It troubles me to hear Christians use terms such as “greasy grace,” or “slippery grace,” etc. The use of such terminology shows a complete misunderstanding of the Grace of God.

Grace is never a license to sin. It is, in fact, the means by which we can have Victory over sin and the only means.

THE CROSS OF CHRIST MAKES GRACE POSSIBLE!

God has always been a God of Grace. One could say He is Grace, because He is Goodness. This means that God had just as much Grace under the Old Covenant as He does under the New. God has always been a God of Grace. One could say He is Grace, because He is Goodness. This means that God had just as much Grace under the Old Covenant as He does under the New.

God has always been a God of Grace. One could say He is Grace, because He is Goodness. This means that God had just as much Grace under the Old Covenant as He does under the New. God has always been a God of Grace. One could say He is Grace, because He is Goodness. This means that God had just as much Grace under the Old Covenant as He does under the New.

THE DISPENSATION OF GRACE

The Dispensation of Grace began when Jesus on the Cross said, “It is finished” (Jn. 19:30). At that moment the Law of God was completely satisfied. Paul said:

“God has always been a God of Grace. One could say He is Grace, because He is Goodness. This means that God had just as much Grace under the Old Covenant as He does under the New.”
THE EVANGELIST

"Blotting out the handwriting of Ordinances that was against us (pertains to the Law of Moses, which was God's Standard of Righteousness that man could not reach), which was contrary to us (Law is against us, simply because we are unable to keep its precepts, no matter how hard we try), and took it out of the way (refers to the penalty of the Law being removed), nailing it to His Cross (the Law with its decrees was abolished in Christ's Death, as if Crucified with Him)" (Col. 2:14).

Under the Old Covenant, God dealt with mankind, at least Israel, by the means of Law. The Law has now been satisfied by Christ, in the giving of Himself on the Cross, making it possible for God to now deal with mankind on the premise of Grace.

However, irrespective that this is the "Dispensation of Grace," that doesn't mean that everyone is automatically under Grace. The potential is there, but sadly and regrettably most Believers, and we are speaking of Believers, are only enjoying a modicum of Grace because they are trying to live their Christian experience mostly by Law. So, irrespective that this is the Dispensation of Grace, it is not an automatic thing.

If one is to notice the writings of the Apostle Paul, even though he was living at the beginning of the Dispensation of Grace, still, he spoke of Law constantly.

"If one is to notice the writings of the Apostle Paul, even though he was living at the beginning of the Dispensation of Grace, still, he spoke of Law constantly."

Paul said:

"Of how much sorer punishment, suppose you, shall he be thought worthy, who has trodden under foot the Son of God (proclaims the reason for the 'sorer punishment'), and has counted the Blood of the Covenant, wherewith he was Sanctified, an unholy thing (refers to a person who has been Saved, but is now expressing unbelief toward that which originally Saved him), and has done despite unto the Spirit of Grace? (When the Cross is rejected, the Holy Spirit is insulted)" (Heb. 10:29).

“Under the old Law, God could be approached only in a particular way.”

“For the Law was given by Moses, but Grace and Truth came by Jesus Christ (proclaims Him as the Representative Law-Keeper for all humanity, i.e., to all who will believe; the Law manifested man [full of wickedness]; the Son manifested God [full of goodness])” (Jn. 1:17).

THE THRONE OF GRACE

The Holy Spirit through Paul said:

“Seeing then that we have a Great High Priest (Christ acts on our behalf to God), Who is passed into the Heavens (has to do with a legal process), Jesus the Son of God (presents the fact that Jesus is not only man, but is God as well), let us hold fast our profession. (Let us hold fast to Christ and the Cross, which was necessary for our Lord to be our High Priest.)

“For we have not an High Priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities (being Very Man as well as Very God, He can do such); but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin (His temptation, and ours as well, was to leave the Prescribed Will of God, which is the Word of God; but He never did, not even one time.)

“Let us therefore come boldly unto the Throne of Grace (presents the Seat of Divine Power, and yet the Source of boundless Grace), that we may obtain Mercy (presents that which we need, and find Grace to help in time of want first), and find Grace to help in time of need (refers to the Goodness of God extended to all who come, and during any ‘time of need’; all made possible by the Cross)” (Heb. 4:14-16).

The “Throne of Grace,” could be called “The Throne of the Goodness of God.” At any rate, we are speaking here of the Throne of God.

Under the old Law, God could be approached only in a particular way. As it regarded the Holy of Holies, where the Ark of the Covenant was, where God dwelt between the Mercy Seat and the Cherubim, it served as a Symbol of the Throne of God on Earth. No Israelite could enter the Holy of Holies. In fact, no Israelite could come into the Tabernacle at all. Only the Priests could come into the Tabernacle, but only the Great High Priest could come into the Holy of Holies, and that only once a year, the Great Day of Atonement, and not without blood. Due to the fact that the blood of bulls and goats could not take away sins, meaning that the sin debt remained despite
Once again, it is the Cross of Christ that has made the very Throne of God possible for any and all who will come.\(^1\)

...the sacrifices, the Lord was inaccessible, except in a very limited way.

When Jesus died on the Cross, shedding His Life’s Blood, which paid the price for all sin — past, present, and future — which God recognized and accepted, at the moment when He said, “It is finished,” the great Veil that hung between the Holy of Holies and the Holy Place in the Temple, ripped from top to bottom, in essence, saying, the way is now open.

Josephus, the Jewish historian, said that this Veil was some thirty feet high, some four inches thick, weighed over two thousand pounds, and four yoke of oxen could not pull it apart. But yet, it ripped from the top to the bottom, and was done so by God, because the price was forever paid. Now it can be said:

> And the Spirit and the Bride say, Come. (This presents the cry of the Holy Spirit to a hurting, lost, and dying world. What the Holy Spirit says should also be said by all Believers.) And let him who hears say, Come. (It means if one can ‘hear,’ then one can ‘come.’) And let him who is athirst come (speaks of Spiritual Thirst, the cry for God in the soul of man). And whosoever will, let him take the Water of Life freely (opens the door to every single individual in the world; Jesus died for all and, therefore, all can be Saved, if they will only come)” (Rev. 22:17).

Once again, it is the Cross of Christ that has made the very Throne of God possible for any and all who will come. But all who come can only be admitted on the basis of the Grace of God, which is extended to all who place their Faith exclusively in Christ and what He did at the Cross. Otherwise, entrance will be barred. Paul said:

> “Having abolished in His Flesh (speaking of His Death on the Cross, by which He Redeemed humanity, which also means He didn’t die spiritually, as some claim) the enmity (the hatred between God and man, caused by sin), even the Law of Commandments contained in Ordinances (pertains to the Law of Moses, and more particularly the Ten Commandments); for to make in Himself of twain (of Jews and Gentiles) one new man, so making peace (which again was accomplished by the Cross); “And that He (Christ) might reconcile both (Jews and Gentiles) unto God in one body (the Church) by the Cross (it is by the Atonement only that men ever become reconciled to God), having slain the enmity thereby (removed the barrier between God and sinful man);

> “And came and preached peace to you which were afar off (proclaims the Gospel going to the Gentiles), and to them who were nigh. (This refers to the Jews. It is the same Message for both.) “For through Him (through Christ) we both (Jews and Gentiles) have access by One Spirit unto the Father. (If the sinner comes by the Cross, the Holy Spirit opens the door, otherwise it is barred [Jn. 10:1])” (Eph. 2:13-18).

COME BOLDLY!

If we come in the Name of Jesus, understanding that He made all of this possible by the Cross, then we do not have to approach the Throne of Grace timidly, but can do so boldly.

The word “boldly” in the Greek is “parhresia,” and means several things; however, its basic meaning here is “confidence, freely, openly.” The Blood of Jesus Christ has opened up the way; therefore, we can approach the Throne of God with confidence, knowing that it will be accessible to us, and no matter how many times we come.

THRONE OF GRACE

We are speaking here of the very Throne of God. The idea that anyone can come to this Throne, and at any time, is overwhelming in its concept. But again we emphasize, it is all made possible by Christ and what He did for us at the Cross. We must never forget that.

