Sin Against A Fellow Believer

PART IV

BY JIMMY SWAGGART

“And the remainder thereof shall Aaron and his sons eat: with unleavened bread shall it be eaten in the holy place; in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation they shall eat it. It shall not be baked with leaven. I have given it unto them for their portion of My offerings made by fire: it is most holy, as is the sin offering, and as the trespass offering. All the males among the children of Aaron shall eat of it. It shall be a statute forever in your generations concerning the offerings of the Lord made by fire: every one who touches them shall be holy.” —Leviticus 6:16-18

M ost Holy

The meat offering contained no blood, as is obvious, but it was conjoined with an offering that was literally soaked in blood, and we speak of the burnt offering. So, too, our private offerings of thanksgiving contain no great sacrifice of our own; yet, even so, God looks upon our praise or thanksgiving offering as a sacrifice. The reason He does so is because of His Son, Jesus Christ. God willingly receives and accepts our display of thankfulness, even knowing that we have been given great blessings despite our basic unworthiness, because the ground around that Cross was literally soaked with the blood of His only Son.

THANKFULNESS TO THE LORD

So, when we thank God, we must always realize that He accepts our thanksgiving only because of His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ. Our thanksgiving in itself cannot please Him; our praises within themselves cannot please Him. If He is pleased, it is only because we do these things in remembrance of His only Son, who died and rose again from the dead. Even as the meat offering was attached totally and completely to the whole burnt offering, so must our worship, thanksgiving, and praises ever be attached to the Cross, or else it will not be accepted (Eph. 2:13–18).

The part eaten by Aaron and his sons, and all the priests who followed thereafter, was, in a sense, a symbolic picture of what Jesus was speaking about when He said to Israel, “Except you eat the flesh of the Son of Man, and drink His blood, you have no life in you. Whoso eats My flesh, and drinks My blood, has eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day. For My flesh is meat indeed, and My blood is drink indeed. He who eats My flesh, and drinks My blood, dwells in Me, and I in him” (Jn. 6:53–56).
Christ was not talking about literally eating His flesh and drinking His blood, for He then said, “It is the Spirit who quickens; the flesh profits nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life” (Jn. 6:63).

IN CHRIST

Our Lord was speaking of His death on the Cross. By Him using the terminology that He did, He, in essence, was saying that His great work on the Cross must be accepted as more than a mere philosophical quest. Faith must be tendered completely in Christ and what He did for us in the sacrifice of Himself. When this is done, and I speak of such faith being registered, God literally places us in Christ. In other words, in the mind of God, we were literally in Christ when He died on the Cross, in effect, baptized into His death, then buried with Him by baptism into death, and then, raised with Him in newness of life (Rom. 6:3–5).

Untold millions accept Christ in a philosophical sense. By that I speak of Him being a great healer, a great miracle-worker, or even a great prophet. But Him being a great healer, a great miracle-worker, or even a great prophet. But that’s not enough! That will save no one!

For Christ to be accepted, He must be accepted totally and completely, which was symbolized by the Passover lamb being eaten totally and completely, with none of it left remaining (Ex. 12:10).

To reject the Cross is to reject Christ. In effect, if the Cross is rejected or ignored in any way, the believer will find himself worshipping another Jesus, and doing so by another spirit, which produces another gospel (II Cor. 11:4).

NO LEAVEN

When the priests would prepare this particular offering of their own consumption, they must not add any leaven to it. Leaven is a type of yeast, which causes the corruption or fermentation of that in which it is placed; therefore, it was not to be used in this offering.

If leaven would have been blended into the flour along with the oil and the frankincense, the mixture would, no doubt, have swelled and frothed, thus creating the repulsive festering appearance that we find used throughout the Mosaic legislation as an image of moral evil.

In fact, when the Passover was to be observed, a detailed ritual was to be carried out, which referred to the cleaning of the house of any leaven. The family was to search and scrub the house so that no crumb of bread would be left in the house. Leaven, as stated, represents corruption; therefore, it should be readily understandable that no leaven would be included in this thanksgiving offering.

If there is unconfessed sin in our lives, which refers to leaven, God will not hear our prayers, and, therefore, our meat offering is made in vain. This flour was a type of Christ, and inasmuch as there was no sin in Him whatsoever, no leaven was to be put into this concoction, which, in effect, typified sin. His body was pure, perfect, and holy, which means that it was a perfect sacrifice.

We saw in the whole burnt offering what sin does to the individual. Its effect was symbolized perfectly in the required cutting up of the carcasses. The grizzly act of quartering and sectioning the slain animal symbolized the penetrating property of sin, which goes down into the very vitals of human beings. This helps to explain why Jesus had to pay the supreme sacrifice to rid man not only of the guilt of sin, but also the very root of sin.

MOST HOLY

Why was this offering most holy? It was most holy because it was an offering to the Lord made by fire. What does

This mean?

Any offering that was placed on the fiery brazen altar and consumed by the altar’s fire was considered most holy. Totally and completely, this refers to the Cross of Christ. That connection, and that alone, is what made the offering most holy.

The garments of the offerer did not make it holy. The detailed preparations did not make it holy. The style by which the offering was handed over to the priests did not make it holy.

The fire represented Calvary, and the offering’s ingredients represented Christ and what He would do at the Cross; therefore, the holiness was in the Christ of Calvary and in nothing else!

How confused we get when we think our efforts somehow produce holiness! We wear our hair a certain length, and we think that the look we’ve achieved is holy. Our sleeves are a certain length, and we think that somehow this style is holy. We attend church so many times during the year, and in our minds, we think of this as being holy. We praise the Lord in a certain way, and this is supposed to denote some type of holiness.

THE WORKS OF MAN

We build our own little religion, in other words, and because we strictly adhere to it, we think of ourselves as holy. Conversely, we come to think of those who do not adhere to our own man-made standards as not being holy, unholy, or somehow unclean. We call ourselves people of holiness because we adhere to some set of rules.

When will we wake up and realize that our works and our own talents or abilities cannot produce any holiness? When will we see that all of our holiness, in totality, comes from the sacrifice of our Lord Jesus Christ at Calvary’s Cross and our faith in that sacrifice, which, in effect, constitutes a holiness made by fire?

The point is, true holiness cannot be attained by works or even by religious observances; it can only be made by fire. Holiness cannot be created by man’s efforts; it can only be made by fire. Satan will not bow before our man-made holiness, but he bows and trembles at that which is made by fire i.e., the Cross of Christ. We are holy simply and truly by having faith in Christ and what Christ has done for us at the Cross, and that alone! The fire represented the judgment of God poured out on Christ instead of us, at least those who trust Christ.

THE MALES

Only the males among the children of Aaron could eat this, symbolizing that it was through man, namely Adam, that sin was imposed upon the human race and, in effect, effected its destruction.

The Law of the meat offering closed with the words, “every one who touches them shall be holy,” which referred to the offerings made by fire. It is the same presently!

Christ alone and what He did at the Cross makes one holy, that is, if his faith is anchored in Christ and the Cross. Only the priests could touch it in those days. However, thank God, at this present time and, in fact, since the Cross, it is possible for anyone to touch that most holy sacrifice. When they do, a perfect righteousness is imputed to them, and they are holy.

THE MORNING AND EVENING SACRIFICES

“And the Lord spoke unto Moses, saying, This is the offering of Aaron and of his sons, which they shall offer unto the Lord in the day when he is anointed; the tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for a meat offering perpetual, half of it in the morning, and half thereof at night” (Lev. 6:19-20).

It seems that much was worked around the two sacrifices that were offered daily, namely the morning sacrifice, which was a whole burnt offering, and carried out at 9 a.m., and the evening sacrifice, which was another whole burnt offering, and carried out at 3 p.m. Along with the high priest preparing this on a daily basis, which he was required to do, the wicks on the golden lampstand would be cleaned twice a day, at this particular time, as well. Also, incense was offered on the golden altar at these two times each day.

