“Satan has done everything within his power to hinder, destroy, dilute, and outright do away with the Word of Almighty God.”

The group of Books, which numbered about 14, and referred to as the “Apocrypha” is believed to be spurious, or at least non-Canonical. Eleven of these Apocryphal Books have been accepted by the Catholic Church, included in the Roman Catholic Canon and placed in the “Douay Version” of the Bible.

Why were these Books not considered inspired or Canonical by the rest of the Church? Some of the reasons relate specifically to the Old Testament, some to the New Testament.

THE REASONS

• As far as the Old Testament was concerned, these particular Books were not included in the Hebrew Canon of Scripture.
• The Lord Jesus Christ, the Apostle Paul, nor any other writer in the New Testament ever quoted from these writings. Yet they quoted frequently in the New Testament from the Books that were included in the Hebrew Canon of Scripture.
• Josephus, the Hebrew historian, expressly excluded these as “false writings.”
• None of the Apocryphal books claimed Divine Inspiration.
• The Apocryphal have historical, geographical, and chronological errors.
• As literature, they are considered to be myth and legend.
• Their spiritual and even moral stance is generally far below both the Old and the New Testaments.

• Most of these books were written much later than the Books that were considered to be authoritative and inspired.

DIVINE INSPIRATION

Satan has done everything within his power to hinder, destroy, dilute, and outright do away with the Word of Almighty God. But through the Power of God, the Bible as we have it today — all 66 Books, both Old and New Testaments, from Genesis to Revelation — is the Word of God. Nothing else can be added to it.

When any person or any Church claims that other writings, other books, other so-called inspirations should be included in the Canon of Scripture, we can be sure that the Evil One has been at work. Paul put it aptly when he said, “Though we, or an Angel from Heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that you have received, let him be accursed” (Gal. 1:8-9).

Some so-called scholars have said that the Bible is filled with historical, chronological, and doctrinal contradictions. But a close examination of their objections reveals that the problem lies, not with the Bible, but with our limited perspective.

CONTRADICTORY PASSAGES EXPLAINED

For instance, there are several seemingly contradictory Passages about what happens when men gaze upon the Face of God, etc. St. John 1:18 says, “No man has seen God at any time” and Exodus 33:20 says, “And God said, You cannot see My Face: for there shall no man see Me, and live.” Yet, in Genesis 32:30 it says, “And Jacob called the name of the place Peniel: for I have seen God face to face.” Further, Exodus 33:11 says, “And the LORD spoke unto Another apparent contradiction that scholars wrestle over concerns Jesus’ warning against calling anyone a fool.

Moses face to face, as a man speaks unto his friend.” Which is correct?

What most of us fail to realize is that the word “seen” or “see” also means “to comprehend” or “to understand.” So, the Verse in St. John does not contradict the Verses in Genesis and Exodus at all. What John was saying was that no man has ever comprehended or understood everything about God — not at any time. We use the same kind of terminology in our conversations today. For instance, we will explain something to someone and then say, “Do you see?” But we don’t really mean “see,” as to look with the natural eye. We simply mean, “Do you understand? Do you comprehend?” So there is clearly no contradiction here.

Another quote of inconsistency, so-called, along this line appears in Exodus 3:20 where God says “No man can see My Face and live.” Yet Genesis 32:30 says that Jacob saw God face-to-face. Again what must be understood is that God was not talking about appearance only. He was not talking about Moses looking upon His Face, as we would look upon someone’s face. The word, “see” in Exodus 3:20 pertains to more than outward features. Here God was talking about His Glory, because He said in Exodus 33:22, “And it shall come to pass while My Glory passes by, that I . . . will cover you with My Hand.” Moses wanted not just to see God’s Face, but to see it in His usual Glory — in the Light in which He dwelt — which no man has seen or can see (I Tim. 6:16). Actually, God has appeared a number of times, according to the Word of God, and they did look upon His Face. They did not, however, behold His Glory.

ANOTHER WORD EXPLAINED

Another apparent contradiction that scholars wrestle over concerns Jesus’ warning against calling anyone a fool. In Matthew 5:22, Jesus said that if a person called another a fool, he would be in danger of Hellfire. Yet, Jesus Himself repeatedly called people fools in Matthew and in Luke. In Matthew, Chapter 5, where Jesus forbade the use of that kind of accusation, the Greek word translated fool is “moros,” which means a wicked reprobate, destitute of all spirituality. This, in effect, consigned a person to Hell. No one but God has the right to pass that kind of judgment. But, in Luke, Chapter 11, as well as in Matthew, Chapter 23, the word “fool” in the Greek is a totally different word — “aphron” — which means “senseless ones without reason; foolish; stupid; acting without intelligence,” so I think it’s fairly obvious that Jesus was not saying the same in Matthew,

“Often the only way to resolve these complex difficulties is to study the Text of Scripture in the original Greek and Hebrew languages.”

Chapter 5 as He was in Matthew, Chapter 23 and Luke, Chapter 11.

Our English word “fool” was used in each instance, but it meant two different things altogether in the Greek. The problem then comes with the translation from one language to another. Often the only way to resolve these complex difficulties is to study the Text of Scripture in the original Greek and Hebrew languages. We may have trouble understanding the context of a Passage or a translator may have been imperfect in his choice of words, but the Bible itself is error-free.

THREE SUCCESSIVE STEPS AS IT REGARDS PROPERLY UNDERSTANDING THE WORD OF GOD

They are:
1. Revelation;
2. Inspiration; and,
3. Illumination.
We’ll look at “revelation” first of all!

REVELATION

“But as it is written (Isa. 64:4), Eye has not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God has prepared for them who love Him” (I Cor. 2:9).

The first step in the transmission of Truth from the Heart of God to the heart of the Believer is “Revelation,” the Act of God the Holy Spirit uncovering the things in the Heart of God to the Bible writers, thus imparting the Truth of Scripture to them.

Paul explains that the Bible did not come by way of scientific investigation and human reason, because it could not come that way, but that it came in another way, by Revelation. He further said,

“But God has revealed them unto us by His Spirit: for the Spirit searches all things, yes, the deep things of God” (I Cor. 2:10).

The word “revealed” is the translation of a Greek word which means “to uncover, to lay open what has been veiled or covered up.”

The word “us” in Verse 10 pertains to both the writers of Holy Scripture, and, as well, to whom they were writing.

The Apostle continues by saying, “For what man knows the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knows no man, but the Spirit of God” (I Cor. 2:11).

Paul is actually saying in his explanation that while it may be possible for us as human beings to know and understand some things about our fellowman, and even that is very limited, by that same means we cannot know nor understand God in any manner. What we are to know about God and His Word can only be revealed to us by the Holy Spirit. In fact, it can come no other way, even as the Holy Spirit here through Paul tells us. So, to attempt to understand God by natural means, simply cannot be done; however, when we come to “illumination” the Holy Spirit will then inform us through the Word as to how the Lord actually does reveal Himself to us.

INSPIRATION

The Apostle now says, “Which things also we speak, not in the words which man’s wisdom teaches, but which the Holy Spirit teaches; comparing spiritual things with spiritual” (I Cor. 2:13).

Paul now tells us exactly as to how the Word of God was given by God to man, how it was received, and how it was written down.

The Apostle tells us that the Word of God, as it was given to the writers who served as instruments, was what they were given and what they wrote down and not words taught by human wisdom. That is, the words which the Bible writers used were not dictated by their human reason or wisdom. In other words, none of the Bible writers embellished at all what God gave them to give to the world.

