“In other words, your place and position, as it regards this Work and Ministry, are not an accident.”

FAITH

“To another Faith (special Faith) by the same Spirit . . .” (I Cor. 12:9).

The “Faith” here addressed is not the same as Saving Faith spoken of in Romans 12:3. Neither is it Faith that is a “Fruit of the Spirit” (Gal. 5:22).

The “Faith” here listed as a Gift of the Spirit is a special Faith which, I believe, is given by the Holy Spirit to every person who has, at the same time, been assigned a particular task which, in the natural, is impossible.

As it regards this Ministry (Jimmy Swaggart Ministries), this special Faith is something that we have to use every single day. We almost never have the funds to do what God has called us to do, meaning that we have to believe Him even day-by-day. It’s not a one-time affair that happens once in a while, but, as stated, it is daily. We have to believe that the Lord is going to meet the need and see us through because He has called us to do what we are doing. However, it takes a special Faith to believe this.

When the Lord calls someone to do something, even as He has called this Evangelist for World Evangelism, I believe that He also calls a great number of people to join in this endeavor in order that it be carried out. In other words, I believe the people of our Church (Family Worship Center) are just as called of God as I am. I believe that those who support us are just as called of God as I am as it regards this Ministry. They may live many hundreds or even thousands of miles from Baton Rouge, yet, they are blessed and helped by our telecasts and/or the radio programs, as well as the publications and the music, etc. This includes many of you holding this book in your hands. Along with this Call, you have been given, as well, this special Faith to believe God with me.

YOU HAVE BEEN PLACED HERE BY THE LORD

In other words, your place and position, as it regards this Work and Ministry, are not an accident. You have been placed here by the Lord. As we take this Gospel, this Message of the Cross, to a hurting, dying world, you will have a part in every soul that’s Saved, every life that is changed, every Believer baptized with the Spirit, every sick body healed, every bondage of darkness broken, etc. Furthermore, I believe we can say without fear of Scriptural contradiction that every single person in the world, who has been baptized with the Holy Spirit, has Gifts of the Spirit latent within their hearts and lives, waiting to be developed. In other words, the Lord wants to use you in particular Gifts, awaiting only your consecration regarding the matter. Therefore, you should tell the Lord that you want these Gifts to Operate in your life, that is, whatever Gifts He would desire to work through you. I don’t believe the Scripture teaches that these Gifts are only for a select few. I believe they are for every single Spirit-filled Believer.

I made mention to our congregation at Family Worship Center a short time ago that, considering the tremendous obstacles, which we have had to overcome as it regards this Ministry, we could not have done it were it not for Gifts which are Operating in the hearts and lives of many of our people. Some of these Gifts, like Faith, are not obvious to others; nevertheless, they are there, and they are working.

To be frank, as it regards many of the Gifts which are not vocal, I feel that many Spirit-filled Believers are used in these Gifts when, most of the time, they don’t even know or understand that these things are happening.
Nevertheless, they are! One of the reasons that so little is understood about these Gifts is simply the fact that the subject matter is not taught as it ought to be. Once again, I remind the reader that the Holy Spirit has said, “I would not have you ignorant,” concerning these things which are so very important (I Cor. 12:1).

GIFTS OF HEALINGS

“... To another the Gifts of Healing(s) (prayer for the sick) by the same Spirit” (I Cor. 12:9).

If it is to be noticed, both words, “Gifts” and “Healings,” are in the plural. In the King James Version, “Healings” is not in the plural, but rather, in the singular. However, in the original Text, even as Paul wrote it, both words are plural.

Why?

One thing is certain. Whatever the Holy Spirit did was for a purpose and is very important. He did nothing and does nothing that can be construed as insignificant. And yet, I’ve read or heard precious little that attempted to define the plurality of these words. Momentarily, I will give what I feel the plurality means.

It should be understood that any Believer can pray for the sick. The Scripture clearly states, “And these signs shall follow them who believe ... they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover” (Mk. 16:17-18). So, every Believer is admonished to pray for the sick and expect the Lord to heal; however, the fact is, for those who definitely have “Gifts of Healing(s),” many more healings will be brought about than otherwise.

