is the feminine form of “Kurios,” which means “lord master.” It was a common name in those days. It is the Greek form of the name “Martha.”

It is believed she was a devout Christian who lived near Ephesus and from the wording of the Text, it appears that her home was a meeting place for a church and, as well, she probably was the pastor.

WOMEN IN CHURCH

It should be obvious from the accounts given in the New Testament that the Holy Spirit makes no distinction between men and women in the Work of God other than what Paul said in Ephesians 5:22-24: “Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord. For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the Head of the Church: and He is the Saviour of the Body. Therefore as the Church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in everything.” But that submission only goes as far as that which is Scriptural.

Galatians 3:28 says, “There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for you are all one in Christ Jesus.”

Some claim that it is not proper for a woman to preach, however, the Bible does not bear that out. Peter, quoting the Prophet Joel in Acts 2:17 said, “And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out My Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your DAUGHTERS shall prophesy.” The truth is, whatever men can do, it regards Work for the Lord, women can do as well, as there is no discrimination in the Bible. However, there is one caveat to that. Nowhere in the New Testament do we read of women being called Apostles. As well, I do believe as it regards pastoring a church, I feel it would be better for a man to fill that position; however, sometimes a man is not available.

“LET YOUR WOMEN KEEP SILENCE IN THE CHURCHES”

I Corinthians 14:34 says, “. . . for it is not permitted unto them to speak. . . .” This is one of the most misunderstood verses in the Bible. One must understand the context of Paul’s statement. For Paul also would write in I Corinthians 11:5, “But every woman that prayeth or prophesieth. . . .” The word “Prophesieth” in the Greek is “prophetaia,” and means to predict or foretell or “to serve God as an inspired speaker.” This one verse tells us that women can prophesy, preach, or teach, for prophesying is preaching. The Bible speaks of Prophetesses in Exodus 15:20, Judges 4:4, II Kings 22:14, II Chronicles 34:22, Isaiah 8:3, and Luke 2:36. There are many women mentioned in the Bible as preachers, such as Miriam, Deborah, Anna, and Philip’s daughters.

Paul’s statement concerning 1 Corinthians 14:34 had reference to the fact that in the Early Church, which was then almost exclusively Jewish, the men sat at one side of the room and the women on the other. Many of the women were not very educated and knowing nothing but the Law of Moses were calling out to their husbands as Paul was trying to teach, asking their husbands what Paul was meaning, so Paul was just saying wait until you get home and ask, don’t disrupt the Service. If we are to take Paul literally, then the moment a woman walks into church they would not be able to speak to anyone, sing, or pray. So let’s use wisdom and appreciate the role of women in the Church.

“MANY DECEIVERS ARE ENTERED INTO THE WORLD”

In II John, Verse 7, John warns us of deceivers in the Church. The word “deceiver” here means “fraudulent,” one who is a “fraud,” one who misrepresents himself, one who pretends to be one thing or teach that which they say is correct, but is, in fact, false, a false teacher who leads the Church into heresies. These fraudulent teachers function with the help of seducing spirits, teaching doctrines of devils. They boast great revelations, at times there is even some supposed manifestations taking place, intending to prove they are God’s men. But don’t forget Pharaoh’s magicians produced manifestations, but they were not men of God.

John was so adamant about not tolerating false prophets, that it is said of John that while visiting a public bathhouse he saw Cerinthus, a noted false teacher, and crying aloud stood up and shouted, “Let us flee, lest the building fall; for the foe of truth is within.” Now listen to me, if the preacher you are sitting under is not preaching the Cross in all its fullness, he is a “foe of truth.”

WHAT IS DOCTRINE?

In the Greek, “doctrine” means “instruction,” or “teaching,” as it regards a specific matter. It is a “principle or position or the body of principles in a branch of knowledge or system of belief.” “Doctrine” is fundamental truths of the Bible arranged in systematic form. “Bible Doctrine” is God’s Revelation of truth as found in Scripture.

Myer Pearlman, a noted Bible scholar, said:

“It is often said that it does not matter what a man believes so long as he does right. This is one way of dismissing doctrine as having no importance in relationship to life. But every person has a theology or doctrine whether he knows it or not; man’s actions are influenced by what he believes.”