Paul plainly tells us that the way the Word of God was given was “but in words taught by the Spirit.” He says that the words which the Bible writers used were taught them by the Holy Spirit.

It means that the Holy Spirit searched through the vocabulary of the writer, choosing the correct word, which content of meaning will give to the Believer the exact Truth God desires us to have. This, however, does not imply mechanical dictation or something different from the writer’s own personality. The idea is, the Holy Spirit took the writers as He found them and used them infallibly.

That’s the reason that every single Word of God is important, meaning as we have related in this article, that a word-for-word translation of the Bible is an absolute necessity. These books that claim to be Bibles, which give a thought for thought translation, which fill the land presently, are not Bibles at all, but only religious books and, in fact, will do no one any good whatsoever, but rather great harm.

When Paul used the phrase, “comparing spiritual things with spiritual,” this tells us as to exactly how the Holy Spirit gave the Divine Text, and how it was inspired. The word “comparing” means “to judge,” or better yet, “to judge with.” It speaks of the action of judging something with something else.

In other words, somewhat like a computer that would search for the word, the Holy Spirit would search for the right word to be used in every sentence, which came from the writer’s vocabulary. Thus, the Holy Spirit allowed the writers the free play of their personalities, vocabulary, and training, while at the same time guiding them to make an infallible record of truth infallibly revealed.
“Maturity in the Lord, in His Word, is dependent solely on a proper understanding of the Cross of Christ.”

ILLUMINATION

We now come to this part, which is also very important, namely the Act of God, the Holy Spirit, enabling the Believer to understand the Truth written down given by “Revelation” and by “Inspiration.” Paul says, “But the natural man receives not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned” (I Cor. 2:14).

The word “natural” as the Holy Spirit used it through Paul, describes the unregenerate man at his best, meaning very educated. No matter, as to how educated he might be, he simply by that means cannot understand the Word of God. So, the natural man here spoken of is the educated man at the height of his intellectual powers, but devoid of the Spirit of God. Actually, the things of the Lord are but “foolishness” unto such a man, Paul says!

“But he who is Spiritual judges all things, yet he himself is judged of no man” (I Cor. 2:15).

The word “judgeth” is the translation of a Greek word rendered “discerns.”

Continuing with our explanation of “illumination,” we understand from the Word of God that it was to Paul that the Revelation, i.e., the meaning of the New Covenant was given. In fact, the entirety of the New Covenant is wrapped up in the Cross of Christ (I Cor. 1:17-18, 23; 2:2). If we study Paul at all, we have come to the conclusion that the Jew from Tarsus preached the Cross. Understanding this, we must come to the conclusion that unless one properly understands the Cross of Christ as it regards both Salvation and Sanctification, then one cannot truly understand the Word of God as one should. Considering that the Cross of Christ is the foundation of all that we know and understand as it regards the Plan of God, then we find that this is the key that unlocks the door.

THE CROSS OF CHRIST

I think one could probably say, and without fear of Scriptural contradiction, that all error, all false doctrine, stems from an improper understanding, or an ignoring, or an outright denial of the Message of the Cross.

MATURITY AND THE CROSS OF CHRIST

Maturity in the Lord, in His Word, is dependent solely on a proper understanding of the Cross of Christ. That’s the reason that Paul further said:

“So I determined not to know any thing among you, save Jesus Christ, and Him Crucified” (I Cor. 2:1-2).

We must understand that the Lord desires, and does so strongly, that we understand His Word. He hasn’t made it hard or difficult; however, if we ignore His Way, which is the Way of the Cross, our understanding will be most unfruitful, or even harmful!

“For the preaching (Word) of the Cross is to them who perish foolishness; but unto us who are Saved it is the Power of God” (I Cor. 1:18).

“Your Word is a Lamp unto my feet, and a Light unto my path” (Ps. 119:105).

The only “Lamp” in the world that produces “true Spiritual Light” is the Bible. It is the road map for life, and the blueprint for eternity, and it is the only road map for life and the only blueprint for eternity.

The next major Biblical event in history will be “The Rapture of the Church.” Are you watching? Are you ready? We believe in and teach a “pre-Tribulation Rapture,” meaning that the Rapture will take place before the Great Tribulation and could occur at any moment! The most vivid description of the Rapture of the Church is given in Paul’s First Epistle to the Thessalonians: “For the Lord Himself shall descend from Heaven with a shout, with the voice of the Archangel, and with the Trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: Then we who are alive and remain shall be CAUGHT UP together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord” (4:16-17). The word “rapture” is actually the one-word synonym that Believers use in place of the phrase “caught up.” In the original Greek text, the word used is “harpazo,” meaning to “seize upon by force,” “to snatch up.” It was actually Latin translators who chose the word “rapture,” from the term “raptus” meaning “to seize.” It can imply a sudden, swift occurrence. “Rapture” is also defined as the transporting of a person from one place to another, such as from Earth to Heaven, and/or the changing of a person from one state to another, such as from a physical body to a spirit body.

The purpose of the Rapture will be to resurrect all of the righteous dead from each Dispensation, reuniting the soul and spirit with a new Glorified Body (I Cor. 15:35-55). Actually, “the Resurrection of the Saints” is another phrase Believers have used through the years to describe this promised event. The righteous dead will be “caught up,” along with all the Saints still living on the Earth, to meet the Lord in the air and return with him to heaven (Jn. 14:1-3). The Glorified Bodies we will receive will be spirit, empowered by the Holy Spirit, rather than physical.

PRE-TRIBULATION RAPTURE

As previously mentioned, we believe that the Bible teaches the Rapture will occur before the Great Tribulation. “Because you have kept the Word of My Patience, I also will keep you from the hour of temptation (the Great Tribulation), which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the Earth” (Rev. 3:10). Several more Scriptures attest to a “pre-Tribulation” rapture: “Watch you therefore, and pray always, that you may be accounted worthy to escape all these things (the Tribulation) that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of Man” (Lk. 21:36). “For God has not appointed us to wrath (the Tribulation), but to obtain Salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ” (I Thess. 5:9). “The mystery of iniquity does already work: only he (the Church) who now lets will... let, until he be taken out of the way. And then shall that Wicked be revealed . . .” (II Thess. 2:7-8). “After this I looked, and, behold, a door was opened in Heaven: and the first Voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said, Come up hither, and I will show you things which must be hereafter (after the Rapture of the church)” (Rev. 4:1). The above Scriptures, and plenty of others also, demonstrate that even the New Testament Saints were looking for the Rapture/Resurrection to occur, so how much closer are we today? To further clarify, we believe the sequence of these coming Endtime events will be: first, the Rapture; second, the Great Tribulation; and then, the Lord’s Return (“The Second Coming”).

CALVARY

Now, this is not to say that prior to the Rapture, the church will not experience persecution as the world becomes more and more wicked, but the Great Tribulation is really about God’s Judgment upon sin. And, for Believers, God’s Judgment was already poured out at Calvary. Christ bore our sins in His Body on the Cross not to be brought to our account again. They have been forgiven and forgotten (Isa. 43:25; I Pet. 2:24). Thank you Jesus! So, while the Earth and those still upon it are going through the Great Tribulation, the raptured Saints of God will be simultaneously attending events in Heaven – namely, the Judgment Seat of Christ (Rom. 14:10; II Cor. 5:10) and the Marriage Supper of the Lamb (Mat. 26:29; Rev. 19:7-9). In the Book of Revelation, note is made of those who “dwell in Heaven” and those who “dwell on Earth.” The former group, “the church,” will have been given our Resurrection Bodies and will walk in the company of the Lamb and His Holy Angels in Heaven. The latter, those “dwellers on Earth,” include non-believers, God’s 144,000 Jewish evangelists (regenerated men who do not yet have Resurrection Bodies), and their converts (“the Tribulation Saints”). Many of these new Saints will become martyrs during the Tribulation, but they will not be given their Resurrection Bodies until the Tribulation ends (Rev. 20:4).

