This is one of Bro. Donnie’s most anointed messages. In this message, Brother Donnie deals with the horror of child abuse, whether physical or sexual abuse. In this message, the long-term consequences of abuse are dealt with but most importantly the only help for the victim, the help that can only come from the Lord Jesus Christ. Anyone that has ever been a victim or knows of a victim needs to hear this anointed message.

As we begin the treatment of this most important subject, “The Message of the Cross,” we must begin with Christ, Who He is and What He has done for us.

WHO IS JESUS CHRIST?

Let’s quickly state, “Jesus Christ is the Son of the Living God,” in reality, “God manifest in the flesh.” He is “the King of kings and Lord of lords, the Jehovah of the Old Testament, and the Saviour of man.”

Were Jesus Christ a mere man, albeit ever so talented, ever so educated, ever so charismatic, and ever so intelligent, that would be one thing. However, if Jesus Christ is the Son of the Living God, and He most definitely is, then that’s something else altogether.

Please note the following:

» The only way to God is through Jesus Christ (Jn. 14:6).
» The only way to Jesus Christ is by the Means of the Cross (Lk. 14:27).
» The only way to the Cross is a denial of self (Lk. 9:23).

Jesus Personally stated, and unequivocally so:

“I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life (proclaims in no uncertain terms exactly Who and What Jesus is): no man comes unto the Father, but by Me (He declares positively that this idea of God as Father, this approach to God for every man is through Him – through what He is and what He has done).” (Jn. 14:6).

It is Jesus Christ Who paid the price at Calvary’s Cross for man’s Redemption. No one else paid that price simply because no one else could pay that price. He Alone paid it; therefore, to be Saved, one must accept Christ. There is no other way.

It must be understood, if any doctrine is wrong about Jesus, then whatever else it is they say and do is of no consequence. As stated, He Alone is “the Way, the Truth, and the Life.” Let us say it again:

Everything that we receive from God the Father, and I mean everything, comes to us by and through the Lord Jesus Christ. He is the One Who paid the price that door may be opened. No one else did because no one else could.

John the Beloved probably gave the greatest definition of Who Christ is of any writer in the Word of God. He did so as the Spirit of God moved upon him and in such a way that it defies all description. Let’s look at it phrase by phrase. It is taken directly from the First Chapter, even beginning with the First Verse of the Gospel that bears his name.

IN THE BEGINNING WAS THE WORD

The phrase, “In the beginning was the Word,” refers to the Incarnate Christ but speaks of His Existence before the Incarnation.

The word, “Beginning,” does not imply that He had a beginning because, as God, He had no beginning, but it refers to the time of Creation and corresponds with Genesis 1:1.

George Williams says, “As speech reveals mind, so Jesus as the Word reveals God. But to reveal God He must Himself be God, for only God could reveal God.”

Jesus Christ Is The Source Of All Things We Receive From God

By Jimmy Swaggart
It is extremely interesting that the Holy Spirit through John describes Jesus as the “Word,” i.e., “the Eternal Logos.” This can refer to an expression of thought but is never used by New Testament writers in that fashion. They always use it in the realm of “speech,” “utterance,” or “word,” or so the Greek scholars claim.

For instance, in the record of the Creation in Genesis, Chapter 1, the proclamation of Creation is described eight times by the expression, “And God said.” The “Word” which was uttered was so powerful that it could only come from the Omnipotent Word.

As an example, the Jewish translators and commentators had so thoroughly grasped the idea that they were accustomed to substituting the phrase, “Memrah-Jah,” “The Word of the Lord,” for the Name of the Most High.

They seemed to feel that the Lord could be better understood in the form of this expression, which proclaimed, at least in their minds, His Eternal and Absolute Being.

THE ETERNAL WORD OR LOGOS

As well, the Eternal Word, or “Logos,” was not placed in suspension during the 33 and one-half years of the Incarnation of Christ. Even though He was Very Man, still, He was Very God. As someone has well said, “While Jesus laid aside the expression of His Deity, He never for a moment lost possession of His Deity.” Consequently, the “Word” He was and, therefore, gave before the Incarnation carried through the Incarnation, thus never ceasing to exercise the functions which belonged to His Eternal Glory.

The Rev. R. H. Reynolds said, “He was ‘in the beginning,’ and therefore existed before all Creation. He did not ‘become.’ He was not ‘made.’ He ‘was!’”

AND THE WORD WAS WITH GOD

The phrase, “And the Word was with God,” expresses the idea of the Trinity.

This tells us that Jesus, i.e., “the Word,” ever-existed (was), and that He had a personal existence, for He was with God.

The Greek scholars say that this statement as given by John is difficult to translate. It is equivalent to, “Was in relationship with God,” or, “Stood over against,” not in space or time, but eternally and constitutionally. In other words, it is more than just merely being with God, as we think of such a term, but actually having the same relation, which the next phrase declares.

AND THE WORD WAS GOD

The phrase, “And the Word was God,” does not mean that before the Incarnation He was God, but ceased to be during the Incarnation, but rather the opposite. He “was” God before the Incarnation; He “was” God during the Incarnation; He “was” God after the Incarnation; and He “was” and “is” God from eternity past to eternity future.

Williams says, “In His Existence Eternal, in His Person Distinct, in His Nature Divine, so that His Personality was not of time, for prior to Creation He was with God (Jn. 17:5; Col. 1:17; Heb. 1:2). Thus He existed before the world began to exist; and this existence – being a conscious Personal One as distinct from the Father – necessitated His Personal Glory as God, i.e., ‘Son of God’; and so being God, that relationship was in its nature eternal.”

THE SAME WAS IN THE BEGINNING WITH GOD

“The same,” i.e., this very Person, the Lord Jesus Christ, was in eternity with God. The Holy Spirit emphasizes this in order to declare His Eternal Relationship as the Son with the Father.

“He stands over and against the Eternal God in mutual communion with the Absolute and the Eternal”

– R. H. Reynolds

However, there is no indication that the Logos was a second God or merely Divine or God-like, neither is He described as proceeding out of or from God, nor is He to be called “the God absolute,” as opposed to all His Manifestations; but the “Logos” is said to be “God” – God in His Nature and Being. Reynolds said: “He stands over and against the Eternal God in mutual communion with the Absolute and the Eternal.”

To attempt to understand the Trinity, the “Father” is “God” but not “first God.”

The “Son” is “God” but not “second God.”

The “Holy Spirit” is “God” but not “third God.”

There is only One God but manifested in Three Persons, God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit.

As God, They had no beginning and have no ending. As God, They are uncaused, unformed, and unmade. As God, They always were and always shall be. As God, They are self-sufficient and have need of nothing.

ALL THINGS WERE MADE BY HIM

The phrase, “All things were made by Him,” tells us that all things came into being through Him and without Him, not one single thing came into being.

This denies the theory of the eternity of matter, which was held by some in ancient times and continues to be claimed by some.

An absolute distinction, therefore, exists between Jesus and Creation.

As well, the pronoun, “Him,” referring to Jesus, makes it distinct that the “Word” is a Person.

The two words, “All things,” refer to every item of Creation, one by one, rather than all things regarded in totality. This tells us, at least according to the limit of our comprehension, that Jesus painstakingly saw to the individual Creation of each being, plant, planet, star, etc. As Paul said, “For by Him were all things created, that are in Heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by Him, and for Him” (Col. 1:16).

In Verse 1, we are also told how He did this. The “Logos,” or “Word,” is the organ or instrument by which everything, one by one, was made. Paul wrote in Hebrews:

“Through Faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the Word of God (refers to Creation, along with everything that goes with Creation), so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear. (God began with nothing, thereby, speaking into existence the things needed to create the universe)” (Heb. 11:3).

AND WITHOUT HIM WAS NOT ANYTHING MADE THAT WAS MADE

The phrase of our heading says the same thing as the first phrase but in an opposite manner in order to stress the emphasis of Jesus as Creator.

The words, “Without Him,” mean that independently of His Cooperation and Volition, nothing, not even one single thing, was made.

When one considers the order of Creation and how it functions according to set laws and never varies from these laws, continuing to fulfill the creative order, one cannot help but be totally awed.

