THE COVER

May 2013 – Volume 47 – Number 5
“(When man fell, Creation fell! when man shall be delivered, Creation will be delivered, as well, and is expressed in the word “also”).’”

Some of the prognosticators do not speak very positively at all concerning the future of this Planet. Some claim that global warming is going to take a deadly toll. Others say that the opposite will happen, and I refer to another so-called Ice Age.

And then, we have the climate conditions, which, in the recent past, have been worse than have ever been recorded. While there have always been storms, tornadoes, earthquakes, etc., the frequency and ferocity of that, which is presently happening, has taken it to a new level.

What is happening?

The Apostle Paul, after a fashion, addressed this situation. He said:

THE EARNEST EXPECTATION OF THE CREATION

“For the earnest expectation of the creature (should have been translated, ‘for the earnest expectation of the Creation’) waits for the manifestation of the sons of God (pertains to the coming Resurrection of Life).

“For the creature (Creation) was made subject to vanity (Adam’s Fall signaled the fall of Creation), not willingly (the Creation did not sin, even as such cannot sin, but became subject to the result of sin, which is death), but by reason of Him Who has subjected the same in Hope (speaks of God as the One Who passed sentence because of Adam’s Fall but, at the same time, gave us a ‘Hope’; that ‘Hope’ is Christ, Who will rectify all things),

“Because the creature (Creation) itself also shall be delivered (presents this ‘Hope’ as effecting that Deliverance, which He did by the Cross) from the bondage of corruption (speaks of mortality, i.e., ‘death’) into the glorious liberty of the Children of God (when man fell, Creation fell! when man shall be delivered, Creation will be delivered, as well, and is expressed in the word ‘also’).”

THE GROANING OF CREATION

“For we know that the whole Creation (everything has been affected by Satan’s rebellion and Adam’s Fall) groans and travails in pain together until now (refers to the common longing of the elements of the Creation to be brought back to their original perfection).

WAITING FOR THE ADOPTION

“And not only they (the Creation and all it entails), but ourselves also (refers to Believers), who have the Firstfruits of the Spirit (even though Jesus addressed every single thing lost in the Fall at the Cross, we only have a part of that possession now, with the balance coming at the Resurrection), even we ourselves groan within ourselves (proclaims the obvious fact that all Jesus paid for in the Atonement has not yet been fully realized), waiting for the Adoption (should be translated, ‘waiting for the fulfillment of the process, which Adoption into the Family of God guarantees’), to wit, the Redemption of our body (the glorifying of our physical body that will take place at the Resurrection)” (Rom. 8:19-23).

TWO REASONS FOR THE CLIMATE DISTURBANCES

There are two major reasons, I believe, for the increase in climate disturbances, which have wreaked havoc over great parts of the Planet. It has nothing to do with El Nino or other similarities. The two reasons are “failure to preach the Cross” and “the last of the last days”:

FAILURE TO PREACH THE CROSS

The Cross of Christ is God’s Answer to the sin question, and God’s only Answer to the sin question. Paul wrote:

> “But this Man (this Priest, Christ Jesus), after He had offered One Sacrifice for sins forever (speaks of the Cross), sat down on the Right Hand of God (refers to the great contrast with the Priests under the Levitical system, who never sat down because their work was never completed; the Work of Christ was a ‘Finished Work,’ and needed no repetition);

> “From henceforth expecting till His enemies be made His Footstool. (These enemies are Satan and all fallen Angels and demon spirits, plus all who follow Satan)” (Heb. 10:12-13).

The major message preached by the Apostle Paul was the Cross (I Cor. 1:23). He was given the meaning of the New Covenant, which is the Cross of Christ, and was made the masterbuilder of the Church by the Holy Spirit. In other words, the Cross of Christ was the Foundation of all that he preached. If it’s not the foundation of all that we preach presently, then whatever it is we are preaching may be about the Gospel, but it’s really not the Gospel. Paul told us what the Gospel actually is by saying:

> “Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the Gospel: not with wisdom of words, lest the Cross of Christ should be made of none effect” (I Cor. 1:17).

My contention is, if preachers would once again begin to preach the Cross, which is the only thing that holds back the Judgment of God, this, I believe, would greatly lessen the climate disturbances. While it certainly would not end them altogether, I do believe it would have a very positive effect in the frequency and greatly lessen the climate disturbances. While it certainly would not end them altogether, I do believe it would have a very positive effect in the frequency and greatly lessen the climate disturbances. While it certainly would not end them altogether, I do believe it would have a very positive effect in the frequency and greatly lessen the climate disturbances. While it certainly would not end them altogether, I do believe it would have a very positive effect in the frequency and greatly lessen the climate disturbances. While it certainly would not end them altogether, I do believe it would have a very positive effect in the frequency and greatly lessen the climate disturbances.
“However, there is a transition between the Church Age and the coming Kingdom Age called the ‘Great Tribulation.’”

“So the LORD sent a pestilence upon Israel from the morning even until the time appointed: and there died of the people from Dan even to Beer-sheba seventy thousand men” (II Sam. 24:15). As would be obvious, this was a staggering number of men who died instantly, especially considering how small that Israel actually was.

Then the Scripture says, “And when the Angel stretched out his hand upon Jerusalem to destroy it, the LORD repented Him of the evil, and said to the Angel that destroyed the people, It is enough: stay now your hand. And the Angel of the LORD was by the threshingplace of Araunah the Jebusite” (II Sam. 24:16).

But then, the Lord sent Gad the Prophet to David:

“... and said unto him, Go up, rear an Altar unto the LORD in the threshingfloor of Araunah the Jebusite (the only answer for sin, and I mean the only answer, is the ‘Altar,’ i.e., ‘the Cross,’ of which the Altar was a Type)” (II Sam. 24:18).

And then the Scripture said:

“And David built there an Altar unto the LORD, and offered Burnt Offerings and Peace Offerings. So the LORD was intreated for the land, and the plague was stayed from Israel. (There is a ‘plague’ called ‘sin’ that is destroying this world and causing multiple hundreds of millions to be eternally lost. There’s only one cure for that plague, and that is the precious, atoning, Vicarious Offering of the Blood of the Lord Jesus Christ, which was done at the Cross, and our acceptance of Him. All the churches in the world will never stay the ‘plague.’ All the good works, good intentions, money, religion, prestige, or education will not stop this plague of sin. Only the precious Blood of Jesus Christ can, here symbolized by the ‘Altar’ – ‘and the plague was stayed’)” (II Sam. 24:25).

Let me say it again! If preachers would begin to preach the Cross, this “plague,” if not stopped altogether, would be seriously slowed in this nation, and even the entirety of the world.

Preach the Cross!

THE LAST OF THE LAST DAYS

We have already alluded to the following but please allow me to explain it further. When Adam fell in the Garden of Eden, the Creation, in some way, fell also. Of course, such is inanimate, but, still, it means that the Creation doesn’t function as God originally intended for it to function. That’s the reason for all the tornadoes, earthquakes, famines, droughts, hurricanes, etc. In a sense, all of this means that “… the whole Creation groans and travails in pain together until now” (Rom. 8:22). In the coming Kingdom Age when things will have been set right, there will be no more storms, earthquakes, hurricanes, etc.

The inclement weather patterns that the world is now experiencing, which means an increase, as previously stated, in frequency and intensity, is a sign that we are nearing the end.

This doesn’t mean the end of the world because the world will never end, but it does mean the end of the Church Age, which will usher in the coming Kingdom Age when Christ will rule Personally from Jerusalem. However, there is a transition between the Church Age and the coming Kingdom Age called the “Great Tribulation.” This period of time, which will run seven or more years, will experience a convulsion such as it has never known before in all of its history. As it regards this particular period of time, Jesus said:

“For then shall be great tribulation (the last three and one half years of the seven-year period), such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be (the worst the world has ever known, and will be so bad that it will never be repeated).

“And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved (refers to Israel coming close to extinction): but for the elect’s (Israel’s) sake those days shall be shortened (by the Second Coming)” (Mat. 24:21-22).

In fact, during the seven-year Great Tribulation, climate conditions are going to be worse than ever. There will be earthquakes that will be greater and more destructive than the world has ever previously known. Concerning this, the Scripture says:

“And I beheld when He (Christ) had opened the sixth Seal, and, lo, there was a great earthquake (the first of several); and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair (probably caused by dust filling the air due to the earthquake), and the moon became as blood (doesn’t mean the moon was actually turned to blood, but that it ‘became as blood,’ again, probably referring... The Scripture then says:

"And every mountain and island were moved out of their places." (Rev. 6:12-14).

The Lord Jesus Christ

"And the stars of Heaven fell unto the earth (refers to meteorites or shooting stars), even as a fig tree casts her untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind. (There will be a bombardment on the earth of these meteorites, which will cause untold damage.)