D. C. Hodge, another Bible scholar, said:

“Let no man think error in doctrine a slight practical evil. No road to perdition has ever been more thronged than that of false doctrine. Error is a shield over the conscience, and a bandage over the eyes.”

WHAT IS THE DOCTRINE OF CHRIST?

Simply put it is, “For God so loved the world, that He gave His Only Begotten Son, that whosoever believes in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life” (Jn. 3:16).

The Doctrine of Christ pertains to:

1. Who Christ is; and,
2. What Christ has done.

Who “He is” is God. He is God manifest in the flesh, which means He is “very God and very Man.” He is the Living Word Who was made flesh, “Behold, the Lamb of God, Who takes away the sin of the world,” John the Baptist would proclaim.

What He did was to die on Calvary’s Cross to atone for man’s sin. The Blood of the Law (lams, bulls, goats, and turtledoves) couldn’t take away sin but only cover man’s sin. But one drop of the Precious Blood of Jesus Christ, the Lamb of God, could and did take away all sin, past, present, and future.

That’s the Doctrine of Christ, not silver or gold and baubles that will better no one, but the Cross, man’s Redemption from sin is, was, and shall ever be the only Doctrine that can save mankind.

Your Evangelist,

OVER-THE-AIR TELEVISION

For those of you who are not familiar with digital television, there are free “old fashioned TV channels” that are able to be picked up with a digital tuner and antenna. Most new televisions are equipped with built-in digital tuners or you can purchase a tuner from your local electronics store (Best Buy®, Radio Shack®, etc.). As well, you can purchase the proper antenna at your local electronics store. Many viewers under the broadcast signal of the television station can use a small, digital antenna inside the home. For those on the outer edge of the signal or to receive the best signal, an outdoor antenna may be required. Both indoor and outdoor antennas are available for less than $50!

I GAVE MY HEART AND LIFE TO JESUS!

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I watch SonLife Broadcasting Network on DISH Network. I was born and raised a Catholic. Not a very faithful one though, because I had my doubts about it. I’d read parts of the Bible and there were a lot of differences. I ordered two books from your Library, and after reading “The Modern Babylon” and “Catholicism And Christianity”, I gave my heart and life to Jesus! I am now a Media Church member of Jimmy Swaggart Ministries.

NEW JERSEY

YOUR COMMENTARY ON THE BOOK OF ACTS

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I am now reading your Commentary on the Book of Acts, and find it not only enlightening and amazing, but feel in my spirit that your writing is totally anointed by the Holy Spirit, as is all your Ministry, preaching, and music. I am only in the middle of Chapter 4, and I am excited at all that I am learning as I am enthralled by the eye-opening comments you provide.

I was raised Catholic, and never realized how I was being led as a meek and gullible “sheep” through my entire childhood and formative years. Thanks and praise to Almighty God for you and your boldness in speaking the Truth of God’s Holy Word! Please, Brother Swaggart, NEVER stop preaching the Cross and Christ Crucified!

Thank you for SBN and your spreading the Gospel throughout the entire world.

IT’S THE BEST BIBLE I’VE EVER OWNED

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I just want to thank you all for what a blessing your Broadcast is to me! I haven’t been able to find a local church with such anointing in the music and the messages. There definitely needs to be more about the Message of the Cross being preached!

I have the Regular Expositor’s Study Bible, and it has greatly blessed me as well. I absolutely love the commentary being included with each verse. It explains it so clearly! It’s the best Bible I’ve ever owned.

God bless each and every one of you, and also the Ministry, which is reaching so many for Him.

THE EXPOSITOR’S STUDY BIBLE, SIGNATURE EDITION

Dear Brother Swaggart,

My Dad purchased The Expositor’s Study Bible, Signature Edition from your Ministry this year. I am 47 years old, and have several Bibles that I bought over the years trying to understand it. I must say that this one is the best I’ve ever had the pleasure of having. Your notes certainly make it a lot easier to understand.

I have always loved your music, and I’m certainly glad that I can now get you on DISH Network. I watch as much as I can. Keep up the good work.

VIRGINIA

THE GENESIS COMMENTARY

Brother Swaggart,

I was reading what you wrote in the Genesis Commentary, in Chapter 2:20 about Adam naming the animals, birds, etc. And I read the explanation of man wanting to repeatedly try to rebuild Paradise, and about Christ’s Sacrifice on the Cross. The Holy Spirit was so strong I began to weep. I was reminded of what all Adam gave up by the Fall, and what extent God went to for our Salvation, when He could have easily wiped us out. Instead, Christ died for us. God created us a marvelous world, but it was blemished by sin. So God gave us His Son to DIE! What love that has to be! I have traveled the road for God all my life, but this really hit home and the Spirit of God was so prevalent while I was reading. Thank you so much for writing the Commentary.