As it regards the plurality of the words “Gifts” and “Healings,” I believe that such was done by the Holy Spirit for the following reason.

VARIOUS HEALINGS

Many times, those who have Gifts of Healing(s) will see more healings regarding certain types of diseases than they will other types. It’s as though... the Lord gives them a special Faith for a certain disease, etc. In other words, they will see many more healings of that particular malady than anything else. Then, there are some to whom the Lord gives a greater anointing, it seems, and they will have Faith for several different types of diseases, which refers to the plurality of the words “Gifts” and “Healing(s).”

And yet, as it referred to our Lord, no disease or sickness stood in His way, not even death. The Scripture says of Him:

“For He Whom God has sent speaks the Words of God (refers to Christ Who always spoke the Mind of God and, thereby, the Word of God): for God gives not the Spirit by measure unto Him (refers to the fact that all others, whomever they may have been and even the very greatest, while having the Holy Spirit, did so by ‘measure,’ which was not so with Jesus; He had the Spirit in totality, hence, the constant healings and miracles)” (Jn. 3:34).

This means that the Holy Spirit could function in Him as no Believer simply because Christ was Perfect, while all Believers are imperfect.

As well, the Scripture says of Christ, “You love Righteousness, and hate wickedness: therefore God, Your God, has anointed You with the oil of gladness above Your fellows” (Ps. 45:7).

All of this states that, whereas we are limited, irrespective as to how much the Lord may use one of us, the Lord of Glory, as is obvious, was unlimited.

A PERSONAL HEALING

When Frances and I first began in Evangelistic work in the mid-1950’s, the great Divine Healing Revivals were beginning to sweep the world. I remember that Gordon Lindsay, editor of the very influential Voice of Healing Magazine, wrote many books on this phenomenon that was taking place, with one of them being, “Bible Days Are Here Again”. Countless times I would look at that title, even after I had read the book, and weep for joy. Truly, the Lord was pouring out His Spirit all over the world. The Lord was using frail, imperfect, individuals to once again proclaim the Might and the Power of our Lord Jesus Christ. Giant tents were being constructed, actually the biggest in the world, and being filled to capacity with people who had “never seen it in this manner before.”

Frances and I were in a meeting in the Lindale Assembly Of God Church in Houston, Texas, pastored by James McKeenan. He was one of the Godliest men that I ever had the privilege to know.

We were at a breakfast of sorts one of the mornings while we were there. Brother McKeenan came up to me and said, “Brother Swaggart, there’s someone here I want you to meet.”

I looked up and standing before me was an elderly gentlemen, frail of build and short of stature. I stood to my feet to shake hands with him when Brother McKeenan said, “Brother Swaggart, this is Raymond T. Richey.”

I stood there for a few moments, unable to speak. This man had been used of God as possibly few men in history. The Lord most definitely gave him the Gifts of Healing(s), along with the Working of Miracles, and, no doubt, other Gifts as well. He had witnessed and experienced one of the mightiest Moves of God in the world. That’s the reason that my tongue would not speak when I stood before him. And yet, he was so very gracious and kind with such a humble demeanor, so much so, in fact, that I will never forget that moment.

A MIGHTY HEALING

I would like to relate just one incident from the thousands, which occurred under this man’s Ministry and scores of others like him. I had the privilege of knowing a particular preacher, some years older than I, who had been graciously used of the Lord.

He was of Italian descent, thereby, his entire family knew nothing but Catholicism as it regarded church. This was back in the 1940’s, and he found that his mother, although still young of years, was dying with cancer. In fact, her situation was terminal, having been sent home from the hospital to die.

One particular morning, the newspaper boy threw into their yard, by mistake, a newspaper. They did not subscribe to the newspaper in Houston, Texas, simply because they were too poor, he said, to afford the subscription.

At any rate, he picked up the paper, took it inside, and somewhere in the body of that paper he saw a big half page ad that stated, or words to this effect, “DIVINE HEALING REVIVAL.” It went on to state that blinded eyes were being opened and diseases were being healed, even cancer. When he and his mother saw those words, something leaped within their hearts.

Now, they were Catholic, and in those days Catholics did not go to protestant churches. In fact, they had never been in a protestant church in their lives; irrespective, he resolved somehow to get his mother to the meeting that was being conducted at the Richey Temple in Houston.