As well, this is a “Throne of Grace,” i.e., “the Goodness of God,” which means, that it’s not a Throne of Judgment. My sins were judged at Calvary and can never be judged again. In legal parlance, it is referred to as “double jeopardy.” It means a person cannot be tried twice for the same crime. Jesus Christ was judged for my sins, and the price was paid by the giving of Himself in Sacrifice. As a result, the Law has no more claim on me, meaning, that I can approach with boldness, with confidence, the very Throne of God — but all because of Christ!

“As long as we come in the Name of Jesus, with the Cross of Christ as the Object of our Faith, Mercy will always be granted to us, and without exception.”

MERCY

As long as we come in the Name of Jesus, with the Cross of Christ as the Object of our Faith, Mercy will always be granted to us, and without exception. But we must ever understand, that none of this is because of any merit on our part, it is all because of Christ, and His Sacrificial, Atoning Death, on the Cross of Calvary. That’s why the great Apostle said:

“But God forbid that I should glory (boast), save in the Cross of our Lord Jesus Christ (what the opponents of Paul sought to escape at the price of insincerity is the Apostle’s only basis of exultation), by Whom the world is Crucified unto me, and I unto the world. (The only way we can overcome the world, and I mean the only way, is by placing our Faith exclusively in the Cross of Christ and keeping it there)” (Gal. 6:14).

TIME OF NEED

The “need” addressed here, could be forgiveness for sin, financial help, strength for the journey, Diving Healing, overcoming Grace, etc. In other words, this “need” has no limitations.

We are told here that the “Goodness of God,” is made available to us “to help in time of need.” When we consider that God can do anything, then we are beginning to realize the most special privilege that we have as a Believer, once again, all because of the Cross of Christ.

FRUSTRATING THE GRACE OF GOD

The Greek word for “frustrate” is “atheteo,” and means, “to set aside, to neutralize, to bring to nought.”

When the Believer places his faith in anything, and I mean anything, other than the Cross of Christ, considering that it is the Cross which makes possible the Grace of God, this frustrates the Grace of God, meaning that it stops its flow, or at least, greatly hinders it.

Paul said, and I continue to quote from THE EXPOSITIONER’S STUDY BIBLE:

“I do not frustrate the Grace of God (if we make anything other than the Cross of Christ the Object of our Faith, we frustrate the Grace of God, which means we stop its action, and the Holy Spirit will no longer help us): for if Righteousness come by the Law (any type of Law), then Christ is dead in vain. (If I can successfully live for the Lord by any means other than Faith in Christ and the Cross, then the Death of Christ was a waste)” (Gal. 2:21).

Regrettably and sadly, the far greater majority of modern Christians, and I speak of those who are truly Born-Again, are constantly frustrating the Grace of God. How do I know that?

I know it simply because their Faith is not in Christ and the Cross, but it is rather in a religious law of some nature, whether a law devised by them personally, or preachers, or religious denominations, etc. That being the case, whether they realize it or not, and most don’t realize it, they are functioning by Law and, thereby, frustrating the Grace of God. This means they are stopping all the good things that God wants to do for them, but cannot do because they have closed the door due to the incorrect object of faith.

I hear preachers over television telling their viewers to place their faith in the Lord’s Supper, or the “Purpose Driven Life” book, or whatever! If it’s not the Cross of Christ, then whatever it is, and no matter how useful it might be in its own right, the Believer will not see victory in this capacity.

Jesus said:

“And you shall know the Truth, and the Truth shall make you free (this is the secret of all abundant Life in Christ; the ‘Truth’ is ‘Jesus Christ and Him Crucified,’ which alone is the answer to the problems of Man)” (Jn. 8:32).

FALLING FROM GRACE

Paul said:

“Christ is become of no effect unto you (this is a chilling statement, and refers to anyone who makes anything other than Christ and the Cross the Object of his Faith), whosoever of you are justified by the Law (seek to be Justified by the Law); you are fallen from Grace (fallen from the position of Grace, which means the Believer is trusting in something other than the Cross; it actually means, ‘to apostatize’)” (Gal. 5:4).

There is a slight difference in “frustrating the Grace of God,” and “falling from Grace.” The former has its flow greatly hindered, while in the latter Grace is stopped altogether.

Being “fallen from Grace,” means that the person has his Faith in something other than Christ and the Cross, meaning that he has willingly accepted a false way and, thereby, willingly rejecting or ignoring the Cross of Christ. Considering that the Cross of Christ is the means by which all Grace is given to us, such a person has just lost their way.

Concerning this, Paul also said:

“For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened (refers to those who have accepted the Light of the Gospel, which means accepting Christ and His great Sacrifice), and have tasted of the Heavenly Gift (pertains to Christ and what He did at the Cross), and were made partakers of the Holy Spirit (which takes place when a person comes to Christ),

“And have tasted the good Word of God (is not language that is used of an impenitent sinner, as some claim; the unsaved have no relish whatsoever for the Truth of God, and see no beauty in it), and the powers of the world to come (refers to the Work of the Holy Spirit within hearts and lives, which the unsaved cannot have or know),

“If they shall fall away (should have been translated, ‘and having fallen away’), to renew them again unto Repentance (‘again’ states they had once repented, but have now turned their backs on Christ); seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh (means they no longer believe what Christ did at the Cross, actually concluding Him to be an imposter; the only way any person can truly repent is to place his Faith in Christ and the Cross; if that is denied, there is no Repentance), and put Him to an open shame (means to hold Christ up to public ridicule; Paul wrote this Epistle because some Christian Jews were going back into Judaism, or seriously contemplating doing so)” (Heb. 6:4-6).

GRACE OR LAW

Paul said:

“For sin shall not have dominion over you (the sin nature will not have dominion over us if we as Believers continue to exercise Faith in the Cross of Christ; otherwise, the sin nature most definitely will have dominion over the Believer); for you are not under the Law (means that if we try to live this life by any type of law, no matter how good that law might be in its own right, we will conclude by the sin nature having dominion over us), but under Grace (the Grace of God flows to the Believer on an unending basis only as long as the Believer exercises Faith in Christ and what He did at the Cross; Grace is merely the Goodness of God exercised by and through the Holy Spirit, and given to undeserving Saints)” (Rom. 6:14).

Every person in the world, and without exception, is either under Law (and we speak of the moral part of the Law of Moses, namely, the Ten Commandments), or under Grace. Every unredeemed person in the world, even though they are not aware of such, is still under this Law. This means that unless they give their heart to Christ, Who suffered the penalty of the broken Law, and did it on our behalf, they will answer at the Great White Throne Judgment, and answer to this particular Law (Rev. 20:11-15).

But the tragedy is, most modern Christians, due to the fact of not understanding the Cross of Christ as it regards our Sanctification, i.e., “how we live for God,” are living, as well, under religious laws of some kind.

RELIGIOUS LAWS

While the laws of which I speak, are not the Law of Moses, but rather laws that we devise out of our own minds, which we think will help us live for God, still, they are laws, and the upshot is, the Holy Spirit will not function in such capacity.

Christians are bad about taking things which are legitimate in their own right, such as the Lord’s Supper, or prayer, or the giving of money to the Work of the Lord, or witnessing to souls, etc., and turning them into laws. In other words, we think by doing these things, and thereby making it the object of our faith, which always happens, this will help us to live a cleaner life for the Lord. It won’t! In fact, it will have the opposite affect. Let me explain!

Anything and everything done in our lives for the Lord, which helps us to draw closer to the Lord, and I speak of Holiness and Righteousness, along with the Fruit of the Spirit, all, and without exception, must be done by the Power of the Holy Spirit. There is no way, even the best of us, whomever that might be, can bring about in our lives that which we need. It cannot be done that way. The Holy Spirit Alone can carry out this task.

Beside that, such a Believer, in such a case, is actually living in a state of spiritual adultery, which means

"THE HOLY SPIRIT"

Acts 2:4 – “And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit (all were filled, not just the Apostles; due to the Cross, the Holy Spirit could now come into the hearts and lives of all Believers to abide permanently [Jn. 14:16]), and began to speak with other Tongues (the initial physical evidence that one has been baptized with the Spirit, and was predicted by the Prophet Isaiah [Isa. 28:9-12], and by Christ [Mk. 16:17; Jn. 15:26; 16:13]), as the Spirit gave them utterance (meaning they did not initiate this themselves, but that it was initiated by the Spirit; as we shall see, these were languages known somewhere in the world, but not by the speaker).”

