“And yet, while all sin and sickness were atoned at the Cross, the total effects of such will not be completely dissipated until the coming Resurrection (Rom. 8:23).”

QUESTION:

DID OUR LORD DIE SPIRITUALLY ON THE CROSS AS WELL AS PHYSICALLY?

ANSWER:

No!
The essence of this question is, “Did Jesus become a sinner on the Cross and thereby experience spiritual death, as some teach?”

Or was He rather a Sin Offering?

We teach and believe that Jesus was a Sin Offering. We also teach that He was Holy and Pure, just as the Old Testament Offerings foreshadowed. Isaiah said:

“Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise Him; He has put Him to grief: when You shall make His Soul an Offering for sin, He shall see His Seed, He shall prolong His Days, and the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in His Hand” (Isa. 53:10).

NOTES FROM THE EXPOSITOR’S STUDY BIBLE ON VERSE TEN

“‘Yet it pleased the Lord to bruise Him,’ refers to the sufferings of Christ, which proceeded from the ‘determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God’ (Acts 2:23), and which, being permitted by Him, were in some way His doing. It ‘pleased Him’ moreover that they should be undergone, for the Father saw with satisfaction the Son’s self-sacrifice, and He witnessed with joy man’s Redemption and Deliverance affected thereby.

“‘He has put Him to grief,’ actually says ‘He has put Him to sicknesses’ or ‘He has made Him sick.’ This spoke of the time He was on the Cross bearing our sins and ‘sicknesses’ (Mat. 8:16-17; I Pet. 2:24). And yet, while all sin and sickness were atoned at the Cross, the total effects of such will not be completely dissipated until the coming Resurrection (Rom. 8:23).

“‘When You shall make His Soul an Offering for sin,’ is powerful indeed! The word ‘Offering’ in the Hebrew is ‘Asham,’ and means ‘a Trespass Offering,’ an ‘Offering for sin.’

“Offerings for sin, or ‘guilt offerings,’ were distinct from ‘Sin Offerings.’ The object of the former was ‘satisfaction’; of the latter, ‘expiation.’ The Servant of Jehovah was, however, to be both. He was both the ‘Sin Offering’ and the ‘Guilt Offering.’

“This completely destroys the idea that Jesus died spiritually on the Cross, meaning that He became a sinner on the Cross, and died and went to Hell as all sinners, and was born again in Hell after three days and nights of suffering, etc. None of that is in the Word of God. While Jesus definitely was a ‘Sin Offering,’ He was not a sinner, and did not become a sinner on the Cross. To have done so would have destroyed His Perfection of Sacrifice, which was demanded by God. In other words, the Sacrifice had to be perfect, and He was Perfect in every respect.

“‘He shall see His Seed,’ refers to all His ‘true followers,’ which include all who have ever been Born-Again.

“‘He shall prolong His Days,’ refers to His Resurrection.

“‘And the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in His Hand,’ refers to the great victory that He would win at Calvary, which would ultimately restore everything that Adam lost.”

IT IS FINISHED

Jesus did not go to the burning side of Hell for three days to redeem mankind from the terrible ravages of sin. Rather, He preached to the spirits which were in prison.
in Hell and, as well, He went to Paradise to deliver everyone who had gone there for the past 4,000 years.

The Scripture says:

“Wherefore He said, When He ascended up on high, He led captivity captive, and gave Gifts unto men.””

And then Jesus went into Paradise. The Scripture says:

“Wherefore He said (Ps. 68:18), When He ascended up on high (the Ascension), He led captivity captive (liberated the souls in Paradise; before the Cross, despite being Believers, they were still held captive by Satan because the blood of bulls and goats could not take away the sin debt; but when Jesus died on the Cross, the sin debt was paid, and now He makes all of these His Captives), and gave Gifts unto men. (These ‘Gifts’ include all the Attributes of Christ, all made possible by the Cross.)

“(Now that He ascended (mission completed), what is it but that He also descended first into the lower parts of the earth? (Immediately before His Ascension to Glory, which would be done in total triumph, He first went down into Paradise to deliver all the believing souls in that region, which He did!)

“He Who descended is the same also Who ascended (this is a portrayal of Jesus as Deliverer and Mediator) up far above all Heavens (presents His present location, never again having to descend into the nether world), that He might fill all things.) (He has always been the Creator, but now He is also the Saviour.)” (Eph. 4:8-10).

THE LAST WORDS

Even though the Bible does not tell us exactly which words were the last spoken by Christ on the Cross before He died; however, it is believed that it was in this order: “It is Finished, Father, into Your Hands I commend My Spirit” (Lk. 23:46; Jn. 19:30).

What was finished?
The Work Christ came to do. As of that moment, man’s Salvation was complete. Nothing else was needed. Nothing else could be done that could add to His Finished Work at Calvary. It must be remembered, that while the Resurrection was of extreme significance, as should be obvious, still, the Resurrection, the Ascension, and the Exaltation of Christ were a result of the Cross. In fact, had one sin been left unatoned, due to the fact that the wages of sin is death, Christ could not have risen from the dead (Rom. 6:23). The fact of His Resurrection portrays the glaring truth that all was completed at Calvary. Actually, nothing else could be done that could add to His Finished Work. So these three words, “It is finished,” stand as a permanent rebuke to the doctrine that Jesus had to go to Hell and die spiritually to redeem man.

DIED AS A LOST SINNER ON THE CROSS?

This false doctrine of Jesus dying spiritually, also teaches that the sinless Son of God became unregenerate and died as a lost sinner at Calvary and that He had to be born again and justified from sin. The pitiful thing about this whole line of thinking is that He, they claim, was somehow born again in, of all places, Hell!

Now if perchance this were true, it would have been necessary for someone to die for the Lord Jesus Christ to redeem Him from His unregenerate state and provide for His Justification. Of course, we know this is all utter foolishness, because Jesus did not become unregenerate, and He did not die a lost sinner.

THE BLOOD?

Some time ago one of the leading proponents of this heresy, and heresy it is, stated, “When His Blood was poured out, it did not atone. It simply did away with the handwriting of the Ordinances that were against us.”

He went on to say that Jesus redeemed man, not on the Cross but in Hell. Hopefully, the proponents of this doctrine do not realize what they are doing, for they are actually denying the Blood Atonement of Jesus Christ, and that is a very serious thing! It seems they do not understand that they have negated the power of Jesus’ Blood to cleanse from sin, by their teaching that Jesus became an unholy sacrifice on the Cross. This is heresy, and it is dangerous.

HERESY

This heresy appears to teach that Jesus identified with the sinner on the Cross, while it ignores the fact that Jesus became a substitute for sinners — confusing the identification of Jesus with the human race at His Birth with His Substitution for sinners on the Cross.

If Jesus had become literal sin and had become lost and unregenerate while He hung on the Cross of Calvary, then He would have been an unacceptable sacrificial offering to God for the sins of others. Whereas if He indeed remained Pure and Holy as the Scriptures assert, then God could accept Him as a Substitute on behalf of sinners. It was only in this way that He could fulfill the Old Testament Type where the animal for the Sin Offering had to be spotless and “without blemish” (Lev. 4:2-3). If you remember, the Sin Offering was regarded as most holy even after its death.