"And the Heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together (pertains to the shaking of the heavens, which instigates the meteorites); and every mountain and island were moved out of their places. (This proclaims power of unimagined proportions. The greater thrust will more than likely be in the Middle East)" (Rev. 6:12-14).

If it is to be remembered, our Lord predicted that earthquakes and other similar things would happen to a greater degree as the end approaches, and more particularly, in the coming Great Tribulation, as we’ve already noted (Lk. 21:11).
Daniel, the Prophet/Statesman, some 500 years before Christ, predicted that the Great Tribulation would last for seven years, with the last three and a half years being the worst. He said:

“And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate. (‘And he shall confirm,’ refers to the Antichrist. The phrase, ‘And in the midst of the week,’ refers to three and a half years, at which time the Antichrist will show his true colors and stop the sacrifices in the newly-built Temple. At that time, he will actually invade Israel, with her suffering her first military defeat since her formation as a Nation in 1948.

‘Even until the consummation,’ means until the end of the seven-year Great Tribulation period. The phrase, ‘And that determined shall be poured upon the desolate,’ refers to all the Prophecies being fulfilled regarding the great suffering that Israel will go through the last three and a half years of the Great Tribulation [Mat. 24:21-22])” (Dan. 9:27).

Israel’s Rejection of Christ

When Israel rejected Christ at His First Advent, this consigned the entirety of this Planet to now some 2,000 years of continued wars, troubles, and disturbances.

John the Baptist, who was the forerunner of Christ, actually, the one chosen to introduce Christ, and who was the first Prophet in Israel in some 400 years, began his ministry

“. . . preaching in the wilderness of Judaea;

“And saying, Repent you: for the Kingdom of Heaven (Kingdom from the Heavens, headed up by Jesus Christ) is at hand (was being offered to Israel).

“For this is he (John the Baptist) who was spoken of by the Prophet Isaiah, saying,

The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare you the Way of the LORD, make His Paths straight (Isa. 40:3)” (Mat. 3:1-3).

As stated, John preceded Christ by a few months. When Jesus came, His Message was basically the same:

“. . . Repent: for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand (the Kingdom from Heaven, headed up by Christ, for the purpose of reestablishing the Kingdom of God over the Earth; the Kingdom was rejected by Israel)” (Mat. 4:17).

In other words, the Kingdom was offered to Israel at that time, but Israel refused it. One must understand, to refuse the King, Who is the Lord Jesus Christ, is, at the same time, to refuse the Kingdom.

The Kingdom

Of course, it is a moot point; however, if Israel had accepted Him as their King, Messiah and Saviour, how would the Plan of Redemption have been carried out?

One must understand, if it was not possible to accept the Kingdom at that time, it would not have been offered to them by John the Baptist and, especially, by our Lord. Of course, the Lord knew through foreknowledge that Israel would reject Him and, thereby, reject the Kingdom.

To answer the question as it regards Redemption, which required the Cross, if Israel had accepted Him, to be sure, Rome was waiting in the wings, and in no way would they have tolerated another King. They would have crucified Him.

The point I wish to make is, when the Kingdom was offered to Israel, as it had to be because they were God’s Chosen People, their rejecting it plunged this Planet into a continuing time frame of trouble, war, and heartache that has now lasted for some 2,000 years. Jesus addressed this in His last Sermon, which was on the Mount of Olives that took place hours before His Crucifixion. Ironically enough, the Lord began His Ministry with a “Sermon on the Mount” (Mat., Chpt. 5), and closed it with a “Sermon on the Mount” (Mat., Chpt. 24). The first mountain was in Galilee, the second mountain, which was the Mount of Olives, was in Jerusalem.

Knowing that Israel had rejected Him, which means that they were, by and large, consigning themselves to destruction, He gave a kaleidoscopic account of what this rejection would mean as far as Israel was concerned, the Work of God was concerned, and this Planet was concerned. The Scripture says:

SIGNS OF THE ENDTIME

“And as He sat upon the Mount of Olives (the coming siege of Jerusalem by the Romans some thirty-seven years later, began at this exact spot where Christ was sitting), the Disciples came unto Him privately (out of earshot of the many Pilgrims in the city for the Passover), saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? (Has to do here with the utterance He had just given concerning the destruction of the Temple.) and what shall be the sign of Your Coming (refers to the Second Coming, which has not yet taken place), and of the end of the world? (Should have been translated ‘age,’ because the world will never end.)”

DECEPTION

“And Jesus answered and said unto them (will now give the future of Israel and how it will effect the entirety of the world), Take heed that no man deceive you (places deception as Satan’s greatest weapon).

“For many shall come in My Name (concerns itself primarily with the time immediately before the coming Great Tribulation, and especially its first half), saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many (the greatest of these will be the Antichrist, who will claim to be the Messiah).

“And you shall hear of wars and rumours of wars (has abounded from the beginning but will accelerate during the first half of the Great Tribulation): see that you be not troubled (concerns true Believers): for all these things must come to pass (we are very near presently to the beginning of fulfillment of what Jesus said, but the end is not yet (the end will be at the Second Coming).”

WARS AND GREAT TROUBLES

“For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places (few places in the world, if any, will be exempt from these Judgments).

“All these are the beginning of sorrows (first half of the Great Tribulation).

“Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you (pertain to the mid-point of the Great Tribulation when the Antichrist, whom Israel thought was the Messiah, will show his true colors): and you shall be hated of all nations for My Name’s sake (no nation will come to her rescue; Israel hates Christ, but Christ is the reason that the world hates Israel).

“And then shall be many be offended (some Jews will accept Christ, which will be an offense to others), and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another (the Jews who accept Christ will be the brunt of this animosity).”

FALSE PROPHETS

“And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many (they will help the Antichrist).

“And because iniquity shall abound (the Antichrist called ‘the man of sin’ [II Thess. 2:3]), the love of many shall wax cold (some who accept Christ will turn their backs on Him).

“But he who shall endure unto the end (refers to the end of the Great Tribulation), the same shall be saved (speaks of survival and not the Salvation of the soul).

“And this Gospel of the Kingdom (refers to the same type of Gospel preached by Christ and Paul) shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations (not every person, but to all nations; this is close presently to being fulfilled); and then shall the end come (the Second Coming)” (Mat. 24:3-14).

THE ABOMINATION OF DESOLATION

If it is to be noticed, this Olivet discourse has to do with Israel. So, in a sense, the Church is, by and large, omitted, with only the reference of the Gospel of the Kingdom being preached in all the world, etc. If it is to be remembered, the Disciples asked Him a question concerning the Endtime respecting Israel. At that time, they really had no knowledge of the Church. So, Jesus answered them according to what they had asked.

While He alluded to this now some 2,000-year span, it was only to mention the fact that wars would continue and great troubles and difficulties, etc. But most of His Statements concerned the coming Great Tribulation. In fact, He now goes to the mid-point of that coming terrible time and says:

“When you therefore shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the Prophet, stand in the Holy Place (speaks of the Antichrist invading Israel and taking over the Temple), (whoso reads, let him understand:) (Reads it in the Word of God [Dan. 8:9-14; 9:27; 11:45; 12:1, 7, 11].)

“Then let them who be in Judaea flee into the mountains (when the Antichrist invades Israel at the mid-point of the Great Tribulation):

“Let him who is on the housetop not come down to take any thing out of his house (houses are flat on top in that part of the world; during the summer, people often sleep on top of the house; speaks of the necessity of haste):

“Neither let him who is in the field return back to take his clothes.

“And woe unto them who are with child, and to them who give suck in those days! (The necessity of fleeing will be so urgent that it will be difficult for pregnant women and mothers with little babies.)

“But pray you that your flight be not in winter (bad weather), neither on the Sabbath Day (concerns the strict religious observance of the Sabbath, doesn’t permit travel):”

THE GREAT TRIBULATION

“For then shall be great tribulation (the last three and one half years), such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be (the worst the world has ever known and will be so bad that it will never be repeated).

“And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved (refers to Israel coming close to extinction): but for the elect’s (Israel’s) sake those days shall be shortened (by the Second Coming).

“Then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is Christ, or there; believe it not (don’t be deceived).

“For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets (the Antichrist and the false prophet [Rev., Chpt. 13]), and shall show great signs and wonders (which will be offered as proof); insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect (will attempt to deceive Israel).

“Behold, I have told you before (is meant to emphasize the seriousness of the matter).

“Wherefore if they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the secret chambers; believe it not (the next Verse will tell the manner of His Coming, which will eclipse all pretenders).

THE COMING OF THE SON OF MAN

“For as the lightning comes out of the east, and shines even unto the west (is meant to proclaim the most cataclysmic event the world has ever known); so shall also the coming of the Son of Man be (no one will have to ask, is this really Christ; it will be overly obvious).