The Holy Spirit is talked about as much as any Member of the Godhead today. There is much confusion and much error concerning the exact definition of the Third Person of the Triune God.

The Holy Spirit is a Person, a real Being, Who thinks, acts, wills, feels, loves, and speaks. He cannot be seen by the natural eye, but His Actions fulfill all the requirements of a personality.

The Holy Spirit is not a thing or an it. He is not a universal mind or some vague life-giving force. He is not some fuzzy, abstract idea, nor is He a material or an ethereal substance. He is a Person, but He is also Deity. He is the Third Person of the Godhead – the Trinity. Now this does not mean the Holy Spirit is one-third God or one-third of God. God cannot be divided.

Neither does it mean that He is One of Three. God is One God. Deuteronomy 6:4 says, “Hear, O Israel: the LORD our God is One LORD,” yet, He is Eternally self-existing in Three distinct Persons: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Each of these Persons is fully God, yet each is an individual Person within Himself. Jesus is God, the Father is God, and the Holy Spirit is God.

PERFECT KNOWLEDGE

Now, because all Three Members of the Godhead are God (which infers infinite Knowledge, infinite Love, infinite Mercy, and infinite Justice), all Three are always in complete agreement on everything. God is Omniscient (all-knowing) and thus, always knows the Perfect Way for anything, for there is one Perfect Solution to anything – whether or not we (as humans) can see this Perfect Solution. It is, therefore, possible for the Beings to be in Perfect Unity at all times – if those Three Persons all have infinite (unrestricted and unending) knowledge as the Godhead does.

THE TRINITY

This is why it is possible to have “Three Members in One,” which is what the words “Triune,” “Trinity,” and “Godhead” describe. It is Three Individuals – each with His Own Personality, Awareness, and Mission – occupying the Position of God.

The Three Persons of the Godhead never argue or debate. Each one knows, at all times – even before things happen – what should be done and what will be done. They, therefore, don’t even have to discuss matters. Each knows before, during, and after, what should be done and what will be done. Each knows before, during, and after what should and will happen. The final result, as we know, will be God’s Will. Thus, the Three Persons Who constitute God agree together always – never debating, never voting, and never disagreeing.

All Three Members of the Trinity are equal Omniscience (knowledge of everything) thus, Three Minds that act as One. They are in Unity. And the Holy Spirit possesses all the attributes that both God the Father and God the Son possess.
The story of Ananias and Sapphira is told in Acts 5:3-4, “But Peter said, Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit . . .?” and then just a sentence or two later he states, “You have not lied unto men, but unto God.” This confirms that the Holy Spirit is God because Scripture here states that when Ananias lied to the Holy Spirit he was simultaneously lying to God.

HOLY SPIRIT – HOLY GHOST

I need to clarify something here because it can be confusing to some people to hear the term “Holy Spirit” used while at other times the term “Holy Ghost” is used. There is really no difference between “Holy Ghost” and “Holy Spirit” for they mean exactly the same thing.

In the original Manuscript the Greek word used for “Spirit” and “Ghost” was “pneuma,” which literally means “breath” and “breeze,” but, came to be used for a “spirit” or “ghost,” which could make a candle flame flutter, or the leaves rustle.

The Third Person of the Trinity was referred to by the Apostles as “God’s Pneuma,” which could be translated as “the Breath of God,” “the Essence of God,” “God’s Spirit” or the “Holy Spirit” and “Holy Ghost.” We (because the King James Translators chose to use the two terms “Holy Spirit” and “Holy Ghost”) are most familiar with these two terms. They can be used interchangeably.

The expression “ghost” is an Old English word and its meaning has changed somewhat since King James ordered his great Translation. Today when one says “ghost” one usually thinks of haunted houses and disembodied spirits floating around causing terror. Today’s ghosts are invariably evil. Originally the word “ghost” did not have this meaning or connotation. The term “Holy Ghost” was perfectly in keeping with the beautiful poetic language of the King James Version. Today in modern usage, the word or term commonly preferred is “Holy Spirit” and this is always proper. Either term is correct or acceptable however for they are both found in God’s Word.

The Three are all of One Purpose, One Design, and One Desire, and One Essence. They are One in fulfillment of the Duties pertaining to the Godhead, yet, there are certain statements that can be made for each that don’t apply to all. Jesus is the Son of the Father. He is not the Father of the Son, so you cannot say that Jesus is the Father, while you can say that Jesus is the Son. Conversely, the Father is not the Son, but Jesus is the Son. The Holy Spirit proceeds from both the Father and the Son, while neither the Father nor the Son proceed from the Holy Spirit.

In referring to the Holy Spirit, Jesus Himself said that if you say a word against Him it will not be forgiven! Jesus pointed out that you could say something against the Heavenly Father, or even the Lord Himself, and it could be forgiven (if one asks for forgiveness). But He stressed that blasphemous utterances against the Holy Spirit would not be forgiven. So, there is a difference even in what can be said to each, or about each.

The Holy Spirit is present upon this Earth, while God the Father and Jesus are in Heaven. Jesus sits at the Right Hand of the Father – and the Father does not, of course, sit at the Right Hand of Jesus. We know that there is an Omnipresent factor in the locations of the Three Members of the Trinity, but, these specific differences should be noted. While there are differences in description, the Holy Spirit is nevertheless Totally God.

The Holy Spirit is Eternal, just as God is Eternal. This means that He always was, is now, and ever will be. He had no beginnings and He will have no end. In Hebrews 9:14 it states, “Christ, Who through the Eternal Spirit offered Himself,” confirms that the Holy Spirit is Eternal.

ALL-KNOWING

The Holy Spirit is Omniscient, which means the Holy Spirit is All-knowing and All-wise. His Wisdom cannot be increased because He already knows all things. Nobody directs, counsels, or teaches the Holy Spirit.

The Holy Spirit is the teacher. As God, He is Perfect in knowledge and understanding. 1 Corinthians 2:10-11 declares that the deep things of God are always open to the Holy Spirit. He knows everything that God the Father knows. “The Spirit searches all things, yes, the deep things of God.” The deepest limits of knowledge are an open book to the Holy Spirit.

The Holy Spirit is also Omnipotent or All-powerful. It is impossible for Him to be more powerful. The Holy Spirit cannot be restricted, He is All-powerful. His Power is seen both in the Creation and in His Work in the world today.

Someone might ask, “Well if He is All-powerful, why doesn’t He do something about all the problems existing in the world today?”

He can do anything He wants to do, but there is the factor of Mercy here – Mercy mixed with Compassion and Love. For you see, when the Holy Spirit does finally intrude to bring forth God’s Righteous Kingdom on Earth, all problems will be Divinely removed. But, at that moment everyone’s “second chance” will be lost. The Mercy involved in this means that Judgment is currently being withheld. Compassion and Love enter in because the sinner is being given the opportunity for Salvation and Redemption from sin before God finally intervenes.

THE POWER OF THE HIGHEST

There is a time when Judgment will come, evil will be punished, and the Orders of God the Father eternally established throughout Creation. Then the Orders of God will be carried out (His Will be done) – with eternal punishment for those who have not responded to God’s Mercy and Love. The Great Tribulation is coming when the Holy Spirit will resolutely carry out the Orders of God the Father and God’s Wrath will be poured out upon this Earth.

Even though evil isn’t immediately stopped and punished (and the Power of the Holy Spirit immediately demonstrated) the Holy Spirit is Omnipotent. He is referred to as, “The Power of the Highest” in Luke 1:35. In other words, He is Power personified. He is fully God – and through Him the Power of the entire Godhead is fully expressed. It is God’s Desire that every Believer be “tapped in” to this Power.

Acts 1:8 says:

“But you shall receive Power, after that the Holy Spirit is come upon you: and you shall be witnesses unto Me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the Earth.”

YOUR UNDERSTANDING OF THE WORD OF GOD

I and II Kings is our newest Commentary, having been published about three months ago. We are thrilled at the response.

THE PRICE

All of our Commentaries are listed for $40 in our Catalog. We have cut the price by 25 percent, down to $30, hoping it will make it possible for more of you to obtain this which every Believer needs. Anything that will help one understand the Word of God better is valuable to say the least. This I can promise:

Our Commentaries will most definitely open up the Word of God to you, as I believe nothing you’ve ever known, witnessed, or experienced before. I know that’s quite a statement, but I believe it to be true.