Concerning our Lord, Peter also said:

“For even hereunto were you called (called to act Christlike, irrespective): because Christ also suffered for us (Peter reminds these slaves that Christ also suffered unjustly, for He the Just One died on behalf of unjust ones), leaving us an example, that we should follow His Steps (we are to reproduce Christ in our lives, which we can only do by the Help, Guidance, Leading, and Power of the Holy Spirit [Jn. 16:7-16]):

"Who did no sin (Christ was the only sinless human being Who ever lived), neither was guile found in His Mouth (He never sinned by speaking hypocritically or falsely, not even one time):

"Who, when He was reviled, reviled not (He did not respond in kind); when He suffered, He threatened not (when He suffered unjustly, He did not call down wrath from Heaven, which He definitely could have done); but committed Himself to Him Who Judges Righteously (He committed His defense to God, which we as well should do):

"Who His Own Self bear our sins in His Own Body on the tree (gave Himself in Sacrifice on the Cross, taking the full penalty for our sins, which was physical death; it was not Christ’s suffering that redeemed us, although that definitely was a part of what happened, but rather the price He paid by the giving of Himself), that we, being dead to sins, should live unto Righteousness: by Whose stripes you were healed.”
on the Cross, which is done by our exhibiting Faith in Christ [Rom. 6:3-5]; and we were raised with Him in 'newness of life,' which guarantees us a perfect, spotless Righteousness): by Whose stripes you were healed. (This refers to the healing of our souls, and the healing of our physical body as well. The Atonement included everything man lost in the Fall, but we only have the Firstfruits now, with the balance coming at the Resurrection [Rom. 8:23]).” (I Pet. 2:21-24).

THE JUST!

Peter also said:

“For Christ also has once suffered for sins (the suffering of Christ on the Cross was but for one purpose, and that was ‘for sins’; while we as Believers might suffer for sins as well, such is never in the realm of Atonement; the price has been fully paid, which means there is nothing left owing), the just for the unjust (Christ was the Perfect Sacrifice, the One Who was born without original sin, and Who lived a Perfect Life, never failing even in one point; He Alone was the ‘Just’), that He might bring us to God (refers to the way being opened for sinful man to come into the very Presence of God), being put to death in the flesh (refers to the fact that Jesus died physically in order to serve as a Sacrifice, which means He didn’t die spiritually, as some claim!), but quickened by the Spirit (raised from the dead by the Holy Spirit [Rom. 8:11])” (I Pet. 3:18).

The Scripture in this Passage plainly says that Jesus, while suffering for our sins was “just.” So if He was just, while He was on the Cross suffering for our sins, how could He at the same time be unjust? The unjust as given here in this Passage, could not redeem the unjust. Such thinking is ludicrous to say the least! But, if Jesus became a sinner on the Cross as the Word of Faith people claim, how could He at the same time be “just”?

WHAT DIFFERENCE DOES IT MAKE?

Someone may ask the question, “What difference does all of this make?” The answer is, “It makes all the difference in the world,” because according to the Word of God our eternal Salvation rests upon what we personally believe concerning the Blood Atonement of Jesus Christ. It is here, at the Cross that a person’s Salvation either stands or falls. The doctrine of Jesus dying spiritually on the Cross and going to Hell, and Him having to be “born again” as a sinner, is heresy of the most serious kind — its seriousness stemming from the fact that if a person believes this perverted doctrine, he will find that in the end he has been robbed of the truth of the Blood Atonement.

The Bible is emphatic on this matter: one sinner cannot redeem another sinner. Only one who is guiltless could ever act as a substitute and suffer the punishment for the guilty party, thereby saving the guilty party. Even Jesus, although the Son of God could not have done this if He had become guilty Himself, as this particular doctrine contends. The central thrust of the entire Old Testament Sacrificial System is that Jesus was the guiltless Substitute, Who, like the Old Testament Type, remained Pure and Holy both on the Cross and after His Death.

There is nothing more important than the Atonement. If we are wrong about that, then we are wrong about our Salvation.

Using the physical body as an example, if we have a hangnail, that’s one thing; however, if we have a problem with our heart that’s something else altogether. The hangnail won’t kill you, the heart will! The Atonement is the heart of the Gospel, so to speak, and millions are in Hell today, and millions are on their way to Hell, to put it bluntly, simply because they believed a false way of Salvation. Nothing is worse than that!

“At first glance, this doctrine appears to be a glorious cause for rejoicing; however, if you think about it for a moment, you quickly realize that you have never read anything of this nature on the pages of your Bible.”

THE JESUS DIED SPIRITUALLY DOCTRINE

According to the proponents of this heresy, and heresy it is, Jesus became sin on the Cross when He yielded Himself to Satan. He swallowed up the evil nature of Satan, thus becoming one in nature with the adversary, taking upon Him the diabolical nature of Satan. At that time He became a lost man, they say, crying, “My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?” (Mat. 27:46; Ps. 22:1). These teachers, therefore, conclude that Jesus at that time died spiritually, i.e., became a lost sinner.

He was then taken to the pit of Hell, they say, and we speak of the burning side of Hell, where He was chained with the fetters of sin, wickedness, disease, and all other evils of Satan. The Devil stood before the darkness, crying, “We have conquered the Son of God.” There followed, they continue, a gala celebration down in the Pit. Satan believed he had finally triumphed over God.

Jesus consequently suffered agonies beyond description in the Pit for three days as all the hosts of Hell were upon Him. But then suddenly, they say, Jesus was justified. From His Throne in Heaven, Almighty God arose and put His Hands to His Mouth and screamed, “It is Finished; it is enough.” Jesus was now, they say, “born again” and made spiritually alive once more.

Hell itself then was shaken, they say. Jesus shook off His Chains of sin, sickness, and evil. He walked over to the Devil, grabbed him, and threw him to the ground. As the Devil cowered and trembled on the floor of the Pit, Jesus put His Foot on top of him and took the keys of death, Hell, and the grave from Satan.

At this time, according to these teachers, the Holy Spirit kicked open the gates of Hell and raised Jesus from death. He then ascended to the Father and announced, “I have paid the price. The prison is now opened.” He was now a born again man who had defeated Satan. Jesus was the firstborn from the spiritually dead. Thus, it was at the time Jesus was made alive down in the Pit that the Believer was also made alive. The Church, they continue, had its origin in the pit of Hell when Jesus was begotten from the dead as the “firstborn among many brethren” (Rom. 8:29).

At first glance, this doctrine appears to be a glorious cause for rejoicing; however, if you think about it for a moment, you quickly realize that you have never read anything of this nature on the pages of your Bible. Why? Because it’s not in the Bible! It is fictitious from beginning to end.

THE TRUTH

The truth is, “He blotted out the handwriting of Ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to His Cross; and having spoiled principalities and powers, He made a show of them openly, triumphing over them in it” (Col. 2:14-15). The words, “Nailing it to His Cross . . . triumphing over them in it” means that Jesus’ great victory was won on the Cross, and on the Cross exclusively.