She was so sick that she could little walk, but she somehow managed to get to the service. Sure enough, it was like something they had never been in in all of their lives.

If I remember the illustration correctly, they were singing and, oh, what singing it was. They had never heard anything like that in the Catholic Church. And then, all of a sudden, it happened!

A MIRACLE OF HEALING

His mother, even though she had never felt the Spirit of God in all of her life before now, all of a sudden stood to her feet and began to raise her hands and say, “I feel it, I feel it, I feel it.” That night she was gloriously and miraculously healed by the Power of God. In other words, when she went home that night, she was no longer a Catholic, no longer unsaved, and no longer sick.

The young man in question, her son, became a preacher of the Gospel, and his mother lived many years thereafter. That was just one of the thousands of healings that took place under the Ministry of Raymond T. Richey.

Brother Roccaforte, for that was the Brother’s name whose mother was miraculously healed, preached a meeting at our Church in Ferriday, Louisiana. Under his Ministry, my mother and dad were brought to Christ, along with my grandfather and grandmother as well. In our little Church, he gave the testimony one particular night that I’ve just given to you.

PERSONAL HEALING

When I was ten years old, I came down with a certain type of sickness which the doctors could not diagnose. Even though I was taken to the doctor several times, and even though they ran all types of tests, they couldn’t find the problem.

I stayed nauseous constantly and at times would just pass out, in other words, go unconscious.

This happened several times while I was in school with the principal calling my parents each time to come and get me.

The last time it happened, the principal told my Dad, “If something isn’t done for Jimmy, you are going to have to take him out of school.” Then he said this, “We don’t want him dying on our hands.”

I was prayed for many number of times by our Pastor, who had been influenced greatly, even in an indirect way, by the Ministry of Brother Richey. So, our Pastor and my parents, plus all in our Church, definitely believed in Divine Healing. In other words, they firmly believed that our Lord still heals the sick. Nevertheless, despite the fact of being prayed for again and again, I wasn’t healed, but rather grew worse.

I look back now, and I believe that it was Satan who was trying to kill me, knowing that the Lord would use us to touch much of this world with the Gospel.

At any rate, the day of my healing came, but my healing came in a very strange way.

After the Sunday Service that day, my mother and dad were to take the Pastor and his wife out to lunch, but first, they would go by the home of one of the parishioners who was ill in order to pray for him.

I remember us walking into the small framed dwelling, going to the back room, and praying for the Brother in question. We all came back to the front room, and I was standing near the door with my Dad and the Pastor, Brother Culbreth, standing on the other side of the small room.

Brother Culbreth still had the bottle of oil in his hands, which he had just used in praying for our dear Brother. My Dad spoke up, saying, “Brother Culbreth, would you anoint Jimmy with oil and pray for him again,” and then he added, “If something isn’t done, we’re going to have to take him out of school.”

In my mind’s eye, I still see Brother Culbreth walking across the room with a smile on his face and quickly anointing me with oil. The moment he laid his hands on my head it happened.

I felt something like a ball of flame, actually about the size of a softball, that started at the top of my head and slowly went down my back and all through my body, and I knew, even beyond the shadow of a doubt, that I was healed.

I was never bothered with that problem again.

I’m so glad that my parents believed in Divine Healing. Were that not the case, I probably wouldn’t be alive today.

And, in fact, I have been sick very little in my life since that day.

Now, I had been prayed for, as stated, many number of times by the Pastor, by my parents, and by others in our Church, all to no avail. Why did the Lord do it this way?

That I cannot answer; however, this I do know:

1. I’m so glad that my parents believed in Divine Healing. Were that not the case, I probably wouldn’t be alive today.
2. I’m glad they didn’t get discouraged and quit when they prayed for me many times previously, and I wasn’t healed. They kept believing, and they kept praying for me. Thank God for that!
3. I’m glad that Jesus Christ still heals today just exactly as He did that Sunday afternoon in 1945, and exactly as He did in His Earthly Ministry. It is, “Jesus Christ the same yesterday, today, and forever” (Heb. 13:8).

This message was derived from the book, “Brother Swaggart, Here Is My Question About The Holy Spirit.”