I AND II KINGS

Some may ask the question as to what could apply to them personally in I and II Kings – something that took place some 2,500 to 3,000 years ago.

First of all, I and II Kings is the Word of God, which means that it is valuable beyond all comprehension. Second, you will see in the individuals involved, and the way the Lord deals with them, that which is similar to your own situation, whatever that might be. It tells us how to do certain things, and how not to do certain things.

THE MESSAGE OF THE CROSS

To be sure, the Message of the Cross is given in detail in this Volume. And that’s not difficult to do, simply because the entirety of the Bible, in one way or the other, points to Jesus Christ and what He did for us at the Cross. So, if someone said, “Brother Swaggart, I want the most up-to-date information that the Lord has given you according to His Word, as it relates to the Cross” without hesitation, at this moment I would recommend I and II Kings. That may seem strange, but once you begin to study these two Books in this Commentary, you will understand what I’m saying.

If you already have a copy, I’m going to ask you to get a copy for a preacher friend, or anyone who loves the Word of God. If you don’t have a copy, and you want to get two copies, one for yourself, and one for a friend, I’m going to cut the price even more – $50 for two copies (EVxxxx), and I would urge you, whomever you might be, to take full advantage of this.

Ladies and gentlemen, we are living in perilous times. Everything you can get your hands on that’ll help you to understand the Word of God better, you must take advantage of that which is offered.

Get out your credit card, go to the phone, and get this offer.
Ephesians 2:8-9 – “For by Grace (the Goodness of God) are you Saved through Faith (Faith in Christ, with the Cross ever as its Object); and that not of yourselves (none of this is of us, but all is of Him): it is the Gift of God (anytime the word ‘Gift’ is used, God is speaking of His Son and His Substitutionary Work on the Cross, which makes all of this possible): “Not of works (man cannot merit Salvation, irrespective what he does), lest any man should boast (boast in his own ability and strength; we are allowed to boast only in the Cross [Gal. 6:14])."

EPHESUS

Ephesus was a celebrated city of Ionia in Asia Minor in what is now modern Turkey. The city was most known as the home of the temple of Diana, one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World. It was in this city of culture and pagan worship that Paul introduced the Gospel of Jesus Christ in about the year A.D. 54 (Acts 18:19). Though Paul would stay only a short time during his first visit, he would return for a period of about three years. It was during this time that the Ephesian Church was established.

Paul remained at Ephesus longer than he did at any other one place preaching the Gospel. He probably stayed at Ephesus longer than his norm was because this city was the principal seat of idolatry in the world. Paul, writing in Romans, Chapter 5, Verse 20, would proclaim, “... But where sin abounded, Grace did much more abound.” How fitting that Paul would spend three years in this seat of idolatry proclaiming the Good News of Salvation through Jesus Christ.

“GRACE”

Paul proclaims in the Text, “For by Grace are you Saved.” It’s interesting to note that in six chapters, Paul would use the word “Grace” twelve times. I think it’s obvious that the Apostle proclaimed the Doctrine of “Grace,” which is the meaning of the New Covenant, in a way that should be an example to all in Ministry.

WHAT IS “GRACE”?

The theological definition of “Grace” is “unmerited favor.” It has been called “pure unrecompensed kindness and favor.” However, a better explanation of the word “Grace,” I feel, is “Grace is the Goodness of God extended to undeserving Believers.” We deserved the Wrath of God as all of us are born in sin, sons and daughters of Adam, but God in Love and Kindness has chosen to deal with sinful man on the basis of “Grace.”

THE CROSS AND “GRACE”

There is no “Grace” without the Cross. “Grace” always refers to the Sacrificial Offering of God’s Son, Jesus Christ, on Calvary’s Cross as the only remedy for man’s sinful dilemma. Simply put, “No Cross, no Grace.” That’s why we can never cease proclaiming the Cross of Christ and that’s why we can never cease singing about the Precious Blood of God’s Son, the Lamb slain before the foundation of the world.

The Cross is the supreme expression of “Grace”; the Gospel is its Message and only Message, and we who are Saved are trophies and witnesses of “Grace.”

“Grace” is love in administration. “Grace” is love countering sin, and seeking lost humanity’s Salvation. Even more than an act, “Grace” is a Person, Jesus Christ. He Alone is the embodiment of “Grace,” the picture of “Grace,” the truth of “Grace,” and the Church must never forget that. Let us proclaim it to the world: Jesus Christ is “Grace,” “Grace,” amazing “Grace.”

"FAITH"

The Apostle states that “Grace” is realized by the believing sinner “through Faith.” “Faith” is the only means by which undeserving man can receive anything from the Lord. “Faith” in the Scriptural sense means, “Belief and Trust.” Believing and accepting what God has said in His Word. Acceptance with all one’s heart.

“Faith” means we place our past, present, future hopes, dreams, and our entire being in Christ.

PROPER “FAITH”

By that term, I mean, it is “Faith” in what Christ did at the Cross for undeserving humanity. “Faith” in His shed Blood for Salvation, Healing, joy, etc. All that we have as Christians is because of Calvary. The Cross is to be the Foundation and the only Foundation of our “Faith.”

“NOT OF YOURSELVES”

Paul clearly states that Salvation is a “Gift of God.” Man plays no part in Salvation except his expression of “Faith.” Man is spiritually and morally bankrupt. There is nothing that is good and worthy in us. We are poor, doomed sons and daughters of Adam who deserve the Wrath of just punishment by a Holy and Righteous Judge, but instead, we have been granted a reprieve through Jesus Christ.

Paul would boldly declare this in Ephesians 2:4-5: “But God, Who is rich in Mercy, for His great Love wherewith He loved us, even when we were dead in sins, has quickened us together with Christ, (by Grace you are Saved).”

“IT IS THE GIFT OF GOD”

The Greek actually says, “And this not out from you as a Source, of God it is a Gift.” That is, Salvation is a “Gift of God” and what a “Gift” it is.

No matter how wicked and sinful man may be, no matter how guilty and undeserving we are, the God of Glory has a free “Gift” for all who will accept.

“NOT OF WORKS”

This proclaims the fact that Salvation cannot be secured by any “works” of man. Paul would write in Romans 11:6: “And if by Grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise Grace is no more Grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more Grace: otherwise work is no more work.” All human “works” and efforts are excluded from the equation.

Man loves “works,” especially his good “works.” Man has been deluded in the belief that he can save himself. Even after one is Saved, the biggest battle of the soul is thinking that one can sanctify themselves through “works,” that is what the theme of Romans, Chapter 7 is about. Oh the folly of man who knows he can’t save himself, yet he thinks he can sanctify himself through “works.” It has been said that the definition of insanity is doing the same thing over and over expecting a different result each time. Yet, the Church is continually trying to perfect Sanctification by one’s own “works,” which is insanity when we have the Word of God “plainly telling us” it’s not of “works.”

"LEST ANY MAN SHOULD BOAST"

This statement presents the fact that while “Grace” glorifies God, “works” glorifies man. “Works” always produces self-righteousness. Boasting is a concept directly linked with ones understanding of himself and of God.

One should continually boast in the Lord. Boast of His Goodness, Grace, and Longsuffering, but never boasting in ourselves.

In conclusion, “Grace” is amazing, just as John Newton wrote it over 150 years ago.

FRANCES AND FRIENDS

Dear Sister Swaggart,

I just wanted to say how much I enjoy your show, Frances and Friends, as well as the Church Services. I am amazed at some of the questions that you receive, but more amazed at how you, Pastor Donnie, and guests answer them with much wisdom. I know God has put all of you on TV, and I have learned so much.

I am waiting to get myself The Expositor’s Study Bible. Pastor Jimmy shows how after each Scripture there is an explanation. That’s what I need.

Thank you all, and may God continue to bless this beautiful Ministry.

STANDING FOR JESUS CHRIST

Frances,

I love your program, Frances and Friends, and what I have learned from watching it. I have friends who watch it and they don’t like you naming people by name when you are talking about people like Rick Warren and others like him. They think that is judging and so they quit watching your program. But, I am glad you let me know who these FALSE teachers are! And I think it’s great for new Christians so they don’t get tangled up in these wrong teachings! Thank you and your panel for standing for Jesus Christ. Keep up the good work and God bless each of you.