ISRAEL

Only one Archangel, Michael, is called by name in Scripture and his specific jurisdiction is over the people of Israel. At the time of the Rapture, he will signal to Israel that God has at last returned His Focus to the final Redemption of His chosen Nation. This event was spoken of by Daniel: “And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince which stands for the children of

NO MORE MORTALITY, NO MORE SIN NATURE

Praise God, the Rapture will bring the completed manifestation of Christ’s Finished Work for us at Calvary! For the Believer, the Rapture is Independence Day! Once and for all, we will be totally and completely freed from our corrupted nature, freed from all effects of sin! Glory to God!

Let’s take a closer look at the events taking place in Heaven (which parallel the events of the Tribulation on Earth). All Believers must appear before the Judgment Seat of Christ according to II Corinthians 5:10. Remember this is not for the purpose of dealing with sin, however, a careful ledger has been kept of every work the Believer has performed since he became a Christian (Mat. 12:36; Rom. 14:12; II Cor. 5:10).

Believers will be judged on the basis of:

1. Doctrinal Beliefs – true or false (Rom. 2:14-16; 14:1-10).
2. Conduct toward others – kind or unkind (Mat. 18:10; Mk. 9:41; II Tim. 4:14).
3. Stewardship – faithful or unfaithful (Mat. 25:14-29; Lk. 12:42-44; I Cor. 4:1-5).
4. Words – good or bad (Mat. 12:36-37; Eph. 4:29).
5. Talents – used or wasted (Mat. 5:15-16; Mk. 4:25).
6. Attitudes – Christlike or selfish (Mat. 6:1-7; Eph. 4:30-32).
7. Motives – right or wrong (Mat. 6:16-18; Lk. 14:12-14).
8. Traits – Spiritual or carnal (Rom. 2:1-6; Col. 3:8-16).
9. Every Deed – worthy or worthless (Mk. 9:41; Col. 3:23-25).

The deeds performed in a worthy manner will be rewarded, but those deeds Christ judges unworthy will be burned and will cause the Believer lost rewards (I Cor. 3:12-15).
The following rewards have been promised for faithful service to the Lord:

1. Victor’s Crown (I Cor. 9:25).
2. Crown of Righteousness (II Tim. 4:8).

And because Scripture clearly indicates that it is possible for someone else to take our crown (Rev. 3:11), it behooves every Christian to be diligent in his service to the King of kings! Believers will also be given a mansion in which to live eternally (Jn. 14:2), and Christ will determine the amount of earthly rulership to give each Saint based on his faithfulness to God in this present life (Lk. 19:12-26). Believers will reign as kings and priests with Christ forever (Rev. 1:6; 5:10).

Following the Judgment Seat of Christ will be the Marriage Supper of the Lamb. This speaks of the Bride of Christ, all the redeemed from every Dispensation who will live in the New Jerusalem. “Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to Him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and His Wife has made herself ready. And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the Righteousness of Saints. And he said unto me, Write, Blessed are they which are called unto the Marriage Supper of the Lamb. And he said unto me, These are the true sayings of God” (Rev. 19:7-9). What a time of reunion, celebration, and worship Believers have in store!

Are you ready? Are you in a committed, Covenant relationship with Christ? Are you a Bride adorned for her Husband? Is your heart singing, “... when I hear that last trumpet sound, my feet won’t stay on the ground”? If your answers are “yes,” then, as my husband often says, “Well, Glory!”

World Evangelism Fellowship was born out of a deep desire of Christians from all denominational backgrounds to reach the world with the Gospel of Jesus Christ. It was realized that when Churches and Ministries band together under the anointing of the Holy Spirit to attack the strongholds of Satan, much can be accomplished.

This is the reason World Evangelism Fellowship was formed – to channel the efforts of Churches and Preachers from all over the United States, Canada, and the world into a unified, proven plan to reach the lost and dying with the Good News of the Gospel.

The call of God to win the lost is clear. World Evangelism Fellowship is answering that call and we would like to extend an invitation to you to join us. This is not a Denomination, and we pray it never will be. It is, however, a fellowship of Ministers and Churches united in their efforts to reach the world for Jesus Christ.

How do I, as an individual, affiliate with World Evangelism Fellowship?

There are several ways to join World Evangelism Fellowship, and the method you choose depends on what God has called you to do.

- Christian Worker • Licensed Minister
- Ordained Minister • Church Affiliation

1 Samuel 2:1-10 – "And Hannah prayed (the Chaldee reads, ‘And Hannah prayed in the Spirit of Prophecy’), and said, My heart rejoices in the LORD, my horn (a part of a woman’s headdress, at least in that culture, at that time) is exalted in the LORD: my mouth is enlarged over my enemies; because I rejoice in Your Salvation (that Salvation is Christ, which Hannah will acknowledge in Verse 10).

"There is none holy as the LORD (the reason for her holy joy is first God’s absolute Holiness): for there is none beside You (the second reason is His absolute existence, in which she finds the proof of His Holiness): neither is there any rock like our God (in referring to the Lord as a ‘Rock,’ she assigns to Him strength, calm, immovable, enduring, but a strength which avails for the safety of His People).

"Talk no more so exceeding proudly; let not arrogancy come out of your mouth: for the Lord is a god of knowledge, and by him actions are weighed. (God judges all things in the light of His Omniscience, which signifies every type of knowledge, past, present, and future. Knowing this, man had best be careful as to what he says.)

"The bows of the mighty men are broken, and they who stumbled are girded with strength (the working of this attribute of Deity tells us that human events are not the result of chance, but of God’s direction).

"They who were full have hired out themselves for bread; and they who were hungry ceased: so that the barren has born seven; and she who has many children is waxed feeble (this Verse typifies the Gentile Church, which is now abundant, by contrast with Israel, who is now barren, even though Hannah would not have understood this [Gal. 4:27]).

"The LORD kills, and makes alive: He brings down to the grave, and brings up (oftentimes, the Lord brings a man to the very brink of the grave, and then, when all hope seems past, raises him up again).

"The LORD makes poor, and makes rich: he brings low, and lifts up (therefore, ‘promotion comes from the Lord’ [Ps. 75:6-7]).

"He raises up the poor out of the dust, and lifts up the beggar from the dunghill, to set them among princes, and to make them inherit the Throne of Glory: for the pillars of the Earth are the LORD’s, and He has set the world upon them. (This speaks of Salvation, when man is raised out of dust to the Glory of God. The ‘pillars’ refer to everything hanging upon God and God Alone. This is a fact of Divine Government, which is distasteful to man.)

"He will keep the feet of His Saints (the Lord does such by the Believer placing his Faith and trust exclusively in Christ and the Cross, which then gives the Holy Spirit latitude to work in one’s life, Who Alone can bring about the needed change and strength [Rom. 6:3-14; 8:1-2, 11]), and the wicked shall be silent in darkness; for by strength shall no man prevail (‘the flesh,’ one’s own personal strength [Rom. 8:1, 8]).