WONDERFUL BIBLICAL ARTICLES OF TRUTH ON YOUR WEBSITE

Sister Frances,

Thank you so much for the wonderful Biblical articles of truth on your Website. They are such a blessing to me, and I know it helps so many who have not been told the truth on some things.

God bless you Sister Frances, and keep on telling the world the truth! Once again, thank you so much for these articles.

MY LIFE HAS TRULY BEEN BETTER

Dear Brother Swaggart,

Just to let you know that I truly enjoy your music, teachings, preaching, but most of all I am elevated to higher heights because of the Power of the Holy Ghost. Praise God, my life has truly been better since I started listening to you and the Family Worship Center Services. Praise God and thank you all.

I PRAYED THE SINNER’S PRAYER WITH BROTHER DONNIE

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I watched your Network (SBN) for the first time tonight and I prayed the sinner’s prayer with Brother Donnie. Praise God! Got to dust off my Bible now!

THE WORD OF GOD

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I am so grateful to have stumbled upon your program on TV. I feel so lifted up and refreshed while being tuned in to you and God working through you. I love to be fed, and the Word of God stays with me throughout the night and the next day! Thank you so much. I love to hear His Word from an honest source.

A POWERFUL PREACHER WHO TOUCHES ALL NATIONS

I just wanted to say how blessed you all are at Family Worship Center for you have a powerful Preacher who touches all nations regardless of what you have in life. I was so touched with Brother Swaggart’s message, which has turned my life in the right direction.

UNITED KINGDOM

I KNOW I AM HEARING GOD’S WORD

Dear Brother Swaggart,

Everyday that passes it’s getting harder and harder to find a church or a preacher that preaches the Word anymore. They either preach from a version of the Bible where God’s Word has been filtered out, or preach around the parts in the Bible that steps on toes. I’m thankful I have found your programming because everything I have heard so far has been right on, and lines up with God’s Word and it is never watered down. Plus, I feel the Power of the Holy Spirit as it comes through the airwaves right into my home. That removes all doubt, and I know I am hearing God’s Word.

Keep doing what you are doing, and I to believe this world is right on the edge of having a Revival like this world has never seen before. And then the Lord will Rapture His Church out of this demon-possessed world we are now living in.

May God bless you all, and I’ll be praying for you folks along the way.

SONLIFE BROADCASTING NETWORK

Sister Frances,

I never thought I would be sending an e-mail about any TV Program – I’ve never done this before. But, a couple of months ago I was channel surfing on DirecTV® and hit all the religious channels that I knew of. I was needing something to lift my spirit that day. I am not of the Pentecostal faith. I came across the SonLife Broadcasting Network, and a young man named Joseph was singing the song entitled, “Midnight Cry”. I was by myself, all relaxed in my recliner, and crying like a baby. I thought, “Well, this is a one-time thing.” But, I found myself being drawn to its time and time again. I enjoy your program very much. I pray that you and the rest of the people there won’t let people’s criticism get you down. Our church doesn’t have a Wednesday night prayer meeting anymore, so I watched yours last night. I think that will be my prayer meeting from now on.

God bless you and the SonLife Broadcasting Network.

WE HAVE GOTTEN RID OF ALL THE XBOXES AND CIGARETTES

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I want to thank the Lord for my family finding your Ministry. We have been long time gamers and smokers. We also are Baptist. But, we have been experiencing so much Spiritually from Testimonies, from your Services, and singing that we have gotten rid of all the Xboxes and cigarettes! Thank you Lord and JSM.

We ask the Lord to continue to bless your Ministry. We love you all and hope to find a way to our first Campmeeting. We also have your Expositor’s Study Bible. Thanks a lot!

FAMILY WORSHIP CENTER

Dear Brother Swaggart,

We are recently working for a few weeks in this area and have attended Family Worship Center for the last two weekends, and would like to say that we have been so blessed. Thank you for obeying the Spirit of God. It is not always easy to find a good Spirit-filled church that really worships when you are away, but we are grateful for what we have received while here.