“For wheresoever the carcase is (speaks of the Battle of Armageddon), there will the eagles be gathered together (should have been translated, ‘there will the vultures be gathered together’ [refers to Ezek. 39:17]).

“Immediately after the tribulation of those days (speaks of the time immediately preceding the Second Coming) shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light (the light of these orbs will be dim by comparison to the light of the Son of God), and the stars shall fall from Heaven (a display of heavenly fireworks at the Second Coming), and the powers of the Heavens shall be shaken (will work with the Son of God against the Antichrist at the Second Coming):

“And then shall appear the sign of the Son of Man in Heaven (pertains to the Second Coming, which will take place in the midst of these Earth and Heaven shaking events): and then shall all the tribes of the Earth mourn (concerns all the nations of the world, which possibly will see this phenomenon by television), and they shall see the Son of Man (denotes Christ and His Human, Glorified Body) coming in the clouds of Heaven with Power and great Glory (lends credence to the thought that much of the world will see Him by television as He makes His Descent).

“And He shall send His Angels (they will be visible) with a great sound of a trumpet (announcing the gathering of Israel), and they shall gather together His Elect (Israel) from the four winds, from one end of Heaven to the other (Jews will be gathered from all over the world and brought to Israel)” (Mat. 24:15-31).

Now the Lord gives us a clue as to when all of this is going to take place. He said:

(This message was derived from the book, “ARMAGEDDON”)
“Obedience Or Rebellion?” – Part II

Jesus Christ rejected any type of compromise with the systems of this world, religious or secular. In fact, He died at the hands of religious leaders, hardhearted and haughty men, vexed by His uncompromising Words. Christ, you see, knew them beyond their positions of leadership. “... For ye are like unto whited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness” (Mat. 23:27). Even some of His Own eventually left Him. John 6:66 says, “From that time many of His Disciples went back, and walked no more with Him.” Wow, Jesus' Message was too strong, even for some of those who had actually begun to walk with Him! But, they too became offended. At what point will you compromise?

MEN MUST COME TO THE END OF SELF

Christ’s Doctrine established that the Disciples, like all men, were sinners in need of a Saviour and that the One and only Saviour was Himself, “Jesus Christ.” This truth eventually alienated them, and it still alienates multitudes today. It requires humility, which, to a proud man, is humiliating. It annihilates all his self-importance and self-righteousness. Men must come to the end of “self” entirely. John 7:5 says that even his earthly family did not accept His Teaching: “For neither did His brethren believe in Him (had His mother, brothers, and sisters only come to Him as moral lepers for the cleansing of their sins, they would have learned Who and what He really was, for the knowledge of spiritual realities only reaches the soul through a sin-convicted heart and not through religious intellect).”¹ John 7:16 says, “Jesus answered them, and said, My Doctrine is not Mine but His Who sent Me.” Here, He was explaining that the Source of His message is not man, but God. In fact, Jesus claimed the Authority of the Father for everything He did. Of course, the religious leaders of Israel claimed the same, just in a very indirect way. They were essentially claiming that their man-made rules and regulations were from God. But regrettablly, even though these men were the religious leaders of Israel, they simply did not know the Word, and as a result they based everything they did on their own man-devised commandments, which they called “Oral Laws.”

MAN’S WAYS INSTEAD OF GOD’S WAYS!

Once again, nothing has changed today. Such practices are just as prominent today as they were in Israel during that time. They did not cease with the Pharisees, but continued right into the modern church. We employ man’s ways instead of God’s Ways. Men are still foolishly inventing their own methods of salvation, sanctification, and religious ceremony. For example, in Catholicism, church tradition such as is taught in the Catechism they say, is absolutely as important as anything the Bible says. Jesus, on the other hand, not only had the True Authority of God, but was able to anchor everything He said in the Scriptures. How often today do we hear some “preacher” say that, “you won’t find this in the Bible; this was given to me by revelation”? How often do we see the Purpose Driven and/or Seeker-Sensitive mentality surface, asserting that “we do not want the unchurched to feel uncomfortable so we give them their music and make sure we say nothing to offend them”? We must come to understand that when we hear such things, we are hearing man’s gospel and not the message of the Lord Jesus Christ. This is exactly why we have Hinduism, Islam, Buddhism, and all the other false religions. They do not believe in God’s Ways or His Word. Just as important are the false religions under the banner of Christianity such as Catholicism, Mormonism, and Jehovah’s Witness. There are even false religious systems within the Evangelical church, because any system based on “works” rather than “faith” does not line up with Scripture. Once again, Jesus rejected any kind of compromise, and He died at the hands of religious leaders! And His Disciples, who continued to stick with Him, followed the same narrow path. Where have we gotten the idea that it is not right to stand up to leadership when leadership is wrong? Certainly not from Jesus or his disciples! You may claim to follow Christ, but are you really just following religious leadership?

WE OUGHT TO OBEY GOD RATHER THAN MEN

When the High Priest complained that the Disciples had disobeyed public guidelines and “filled Jerusalem with their doctrine,” the Disciples plainly answered, “... We ought to obey God rather than men” (Acts 5:29). Indeed in the face of death, these men stood without wavering in direct opposition to the leadership of that day, and for that, they died horrific deaths. Yet, they were truly in the Will of God. Stephen, whose name means “crown” (Acts 6:8), was martyred because he faithfully preached the Gospel to those who had killed Jesus. He was true to his name’s meaning because he will receive a crown of life. “Fear none of those things which you shall suffer: behold, the Devil shall cast some of you into prison, that you may be tried; and you shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a Crown of life” (Rev. 2:10). Look at Acts 7:51: “You stiffnecked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, you do always resist the Holy Spirit; as your fathers did, so do you.” Continuing with Verses 52 and 53: “Which of the Prophets have not you persecuted? and they have slain them which showed before of the coming of the Just One; of Whom you have been now the betrayers and murderers: Who have received the Law by the disposition of Angels and have not kept it.”

THE GOSPEL OF CHRIST IS NOT A SEEKER-SENSITIVE MESSAGE

Now this was not a “seeker-sensitive” message, for Stephen refused to compromise for the sake of “felt needs.” Instead, he told them the truth to meet their real need! His message was truly of the Lord! Man’s need is first and foremost Spiritual. If you do not feed man’s spirit, you are not meeting his true need no matter what you claim. Sadly, in response to Stephen, the Bible says, “they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed on him with their teeth” (Vs. 54). They stopped up their ears, ran on him with one accord, cast him out of the city, and stoned him to death! Yet, Stephen, being a true follower of Christ and full of the true Love of Christ, spoke these last words, “... Lord, lay not this sin to their charge...” (Vs. 60). James, the elder brother of the Apostle John, was the first of the Twelve Apostles to be martyred. He was killed with the sword by Herod the King (this was Herod Agrippa, the son of Aristobulus, grandson of Herod the Great who murdered the babies of Bethlehem). Matthew, James (the less), Matthias, Andrew, Mark, and Peter (who chose to be crucified in an upside down position because he did not consider himself worthy to be crucified in the same way as Jesus) were also put to death for their uncompromising faith.

THE CATHOLIC SYSTEM

The Apostle John was arrested and sent to Rome where he was cast into a large vessel of boiling oil. Because it did not harm him, however, he was banished to the Isle of Patmos where, praise God, he wrote the Book of Revelation! He was the only Apostle to escape a violent death. In the first sixteen centuries all persecution and martyrdom was enforced by the secular world. Christians suffered greatly at the hands of the Roman Empire. But, it was not long before the religious world, the Church of Rome, discarded the truths of Scripture as well and took up the sword against all who opposed their false doctrines and traditions. The Roman Church had drifted away from Orthodox beliefs. It laid aside Christian doctrine to take up superstitious pagan doctrines that would be materially, physically, and socially beneficial to its clergy, not the laymen. These pagan doctrines gave religious leadership total domination in all church matters, and any who disagreed with them were branded as heretics. By decree, all heretics had to be brought into agreement with the church by whatever force necessary. If the heretic would not repent and swear allegiance to the Pope and his prelates, he would be executed.