Other than the absolute absurdity and stupidity which characterize the vapid philosophy of evolution, the sheer affront to God as Creator by the propagation of this lie, and a lie it is, is the greatest insult of all. Actually, evolution is an insult to intelligence in any capacity. The idea that something on its own can be brought out of nothing is the beginning of this lie. In other words, evolution has no explanation for the first cause. We know what the first cause is, “In the beginning God …” (Gen. 1:1). As well, the thought that something can gradually come from disorganized matter into a well-ordered structure, which is the very heart of evolution, is the very opposite of that which really happens. If left unattended and uncultivated, there is always a regression instead of a progression. That is the reason the Lord told Adam and Eve, “… Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the Earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moves upon the Earth” (Gen. 1:28).

“In Him was Life; and the Life was the Light of men” (Jn. 1:4). The phrase, “In Him was Life,” presents Jesus, the Eternal Logos, as the First Cause.

While it is true that Creation exists in Him, still, to use the term only in that manner is error. Life exists in Him, which brought about the Creation. As well, this brought Him into relationship with a special part of His Creation, which is man, with whom was all His Delight.

Many men can create things, even as God, albeit on a much lower scale. However, inasmuch as man contains no life solely derived within himself, whatever he creates is dependent on the first cause, Who is God.

As an example, when man created the airplane, or anything else for that matter, he had to power that invention by some type of source which only comes from God, and which is dependent, as well, on other laws created by God.

However, the “Life” which is in Christ is derived solely from Him, with Him dependent on nothing outside of Himself.

Actually, this is the reason for man’s terrible dilemma. At the Fall, he lost the “Life” imparted to him by God and has nothing left but death; consequently, man is born dying. As well, death inculcates itself in all of Creation in this world simply because of the Fall. The Life it had derived from God was lost; consequently, inasmuch as there is no other life, man must die, as well as all he touches.

AND THE LIFE WAS THE LIGHT OF MEN

The phrase, “And the Life was the Light of men,” proclaims two things:

1. Before the Fall, Jesus was the “Light of men,” which means there was no other life and no other light.

Reynolds said, “The Life which was in the Logos ‘was, has always been, is now, will ever be the Light of men.’”

When men fell from that Light Source, they had to fall into darkness because there was no other light; consequently, there could be no other “light.” The “Life” and “Light” are exclusively in Him.

2. When the “Light” at the Fall was lost due to the “Life” being rejected, God immediately set about to restore the “Life,” which would automatically bring the “Light.”

There is “Life” in Creation, with men attempting to worship that “Life,” not realizing or believing that it is derived from God. That is why Paul said, “Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools,”

“And changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and four-footed beasts, and creeping things.”

He then said, “Who changed the Truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, Who is blessed forever. Amen” (Rom. 1:22-23, 25).

The phrase, “Light of men,” is an extremely interesting statement. This “Light” cannot be unless it is derived from the “Life” which is in Jesus. And yet, men attempt to find “Light” in various other places. This is because of the way that man fell.

Satan told man a lie and was successful in getting him to believe it. He told Adam and Eve, “… then your eyes shall be opened, and you shall be as gods, knowing good and evil” (Gen. 3:5).

However, their eyes were not opened, but rather closed, i.e., the “Light” was gone!

BELIEVING A LIE

As well, by disobeying God and, in effect, rebelling against Him, they did not gain godhood as promised by Satan, but rather fell to the level of demonhood. This is the reason that demon spirits make their abode in the bodies and minds of much of humanity, either through direct possession or through influence and oppression.

As well, the Fall was of such magnitude and to such a degree that there is no way man can fully comprehend its extent. He cannot tell how far he has fallen because he has no idea of his original state; consequently, there is no way to make a comparison. Man knows that something is wrong, but due to having no “light,” he does not know exactly what it is. He continues to think it can be corrected by education, money, or various different philosophies. Hence, he opts for modern psychology even though it does not work, and he knows it does not work.

He thinks he is only slightly maladjusted and can be quickly rehabilitated. Consequently, he talks about the “psychology of life,” which is man’s answer to man’s dilemma, or “the strength from within,” as if he can solve his own problems. However, this he cannot do, despite the fact of thousands of years of trying.

Into this torment of failure, God became Man and came into this world as the “Last Adam.” As such, He brought back “Life,” which the first Adam lost, and with it, the “Light.” Outside of Christ, there is no “light” of men.

THE INCARNATION

“And the Light shines in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not” (Jn. 1:5).

The phrase, “And the Light shines in darkness,” speaks of the Incarnation of Christ and His Coming into this world.
Because it is derived from His “Life,” His “Light” drives out “darkness.” As we have repeatedly stated, that “Light” is Jesus. There is no other, not Joseph Smith, Buddha, Carl Marx, Confucius, Muhammad, etc. All others are false, and He Alone is the Light.

This is the reason that the Gospel of Jesus Christ must be taken to all points of the world, even as Jesus said, “…
unto the uttermost part of the Earth” (Acts 1:8). The reason is obvious; there is no other light.

If Jesus is presented, the Light will “shine”; if not, the darkness will remain.

That is the reason we plead, even to the point of begging for funds to air the television programming in every city in the world that will open its door to us. We do this for two reasons:

1. This, “the taking of the Gospel to the world,” is the business of every Believer. He brought the “Light” down to this sin-cursed world, but it is our responsibility to carry forth that Light. I speak of every single Believer, irrespective as to who or where they are.

2. Above this burden and Call, which are incumbent upon every Believer, I, along with some few others, have a special Call from the Lord respecting television and radio. In other words, He has especially called me to do this thing; consequently, it is something I must do! I have no alternative or choice, and neither do I desire such. As a result, we have seen hundreds of thousands, if not millions, and I exaggerate not, brought to a Saving Knowledge of Jesus Christ, for which we give the Lord all the praise and all the glory.
To be frank, that is the reason Satan has fought so hard, attempting to get our telecast removed from the air. Regrettably, Satan has used the church in this effort of darkness even more than the world.

THE CHURCH

This means that most of that which calls itself “church,” may, in fact, be church, but not that which belongs to God.
Satan has a “church” as well! It looks very similar to the real thing, which is Satan’s intention, but its real purpose is to stop the Gospel instead of proclaiming the Gospel.

Yes, there are some few good Churches, and thank God for those, but that number is few and, sadly and regrettably, getting less and less all the time. I personally feel that the modern church is in worse condition spiritually than it ever has been since the Reformation.

THE MESSAGE OF THE CROSS

I believe that this is the reason the Holy Spirit is promoting the Message of the Cross at this particular time. In fact, the Church began with the Message of the Cross. This great Revelation, which is the meaning of the New Covenant, was given to the Apostle Paul, and he gave to us in his 14 Epistles.

After the original Apostles and those who knew them died off, little by little the Church began to go into spiritual declension. In about the year 600, it finally morphed into that which is now known as the Catholic church. I realize that the Catholic church claims that it started with Peter; however, the first man, the Bishop of Rome, to be referred to as “Pope” was in the early 600s. Then, in the early 1600s, the Reformation took place. It was basically based upon the great subject of “Justification by Faith.” This means that Justification is not in the church but only in Christ and what He did for us at the Cross.

That was followed in the late 1700s and 1800s by the great Holiness Message, which stressed Sanctification. At the turn of the 20th century, the Church experienced the beginning of the fulfillment of Joel’s Prophecy concerning the outpouring of the Holy Spirit in the latter rain. The Pentecostal Message touched the world with the Gospel. I know because the Lord permitted us to have a part in this effort. In fact, in the 1980s, our telecast was aired over a great part of the world, translated into several languages. We saw literally hundreds of thousands brought to a Saving Knowledge of Jesus Christ.

However, sad to say, the Pentecostal denominations are little more preaching the Baptism with the Holy Spirit. In fact, many of them are denying that Tongues are the initial, physical evidence that one has been baptized with the Spirit. Now, into this comes the Message of the Cross, meaning that the Church has now come full circle. In fact, The Message of the Cross, I believe, is that which the Holy Spirit is presently saying to the Churches (Rev., Chpts. 2-3).