ARKANSAS
“THE STUMBLING BLOCK OF PRIDE”

Proverbs 29:23 – “A man’s pride shall bring him low: but honour shall uphold the humble in spirit. (Self always breeds ‘pride,’ while the ‘humble’ always breed ‘honor.’)”

EVERY MAN’S PROBLEM

The problem of pride is an issue that every person will have to face, bar none. No one is excluded from this struggle. From the richest of the rich to the poorest of the poor, from the master to the servant, and in both the wise and unwise, pride raises its ugly head and attempts to dominate and control the heart of man. Pride is as ancient as the fall of Adam in the Garden. When man fell, he lost God consciousness and developed self-consciousness. Since that time he has been a creature that is prone to pride. As people focus on their own person, pride rises. We quickly become proud of who we are and proud of what we do. We are proud of what we own and we are proud of our varying abilities. Some take great pride in seeing themselves as better than others. The greatest height of pride’s impact comes when the individual believes themselves free from the affects and intentions of pride. According to I John 2:16, the pride of life is of the world, so all that are born into this world must deal with its existence, not ignore it. “For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.” Jesus Himself said in Mark 7:21-23, “For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders, (22) Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness: (23) All these evil things come from within, and defile the man.” Therefore, pride is in the world and resides at home in the heart of every man. If we conclude at any time that pride is no longer a problem for us, we are greatly self-deceived, and will be sure to be overcome by it. We must ask the Lord to help us identify and eliminate pride, before it has the capability to bring us “low.”

TAKING PRIDE TO THE CROSS

The answer for every sin problem (which pride qualifies as) can be realized through Faith in the Cross. At the Cross, Jesus paid the penalty for every sin of every man that ever lived. So the needed forgiveness for pride and the negative affects of pride are readily available because of Jesus’ atoning Work, which took place at Calvary. As we place our Faith exclusively in Christ and what He has done for us, the Holy Spirit finds the freedom to convict us of any tendency or incident regarding pride. Little by little, the Holy Spirit will reveal where this “clinging vine of the fall” has attached itself to our lives and where it is flourishing. Then, we must deny our own ability to overcome Pride. By Faith we place the strength of pride as being vanquished by Christ’s Cross. Then and only then can we have said to have “humbled ourselves.” While we cannot remove pride from the heart, we can submit pride to the process of Faith and Grace, thus freeing us from its grip. Each time we are made aware of pride’s attempt to run free course through our hearts, we must apply these truths of the Cross to the then manifesting issue of pride, and depend upon the Saviour to makes us every bit free from its impact. When we exhibit Faith in the proper Object (the Cross) then we will receive Grace to rise and stand above pride’s denigrating influence. If not handled Biblically as described, a man’s pride will bring him “low.”

EXPECTATION OF EXALTATION

In the Scriptures, great promises are made to the person who submits to God’s Process and rests in Christ’s Finished Work to overcome the enemy of personal and improper pride. James 4:10 says, “Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and He shall lift you up.” Again in I Peter 5:6 the Bible says, “Humble yourselves therefore under the Mighty Hand of God, that He may exalt you in due time.” When the heart is truly humble it will not boast in itself. It will not depend or rely upon the work of self or other men. Instead, Faith in the provision made by God for the enemy of Pride will cause the Believer to rise above it. If this is consistently true, then through benefit of a proper personal relationship, God promises to exalt you to the highest position available. None of us know what that position may be, but the Lord. However, each of us who humble themselves can count on the Lord’s Promise of exaltation. I don’t seek exaltation, I seek freedom from pride. I seek after the Grace necessary to live a life “clothed in humility.” But, as a student of God’s Word I also realize that obedience to the Faith brings great blessing. In I Peter the Lord says that there is a due time for that Believer’s exaltation. There is an appointed time in which each Believer, who has humbled themselves and grown in the Grace and the knowledge of God’s Word, will be exalted or lifted up. You see my friend, the way up is down. The way out is by staying under. I don’t submit pride to the Cross to gain exaltation. But, I know that if I’ll depend holistically upon God and lean not to my own understanding, there will come an hour where God, who is pleased by Faith alone, will elevate me! I believe it. I expect it. Dying to self has its benefits. So, Die well!