Jesus was put on the Cross at the time of the morning sacrifice, and He died at the time of the evening sacrifice, meaning that He stayed on the Cross for six hours. Consequently, he fulfilled the type in totality.

While the high priest was to offer the meat offering everyday, the ordinary priests were to offer it only once, and that was on the day that he was consecrated to his office.

It seems that it was offered after the sacrifice of the whole burnt offering and before the drink offering.

It was to this practice that the apostle referred when he said, “For such a high priest became us...Who needs not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice first for His own sins,” and I might quickly add, because Jesus had no sins (Heb. 7:26–27).

A SWEET SAVOUR

“In a pan it shall be made with oil; and when it is baked, you shall bring it in: and the baked pieces of the meat offering shall you offer for a sweet savour unto the Lord. And the priest of his sons that is anointed in his stead shall offer it: it is a statute forever unto the Lord; it shall be wholly burnt. For every meat offering for the priest shall be wholly burnt: It shall not be eaten” (Lev. 6:21-23).

“...the high priest typified Christ, but more particularly, this ritual typified what Christ would do as it regarded the redemption of humanity.”

This small amount of fine flour, which typified the perfect humanity of Christ, was to be sprinkled with oil and then baked. Along with the meat offering, it was to be placed on the brazen altar and then offered for a “sweet savour unto the Lord.”

This was to be carried out by Aaron, who was high priest, and all who would follow in his stead, even down through the centuries. It was not to be eaten; it was to be wholly burnt.
As should be obvious, the high priest typified Christ, but more particularly, this ritual typified what Christ would do as it regarded the redemption of humanity. This offering being burned on the brazen altar signified the death that Christ would suffer, in essence, the price that He would pay.

There was one vast difference. Whereas the earthly high priests, despite their office, were sinful men and, therefore, had to repeat this every day, Christ, being perfect in every respect, would have to offer up this sacrifice — the sacrifice of Himself — only once. That would forever suffice (Heb. 10:12).

As we have previously stated, while the Cross of Christ took place nearly 2,000 years ago, still, it has continuing positive results, in fact, positive results which will never be discontinued.

THE LAW OF THE SIN OFFERING

“And the Lord spoke unto Moses, saying, Speak unto Aaron and to his sons, saying, This is the law of the sin offering: In the place where the burnt offering is killed shall the sin offering be killed before the Lord: it is most holy” (Lev. 6:24-25).

The sin offering was killed in the place where the burnt offering was slain and its body (the sin offering) burned outside the camp.

So desperate a malady is sin that anything that came in contact with the sin offering had to be washed, broken, or scoured.

The sin offering, whose blood was brought into the sanctuary, symbolizes Christ bearing before God the sin of the whole world.

The sin offering, whose blood was not so brought in, but whose flesh was eaten by the priest, presented Christ as making His own the sins of the individual sinner who believes upon Him.

The burnt offering and the sin offering being slain upon the one spot sets out the unity of the death of Christ in its two aspects: at Golgotha, He was at once — in the same moment — accursed of God as the sin offering, and beloved of the Father as the burnt offering.
In the beginning, Adam and Eve were holy and virtuous. God Himself came down from heaven to walk with Adam in the cool of the evening. He spoke with him in the garden of Eden. His presence and His blessings were upon their relationship. The closer God’s presence is sought (and realized) in a marriage and a home, the greater will be the blessing. God established the home and wants to bless it.

Those who make slurring remarks about marriage and the relationship of a husband and wife are depraved, slanderous, and engaging in abominations before the Lord. God told us (in the book of Hebrews, through the apostle Paul) that marriage is honorable in all, and the marriage bed is undefiled by whoremongers. God will judge adulterers. Some do not want to be bound by the bonds of marriage. Today we hear much of trial marriages. In all honesty, these are not marriages in any sense of the word. They are situations where a man and woman live together while they decide if they like each other. If they do, they might go ahead and get married someday. Does this make for a better relationship? Every survey—including those taken by ungodly people indicates that the same problems people have in marriage come to the surface when they live together without the benefit of marriage. These unwed couples demonstrate the same reactions as married people when confronted with the normal problems present in any marriage.

Because some people feel they know more than God and refuse to be guided... by divine laws and commandments, they advocate living together—or painless and easy divorce. This is one of the major problems in America today—and divorces are becoming easier and easier to obtain. It should not be this way.

Marriage has always constituted the bedrock of any society whether a tribe, village, city, or a nation. It is holy in the eyes of the Almighty, and that should never be forgotten. Perversions of God’s instructions for marriage and perverting the laws of God, have always resulted in disaster. Marriage was made for mankind—and it is the plan of an infinitely loving and wise God.

FELLOWSHIP

There are many sensible reasons why people should get married. First of all, every person needs fellowship. People basically require fellowship with others, and marriage was intended by God to ease our loneliness. God meant marriage for the lonely heart, and to supply fellowship, comfort, and joy.

This is the reason God said, “It is not good that man should be alone.”

A man may have good things to eat, and all other needs met, but he still feels incomplete unless he has a good wife. Though the needs of his physical condition may be met, no abiding satisfaction will exist unless he has a good wife at his side.

Conversely—a woman can be an excellent cook and an expert in household affairs, but she finds no joy in her domestic expertise if there is no husband to enjoy and to share what she has prepared. This kind of “fellowship relationship” is extremely important.

PARTNERSHIP

Men and women are basically different in many ways and have different needs.

In their partnership (or relationship), each fulfills the needs of the other. It has been stated many times and in various ways that it doesn’t matter how talented a man may be, how much ability a man has, nor how much education he may have attained—he will not succeed as he should unless he has a good woman at his side.

Few attain great success despite a wife. Most who attain great success do so because of a good and supportive wife.

At times a man can be a bit lazy. A wife can be a great help in prodding him on. Certainly this is not true in every case, but there are many cases where this can be a significant factor. It is true with reference to this ministry.

At this moment, we have one of the largest television audiences in the world, numbering into millions, and we have over 10 million records sold. Not for even a moment ignoring God’s hand in all this, I must say that great credit for these accomplishments must go to Frances, my wife. None of this would have been accomplished without her help and encouragement.

This type of marriage partnership is imperative for the type of success we have experienced. To say that she has been an encouragement and a help is an understatement. There have been many times when projects have been undertaken only because my wife kept telling me how much it would bless people and produce great results for the kingdom of God.

Because of Frances’ support, encouragement, and vision, we have consistently pressed on—into one area of expansion and development after another.

DYNAMIC ACHIEVEMENTS

When two are committed to the same thing, a dynamic power is produced. Scripture tells us that if two can agree concerning anything, mighty deeds become possible. When husband and wife, as a team, agree together, they can experience the fullest possible demonstration of that promise.

Countless times there has been discouragement, and it seemed as though quitting might be best, but Frances has always encouraged, inspired, and helped me. I know this is what God intended. Man needs a helpmeet, and Frances has consistently filled that role. I wish I could tell you of the hardships and sacrifices she has endured that we might together proclaim the gospel.

Going into evangelistic work was difficult. Traveling with a child and trying to train and teach him while on the road was difficult. Many times the church basements or church apartments in which we stayed were far from clean. Conditions were often discouraging. Yet Frances never once entertained the thought of stopping or turning back.

Night after night, she and Donnie were unfailingly in attendance at the service. She went because she knew I needed her. This helped me so much more than anyone could ever know. The marriage partnership is so necessary. This particular one has resulted in millions of souls being touched and stirred. The dedication and help of my wife has been, to a very large degree, responsible for this. This is what God has ordained. Marriage is so honorable. There is a fellowship; there is a partnership.

There are great achievements in united efforts for God as two labor and think and plan together, each helping the other. Everything we do is talked over and planned together. My wife's judgement, wisdom, and advice is valued more than that of anyone else in the world. We feel that this is the way marriage should be, and that the institution of marriage is a God-ordained ideal.

A proper relationship can result in a wonderfully happy home, which is a bit like heaven on earth. It gives a testimony to light a world that needs God's design and plan for the institution of marriage.