The phrase, “And the darkness comprehended it not,” has reference to the fact that Satan did everything within Hell’s power to stop the “Light from shining,” but in that, he failed.

The Greek word for “comprehended” is “Katalambano,” and means, “To seize upon; to keep down or under; to stop.”

As stated, the Evil One did everything he could to stop the shining of that Light, but in that, he failed. He did not overcome the Word, but, in truth, the Word overcame him and on the Cross spoiled all satanic powers (Col. 2:14-17).

As well, this is not something to be done in the future, but something, in fact, which is already done. “… For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that He might destroy the works of the Devil” (I Jn. 3:8).

From the time of Christ, the world has improved in many ways because of the entrance of the “Light,” which comes from His “Life.” Had it not been for the Dark Ages, which were brought about by Satan’s church, the advancement would have been made much sooner. I speak of the Catholic church, which, for hundreds of years, successfully hid the Bible, i.e., “Light,” from man. Regrettably, much of the Protestant world is likewise following in this train.

Even some Pentecostal denominations, who claim to know and have the Holy Spirit, have by and large turned their backs on the Holy Spirit and the Word of God. As such, if, in fact, that is the case, they have become Satan’s church. They stop the Gospel instead of proclaiming the Gospel.

THE ANSWER

Nevertheless, wherever the “Light” shines, the powers of darkness are destroyed, and man is bettered in every conceivable way possible.

Through the years, I, as well as other Preachers, have seen multiple tens of thousands of people delivered from the vilest of sins and bondages by the mighty Power of God. I speak of acute alcoholism, with such bondage being broken. I’ve seen drug addicts delivered, even in the last stages. I speak, as well, of those delivered from the terrible bondage of religion, which, in many cases, is worse than all other bondages. Only Jesus Christ can do such a thing, not man or all his efforts, irrespective as to what they may be. Truly, Jesus Christ and what He did for us at the Cross is the Answer, the Solution, and, in fact, the Only Answer.

We believe the Bible teaches total and complete abstinence at all times from any and all kinds of alcoholic beverages. Just as in Bible times, there is presently that which is holy and that which is unholy. As ought to be overly obvious, alcohol falls into the category of the unholy and the unclean.

The main Hebrew and Greek word for wine, “oinos,” can mean either unfermented grape juice or intoxicating wine. The English word for wine originally had two meanings also — unfermented juice or alcoholic drink. In the Bible, anytime there are Verses showing God’s Approval of drinking wine, it is speaking of the unfermented grape juice. Verses that expose the evils of wine are speaking about intoxicating wine/alcohol. The Bible says all alcoholic drink is evil. It is not just the amount one drinks that makes drinking a sin. God condemns the drinking itself. “Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging: and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise” (Proverbs 20:1), God does not lead us into evil; He delivers us from it. He does not teach us to practice evil in moderation either. Jesus did not make, use, approve, commend, or tell us to use intoxicating wine. God made man to have fellowship with Him, but alcohol goes directly to the brain, which is the communication center of the body. Alcohol, thereby, interferes with God’s Purpose for mankind and our relationship with Him.

Remember what I wrote last month: “There is a great difference between the Palestinian wine of that time and the alcoholic mixture today which goes under the name of wine.”

In ancient times, their wine was a mixture, usually of three parts water to one part wine. Drinking wine unmixed was a barbarian custom.

“In the Talmud, which contains the oral traditions of Judaism from about 200 B.C. to A.D. 200, one tractate (Shabbath 77a) states that wine that does not carry three parts of water well is not wine. In a most important reference (Pesahim 108b) it is stated that the four cups every Jew was to drink during the Passover ritual were to be mixed in a ratio of three parts water to one part wine.” So, clearly, the Bible did not justify the drinking of intoxicating wine then or now.

So, not only is it wrong for one to drink alcoholic beverages, it is wrong to serve alcoholic beverages to others, even in your own home. Read this email we received from one of our viewers, as this is what happens when Christians disobey God’s Words:

“I’m a new Media [Church] member and have been watching your show regularly since I found it this year. I just had to write and make a comment before my head exploded. It is beyond my scope of understanding at the amount of people, who say they are Christians, that are defending this absurd idea of Jesus sanctioning the use of alcohol. If drinking were permissible, then there would be no need to cure the alcoholic upon his or her redemption.

During the Christmas holiday, I traveled with my husband to his family home, knowing all too well that alcohol would...

be served. You cautioned the listeners time after time, not to put yourself in that atmosphere. But he is my husband, and I wanted to please him by going. Well, it didn’t take too long before I fell into the trap by just one drink. It tasted so pleasant until I had to have another one. Let’s just say my evening was short in duration, and the room was spinning. The next morning, after the room stayed in one place, I felt the Holy Spirit convicting me of my misdeed, and I was extremely sorry for that blatant error. So, as you stated, people cannot defend the use of alcohol and be truly saved at the same time, and not have the Holy Spirit shout out to them that it is wrong.”

And this email:

“Fifteen years ago, my husband and I moved and began going to a new church — we went to a house gathering to meet the elders of the church and some of the staff. We were shocked to find out alcohol was being served. After the party, we went to the pastor to notify him of the drinking his elders were doing. I asked the pastor what should be done? He told me to join them in the drinking and explained that Jesus drank wine in the Bible, and it wasn’t wrong. We felt very strange about this and, being ex-drinkers, we resolved to only drink one glass, thinking we should be able to minister or pray with someone at any point and to stop drinking if we could not do so. Of course, as time progressed, we went to two glasses and so on. I knew in my heart it was wrong and would stop off and on over the years. In 2011, the Lord started convicting me to quit drinking, and I ignored Him. Then, we were encouraged to watch your program and Donnie brought up the tremendous point that Jesus would not violate Jewish Law nor would He ingest something that was decaying. I had never thought of that and was convicted even more. This past Easter, my husband and I quit drinking wine all together. I was so ashamed to have bought into that lie. We had to apologize to our children and tell them we were wrong for drinking, and that Jesus did not drink wine. Of course, our Christian friends have tried talking us out of quitting! I have never wanted to go back to drinking, and we never will. The desire is gone and replaced with repulsiveness.”

Numbers 28:7 says, “And the Drink Offering thereof shall be the fourth part of an hin for the one lamb: in the Holy Place shall you cause the strong wine to be poured unto the LORD for a Drink Offering,” meaning it was to be poured on the Altar and burned with fire.

Verse 8 says, “And the other lamb shall you offer at evening: as the Meat Offering of the morning, and as the Drink Offering thereof, you shall offer it, a sacrifice made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.” Many of you thought that because it was called a Drink Offering, it was to be consumed by men. That is not so. It was to be burned on the Altar, producing a sweet savor or aroma because it represented the Lord.

“And you shall bestow that money for whatsoever your soul lusted after (desires), for oxen, or for sheep, or for wine, or for strong drink, or for whatsoever your soul desires: and you shall eat there before the LORD your God, and you shall rejoice, you, and your household, And the Levite that is within your gates; you shall not forsake him; for he has no part nor inheritance with you.  At the end of three years you shall bring forth all the tithe of your increase the same year, and shall lay it up within your gates: And the Levite, (because he has no part nor inheritance with you,) and the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, which are within your gates, shall come, and shall eat and be satisfied; that the LORD your God may bless you in all the work of your hand which you do. (The meaning of the third year is as follows: the tithe of the first and second years was to be eaten before the Lord at the Sanctuary. What was not used, and they only used a small part, the balance was given to the Sanctuary; the tithe of the third year was for the poor and needy, including the Levites)” (Deut. 14:26-29).

Verses 22 through 29 of this Chapter in Deuteronomy are dealing with tithes, and you might have thought that this meant you could use your tithes to buy and drink alcoholic beverages. That is not true. Where Verse 26 says “strong drink,” the word “shekar” was used, and in his Young’s Analytical Concordance of the Bible, Robert Young states that shekar denotes a beverage that is either fermented or unfermented. Instead of “strong drink,” Young actually defines it as “sweet drink,” that which satiates (to fully satisfy), or one that intoxicates. It can be either, depending on what the drink is.