I CANNOT PUT THIS BIBLE DOWN

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I just love watching your program every day. I teach Sunday School at the Church I attend, and use The Expositor’s Study Bible to study with during the week before I teach on Sunday’s. It really opens up my understanding and I cannot put this Bible down.

OREGON

I WAS BORN-AGAIN!

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I wanted to say thank you for putting a radio station over here in the Coachella Valley, which covers Southern California, cities such as Palm Springs, Coachella, etc. I am only 13 years old, and I used to be in the Catholic religion; lost, worshipping graven images, and putting my faith into other stuff when it should only be Jesus. But, when I heard Brother Donnie, I started to be an everyday listener and your radio station blessed me. I was Saved as soon as I heard what the Lord Jesus Christ did for us at Calvary and I was Born-Again! I also recently was baptized with the Holy Spirit! So I just wanted to thank you for your help, and because of that help, Jesus is in my heart 24/7.

God bless all of you over there in Jimmy Swaggart Ministries.

I MADE A COMMITMENT TO START GIVING

Dear Brother Donnie,

I watch you every day on the Internet, and I thank God for you and your boldness. Please never stop being bold, because nobody preaches like you.

I’ve been praying for Jimmy Swaggart Ministries that the Lord will bless you and keep you all strong and healthy and that the finances will always be there. I would not know what to do without it. I made a commitment to start giving $100 a month for 10 months because I want to be a part of what the Lord is doing in these last days.

SONLIFE BROADCASTING NETWORK IS ON DIRECTV®

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I have DirecTV®, and I turned it on and could not believe my eyes. SonLife Broadcasting Network was airing on there, and your program is on 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, praise God! I’ve been watching you preach since 1986, and I have always enjoyed listening to you preach and sing! But I can’t begin to tell you how thankful I am that SonLife Broadcasting Network is on DirecTV®, and I pray that it stays on a long time because I enjoy watching it everyday.

Thank you so much! God bless you.

IT IS SO GREAT TO HEAR THE GOSPEL ON TELEVISION AGAIN

Dear Brother Swaggart,

We’re just so blessed to have you on DirecTV® 24 hours a day, 7 days a week! We have you on all the time, and we leave it on all night. It is so great to hear the Gospel on television again. This is everything that we believe! All the programming is just great, so much teaching. People really are hungry for that, and you don’t find it very much anymore.

A CHRISTIAN CHANNEL THAT TELLS THE TRUTH

Dear Brother Swaggart,

We just got SonLife on DirecTV®, and I just happened to come across it. We turn it on in the morning, and leave it on until Donnie goes off at midnight. I can’t believe there is a Christian channel that tells the Truth, even though it might hurt sometimes, but this helps us in churches that don’t get the Word like it should be presented. It’s all because of what is going on with SonLife Broadcasting and the Message of the Cross. We will stick with you until the Lord calls us home. My Spirit bears witness with your Ministry. This is God’s Work, God’s Plan. I love my church, but it’s not what I see on SonLife Broadcasting. I really hope you folks know how much of a blessing you are to us out here in TV land. We sit in our homes and you will probably never see us or know who we are, but I can tell you that you have helped us more than you know. You really don’t know how much you mean to us. We love all of you, and pray for SonLife Broadcasting Network.

A BLESSING THAT I’M BARELY ABLE TO CONTAIN

Brother Swaggart,

Your preaching on the Cross and my use of your Expositor’s Study Bible has been a blessing that I’m barely able to contain. Thank you and may God’s Peace and Grace be with you always.

ONE OF THE BEST BIBLES FOR COMPUTERS

Brother Swaggart,

I know you know nothing about computers, so I feel I need to bring this to your attention. The Jimmy Swaggart E-Bible is one of the best tools in study I have ever used! How blessed I have been in using this tool. Thank you so much for offering this Bible, which is, in my opinion, one of the best Bibles for computers.

THE WORD OF GOD

Brother Donnie,

I just wanted to let you know how much I love and support your Ministry. My television is on your station 24/7. You’re under persecution, and that’s okay because that tells me you are on the road to Victory. Your viewing audience is getting larger because you are preaching and teaching the Cross of Christ and Him Crucified. Some people may not like what you are saying, but you are standing on the Word of God, and who can argue with that?! Keep up the good word work.

SO EXCITED ABOUT YOUR PROGRAM

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I am writing a short letter on behalf of my Mom who has been so excited about your program. She has been a Born-Again Christian for over 25 years, and felt like your Ministry has brought back so many feelings of what church used to be many years ago. She is glued to the TV praising and worshipping with all of you, and is inspired more and more by the preaching. God has been so good to us, and we thank Him greatly for all of our Blessings, especially the opportunity having you come into our home and minister to us. We can’t be more grateful for this Blessing.

THANKS FOR GIVING THE WORD OF GOD

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I greatly enjoy your Ministries. I just love that you are on 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. I am truly blessed by your program. Thanks for giving the Word of God and explaining the Word so it is easy to understand and believe. You have become like family to me, and I look forward to watching and listening each day.

PODCAST

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I am listening to a Podcast from my work place, as it’s the only way to get you during the week. I work in the basement of a hospital. I was very excited when you came on DirecTV®, as I live on a farm where cable is not available. God bless you, your Ministry is the only faith food we get in this area. We live in a very dead area, spiritually speaking. So thank you and my mighty God and Saviour for the gift of SonLife Broadcasting Network. My husband and I love you so very much. May God bless you and keep you until His glorious Return, which is right around the corner!

The Evangelist

“SPEAKING THE TRUTH IN LOVE”

Ephesians 4:15 – “But speaking the Truth in Love (powerfully proclaiming the Truth of the Cross, but always with Love), may grow up into Him in all things (proper Spiritual Growth can take place only according to proper Faith in the Cross [I Cor. 1:21, 23; 2:2]), which is the Head, even Christ (Christ is the Head of the Church, and is such by virtue of the Cross).”

THE FIVEFOLD MINISTRY

The Fivefold Ministry includes the Ministry of the Apostle, Prophet, Evangelist, Pastor, and Teacher. While some hold to the idea that the Pastor-Teacher is one, I would disagree. The Pastor must be able to teach but a Teacher need not be a Pastor. In any event, these five Ministries stand alone in the Word of God as the Spiritual Trainers of the Church. In other words, the job of the Fivefold Ministry is to proclaim the True Word of God to the Body of Christ. It is in this manner that the Body of Christ is edified. There is no mention of any other method. It is through the foolishness of preaching (proclamation) that the world will be Saved and that is also how the Saint shall be sanctified, made perfect, or mature! Once the Saint is maturing, he or she does the Work of the Ministry.

THE UNITY OF THE BRETHREN

According to the Apostle Paul, true unity is when the Body of Christ “speaks the same thing” (1 Cor. 1:10). The one message that all should be preaching is the Truth of the Cross! The understanding of what Jesus did at Calvary is required if one is to hold fast to “the Faith.” When we understand what to place our faith in (the Cross) then we grow in a personal experiential relationship with Christ. We actually come to know Him. This helps us grow into the fullest measure possible for us as human beings. Because we hear the Truth and embrace the Truth we won’t be blown around by every wind of doctrine. The church today seems to fail in picking up on the extreme danger and hazards of false doctrine. If we are wrong about the basic Tenants of the Faith, that is potentially lethal! And, in almost every case, false doctrine is promoted by men who desire to deceive the Body! They want to take the Body in the direction that benefits them (the false teacher) personally. Whether these preachers are operating in knowledge of their wrong or if they are deceived makes no difference. The end result is that death will come to those who follow their teachings. If you don’t preach the Cross, you preach death!

THE PROTECTION OF “THE LIE” BY A TRUTH

As a Christian, it is only natural, as a result of being truly Born-Again, that we have a desire to be kind to one another! But the deceivers have latched onto this concept and are using it as a covering by which their destructive teachings can be protected from scrutiny. They preach strongly that we should love one another. They say that any unkind action or attitude of one Christian towards another fails to show the Love of God. Therefore, they proclaim, we have no right to address the doctrines of another, we should just love everybody. Sadly, due to the natural Christian desire not to hurt another or be unkind to another, this lie has been swallowed by most Christians and the fruit of that lie is this. False doctrine is manipulating the Love of God in the heart of Christians to cover the lies of the false teachers! We are afraid to investigate and declare the teachings of another, lest we be declared as one who has not love. Let me ask these questions: Is it a true display of God’s Love when we fail to discern what is hurting the Body of Christ? Is it a true display of God’s Love when we allow “doctrines of devils” to be proclaimed and protected, even though it is destroying the Faith of Believers? Is it a true display of God’s Love when false preachers are making millions of dollars off of Believers, while feeding them lies that destroy their walk with God? Is it a true display of God’s Love when we stand by and say nothing to protect the brethren who are being destroyed by the Devil’s “ministers of light”? I say, “It is not.” If an ambassador from another country commits a crime in a country not his own, diplomatic immunity can save him from persecution. However, no preacher sent by self, others, or God should have the right of immunity, based upon the truth of love. False teachers and preachers are to be exposed because a Love for God and Truth reigns in the heart and mind of the Believer. It was David, the sweet Psalmist of Israel that said, “I hate every false way.”