THE BATTLE IS NOT YOURS, BUT GOD’S – PART I

II Chronicles 17:3 – “And the LORD was with Jehoshaphat (the greatest thing that could ever be said of any man), because he walked in the first ways of his father David, and sought not unto Baalim (it is believed by some scholars that the name of David is wrongly inserted here; as well, it is not in the Septuagint; most probably, the reference is to Asa, the father of Jehoshaphat; inasmuch as the terminology does not exactly fit David, it is my personal opinion also that the translation is incorrect here, with Asa being the correct name).”

Judah was surrounded by a confederate army that consisted of the Moabites, Amorites, and Edomites. Their sole purpose was to completely wipe Judah off the face of the map. This invasion was more than likely allowed by the Lord to take place because of King Jehoshaphat’s unholy alliance with Ahab, King of Israel. Israel had long since abandoned the Ways of the Lord, by leading the people into idolatry, which was a gross sin to say the least, and forbidden by God.

But despite the fact that he aligned himself with Israel, which God did not approve of, it is said in the Scripture that, "The LORD was with Jehoshaphat, because he walked in the first ways of his father David, and sought not Baalim" (II Chron. 17:3). What a statement! One of the greatest things that can be said about a person is that "the Lord was with them." While on the throne, King Jehoshaphat did something that had not been done before in Judah, he brought the Word of God unto the people. He sent people all throughout Judah, teaching the people the Word of God, which resulted into one of the greatest Revival’s in the history of Judah, up until that point.

BEFORE REVIVAL, WE MUST FIRST EXPERIENCE A REFORMATION

Now, we all pray for Revival, and rightfully so. But before we can have Revival, we must first have a Reformation. What do I mean by this? Before I explain this, let me say that Revival is not the banging of drums, or leading parades down city streets. Revival is not really even seeing souls Saved. That is a result of Revival. True Biblical Revival will come when the People of God first come back to the Cross of Christ. And in order to come back to the Cross the Word of God must be preached, and it must be preached without compromise or fear. We need a Reformation in this Nation of the Word of God, where young men and women will stand up and proclaim the True Gospel of Jesus Christ, which is the Cross of Christ and the Power of the Holy Spirit. There is no other answer for the ills of mankind, NONE! It is the Cross of Christ alone that will bring about true change in the heart and life of Believers and non-believers.

On October 31, 1517, a monk by the name of Martin Luther nailed his Ninety-five Thesis on the door of a Catholic Church in Wittenberg, Germany. Noticing that the Catholic Church promoted indulgences, and salvation by works, he, by studying the Word of God, realized that the Bible says, "The Just Shall Live by Faith" (Rom. 1:17). By Martin Luther doing this, it helped bring about a Reformation which brought people out of darkness into Light. And like it was in 1517, we need a Reformation of the Word of God in our youth groups, which will result in seeing souls brought to the Saving knowledge of Jesus Christ. Without the Word of God, there can be no Revival. Without the Cross, there can be no Revival. Without the Moving and Operation of the Holy Spirit, there can be no Revival. Many want Revival, but without the Cross. Simply put, there can be no Revival without the Cross of Christ being the central focus of that movement. In order to experience the Glory of the Lord filling the House, the Cross of Christ must be the focal point!

SATAN WILL TRY TO STEAL OUR POSSESSION

As this confederate army surrounded Judah, Jehoshaphat gathered all the men, women, and children, and went to the Lord in prayer. Not knowing what to do, when situations grow dreary we must do the only thing that will bring about peace in the midst of the storm, drop to our knees and begin to seek the Face of God. Most Christians, unfortunately, wait until the dark times to seek the Lord, when we are instructed to seek the Lord in all things, which means in the good times, and in the bad times, ever seeking His Direction and...
Guidance in every aspect of our lives.

Look at Verse 11, Jehoshaphat prays this prayer, “Behold, I say, how they reward us, to come to cast us out of Your possession, which You have given us to inherit” (II Chron. 20:11). This is exactly what Satan ever tries to do, to steal the possessions that God has given us to inherit. Every Child of God has a possession given to us by the Lord, and Satan will attempt to steal away this great possession, and if we do not understand the Cross of Christ, relative to Sanctification, and how the Holy Spirit Works, which is exclusively through the Cross of Christ, then Satan will steal that which the Lord has given us.