According to John Kitto’s Cyclopaedia of Biblical Literature, “Shekar is a generic term, including palm-wine and other saccharine beverages, except those prepared from wine (grape juice).”

Several standard English dictionaries and Bible encyclopedias derive our English words “sugar” and “cider” from “shekar.” This connection further establishes that shekar originally denoted a sweet beverage and not necessarily a strong drink. Some translations do translate shekar as "strong drink." However, some translate it as "similar drink," as in the New King James.

Many of you are overlooking all of the other Verses throughout Scripture that are clearly in opposition to the drinking of strong drink.

Paul said:

"But if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant. (In other words, if they will not accept what Paul is saying, there is no way they will ever learn the Truth. They will remain ignorant, and could lose their souls)" (I Cor. 14:38).

As Christians, we should heed the word of Bath-sheba to her son Solomon. Lemuel was another name for Solomon. In this Verse:

"My People are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because you have rejected knowledge, I will also reject you, that you shall be no Priest to Me: seeing you have forgotten the Law of your God, I will also forget your children. ("My People are destroyed for lack of knowledge," is the cause of all the problems in the church, and the world, for that matter! The "knowledge" spoken of is the Bible. This "lack of knowledge" was not ignorance, but rather a willful rejection of the Law of God. They didn't know, but it was because they didn't want to know") (Hos. 4:6)

As Christians, we should heed the word of Bath-sheba to her son Solomon. Lemuel was another name for Solomon in this Verse:

"It is not for kings, O Lemuel, it is not for kings to drink wine; nor for princes strong drink (the admonition of the Holy Spirit through Bath-sheba to her son Solomon is clear and plain: “Leave strong drink alone!”): Lest they drink, and forget the Law, and pervert the judgment of any of the afflicted. (The pain of “strong drink,” even moderately consumed, causes men to “forget the Law,” which means to forget the Word of God; consequently, “Judgment” is perverted in such a case, and in whatever capacity.)" (Prov. 31:4-5)

Or, as Leviticus 10:8-10 which says:

“And the LORD spoke unto Aaron, saying, Do not drink wine nor strong drink, you, nor your sons with you, when you go into the Tabernacle of the congregation, lest you die: it shall be a Statute for ever throughout your generations (the Law given here by the Lord has led to the thought that Nadab and Abihu had acted under the excitement of intoxicating drink; in other words, they were drunk; so we have here in this Verse a prohibition “forever” against any type of strong drink): And that you may put difference between holy and unholy, and between unclean and clean (without a proper understanding of the Cross, it is very difficult to properly discern the difference as demanded here [Gal. 2:20-21])."

In the New Testament, we see the requirements and expectations for Deacons, Pastors, or leaders in the Church in several different Verses, and we always see the admonition that they should abstain from alcohol.

I Timothy 3:2-3 states, “A Bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behaviour, given to hospitality, apt to teach; Not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre; but patient, not a brawler, not covetous.”

I Timothy 3:8 states, “Likewise must the Deacons be grave, not doubtlengtoung, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre.”

Titus 1:7 states, “For a Bishop must be blameless, as the steward of God; not selfwilled, not soon angry, not given to wine, no striker, not given to filthy lucre.”

Isaiah 28:7 talks about how the Priests would lose their way and become deceived because of strong drink:

“But they also have erred through wine, and through strong drink are out of the way; the Priest and the Prophet have erred through strong drink, they are swallowed up of wine, they are out of the way through strong drink; they err in vision, they stumble in judgment.”

Isaiah’s words actually carry right over to the New Testament Believer, as well, because in I Peter 2:9, we see that all Believers, whether Pastor or laymen, are called a royal priesthood:

“But ye are a chosen generation, a Royal Priesthood, an Holy Nation, a Peculiar People; that you should show forth the praises of Him Who has called you out of darkness into His marvelous light.”

You see, there is simply no room for alcohol in the life and witness of a Believer. Whether clergy or newly Saved, we all need to keep our minds sober so that we will keep the right Doctrines of the Faith, particularly in this age of deception. It’s no coincidence that many in the church who have started believing false doctrines have also started drinking alcohol as well. Alcohol is a deceiver.

I Chronicles 26:13-19 – “And they cast lots, as well the small as the great, according to the house of their fathers, for every gate.

“And the lot eastward fell to Shelemiah. Then for Zechariah his son, a wise counsellor, they cast lots; and his lot came out northward.

“To Obed-edom southward; and to his sons the house of Asuppim.

“To Shuppim and Hosah the lot came forth westward, with the gate Shallecheth, by the causeway of the going up, ward against ward.

“Eastward were six Levites, northward four a day, southward four a day, and toward Asuppim two and two.

“At Parbar westward, four at the causeway, and two at Parbar.

“These are the divisions of the porters among the sons of Kore, and among the sons of Merari.”

As one reads Verses 13 through 19 of 1 Chronicles, Chapter 26, I’m sure that most reading would pass over the significance of the Text and how it applies to us today.

THE TEMPLE

Just as the Lord saw Peter and Andrew, He sees us, too. So many people think of the Lord as some impersonal deity in Heaven removed from the affairs of His Children, but that’s not the case. The Lord sees each of His Children. We are never out of the sight of the Lord.

The purpose of the Text pertains to information regarding the building of Solomon’s Temple. The plans for the building of the Temple were given by God to David. Though not allowed to build the Temple, everything given to him by God was passed on to Solomon. The reason for this has to do with both David and Solomon as Types of Christ. David serves as a Type of the “Conquering Christ,” while Solomon was a Type of the “Victorious Christ” resting in beauty, splendor, and peace. Solomon’s rule is a Type of the coming “Kingdom Age” when Christ, victorious over the anti-Christ and his vast armies, will rule in Jerusalem in majesty, power, splendor, and peace.

In regard to the construction of the Temple, it is important to understand that the Plans for its construction were all of God and not man. There is absolutely no expression of David or Solomon found in the plans.

This tells us that the Spiritual plans for the building of the Temple of the Believer is a plan devised by the Lord and carried out by the Holy Spirit and not by a church, a denomination, or a preacher. The work in our hearts is all of God and God Alone.

FOUR GATES

The Text tells us of the four gates that allowed access to the Temple. These gates faced north, south, east, and west. Six Levites were to be posted in front of the four gates. Their only responsibility was to guard the gates of the Temple night and day. The purpose of this was that these Levites, as guardians of the gates, were to see to it that no evil would enter into the Temple of God.

Their sole duty was to make the people aware of the practical limits of Holiness, for anyone entering the Sanctuary of God unlawfully did so under the penalty of death. Some examples would be those who were unclean, such as lepers. Those that were enemies to the House of God, even priests, were to be denied entrance to God’s House in a state of uncleanness.

In all of this, we see how much God hates everything that is not sanctioned by Him. That which is Holy must be protected, watched over, and guarded, hence, “Guardians of the Gates.”
THE MEANING FOR TODAY

In the New Covenant, there is no physical temple that one goes to regarding worship. The Believer today is the Temple of God (I Cor. 3:16). The physical building that we call Church is just a building, a building though that is to be dedicated to the worship of God; therefore, we must be careful as to what we allow to take place in the building.

As there were guardians for the gates of the Temple, there are guardians today. These Guardians are to be those whom God has Called into the fivefold Ministry Gifts (Eph. 4:11).

It is the job of the God-called minister to Spiritually stand our watch as “Guardians of the Gate” (i.e., the heart of the Believer that the Lord has given us the responsibility for their Spiritual development). We are to stand guard to make sure that that which is evil — false doctrine, Biblical error, the world, etc.— does not gain entrance to defile the heart of the Christian, thereby, polluting the Church.

THE FAILURE OF TODAY’S GUARDIANS

I think that an honest heart has to acknowledge that the church of today is not healthy. Actually, I believe that one has to look no farther than Isaiah, Chapter 1, Verses 2 through 6, for a proper description of the modern church, which is summed up in Verse 5, “… the whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint.”