BIOLOGICAL ASPECTS

Marriage is also necessary because of our basic biological needs. This has been called the "sex age." When we discuss sex, though, we should keep in mind that God created sex. It was not dirty, perverted, or obscene in the beginning. Man has caused it to become all of these things. God intended sex to be beautiful, and it is when it involved a husband and wife.

The perversions we see all about us today are not of God's doing. Unfortunately, they cause many people to look at sex generally as being wrong. Sex in itself is not wrong, nor is it dirty or evil. God Himself placed in humans the sex drive that is an inescapable part of marriage, love, mating, and fulfillment in the context of a home.

The drive that presses men and women toward marriage is placed there by God. So the sex drive is not wrong; it's really holy in the sight of God. Some may never have heard it referred to in this way, and some might be unable to think of sex as being holy. It is though. It was made by God. It is normal in God's sight and it is right and proper within the framework of marriage.

A young Christian was heard to say that he was going to stay in his room and pray until God took the sex urge away from him. I expect he stayed in his room a long time. In all probability, his prayer proved futile. The normal sex drive is given by God, and it is good. There is nothing whatsoever wrong with it. Man has perverted it as Satan has influenced man.

Unfortunately, some Christians speak of the sex drive as if it were evil and wicked. Some even label it "original sin." There are those who call the normal biological urge "lust." Of course, there is such a thing as lust, and lust is common today.

But the normal sex drive and desire placed in the normal human being by God is not lust. While it can be (and is) perverted, it is basically and essentially something God created holy and beautiful. God intended, however, that the normal sex drive be satisfied within the holy communion of wedlock.

GOD'S DOING

God makes beautiful and wonderful things. He has ordained marriage and the home. It is the oldest institution and the most basic and important in society. It has the potential to be a most glorious experience for the people involved. Since it is a God-ordained institution, it must be established on divine principles if it is to prove to be that desired bit of heaven on earth.

ALL WE LIKE SHEEP HAVE GONE ASTRAY

All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.” —Isaiah 53:6

In this one verse of just 28 words we are given the simple doctrine of the gospel which is the death of Christ on Calvary’s Cross to atone for the sin of fallen humanity.

Before I exegete this verse, I believe this gives me an opportunity to address a question that we receive from our viewers, and that question is, “Why are y’all so adamant in your preaching when it comes to the Message of the Cross, and why are y’all so strong against false doctrine in the church?” Those are fair questions deserving of an answer. Both questions are very easy to answer, so let’s do that now.

1. We believe that the soul of man is the single most important thing in the world.

   Jesus said in Matthew 16:26, “For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?” Of course the answer to that is there is no price that one can put on eternal salvation.

2. We believe the Bible is the infallible, unchanging, unalterable Word of God.

   We believe that the Bible not only contains the Word of God, but it is the Word of God. Therefore the Bible, God’s Word, is to be the only criteria by which all men will be judged, therefore anything that is contrary to the Word of God is wrong and must be proclaimed as false, for the end result of following that which is false could well be loss of one’s soul.

3. We believe that the Message of the Cross is the consolidated plan of God given to us in the Word of God.

   We believe that the story of the Bible is the story of Jesus Christ and Him crucified.

   Therefore, if we believe that the soul of man is all-important, if we believe that the Bible is the road map for life, and if we believe that the message of the Bible is “Jesus Christ and Him crucified,” which is right, then we must expose that which is contrary to the Bible.

   If one wants to know what should be preached in our churches, no one should look no further than the book of Acts, which is the foundation on which the church is built. A true New Testament church should have the earmarks of the book of Acts. Those earmarks are “justification by faith” and not by works, the baptism with the Holy Spirit as a separate work of grace, distinct from salvation and subsequent to it, which is accompanied by the speaking with other tongues. Divine healing must be preached, sanctification by faith and not works must be preached, the rapture of the church and of the last days prophetic events should be preached and proclaimed with boldness and not timidity. That’s why we preach so strong on the Cross and against false doctrine.

Now let us look at Isaiah 53:6.

All We Like Sheep Have Gone Astray

As I stated earlier in this one verse of 28 words, we are given the simple doctrine of the gospel which is Christ and Him crucified and resurrected.

This phrase portrays all of humanity as being similar to sheep. Not to be offensive or rude to you the reader, the simple fact is sheep are dumb. They must have constant supervision from the shepherd, for without this constant supervision the sheep will go astray becoming hopefully lost.

This is a perfect picture of humanity. Man has left the path that the shepherd (Christ) has chosen, and because the sheep have left the correct path (the path of Christ) they become hopelessly lost, lost to such a degree that within his own means, it is impossible for him to find the right path; therefore Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory had to come from heaven down to this wilderness called earth, all for the purpose to seek and save lost humanity.

It is important to notice that the word all is used, which means that all of humanity is lost, born into original sin and born in total depravity, meaning man is not just slightly lost, but man is completely lost and doomed for destruction.

We Have Turned Every One To His Own Way

This phrase refers to the fact that collectively and individually, the whole world has sinned and come short of the glory of God. The great problem of the human race is “man’s way” versus “God’s way.” Man’s way always leads to eternal damnation and God’s way leads to eternal glorification.

And The Lord Has Laid On Him The Iniquity Of Us All

This phrase refers to the total price that Christ paid for our total salvation. Here once again we find in these words the simple doctrine of the gospel, the death of Christ. His purpose in coming to earth was to die on Calvary’s Cross in order to pay the price that man could not pay, which would secure man’s salvation, at least for those who will believe and by faith accept Christ and His atoning work.

Every single sin for all of humanity and for all time was laid upon Christ. He alone was the only sacrifice God could accept. Every one of us should have hung on that Cross because we are all guilty, but instead of God laying the iniquity on the truly guilty which is all of humanity instead Jesus Christ took our place, He became our substitute, He became the sin offering, and took the punishment we deserved upon Himself.

Simple faith in what Christ did at Calvary brings forgiveness and pardon to any and all who will come and fall at the feet of the Cross, and there, and only there can you find forgiveness of sin and life eternal.

“All we like sheep have gone astray, we have turned everyone to his own way, and the Lord has laid on Him the iniquity of us all.”

Praise the Lord, Christ paid the debt that I owed and could not pay, but by faith and grace I am no longer a sinner, a debtor, I am a new creation in Jesus Christ.

Professing Themselves To Be Wise, They Became Fools
Just days following the U.S. Supreme Court’s decision to legalize same-sex marriage in all 50 states, Pastor Donnie Swaggart points believers back to the Bible and the Supreme Judge over all the earth—the Lord Jesus Christ—and His righteousness.
Includes:
• Some Golden Daybreak (Jimmy Swaggart)
• God Bless The U.S.A. (Randy Knaps and the FWC singers)
• Sermon: Professing Themselves To Be Wise, They Became Fools

The Evil Work
Pastor Donnie Swaggart boldly addresses the most controversial topic facing the church and America today: the dangerous, false religion of Islam and its deadly agenda against American lives, liberty, and values. Every Christian must hear and heed this timely message.
Includes:
• He’s My Ever Present Help In Time Of Need (FWC Choir)
• Mended Vessel (Greg Coleman)
• America The Beautiful (Jimmy Swaggart)
• Sermon: The Evil Work

Upon This Rock I Will Build My Church And The Gates Of Hell Shall Not Prevail Against It
In this anointed message, Pastor Donnie Swaggart takes believers and unbelievers to Matthew 16, back to the rock—the Lord Jesus—and the true church. He then reminds Christians who they are in Christ—the church of the living God.
Includes:
• Praise & Worship (Joseph Larson)
• Come See A Man (FWC Choir)
• What He’s Done For Me (Tara Montpetit)
• Sermon: Upon This Rock I Will Build My Church And The Gates Of Hell Shall Not Prevail Against It