“HAS ETHNIC LOYALTY IN AMERICA REPLACED LOYALTY TO CHRIST?”

“In America, the church is still the most segregated major institution in America. At 11:00 on Sunday morning when we stand and sing and Christ has no east or west, we stand at the most segregated hour in this nation.”

— Martin Luther King, Jr., speaking at Western Michigan University

After receiving several e-mails regarding a recent discussion held over SonLife Radio on “Frances And Friends”, we felt we needed to further address the issue at hand. This is one letter that was written on the subject:

“First and foremost I thank God for your boldness by which you preach and teach Jesus Christ and the Cross, Him Crucified for our Salvation. Me and my husband pray for you daily. We tuned in to your program this evening when discussion was taking place regarding politics and primarily Mr. Obama. We are less concerned about the election and more concerned about race relations in this country. It seems like this ‘unexpected’ popularity of Obama has brought out so many fears. I was shocked to hear your comment that he supports ‘black supremacy’ in this country. What does that mean? I already wear the color and know that ‘race does matter’ in America. And many have forgotten that this country was built with 300 years of free slave labor. Immigrants got paid for their contributions. Mrs. Swaggart, I accept that you have human limitations imposed by the color of your skin. Yes in America race does matter as shown on Sunday mornings. Since the Lord is coming back for a church without spot or wrinkle, race is still one area that has to be smoothed out. I am, and always have been an independent (voted twice for Bush) and am not saying that I even know who I will vote for. Obama is an individual running for president. How did he end up being a threat to the white race? He’s either a threat to America which includes us all or he isn’t. God has always used the church (His people) to move America.

My prayer is that His church will once again learn to listen to His voice. We love you all with the love of the Lord.”

DOCTRINAL

First of all, please allow me to elaborate on the discussion you heard on our program. It was not of a political nature, but rather of a doctrinal nature. We were adamantly disagreeing with the doctrine held by Senator Obama’s pastor, Rev. Jeremiah Wright of Trinity United Church of Christ. His church espouses:

“We are an African people, and remain ‘true to our native land,’ the mother continent, the cradle of civilization. God has superintended our pilgrimage through the days of slavery, the days of segregation, and the long night of racism. It is God who gives us the strength and courage to continuously address injustice as a people, and as a congregation. We constantly affirm our trust in God through cultural expression of a Black worship service and ministries which address the Black Community” (http://www.tucc.org/about.htm).

CULTURE

When the Believer is Saved, he is Saved “out” of his culture, not “in” it. If this was not true, then the Jewish followers of Christ discussed in the Bible would have been allowed to hold on to their traditions. Their customs had been in place longer than any other civilization in the world. But the Jewish Christians were not concerned with their old “roots.” They knew that when Christ, the Messiah, came, they were to forsake all of their old traditions and follow Him. Born-Again Believers, no matter what background they come from, have been given new roots! Hallelujah! Now that is something worth shouting from every rooftop, something truly worth being loyal to! As a matter of fact, the Bible warns us against following the traditions of men:

“As you have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk you in him: Rooted and built up in Him, and established in the Faith, as you have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving. Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ” (Col. 2:6-8).

This is true for every cultural background. When the Native American accepts Christ, they should forsake all forms of the worship of other gods — the powwows, totem poles, dances, and medicine men, etc. I could even say that about myself. I am of Scottish and Irish decent, but I do not hold to the Celtic traditions of my ancestors or their religion. Neither do I hold to the traditions of my Native American heritage.

“Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new” (II Cor. 5:17).

While we are all very much aware of our past culture and history, we cannot continue to live in the past! It is important to recognize that inevitably all of the ethnic behaviors of men come back to some form of religious belief — and a belief that does not tell us we are justified by Faith alone! Christians live exclusively by Faith in the Finished Work of Calvary because we have come to realize that it is by His Work alone that man may prosper. This is, in essence, the new “culture” of Christ. And it explains why so many today have trouble coming out of their old traditions. It directly insults man’s pride of life. Man cannot save himself, provide for himself, nor better himself in any way, but yet, this is exactly what the cultures of man were designed to do — prosper the society. The Cross is truly a slap in the face to every way of mankind. However, we should realize that it is a rebuke to our selfishness and self-dependence that keeps us out of fellowship with God, so the insult actually comes from Love. God wants us to be able to fellowship with Him, but such can only come through a complete death to “self” at the foot of Calvary.