Instead of being a “Guardian of the Gate,” too many preachers have deserted their posts, opened the gates wide, and are bringing the unclean into the House of God; false doctrine, false worship, worldliness, etc. Simply put, I lay the blame not at the feet of the laity, but at the feet of the preachers behind the pulpit. The Church is what it is because the pulpit no longer stands for anything.

Of course, that does not pertain to all, but, sad to say, it does cover the majority.

AN EXAMPLE

Several months ago, I happened to be sharing a meal with a younger minister ordained by a fairly well-known Pentecostal denomination. As we shared a meal, I began to ask him questions regarding those of his generation, their beliefs, and why they do what they do.

I was informed that the vast majority in his age group reject preachers such as myself, the reason being, “I am too dogmatic,” I deal in “absolutes,” and to them, there is no place for any preaching or teaching that is “dogmatic” and “absolute,” for to do so may offend someone. Of course, I already knew this was the case.

However, never forget that the Bible is not a Book of diplomacy and neither is the Gospel. The Word of God plainly says, “… choose you this day whom you will serve …” (Josh. 24:15).

To be a true minister of the Gospel, we must be dogmatic as it pertains to God’s Word. If the Bible is truly God’s Word (and it is), then we must be faithful, resolute and, yes, dogmatic.

FOUR MAJOR BIBLE DOCTRINES UNDER ATTACK

As we talked, he gave me four major Doctrines of the Bible that are being pushed aside by many of the younger generation of ministers. They are:

» Tongues: Many are wanting to do away with Tongues as the initial physical evidence that one has received the Infilling of the Holy Spirit. This I already knew, but then he stated that some are wanting to do away with Tongues completely as part of our worship and distinction as a “Pentecostal.” They say, “What’s the big deal about Tongues?” Well, the big deal is this: Acts 2:11 plainly states that when one prays in Tongues, he is speaking “… the wonderful Works of God.”

Hear me very carefully. “The wonderful Works of God” are a “big deal.” Salvation is a “big deal,” Justification and Sanctification is a “big deal,” Divine Healing is a “big deal,” Holiness is a “big deal,” Grace is a “big deal,” ALL of “the wonderful Works of God” are a “big deal” and to ask, “What’s the big deal?” is the same as saying of the Lord Jesus Christ, “What’s the big deal?” The “big deal” is Heaven or Hell.

» Eschatology: This word means Prophecy, the study of future events according to the Bible. It used to be that there was much debate about the Rapture, but many of the younger generation are going further by identifying themselves as “Amillennialists,” which is a denial of the Millennial Reign of Christ, the coming Kingdom Age.

As space limits my response, I will simply say this: to deny the Rapture and the coming Kingdom Age leaves the Child of God with nothing to look forward to, and if the present time is the best that we have to look forward to, then God help us. No, my friend, I am looking forward to and for “the Blessed Hope,” Jesus Christ and what He has in store for us in a time yet to come.

» Homosexuality: This is their position: “Yes, homosexuality is a sin, but so too is lying, stealing, etc., so why are you so focused on homosexuality?" While it is true that all sin is an affront to God, still, the Bible makes it clear that some sins are looked at by the Lord as worse than others, and homosexuality is one of those sins. Let me remind these younger preachers that there is no Biblical record of God destroying whole cities for lying, stealing, cheating, or any other sin save for homosexuality. In fact, the Lord destroyed four cities for the sin of homosexuality: Sodom, Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboim (Deut. 29:23). I think that says it all.

Alcohol: The mantra for these young preachers is "moderation." It’s okay to drink, just don’t get drunk. Drink in moderation. Let me pose a question regarding moderation. We now have some states that have legalized the smoking of marijuana. So, if it’s legal, then as a Christian, can I smoke pot as long as it’s in moderation? Just because something is considered legal doesn’t mean it’s not a sin. As well, consider this, every day in America 28 people die as a result of drunk driving. That’s more than 10,000 people a year. This amounts to one death every 48 minutes with an annual cost of alcohol-related crashes totaling more than 51 billion dollars. Also, consider this, adultery is considered a crime in 23 states but is rarely ever enforced. So, in the 27 states that adultery is legal, does that mean as a Christian I can commit adultery in moderation? As long as it’s only once every three years, and it doesn’t last for more than two or three months, then it’s okay? Any sensible Christian knows that it’s still sin because God says it’s sin. So the "moderation" argument is absurd. Who determines what "moderation" is? For one, "moderation" may mean one glass of wine, but for another, it may be two or three drinks, as long as one is not driving. Let’s get real here. The argument is not "moderation," it’s license. They want license to drink, plain and simple. So, my answer to them is this: “Go ahead with your glass of wine, your one beer, your frozen daiquiris, your Mai Tai. Drink it all the way to Hell because that’s where you’re headed.”

IN CLOSING

If you are called to preach, you are a “Guardian of the Gate,” you are a “Watchman,” you have a God-called, God-ordained responsibility to stand in front of the gate, to stand on the wall, and to stop anything that is contrary to God’s Word from coming in and deceiving God’s People. I am a “Guardian of the Gate” and “… woe is unto me if I preach not the Gospel!” (I Cor. 9:16).

Preachers, take up your posts, don’t break rank, hold onto the Word of God and don’t waver but hold fast, and great will be your reward.

For those of you who are not familiar with digital television, these are free "old fashioned TV channels" that are able to be picked up with a digital tuner and antenna. Most new televisions are equipped with built-in digital tuners or you can purchase a tuner from your local electronics store (Best Buy®, Radio Shack®, etc.). As well, you can purchase the proper antenna at your local electronics store. Many viewers under the broadcast signal of the television station can use a small, digital antenna inside the home. For those on the outer edge of the signal or to receive the best signal, an outdoor antenna may be required. Both indoor and outdoor antennas are available for less than $50!

CAMPERS ENJOY CAMPMEETINGS ON SBN WHILE AWAY FROM HOME

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I just want to thank you for all your DVDs of the Campmeetings we've received. We go camping a lot in the fall with our horses. We have a TV, but of course we can't receive any channels, but we can and do watch the Campmeetings! We enjoy them so much. We can be blessed while being away from home. Thank you so much for those and for all of your music; JSM truly blesses us more than you'll ever know. God Bless each and every one of you for everything you do for all of us.

STUDY GUIDE ADDS CLARITY, FEELING TO STORIES AND PEOPLE OF THE BIBLE

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I have read the book of Mark so many times. This time, I decided to study using your study guide “According to the Gospel of Mark.” I can't tell you just how wonderful this guide is. Like the Expositor’s Study Bible, it makes everything so clear. I read the story of Jairus and also the woman with the issue of blood so many times, but I never stopped to think of what Jairus must have gone through waiting for Jesus to finish with the woman. You give feelings to these people. You break the words down. I love it. Also, he made me stop and think of all the time you put into your writings. Again I have to say thank you. I love you and appreciate the love you have for all of us.

Georgia

I KNEW THE BEAT AND THE MUSIC AND WOULD CATCH WORDS HERE AND THERE, BUT USUALLY DID NOT KNOW ALL OF THE SONG'S LYRICS. THE BEAT DRIVES AND DRAWS A PERSON. I WAS DRAWN TO THAT BEAT. BUT SINCE I’VE BEEN SAVED AND HAVE DONE PRAISE AND WORSHIP, THERE IS NO, ABSOLUTELY NO COMPARISON. IT’S THE WORDS THAT ARE FIRST AND FOREMOST IMPORTANT AND THE MUSIC FOLLOWS. IT DRAWS YOU TO THE LORD BECAUSE THE LORD APPROVES AND ANOINTS IT. INTERESTING, I HEARD BROTHER LARSON TEACH ON THE ROAD DOWNWARD AND HE TAUGHT IT WAS BECAUSE PEOPLE SUPPRESSED THE TRUTH. YOU WILL FIND THAT MANY OF THESE ROCK ‘N’ ROLL SINGERS HAVE GONE TO DRUGS AND ALCOHOL TO FILL A VOID, VOID THAT ONLY GOD CAN FILL. INTERESTING, THOUGH, AT TIMES YOU WILL HEAR A WORD OR TWO THAT REFERS TO GOD. HURRAY FOR GABRIEL FOR TAKING A STAND ON THIS. YOUR PROGRAMMING AND TEACHING HAS CHANGED MY LIFE.