Acts 2:4 – “And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit (all were filled, not just the Apostles; due to the Cross, the Holy Spirit could now come into the hearts and lives of all Believers to abide permanently [Jn. 14:16]), and began to speak with other Tongues (the initial physical evidence that one has been baptized with the Spirit, and was predicted by the Prophet Isaiah [Isa. 28:9-12], and by Christ [Mk. 16:17; Jn. 15:26; 16:13]), as the Spirit gave them utterance (meaning they did not initiate this themselves, but that it was initiated by the Spirit; as we shall see, these were languages known somewhere in the world, but not by the speaker).”

The Holy Spirit is talked about as much as any Member of the Godhead today. There is much confusion and much error concerning the exact definition of the Third Person of the Triune God.

The Holy Spirit is a Person, a real Being, Who thinks, acts, wills, feels, loves, and speaks. He cannot be seen by the natural eye, but His Actions fulfill all the requirements of a personality.

The Holy Spirit is not a thing or an it. He is not a universal mind or some vague life-giving force. He is not some fuzzy, abstract idea, nor is He a material or an ethereal substance. He is a Person, but He is also Deity. He is the Third Person of the Godhead – the Trinity. Now this does not mean the Holy Spirit is one-third God or one-third of God. God cannot be divided.

Neither does it mean that He is One of Three. God is One God. Deuteronomy 6:4 says, “Hear, O Israel: the LORD our God is One LORD,” yet, He is Eternally self-existing in Three distinct Persons: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Each of these Persons is fully God, yet each is an individual Person within Himself. Jesus is God, the Father is God, and the Holy Spirit is God.

PERFECT KNOWLEDGE

Now, because all Three Members of the Godhead are God (which infers infinite Knowledge, infinite Love, infinite Mercy, and infinite Justice), all Three are always in complete agreement on everything. God is Omniscient (all-knowing) and thus, always knows the Perfect Way for anything, for there is one Perfect Solution to anything – whether or not we (as humans) can see this Perfect Solution. It is, therefore, possible for the Beings to be in Perfect Unity at all times – if those Three Persons all have infinite (unrestricted and unending) knowledge as the Godhead does.

THE TRINITY

This is why it is possible to have “Three Members in One,” which is what the words “Triune,” “Trinity,” and “Godhead” describe. It is Three Individuals – each with His Own Personality, Awareness, and Mission – occupying the Position of God.

The Three Persons of the Godhead never argue or debate. Each one knows, at all times – even before things happen – what should be done and what will be done. They, therefore, don’t even have to discuss matters. Each knows before, during, and after, what should be done and what will be done. Each knows before, during, and after what should and will happen.

The final result, as we know, will be God’s Will. Thus, the Three Persons Who constitute God agree together always – never debating, never voting, and never disagreeing.

All Three Members of the Trinity are equal Omniscience (knowledge of everything) thus, Three Minds that act as One. They are in Unity. And the Holy Spirit possesses all the attributes that both God the Father and God the Son possess.

The story of Ananias and Sapphira is told in Acts 5:3-4, “But Peter said, Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit . . .?” and then just a sentence or two later he states, “You have not lied unto men, but unto God.” This confirms that the Holy Spirit is God because Scripture here states that when Ananias lied to the Holy Spirit he was simultaneously lying to God.

HOLY SPIRIT – HOLY GHOST

I need to clarify something here because it can be confusing to some people to hear the term “Holy Spirit” used while at other times the term “Holy Ghost” is used. There is really no difference between “Holy Ghost” and “Holy Spirit” for they mean exactly the same thing.

In the original Manuscript the Greek word used for “Spirit” and “Ghost” was “pneuma,” which literally means “breath” and “breeze,” but, came to be used for a “spirit” or “ghost,” which could make a candle flame flutter, or the leaves rustle.

The Third Person of the Trinity was referred to by the Apostles as “God’s Pneuma,” which could be translated as “the Breath of God,” “the Essence of God,” “God’s Spirit” or the “Holy Spirit” and “Holy Ghost.” We (because the King James Translators chose to use the two terms “Holy Spirit” and “Holy Ghost”) are most familiar with these two terms. They can be used interchangeably.

The expression “ghost” is an Old English word and its meaning has changed somewhat since King James ordered his great Translation. Today when one says “ghost” one usually thinks of haunted houses and dis-embodyed spirits floating around causing terror. Today’s ghosts are invariably evil. Originally the word “ghost” did not have this meaning or connotation. The term “Holy Ghost” was perfectly in keeping with the beautiful poetic language of the King James Version. Today in modern usage, the word or term commonly preferred is “Holy Spirit” and this is always proper. Either term is correct or acceptable however for they are both found in God’s Word.

The Three are all of One Purpose, One Design, and One Desire, and One Essence. They are One in fulfillment of the Duties pertaining to the Godhead, yet, there are certain statements that can be made for each that don’t apply to all Jesus is the Son of the Father. He is not the Father of the Son, so you cannot say that Jesus is the Father, while you can say that Jesus is the Son. Conversely, the Father is not the Son, but Jesus is the Son. The Holy Spirit proceeds from both the Father and the Son, while neither the Father nor the Son proceed from the Holy Spirit.

In referring to the Holy Spirit, Jesus Himself said that if you say a word against Him it will not be forgiven! Jesus pointed out that you could say something against the Heavenly Father, or even the Lord Himself, and it could be forgiven (if one asks for forgiveness). But He stressed that blasphemous utterances against the Holy Spirit would not be forgiven. So, there is a difference even in what can be said to each, or about each.

The Holy Spirit is present upon this Earth, while God the Father and Jesus are in Heaven. Jesus sits at the Right Hand of the Father – and the Father does not, of course, sit at the Right Hand of Jesus. We know that there is an Omnipresent factor in the locations of the Three Members of the Trinity, but, these specific differences should be noted. While there are differences in description, the Holy Spirit is nevertheless Totally God.

The Holy Spirit is Eternal, just as God is Eternal. This means that He always was, is now, and ever will be. He had no beginnings and He will have no end. In Hebrews 9:14 it states, “Christ, Who through the Eternal Spirit offered Himself,” confirms that the Holy Spirit is Eternal.

ALL-KNOWING

The Holy Spirit is Omniscient, which means the Holy Spirit is All-knowing and All-wise. His Wisdom cannot be increased because He already knows all things. Nobody directs, counsels, or teaches the Holy Spirit.

The Holy Spirit is the teacher. As God, He is Perfect in knowledge and understanding. 1 Corinthians 2:10-11 declares that the deep things of God are always open to the Holy Spirit. He knows everything that God the Father knows. “The Spirit searches all things, yes, the deep things of God.” The deepest limits of knowledge are an open book to the Holy Spirit.

The Holy Spirit is also Omnipotent or All-powerful. It is impossible for Him to be more powerful. The Holy Spirit cannot be restricted, He is All-powerful. His Power is seen both in the Creation and in His Work in the world today.

Someone might ask, “Well if He is All-powerful, why doesn’t He do something about all the problems existing in the world today?”

He can do anything He wants to do, but there is the factor of Mercy here – Mercy mixed with Compassion and Love. For you see, when the Holy Spirit does finally intrude to bring forth God’s Righteous Kingdom on Earth, all problems will be Divinely removed. But, at that moment everyone’s “second chance” will be lost. The Mercy involved in this means that Judgment is currently being withheld. Compassion and Love enter in because the sinner is being given the opportunity for Salvation and Redemption from sin before God finally intervenes.