A Song Of Praise In The Morning
Psalms is not only a book of songs it’s also a book of prophecy. In this anointed message, Pastor Donnie Swaggart draws from Psalm 30 to preach on the power of praise before, during, and after a night of weeping.
Includes:
• Praise & Worship (Joseph Larson)
• It’s Amazing (FWC Choir)
• His Name Is Jesus (Kim Coleman)
• House Of Gold (Jimmy Swaggart)
• Sermon: A Song Of Praise In The Morning

To Set At Liberty Them That Are Bruised
In a message taken from Luke 4, Pastor Donnie Swaggart addresses the sensitive subject of child abuse—physical, sexual, and verbal—and its longtime effects on survivors. The One anointed to heal the brokenhearted can also set the bruised free.
Includes:
• Praise & Worship (Joseph Larson)
• When He Set Me Free (FWC Choir)
• I’ve Not Seen A Mountain (Grace Larson)
• Who Am I? (Jimmy Swaggart)
• Sermon: To Set At Liberty Them That Are Bruised

The Offence Of The Cross
Why does the modern church reject the Message of the Cross? The reason is not new. In fact, renowned ministers from centuries past faced the same type of rejection. Pastor Donnie reveals Satan’s tactics behind this dangerous deception targeting believers.
Includes:
• Praise & Worship (Robin Herd)
• You Don’t Know (FWC Choir)
• The Old Rugged Cross (Joseph Larson)
• Life’s Railway To Heaven (Jimmy Swaggart)
• Sermon: The Offence Of The Cross
“After this manner therefore pray you: Our Father who is in heaven, Hallowed be Your name. Your kingdom come, Your will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For Yours is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.” —Matthew 6:9-13

Is It Scriptural For Us To Ask The Lord For Forgiveness?

In Part VII, we stated that every believer will enter into sin. Unfortunately, that is a guarantee in life. Even though we have been justified through the means of believing in Christ and what He accomplished at the Cross, we will walk in this present life, and we will become tarnished and corrupted by sin. Though we know we have been forgiven, we still need forgiveness from the Lord for sins and failures that we commit during our lives.

This is what John the Beloved said in his epistle, and I will paraphrase: Even though we are walking in a life of faith in Christ, we will fall into sin, but when we do, we have the opportunity to come to Christ, who is our advocate, and seek and receive forgiveness from sin.

When you look at I John, John is not writing to those who are not followers of Christ, but he is writing to Christians. If he is telling Christians “when you sin,” he means that we are not yet glorified, and because of that, it’s not a matter of if we sin, but rather when we sin. We are going to fail the Lord—there are no ifs, ands, or buts about it. No matter how much we try not to fail, we will fail the Lord. However, according to Scripture, we are instructed to ask for forgiveness, and do so with a broken heart, and He will be faithful and just to forgive us. As John was speaking to believers then, here, in this text of Matthew, Chapter 6, He is speaking to believers as well.

The Cross Of Christ

This means that just as the Cross was important to forgive us from our initial sins when we became born again, the Cross is just as important for our everyday life and living. At the very moment you received salvation, you were baptized into Christ. This means that in the mind of God, you were placed into Christ, buried with Him by baptism into death, and raised with Him in newness of life (Rom. 6:3-5).

His death was not an accident, and neither was it an assassination. His life was freely given and laid down for us so that we can, as Paul said in Galatians, be delivered from this present world (Gal. 1:4). Our old man was crucified with Christ. According to the Word of God, this means that who we used to be is... no longer present, and the power and dominion of the sin nature are now completely destroyed and torn down. The divine nature now comes in and takes up leadership in our lives. If that was true for our initial salvation experience (and it was), it is no different for our everyday life and living. When we asked for forgiveness initially at our salvation, it was our faith in what Christ did at the Cross, even though we knew nothing of the Cross, other than Christ died for me. That faith in the Cross is what brought about forgiveness of our sins. It is the same presently for the believer.

At the very moment that our faith is evidenced in Christ and the Cross, the Holy Spirit is then allowed to help us in a way that is desperately needed. It is the responsibility of the Holy Spirit to bring about the victory that we seek in our everyday lives. Without His help, we will never be able to live a life that is pleasing to the Lord. To be perfectly honest, without the leading and help of the Holy Spirit, the sin nature will continue to dominate our lives and bring about severe problems and possible destruction.

We must understand that all sin is against God and will always bring separation from God. When the believer sins, it brings separation. We must repent of the sin immediately in order for fellowship with God to be restored. Forgiveness is needed by every believer for the simple fact that we all sin, and we all fail the Lord at some point in our lives. We are constantly coming up short of where we should be, and we need His forgiveness to have our relationship restored.

A Break In The Relationship

Think of this: As a husband, if I do something against my wife and never once ask for forgiveness, then I will not only lose her trust, but I will then begin the dissolving of our relationship. If forgiveness is not asked and received, then that relationship will begin and continue to grow apart, with no chance of repair.

TWO BOOK SPECIAL

Rape Of A Nation (09-130)
The very moral fabric of our nation is being torn by unseen forces at work around us. These malicious forces have names but no faces. But what are these unseen forces at work? What can we do to stop them? Until now these questions hung in the still air without reply. This powerful book by Evangelist Jimmy Swaggart lays bare the truth behind the terrible effect these unseen forces are having on our nation. It uncovers the root causes of these forces and what we can do to curb their malevolent influence. This is a book that every citizen of the United States should read, but perhaps more importantly, one that every Christian must read. It is a potent book that pulls no punches—one that is as uncompromising in its reach as the author himself. This book sounds a clarion call to awaken believers to the realization that the only answer for America is Jesus Christ and Him crucified.

The World, The Flesh, and The Devil (09-130)
The three greatest antagonists to the child of God are the world, the flesh, and the Devil. Sadly, Christians try to fight these enemies on their own, only to experience continual discouragement and failure. In this compelling book, Evangelist Jimmy Swaggart illustrates how the Holy Spirit works—with the parameters of the finished work of Christ—to help the Christian maintain faith in the Cross where Satan was thoroughly defeated. Using Old Testament types and shadows—the manna from heaven, the tree that made bitter waters sweet, and the smitten rock that poured forth water—Brother Swaggart reveals God’s plan to provide for and redeem mankind. The revelation offered in this book—that true victory belongs to Christ alone—will help every believer who learns to say, “yet not I.”

What does the Message of the Cross mean to me? I will tell you that without a doubt, it is the “Master’s piece” to the puzzle that shows the Christian how to live a victorious life. It is the chief cornerstone to which all other pieces fit.

Without the understanding of this message, one does not have the ability to live the abundant life for which Christ died. It just cannot be lived.

The Message of the Cross is not owned by any one person—it is Christ Jesus’ answer to the religious, law-abiding, church-attending membership.

So many components of this message have come together for me.

As a fourth-generation Pentecostal, the pattern of attending services Sunday morning, Sunday night, and Wednesday night—and everything in between—was the underlying confidence of being right with God.

I was saved at the age of 9 and baptized in the Holy Ghost at 10. The call of God on my life came at an early age.

Many great preachers spoke into my life over those formative years, but the understanding of how our faith must stay focused and positioned in the Cross was not made clear. Grace was not abounding over sin in those early days of my salvation. In my early church experience, we got saved again and again, and in every service, because of a lack of understanding of the message as it relates to sanctification.

How freeing and how liberating is the Message of the Cross once you come to the understanding that Jesus paid it all, and any attempts at maintaining salvation through your own will cannot achieve what Jesus did there at the Cross.

The will of man is a strong force and certainly is a real part of why so many like me, who were raised in church, tried and tried to keep our own selves saved but failed. I believe it was because we did not know where the focus of our faith was supposed to be placed after salvation.

We understood faith was good for salvation at the Cross, but after that, it was as if we were left to figure it out for ourselves. Try harder, pray more, read the Bible—all of these things are good, and like many others, we fell into the religious trap of “fixing” ourselves. After all, it was up to us to live it. But, somehow our works never worked—until the Message of the Cross broke through the cloud of religious quagmire, and the Master’s puzzle began to come together.

If you have ever worked a puzzle, you understand. You can try to force pieces into place, but the puzzle can only fit one way.