SAVED MUSICIAN SAYS SONG LYRICS ARE FIRST, MUSIC Follows

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I am a musician and have been for most of my life, so I have experienced and performed many different types of music and have sung the lyrics. When I was young, and grew up with all kinds of music, many, many times I didn't know the words, but

GROWING CLOSER TO THE LORD WHILE WATCHING THE BROADCAST

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I’m 23 years of age and I just want to take the time to say thank you and your ministry for showing me the way of our Lord. Growing up I really wasn’t brought up in a Christian household with my parents, even though my grandparents were active for our church. As I got older I did sinful acts. One night, while at work, I saw your Broadcast and started watching it and have been watching for the past two years now! I continue to grow closer to God and His Word. Thank you again Mr. Swaggart, and your Ministry as well. May God bless each and every one.

PREACHER’S CHURCH CHANGED BY THE MESSAGE OF THE CROSS

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I found SBN about six months ago. I’ve always preached the Cross, but now with a greater anointing in the finished Work of the Cross! I didn’t understand, but I’ve have bought all the Commentaries and The Expositor’s Study Bible and the book “The Message of the Cross.” It has changed our church for the better with the Holy Spirit. Thank GOD for SBN!

TANZANIAN BLESSED BY HEARTFELT EXPRESSION OF WORSHIP

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I bless you all in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. I want to tell you that I am blessed very much by all the songs and materials you share online. I am blessed so very much by all of your songs and messages and the piano, your heartfelt expression of worship, and everything. You have blessed me abundantly, and it’s just yesternight when I found myself worshipping for more than 10 hours because of this song, “Then I Met the Master.” Yes, I met Him yesternight, and my life has been totally and completely transformed! I have listened to thousands of songs, but you are the most amazing singer and praise and worship I have ever come across. Remain blessed, and may God use you to touch millions of other Christians’ lives.

BABY RESPONDS TO PREACHING AND MUSIC ON SBN

Dear Brother Swaggart,

My grandson since birth sits in front of the TV, and he isn’t a year old yet, but people go crazy because they have seen this infant daily watch Brother Jimmy. During the music, he folds his hands in prayer and closes his eyes till music is done! He just goes into this supernatural state, and, when you all preach, he carries conversations with you all, and he has great joy in doing that. One thing they have all learned is: don’t block his view; he lets you know it! We love all of you, and I pray for you that the Lord bless you all, and pour out His Spirit upon you and give your hearts joy and happiness. May His grace and mercy be with you day and night; may He guide you and keep you safe and always drop His anointing upon you!

Psalm 106:13 – “They soon forgot His Works; they waited not for His Counsel.”

THE SETTING

For the past few weeks, this simple passage has played a key role in directing my life. The Verse describes the attitudes and the actions of the very first group of people that God called His Own, the Hebrews. Having faced the horrible bondages of slavery in Egypt, the Israelites had cried to God, and He had delivered them from Pharaoh’s grasp. How long the events of the plagues lasted, no one can be sure. Some have speculated that the plagues, culminating in the Passover, may have lasted as long as nine months. In all this time, God proved Himself faithful. He guarded the Hebrews from the plagues that struck Egypt, and He brought them out with a high hand, with the strength of youth in their just-healed bodies and the wealth of Egypt in their pockets. When Pharaoh relented and repented of letting God’s People go, and with determination mounted a chase to destroy them or bring them back, God opened up the Red Sea for His People and executed the monarch and his armies as they attempted to cross through the same. However, human nature being what it is, it wasn’t long before this blessed people began to complain. How quickly we forget all that God has done for us!

FORGETTING WHAT GOD DID BEFORE

Faith is a funny thing. At times, moved by Faith in expected provision from God, we face mountains of difficult situations. However, just a few days after our latest Miracle, the one that God Himself supplied, we face a new enemy, an uncomfortable situation, or a difficult circumstance, and we seem to forget all that God has done for us. My friend, the greatest thing that God has ever done for you or me was the saving of our souls. What new life! What new joy! What eager expectation of good rose up in our hearts! With the sin stain drowned in the efficacious Blood of the Lamb of God, we felt the freedom from death’s grip and the release from the dominion of sin. Then, in our youthfulness, we entered into the time where He carried us and proved Himself to us over and over again. Faith in His Person and His Word escalated us to new heights and pacified the heart with peace that passed all understanding. How many Miracles since then has He performed for you? How many times has He come through for you? Has He ever failed to keep a Promise or perform a Word that He gave specifically to you? I must testify by saying, “Never.” In one particularly trying time, God spoke to my heart and said, “This test will be over by the end of May.” That trial concluded on May 31 of that year. When I realized that the God of Heaven had spoken and then faithfully executed His Promise, all I could do was weep and praise Him for His Faithfulness. So, why would we doubt Him in our current distress? When we fail to remember what God has done for us in the past, we pave the way for doubt and unbelief to reign supreme in our hearts. Put yourself in remembrance of what God has done in your past, and it will secure the steps for your future!

PROCEEDING WITHOUT GOD

Whenever doubt and unbelief dominate the mind and heart, the human being almost always makes the mistake of proceeding into the situation without God. Now is the time to wait for His Counsel. Now is the time to seek His Direction. If we will approach the situation with prayer, yielding to God’s Wisdom will guarantee a successful journey through the minefield just ahead. One day at a time, seeking His Will for every step, will lead you successfully across the terrain and into the safety of His Provision. Wait on Him to lead! Tell Him you are sure that He will lead you just as He has done so many times before. Recall to mind what He has done for you in the past. Cry out to Him and let Him show you what to do. Wait on His Counsel! Wait on His Guidance! Don’t move until you know you have heard His Instruction. He’s done it before; He’ll do it again. Wait, I say, on the Lord!

Why WEBC&S?

“As my third year at World Evangelism Bible College comes to a close, it yields a great opportunity to give thanks for the time spent here. Above everything else that could be said, the most important feature of World Evangelism Bible College is that its teachers handle the Word of God with sincerity. Twisting Scriptures, or leaving out Scripture just to salvage one’s corrupt agenda or to climb the social ladder of the day seems to be, unfortunately, at the core of all the methods and machinations thought up in the minds of our modern-day preachers and teachers. Why is that? It must be because they don’t believe that the “old paths” still work. WEBC is proof that the old paths do work. Martin Luther, the Great Reformer, regarding this very subject, had this to say: “For if only the pastors remain faithful and preserve the doctrine, God will bestow His grace that there will always be a number to accept it; for where the Word is pure and unadulterated, there will, of course, be fruit.” I am very thankful for the honest approach to Scripture that is exhibited in all the teachers here at JSM. It is the reason for the many spiritual blessings we experience here at WEBC.”

Joseph Larson LOUISIANA
Rom. 8:1 – “There is therefore now no condemnation (guilt) to them which are in Christ Jesus (refers back to Romans 6:3-5 and our being baptized into His Death, which speaks of the Crucifixion), who walk not after the flesh (depending on one’s personal strength and ability or great religious efforts in order to overcome sin), but after the Spirit (the Holy Spirit works exclusively within the legal confines of the Finished Work of Christ; our Faith in that Finished Work, i.e., “the Cross,” guarantees the Help of the Holy Spirit, which guarantees Victory).”

IN JESUS CHRIST

There is a phrase in this Verse that is of extreme importance, in fact, it can be said that it is the single most important phrase found in this Epistle, “In Christ Jesus.” Everything that we are, everything that we have, and everything we have become as Christians is because of Christ and what He accomplished at Calvary. Without Christ, there is no salvation, there is no victory, and there is no blessing. Everything we are is because Christ is the Source of all Blessings, and the Cross is the Means by which we receive these Blessings. We must never forget that.

I AM CRUCIFIED WITH CHRIST

Listen to what the Apostle Paul says: “I am crucified with Christ (as the Foundation of all Victory; Paul, here, takes us back to Romans 6:3-5): nevertheless I live (have new life); yet not I (not by my own strength and ability), but Christ lives in me (by virtue of me dying with Him on the Cross and being raised with Him in Newness of Life): and the life which I now live in the flesh (my daily walk before God) I live by the Faith of the Son of God (the Cross is ever the Object of my Faith), Who loved me, and gave Himself for me (which is the only way that I could be Saved)” (Gal. 2:20).