"The adversaries of the LORD shall be broken to pieces (whoever it be who contends with Him); out of Heaven shall He thunder upon them (the Lord is the Supreme Judge): the LORD shall judge the ends of the Earth (the whole Earth up to its remotest quarters); and He shall give strength unto His king (is a distinct prophecy of David’s kingdom), and exalt the horn of His Anointed. (Looks onward to the Messiah, David’s greater Son. This is the first time that the term ‘His Anointed’ is used, as it refers to the Messiah. It is even more special in that Hannah used it. From this point on, others take up the theme of God’s Anointed One — the Messiah [Ps. 2:2; 45:7; Isa. 61:1; Dan. 9:25-26]. And so the song of Hannah ends here, but actually continues on in the hearts and lives of untold millions.)"

This particular song by Hannah, the mother of Samuel, shows us the true nature of the song of prayer. The song is not only poetic but, above all, it is prophetic, and must be placed alongside the songs of Moses, Miriam, Deborah, David, Elisabeth, Mary, and all other Psalmists and Prophets whose utterances inspired by the Holy Spirit were recorded in God’s Word.

George Williams, the Irish theologian of the ‘50’s said of this song, “The song of Hannah should be read together with the song of Mary (Lk. 1:46). The theme of both is one and the same, the Lord Jesus Christ, His Glory as King and Priest: and God’s action in government in raising up the meek and casting down the proud.”

He went on to say, “The song of this chapter is constructed in sections, which alternates; thus contrasting Jehovah and His enemies as follows:

Verse 2: Jehovah, His Holiness
Verse 3: The enemy, his arrogance
Verse 3: Jehovah, His Knowledge
Verse 4: The enemy, his ignorance
Verses 6-9: Jehovah, His Power
Verse 10: The enemy, his weakness
Verse 10: Jehovah, His Glory.”

Williams concluded by saying, “In fact this contrast runs not only through the song of Hannah and Mary, but as well through the entirety of the Bible.”

Now let us look at these Verses in detail.

HOLINESS

Verse 2 says, “There is none holy as the LORD.”

This tells us that all of man’s personal holiness is rejected by God. No man through their own works and efforts can attain Holiness. With this in mind, how can one be Holy?

The only Holiness that the Lord acknowledges in the heart of a person is that which is freely given to him upon one’s Repentance and acceptance of Jesus Christ as their Lord and Saviour. In other words, it is imputed or freely given upon Faith in Christ. Holiness only comes to us through what Jesus did on the Cross.

Sad to say, the church of today is by and large trying to be Holy by methods or works.

What exactly is Holiness? “Holiness is the Moral Perfection of God.” That’s why it’s impossible for man to perfect himself and make one holy by their good works. As stated, Holiness is a free gift, imputed to us by simple Faith in Christ and what he did on Calvary’s Cross.

PRIDE

The Third Verse says, “Talk no more so exceeding proudly.” This tells us that God resists pride and arrogance. It’s not just a coincidence that in Verse 2, the Lord, through Hannah’s Prophecy, mentions Holiness, which can only come through the Cross, and in Verse 3, mentions “pride.” Pride is the reason for man’s unbelief! MAN IS PROUD AND RELIGIOUS MAN IS MORE PRIDEFUL THAN ALL.

Every human being in this world is morally and spiritually bankrupt. No good deeds or good intentions can save them, only Jesus Christ can make man Holy and extinguish pride.

Verse 3 then states, “The Lord is a God of knowledge.” This unequivocally tells us that God and only God knows what’s in our hearts, and He Alone is the only Judge that matters.

THE FLESH

Verse 4 says, “The bows of mighty men are broken,” this states that which is mighty in the eyes of men, is nothing in the Eyes of God. No man’s intellect, power, or ingenuity count with God.

Then it states, “And they who stumbled are girded with strength.” This tells us that all redeemed men who depend 100% on Christ and what He did at Calvary are “girded with strength.”

THE BARREN HAS BORN SEVEN

This statement is found in Verse 5. It refers to Hannah who was ultimately given seven children. Therefore, the barren did bring forth children.

This statement is speaking of Hannah personally, yet it also has a great Spiritual meaning for all Believers. “Seven” is God’s Number of perfection, totality, completeness, and universality.

The Spiritual and Scriptural meaning for us is that no matter how “barren” the situation of your life may be, the Lord can turn your life and situation around, and “the barren can bring forth seven.”

AND TO MAKE THEM INHERIT THE THRONE OF GLORY

Verses 6 through 8 refer to the total Authority and Control of the Lord in every situation. We must not depend upon flesh or borrow from the world to bring about the Will of God. The Lord is dependent on no one, and as God’s Children, neither should we. The Lord takes the lowest of us, puts in His Salvation, thus causing us to inherit the Throne of Glory.

Verses 6 through 8 are capped by the words “for the pillars of the Earth are the LORD’s, and He has set the world upon them.” This tells us that everything hangs upon God and God Alone.

HE WILL KEEP THE FEET OF HIS SAINTS

Verse 9 tells us that the Lord is the only One Who can “keep the feet of His Saints.” As the old hymn states: “On Christ the Solid Rock I stand, all other ground is sinking sand.”

Then the Verse states, “For by strength shall no man prevail,” refers to human strength. The Prophet Zechariah would state, “Not by might (human might), nor by power (human power), but by My Spirit, says the LORD of Hosts.”

KING

In Verse 10 when Hannah used the word “king,” this was the second Prophecy of God’s King, the Messiah. Balaam was the first Prophet to call Him King (Num. 24:7).

Then she said, “And exalt the horn of His Anointed.” This is the first reference to the Messiah where the term “His Anointed” is used. Hannah was the first to use this term, making it even more special, because she was a woman and, as well, it actually makes her a Prophetess.

Concerning this prayer, the Chaldee (Biblical Aramaic) reads, “And Hannah prayed in the Spirit of Prophecy.”

What a woman of Faith and perseverance, and we all need to follow Hannah’s Faith and humility.

Your Evangelist,

Donnie Swaggart

OVER-THE-AIR (DTV) TELEVISION

For those of you who are not familiar with digital television, these are free “old fashioned TV channels” that are able to be picked up with a digital tuner and antenna. Most new televisions are equipped with built-in digital tuners or you can purchase a tuner from your local electronics store (Best Buy®, Radio Shack®, etc.). As well, you can purchase the proper antenna at your local electronics store. Many viewers under the broadcast signal of the television station can use a small, digital antenna inside the home. For those on the outer edge of the signal or to receive the best signal, an outdoor antenna may be required. Both indoor and outdoor antennas are available for less than $50!

THE EXPOSITOR’S STUDY BIBLE

Dear Pastor Swaggart,

My Father pastored a Pentecostal Church of God for 43 years. In the late 70’s, early 80’s, he took a few months sabbatical. During that time I can remember him saying time and time again, that he would rush home to watch your Television program in order to feel like he had been to church. I am a Chaplain in a state prison, and I was just recently introduced to SonLife Broadcasting Network, and let me tell you, what a blessing! So now, nearly some 40 years later, I am finding myself being fed by your Ministry. The Expositor’s Study Bible has been the best purchase I could have made. I bought one for my daughter and her husband, who are Youth Pastors. She said it has been the greatest help in their Ministry. God bless you.

I DECIDED TO GIVE MY LIFE TO GOD

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I saw with my Dad and Mother the SonLife Broadcasting Network on the Internet. We are from El Salvador, and God talked to me this day. I got on my knees and I decided to give my life to God right there in my house. My Father and Mother are Saved, and they had years of serving God. When I saw your program on the Internet, I never imagined that God would talk to me when you said that there was still someone who needed to repeat the sinner’s prayer at that moment. I started crying, and on my knees I repeated the words you said believing God was listening to me, and washing my sins as you said. God bless you Brother Swaggart.