THE REAL HERETICS

To justify their horrific crimes, they twisted Scripture. For instance, they appealed to Augustine who had interpreted Luke 14:23 as endorsing the use of force against heretics: “Then said the master to his servant, Go out into the highways and hedges and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled.” Clearly, this verse in no way advocated the execution (or mistreatment of any kind) of those who would choose not to become Believers, but man-made religion will do anything to justify its evil deeds. Also, keep in mind that these so-called “heretics” were not truly heretics. The real heretics were the religious leaders themselves because they were the ones whose false doctrine was deviating from Scripture. Of course, it is also true that false teachers, false preachers, and false religions have no problem changing Scripture to try to make it mean whatever they want it to mean. Whenever you see a “minister” change the meaning of Scripture to fit his own agenda, you need to get as far away from him as possible! Such evil is meant for your harm. The misuse of Scripture is always meant to control people, just as the Papal Church did to people centuries ago. When I say “Papal Church” or “Roman Church,” I am speaking of the Roman Catholic Church. For several centuries this church slaughtered thousands of true Believers in Christ, torturing and mutilating thousands more. This time in history came to be known as the “Dark Ages” because the Light of the True Gospel was nearly put out by false religious darkness and superstition.

THE LIGHT OF THE GOSPEL

The Waldenses and the Albigenses, therefore, became the main targets of the Inquisition throughout Europe. The Inquisition was the medieval church court appointed to prosecute those labeled as “heretics.” Pope Gregory ordered convicted heretics to be seized by the secular authorities and burned. Once again, these were really the true Christians who loved the Lord and had refused to bow to church authority. They had simply disavowed the errors and superstitions of the Papal Church. When the Light shines, spiritual darkness is exposed and, therefore, religion is exposed. Religion, therefore, finds it necessary to persecute the Light. Religion will accuse true Believers of the very evil they themselves are. Centuries ago, they labeled true and faithful believers “heretics.” Today, true Believers are beginning to be labeled “legalists,” “religious,” “judgmental,” “religious bigots,” “haters,” “Pharisees,” etc. Amazing how history is repeating itself once again.

WILLIAM TYNDALE

John Wycliffe, John Huss, Jerome of Prague, William Tyndale, John Frith, and Andrew Hewet also all picked up the torch and began to speak out and preach the True Gospel. They let the Light shine through the darkness despite the danger and accusations against them. And so many others that I cannot even name rebelled against the teaching of the Catholic Church, paying with their lives. William Tyndale was determined to put the Bible back into the hands of the common people. God stirred the heart of this man to translate the Bible into English for the benefit of the people in his country, and he did. And finally, a door of Light was opened in England which had been shut up in darkness for years. Instead of being obedient to the Pope, Tyndale was obedient to God. Because of his rebellion against the orders of the Pope, a whole nation was now able to read the Bible. So, the Catholic Church had indeed kept the Bible hidden from the common man for years, but William Tyndale, motivated and empowered by God, placed it back into their hands. And, for doing God’s Work, William Tyndale was tied to a stake, strangled by the hangman to the point of death, and then burned in the fire. His last words were “Lord! Open the King of England’s eyes.”

Matthew 21:1-10 – “And when they drew nigh unto Jerusalem (the last six days of the Lord’s earthly life began here), and were come to Bethphage (very near Jerusalem), unto the Mount of Olives, then sent Jesus two Disciples (tradition says that it was Peter and John), “Saying unto them, Go into the village over against you (probably refers to Bethphage), and straightway (immediately) you shall find an ass tied, and a colt with her: loose them, and bring them unto Me.

“And if any man say ought (anything) unto you, you shall say, The Lord has need of them; and straightway (immediately) he will send them.

“All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying,

“Tell ye the daughter of Sion, Behold, your king comes unto you, meek, and sitting upon an ass, and a colt the foal of an ass (Zech. 9:9).

“And the Disciples went, and did as Jesus commanded them,

“And brought the ass, and the colt, and put on them their clothes (a saddle of sorts), and they set Him thereon (He rode the colt, with the other one, its mother, following with its back also prepared for a rider, nevertheless absent, which served as a symbol of Israel which rejected Christ).

“And a very great multitude spread their garments in the way (concerned the thousands who were coming into Jerusalem to celebrate the three great Feast’s, ‘The Passover, Unleavened Bread, and First-fruits’; Christ would fulfill all three); others cut down branches from the trees, and strawed (scattered) them in the way (probably referred to palm fronds and branches from olive trees).

“And the multitudes that went before, and that followed (represents Israel before and the Church which followed), cried, saying, Hosanna to the Son of David (this was a Feast of Tabernacles expression, but premature): Blessed is He Who comes in the Name of the Lord; Hosanna in the highest (all of this was terminology by the people recognizing Him as the Messiah; but He was not recognized as such by the religious leaders of Israel).

“And when He was come into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying, Who is this? (‘Was moved’ refers to ‘quake’ as in an earthquake; thousands before and behind Him, were making the city ring with the great Salutation, ‘Hosanna in the Highest’.)

The time frame of the Text occurred during the last week of the Life of Jesus Christ before the Crucifixion. This event is known as “The Triumphal Entry”. Thousands had gathered in Jerusalem to celebrate the three great Feasts, “The Passover”, “Unleavened Bread”, and “First Fruits”.

There were seven Feasts ordained by God in the Mosaic Law. All seven portray Christ in the Type and Shadow. Let’s look at these seven Feasts and their meanings.

THE FEAST OF PASSOVER

“The Feast of Passover” portrays the death of Christ on Calvary’s Cross to atone for humanity’s sin. He would be the Lamb of God, who would give His Life in order to pay man’s debt of sin.

THE FEAST OF UNLEAVENED BREAD

“The Feast of Unleavened Bread” spoke of the Perfect
Sinless Body of Christ, which would serve as the Perfect Sacrifice, because it had never been tainted by sin. It also typified His Perfect, Sinless, and Spotless Life.

THE FEAST OF FIRST FRUITS

This feast portrays the Resurrection of Christ. His Resurrection would serve as the “Firstfruits” of the coming Resurrection of Life, referred to as the Rapture of the Church (I Thess. 4:16-17).

THE FEAST OF PENTECOST

Pentecost, which means fiftieth as it took place 50 days after the Passover, portrays Christ as the Baptizer of Believers in the Holy Spirit (Acts 1:4-5; 1:8; 2:1-4; Isaiah 28:11-12, Joel 2:28-29). It is interesting to note that on the very first Pentecost observed in the wilderness, 50 days after the first Passover in Egypt, 3,000 men were killed because of Israel’s sin with the golden calf (Ex. 32). But on the Day of Pentecost in Acts, Chapter 2, 3,000 men were saved.

THE FEAST OF TRUMPETS

This feast portrays all the events from the Rapture of the Church up and until the Second Coming. In Israel of old, there were two certain trumpet blasts used to call the people together for a united assembly (i.e., the Rapture when all the Saints will, at the sound of the Trump of God, assemble together in the clouds to meet the Lord), and the second blast was a call to war (the Battle of Armageddon, when all the Saints will come back to Earth with the Lord as a mighty army to defeat the Antichrist).

THE GREAT DAY OF ATONEMENT

This portrays the day when Israel will finally accept Christ as their true Messiah.

THE FEAST OF TABERNACLES

This refers to the coming Kingdom Age when Jesus Christ will set up His Throne in Jerusalem and rule in Righteousness and Holiness.

WHO IS THIS?

As the Lord was riding on the back of a donkey, Verse 10 says, “All the city was moved.” Picture the scene. Jerusalem was overflowing with thousands of people from all over the Roman Empire, shouting and exclaiming His praises. Many in the crowd had been healed through His Ministry, many had heard the Words of Life that fell from His Lips, and many, having heard of His mighty Acts, were eager to see just who this Man was.

The words, “was moved,” really mean “to quake,” as in an earthquake, as thousands upon thousands shouted “Hosanna in the Highest.”

Unfortunately, the attitude of the Pharisees was totally different. Their attitude was completely opposite of the people and their response was, “Behold the world is gone after him.” This proclaimed their opposition to the Lord; actually, they hated Him. Sad to say, nothing has changed. The Apostate Church, of which the Pharisees were a type, must always attempt to kill the True Church.

The question, “Who is this?” is the question of the Ages. How one answers this question determines where one will spend eternity – Heaven or Hell.

Islam and Hinduism proclaim Jesus Christ as just a Prophet, but not the Son of God. Mormons say Jesus was the first baby born to God in Heaven, and that He and Lucifer were brothers. Jehovah’s Witnesses say that Jesus was Michael the Archangel prior to coming to Earth. The list is endless as to who religions of the world say Jesus is, too much to go into detail.

However, it doesn’t matter who people say Jesus is. The only way to answer that question is to go to the Word of God. Here is Who the Bible says Jesus Christ is:

Jesus Christ is God!
In Genesis, He is the Creator.
In Exodus, He is the Deliverer.
In Leviticus, He is the Sacrifice.
In Numbers, He is the Sanctuary.
In Deuteronomy, He is the Word.
In Joshua, He is the Victory.
In Judges, He is the Righteous Judge.
In First and Second Samuel, He is the Anointed One.
In First and Second Kings, He is the King.