THE POWER OF THE HIGHEST

There is a time when Judgment will come, evil will be punished, and the Orders of God the Father eternally established throughout Creation. Then the Orders of God will be carried out (His Will be done) – with eternal punishment for those who have not responded to God’s Mercy and Love. The Great Tribulation is coming when the Holy Spirit will resolutely carry out the Orders of God the Father and God’s Wrath will be poured out upon this Earth.

Even though evil isn’t immediately stopped and punished (and the Power of the Holy Spirit immediately demonstrated) the Holy Spirit is Omnipotent. He is referred to as, “The Power of the Highest” in Luke 1:35. In other words, He is Power personified. He is fully God – and through Him the Power of the entire Godhead is fully expressed. It is God’s Desire that every Believer be “tapped in” to this Power.

Acts 1:8 says:

“But you shall receive Power, after that the Holy Spirit is come upon you: and you shall be witnesses unto Me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the Earth.”

Psalms 150:1-6 – “Praise You the LORD. Praise God in His Sanctuary: praise Him in the firmament of His Power. (This is the fifth and, therefore, last Hallelujah Psalm. As well, it should be described as the ‘Deuteronomy Psalm’ of the Deuteronomy Book.

“In this glad day of the Kingdom Age, with Christ reigning supreme in Jerusalem, praise will be offered unto God continually all over the world.

“The Divine titles in this Psalm are ‘El’ and ‘Jah.’ ‘El’ is essentially the Almighty, and ‘Jah’ signifies the Ever-existing One, for example, Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, today, and forever.)

“Praise Him for His mighty Acts: praise Him according to His Excellent Greatness. (The theme of praise will be twofold: 1. What He does — His Mighty Acts and 2. What He is — His excellent Greatness. These express His Glory as Creator, as Redeemer, as the Lamb of God, and as the Son of God. The scene of worship in the Book of Revelation is Heaven; in this Psalm, it is the Earth in unison with Heaven.)

“Praise Him with the sound of the trumpet: praise Him with the psaltery and harp.

“Praise Him with the timbrel and dance: praise Him with stringed instruments and organs.

“Praise Him upon the loud cymbals: praise Him upon the high sounding cymbals. (These praises portray to us the fact that the worship is not only spontaneous, but orchestrated, exactly as it is now in praise and worship. By and large, the musicians of the world have formerly dedicated their talents to the Evil One. Now these talents will be dedicated exclusively to God’s Glory.)

“Let everything that has breath praise the LORD. Praise You the LORD. (The very first Psalm calls the Messiah ‘the Blessed Man.’ In this last Psalm He is worshipped as ‘the Blessed God.’ All of the 148 intervening Psalms sing of the countless perfections of His Nature and of His Actions, as both Son of Man and Son of God.

“The cry here is that everything that has breath must praise the Lord. In the coming Kingdom Age, this will be brought about. Men will have nothing but praise for Him.

“The Book of Psalms assures this. Its pages are wet with tears, and its music broken with sighs, but its last Song is a burst of satisfied rapture. Its five Volumes fitly close with a loud ‘Hallelujah!’

The Book of Psalms is broken down into five books corresponding to the five books of the Pentateuch. They are as follows:

• Book One: Psalms 1-42 is the Genesis Book;
• Book Two: Psalms 43-72 is the Exodus Book;
• Book Three: Psalms 73-89 is the Leviticus Book;
• Book Four: Psalms 90-106 is the Numbers Book; and,
• Book Five: Psalms 107-150 is the Deuteronomy Book.

Psalms is the longest Book in the Bible, containing 150 Chapters, 2,462 Verses, and 43,743 Words. Psalms contains 202 Verses of history, 160 Verses of fulfilled Prophecy, and 274 Verses of unfulfilled Prophecy.

The theme of Psalms is “Trust, Worship, and Praise.”

When one reads the Book of Psalms, one is reading Earth’s first Songbook. The Hebrew word is “Sephartihillim,” which means the Book of Praises. In the Greek, the title is “Psalms,” which means songs.

Not only is Psalms Earth’s first Songbook, but it is also a Book of Prophecy. Its principal predictions concern the perfections, the sufferings, and the succeeding glories of the Lord Jesus Christ.

There are 15 Psalms that are said to be Messianic, which
The praises of the nations of the Earth during the Millennial Reign will go up from the Sanctuary to the firmament when the praises of all the Angelic Host and created beings will join together into one great Symphony of praise to the Lord.

VERSE 2

“Praise Him for His Mighty Acts: praise Him according to His Excellent Greatness.”

This Verse tells us that the theme of praise will be focused on two specific things:

1. We will praise the Lord for what He has done and what He will do, i.e., “His Mighty Acts.”
2. Secondly, we will praise Him for what He is, “His Excellent Greatness.” This expresses His Glory as Creator, as Redeemer, as the Lamb of God, and as the Son of God.

VERSES 3 THROUGH 5

“Praise Him with the sound of the trumpet: praise Him with the psaltery and harp. Praise Him with the timbrel and dance: praise Him with the stringed instruments and organs. Praise Him upon the loud cymbals: praise Him upon the high sounding cymbals.”

These Verses tell us that the worship is not only spontaneous, but orchestrated. Just think of the glorious sounds coming forth with music and voices of praise and adoration for the Lord and unto the Lord. What a choir. What an orchestra during that great time of celebration.

“Let everything that has breath praise the LORD. Praise You the LORD.”

George Williams, the Irish theologian and Hebrew scholar, says: “In the day when He appears, everything that hath breath will praise Him. His appearance will vindicate Him. Men will have nothing but praise for Him. Thus, Messiah the Blessed Man of the First Psalm will be worshipped as the Blessed God of the Last Psalm: whilst the intervening Psalms sing of the countless perfections of His Nature and of His Actions as both Son of Man and Son of God.”

As these Verses are Prophetic and future, one may wonder what does this have to do with us today. The answer is simple. Why do we have to wait until the Kingdom Age to praise the Lord? We are His Sanctuary. He has done great things for us. We have musical instruments that can make joyful music of praise. We have voices that can sing of His Greatness. We have hands that can clap for joy. We don’t have to wait, for we have something to praise the Lord for now.

We can praise Him because He is our Lord, our King, our World Evangelism Fellowship was born out of a deep desire of Christians from all denominational backgrounds to reach the world with the Gospel of Jesus Christ. It was realized that when Churches and Ministries band together under the anointing of the Holy Spirit to attack the strongholds of Satan, much can be accomplished.

This is the reason World Evangelism Fellowship was formed – to channel the efforts of Churches and Preachers from all over the United States, Canada, and the world into a unified, proven plan to reach the lost and dying with the Good News of the Gospel.

The call of God to win the lost is clear. World Evangelism Fellowship is answering that call and we would like to extend an invitation to you to join us. This is not a Denomination, and we pray it never will be. It is, however, a fellowship of Ministers and Churches united in their efforts to reach the world for Jesus Christ.