All of this explains to us exactly what happened at the moment of Salvation. The moment that we accepted Jesus Christ as our Lord and personal Saviour, our old man, who we used to be, was placed into Christ, and due to what Christ did at Calvary, we became a new Creation, all in Christ Jesus! This means that at Calvary, the sin debt that hung over each and every single one of us was paid in full, with nothing left owing, and Satan having no more claim over us. That is something to shout about, dear Christian! Because of the Cross of Christ and the Blood that was shed that day, Satan’s claim over us has been broken, and we now belong to a new Master, Jesus Christ! That is the greatest Blessing of them all: to know that through His Amazing Grace, our whole world has been changed, we are now in Christ Jesus, and Satan has no claim over us.
THE DOUBLE CURE

However, it does not stop there, for not only is the sin debt paid in full, with nothing left owing, but the dominion of sin is now broken. Think about that for a moment if you will. Sin gripped your life, and it controlled your life 24 hours a day, seven days a week. No matter how much you tried to control the situation, you could not. Whatever the sin nature wanted you to do, that is exactly what you did. This nature drove you to do that which was wrong. However, at the exact moment that you accepted Christ, a new nature came in and dethroned the sin nature and removed it from the throne of your heart and life. That nature is the Divine Nature (II Pet. 1:4), which was given to us by and through what Christ did at Calvary. This means that the grip of sin that controlled your life has been broken, and you are now controlled by a new Power Source, the Holy Spirit. All of this means that we have the ability, through Christ and what He did at Calvary, and our Faith in that Finished Work, to have victory over the sin nature. In fact, this guarantees our victory over the sin nature simply because what Christ did was a complete Work on Calvary’s Cross, and His Death, Burial, and Resurrection defeated Satan and broke the power of sin over our lives. This is known as the Double Cure, for Christ’s Work at Calvary not only saved us from sin, but also broke the grip of sin over our everyday lives.

HE MADE A CHANGE

This Finished Work of Christ on the Cross is the only thing that guarantees victory in our lives. Now, understand that this is not a work that you can accomplish in and of yourself, for that guarantees failure and defeat. This Work was accomplished by Christ, and Christ Alone, through what He did at Calvary. This brings a song to my heart, a song that we sing here at Family Worship Center quite often which includes these words: “He made a change in the way that I walk, and He made a change in the way that I talk, old things pass away, behold everything’s new.” Only Christ can make the change that we so desire, and this change can be accomplished through what He did at Calvary. This is why we stress the Cross so much, for it is through the Cross that He has given us this new life and has broken the stronghold of sin over our lives.

Young person, no matter how old you may be, the Cross is the answer for you. If you have been struggling with sin in your life, the Cross of Christ is your answer. There, and there alone, was the sin debt paid and the power of sin was broken. All you must do is simply reach out by Faith and believe what Christ did was enough for you. He can make the change in your life that you need. He can break the bondage of sin, and He can make you a new person, all because of His Finished Work on Calvary’s Cross.

One conspiracy that has intrigued nearly everyone is the story of the Illuminati. This secret organization carries a mystique unparalleled to any other conspiracy. Christians are especially interested in the Illuminati because vast stories of secret societies mixed with religious esoteric symbolism lends credence to an upcoming One World Order with its culmination in the advent of the Antichrist.

HISTORY

The legend of the Illuminati begins with one man, Dr. Adam Weishaupt. He was born Feb. 6, 1748, in Ingolstadt, Bavaria. His father passed away when he was seven years old. He was turned over to his godfather who was the curator of the University of Ingolstadt, UOI. While growing up, he was educated by Jesuits and was said to be impressed by the brilliance of French philosophers. Weishaupt studied law, politics, history, and philosophy. After graduating from UOI, he served there four years as a tutor and catechist. Later he was appointed as professor of civil law at UOI. In 1773, Pope Clement XIV dissolved the Jesuit Order. Weishaupt then became the first layman to occupy the chair of canon law, a position held by a Jesuit for the 90 preceding years. Within a couple of years, Weishaupt was promoted to dean of the faculty of law. On May 1, 1776, Weishaupt founded the Order of the Illuminati. His new secret and hierarchical order was modeled on the Jesuits. The name was selected from a few choices, but Illuminati would be chosen, depicting the “image of the sun radiating illumination to outer circles.” The symbol of the Illuminati for secret communication was a circle with a dot in the center. Weishaupt would create his own calendar, based on Persian rather than classical Christian models, and a new alphabet. All novices in his new order were taught his secret communication codes and the occult. The significance of the Minerva owl is still recognized in Illuminati rituals, including the Bohemian Grove. The Minerva owl’s history dates back to secret societies seeking to promote Luciferian rulership over mankind. Notwithstanding, the use of the “Law of Attraction,” a phrase coined by the mother of Theosophy, Madam Helena Blavatsky, in the 1800s, and later written by Alice Bailey, was derived from her channeled masters that brought to her the secrets of ancient wisdom — ancient wisdom that began with Lucifer. Lucis Trust, originally named Lucifer Trust, was founded by Alice Bailey. One part of her organization is called “World Goodwill.” It is an organized movement founded in 1932 to help establish right human relations and solve humanity’s problems through the constructive power of good will. I’ll say more about this in future articles.

The connection of the Illuminati and freemasonry is evident from the genesis of Weishaupt’s new order. In 1777, Weishaupt was initiated into freemasonry in Munich at the Lodge Theodore of Good Counsel. By the middle of 1779, Weishaupt’s “Insinuators” had completely wrestled control of the lodge, and it was regarded as part of the Order of the Illuminati. By attaching his organization to freemasonry, he gained access to a variety of people from all socio-economic backgrounds. Weishaupt would employ a strategy and mindset similar to the Italian revolutionist Machiavelli. Machiavellianism views politics as amoral and that any means, however unscrupulous, can justifiably be used in achieving political power. Weishaupt would lure his followers into believing he had the necessary powers and secret knowledge to lead:

“Do you realize sufficiently what it means to rule — to rule in a secret society? Not only over the lesser or more important of the populace, but over the best of men, over men of all ranks, nations, and religions, to rule without external force, to unite them indissolubly, to breathe one spirit and soul into them, men distributed over all parts of the world? … And finally, do you know what secret societies are? What a place they occupy in the great kingdom of the world’s events? Do you think they are unimportant, transitory appearances?”

- Adam Weishaupt

STRATEGY

“Weishaupt ... proposed as the end of Illuminism the abolition of property, social authority, nationality, and the return of the human race to the happy state in which it formed only a single family without artificial needs, without useless sciences, every father being priest and magistrate. Priest of we know not what religion, for in spite of their frequent invocations of the God of Nature, many indications lead us to conclude that Weishaupt had, like Diderot and d’Holbach, no other God than Nature herself. From his doctrine would naturally follow German ultra-Hegelianism and the system of anarchical politics recently developed in France, of which the physiognomy suggests a foreign origin.”

- Henry Martin | Histoire de France depuis les temps les plus reculés jusqu’en 1789, XVI. 533. 9

The combination of Weishaupt’s learned Jesuit loyalty and Machiavelli’s ideas of manipulation and deception worked well within freemasonry. The philosophy and principles of Weishaupt’s system closely follows Satan’s kingdom discussed in last month’s article. The Illuminati seeks to gain control of the whole world. There are many theories as to who makes up the “global elite” within the Illuminati today. Some believe it is a private board that directs its delegates who control the world’s major banks. They create inflation and recessions, and they manipulate the world’s economic system to their “destabilizing” benefit, which results in a redistribution of wealth and power for themselves. They support leaders and coups by undermining others that would hinder their goals. They seek to create crises after crises and then propose the solutions. The goal is to persuade the world that globalization is the answer with its centralized economic control and universal religious appeal that all faiths can unite by finding common ground and working together toward social justice. Their structure is summed up in the expression, “New World Order.” They will, of course, be the leaders. The United Nations, World Bank, and the media are said to be infiltrated and influenced by the Illuminati to brainwash gullible masses through thought control, education, religious beliefs, and political leadership.