In Ezra, he is the Restoration.
In Nehemiah, He is the Wall.
In Esther, He is the Unseen but Guiding Hand.
In Job, He is our Sanctification.
In Psalms, He is our Song.
In Proverbs, He is Wisdom.
In Ecclesiastes, He is the Preacher.
In The Song of Solomon, He is the Virgin Born Son.
In Isaiah, He is “A Nail in a Sure Place.”
In Jeremiah, He is the Balm of Gilead.
In Lamentations, He is the Sorrowing Saviour.
In Ezekiel, He is the Wheel in the middle of the wheel.
In Daniel, He is the Fourth Man in the fiery furnace.
In Hosea, He is the Altar Call.
In Joel, He is the Promise of the Holy Spirit.
In Amos, He is Judgment.
In Obadiah, He is Vengeance.
In Jonah, He is the Presence of the Lord.

OVER-THE-AIR (DTV) TELEVISION

For those of you who are not familiar with digital television, these are free “old fashioned TV channels” that are able to be picked up with a digital tuner and antenna. Most new televisions are equipped with built-in digital tuners or you can purchase a tuner from your local electronics store (Best Buy®, Radio Shack®, etc.). As well, you can purchase the proper antenna at your local electronics store. Many viewers under the broadcast signal of the television station can use a small, digital antenna inside the home. For those on the outer edge of the signal or to receive the best signal, an outdoor antenna may be required. Both indoor and outdoor antennas are available for less than $50!

A MEDIA CHURCH, JUST WHAT I PRAYED FOR

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I have had hereditary neuropathy for 20 years now. Chronic pain is with me 24/7, but so is my Saviour Jesus Christ. I had to stop going to church about three years ago because I was unable to sit that long. After several months, visits and phone calls from my church family ceased. I prayed earnestly for contact with Believers. Then I found JSM, what a joy! I could not turn it off. A Media Church, just what I prayed for. I have been so blessed, uplifted, and once again reunited with Believers. I praise the Lord every day for you and I know that hundreds of thousands of “shut-ins” like me feel the same way. It is a Ministry forgotten by the church. If you are not seen in church every week, you are written off. As a former home health RN, I know how much a Media Church is needed. So many are bitter about their diseases, and need the Word. I believe the Lord for my healing and request prayer. I know, however, that finding JSM and The Expositor’s Study Bible is an answer to my prayers. God bless this Ministry and all of you!

I HAVE BEEN BAPTIZED IN THE HOLY SPIRIT AND DELIVERED FROM NICOTINE AND ANXIETY!

Dear Brother Swaggart,

Thanks to your programming and the SonLife Broadcasting Network, I have been baptized in the Holy Spirit and delivered from nicotine and anxiety! Thank you so much for keeping Faith alive, keep on preaching! Never give up! I love you guys so much.

WE SWITCHED TO SONLIFE BROADCASTING NETWORK

Dear Brother Swaggart,

My wife and I used to watch the other Christian stations, but we got nothing and felt nothing. So we switched to SonLife Broadcasting Network, and have for 6 months now tuned into your programming every day! I just want to tell you that we appreciate your Ministry.

God bless you all.

TEXAS

SONLIFE TV

Dear Brother Swaggart,

Thank you for SonLife Broadcasting Network in South Africa. I enjoy and get blessed by every program. I also enjoy The Expositor’s Study Bible. Sister Frances talked about watching TV shows on one of her programs. I was addicted to TV shows, and watched all kinds of junk every day. Since I have found SonLife Broadcasting Network I haven’t watched one movie or series show. It’s not a matter of right or wrong, but that SBN caters to all of my needs! I disconnected the Satellite TV, because all I need is SonLife TV!

YOUR EXPOSITOR’S STUDY BIBLE IS THE GREATEST STUDY TOOL

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I have been preaching for over 30 years now, and your Expositor’s Study Bible is the greatest study tool I have ever gotten my hands on. I wish I could have had it 30 years ago! God bless you Brother Swaggart, I have been following your Ministry since the Campmeeting Hour on the radio. I will always keep you and your family in my prayers.

LIKE A BIBLE COLLEGE

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I just want to thank you for the light you are shining in the world. I am a young minister, and as I was seeking the Lord for His Word, this topic of false doctrine and false witness came to my heart. The only question I can ask is, “What has the majority of the church world become?” Your Network is the only Christian Network I watch. I turned the channel to the other guys, and it did not take long at all to hear all of the lies they are teaching and preaching. I could go on and on, but I just want to thank you once again for your Ministry. You all have been like a Bible college to me. Keep me in your prayers, and God bless you all!

WE ORDER BIBLES EVERY MONTH

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I am from the American Samoan Islands, Pago Pago, near Fiji. This Ministry is such a blessing to us. We order Bibles every month, and it is our burden to buy these Expositor’s Study Bibles and give them to the Pastor’s throughout the islands.

EXPOSITOR’S NEW TESTAMENT

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I received my Expositor’s New Testament, and have enjoyed reading it. It helps me to understand God’s Word better. When I get started reading it, I don’t want to put it down! I have several different Study Bibles, but I believe this is the best ever.

Thank you for the godly Work that you and your Ministries do. God bless you all.

“HOW ABOUT YOUR HEART?”

Dear Brother Swaggart,

We received your “How About Your Heart?” CD yesterday. This is just the most worshipful CD I have heard in years and years. I think it will outshine the Living Waters before long! Thank you Brother Jimmy and staff who helped on this. It’s so good that I am trying to think of who I know that will want one so I can order them this CD!

JIMMY SWAGGART COMMENTARY ON ROMANS

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I recently purchased your Jimmy Swaggart Commentary on Romans. It has been nothing but a blessing in regards to my study of the Cross and my personal life. Especially, in regards to the sin nature! I can’t wait to increase my studies for use in my Ministry of the Cross!

TEXAS

THE PREACHING OF THE WORD OF GOD

I recently moved to Baton Rouge, and have been going to the Family Worship Center Services regularly. I just want to let Brother Jimmy know something; if I don’t, I’ll never be able to tell him this in person. But I am a 25 year old black female, and I still consider Brother Jimmy the grandfather I’ve always wanted! You guys at the Ministry have really become like a family to me. Even though we have never met, I still feel a bond because you have helped me so much in my walk with the Lord. My two natural grandfathers have really let me down in the past, but I feel that the preaching of the Word of God by Brother Swaggart has been such a blessing and has made up for the lack of teaching from my grandfathers. I love you all!

LOUISIANA

SONLIFE BROADCASTING NETWORK FROM SRI LANKA

Dear Sister Frances,

I have been watching SonLife Broadcasting Network from Sri Lanka, and it is a great a great blessing. The Lord opened up this door for me a few months ago. All of the programs that are aired are anointed by the Holy Spirit. Please convey to Reverend Swaggart that his teaching, preaching, and singing have been a great blessing. I learn a lot of new songs from his singing, and I purchased a Crossfire Edition of The Expositor’s Study Bible from your Ministry and am preaching the Message of the Cross in our church! Sister, your program, Frances and Friends is also a great blessing.

Thank you very much and God bless you all!

SRI LANKA

YOU WERE THE ONLY ONE WHO CARED ENOUGH TO HELP OUR SOULS

I want to personally thank Brother Swaggart for what he has done for me and hundreds of other GI’s in Vietnam. In 1969 we had been involved in fierce fighting, and when it was over we finally received some R&R in Saigon. I went into the USO club hoping to find some religious music. There was none anywhere around that could be found. I sat down and wrote to quartets, singers, and anyone else I could get addresses for that recorded Gospel music. I asked them for a donation to the USO club in Saigon, for the Military Personnel of any music they could send. Brother Swaggart, you were the ONLY one that sent any Gospel Recordings to us. You sent us 6 cases of LP’s, and you talk about a blessing! As we listened to those records I saw tears flowing down the faces of those men (mine too), and I want to thank you for that. You were the only one who cared enough to help our souls, and again I thank you.

GEORGIA

I PRAYED FOR AND RECEIVED THE BAPTISM IN THE HOLY SPIRIT AND BEGAN TO SPEAK IN TONGUES.

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I was introduced to SonLife Broadcasting Network about a month ago, and have been blessed so much. On Sunday during a morning Service, I prayed for and received the Baptism in the Holy Spirit and began to speak in Tongues. Praise the Lord, and God bless all of you!

MISSISSIPPI
“WHEN FAITH MEETS A PROMISE – GOD GIVES A MIRACLE”

Hebrews 11:6 – “But without Faith (in Christ and the Cross; anytime Faith is mentioned, always and without exception, its root meaning is that its Object is Christ and the Cross; otherwise, it is faith God will not accept) it is impossible to please Him (faith in anything other than Christ and the Cross greatly displeases the Lord): for he who comes to God must believe that He is (places Faith as the foundation and principle of the manner in which God deals with the human race), and that He (God) is a rewarader of them who diligently seek Him (seek Him on the premise of Christ and Him Crucified).”