How do I, as an individual, affiliate with World Evangelism Fellowship?

There are several ways to join World Evangelism Fellowship, and the method you choose depends on what God has called you to do.

- Christian Worker
- Church Affiliation

OVER-THE-AIR (DTV) TELEVISION

For those of you who are not familiar with digital television, these are free “old fashioned TV channels” that are able to be picked up with a digital tuner and antenna. Most new televisions are equipped with built-in digital tuners or you can purchase a tuner from your local electronics store (Best Buy®, Radio Shack®, etc.). As well, you can purchase the proper antenna at your local electronics store. Many viewers under the broadcast signal of the television station can use a small, digital antenna inside the home. For those on the outer edge of the signal or to receive the best signal, an outdoor antenna may be required. Both indoor and outdoor antennas are available for less than $50!

I GOT BAPTIZED AND BEGAN SPEAKING IN TONGUES!

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I thought I would let you know that while I was watching Brother Swaggart pray for the Baptism with the Holy Spirit at about 2:00 AM, London, England time, I got baptized and began speaking in Tongues! I cannot tell you how happy I am. I prayed in Tongues for so long that I struggled to sleep. I just prayed, cried, and laughed so much. God bless you all, and thank you for preaching the true Word of God, which is hard to find these days.

THE MESSAGE OF THE CROSS

Hello Brother Swaggart,

I just want to thank God with what the Lord is doing through your obedience to carry out the Message of the Cross to the whole world. It is happening, and I am in the beautiful country of Zimbabwe enjoying The Message of the Cross, Frances & Friends, and the anointed singing from the Family Worship Center Singers. The Lord gave me the understanding of the Message of the Cross through your teachings, which I am also preaching here but with great resistance. A few are getting it, who I believe will also spread the fire! I also learned that this is the only message of the hour that will bring Children of God back to God.

WE PLEDGE OUR SUPPORT IN SENDING THE GOSPEL TO A LOST WORLD

Hello Brother Swaggart,

It is such a delight to be writing to you. I am 45 years old and have been following your Ministry since I gave my life to the Lord at the age of 14. I can remember, back in the days as a teenager in Jamaica, on a Sunday morning when everybody would be rushed to finish their house chores so as not to miss your program from 8 to 9 AM. What Church we had in the house during that time! I now live in the United Kingdom, and nothing has changed. I listened on the Internet for a while, but God bless the day when I came across the SonLife Broadcasting Network! I am hooked! I try to tell as many persons possible about your program, which has so much to offer. I cannot find another program to compare. The Lord has raised this Ministry up for such a time as this. We pledge our support in sending the Gospel to a lost world.

THE PRESENCE OF THE HOLY SPIRIT CAN BE FELT

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I have been listening to SonLife Broadcasting Network (SBN) for a week now. You are such a blessing. I have never found in my 48 years anything like this. The anointing is all over this Broadcast. The Presence of the Holy Spirit can be felt. This is a blessing from the Hand of God!

YOUR MINISTRY IS SO VERY IMPORTANT FOR THE WORLD TO HEAR

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I recently received your Expositor’s Study Bible and thank you so much. I read it everyday, and oh my how it has helped me so much in explaining the verses so that I can understand. I am 78 years old, raised in the old Pentecostal Church, singing in a trio with my sisters, and loving your Spirit-filled songs for many years. But I couldn’t fully understand the Bible until I received The Expositor’s Study Bible. Your Ministry is so very important for the world to hear. I also faithfully watch Frances & Friends in which I learn so much from.

JIMMY SWAGGART BIBLE COMMENTARY ON GENESIS

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I just received your Jimmy Swaggart Bible Commentary on Genesis . . . amazing! I skimmed through it quickly when I got it, and all I can say is . . . unbelievable. Your Introduction states, “I lay no claim to scholarship,” you sure could have fooled me! Your wisdom comes from God, which is clearly evident. Since my wife and I found SonLife Broadcasting Network (SBN) we have been blessed. We hold you up in prayer, we are a part of your Ministry, and stand behind the Vision the Lord gave you.

“IF YOU DON’T QUIT, GOD WON’T QUIT”

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I was going through a major time in my life, and was just about out of hope. One day I went to the mailbox and there was your CD/DVD Combo, “Through It All”. I started to play it, and the Presence of the Lord filled my body. After listening to you sing, “Through It All”, I switched to Joseph Larson and his song, “It’s My Desire”. Joseph gave his Testimony of how he was struggling, and he said he heard you say one day, “If you don’t quit, God won’t quit.” My whole situation turned around, and my Spirit has rejoiced ever since!

BAPTIZED WITH THE HOLY SPIRIT WITH THE EVIDENCE OF SPEAKING IN TONGUES

Dear Brother Swaggart,

Recently I was watching the television, and something came over me to turn the channel. Why would I change it to one of those “holly roller” channels and not my normal junk? I don’t know, but I did. I saw an evangelistic event where I recognized a man as someone my dear Grandmother used to watch during her fight with cancer before her death. The show was filmed during the 80’s, and he spoke not only of being Saved, but being baptized with the Holy Spirit with the evidence of speaking in Tongues. I didn’t really know and still don’t, what that meant, but let me make a long story short. I wept like a baby, I cried out to God to help me be a better man, father, brother, son, and friend. I watched it and turned the TV off, but never forgot those words. Later I prayed a prayer, and felt God in my heart. This morning I was watching YOUR channel again, I prayed after watching Gabriel preach, I began to say things never said out of my mouth before. I was overcome with something I can’t explain. I was crying, singing, and every emotion I had was pouring out through my body. It was as if I was having a nervous breakdown, but in a great way!

YOUR EXPOSITOR’S STUDY BIBLE

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I acquired your Expositor’s Study Bible. I immediately went to Romans, Chapter 8 and was blown away. I never could get a handle on the concepts of these laws and how they function. Now I see! Thank you for making the effort to share these great insights with the rest of us. We need to be free from the law-preaching churches of today.

BAPTIZED WITH THE HOLY SPIRIT

Dear Brother Swaggart,

Recently Brother Swaggart, you gave an invitation for Believers to be baptized with the Holy Ghost, on The Message of the Cross program. I was gloriously re-filled with the Holy Ghost, and I never experienced that so strong since I was originally baptized with the Holy Spirit in 1982 due to your Ministry. I just want to give Jesus all the praise, honor, and glory for this. I am a supporter of Jimmy Swaggart Ministries and will ever continue to do so.

SERMONS AND TEACHINGS AVAILABLE ON PODCAST

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I want to say, “thank you” for making many of your sermons and teachings available on Podcast. It has been many years since I have heard your preaching and teaching. Thanks for standing firm and teaching the Word in this hour where we are in a famine of the Truth. I am a Pastor of a Pentecostal Church and I need to be fed, and the Podcasts are such a blessing. Thanks again, and God bless you and your Ministry.

SINCE LISTENING TO YOUR PODCASTS . . . I HAVE GROWN SPIRITUALLY

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I download your Podcasts and listen to them many hours a week. Since I have been listening to your Podcasts, I feel that I have grown Spiritually, and this has made a tremendous difference in my life. I pray for all of you who are a part of A Study In The Word and The Message of the Cross. I greatly appreciate all of you. I know that The Message of the Cross is Biblical, and I feel that God brought me to your program. Thank you for your commitment and diligence in bringing this Message to me.