“I’VE LEFT THIS PEA PATCH MY LAST TIME”

Sadly, this is true of most Christians. They have allowed Satan to swoop in and steal every possession given to them by the Lord. It reminds me of the Children of Israel after spending their effort in planting a pea patch, and at harvest time, the Philistines would come down and steal everything for which the Israelites had worked so hard. Until Shamaah, one of David’s Mighty Men of Valor, stood up and said, “I’ve left this pea patch my last time!” The next time the enemy came down; he stood in the midst of that possession, defended that pea patch, and defeated the Philistine troop.

Some of you have been watching the enemy steal that which God has given you, your Joy, your Salvation, your Victory, your Healing. But now, instead of watching the enemy steal your possession, it’s time you stand your ground, and tell the Devil, “I will not allow you to steal from me anymore!” Stand firm on the foundation of the Cross of Christ, by placing your Faith in His Finished Work, which allows the Holy Spirit the latitude to work in our lives. We must understand that the way to keep Satan from stealing our possessions is to stand on His Word, and keep our eyes on the Cross of Christ!

- A Study In The Word With Roy & Beulah Chacon’s Testimony (18-100)
1382 – JOHN WYCLIFFE’S TRANSLATION: It was John Wycliffe who published the first complete Bible in English in 1382. Alfric of Bath had only produced an English translation of the Gospels in A.D. 1000. Unfortunately the Roman Catholic Church condemned Wycliffe’s work and burned many of the handwritten copies leaving only 150 surviving copies, but only one is complete.

1525 – WILLIAM TYNDALE’S TRANSLATION: William Tyndale was successful in printing an English translation of the New Testament at Cologne, Germany in 1525. Due to his close friendship with Martin Luther, Roman authorities attempted to halt the project. Tyndale had to flee and sadly British agents captured him in Belgium, strangled him, and burned his body at the stake.

1539 – “THE GREAT BIBLE”: King Henry the VIII provided support in 1535 to Englishman Miles Coverdale to publish an English translation of the whole Bible in the city of Zurich. Many of Coverdale’s passages supported Anglican Catholic doctrine and undermined the use of the Latin Vulgate. It was in 1539 when Coverdale completed his work on what would be called “The Great Bible”. The huge Bible (in size) was prepared to incorporate the best of Tyndale and other English translators, as well as insights from Greek and Hebrew manuscripts. The British government ordered clergy to display the book in churches throughout the land. The result of this effort stirred popular interest in the Scriptures.

Mary I, the daughter of King Henry VIII, acceded to the throne and the antipapal laws of her father were repealed. She banned the use of all English Bibles in favor of Latin ones. Coverdale and other Bible translators fled to Geneva, Switzerland.

1560 – GENEVA BIBLE: William Whittingham of Geneva organized several of these Scholars to begin work on a New English Bible, which they published in 1560. It was the first Bible to divide the Scriptures into verses. This became known as the Geneva Bible. Their translation was dedicated to Queen Elizabeth I who had taken the throne of England in 1558.

1611 – KING JAMES VERSION: When King James VI of Scotland became king, Dr. Reynolds proposed a New English translation of the Bible to be issued in honor of the King for his efforts to bring peace between hostile religious factions. For the Old Testament, they relied on the Textus Receptus, ben Hayyim’s edition of the ben Ashur text. For the New Testament, they relied upon the Greek text of Erasmus and a bilingual Greek-and-Latin text of the Sixth Century found by Beza. The translators followed chapter divisions by Archbishop Stephen Langton in 1551 and verse divisions by Robert Estinne. The Bible was published in 1611 and became known as the Authorized Version. It was revised in 1615, 1629, 1638, and in 1762. In 1701 Bishop William Lloyd published a King James Version with notes in the margins. He also added Archbishop James Ussher’s Chronology that dated creation at 4004 B.C.

The 1762 version is what most people know as the King James Version (KJV).

1885 – REVISED VERSION AND 1901 AMERICAN VERSION: The result of new manuscript discoveries in the Nineteenth Century and improved knowledge of Hebrew words and grammar precipitated the work on the Revised Version, (RV) and the American Standard Version (ASV). Both of these translations attempted to maintain the dignity of the language that had become the hallmark of the KJV. They also sought to exclude obsolete words and usages left over from the Tudor speech of the KJV.