PRAISE JESUS FOREVERMORE FOR HIS DELIVERING POWER

Dear Brother Swaggart,

Several months ago my doctor said I had fibromyalgia. Some of the symptoms are fatigue and weakness. I have been so weak and fatigued I could hardly walk across the floor, let alone do my housework. I went to my doctor, and he wanted to put me on an anti-depressant. I refused, they are addictive. I cried all the way home. The next day I was sitting in my chair crying and praying asking the Lord to help me. My house was a mess, my car needed cleaning, and all of a sudden the Lord spoke to me and said “You are under demonic attack, a spirit of oppression. Turn on SBN now.” I did, and Brother Swaggart was singing something and the Holy Ghost came upon me real heavy, and I was out of my chair shouting all through my house. That spirit of oppression broke off of me, and for the rest of the day I cleaned my house from top to bottom, cleaned my car, and had energy left over to spare. Praise Jesus forevermore for His Delivering Power and for SonLife Broadcasting Network. Jesus said keep SBN on, for there is fullness of joy in His Presence!

SONLIFE BROADCASTING NETWORK

Dear Brother Swaggart,

Satan has whispered lies to me for 35 years. In my ignorance, I believed him. My heart was miserable. My church did not teach me anything that explained it, or helped. A friend told me about SonLife Broadcasting Network three years ago, and thanks to the teaching, preaching, and music I find here, I am finally free of those chains! Now I know how to get rid of the Devil! Of course, he keeps coming back, and I keep giving him a black eye with the Word of Almighty God! Satan has no more grip on me! Thank you God, and thank you SonLife Broadcasting Network. I pray that all people will hear the great news you share!

“THANK YOU JIMMY SWAGGART!”

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I would just love to say, and I must stress, I cannot say it enough, “Thank you Jimmy Swaggart!” You see, I met you on television 30 years ago, but it was due to my Dad watching you faithfully. I was a kid, and I used to think my Dad was silly. But now, a few months ago I found you, and I know that you are a great, great man of God! I can see God working through you. I pray and thank God for you and your family daily, and I always will, for God working through you my life has changed more than you will ever know! Maybe I will get the chance to see and hug you and thank you in Heaven. I know when you get there, my Dad is there now and he will be hugging you with a smile from ear to ear! He watched you from your start until he went to be with the Lord. And I will do the same!

“IT'S MY DESIRE”

Dear Brother Swaggart,

Not long ago I was backslidden in my walk with Jesus, and I asked for forgiveness . . . I know it was granted. The next day after I got off from work, before I went to school, I was eating a meal in a restaurant during the Share-a-thon and Joseph Larson's song, “It's My Desire”, came over the Internet radio on my phone. I could not stop the tears from flowing down my face. I had to stop eating, and surprisingly the song was not interrupted and it played through. In that moment I felt so blessed.

God bless your Ministry!

I WAS HEALED!

Dear SonLife Broadcasting Network,

Today I was not able to attend my home church due to illness. I love SonLife Broadcasting Network, and I stood by the TV as Brother Swaggart asked for people who needed prayer to come forward. Later in the Service the worship team sang, and as I praised the Lord a warmth touched the very spot in my back that was causing pain. A hot warmth . . . I was healed! Later Brother Swaggart stated that people watching the program continued to get healed throughout the Service after prayer was offered up. I am a Testimony to that Prophecy! Thank you for SBN, and thank the Lord!

GLORY TO GOD!

Reverend Swaggart,

I greet you in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ. You do not know me, but I remember you from 20 years ago when you used to come to Malawi, Africa. As a little girl we memorized 66 books of the Bible, and some verses. At the end of summer school I was given a Bible of my own for the first time. I am saying all of this to say, “thank you sir!” from the bottom of my heart, because that moment made me fall in love with Jesus and His Word. Now I am 38 and I just preached my first sermon, glory to God! I hope this will encourage you to know that your visit in Malawi was not in vain!

I love you, and may God bless you.

I KNEW THERE WAS A WAY TO LIVE FOR GOD

Dear Brother Swaggart,

One day I was allowing the radio to scan for channels. I had lost touch with Jimmy Swaggart Ministries for many years. All of a sudden at 1:00 in the afternoon I heard a voice say, “Welcome to A Study In The Word, this is Evangelist Jimmy Swaggart.” I began to cry my eyes out. My prayers had been answered! My radio in the house will not pick up the program, so I got back into my truck and drove around and listened. Then after that I heard music, how the music was so sweet. To make a long story short, my search was over. I was finally able to understand it, all the pieces I had gathered finally fell into place. Brother Swaggart, you taught me how to read the Word of God. It suddenly lit up like someone turned on the lights. I knew there was a way to live for God, I just could not find it. I was blind but now I see.

Thank you so much.

THE MESSAGE OF THE CROSS IS BEING PREACHED

Dear Brother Swaggart,

We love listening to all of the SonLife Radio and TV Broadcasting. We wanted you to know that we live in a small village in Wales, and so far four churches are getting together to reach out. From the Swansea Valley, to the mountains, down to the sea, the Message of the Cross is being preached. Hallelujah! Each Saturday we are going to have and outreach meeting together. God bless you all, as we are praying for SBN. Thank you all for your encouragement, you are such a blessing.

SONLIFE BROADCASTING NETWORK

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I came across the SonLife Broadcasting Network a few weeks ago, and since that day I watch it everyday. It is the first time I've heard the Gospel preached so clear, without sugarcoating and with so much anointing. Many times I am sitting in my chair, tears are flowing down my face, the presence of God is coming through the TV screen and I am blessed each day. I have ordered The Expositor's Study Bible, and some of the beautifully anointed CD's. I pray for your Network everyday during my prayer time. I also watch Frances & Friends. I've learned so much about the Bible since I have been watching your Network. I just wanted you to know how much I am being blessed and enriched.

God bless you all, and continue to do the great Work for God.

England
Colossians 2:11-15 – “In Whom also you are circumcised with the Circumcision made without hands (that which is brought about by the Cross [Rom. 6:3-5]), in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the Circumcision of Christ (refers to the old carnal nature that is defeated by the Believer placing his Faith totally in the Cross, which gives the Holy Spirit latitude to work):

“Buried with Him in Baptism (does not refer to Water Baptism, but rather to the Believer baptized into the death of Christ, which refers to the Crucifixion and Christ as our substitute [Rom. 6:3-4]), wherein also you are risen with Him through the Faith of the operation of God, Who has raised Him from the dead. (This does not refer to our future physical Resurrection, but to that spiritual Resurrection from a sinful state into Divine Life. We died with Him, we are buried with Him, and we rose with Him [Rom. 6:3-5], and herein lies the secret to all Spiritual Victory.)

“And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh (speaks of spiritual death [i.e., ‘separation from God’], which sin does!), has He quickened together with Him (refers to being made spiritually alive, which is done through being ‘Born-Again’), having forgiven you all trespasses (the Cross made it possible for all manner of sins to be forgiven and taken away);

“Blotting out the handwriting of Ordinances that was against us (pertains to the Law of Moses, which was God’s Standard of Righteousness that man could not reach), which was contrary to us (Law is against us, simply because we are unable to keep its precepts, no matter how hard we try), and took it out of the way (refers to the penalty of the Law being removed), nailing it to His Cross (the Law with its decrees was abolished in Christ’s Death, as if Crucified with Him);

“And having spoiled principalities and powers (Satan and all of his henchmen were defeated at the Cross by Christ atoning for all sin; sin was the legal right Satan had to hold man in captivity; with all sin atoned, he has no more legal right to hold anyone in bondage), He (Christ) made a show of them openly (what Jesus did at the Cross was in the face of the whole universe), triumphing over them in it. (The triumph is complete and it was all done for us, meaning we can walk in power and perpetual Victory due to the Cross.)"