EXPOSING THE FALSE TEACHER

There is a right way and a wrong way to carry out anything. When we speak the “Truth in Love,” Truth must be the motive. We should so love God’s Truth that the zeal for the Lord’s House doesn’t allow us to remain silent. Truth drives us to act. Love leads us into the action taken. I suppose we have all heard the Christian “trash talker.” The one who ridicules, berates, and makes fun of another who is off base or wrong. I choose not to use this approach. It is hard enough to admit that you are wrong without having to deal with personal insults to boot. Let’s not do this! Second, a person who is unwilling to stand firm, having no facts to support his claims, or having no backbone regarding opposition, will not get the job done. Therefore, give me a man who, after having studied the facts, hearing the untruth, and realizing the danger to the Body, stands under the Unction of the Holy Spirit and denounces publicly what has been proclaimed publicly. This man is hard on the false way, harder still towards those who refuse the rebuke, but is loving and kind towards all that repent of what they have once believed or what they have previously taught. He may, like Paul, need to name names at times. He may address specifics. He will, like Paul, spend the majority of time teaching the right way, which by nature opposes the false way. He will build the Body by “speaking the Truth in Love.” May God give us men and women who love us enough to be used in this way!

“WHAT A HEALING JESUS”

John 5:5-8 – “And a certain man was there (the healing of the impotent man contrasts the quickening Power of Christ with the powerlessness of the Law; it demanded strength on the part of the sinner in order to obtain the life it promised; but man is without strength [Rom. 5:6]), which had an infirmity thirty and eight years (a perfect type of Israel, which because of her sin was helpless, shut up in the desert for thirty-eight years; the similarity is not coincidental).

“When Jesus saw him lie (presents a picture of Israel of Jesus’ day but, as well, of all humanity), and knew that he had been now a long time in that case (once again speaks of Israel), He said unto him, Will you be made whole? (This must, beyond a doubt, be the greatest question of all time! Man is not ‘whole,’ and, in fact, cannot be ‘whole’ without Jesus. This is where the great contention is.)

“The impotent man answered Him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool (proclaims his dependence on man, which has brought nothing but disappointment); but while I am coming, another steps down before me (Love, no doubt, selected this man as being the most miserable, needy, and helpless in all that sad company; and wisdom chose him as a vessel of instruction to the Nation).

“Jesus said unto him, Rise, take up your bed, and walk (a single word from Christ sufficed)."

Can you imagine what it felt like that day in Jerusalem, so many years ago, to be sick, infirmed for much of, if not all, your life? Can you imagine being in an infirmary, with other sick and diseased people lying around you, where there seemed to be no help or cure for his or her situation? Imagine there being a pool of water, that when an Angel from Heaven came down to stir the waters, that the first one into those troubled waters would be healed of their malady. But, imagine yourself being that man who was infirmed for much of, if not all, his life, with no way to get to those troubled waters. Hopeless would be the order of the day, knowing that there was a way for healing, but no way to get to those troubled waters.

The man found in this text could have been the worst of the lot, the most miserable, needy, and helpless in all of this sad company. But, even as this man was the most miserable, needy, and helpless person in the lot, God would choose this man to teach the Nation of Israel a valuable lesson.

IS HEALING IN THE ATONEMENT?

I have been asked many times as to whether or not healing was in the Atonement, and the answer to that question simply is, “Yes, healing is in the Atonement.” I go back to this very statement made by Peter, found in I Peter 2:24, “Who His Own Self bear our sins in His Own Body on the tree (gave Himself in Sacrifice on the Cross, taking the full penalty for our sins, which was physical death; it was not Christ’s suffering that redeemed us, although that definitely was a part of what happened, but rather the price He paid by the giving of Himself), that we, being dead to sins, should live unto Righteousness (we are ‘dead to sins’ by virtue of us being ‘in Christ’ when He died on the Cross, which is done by our exhibiting Faith in Christ [Rom. 6:3-5]; and we were raised with Him in ‘Newness of Life,’ which guarantees us a perfect, spotless Righteousness); by Whose stripes you were healed. (This refers to the healing of our souls, and the healing of our physical body as well. The Atonement included everything man lost in the Fall, but we only have the Firstfruits now, with the balance coming at the Resurrection [Rom. 8:23].)”

I would like to reiterate what was stated in the above paragraph – the Atonement included everything that man lost in the Fall. When man fell, he fell from the high and lofty position of total God-consciousness, down to the far lower level of self-consciousness. And because of man’s Fall, sickness was brought into the world, both physically and more so Spiritually. Just like the man that had been infirmed for 38 years, man is infirmed spiritually, with no one to help him cure this malady. Mankind in general is sick, needy, and blind spiritually, with no way to get to God. Because of this man’s sickly condition, he could not get to Christ, and neither can man get to God, whose condition is bleak. So, God came down to us. God would become man, dwell in this sinful world, to do for us what we could not do for ourselves, redeem us.

MAN’S PROBLEM IS SPIRITUAL

You see, man’s problem is not physical, financial, or even educational, man’s problem is Spiritual. Man is a Spiritual being, and that is the part of man that is suffering and will always be unsatisfied without God. And as this man was not whole, man is not whole, and the only way for man to be whole is to return to his Creator. But, since man’s Fall was so awful, full of calamity, and so final, that even though God could speak worlds into existence, He could not speak Redemption into existence. He literally had to become man in order for man to be reunited with his Creator.

This man who was sick and infirmed, lay near this pool of Bethesda, which means “House of Grace of Mercy,” could not bring healing to his own body. But what he did not expect was to have the Creator of the worlds to stand before him, seeking him out, wanting to change his very life and living. Here is this man who could not get to God, so God came to him. I can sense the Presence of the Lord even as I type this. God came down to us with all of our inconsistencies, in all of our hopelessness, and in all of our sinfulness! Praise God! He came down to rescue man from the pitfalls of sin. He came to rescue man from the very clutches of Satan. He came to rescue man from the malady of spiritual sickness. And thank God He did! He did so by going to Calvary, by paying the ultimate price, which was the laying down of His Own Life, to satisfy the demands of a thrice-Holy God. Now, He did not die because of His sins, for He had never sinned, but rather for our sins. When you see Calvary, you will have to say, “My sins put Him there.” Our sins nailed Him to that Cross, but it was at the Cross that we, at least those who would believe, can be healed Spiritually from this sinful life.

“RISE, TAKE UP YOUR BED, AND WALK”

Not knowing who was standing before him, when asked “Will you be made whole?” the man answered accordingly, “Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool.” This man was looking for someone to physically place him into these healing waters, but with no hope whatsoever. His dependence was in man, which brought him nothing but heartache, pain, and disappointment. And when we look to man to solve our problems, we will leave disappointed. Sadly, the church today is looking to man to solve its problems. Much of the modern Youth Groups are looking to the things of this world to try and gain an audience. No wonder much of the church is in the condition that it’s in; man is being heralded as having the answer. Man does not have the answer, but Christ is the Answer!

As Christ spoke the worlds into existence, Christ speaks to this man, for there is no evidence that He touched this individual, and He gives this impotent man the greatest Word that could have ever been spoken, “Rise, take up your bed, and walk!” The Lord always picks man up. And not only does He pick man up, but He gives man a brand-new life. Not only was this man healed physically, but more importantly he was made whole Spiritually. You can be made whole today by believing in what Christ did at the Cross for you, and He will heal your life.

In Him,

Romans 1:14 – “I am debtor (true of every Believer) both to the Greeks, and to the Barbarians; both to the wise, and to the unwise (to all people, whomever they might be, and wherever they might be).”