Not too many days ago, on one of SonLife Broadcasting Network’s (SBN) monthly Share-a-thon’s, I was hosting my normal shift when a statement rose up out of my spirit. Without really thinking about it, I responded and spoke what was in my heart. As I made the statement, I felt sure it was of the Lord, even though I had never heard it before or even thought about it. I felt then and even now that it was something that the Holy Spirit gave me for the people on that day and in that hour. As I said it, I knew it was right, but I had never really thought about making the statement, it just flowed out of me to the people. The statement was this, “When Faith meets a Promise – God gives a Miracle.” The statement is a simple one and is intended to cause the hearer to rise up in Faith and grasp hold of the Promises of God.

FAITH

Much has been stated about faith in the last fifty years, much of it incorrect. The Believer is not in charge of his faith as some teach. Let me explain that statement. Jesus is the Author and Finisher of our Faith (Heb. 12:1). Faith doesn’t come by speaking, Faith cometh by hearing (Rom. 10:17). When the Spirit of God reveals to the Believer some truth, He also furnishes the Faith for us to believe. Now that person to whom that Word has been revealed must act on the Faith received. How do we do that, you may ask? By simply believing what was revealed. The action side of Faith is belief. No matter how long it takes, no matter what obstacles are in the way, no matter how fiercely the world, the flesh, or the Devil oppose the truth revealed, we as Believers are to refuse to yield to a state of unbelief. All of us, at times, may waver momentarily in regard to Faith, but if we hold fast to the Word revealed, we are operating in Faith. God is the Source of the Word, not us. In Isaiah 55:11 the Bible says, “So shall My Word be that goes forth out of My Mouth: it shall not return unto Me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.”

THE PROMISE

The Promises that God makes to humanity come in two basic formats (of course, no one can put God in a box, we use this for teaching purposes only):

1. The first form of Promises are made to all men, such as the Promise of Salvation. In Romans 10:13, the Bible says, “For whosoever shall call upon the Name of the Lord shall be Saved.” This is a Promise for all of humanity. It can only be claimed by Faith. When God reveals to the sinner that he is separated from Himself by sin, but that the solution that ends this separation from Him is to accept Christ as one’s personal Saviour, the one who receives this Spiritual Revelation is given the Faith to believe it. He now must express his reception of that newly received Faith by believing what was revealed. Again, believing is the action part of Faith. God’s Word revealed is the Promise. So when the believing sinner reaches out by Faith and accepts Christ, just as God has revealed Him, that individual experiences the Miracle of the New Birth. They instantly become “Born-Again,” “begotten from above,” “a new Creation in Christ Jesus.” So when Faith meets this Promise – God gives a Miracle.

2. The second form of Promise comes in the form of an individual Promise. This is a Promise that pertains, not to all men, but specifically to you, the Believer. At times, God will Speak to our hearts and tell us something that involves no one but us. He will never violate the Principles of His Written Word when this occurs, so know that if what was promised violates His Written Word in any way, you didn’t hear from God. But, if what was revealed lines up with the Written Word, we can at least approach the Promise made, the Revelation given, as that which comes from the Lord. We are not the initiators of the Promise, neither are we the author of this Promise. Our role is to hold fast to the Word given, that Promise made, by believing. Again, believing is the action part of Faith and is the responsibility that falls upon the one who has received the Revelation, the one who has been given the Promise.

THE MIRACLE

Anytime that God enters into the realm of humanity and interrupts the natural flow of events, a Miracle occurs. Miracles happen around us almost everyday, as God, Who is our Refuge, enters into this world dominated by the Evil One and interjects His Will in a situation. It may be as simple as God Moving upon the heart of someone whom He wants to help you in some measure. That person then responds to God’s Prompting and comes to your aid. That is a Miracle! God has interrupted the natural flow of fallen humanity and brought about His Will. It may be a much larger Miracle such as a healing for a body, a supernatural Operation of one of the Gifts of the Spirit, a financial crisis resolved, a relationship healed and restored. All these things are Miracles, we simply don’t acknowledge them as readily as we should. Large or small, whenever God interrupts the natural flow of Satan’s darkened sin benighted kingdom, a Miracle occurs. Let me give one personal example.

MY FAMILY

Most of you are acquainted with two of my four children, Joseph and Grace, who are a part of the music team here at Family Worship Center. My wife Hannah and I are blessed that all four of our children (Joy and Rachel are our other two girls) are serving the Lord. When Joseph was born, there was some concern about an irregular heartbeat. We did not have health insurance and had made provision for a simple delivery of the baby at a local hospital for a specific price. When these problems surfaced, our previous financial plan was eliminated and after three days of intense tests, no problem was found. They sent us home with a bouncing baby boy and a $17,700 hospital bill. It might has well have been 17 million as far as we were concerned. To be honest with you, I got a little irritated with the Lord. “God,” I thought to myself, “You could have done this differently. I don’t understand why you’ve allowed this?” My pity party continued. A few days later, Brother Donnie Swaggart was preaching in the College chapel. My mind was wrapped up in all the trouble I was facing and my attitude was poor. In His message, Brother Donnie mentioned Joseph (referring to the Biblical son of Jacob) in his message. It was not the focus of his message, he just mentioned this Bible character in passing. The moment Donnie said the name Joseph, God gave me this Word that was directed to me about my son. He said, “He shall be like Joseph of old. I will position him to bring bread to his people in a time of famine.” My spirit soared. The problems were still there. The issues were still there. But God had just given me a Word. He was going to use my Son in His Kingdom! I didn’t care about the bill any longer. Faith rose up in my heart and joy filled my soul. Time and space do not allow the telling of this story in its totality but you should know that God Moved on my behalf and eliminated the entire hospital bill. Today, every time Joseph steps out on the platform of Family Worship Center and ministers in song, I see a partial fulfillment of the Promise God has made me. Whenever I have had reason to doubt that Joseph (or any other child of mine might not fulfill the Will of God) my mind goes back to the specific Promises that God has made to me concerning them, and as my Faith, once again, “shakes hands” with His Promise, God continues to give me a Miracle. What has God Promised you? Believe Him and you will experience the miraculous!

Judges 6:27-28 – “Then Gideon took ten men of his servants, and did as the LORD had said unto him: and so it was, because he feared his father’s household, and the men of the city, that he could not do it by day, that he did it by night (men grow angry when their idols are touched, and religious men most of all).

“And when the men of the city arose early in the morning, behold, the altar of Baal was cast down, and the grove was cut down that was by it, and the second bullock was offered upon the Altar that was built (the Altar to the Lord).”

As we continue looking at the life and Calling of Gideon, we find that he was more than likely the only one in his family who served God. His father worshipped Baal, as well as the rest of his family. Baal worship consisted of the most vulgar, lewd, sexually explicit actions that one could imagine. The family of Gideon came from the Tribe of Manasseh, and yet they had reduced themselves to worshipping Baal. How could this be? They were of the Tribe of Manasseh, one of the Twelve Tribes of Israel, so how could they resort to living and worshipping a man-made god? God had made a Covenant with the People of Israel, but they had rejected this Covenant, which resulted in the spiritual declension of these Tribes.

Even though his own family had resorted to Baal worship, Gideon was instructed by the Lord to tear down the altars of Baal, and to build an Altar where the altar of Baal had been. This took some guts. Once again, we must understand that Gideon was more than likely the only one in his family who worshipped Jehovah, the One, True God. Most in the modern church today would strongly urge against one tearing down the altars of Baal. Instead, they would tell them that they can co-exist with the altar of Baal. What do I mean by this? If a person that is living a life outside of God, and participating in a lifestyle that is not pleasing to the Lord, if that person comes to Christ, most in the Church would tell that individual that they can remain in that lifestyle, for that could be their ministry. They do not have to leave that lifestyle, but they can continue to do what they were doing, all in the belief that you can reach others for Christ. Plainly put, it’s like telling an alcoholic that now you are Saved, you can continue to go to the bars, drink all of the alcohol you want, and witness to people while you are there. You can see how foolish that belief is, but yet, it’s prevalent in our Churches across the Country.

GOD AND BAAL CANNOT CO-EXIST

We must remember that when Jesus Saved us, He Saved us out of sin, and not in sin, meaning that Jesus did not pay a Great Price for us to continue to engage in the lifestyle that we were in before Salvation. He died for us to remove us from that lifestyle, to bring us out of that lifestyle, and place us into a new belief system. He died so that we can be Victorious over the world, the flesh, and the Devil, and to stand above the giants in our lives, free from the powers of sin. He paid a Great Price to Redeem us, and does not want us to go back into that old way of living.