THE EXPOSITOR’S STUDY BIBLE

Dear Brother Swaggart,

Let me tell you how The Expositor’s Study Bible has changed my walk with the One True God! For years I did not understand why I liked having the Cross on my walls and tables. I now have a forward moving walk with our Saviour on a daily basis! Prayers are being answered for me, my family, and others. The Lord has seen fit to bring my long lost daughter back into my life. Amen! The Bible is alive to me like never before, and I truly have the Revelation of the Cross! God bless Jimmy Swaggart Ministries.

"ANOTHER VIEW OF FAITH"

Hebrews 11:39 – “And these all (Old Testament Saints), having obtained a good report through Faith (refers to being Judged accordingly by the Holy Spirit), received not the Promise (the Messiah didn’t come during their times, but they had Faith He ultimately would come, and so He did!).”

AN OVERVIEW OF FAITH

In today’s Church world, the concepts of faith are promoted and preached consistently. Sadly, as important as faith is to the Believer, much of what is said or taught is not Biblical Faith. That is, the definitions, actions, or even objects of Faith that are tied to the term are centered on the wisdom of men and not upon the Word of God. So, be careful when it comes to what you read or hear about Faith. As a basic, all Faith should in some way be tied to the Person of Christ and the Work of Christ. Christ is the source of all that we need in this life and His Finished Work on Calvary made the way for the Lord to freely bring to the Believer everything and anything we may ever need and more. Salvation comes to us in this way. As a person places Faith in the Person of Jesus and His Atoning Death on the Cross, they can receive Salvation. Likewise, everything that the Believer receives from God is the result of the Gift coming from Christ in Heaven being funneled to us through the door that was opened by the Cross. However, I really don’t want to focus on these details today. I want to bring to you a simple thought that will encourage you to believe even when you haven’t yet received what you have been asking God for.

THE BENEFIT OF FAITH

The great Eleventh Chapter of Hebrews details the lives and actions of some of the greatest figures and examples of Faith known to man. We see the great victories of Abraham, Sarah, Moses, and others. We are reminded of the powerful expressions of God working through men such as David and Samuel. We see the powerful benefits of Faith given to “unworthy” folk (of which kind we all are) like Rahab and Samson. We are encouraged as we see their stories and hear of the Mighty and Miraculous Deeds God did in their life through Faith. But then there comes the picture of those who didn’t seem to be benefited by their Faith. Their promises weren’t received. Their prayers were not answered. They were sawn asunder while others were tortured. Some experienced cruel mockings and scourgings, or even bonds and imprisonment. Some were stoned, tempted, and slain with the sword. Others wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, and tormented. In most circles of thought, it would seem that their Faith did not benefit them. So why did God place these (who seemingly lost out) in the great Chapter of Faith. They didn’t receive their promises or petitions. Surely what they experienced isn’t what they had hoped for or asked for! So how did these benefit by Faith?

GOD’S GREATER PURPOSE

It must be that the benefit of our Faith is not found entirely in the actual realization of a promise or possession. There must be a greater benefit to Faith than that which can be seen, held, or felt. Therefore, I suggest to the reader that God’s greatest Purpose in regard to Faith must be an internal character benefit that is accomplished in us by God, as we hold to a promise or a belief. This is a Work carried out within the heart and mind of the Believer that no one but God sees. The Believer themselves would feel it, even recognize it, as the pain of circumstance or situation pushes them further down the avenue of Faith and dependence upon the One True Living God. They would be comforted daily by His Presence. They would rest securely within the confines of supernatural peace, even as they marched through the “shadow of the valley of death.” These would find a Spiritual Table spread in the wilderness in the presence of their enemies, even though their physical table was laden with meager fare. These would learn true dependence, true reliance, true joy, true contentment, and true Holiness through the experience of being conformed into His Image in the midst of their trial. Despite consternation and even obvious heartbreak, they would not doubt or disbelieve in God’s Promise. Not freed from their earthly burdens they held fast to their Faith in God. To their last day, their last hour, in their last minute, and with their last breath they praised His Name. For their Faith was in Him and they were satisfied and content in just knowing Him. God Himself speaks of these in Hebrews 11:38, and describes them, “Of whom the world was not worthy.” Oh what benefit! Oh what Gain! To lose myself and be found again, in Him! Therefore, the true measure of Faith is not found in the promise possessed, it is found in the promise believed! Lord, I believe!

Joshua 6:5 – “And it shall come to pass, that when they make a long blast with the ram’s horn, and when you hear the sound of the trumpet, all the people shall shout with a great shout; and the wall of the city shall fall down flat, and the people shall ascend up every man straight before him. (This was a shout of obedience and a shout of Victory. Spiritually, the ‘shout’ had everything to do with the wall falling down flat, but, physically and materially, it had no effect at all, as would be obvious. The wall falling down flat was strictly a Miracle of God.)”

GOD GIVES JOSHUA THE INSTRUCTIONS

At the moment of Joshua’s obedience, God would begin to instruct Joshua as to what to do in defeating the city of Jericho. When you read the Text, what God would tell Joshua to do seems outright foolish in nature. He was to gather the fighting men of Israel, and march around the city walls once a day for six days straight. These men were not to talk, they were not to blow any horns, they were not to do anything except march. Sometimes, God will tell us to do something that seems outright foolish in nature, but He does this to show us that what is about to be done, will not be accomplished by our own hand, but strictly through the Hand of the Lord. By us responding in Faith, believing what He says, it teaches us trust and dependence upon Him.

By them marching around that walled city once a day for six days, when the armies of Jericho laughed, mocked, and made fun of them, it taught them patience. God may give us a Promise, but there will always be a space between the Promise and the Possession. God is still working on us, and if He were to give us that Promise right away, many would not be able to handle it. By us continuing to seek the Lord respecting that Promise, it teaches us patience, to wait upon the Lord. This is not easily done. But despite the fact that many may look down upon you, and many will tell you to give up because it does not seem possible, you keep marching! Continue to believe God, continue to trust in Him, and continue to believe that those walls are coming down. Keep marching!

GOD’S NUMBER OF PERFECTION

After the six days were complete, Joshua was then instructed to take seven priests, with each priest holding a ram’s horn, with the Ark of God behind the priests, and the armies of Israel behind the Ark, and they were to march around the city on the seventh day, seven times. Notice the number “seven.” Seven is God’s Number; it stands for completion, totality, universality, perfection. When God does something, He does it right, and it will always be right. It will be complete, meaning that when He delivers, He delivers completely! When He saves, He saves us in totality! When He heals us, He heals us completely! God never does anything half way! Do you believe that? I choose to believe that when God does something, He does it right!

On that seventh day, the priests were to lead the march, bearing the Ark of God. Now all of this is symbolic. The priests are Types of Christ, Who, according to the Book of Hebrews, is our Great High Priest. The Ark of God is a Type of the Presence of God, which was opened to us through Christ and what He did for us at Calvary. The ram’s horn that was to be blown signified that one day Christ will open the way for us to get to the Throne of God!