The advent of the SonLife Broadcasting Network comes at a time when our world is in great turmoil. As I write this article I am observing the destabilization of various North African and Middle Eastern nations. In America we are witnessing a formidable schism amongst Christians by modern Zeitgeists, who mobilize their agenda by means of the secular media and church leadership organizations. The mantra of this paradigm shift is social justice through sacrificial service for “the cause.” Hordes of unsuspecting Christians are being supplanted through non-Biblical confrontational compromises and friendship with the world, from the Cross of Christ to pragmatic programs.

THE CROSS

For example, in recent Evangelist Magazine articles we exposed many of “The Hebraic Roots Movement” errors and modern-day Judaizers leading the church back into legalism and superstition. We are at a crossroad (pun intended) to either fully embrace the Cross of Jesus Christ as the answer to all of man’s problems or submit to unscriptural partnerships and false directions. The perceived common ground that associates Judaism and Christianity in this new paradigm is not so much their foundation, found in the Old Testament, but rather to alleviate human suffering. When the emphasis is on human suffering, in a physical realm, the focus becomes a collective society cooperating on an unstable foundation of human philosophy, where human reasoning precedes godly Wisdom and God's exclusive Message of Repentance from sin and acceptance of Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour.

THE GOSPEL

Paul, under the Inspiration of the Holy Spirit said he’s a debtor. He had, as we have, an obligation and duty to share the Gospel of Jesus Christ to everyone. Does our obligation extend to meeting the material needs of the world by the church participating with other faiths or secular organizations? No. In fact, the Bible speaks contrary to this thinking. The Bible says, “Friendship of the world is enmity with God” (James 4:4). The world system is not able to meet man’s true Spiritual needs. The Bible provides us the priority of man’s needs. Jesus said, “But seek you first the Kingdom of God, and His Righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you” (Mat. 6:33). God has only one way of Righteousness. Paul also said, “To declare, I say, at this time His Righteousness: that He might be just, and the Justifier of him who believes in Jesus” (Rom. 3:26). Our objective must be to present how people can be made righteous and, therefore, in “right” standing with God. Once justified the new Believer becomes a Child of God and an heir to all the Promises of God. Peter wrote, “According as His Divine Power has given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of Him Who has called us to Glory and Virtue” (II Pet. 1:3).

A SOCIAL GOSPEL?

I can think of many examples where American missionaries started out preaching the Gospel. However, they changed their emphasis from preaching to social welfare programs that left people worse off than when they found them -- case in point, Egypt and the Middle East. There was a time in Egypt when mentioning you were American would serve as a “passport to Egyptian kindness and confidence.” American printing presses rolled out four million textbooks on topics ranging from astronomy to dentistry, lithography to moral philosophy. During this time in the late Nineteenth Century the budget for missionary institutions in the Middle East expanded sevenfold. The missionaries’ efforts and contributions concentrated more on educational development rather than preaching the Gospel, due to a negligible number of converts. Frustrated by this opposition, some American missionaries became “modern missionaries,” a term invented by Howard Bliss. The objective was now to preach a “social gospel.” This enabled the new breed of modern missionaries to introduce Jesus Christ whenever possible, but without any emphasis on conversion. Bliss received acceptance from many Islamic clerics in Beirut, but was also unable to report many conversions.

GOSPEL LIGHT

The definition of the “modern missionary” meant that medical and educational institutions could expand, unfortunately, at the expense of evangelistic activities. Europe and America missed a golden opportunity to touch this predominantly Islamic part of the world. The Middle East nations and Fertile Crescent region, especially Egypt, had a chance to hear the Gospel, but our missionaries were too caught up on results instead of the message. Islam and dictators have reigned over the central part of the Earth leaving the majority of these people trapped in darkness. Nations with great natural resources remain undeveloped and poverty-stricken, because the Gospel alone brings Opportunity Abounds

Light. Will we keep the Gospel Light from those in darkness any longer?

CONSEQUENCES!

We are no better off today. The message of the modern church is designed to meet the felt needs of people first with hopes they’ll see the Love of Jesus and then accept Him. Instead of winning the lost the modern church is creating the next generation of welfare dependents. The foundation of the “social gospel” is socialism. The underlying goal of the modern church is to create a Christian society on Earth with the church serving the world to meet their needs. This concept is called Dominionism.

SonLife Broadcasting Network (SBN) has been raised up by God to preach the Gospel to the world and to teach the church how to live a victorious life over sin. God’s Message has never changed and neither has God’s Method of preaching. Modern technology enables us to do what the missionary church failed to do, preach the Gospel without compromise. The cost will never be cheaper, yet the consequences may never be greater.

At least hundreds and possibly thousands of books have been written on the Apostle Paul. This man under Christ, as no other, is the father of what we refer to as Western Civilization. He is the man to whom the Lord gave the meaning of the New Covenant, which, in effect, is the meaning of the Cross. As well, the Holy Spirit designated him as the “Masterbuilder of the Church.” In his fourteen Epistles, that is if he wrote the Book of Hebrews, which I believe he did, he gives us the all-important information not given anywhere else, as to how one lives for God. As it regards the Believer, there is nothing more important than that.

We have gone into some detail in this book dealing with the man, Paul, the Apostle. Who he was! What he did! But most of all, we have done our best to deal with the information the Lord gave him as it regards the meaning of the New Covenant. In studying the goodly number of books, which I perused, there was very little information given regarding this all-important aspect of this man’s life and Ministry. When we say that the Lord gave to Paul the meaning of the New Covenant, it is a statement that is so astounding it beggars all description. In fact, that was the greatest Word that God ever gave to any human being. Everything given before then, and I speak of the Prophets, etc., all were leading up to this which was ultimately given to Paul. Yet, we are given very little information as to how it was given, but rather what was given. We’ve done our best in this book to major on that all-important aspect of his life, living, and Ministry.

When we think of Paul presently, that is if we know anything about the Bible at all, we realize the greatness of this man. In fact, more than likely, he is eclipsed by no other personality in the Bible. I realize that’s a staggering statement, but I believe it to be true. Yet, during his life, he was given very little credit for that which the Lord accomplished through him. It has taken many centuries for it to come full flower.

If, in this book, we are able to help you go a little deeper into this man’s life, and most of all, to help you understand the tremendous Heavenly Vision that was afforded him, which means that you will understand what he taught a little better, then all the labor of putting this together will have been worthwhile.

I want you to be with him in his early days. I want you to experience his struggles and, as far as is possible, his great victories. If, when you get through reading this book, you understand the New Covenant to a greater degree, then the task will have been worthwhile.
This is, we think, the greatest Bible offer we have ever made.

With the purchase of any one of these Bibles, we are going to give you five DVD’s or CD’s of our choice. Now, please understand, these have to be our choice. These DVD’s or CD’s will be all Music, all Teaching, or a combination of Music and Preaching. As stated, this is the most phenomenal offer we have ever made. Getting $100 or more worth of CD’s or DVD’s at list price along with your purchase of one Bible is phenomenal to say the least. Whatever you do, I would urge you to take advantage of it.

We will guarantee different CD’s and DVD’s for up to three Bibles, which would total 15 of these items. Over that number, there will be some duplication as we do not have that many different titles in which we can send. So, for those of you who would order as many as ten Bibles, etc., you will receive some 50 CD’s or DVD’s. Take advantage of this most excellent offer.

Incidentally, this offer is good only through May 31, 2011.
given to this Ministry and, as well, we believe the items that you purchase such as Bibles, the Music, etc., are some of the finest of their kind. And, anyone who gives any kind of gift or purchases anything just mentioned from the Ministry, will get THE EVANGELIST Magazine free of charge each and every month. We believe this Magazine is one of the best of its kind in the world today. I think that most of you, who get it into your homes each month, think the same thing.

But, if we do not hear from you in any capacity, for a period of six months, your name is removed from the mailing list, which means that you will get THE EVANGELIST Magazine no more. So that means that your gift, whatever size it might be, or the items that you will purchase, will guarantee your continued receiving of THE EVANGELIST.

And, furthermore, if for whatever reason you have no money to send, and you cannot purchase anything for other reasons, and you still want to get THE EVANGELIST Magazine, just tell us so, and we’ll send it postage paid and free of charge to your door every month. But otherwise, your name will be deleted. And I don’t want that to happen, and I also don’t think you want that to happen.