WHY SHOULD I PLACE MY FAITH IN CHRIST AND HIM CRUCIFIED?

In Colossians 2:11-15, Paul qualifies why our Faith should remain in the Cross. In the last five installments of this series we have laid the foundation for this statement. The first seven Benefits have already been discussed. They are:

1. Verse 11a - Faith in Christ’s Cross causes a person to be Born-Again.
2. Verse 11b - Faith in Christ’s Cross brings me freedom from the dominion of the sin nature.
3. Verse 12a - Faith in Christ’s Cross causes one to be united with Christ, burying his past life forever.
4. Verse 12 - Faith in Christ’s Cross causes the Believer to be Co-Raised with Him and to live in Him.
5. Verse 13a - Faith in Christ’s Cross Co-quickens or energizes the Believer by the Spirit of God.
6. Verse 13b - Faith in Christ’s Cross Provides me with forgiveness of all sin, past, present, and future.
7. Verse 14 - Faith in Christ's Cross Sets me Free from the Law as the Means to Righteousness.

(15) “And having spoiled principalities and powers, He made a show of them openly, triumphing over them in it.”

Benefits #8 and #9 - Faith in Christ and the Cross Provides me with Freedom from the power of Satan and places me forever in the Victory Celebration of Christ's Finished Work.

The Scripture abounds with the truth that the Believer overcomes Satan by the Power of Christ's Cross. Our simple childlike Faith grants to us the very Life and Power of Christ. His Death on Calvary guaranteed the Believer that he would not have to face the powers of darkness in his own strength. In 1 John 3:8b the Scripture says, “For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that He might destroy the works of the Devil.” The term “destroy” in this verse means to break up, destroy, or to dissolve. It is very obvious that Christ came, that He was manifested. And if He was truly manifested then He would have had to “destroy” or break up and dissolve the work of the enemy, or Scripture is a lie.

More Scriptural evidence that Jesus’ Work on Calvary won the Victory over the Evil One can be found in Hebrews 2:14. Here the Scripture says, “Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, He also Himself likewise took part of the same; that through death He might destroy him who had the power of death, that is, the Devil.” In this case, the word “destroy” means to render idle or useless; to render ineffective. It is the same word used to describe the condition of the sin nature in Romans, Chapter 6, after the believing sinner has been baptized into Christ. As a result of that union Romans 6:6 says, “Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with Him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin.”

As Believer’s we are to overcome opposition by Faith. In the case of sin, we believe that what Jesus did for us at Calvary set us free from both the penalty and the power of sin. However, we still must face the presence of sin, both in the world and in ourselves. Also, while Satan was defeated at Calvary he still walks about as a “roaring lion” seeking whom he may devour. We are to resist him by Faith. In 1 Peter 5:8-9a Peter tells us, “Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the Devil, as a roaring lion, walks about, seeking whom he may devour: (9) Whom resisted steadfast in the Faith.” What do we place our Faith in to defeat the Devil? What do we do to overcome the powers of darkness that try to steal and kill and destroy the fabric of Christ's Life in us? What do we place our Faith in? We place our Faith, not in our works, our confession, our fasting, or the keeping up with any true Christian discipline. Instead we are to look to the event of the Cross where the Bible says Jesus defeated the Devil, “making a show of them openly.” We are to understand that Jesus defeated the Devil two thousand years ago and by Faith in His Finished Work, I resist the powers of darkness. I submit to God by accepting the Cross as my Victory, and the Holy Spirit, seeing my properly placed Faith, goes to work on my behalf, equipping me to resist the Devil (see James 4:6-7).

With my Faith properly placed in Christ's Cross and the Work He accomplished for me I am introduced into the ninth benefit. That is, “triumphing over them in it.” The word “triumphing” has a subtle reference to a Roman Triumph. This was a parade given to honor a General whenever a large enough victory was won.

Numbers 13:30 – “And Caleb stilled the people before Moses (the evil report of faithlessness given by ten of the spies had greatly unsettled the people; little did they realize it would cost them their lives), and said, Let us go up at once, and possess it; for we are well able to overcome it (this was the language of faith; but Faith and Truth are never popular [14:10]; had they only believed and acted upon their faith, they were, in fact, well able to overcome it, because the Lord was with them).”

The story of Caleb is a story of Faith. From the moment that we read about Caleb for the very first time in Scripture, we see his Faith. He was selected to be a part of a group of twelve men that would be sent out by Moses to spy out the Promised Land, a land that had been given to the Children of Israel by God for their home. When these twelve men arrived, they saw that this land was exactly as the Lord said it would be, with the exception that ten of these men were afraid due to the Giants that inhabited the land. These ten men said that there was no way that they could defeat these Giants, only Joshua and Caleb believed that God was able to defeat them. You can feel Faith in the words of these two men of God, that these Giants were bread for them, and that there was nothing impossible for God to handle.

THERE WILL BE GIANTS IN THE LAND

We must get it in our minds and hearts, that if God has given us the victory, a Victory that He purchased for us by going to Calvary, that it is ours. Yes, there may be Giants in the land that will try and hinder our way of living, but these Giants do not have to remain there. We are to place our belief in God, that whatever these Giants might be that are in our lives, that He is able to defeat them, and has already defeated them through what He did at Calvary’s Cross. So many Christians fail to remove the Giants from their lives, and in doing so, these Giants will ultimately defeat them. But, as a Christian, there is no Giant that can stand up to the Power of Almighty God. There is no Giant that can stand up to the Power of the Holy Spirit. These Giants have already been defeated by Christ, and all we have to do is daily look to Christ and what He did at the Cross for us, and we will have the Victory.

These ten men looked through the eyes of the natural, and could not see the Victory that was already given to them by God. Joshua and Caleb refused to look through the eyes of the natural to the problems that lay ahead. They instead chose to look through the eyes of the Spiritual, and believe what the Lord has told them, that the land rightfully belonged to them, and not to these Giants that dwelt in the land.

THE TESTING OF OUR FAITH

Many may ask why the Lord did it this way. Why did the Lord give the land to the Children of Israel, knowing that there were Giants in the land? Everything that the Lord does in regards to us, His Children, is a test of Faith. Faith must always be tested, and great Faith must be tested greatly. The test that the Lord brought before these twelve men was to test them and show them what was in their hearts. Unfortunately, ten of these men died in unbelief, and never saw the Promised Land. Unbelief saw the “walled cities,” the “Giants,” and the “land that eats up the inhabitants.” These men chose to look through the eyes of the natural, and by doing that, all they saw was the problem.

WILL YOU CHOOSE TO BELIEVE GOD AT HIS WORD?