WHEN DO WE SHOUT?

After they had marched around that walled city on the seventh day, on the seventh time, they were to then blow the ram’s horn, and the moment that the People of God heard that blowing of the ram’s horn, they were to shout with a great shout! Many Christians are shouting when there is nothing to shout about. They have not heard from Heaven, nor have they received any Instruction from the Lord, nor have they surrendered themselves to the Lord Jesus Christ. Their shout is nothing more than a superficial shout, with nothing to back it up. Faith does not need to shout to make itself heard. The Children of God did not shout until they heard the blowing of the ram’s horn, not before then. If they would have shouted prematurely, defeat would have been the result.

DID OUR VICTORY COME THROUGH THE MEANS OF OUR SHOUT?

Many have stated in times past that the Victory given to the Children of God came by way of their shout. No. The Victory that was experienced by the People of God did not come as a result of their shout, for I believe, that if that were the case, then it would have been a work of the flesh. Our Victory does not come by anything that we do, for if it did, then Christ would have died in vain (Gal. 2:21). Once again, we cannot win the victories needed in our lives by the means of the flesh, which means it is through our own dependence, education, strength, and power. It really does not matter how consecrated you are, you in and of yourself cannot win the victory. We are no match for Satan and sin, for if we depend upon our own abilities, Satan can override our willpower.

Too many Christians are depending upon their own abilities, and by doing so, they are living a miserable, Christian experience. They are failing, and much to their chagrin, not understanding why they are failing. Paul would say it best, “For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwells no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not” (Rom. 7:18). Paul was simply stating that I want to do that which is right, but I cannot seem to stop myself from failing. Why? Because he was trying to live for God by means of the “flesh,” and many Christians are doing the same thing today, trying to live for God by means of dependence upon self.

CHRIST IS THE SOURCE, THE CROSS IS THE MEANS

God can never accept our flesh as a means for living a Victorious Life, He can only accept Christ. Christ has provided the Way for all to live a Victorious Life, and we do so by Faith in Christ and the Cross. Perhaps it is better said this way, Jesus Christ is the Source of Blessings, the Cross is the Means by which we receive those Blessings, Faith is the Key that unlocks the door, and the Holy Spirit oversees everything. The only way for us to live this Victorious Life that I speak of, is to simply place your Faith in Christ and what He did at the Cross, which then gives the Holy Spirit the ability to Work in our lives, to bring about the Victory that is needed.

Did their Victory come by way of their shout? No. Instead, their shout was predicated on their obedience to the Word of God, and their Faith in believing that what God said, that He would do! It is the same with us presently, I shout because I know that God has already given me the Victory, through my Faith in Christ and the Cross. We must obey the Word of the Lord, which will always lead us to the Finished Work of Christ, which is where all Victory was won, and we leave it there! Those Jericho walls cannot stand up to the Power of God, for the moment that they heard the blowing of the ram’s horn, they shouted, and the walls came tumbling down!

In Him,

The real danger facing America is not its government, Muslim terrorists, unemployment, homosexuality, abortion, etc. These are symptoms caused from the real problem. These festering sinful consequences we’re experiencing are the manifestation of darkness because the Light of the Gospel is scarce. There’s too much emphasis by the so-called church on resolving the symptoms. Instead of following God, by the Leading of the Holy Spirit, the modern church has opted to embrace worldly methods laced with psychology, philosophy, and mysticism.

DISMANTLING CHRISTIANITY

In previous articles we explained how Adolph Hitler was able to deceive the German people through subtlety. He persuaded both the Roman Catholic and the Protestant churches to champion his social justice programs. The modern global agenda of world governments, corporations, religions, and sadly, the modern church, are coming together in the same familiar manner as did Germany. How can history repeat itself? Simple, a collaborative effort towards dismantling Biblical Christianity is taking place. Hitler rewrote the Bible and its teachings back then to support his social and political plans, while today, they’re mixing Christianity with false teaching and other religions on the premise of good works and common ground. Christianity is also being accused of being the societal dilemma that stunts progress. Therefore, to make Christianity “relevant” it is being redefined. This process is called a “paradigm” change. Pastors are no longer called Pastors or Ministers but rather are referred to as “change agents” or “coaches.” Leadership, as we defined in last month’s article, is not about the purity of the message but the numbers of followers.

THE GOVERNMENT

This anti-American “Homeland Security” report that targets Christians, anti-abortion groups, and other Americans is called: “Hot Spots of Terrorism and Other Crimes in the United States, 1970 to 2008.”

Americans should be concerned because Obama and “Homeland Security” are classifying George Washington, John Adams, John Jay, and faithful Americans as possible terrorists. The anti-American report says “terrorists” may be “Religious: groups that seek to . . . impose strict religious tenets or laws on society (fundamentalists) forcibly insert religion into the political sphere, e.g., those who seek to politicize religion, such as Christian Reconstructionists . . .”

THE MILITARY

The Pentagon, under the Obama administration, is developing new policies regarding religious tolerance in the military. How did they handle this? They recruited an Anti-Christian extremist, one Mikey Weinstein, who equates Christian evangelism to “rape.” He further believes the act of proselytizing is treasonous and those caught should be court martialed, “even by the hundreds,” he said. The Pentagon played the report down but Weinstein and his likes are still in the process of dismantling Christianity and the Great Commission of God to Believers in Matthew 28:19-20 and in Mark 16:15-16. Doesn’t Weinstein realize George Washington taught the military to proselytize? Washington said, “While we are zealously performing the duties of good Citizens and soldiers, we certainly ought not to be inattentive to the higher duties of Religion. To the distinguished Character of Patriot, it should be our highest glory to add the more distinguished Character of Christian.” Washington also commanded the military to attend Christian church services.

Thomas Jefferson appropriated funds for evangelism and discipleship. Our Founding Fathers knew God blesses those who obey His Word and starting the pay of Christian chaplains for the military. Acts 5:29 says, “We ought to obey God rather than men.” There is also a West Point think tank responsible for training future U.S. Army officers who has released an extensive report warning of a growing domestic threat from “far right” conservative groups it says are prone to violence. The study, authored by Arie Perliger of the U.S. Military Academy’s Combating Terrorism Center, is entitled, Challenges From the Sidelines: Understanding America’s Violent Far-Right, and while much of its focus appears to focus on white supremacist and Aryan/ "Christian identity" groups, it also targets groups that value the personal liberties guaranteed in the Constitution and emphasize the need to limit the power of the Federal government.