GIDEON FOLLOWS THE INSTRUCTION OF THE LORD

As Gideon followed the instruction of the Lord, to tear down the altars of Baal, and to build an Altar that typified Calvary, we are doing the same thing today. Christ is ever taking the Church back to Calvary. He is forever pointing His Church back to the Cross, for this is what the Altar represented. Ever since the Fall of Man, there was always a way for man to have fellowship with God, and that is through the Sacrificial system. The Cross was ever in the Mind of God, even “before the foundation of the world” was even laid (I Pet. 1:20), it was ever the place where man can be reconciled back unto God. If someone says that we preach too much on the Cross, my answer will always be, no, we are not preaching enough on the Cross! It is through the Sacrifice of Christ that allows the Holy Spirit to Work in the lives of all who place their Trust in Him, to guarantee them that “sin shall not have dominion over you” (Rom. 6:14).

However, when this happened, the people in the city, when awakened to start their day, noticed that their altars that they had built for Baal had been cast down. This made them grow angry. Man grows angry when anyone tries to tell them that their works cannot save or sanctify them. Man grows angry when confronted with the fact that their altars, that they have erected themselves, cannot work. Man grows angry when you tell them that the only Way that will Work is not a work of their hands, but the Work of Christ on the Cross. Without proper leadership, the people will always turn away from God. This altar of Baal was built in the home of Gideon’s father’s house. “Judgment must first begin at the House of God,” and before Gideon could lead the people into the destructions of their own idols, his at first must be destroyed. Before Moses could lead the Children of Israel out of bondage, he first had to be delivered.

RELIGION EVER MAKES OTHER WAYS TO GET TO GOD

Many will think that this does not happen too much today. In fact, it’s worse today than ever before. Those who follow idolatry, even in the Church today, will always respond in the same way as these men did to Gideon. Religious man has ever tried to make another way to get to God. With each new month that passes, it seems that much of the Church world is always advertising a brand-new thing, something that is supposed to help the People of God draw closer to Him, when in actuality, all it does is bring about death, Hell, and destruction. Isaiah had prophesied to the people of Jerusalem, that they had “made a covenant with death and with Hell” (Is. 28:15). That’s strong, but it’s the truth. When a person removes the people from Faith in Christ and the Cross, to something else, then they have made a covenant with death and Hell. It sickens me when I hear of Youth Groups resorting to all sorts of different schemes to try and bring the youth in. They will resort to things such as the “Harlem Shake,” and others to win the youth. However, I would like someone to answer me this, has anyone ever been Saved doing the “Harlem Shake?” The answer is no, and there will never be a person that will be Saved to that. There is only One Way of Salvation, the Cross of Christ. Youth Pastors, the Cross is the Only Answer for the Youth. It is the Only Answer for the teenagers that are struggling with suicidal thoughts. It is the Only Answer to those young people that are battling addictions. Nothing else can do, only the Cross, only the Blood, only Christ can bring that soul from Hell, and give them a new address, one that is now in Heaven. We need to tear down the altar of Baal that is in the Church today, remove it, and rebuild the Altar once again, which will lead the people to the very Throne Room of God.

In Him,

Pastor Gabe

Are there really only a handful of radicals that have hijacked the religion of Islam? Or, is it that the religion itself is radical and hijacks the people? The Qur’an makes it clear that Muslims have a duty to fight for the cause of Islam, and its god, Allah. In the Qur’an, Sura (chapter) 9, Ayat (verse) 44:

“Those who believe in Allah and the Last Day ask for no exemption from fighting with their goods and persons. And Allah knows well those who do their duty.”

The call and duty is for Islamic followers to fight with their goods and their bodies. Who are they to fight? The Qur’an tells its adherents in Sura 9:29:

“Fight those who do not believe in Allah nor the Last Day, nor hold that forbidden which has been forbidden by Allah and his messenger, nor acknowledge the religion of truth, even if they are people of the book, until they pay Jizya with willing submission, and feel themselves subdued.”

The next question we should ask is, “Where should Muslims fight what they call unbelievers?” In Sura 9:5:

“...fight and slay the Pagans wherever you find them, seize them, beleaguer them, and lie in wait for them in every stratagem of war...”

How long should Muslims fight and carry out the mandate of jihad? In Sura 8:39:

“And fight them until there is no more tumult or oppression, and there prevail justice and faith in Allah altogether and everywhere...”

There should be no doubt that the goal of the Islamic religion is to subdue all peoples of the world to the submission of Islam. The Umma (community) of Islam is to prevail “everywhere.” The world is to be made, Dar al Islam (The Land is Islam), according to the teachings of Allah, as given to his Prophet Muhammad. Every good Muslim will participate with their “goods” or “person” to accomplish this goal.

AMERICAN HISTORY

America has always struggled against the barbaric religion of Islam from our origins as a nation. Our leaders in politics, education, and religion recognized the archaic ways of Islam; and the need to fight against the Barbary Pirates with power and force, with one goal in mind afterwards, to open the door for the Gospel to be preached! On the other hand many felt compelled to destroy the followers of Muhammad.

George Washington felt “the highest disgrace” in seeing America “become tributary to such banditti who might for half the sum that is paid them be exterminated from the earth.” Washington said to his former comrade-in-arms Lafayette, “would to Heaven we had a navy to reform those enemies of mankind, or crush them into nonexistence.”

Thomas Jefferson was dismayed with Islam and its kidnapping of our mercantilists and asking for ransom costing our new country 1/5 of our Gross Domestic Product (GDP is a calculation of everything we produce) that in December 1790 he recommended America to go to war. Instead the then Secretary of State was instrumental to pay the ransom instead of considering the call to war.

Early American religious tolerance did not extend itself to Islam. It was scarcely considered a religion at all by prominent colonial theologians such as Cotton Mather and Jonathan Edwards who regularly denounced Islam as a false and morally degenerate faith. Muhammad, according to Harvard president, Samuel Langdon, was a counterfeit prophet, and worse, “an emissary of Satan.”

Early translations of the Qur’an, and descriptive books, were written about Islam with one goal in mind, as George Sales summed up after completing his 1734 version of the Qur’an, “to attack the Koran with success” and hoped that “for them... Providence has reserved the glory of its overthrow.” Alcoran of Alexander Ross, published in 1649, set out to expose the “contradictions, blasphemies, obscene speeches, and ridiculous fables” in the book, so that the Christian Protestants “so viewing thine enemies in their full body... maist the better... overcome them.” Increase Mather, Harvard’s first president, called for the destruction of the Ottoman Empire to make way for the Jews’ return.

Today our prestigious Universities are manipulated by gifts from Saudi Princes to subvert Americans with a revised historical past that glorifies Islam instead of detailing its grotesque past. The cry for “seek common ground” is the mantra of so-called Christian leaders like Rick Warren; who spoke at a meeting of the Islamic Society of North America, an organization that supports Islamic terrorists like the Hamas and Muslim Brotherhood.

ISLAMIC CALL TO WAR

Qur’an (9:73) – “O Prophet! strive hard against the unbelievers and the hypocrites and be unyielding to them; and their abode is Hell, and evil is the destination.”

Qur’an (9:14) – “Fight them, Allah will punish them by your hands and bring them to disgrace...”

Qur’an (8:59-60) – “And let not those who disbelieve suppose...”
that they can outstrip (Allah’s Purpose). Lo! they cannot escape. Make ready for them all thou canst of (armed) force and of horses tethered, that thereby ye may dismay the enemy of Allah and your enemy.”

Qur’an (8:12) – “I will cast terror into the hearts of those who disbelieve. Therefore strike off their heads and strike off every fingertip of them.”

Qur’an (4:76) – “Those who believe fight in the cause of Allah. . . .”

Qur’an (3:56) – “As to those who reject faith, I will punish them with terrible agony in this world and in the Hereafter, nor will they have anyone to help.”

Qur’an (9:123) – “O you who believe! fight those of the unbelievers who are near to you and let them find in you hardness.”

Qur’an (47:35) – “Be not weary and faint-hearted, crying for peace, when ye should be uppermost (Shakir: ‘have the upper hand’) for Allah is with you.”

Our Government and our leaders need our prayers now more than ever. Their favorable attitude towards Islam, almost makes them their bias complicit to future acts of Islamic terrorism against the USA.

As recent as 2006, former top Pentagon official William Gawthrop lamented that “the senior Service colleges of the Department of Defense had not incorporated into their curriculum a systematic study of Muhammad as a military or political leader. As a consequence, we still do not have an in-deep understanding of the war-fighting doctrine laid down by Muhammad, how it might be applied today by an increasing number of Islamic groups, or how it might be countered.”