With Joshua and Caleb, they refused, as mentioned, to see these Giants as a threat. They chose to believe God at His Word. They chose to believe God. They chose to not look at the problem, no matter how great the problems were, but they chose to look to the Problem-Solver. The same goes for us today. We can choose to look at the problems that are in our lives. We can choose to see the “walled cities,” the “Giants,” and the “land that eats up the inhabitants,” or the fact that we are “like grasshoppers” compared to the problems at hand. Or, we can look through eyes of Faith, who says that “we are well able” to take the land, that the Lord has already given us the Victory. As I write these words, I can feel Faith rise up in many of you. For many of you have suffered way too long, and you have seen the Giants that have invaded your lives, and you have not known what to do. It has caused so many problems that you have wondered if this Christian Life is even worth living. But now, after reading these words, you know that God has already given you the Victory, all you have to do is take the land. You heard me right, it’s time that you take the land. You must begin to take your eyes off the problem at hand, and begin to look to the One Who has already solved the problem for you at Calvary. We must understand that there will always be opposition, no matter how long we have been serving the Lord, with that opposition wanting to stop our progression in the Faith. These Giants will tempt us to move us away from Faith in Christ and the Cross to something else, and if we decide to go that route, whatever it might be, then we have just left God’s Way of Victory, which will always spell disaster.

It all can be summed up by the following statement, “We can believe what we see, or else believe what God has said.” God has said that we are “more than Overcomers,” and that “sin shall not have dominion over me.” I chose to believe that God has already given me the Victory, and that the land that He has promised, the world, is mine. I choose to walk by Faith and not by sight. Believe God, and believe that He has already given you the Victory over the Giants in your life, no matter how big they are, they pale in comparison to Jesus Christ and what He did at Calvary’s Cross on our behalf.

In Him,

Pastor Gabe

FAMILY WORSHIP CENTER
8919 World Ministry Ave.
BATON ROUGE, LA 70810-9099
Hitler himself said it all, “I want to raise a generation of young people devoid of conscience – imperious, relentless, and cruel.” Where was the Church in all this? History recorded the pictures of Protestant pastors and Catholic priests giving the Nazi salute. Swastika banners adorned the churches—swastika banners with the Cross of Jesus Christ in the center. The overwhelming temptation of bowing to temporal gods enticed the church to combine Christ with other religions, Christ and the political agenda, and Christ and worldly pursuits. Was the German Era only a foretaste of the greater deception to come? Germany hid the Cross of Christ within the swastika. The Christian Cross demanded the Blood of Christ; the swastika demanded the blood of Jews. The modern cross is a redefined container of mixed philosophies. It is filled with psychology, New Age mysticism, social service, and political correctness. In 1938 the head of the Gestapo could say in his annual report, “The situation in the churches is characterized by weariness with struggle, by uncertainty of purpose, and by a lack of courage.”

Hitler was able to marginalize the church. Hitler’s success can be viewed in a three step process: 1. Deceive the church; 2. Divide the church; and, 3. Dismember the church.

Hitler commended Luther as a great reformer who was worthy of admiration. But his admiration was not based on the message Luther proclaimed. Hitler’s emphasis was on Luther’s courage to withstand the church of his day and Luther’s hatred towards the Jews. A clear distinction can be made between Hitler and Luther. Luther’s animosity was religious not racial. Luther expected the “Christ killers” to accept Jesus Christ once they heard the Gospel. To Luther it was about purity of doctrine and not purity of blood. Hitler’s deception began with persuading Germany the Jews were their problem. Hitler’s second order was to persuade the church to believe Paul’s writings were false and charged the Apostle Paul with changing and, thereby, falsifying the Gospel. In 1933 Dr. Krause, a dignitary of the “German Christians,” gave a blasphemous speech to twenty thousand people. He pled for a second German Reformation. He declared that if the church was to find a home in Germany, the first step was:

The liberation from all that is un-German in liturgy and confession, liberation from the Old Testament with its Jewish recompense of ethic, from all these stories about cattle-dealers and pimps . . . Our provincial church will also have to see to it that all obviously distorted and superstitious reports should be expunged from the New Testament, and that the whole scapegoat and inferiority theology of the Rabbi Paul should be renounced in principle, for it has perpetuated a falsification of the Gospel.

The deception and the dividing began to take hold. Next came the dismembering. On January 4, 1934, Reich Bishop Muller issued a decree to restore order in the Evangelical church. Ministers were now forbidden to include any matters of controversy in their sermons. This became known as the “Muzzling order.” Unity was greatly proclaimed for the church to embrace Nazism. At this time the church was divided into two groups, each claiming to be heirs of the Reformation. In one arena those committed to Hitler and his swastika and the second were those devoted to the Cross of Jesus Christ. Dietrich Bonhoeffer would say at one synod, “If the truth is to be found in unity,” he affirmed that “unity can only be achieved through truth.”

What became of the German Pastors who did not become Nazified? More importantly, what was the response of the people to the arrests and imprisonments of Pastors who would refuse to accept “Nazification” of their churches? It was, in a word, apathetic. Doctrinal purity and preaching were no longer the accepted standards for the Gospel. These were replaced by service and loyalty under a new cross, the swastika. Pastors were torn between God and Hitler, many tried to serve both. They preached to congregations with the backdrop of swastikas hanging in their churches. Through crafty manipulation they took the virtues of the church and turned them to their own use. By appealing to patriotism and pragmatic necessity they rallied many to their banner. Bonhoeffer would later write:

“If evil appears in the form of light, benefit, loyalty, and renewal, if it conforms with historical necessity and social justice, then this, if it is understood straightforwardly, is a clear proof of its abysmal wickedness.”

Those in Germany who chose the swastika participated in the fate of its leader. Hitler would finally not accept any other god than himself. The people found out too late that deception, division, and dismemberment destroyed the Christian church and their country. What about the church today? What about America today? The German people were told it was not about them, when it was all about them. They were pumped up with a call to unity and a thriving need for purpose. The propaganda machine of Nazism feverously worked towards saying what was needed to persuade the people to embrace the new direction of the church. The success of Hitler and his financial policies gave pragmatic justification that his methods, although opposed to the Gospel, would become the new gospel as he redefined Christianity by his success of melting Christianity and politics together. He successfully divided the Church and sought to capitalize on the lethargy and fear of pastor’s who were too weary to oppose his power.

“. . . Take heed that no man deceive you,” Jesus warned. Hitler would say in his book, Mein Kampf, “It is unbelievable, to what extent one must betray a people in order to rule it.” The Nazi Era demonstrated anyone can be swept along on a tide of collective emotion. The Germans were able to project their failings and strength onto an individual who assumed the role of father of a nation. By this Hitler was able to exploit the German people and then seduce them to believe that a sacrificial offering of the Jews would be their scapegoat to exercise a collective anxiety. His success manifested quickly because his people were willing to give their lives for his lies. The egotistical demands of this despot would have his troops swear an oath to him:

“I swear to thee Adolph Hitler . . . loyalty and bravery.

I swear to thee and the superiors thou shalt appoint obedience unto death. So help me God.

Next month we will look at some more similarities between the German church during Hitler’s Era and the church today. I will show you some interesting comparisons of the modern church Growth Movement’s techniques with Hitler’s propaganda efforts. Until then I will leave you with Hitler’s comments extracted from “Voice of Destruction”.

“My enemies have turned up their noses at me. They have asked, full of envy: “Why is this man so successful with the masses? Was this just a lucky fluke, was it due to the uncritical minds of the masses? No, it was thanks to us, to our assiduity, and to the technique we perfected . . . I have been reproached for making the masses fanatic and ecstatic . . . I can lead the masses only if I tear them out of their apathy. Only the fanatic mass can be swayed. A mass that is apathetic and dull is the greatest threat to unity.”
ORDERS, CHRISTMAS, AND DELIVERY

How thrilled we are at the most tremendous response respecting our Bibles, CD’s, Books, etc. And how so very much I apologize to those of you who did not quite make delivery to in time for Christmas.