THE MODERN CHURCH

The modern church is redefining its role in the world. We’re called to go into the world and preach the Gospel to every creature. Rick Warren and his United Nations accepted world PEACE plan claims “Our Global Mission: Peace on Earth.” From Marxist Trotsky to Bush the mantra of “World Peace” can be achieved by, mankind? The Bible teaches us that the world will not know true peace until Jesus Christ Returns to establish His Kingdom on Earth. What exactly is Warren up to then? Since he has redefined the Great Commission, and uses the inspiration of Adolph Hitler to enroll the youth, what is his world PEACE plan? His world PEACE plan is a Christianized social justice program. It partners with anyone who wants to do good works. As a reminder, it was Warren who spoke to Islamic Society of North America (ISNA). The ISNA controls over 330 Mosques in the U.S. under the subsidiary of the North American Islamic Trust (NAIT). This organization has played a great part in bringing questionable individuals to our country with goals of converting our nation to Islam. Many of their Imams’ and members have been involved in acts of terrorism and funding of terrorism. Yet, in an effort to “build bridges,” Warren sacrifices the real Great Commission for his agenda; while leaving lost Muslim’s without the truth of the Gospel of Jesus Christ and Him crucified. Below is a quotation right out of an article Warren posted in January on his Pastors.com website about his PEACE Plan:

“The biggest problems the world faced in Jesus’ day are still the biggest problems the world faces today: spiritual emptiness, egocentric leadership, poverty, disease, and illiteracy. I call these the five global giants. These are problems that affect not just millions but billions of people. And how did Jesus take on these giants? He did five things: Jesus planted the church to reconcile men to God and to one another. He equipped servant leaders by training His Disciples to serve rather than be served. He assisted the poor. He cared for the sick. And he educated the next generation.

“I believe these are the five things Jesus wants us to do today as His Followers. He wants us to go into all the world and Plant faith communities, (No, PREACH the Gospel) Equip servant leaders, Assist the poor. Care for the sick, and Educate the next generation. These five things make up what I call the PEACE Plan.

“The PEACE Plan is a grassroots, church-to-church strategy. It’s a lay movement designed to mobilize ordinary church members in small groups that are empowered by God to do normal tasks that can make a difference in the world. The PEACE Plan is about all believers in every church doing all of the things Jesus told us to do. It’s about churches partnering with churches to take on the global giants in their communities. It’s about turning an audience into an army, turning consumers into contributors, and turning spectators into participants.”

I do not have the space to cover each of these in detail in this article, but here are a few to consider. Warren believes the way to assist the poor is, “give them a small loan— not a gift, a loan — so they could start a small business and begin to pull themselves out of poverty.” The World Bank and International Monetary Fund (IMF) have done that for years with no success. He desires to Plant faith communities? Originally his PEACE plan said to “Plant churches.” Warren is willing to partner with anyone, including Muslims, to accomplish what? Does he not know that Howard Bliss, the father of the modern missionary movement, quit preaching the Gospel to Muslims because he claims they were not converting to Jesus Christ? Bliss pioneered the concept of using the social gospel; with education and medical assistance, as the means to improve the Middle East, especially Lebanon. Bliss became more concerned with being accepted than the souls of the lost. The emphasis on humanitarian needs was emphasized instead of the Gospel. Lebanon was lost to Islam and its Christian community is almost totally removed from the country now. Warren will find the same success using this same worldly method. Warren claims there are 2 billion Christian’s in the world to implement his PEACE Plan. He obviously recognizes Roman Catholics as saved. What Warren, and the modern so-called modern church is doing, is no less than what the deceived Roman Catholics and Protestants did under Hitler. Instead of nationalism Warren seeks Globalism. His broad umbrella tries to cover everything under the mantle of bringing peace to the world, without the pure truth of the Gospel.

THOUGHTS

The world system, and this Age, is coming to a close. The modern apostate church and its friendship with the world will lead one to perdition. These demon inspired ministers are not preaching the Gospel and claim people like me only speak about what’s wrong and not what’s good. They’re liars. I speak the truth in love. Jesus Christ didn’t come down to demonstrate the righteousness of the law for us to copy. He came to fulfill the Righteousness of the Law for us as our Representative Man. He then became our Substitute and paid the penalty of the Law on our behalf, His sinless Death. The modern church needs programs today. The Believer in Jesus Christ needs the Anointing of the Holy Spirit. Sadly, the majority of the modern church knows little, if anything, of the Anointing. God raised up the SonLife Broadcasting Network to be a Light in a dark world. The problem in America, and the world, is the Word of the Lord is scarce.
THE EASTER CAMPMEETING

I know we say this most of the time, but I do believe this was the greatest Camp we’ve ever had. For every Moving and Operation of the Holy Spirit we give the Lord the praise and the glory. If you were with us, or were watching over Television, or listening by Radio, or the Internet, I believe that you will agree with me as well. Incidentally, in just a few days, July 24 through 28 the INTERNATIONAL YOUTH CONFERENCE will convene. There will be young people coming from all over the world, and this is a Meeting that you ought to attend regardless of your age. It is the same as our other Campmeetings except there’s a little more bounce and youthful vigor in this Conference simply because so many young people attend. But get it out of your head that it’s for kids only, that definitely is not the truth.

TRANSLATION INTO OTHER LANGUAGES

By the time you read this we should already have begun work on translating into Russian, or else we will shortly. This is a monumental task, and we need your prayers. It’s one thing to translate a Program one hour a week, etc., but something else entirely to translate twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week. But I know beyond the shadow of a doubt that THE MESSAGE OF THE CROSS is worth it. And I think that you feel the same way.

So I want to thank those of you who have helped and are helping us with this added expense. It means an awful lot.

HARRISON BROOKS MULLIS

A few days ago Frances and I along with Gabriel and Jill went to Atlanta to see our newest great grandson. This is Jennifer’s and Cliff’s newest edition. Of course he would be the nephew of Gabriel and Jill. He’s a little tiger, and we are immensely proud of him as would be obvious.

And incidentally also, as most of you know, Gabe and Jill will have their third one in about four months. They are hoping for a little boy inasmuch as they now have two girls, but if the Lord desires it necessary that a third little girl come along we will be just as happy.

Debbie has spent quite a bit of time with Jennifer, especially considering that she now has two babies with the oldest one being slightly more than a year old. Of course Donnie has been to Atlanta several times.

AT HOME

We don’t get to eat too much at home, and I speak of meals prepared by Frances, simply because we are on the go almost all the time. But the other night Frances prepared a roast beef supper of which I like to have eaten myself sick. It was so good that I have put in my order for another one soon.

Frances is an excellent cook, but due to the fact that she’s on Television two hours a day and sometimes even more than that, considering all the preparation time, she doesn’t have much time to cook. There are only so many hours in the day, and the both of us are pushing the limit now.
Incidentally, with that roast beef she had some corn, some beans, and a salad, and it was delicious.

IT WAS A GREAT THING THAT HE DID FOR ME

That's the title of our new CD. It has ten great songs, and I believe they will bless you immensely. I would pray that you would get it, and I believe that it will provide many, many hours of worship along with good music. Anything that contains the Spirit of God is valuable indeed! And I believe I can say that these songs do just that.

Did you realize that the Holy Spirit delegated the longest Book in the Bible (Psalms) to worship as it regards music and singing? That's how important that it is. Consequently, I believe that we can say that music and singing which glorifies the Lord is the highest form of worship. It incorporates prayer, petition, prophecy, and praise. I suppose that's at least one of the reasons that Satan has fought sacred music as he has. Regrettably and sadly he has been successful in many cases. But I believe the music that you get from Jimmy Swaggart Ministries will always be a blessing to the Work of God and to you who worship with us. It's some of the greatest music in the world, and we thank the Lord for the privilege of having a tiny part in this effort.