Every time names are removed due to lack of activity for six months, we instantly get phone calls, “Why am I not continuing to receive THE EVANGELIST?” We are happy about that. We want you to understand the work of this particular Magazine. And, if you will do what we have requested, it will come to your home without charge each and every month.

THE EXPOSITOR’S STUDY BIBLE

THE EXPOSITOR’S STUDY BIBLE at this moment is pushing toward 800,000 copies sold, which means it’s selling better than ever. In fact, I’m praying that we will reach a million copies by January 1, 2012.

I personally believe, and with all my heart, that THE EXPOSITOR’S STUDY BIBLE is the Bible for this Age in time. You will learn more about the Cross of Christ, which is the single most important subject in the world, from this Bible than all other Study Bibles put together. I know that’s quite a statement, but it is true. Of course, we deal with everything the Scripture addresses, whether Prophecy, whether the Holy Spirit, whether Church Doctrine, and with explanation given regarding, “Jesus Christ and Him Crucified,” which in reality is the Story of the Bible, as in no other Study Bible, as stated.

If you don’t have a copy, I implore you to get one. If you do have a copy, then you know what I’m talking about, and I would urge you, even as hundreds, if not thousands, are doing, that you place one of these Bibles into the hands of every single solitary friend and loved one that you have. It would be the greatest favor that you ever did for them. Anything that can help anyone understand the Word of God a little better is worth its weight in gold, proverbs speaking.

THE SONLIFE BROADCASTING NETWORK

As you hold this Magazine in your hands, we should be going into nearly 70 million homes in America, England, Ireland, Mexico, and Central and South America. To take this “MESSAGE OF THE CROSS” to the world means that we are going on every Cable that will be made available to us in this country, as well as every other country, plus Satellites. In other words, we’re going into every home, heart, and life that is humanly possible to do so. We believe this is what the Lord has called us to do. THE MESSAGE OF THE CROSS is what the Holy Spirit is presently saying to the Churches. And, to be sure, the Lord is going to make this Message so crystal clear, that it will be impossible to ignore it. In other words, Believers will have to accept it or reject it.

THE MOST IMPORTANT THING IN THE WORLD

Please note the following very carefully:
- If THE MESSAGE OF THE CROSS is what the Holy Spirit is presently saying to the Churches;
- If a Move of God regarding the Salvation of souls, which has already begun, and will last for seven years or more, and will sweep hundreds of thousands, if not millions, into the Kingdom of God and will be, as it regards the Salvation of souls, we believe, the greatest Move of God ever;
- If this will be the last Move in this capacity, on a worldwide basis, before the coming Great Tribulation; and,
- If the Lord has called this Ministry to serve as a spearhead to take THE MESSAGE OF THE CROSS all over the world . . . then what is being done is the single most important thing presently on the face of the Earth. I realize that’s quite a statement, but I believe it to be true.

That means that those of you who hold this Magazine in your hands, and who love God, are involved in a Move of God unprecedented. Don’t take it lightly! Realize the tremendous privilege the Lord has given you.

BROTHER SWAGGART, “WHAT CAN I DO?”

There is a lot that you can do. Let me enumerate some of the ways:
- You can pray for us on a daily basis. We implore you; we ask you, we plead with you to do just that. Pray that we will do exactly what the Lord wants, no more, no less.
- Tell others about the SONLIFE BROADCASTING NETWORK. It just might be the greatest favor you ever did for them.
- Give of your financial resources as the Lord helps you to do so. I can say one thing about this. If, in fact, what the Lord is presently doing is the single most important thing on the face of the Earth, then I can guarantee that the Lord will bless your giving. And, when I speak of the most important thing, I’m not talking about us specifically, but rather the Message that we are to take to the world.
- And then, I need your Faith. I need for you to believe the things that we have said above. Your Faith is most important!

THE UPCOMING WORLD YOUTH CONFERENCE

The dates are July 20 through 24. Young people will be coming from all over the United States, Canada, and, in fact, other parts of the world. Please believe me; what is carried forth in these Conferences, with thousands of young people, and even an awful lot of grey heads like myself, constitutes Meetings unparalleled. Scores of young people give their hearts to Christ, with scores baptized with the Holy Spirit. As far as I know, there are no youth conventions anywhere in the world quite like this CROSSFIRE INTERNATIONAL YOUTH CONFERENCE.

The youth of this nation and the world are facing a crisis; sadly most of the stuff given to young people in most churches is not dealing with this crisis, but rather making it even worse. The only hope for the youth, or anybody else for that matter, is THE MESSAGE OF THE CROSS. Gabriel Swaggart is in charge of this Conference, and please believe me, he, plus the young men and young ladies around him, know this MESSAGE OF THE CROSS as few Preachers in the world. So, if you have sons or daughters or grandchildren, whatever you do, get them in this meeting.

For more information please call (225) 768-3072. Until next time . . .

In the Master’s Service, yours,

Jimmy Swaggart
Paul said in the first four Verses of the Seventh Chapter of Romans that we are married to Christ. That we are not being faithful to the Lord. Paul said in the first four Verses of the Seventh Chapter of Romans that we are married to Christ. As such, He is to meet our every need. He does that through the Cross, which demands our Faith. But when we ignore the Cross, thereby placing our faith in something else, even though the something else might be good in its own right, we are, in effect, committing spiritual adultery. That being the case, the Holy Spirit becomes greatly limited as to what He can do on our behalf. He loves us, and He will not depart, thank God, but, nevertheless, He is grieved, wounded, and actually hindered. In other words, He can only do a fraction for us as to what He could do if our faith was correct.

The way that I know that most of the modern Church is living under Law, and I’m speaking of those who are truly Born-Again, is because the Cross is not being preached. One would have to admit that the Apostle Paul preached the Cross (I Cor. 1:17-18, 21, 23; 2:2). In fact, Paul said to the Church at Corinth:

“For I determined not to know any thing among you (with purpose and design, Paul did not resort to the knowledge or philosophy of the world regarding the preaching of the Gospel), save Jesus Christ, and Him Crucified (that and that alone is the Message which will save the sinner, set the captive free, and give the Believer perpetual victory)” (I Cor. 2:2).

For the Believer to get out from under Law, which brings all type of problems, the Believer must, and without fail, place his Faith exclusively in the Cross of Christ, and then Law will be replaced with Grace. Living for the Lord then becomes the greatest life there could ever be. Truly, even as Peter said, it becomes “Joy unspeakable and full of glory.” This is the “more abundant Life,” of which Jesus spoke (Jn. 10:10). It then truly becomes what John Newton wrote about so long ago . . .

“Amazing Grace, how sweet the sound,
That Saved a wretch like me,
I once was lost, but now I’m found,
I was blind but now I see.”

(Steve Wilkins)

(The material on the subject of The Doctrine Of Grace was taken from the book, “BROTHER SWAGGART, HOW CAN I UNDERSTAND THE BIBLE”.)

THE PROTECTION OF YOUR ASSETS, YOUR FAMILY, YOUR FUTURE, AND THE WORK OF GOD

Many people have the mistaken idea that a will is the best legal instrument for the protection and designation of the distribution of their assets. However, by and large, that is incorrect. A will can be contested and is often changed by contentious parties. The very best legal instrument for this purpose is a Living Trust. Call us for further information.

WHAT IS A LIVING TRUST?

A Living Trust is a legal document to transfer all of your property, assets, cash, or whatever you desire from your individual name to the name of your Trust.

WHAT ARE THE ADVANTAGES OF A LIVING TRUST OVER A WILL AND OTHER LEGAL INSTRUMENTS?

1. A Living Trust is one of the very best ways provided by the United States’ tax laws to save on taxes.
2. You, the principal, have total control over your Living Trust, and you can change it as desired at any time.
3. A Living Trust can be secured regardless of your marital status or age.
4. A Living Trust is the best legal instrument to protect your family, to insure the distribution of your assets according to your desires, and to benefit the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Why not call our Planned Giving Department at (225) 768-3157 and ask for information concerning Living Trusts.

THE EVANGELIST

If you would like for any Christian friend (any number) living in the United States to receive this magazine (The Evangelist) each month, postage paid and free of charge, please send us their name (or names) and address (or addresses). We will begin their subscription immediately. If they live outside the United States, please contact our office for more information.