Two committees were headed up by Bishop Harold Browne and Bishop C.J. Ellicott, both respected Anglican leaders, in the 1870’s to revise the KJV. In 1872 they were joined by an American committee. The public in both the USA and England enthusiastically greeted the New Testament Revised Version at its completion in 1881. The entire Bible was issued in 1885. The RV had a reputation of being oriented toward the British spelling and figures of speech and lost appeal in the USA.

The American committee for the RV bonded together to produce their own version of the KJV. American expressions were substituted for British sayings. The committee used a word for word translation of the Greek and Hebrew wherever possible. The project was headed by J. Henry Thayer and was published in 1901.

1982 – NEW KING JAMES VERSION: In an attempt to eliminate archaic expressions used in the KJV, that made it difficult to read, Thomas Nelson published the New King James Version (NKJV) based on the 1894 edition of the Textus Receptus. The publisher accomplished preserving the integrity of the text.

translations. As the English language progressed throughout the Nineteenth Century words typically used to express a specific meaning were semantically highjacked and used by movements which characterized the opposite meaning. In order to make the Bible readable, translators modernized the Bible and often failed to express the true contextual meaning once delivered within the manuscripts. Instead of a literal translation Bible translators adopted a new concept, the dynamic equivalence method. Eugene A. Nida was considered the father of the dynamic equivalence method. He separated exegesis, the interpretation of a text and hermeneutics, and methodological interpretation of a text, for a thought for thought evaluation of the Bible text being translated. Its voguish acceptance, measured by sales of Bibles, has been used to prove its success.

As we examine the modern translations we must keep in mind that it is easy to find fault within any translation. I do not want to be complicit with translations where interpretation instead of translation is evident, however, it is wise for us to recognize that the translations are not the problem. It is our approach and interpretation that must be scrupulous and vigilant. Therefore, I recommend using the translations as tools to help you learn and develop your comprehension of God’s Word.

I believe the Lord has also told me that this Ministry (JSM) is going to play a great part in this Move of God, and I quote the Lord directly. This I do know, in the last year the Lord has spoken to my heart about these things, more than all the other years combined. I feel an urgency in my heart to get closer to the Lord than I’ve ever been before, to walk nearer to Him, to live in a constant state of readiness, all so that the Holy Spirit may use us as He so desires.

Once again, thank you for being a part of this which the Lord is doing and is going to do.

THE GENERATORS

I wish to thank you so very, very much for the help that you have given us regarding the huge generators that we have to purchase as it regards the Television Studios, and the Administration Building. The Television Studio is 65,000 feet in size, while the Administration Building is 50,000 feet in size. They are big buildings.

Hurricanes at times come through this part of the world, and can do considerable damage. The last one caused us to be without power for nearly a week. With a worldwide Network (SonLife Broadcasting Network) we simply can’t do that. So, whether we want to or not, whether we like it or not, we have to get a means of power that will keep these two buildings in operation, even though the power has been knocked out.

I had previously mentioned two generators, but actually it is four, two for each building. And these things to be sure, are monstrous in size. That’s the reason they cost so much.

Operating a Network, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, is totally different than the programming we used to do. And please believe me, it’s not simple. But it’s what the Lord has called us to do.

Now I’m not asking any single person to provide $700,000 for which we are told this will cost. But, I am asking that each person help in some way. For each of you who could give $100 or more to help us with this purchase, I want to give you in turn five of our CD’s or DVD’s of our choice (EV1373), which we think will be a blessing to you. And I thank you so much for praying about this, and doing what you can.

THE SPANISH EXPOSITION’S STUDY BIBLE OUTREACH

I have felt led of the Lord to do all that we can to place THE SPANISH EDITION OF THE EXPOSITION’S STUDY BIBLE into the hands of every Latino Pastor for whom we are able to do so. I realize that some of these Pastors can readily afford this particular Bible, but most can’t. And I know this; Satan is doing everything within his power to draw them away, as he is every other preacher in the world, from the True Gospel of the Cross to other things. THE EXPOSITION’S STUDY BIBLE will be a great defense against this false doctrine.

As far as the translation is concerned, Jim Woolsey worked for five years to perfect this translation, which we are told is one of the finest in the world today. I believe that!

So, if you could help us with this, it would be one more tremendous blessing. It’s like putting a Bible School into the hands of each one of these Preachers. As stated, $50 will buy one Bible, $100 two Bibles, $150 three Bibles, etc. If you could do something, it would be of great help.