As a child, I watched my grandmother put puzzles together. She would have the box top and the pieces spread out, organized into colors and corners. Thousands of pieces of this complicated puzzle were waiting for the moment of coming together to form the vision on the front of the box.

Then the challenge began. For a little while, it seemed as if it never would come together, but then she would find the one piece that made the rest of the puzzle work with ease.

You see, this message is not just for some and not for others. It is not one salvation and process of sanctification for some and not for others.

As a Christian, if you don’t get this piece of the puzzle in place, nothing else works in your life. The Christian life is centered on this one piece of the puzzle—the Cross of Jesus Christ—and the placement of your faith is the key to victory.

I can tell you that the more you have heard something one way for most of your life—in spite of seeing it clearly written in Scripture—it takes hearing it over and over again to break the religious hold that so easily creates a law of works. It must be broken off from your life and out of your thinking!
For me, trying to live for Christ was not an option. However, once I understood that proper placement of faith is the key, it all made sense. Living for Christ was more than a job—it became a journey!

Faith has a focus, and that focus is the Cross of Christ. It's where everything comes together to complete the portrait of the plan of God, which has been written from the dawn of time.

I believe that is what makes the grace of God amazing! Victory is ours when we place our faith in what Christ did at the Cross—and place our faith there every day after that!

You can have faith and great confidence in the fact that the proper position-placed faith in the Cross of Jesus Christ is the substance of things hoped for and the evidence of things not seen.

The battle is over, the struggle has stopped, and the fight is finished once you place your faith every day where it belongs. You will find the Master's piece to the puzzle that will unlock the victorious life, the abundant life, and the life in Christ for which you've been looking!

In John 5:4 the Bible says, “For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and THIS IS THE VICTORY that overcometh the world, even our FAITH” (in the finished work of the Cross).

Without doing damage to the Scripture, I have begun to substitute “faith in the finished work of the Cross” wherever I find the word faith in the text. If you will do that, you will be surprised how eye-opening your focus of faith will be to your understanding.

I would encourage anyone to do as I do—rehearse the message over and over. Believe me when I tell you that it is easy to slip back into a pattern of trying. It is a tactic of Satan to get your faith off focus. Keep your mind renewed in the Message of the Cross and practice it daily. My faith is placed exclusively in the Cross of Jesus Christ, and no weapon formed against me shall prosper! The Cross is the place of victory!

ATTENTION TIME WARNER AND BRIGHTHOUSE CABLE VIEWERS:

Some viewers who have Time Warner or Brighthouse channels may experience problems locating SBN. We have updated our channel listings here, but should you still have trouble locating SBN on these networks, please try either 388 or 470 for Time Warner subscribers or channels listed here for Brighthouse Cable. You may be directed to call and sign up for Charter Spectrum. Charter will need you to transition from the old Time Warner systems you have, SBN is available on all of the Charter TV package options. You can go to the Charters website, put in your address and see all channels included in the line-up. You can reach Charter by phone at 1-877-906-8121.
UNITED STATES OVER-THE-AIR (DTV) LISTINGS

For those of you who are not familiar with digital television, these are free “old fashioned TV channels” that are able to be picked up with a digital tuner and antenna. Most new televisions are equipped with built-in digital tuners or you can purchase a tuner from your local electronics store (Best Buy®, Radio Shack®, etc.). As well, you can purchase the proper antenna at your local electronics store. Many viewers under the broadcast signal of the television station can use a small, digital antenna inside the home. For those on the outer edge of the signal or to receive the best signal, an outdoor antenna may be required. Both indoor and outdoor antennas are available for less than $50!

FROM EVANGELIST JIMMY SWAGGART

This CD is different from anything we have made in a long, long time. While the Family Worship Center singers are backing me up (respecting the grand old hymns), I do not really sing on this particular CD, but rather quote the psalms. I personally feel that this is going to be a blessing to you in more ways than one. With the great hymns of the church, and with music that’s anointed, and with the quoting of the psalms, which of course is the Word of God, I think this is going to bring peace to one’s heart and to anyone privileged to hear it. In other words, I think that spirits of fear, discouragement, and oppression will not be able to remain with the person as he or she listens to this CD. Whatever you do, you want to get a copy.

Songs Include:
- Draw Me Lord
- Blessed Assurance
- I See A Crimson Stream Of Blood
- The Old Rugged Cross
- In The Garden
- Farther Along
- Amazing Grace
- I’ll Never Be Lonely Again
- I Am Thine, O Lord (Draw Me Nearer)
- How Beautiful Heaven Must Be

LISTENER RECEIVES INFILLING OF THE SPIRIT

DEAR EVANGELIST: I am a preacher of about 11 years, and I’ve been a follower of JSM since I got saved 11 years ago. I’ve been praying for the speaking in other tongues since, but could never receive them. This morning as I was having breakfast and listening to a classic crusade. Brother Swaggart gave the invitation to come down and receive the filling of the Spirit. I did like all other time in the past and did as he instructed, but today was my day and Praise God I stated speaking in other tongues. Thank you for your program and for allowing God to use your ministry to give people like me hope to carry on. If it was not for your ministry I know I would have giving up on not just this, but probably my salvation. Thank you for your show because you are not afraid to talk about any issue.

NEVER ALONE WHEN I HAVE JESUS

DEAR EVANGELIST: I lost my dear husband to death this past January. We were married 51 years. I was alone just now till I heard you sing “Never Alone.” I knew that, but in a moment of longing I forgot. I have Jesus. Someone I cannot see, but right now I feel Him in my heart. He has been with me for 72 years and now he holds his child, my husband in his loving arms. Thank you, Brother Jimmy, for bringing me to my knees in prayer and thanksgiving!

THE WORD OF GOD MADE CLEAR

DEAR EVANGELIST: Dear Brother Swaggart and Family Worship Center staff, just like to say God bless you all for spreading the gospel of Jesus Christ. I watch every Sunday morning and evening service plus the Study in the Word and The Message of the Cross. I can’t tell you how easy it is to study the Word of God and understand it. I enjoy listening and increasing my faith on Jesus and the Cross. Thank you for the Expository Bible!

PRAYER REQUEST AND PRAISE

DEAR EVANGELIST: I am writing about my mom. She has SBN on her living-room TV 24/7. She loves all of you. She has ordered product, donated and sends prayer requests. I wanted you to know she had a stroke on Dec. 13. The whole time we were in rehab she had SBN going on her little Kindle. We proclaimed the name of Jesus in that hospital to everyone we could! And SBN was a big part of that! Praise Jesus. I would like to ask you to pray for my mom and do anything you can to let her know her SBN family loves her. Let me know you received this email. Thank you for all you do to advance God’s kingdom! All for His glory!

JSM MESSAGE TIMELY AND VALUABLE FOR OUR COUNTRY

DEAR EVANGELIST: I have never been a daytime TV viewer until I started watching Frances and Friends and The Message of the Cross beginning only a week ago, and cannot bring myself to watch anything else, for all the education and understanding of God’s Word it has brought to me, at such a disordered time in our country. Already, I am seeing daily positive results with our new workaholic, President Trump. I know he needs our prayers for his success and for the personal sacrifices that he has, and continues to endure. I have already ordered several of your teaching DVDs, and cannot wait to see how they will help me see more clearly how your message is so relevant to our modern age. I am especially excited to also order soon an Expositor’s Study Bible. Your ministry is providing a tremendously timely, valuable and pertinent service to mankind. Thank you for helping me to see the Lord’s Word. Praise the Lord!

SPIRIT-FILLED MUSIC

DEAR EVANGELIST: I just wanted to share something with you all. I have always listened to Christian radio stations and tapes for many years, never any other music. Back in December I purchased a commentary for my friend as a gift and one for myself. I received a free CD and DVD with it. My brother wanted some of Brother Swaggart’s older CDs, so I ordered him some for Christmas. I also ordered one of Randy Knaps and Robin Herd and a couple of others. They are all I have listened to since Christmas. The other day I decided I was going to listen to one of my other Christian CDs. I put it in my car CD player. For some reason, I kept changing the selections until God finally let me know why I was not enjoying them as I did the ones from JSM. They were not Spirit-filled. My car and I wanted to feel the presence of God and His Holy Spirit. So as soon as I can afford more, I will buy more. I want that anointing to remain in me and on me and in my car and on my car. God bless you all and all that you do.