UNPREPARED FOR WAR

Sun Tzu’s ancient dictum, “know thy enemy” is void from our Military schools when it comes to Islam. Classical theories such as Clausewitz, Sun Tzu, Machiavelli, etc. are studied but are very impractical compared to today’s complex military landscape of warfare and diplomacy. These outdated and former strategies cannot be called upon to gain advantage in modern warfare. Unlike Islam they also lack a driving motivational force for perpetual relevancy, religious conquest. Islam has a theological quality that claims its precepts transcend time and space. The example of Muhammad, and Islamic Doctrines, are immutable to Muslims and are just as applicable to Muslims today as yesterday. Jihad is as real today as it was when Muhammad claimed to receive revelations from his god Allah to, “fight and slay the pagans wherever you find them. . . .” Islamic Jihad is more real today in this generation than any other time in history since its beginnings. The means of modern communication and oil money have done more to advance the Islamic goals of creating a world Islamic kingdom.

ISLAMIC GOAL

Within the call to Jihad is the understanding of all Muslims to know it is their responsibility to form a world Islamic Umma, community. Islamic nations throughout the world call their land a land of Islam, Dar al Islam. The eternal doctrine of war in Islam must continue until all nations submit to Islam. These unconquered lands are called an abode of war or Dar al Harb. The Islamic “world view” is known as “fard kifaya.” There are several strategies used in the war of Jihad. Most of these strategies involve negotiating techniques that are set with the intention to deceive.

Sahih al-Bukhari Volume 4, Book 52, Number 269: Narrated Jabir bin ‘Abdullah: The Prophet said:

“War is deceit.”

The strategy of “HUDNA” is explained in Sahih Muslim’s Hadith 15:4057:

“Allah’s Messenger [Muhammad] said: ‘He who takes an oath but eventually finds a better way should do that which is better and break his oath.’”

Muhammad used this approach to gain access back into Mecca by promising he would not come in war but only to worship at the Kabah. A truce was established between the Meccans and Muhammad and his followers at a town outside of Mecca called Hudaiibiyah; only until he gained enough power to come into Mecca and take it over. He then “cleansed” the Kabah of all other idols, except for his god Allah. This was the same technique Yasser Arafat utilized when negotiating with Israel. On television, seen throughout the world, he would speak of peace; such was the case in his famous “Gun and the Olive Branch” 1973 speech at the United Nations. In his secretly recorded 1994 speech in a Johannesburg mosque and elsewhere, Arafat repeatedly belittled Oslo as a mere Hudna, and cited the precedent set by Muhammad.

Incorporated within the idea of Hudna is the strategy of al-Taqiyya, lying. In order to maximize the benefit of a Hudna lying is permissible in Islam. Al-Taqiyya permits a Muslim to lie and dissemble whenever they are under the authority of the infidel. The Qur’an in verse 16:106 says:

“Whoso disbelieveth in Allah after his belief save him who is forced thereto and whose heart is still content with the Faith but whoso findeth ease in disbelief: On them is wrath from Allah. Theirs will be an awful doom.”

In other words, Allah will forgive a Muslim who converts to another faith as long as he/she is only pretending.

How should our Military view interrogating Muslim Islamic terrorists? Hardened Jihadists are willing to die for the cause of Allah. Therefore, any information that can be obtained from them is at best questionable. Likewise though, the Bible does give us some wisdom when dealing with evil. Solomon said:

“Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil.”

The years of holding captured terrorists in Guantanamo Bay has not helped our cause. Understand, it is not the place, but the length of time we’ve held the terrorists in custody. Our Islamic terrorist enemy knows how slow we are to bring them through our justice system. Notwithstanding, giving them the Miranda rights of American citizens? What courage we give our enemy to know that we will make them comfortable, allow them to practice their faith – the one that kills us – and give them American attorneys bound by American Constitutional law to assist them in our Courts?

Instead of sending Islamic nations the Gospel we send them weapons? The Middle Eastern nations of the world are buying American weapons. One example is Saudi Arabia, the country in which Islam was founded, spends 18% of its GDP (everything produced) on military expenditures, according to the US State Department, World Military and Arms Expenditures.

Join with me in prayer for our nation, because these weapons maybe the ones used during the time of Tribulation, in Satan’s efforts to annihilate Israel with the help of the Islamic nations of the world united with him (Ps. 83).

DO YOU HAVE THE NEW BOOK?

I’m speaking of the new book entitled, “GREAT WOMEN OF THE BIBLE – OLD TESTAMENT”. When you begin to read this book, and some of you already have it and I believe you will agree with me, you are going to see the tremendous contribution that women have made to the great Work of God from the very beginning. In fact, the very first person to be Saved as the Gospel pushed westward and finally to the United States, was a woman named Lydia, who was Saved under the Apostle Paul. In fact, the Church in Philippi, because that’s where she resided, was first ensconced in her house. So she had the privilege of being the first convert, and she had the privilege of being the First Church. What an honor!

We are offering this book, which is hardcover and over four hundred pages, at an introductory price of just $20 dollars (0513J). That’s $10 below the retail price. I would pray that you would take advantage of it.

FAMILY WORSHIP CENTER MEDIA CHURCH

How so grateful, how so thankful we are for the hundreds and hundreds, even thousands of you who are members of FAMILY WORSHIP CENTER MEDIA CHURCH. As most of you know, every Sunday morning Frances, Donnie, and Gabriel read the names of those who have become members of the Media Church. We only call the first name and the State in which the person lives or the country. We don’t want to identify more than that so we can protect your privacy. That’s the reason that we do it as we do.

Some may ask as to the requirements for becoming a member of FAMILY WORSHIP CENTER MEDIA CHURCH. Actually, there is only one requirement, and that is to be Born-Again.

Yes, we encourage you to pay your tithe to FAMILY WORSHIP CENTER, and simply because that’s where you’re getting most, if not all, of your Spiritual Nourishment. So our giving belongs to that which feeds us. But we leave that up to you and the Lord. A letter will never come from this office chiding you because you haven’t given the past month, etc. We don’t do things like that. Yes, we want your financial support, and we need your financial support that we may continue coming into your home, your heart, and your lives twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week. But once again, we leave this up to you and the Lord. To sign up go to www.jsm.org or call the office.

A BRAND-NEW LITTLE GREAT GRANDSON

His name is Harrison Brooks Mullis, and we are immensely proud of him as would be obvious. He was born to Jennifer and Cliff Mullis. As most of you know, Jennifer is our granddaughter. This is their second little one, the first one being a little girl, Harper. That makes six great grandchildren, and we’re looking for one more at least. Until you reach our age, and I speak of Frances and myself, you don’t really know how important these little ones really are. The six we have are such a joy to us. Watching them grow up, watching them learn the Ways of the Lord is the greatest thing in the world.

A BIRTHDAY OFFERING

Incidentally, thank you so very, very much, for the birthday offering that you gave for the Work of God regarding my birthday on March 15. We are so grateful, and every dime and dollar that you gave went entirely to the Ministry to help us take this MESSAGE OF THE CROSS to a hurting world. Again, thank you!
FAMILY WORSHIP CENTER

The next time you take a vacation, or whenever, you must avail yourself of the opportunity of coming by FAMILY WORSHIP CENTER. We have a group of visitors each and every week, and how so happy we are to have you. As well, you ought to make your plans to be with us in the next Campmeeting. I’ll guarantee you that you will be blessed.

THE SONLIFE BROADCASTING NETWORK

I don’t like to say things that are negative, but in some cases I have no choice. I speak of the modern church. And I speak of every denomination of which one could think. I personally feel, rather I know that the Church is in worse spiritual condition today than at any time since the Reformation. That’s quite a statement, but I believe it to be true.

Probably it must be said, and what I’m about to say is strong, but most churches in the United States are being controlled by demon spirits. I realize that’s quite a statement, but sadly and regretfully I believe it to be true. That once was the case with the so-called modernistic churches; however, now it covers every single religious denomination.

Donnie, Frances, and Gabriel have been showing videos of some of the things that are taking place in some churches on their particular Programs. Many of you have seen those videos. It will make your blood run cold. It’s not merely a wrong direction as bad as that would be. It’s not merely false doctrine, as bad as that would be, but rather it is, as I have stated, demon spirits that have actually taken over these churches. I wish I could say that this was only a handful across the nation and other parts of the world, but that’s not the case. I’m afraid that it includes the majority. The Holy Spirit through Paul said that, “In the last days perilous times will come.” How right He was and how right He is.

While there definitely are Preachers out there who are preaching the Gospel, and while there definitely are Churches that are holding to the Word of God; THE SONLIFE BROADCASTING NETWORK is the only Ministry with a mass appeal of which I am aware that’s trying to hold to the Word of God, and to give it to you untainted, and unpolluted. That’s the reason I plead with you to pray for us on a daily basis.

Thank you again, and may God richly bless you.

In the Master’s Service, yours,

Jimmy Swaggart