I want to take the opportunity to thank the hundreds of you who have already purchased some of these Bibles, with some already having been delivered, and some being delivered at this very moment. In fact, this is something that will continue, because I believe the Lord has told me to get this Bible, THE SPANISH EDITION OF THE EXPOSITION’S STUDY Bible, into the hands of every Latino Pastor and Evangelist that the Lord enables us to do so. Please understand this, when a Pastor is influenced for good, this translates into his entire congregation.

I believe this year, 2012, is going to be the greatest year yet that we’ve seen as it regards the Gospel of Jesus Christ. I speak of souls being Saved, lives being changed, Believers baptized with the Holy Spirit, the sick being healed, bondages of darkness being broken, all of these things, which the Lord Alone can do. I believe it! I’m anticipating it! I’m looking forward to what the Lord is going to do! And it is going to be great. And once again, I wish to thank each and every one of you for the help that you have given us, and are giving us as it regards this Work for God. There are two things of which I can assure you:

1. What we’re giving you is the Word of Almighty God. The Message of the Cross is the Message, which the Holy Spirit is saying to the Churches. It will change your life, your living, your past, your present, and your future. It is the Gospel!
2. For your support, the Lord will bless you abundantly, and that I guarantee.

Many people write and say, “Brother Swaggart, where do I pay my tithe?” or “What do I support?” etc. The answer to that is very simple.

You support that which feeds your soul! That which supplies you Spiritual nourishment, that which feeds you, that which helps you to learn and understand the Word of God, that is what you support.

Once again, Happy New Year!

Sincerely,

other words, everything that is indicative of the human being. No matter how strong we are, no matter how much education we have, what we need to be in Christ, we cannot by our own machinations bring it about ourselves. And this is where the great problem begins. Now that we are Saved and even Spirit-filled, somehow, we think that whatever it takes we can do it. We can’t!

It is the Holy Spirit Alone, Who lives within our hearts and lives, and does so permanently, Who can bring about that which we need to have and need to be. And He works exclusively within the parameters of the Finished Work of Christ.

In other words, it is the Cross of Christ that has given the Holy Spirit the latitude, i.e., “the legal right,” to carry forth His Work within our lives. It is the Cross that has made it all possible. In fact the Scripture says: “The Law of the Spirit of Life in Christ Jesus, has made me free from the Law of Sin and Death” (Rom. 8:2).

Because this is so important, please allow me again to quote this Scripture from THE EXPOSITOR’S STUDY BIBLE:

THE LAW OF THE SPIRIT OF LIFE IN CHRIST JESUS

“For the Law (that which we are about to give is a Law of God, devised by the Godhead in eternity past [I Pet. 1:18-20]; this Law, in fact, is ‘God’s Prescribed Order of Victory’) of the Spirit (Holy Spirit, i.e., ‘the way the Spirit works’) of Life (all life comes from Christ, but through the Holy Spirit [Jn. 16:13-14]) in Christ Jesus (any time Paul uses this term or one of its derivatives, he is, without fail, referring to what Christ did at the Cross, which makes this ‘life’ possible) has made me free (given me total Victory) from the Law of Sin and Death (these are the two most powerful Laws in the Universe; the ‘Law of the Spirit of Life in Christ Jesus’ alone is stronger than the ‘Law of Sin and Death’; this means that if the Believer attempts to live for God by any manner other than Faith in Christ and the Cross, he is doomed to failure)’ (Rom. 8:2).

While the Bible, as stated, does not teach sinless perfection, it most definitively does teach that “sin (i.e., the sin nature) is not to have dominion over us” (Rom. 6:14).

The only way this can be achieved, the only way it can be brought about, which is God’s Way, is that we ever make the Cross of Christ the Object of our Faith. That and that alone, is the way of the Spirit.

AN EXCELLENT TESTIMONY

A dear brother wrote just the other day saying, “Brother Swaggart, I have been studying Commentaries for the past 30 years. And I can say, that your Commentaries help explain the Bible, help me to understand the Word as never before, and are consequently, the most interesting of any that I’ve ever read or studied.”

At this low, low price, actually half price, every last one of you ought to take full advantage of this, and make sure you have every Volume. Incidentally, we have 33 Volumes. Take advantage of this most excellent offer, because it won’t last forever.