SBN BLESSES VIEWER LIVING NEAR THE ARCTIC CIRCLE

DEAR EVANGELIST: Hello! I just send a greeting from North of Sweden, I live close to the Arctic Circle, I just tell you that I can see your broadcast here on my TV from SBN, I’m so blessed every Sunday afternoon when I see your live broadcast, its afternoon here when you have your Sunday morning service. I love it...the music and the message from some preacher; You bless me so much. I look forward for every Sunday. God Bless your ministry.

EXPOSITORS BIBLE BEST BIRTHDAY GIFT

DEAR EVANGELIST: I turned 63 and I was given the gift of the Expositors Bible and the study on Romans. I am in awe. I think it should be called the “Depositor’s Bible” because it deposits so much in your reading and studying of the Word! I am so glad God moved on you to make this book. Be blessed!

QUESTION ANSWERED

DEAR EVANGELIST: I want to say a big thank you to JSM. I watched the live broadcast yesterday, and it was amazing to note that the very question I demanded an answer for was brought to the forefront. And I must tell you it benefited me immensely. Today the world is a global village and I must say that JSM is among the pioneers that brought this great feat. Once again, I say thank you!

JIMMY SWAGGART
BOOK SPECIAL

Noah (09-118)
Noah walked with God, the Bible says, and he was just and perfect in his generations—his lineage. Noah also found grace in the eyes of the Lord, which happens to be the very first time that the word grace is mentioned in the Word of God. So, what was it like for Noah to hear the Lord say that He would destroy all flesh on the earth? God told Noah, and Noah alone, that the flood was coming. For decades, the people around Noah watched his struggle to build an ark based on pure faith in God. Still standing on dry ground, they mocked the man of God while eating, drinking, and refusing to heed Noah’s warning that rain was coming. Then, just as God said, the flood came.

The Tabernacle (09-125)
The Tabernacle was given by God to the children of Israel to serve as a pattern for living. Every single part of the Tabernacle—the way it was built, its coverings, its sacred vessels—all, and without exception, speak of Christ and His roles in the atonement for all sin, as the mediator for mankind, and as our intercessor. One might say that every single thing about the Tabernacle presents itself as a symbol of the work of our Lord. This thorough study of the Tabernacle will bring about a greater understanding to all believers about the Lord Jesus Christ and everything that has been fulfilled through him.

The Study of the Bible

The main textbook of Jimmy Swaggart Bible College has always been the Bible. To be honest with you, there are not many Bible colleges left in the United States. Most Bible colleges have transformed themselves into institutions that emphasize far more than the study of God’s Word. There’s nothing wrong with doing that if an institution and its leaders desire to go that way.

However, to find an institution of higher learning that focuses primarily on the learning and application of the scriptures, one has to look long and far. I guarantee you that our students will be learning the Bible from the first day of their time with us, until their very last class or chapel service. Classes that are not expositional studies of the Bible itself are specialty subjects associated with truths found in the Scriptures.

The Message of the Cross

In my estimation the Message of the Cross is by far the most important message that God has ever revealed to the church. It is the meaning of the new covenant. It is not new. It had been first given to the apostle Paul who placed that information within the confines of writings that are now scripture. In those writings he explains that God always works through the agencies of grace and faith. The term grace indicates something that we don’t work for, earn, or deserve. Living for God is not earning the promises of God, it is experiencing God. Man is to live for God and with God by faith. God doesn’t accept man because of what we do. He works in us and for us because of what we believe. Our faith must forever rest singularly, holistically, and exclusively in Jesus Christ and what He did for us at Calvary. This is how the sinner is saved and this is how the Saint is progressively sanctified. There is no other means by which mankind can receive both forgiveness of sin and the freedom from the power of sin. Faith in the Cross and what Christ did there is the foundation of everything that the Christian experiences.

Students at JSBC will hear this message emphasized in nearly every class, practically every chapel service, or almost every church service at Family Worship Center.

The Message of Pentecost

Down through the years, Brother Swaggart’s ministry has always emphasized the need for the baptism with the Holy Spirit. We believe and teach that the baptism with the Holy Spirit is a second subsequent work of grace. The salvation experience brings the believer freedom from sin. The baptism with the Holy Spirit with the evidence of speaking in other tongues as the Spirit gives the utterance provides the believer with power for service. The only requirement for the second work is that an individual be truly born again. We teach and believe that God desires this special empowerment to be a part of every believer’s Christian experience. We emphasize that the book of Acts is not just an historical record but that it is the current model for the church in this present age. Nothing can be done without the help of the Holy Spirit. He is the life blood of the believer and of a church that desires to bring Christ to a lost and hurting world. We are looking for a few men and women to train in the knowledge of the Word and in the power of the Spirit.

Give us a call and let us send you more information about Jimmy Swaggart Bible College today! 225-768-3890

Your Calling Comes with Answers.

JSBC was birthed through the ministry of Jimmy Swaggart. The founding of a Bible college to prepare men and women for an in-depth, Spirit-filled ministry has been a dream of Brother Swaggart’s for a number of years. He believes such an institution plays an important role in evangelizing the world as the coming of Christ draws near.

The distinct emphasis of Brother Swaggart is the Message of the Cross coupled with the baptism with the Holy Spirit. From the chapel services with its lively worship of God, to the classrooms and the residence halls—the entire campus is dedicated to walking in the Spirit of God.

Since 1984, JSBC has trained missionaries, evangelists, and pastors to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ.

The Christian And Rights

By John Rosenstern

Christianity is under attack in America like never before. Our public education system has been purged of any semblance of our Founding Father’s faith. The rich history of the Pilgrims and persecuted believers in Europe, who were seeking to establish a society that gave freedom to worship God and serve Him in liberty, has been expunged from school textbooks and classrooms.

Our children are now fed a liberal, progressive diet of secular humanism. Self is the new god, and satisfying self is the new religion. Man-centered ideals are extolled and exemplified. These ideals are reinforced by the modern prophets who speak to its followers from Hollywood and the liberal media.

Grassroots organizations cooperate with politicians and the liberal media in selling the politically correct agenda to silence any and all expressions of Christianity in the public square. Their deceptive message is now so persuasive that unsuspecting believers are seduced into embracing their perverted redefinitions of morality and lifestyles. Many Christians and so-called preachers have joined the liberal-progressive movement with the idea that they are protecting the rights of American citizens. The idea is that we can all get along together in love while overlooking sin. In many cases, they redefine sin to appease their consciences because they are doing good works. This has submitted them to legitimizing the liberal-progressive agenda.

Origin Of Rights

The Declaration of Independence established the principles of our nation, the United States of America. Our Constitution and its amendments provide for a rule of law for our government to accomplish those principles. The Bill of Rights protects our individual rights as American citizens. The Declaration of Independence says:

“When in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature’s God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

“We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among them are Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of happiness—That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed...”

Our Founding Fathers held the highest regard toward God and His sovereignty over the affairs of men. By recognizing that our rights came from God, they believed government was to protect our rights. Our founders placed God's laws as a higher authority than civil authority. In the book of Acts, we witness an example of this when Peter and the other apostles said, “We ought to obey God rather than men” (Acts 5:29).

John Locke and French philosopher Baron de Montesquieu’s writings influenced our Founding Fathers with philosophical wisdom and insight on the structure of government. Locke wrote Two Treatises on Government, (1690) from Psalm 115:16, “The heaven, even the heavens, are the Lord’s: but the earth has He given to the children of men.” Locke argued that people were born with certain natural rights to life, liberty, and property, and that governments are formed to protect the rights of the people.