The underlying principle used by Illuminati members is deception. By deception and subliety people can quickly be distracted from what is important to less significant issues, even lies made out to be “bigger than life.” Their “smoke-and-screen” approach is not just a method but a principle that governs behavior. The masses have been conditioned to react with skepticism by the institutional and media influences toward the “conspiracy” behind the Illuminati. Those who accept the idea that there is a global elite controlling the direction of events are viewed by the conditioned masses as foolish. Instead, the masses are under the skillful manipulation of human emotion of fear by the Illuminati strategists. The strategists create a problem. They also create the opposition groups to control the reaction to the problem. They will fund both sides of the debate or war to facilitate their solution. Illuminati strategy will also pin opposition forces against each other to wear them out financially, emotionally, and physically in order to bring resistance down to their pre-planned solution. Outcomes-based planning is the Illuminati’s modus operandi. They know where they want events to end and will use whatever means to obtain their desired end result; pragmatism-the end justifies the means. To the religious, they will use piety. For the eco-conscience, they will lure by presenting “mother Earth” friendly solutions. They will become whatever is necessary to appeal to the broadest possible audience. Have you ever wondered why some nations tolerate and defend that which opposes them? Have you ever considered how some political offices are filled by people who are unqualified or virtually unknown? Has it ever occurred to you that issues of minimal importance are heralded over the media while serious issues are given a yawn?

STRUCTURE

The structure of the Illuminati is based on a pyramid. It is said the controlling elite are made up of 13 bloodline families. Most members in the Illuminati are also high ranking leaders of numerous secretive and occult societies. The upper levels of the pyramid include secretive committees that include a group referred to as the Olympians, or Committee of 300. These “workers of iniquity” are seen by many as virtuous because they always have a solution that involves good works. The organizations that serve them, like the United Nations, Council on Foreign relations, and others always promote globalization or cooperative human efforts to make things better for the poor or for the disadvantaged.

Beginning next month we will look inside the organizations and people who support them with a global agenda. Satan is doing his best to gather mankind together. He will use his henchmen to sell the idea of unity to a divided world. The only unity for man was made possible at the Cross of Christ. The Cross is the meeting place where God can meet man. The Cross is also the only place where man can meet fellowman. If it is not the Cross, where are you meeting, and with whom are you meeting? 🌍
THE PROTECTION OF YOUR ASSETS, YOUR FAMILY, YOUR FUTURE, AND THE WORK OF GOD

Many people have the mistaken idea that a will is the best legal instrument for the protection and designation of the distribution of their assets. However, by and large, that is incorrect. A will can be contested and is often changed by contentious parties. The very best legal instrument for this purpose is a Living Trust. Call us for further information.

WHAT IS A LIVING TRUST?

A Living Trust is a legal document to transfer all of your property, assets, cash, or whatever you desire from your individual name to the name of your Trust.

WHAT ARE THE ADVANTAGES OF A LIVING TRUST OVER A WILL AND OTHER LEGAL INSTRUMENTS?

1. A Living Trust is one of the very best ways provided by the United States’ tax laws to save on taxes.
2. You, the principal, have total control over your Living Trust, and you can change it as desired at any time.
3. A Living Trust can be secured regardless of your marital status or age.
4. A Living Trust is the best legal instrument to protect your family, to insure the distribution of your assets according to your desires, and to benefit the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Why not call our Planned Giving Department at (225) 228-6643 and ask for information concerning Living Trusts?

THE MEDIA CHURCH

Every Sunday Frances, Donnie, and Gabriel read out the names of those who have recently joined the FAMILY WORSHIP CENTER MEDIA CHURCH. How so happy we are to have you as part of this effort for the Cause of Christ. Wherever in the world that you live, and whomever in the world that you might be, we feel like we are a little stronger because of your association with this Ministry.

THE MESSAGE OF THE CROSS

Oftentimes certain Biblical doctrines are somewhat difficult to explain; however, the "Message of the Cross" is so Scriptural in fact, that it explains itself. It probably comes down to two aspects:

• The Message of the Cross is the key to the entirety of the Word of God.
• As well, the Message of the Cross opens the door for the Holy Spirit to work wonders within our hearts and lives. In other words, He works entirely within the parameters so to speak, of the Finished Work of Christ.

How so thankful we are for the many hundreds of emails, letters, telephone calls, and Testimonials that we receive each and every month, from people all over the world. The Testimonies vary from deliverance from particular bondages, to Salvation for the soul, which, of course, is the most important thing that could ever happen to anyone and, as well, of Believers being Baptized with the Holy Spirit. And, I must not forget, the Lord still heals, and we get Testimonies of healings of every nature, for which we give the Lord all the praise and all the glory.

Once again, We love you.

Jimmy Swaggart

LEAPS AND BOUNDS
As you hold this magazine in your hands, a short time ago we began airing 24 hours a day, seven days a week, in the Netherlands, Austria, Belgium, and the Czech Republic.

As well, we have just taken on 8 million more homes in the great country of Germany, which makes 25 million in all. I believe that God is going to do a great work in all of these countries.

I’m asking you to pray daily to that end, that God will move in such a way that untold numbers of people will be swept into the Kingdom of God.

WE HAVE THE MESSAGE
That message is, “Jesus Christ and Him Crucified.” In fact, this is what the Holy Spirit is presently saying to the Churches.

Incidentally, for those of you who are coming close to Baton Rouge for any reason, you must make your plans to be with us in the Campmeeting Sunday morning Service. It’ll be an experience I believe that you will never forget. Music and singing and worship that’s right out of this world, with all of Heaven coming down. And then, the preaching of the Word that tells it just like Jesus is, which means it’s Campmeeting Time.

INCIDENTALLY
How so proud we are of all of you who are members of Family Worship Center Media Church. This number includes people from all over the world, and we are so very, very happy to have you.

I need three things from you:
1. I need for you to pray for us daily, please!
2. I need for you to tell others about SonLife Broadcasting Network.
3. I need your financial support that we may continue to come into your homes 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

Thank you so very much for those of you who are already functioning in this capacity. However, I’m asking that all of you do so, and for all of the obvious reasons. I cannot do without your support. It’s just that simple. Please remember, our goal is the world, yes, the entirety of the world.

Incidentally, we are now airing in the great country of India in about 1.5 million homes. Now, considering the size of India (1.2 billion people), 1.5 million is not many; however, the satellite which we are on is adding nearly 1 million new homes per year.

I’M EXPECTING THE GREATEST MOVE OF GOD EVER
I believe we are on the verge of seeing the greatest number of people saved by the precious Blood of Jesus Christ, plus Believers baptized with the Holy Spirit, than we’ve ever seen before. Actually, I believe it’s going to be bigger than anything the world or the Church has ever seen. Considering modern technology, this is a simple thing for the Lord to do. Pray that we will ever be pliable in His Hands. Pray that we will do only what the Holy Spirit wants and desires — no more, no less!

Thank you so much for being a part of this.

In the Master’s Service,
Yours,

Jimmy Swaggart

World Evangelism Fellowship was born out of a deep desire of Christians from all denominational backgrounds to reach the world with the Gospel of Jesus Christ. It was realized that when Churches and Ministries band together under the anointing of the Holy Spirit to attack the strongholds of Satan, much can be accomplished.

This is the reason World Evangelism Fellowship was formed – to channel the efforts of Churches and Preachers from all over the United States, Canada, and the world into a unified, proven plan to reach the lost and dying with the Good News of the Gospel.

The call of God to win the lost is clear. World Evangelism Fellowship is answering that call and we would like to extend an invitation to you to join us. This is not a Denomination, and we pray it never will be. It is, however, a fellowship of Ministers and Churches united in their efforts to reach the world for Jesus Christ.

How do I, as an individual, affiliate with World Evangelism Fellowship?

There are several ways to join World Evangelism Fellowship, and the method you choose depends on what God has called you to do.

- Christian Worker • Licensed Minister
- Ordained Minister • Church Affiliation