Actually, we were swamped and in more ways than one. We actually got three to four times the number of orders that I was expecting. Now we are very thankful for that, because we believe the Product that’s put into the people’s hands is extremely helpful to the individual. But, nevertheless, to order something for Christmas in order to give it as a gift, etc., or whatever, and not get it on time, creates problems. This we understand, and how so very, very much we apologize to those of you who fell into that category.

In order to get everything out on time, we were running two shifts a day, working on Saturday’s, with even all of the Preachers helping. But, as fast as we were getting the orders out, many, many more were coming in.

I had a lady to tell me sometime back, “Brother Swaggart, everything we get from your Ministry is quality.” She was speaking of the production as well as the content. We believe that we have something that the Body of Christ needs. So, we do our very best to make certain the quality of the production is par excellent, and because we are proud of that which we send unto you.

At any rate, thank you so very, very much for all of the tens of thousands of orders, and at the same time forgive us for not being able to get every one of them there on time.

THE TELEVISION STUDIO

Thank the Lord, the Television Studio is up and running. And I want to thank you who helped make it possible. In fact, without you we simply could not do what we’re doing.

We believe that we have the Message and, of course, I’m speaking of the “Message of the Cross.” It’s nothing new, actually that which was originally given to the Apostle Paul. And, in fact, this Message was founded in Christ before the creation of man, and even before the creation of the world (I Pet. 1:18-20).

The Early Church began under the guidance of the Apostle Paul, and was anchored on the Foundation of the Cross of Christ. No one can deny the fact that Paul preached the Cross. He preached it for sinners to be Saved, and he preached it for Christians to be Sanctified (Rom. 6:1-14; 8:1-11; I Cor. 1:17-18, 23; 2:2; Gal. 6:14; Col. 2:10-15).

And the results we are now seeing are absolutely phenomenal. Testimonies of people being Saved, baptized with the Holy Spirit, delivered from bondages of darkness, and healed by the Power of God, only verifies that which we are preaching. That’s the Fruit of this Ministry. And I believe it’s just beginning.

THAT WHICH IS SHORTLY TO COME

I believe the Lord has told me that the latter half of Pharaoh’s Dream, interpreted by Joseph, is about to be fulfilled. The second part to that Dream concerns the coming Great Tribulation, which will last for some seven years, and symbolized by the seven stalks of grain. And if that is correct, and I know that it is, then the seven stalks that proclaim the first part of the Dream, which were fat and healthy, symbolize a Harvest of souls such as the world or the Church has never seen.

The first Dream that Pharaoh had proclaimed that which was shortly to come to pass, and which did. It took that to bring Jacob to Joseph and it will take the second Dream to bring Jacob to Jesus. I know beyond the shadow of a doubt, that this Ministry (Jimmy Swaggart Ministries), is going to play a part, and is already playing a part in this coming great Move of God. And to be sure, you are a distinct part as well. You must understand this, and never forget it. The Lord has put you where you are in support of this Work for a Divine Purpose. Why He chose you or me I do not know, but I know that He has, and we should be very, very grateful. What a privilege! What an honor!

And, by the way, I thank you so very, very much for your support of this Work. I really cannot tell you how much it means, with the Lord Alone to do that.

FAMILY WORSHIP CENTER MEDIA CHURCH

Well over one hundred each week are joining the FAMILY WORSHIP CENTER MEDIA CHURCH. How happy we are to have you.

These people are from all over the world, and have joined with us because they believe in what we preach, that for which we stand, and they want to be a part of it. And, as stated, to be sure, we are so glad to have you.

WHAT ARE THE OBLIGATIONS?

In actuality only one obligation, that is to be Born-Again.

As far as money is concerned, that is between you and the Lord. As you well know, it costs us quite a bit to bring the programming into your home twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week. So, if you could see clear to pay your Tithe to FAMILY WORSHIP CENTER, this would be a great Blessing to you, and a great help to the Work of God. Many of you are faithful in this, and I would pray that all of you would be. Please understand, one simply cannot out-give God!

ARE YOU COMING TO EASTER CAMPMEETING?

The dates are, March 27 through 31. It's going to be a blockbuster, but it will be a little better if you are here. So, if it's possible for you to come, we are going to look for you.

THE STATE OF THE NATION

Pray for the President! Pray for those who are in authority over us. For a long, long time, America has been going in the wrong direction. The main reason for that is the church. As the Work of God goes in any place, so goes that particular place. Sadly and regrettably, the church, for all practical purposes, seems to have lost its moorings. Due to the fact that “judgment must begin at the House of God,” this, as well, guides the destiny of the nation.

There are still multiple hundreds of thousands, possibly even millions in this Nation who truly love God, and who know how to pray. And the Scripture still says, and it means it!

“If My People, who are called by My Name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek My Face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from Heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land” (II Chron. 7:14).

Our land needs healing, and the Lord Alone can do that.

THE EXPOSITOR’S STUDY BIBLE

Sometime in December, 2012, we passed the one million mark for the number of EXPOSITOR’S STUDY BIBLE’s sold. As well, we’ve been able to place over 30,000 of these Bibles into the hands of Pastors in Central and South America. Also, the same number has gone to Pastors in Russia and surrounding countries. India is next . . . then Africa.

Thank you so very, very much, for making it all possible. I personally feel that placing these Bibles into the hands of Preachers around the world is one of the greatest Mission’s works on the face of the Earth today. In fact, I don’t know of anything that even remotely comes close. When that Pastor is stirred toward Righteousness, and his Doctrine is straight, it has a profound positive effect upon all who are in his Church. So, if you want to do something for the Lord, help us put these Bibles into the hands of these Preachers.

Every one of you needs a Christian library. And in that library you need every one of our Jimmy Swaggart Bible Commentaries. The Word of God is the single most important thing in the world. And anything that will help you understand it to a greater degree is valuable indeed! This I guarantee, our Commentaries will help you to do just that – to understand the Bible better.
city of Rome came to view the spoils of war, the defeated foes, the conquering General, his family, and the armies that fought by his side. God has placed the Believer in Christ’s Triumph. Every day I get up and take my place in the parade that honors Christ. Paul would write in 2 Corinthians 2:14a, “Now thanks be unto God, which always causes us to triumph in Christ. . . .” With my Faith securely attached to the Cross, the Finished Work of Christ, I gain all nine of these Benefits:

- Faith in Christ’s Cross causes a person to be Born-Again.
- Faith in Christ’s Cross brings me freedom from the dominion of the sin nature.
- Faith in Christ’s Cross causes one to be united with Christ, burying his past life forever.
- Faith in Christ’s Cross causes the Believer to be Co-Raised with Him and to live in Him.
- Faith in Christ’s Cross Co-quickenes or energizes the Believer by the Spirit of God.
- Faith in Christ’s Cross Provides me with forgiveness of all sin, past, present, and future.
- Faith in Christ and the Cross Provides me with Freedom from the Law as the Means to Righteousness.
- Faith in Christ and the Cross Places me into the Victory Celebration won by Christ.

These are the reasons why my Faith is in the Cross of Christ!

Brand-new! And I am speaking of our new Jimmy Swaggart Bible Commentary on Hosea, Joel, and Amos.

Hosea gives one of the clearest Altar calls in the last chapter of his book found in the entirety of the Bible. Joel is referred to as the Holy Spirit Prophet of the Old Testament. He is the one quoted by Peter on the Day of Pentecost.

Amos was a very humble man, uneducated, but still greatly used of God. I have personally looked on the fields where he tended sheep, and you could almost hear his thundering tones.

Whatever you do, you will want to take advantage of this brand-new Commentary!