Baron de Montesquieu, in The Spirit of the Laws, believed the best form of government, which would incorporate a separation of powers into executive, legislative, and judicial branches, would be based on natural law.

Bill of Rights

Thomas Jefferson and the Antifederalists raised some resistance to the approval of the United States Constitution, with concern that too much power was given to the federal government, and American citizens were unprotected. James Madison submitted amendments to the Constitution on June 8, 1789. The Preamble of the bill states that the Bill of Rights is to prevent abuse by the government. As history reveals, by December 15, 1791, all the states ratified 10 amendments, which are now known to us as the Bill of Rights. The evidence is clear that our founders believed in a limited role of the federal government. The 13 established states became confederate to fight back against the tyranny of England. The men who sought liberty knew that with God’s help, they could and would create a country that came closer than any other society in supply, respect, and dignity to human life. Although not perfect, our founding documents created a foundation built on man’s accountability to God and man’s responsibility toward fellowman.
PART I  It seems strange that we need to address the lordship of Jesus Christ in this day and age and yet I feel compelled to write this article on the deity of Jesus Christ. The name “Jesus” is the most precious name ever given. “…there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved” (Acts 4:12). The deity of Christ was so important to the apostle John that he began his gospel with this affirmation; “In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God and the Word was God” (John 1:1).

“The Pre-Existence of Christ”

In the beginning was the Word…en arche ho logos. The Greek word “arche” is where we get the words: archaic and archelogy from. Arche has a deeper meaning. It means that whenever time began, Jesus the Word, already existed. Before the first “let there be” of Genesis was uttered, Jesus already was. Before heaven and the angelic hosts were created Jesus already was.

“The Word Was With God… The Word Was God”

John stressed the perfect unity of Christ as part of the Godhead as well as the certainty of Christ being deity. One of the main reasons John, in his later years, wrote his gospel was because the deity of Christ had been challenged. This was a challenge that could not be ignored.

The Hypostatic Union of Christ

In the incarnation of Christ, we see Christ taking on the human form of a man. He hungered, became thirsty, needed to rest, and was affected by the elements just as every other human being on the earth. Jesus had to be human to take our place on the cross and had to be God to qualify as the spotless Lamb of God. He was 100 percent God and 100 percent Man at the same time. He laid down the expression (manifestation) of deity during the incarnation but always maintained the possession of deity. Every miracle Jesus did was through the Holy Spirit and not through His own power as the Son of God.

“If They Get Jesus Wrong”

If they get Jesus wrong, it doesn’t matter what they get right! Error rides in on the back of truth. Satan always presents an element of truth in his attempt to deceive mankind. If their teaching on Jesus is wrong, even slightly, then it is another Jesus...another gospel. It is heresy. There’s a Mormon Jesus. There’s a Jehovah’s Witness Jesus. There’s a Christian Science Jesus. There’s an Islamic Jesus. There’s a New Age Jesus. There’s an Ecumenical Jesus. Each slightly different from the Jesus of the Bible and therefore they present another Jesus.

“Another Jesus”

Paul was concerned that the saints in Corinth might be deceived into following another Jesus. “For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him” (II Cor. 11:4). There are two basic words for “another”: allos and heteros. Allos means another of the same kind where as heteros means another of a different kind. Heteros is where we get the word “heterosexual”; a person who is attracted to a different gender. Paul was saying that the false teachers presented a Jesus who looked like the real Son of God but would be slightly different. That slight difference was enough for Paul to tell the Corinthians to reject that false Jesus. Today, we cannot compromise on who Jesus Christ is. The Word was, is and will always be deity.

“But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived.” —II Timothy 3:13

WE CANNOT LET UP

By Dave Smith

After the attack of Sept. 11, 2001, there was a tremendous, immediate reaction of national and spiritual unity in our country. It was common for people to talk about and pray to God. But within a few weeks or months much of the unity and spiritual urgency wore off. A similar apathy and indifference must not be allowed to happen after the presidential election of last November when a large segment of the Evangelical Christians stood up and rejected the direction this country has been going. Even though it is the natural tendency, Christians should not only not let up or decrease their efforts in standing up for biblical principles, but their efforts should increase because the enemy will not back down, has not given up, and is doubling his efforts.

Paul wrote to Timothy about the times and people in which we are now living (II Timothy 3:1-14) as the following:

- Last days: right before the Rapture and the Second Coming.
- Perilous times: dangerous, difficult, hard and grievous times.
- Lovers of their own selves: selfish.
- Covetous: greedy.
- Boasters: braggarts.
- Proud: arrogant; exalting self; thinking they are superior.
- Blasphemers: speak evil of, defame, slander, and speak abusively to others.
- Unthankful: ungrateful.
- Unholy: totally depraved; opposite of holy within and without.
- Without natural affection: involved in sexual deviations and perversions; homosexuals.
- Trucebreakers: not morally bound to keep promises.
- False accusers: slanderers; adversaries of God and man.
- Traitors: betrayers.
- Heady: rash, hasty, and reckless.
- High-minded: conceited; lifted up with pride.
- Lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God: sensual gratification is their god.
- Having a form of godliness: only have external religious activities and not a Godly heart.
- Denying the power of God: do not believe in the supernatural power of God.
- Ever learning: go to great lengths to know the wisdom of the world.
- Never able to come to the knowledge of the truth: reject it as foolishness (I Corinthians 1:18,23,25)
- Resist the truth: oppose and withstand God’s truth.
- Corrupt minds: depraved and perishing thought patterns.
- Reprobate: rejected by God because they have first rejected Him.
- Persecuted: chase those who want to live for God to harass, hurt, and trouble them.
- Evil men: wicked.
- Wax worse and worse: grow, increase, and advance in being evil.
- Deceiving and being deceived: lead others astray into the same error they accept.
- Not endure sound doctrine: reject Godly truth.
- After their own lusts: evil desires.
- Heap to themselves teachers with itching ears: look for those who excuse their sins.
- Turn their ears from truth to fables:

follow false doctrines that pamper the flesh and condone sin.

The following is God’s answer for how Christians can counteract and oppose these trends (II Timothy 3:4-1,5):

Continue (abide and remain) in the Scriptures which:

- Make wise: give understanding.
- In Salvation: deliverance from sin.
- Are inspired by God: writers were guided by the Holy Spirit so the Scriptures are infallible.
- Are profitable for doctrine: teaching the principles of God.
- Reproof: proves and convinces thing as right and wrong.
- Correction: restoring people to being right with God.

- Instruction in righteousness: showing how to be right with God His way.
- Make perfect: complete, mature.
- Thoroughly furnished for all good works: equipped.

Also, God commands to:

- Preach: (proclaim) His Word.
- Reprove: admonish, warn and expose sin.
- Reprove: Point out sin.
- Exhort: comfort and encourage.
- With longsuffering: patience.
- With doctrine: Godly principles.
- Watch in all things: be sober, and temperate.
- Endure afflictions: suffer troubles and hardships.
- Do the work of an evangelist: proclaim the Gospel to win souls.
- Make full proof of your ministry: fulfill and accomplish what God called you to do.

If there was ever a time Christians must be about their Father’s business, it is now. If there was ever a time Christians must be about their Father’s business, it is now.
THE MESSAGE

I personally believe of all the things that are happening in the world, and I speak of everything, that the Message of the Cross, is the single most important thing on the face of the earth. I definitely believe that this is what the Holy Spirit is presently saying to the churches. Please note the following:

The early church actually began with the outpouring of the Holy Spirit on the Day of Pentecost. A short time later, approximately 10 or 12 years, the Lord gave the meaning of the new covenant to the apostle Paul, which was the meaning of the Cross, which Paul gave to us in his 14 epistles. This was the complete gospel.

Now it has come full circle. With the outpouring of the Holy Spirit at the turn of the 20th century, millions have been baptized with the Spirit, and in 1997 the Lord began to once again open up the Message of the Cross. As stated, it has come full circle. As it was the single most important thing on the face of the earth during the time of Paul, likewise I believe it is the single most important thing in the world presently.

YOUR INVOLVEMENT

As I have said many times before, and I would hope that you read my words carefully, your calling is the same as mine. The way it is done is different, but as far as the call itself, it is the same. It comes from the Lord, and it has come to me to take this message to the world. But I cannot do it without you. This is where the similarities come in. This is the way the Lord has designed this approach. He calls some to take the message, and He calls others to prayerfully and financially support it (Rom. 10:14-15).

“And how shall they preach, except they be sent?” God has called us to do the preaching, and He has called you to do the sending. It is just that simple. One calling is dependent on the other, and neither one is more important than the other.

THE FALL OF MAN

The heading is the title of our newest book. It’s a little different than our other books; in that it deals with subject matter we have not heretofore dealt with.

I speak of evolution and creationism, which goes into detail as it regards this particular book. Then it deals with the fall of man. Why did Adam and Eve fall? Is there any record that either one came back to God? I think this book will furnish tremendous information to you regarding the Word of God, and as well, it will be, we think, so interesting that you won’t want to put it down. When we received them in our warehouse, I immediately got a copy and started reading it, and just about didn’t quit until I had finished the entire book. It was and is that interesting, and I believe it will be that to you also.

So I would urge you, whatever you do, get a copy of The Fall of Man. The book is hardcover and over 200 pages (09-144).

A SPANISH AND PORTUGUESE INTERPRETER

If your first language is Spanish or Portuguese and you want to be used of the Lord, please contact our television department. We desperately need a Spanish interpreter, and we also need a Portuguese interpreter. Of course as you know, the Portuguese is for the country of Brazil, with the Spanish covering all of Central and South America, with the exception of Brazil.

If you are interested, please contact, as stated, our Television Department. If you want to work for God, this is a beautiful way to get it done.

A PERSONAL INVITATION

This summer, while you’re on vacation, if possible, why don’t you swing by Baton Rouge and be with us in service at Family Worship Center? It just seems like the services are getting better and better, that is if such is possible. This one thing I believe, when you come, you will know you have been to church, and we will be so happy to have you.

The Sunday morning service begins at 10 a.m. with the Sunday night service beginning at 6 p.m. The Wednesday night service begins at 7 p.m. And of course, the campmeetings are a world of their own. In other words, we think you’ve never quite been to church until you attend a campmeeting at Family Worship Center. Some of the greatest music and singing in the world, and preaching that will lift up Jesus Christ and make Him real to your heart and life. It’s a little bit of heaven on earth. So make your plans to be with us if at all possible.

PRAY FOR THE PRESIDENT

I should say that we must pray for the president, his family, and all the members of his Cabinet. There were enough Evangelicals at this time that were interested enough in this past election that this man was elected. And I personally believe that this has been, and is, a move of God. In other words, I believe the Lord is giving America one more chance.

I cannot understand how anyone who calls himself or herself born again could vote for someone that advocates abortion. That’s a complete mystery to me; but unfortunately it seems that some manage to do so.

When it comes to voting for a candidate, the believer should do one’s best to ascertain what that candidate stands for. And then about the best that can be done is to vote for the one that you feel is closer to the Word of God. Admittedly, you won't find much similarity there; however, this is the best way that the believer can face the situation.

And incidentally, any Christian who thinks that he would just not vote because the whole thing is crooked, etc., such a person is doing freedom a disservice. I personally believe that it is mandatory spiritually and biblically speaking, for every single believer to cast the ballot in elections. A tremendous price has been paid for the freedoms we now have. And for those freedoms to be ignored, while we refuse to vote, is tantamount to the giving of freedoms to the Devil himself. Every Christian should avidly seek the Lord about the person for which he would cast his ballot. And then we should not fail to vote. That goes for all the local elections, and as well those on a national scale. I’ll say it again:

It seems that most believers, whom we will refer to as Evangelicals, understood the significance of this last election, and thereby voted. In fact, that’s what elected President Trump. This is a habit we don’t want to break.

And then again, pray for those who are in authority over us. There are powerful forces of evil in this nation that would like to do the president harm, which I think is overly obvious. But we must not forget that this is a spiritual battle moreso than anything else. Consequently, it is only believers, and Spirit-filled believers at that, who can roll back the clouds of darkness. We do so with our faith and with our prayerful intercession. It is still:

“If My people which are called by My name, shall humble themselves and pray, and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from Heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land” (II Chron. 7:14).

In the Master’s service, yours,

Jimmy Swaggart
The reason why The Expositor’s Study Bible has sold more than 2.8 million copies is not only because of its remarkable content, but also for its easy-to-read format. Virtually every Scripture is explained, which helps readers understand the Bible to a greater degree. And anything that will help you understand the Word to a greater degree is valuable indeed. So, if you don’t yet have a copy of The Expositor’s Study Bible, we encourage you to get one for yourself as well as copies for your family and friends. QUESTIONS & ANSWERS
BOOK SPECIAL

Brother Swaggart, Here Is My Question About The Holy Spirit (09-114)
The Lord told Zechariah that everything done for the Him on earth was done by the power of the Holy Spirit. "Not by might, nor by power, but by My Spirit," says the LORD of Hosts. That means miracles—the parting of the Red Sea, the collapse of Jericho's walls, and the deathblow to Goliath—were all done by the power of the Holy Spirit. From Genesis until now, everything done by our Lord has been done through the power, office, ministry, and person of the Holy Spirit. But how does He do it? How does the Holy Spirit work in Christian lives? In this book, Brother Swaggart addresses these questions and more as he stresses the need for believers to know, understand, and be filled with the Holy Spirit.

Brother Swaggart, Why Doesn't The Cross Work For Me? (09-127)
Two thousand years ago, the Lord revealed the meaning of the new covenant to the Apostle Paul. Under inspiration of the Holy Spirit, Paul recorded this foundational doctrine in his epistles to the early church. His preaching and teaching of Christ and Him crucified began to unveil the mystery of how the Holy Spirit works within the parameters of Christ's finished work and within the hearts and lives of believers. So, why is the church today still plagued with personal failures caused by sin? The answer to this question is still the Cross, and men of God are still preaching Jesus Christ and Him crucified. For the past 17 years, Brother Swaggart has been preaching and teaching the same message Paul received so long ago, the Message of the Cross—the answer to complete victory over the sin nature. In this book, Brother Swaggart explains the revelation the Lord gave him regarding the Cross of Christ is the only answer for believers even when the question is, "Why doesn't the Cross work for me?"

HAVING PROBLEMS VIEWING SBN WITH YOUR ROKU?

If you are having issues with the SonLife channel on Roku, you probably still have our old “SonLife TV” app which is no longer supported. Please download our brand-new “SBN NOW” channel using the following instructions on your Roku device.

a. From the Menu on the left of the Home screen choose “Streaming Channels.”
b. Type “SBN NOW” into the “Search Channels” box.
c. When the SBN NOW Channel appears, highlight it and select “Add Channel” to install it to your Roku device.
d. If you created a “PIN” during setup, you may be asked for it now.
e. Confirm by hitting “Add Channel” and the SBN NOW channel should appear in your channels list.

WE HAVE A NEW APP: SBN NOW

The new SBN NOW app is available FREE from the Apple App Store and Google Play Store for smartphones, iPads and tablets using iOS and Android systems. You can also install the SBN NOW app from the Roku Channel Store and AppleTV App Store.

HOW TO INSTALL THE FREE SBN NOW APP:

For your iOS device (iPhone, iPad, or iPod touch)

Go to the iTunes App Store on your iPhone, iPad, or iPod touch to browse apps. When you find the SBN NOW app, follow these steps:

• Tap the app.
• Tap “Get” on the right side of the screen, then tap “Install.”
• If asked, enter your password. You can also use Touch ID for app purchases.
The app should then download to your device.

For your Android device (smartphone, tablet)

Go to the Google Play Store on your Android device.

• In the “Search” box, type in “SBN NOW.”
• Select the free “SBN NOW” app.
• Tap the “Install” button.
The SBN NOW app will show on your home screen in the first available space.