FREEDOM OF RELIGION

The very reason for the Reformation in the 1500’s was because the “traditions” of men that had gone on for so long. If Martin Luther, along with many other of the great reformers at the time, had not decided to step out and come away from the established Church and traditions of that day, we would still be living in a society ruled and controlled by a government based upon false religion. And if that had happened, as horrible as the initial time of Africans coming to this country was, millions of African-Americans would have simply remained African and not known the freedom and prosperity that America has had to offer at all. So, for ANY church to get up and tell its people they are going to be “true to our native land, the mother continent, the cradle of civilization,” they are remaining true to a culture and not Christ. You simply cannot have both. It is because of Christ that America believes in freedom of religion, and it is because of Christ that any of us have been given freedom from sin! The “native land” of Africa did not provide freedom, safety, or salvation for African-Americans, nor did their African ancestors. In fact, it was many of their own people, other Africans, who sold them into slavery in the first place. So, why would such a history deserve the African-American’s loyalty today? On the note of racism, please allow me to preface my comments by saying the following: If you were to walk into Family Worship Center on any given day of the week, you will see what the Body of Christ truly is. We have a congregation of Caucasian, African American, Hispanic, Native American, and any number of other nationalities. Any and all races are welcome, and the wonderful thing is that no matter what, as the Spirit of God moves, everyone enters in to the presence of the Lord and worships! The Spirit of God knows no cultural boundaries!

SAVED OR UNSAVED

Having said that, Rev. Wright very prominently says on his website that the motto of their Church is, “We are a congregation which is Unashamedly Black and Unapologetically Christian . . . Our roots in the Black religious experience and tradition are deep, lasting and permanent” (http://www.tucc.org/about.htm). As well, he unashamedly holds to the ideals promoted within the “black power movement.” What if a white pastor got up and said we are “unashamedly white and unapologetically Christian”? Actually, we do have those groups, and such “white supremacy” groups are evil. Are they the picture of Christianity? Absolutely not! There is only one dividing line in the Eyes of God — Saved or unsaved. Anyone who belittles this or tries to create more divisions is doing injustice to Christ and His Cross. The other problem we had with this pastor is his support of Louis Farrakhan (http://www.trumpetmag.com/pdf/nov_dec_feature.pdf) who is a self-proclaimed Muslim and whose teachings are very much pulling people AWAY from the Body of Christ as a whole. How can any “preacher” of the Gospel support such a religious leader? To be blunt, they cannot! It doesn’t matter how much a man seemingly fights for civil rights or racial equality if he does not stand for Christ! Is your pride as a race really more important than the Truth of the Gospel? Are you willing to team-up with a man who serves “allah” just to have one more black man in congress? Think about it! Whom do you serve? When we put aside the “racial” issue and look at the Spiritual issue, we simply have to take a stand against what is being taught from a Spiritual perspective — whether it is being taught by a black man or a white man. If you will fight for Christ, He will fight for you! He will prosper you in His Way and in His Time if you put your loyalties to Him first.

CHRIST SUPREMACY

We should not wish for any type of racial supremacy in this nation at all! We should pray for Christ’s Supremacy! If any ethnic group becomes driven by the desire to be supreme, it is no longer classified as Christianity. It is racism! Webster’s dictionary defines racism as, “a belief that race is the primary determinant of human traits and capacities and that racial differences produce an inherent superiority of a particular race.” So, whether it is a Hispanic, African-American, Caucasian, Asian, or any other who promotes an agenda for the sole sake of benefiting his personal race, he is, by default, guilty of racism himself! I hope in America today we would look for leaders who first and foremost are Christian, not in name only, but evidenced in the life they live and the doctrine they hold to (Lk. 21:8). I think you know by now, through listening to our program, that we have dealt with people across a broad spectrum of religious beliefs. It is amazing to me that no one has accused us of racial bias when we have dealt with the Purpose Driven Life, G-12, or even the religious background of our current President. We will not hold back from discussing the doctrine of ANY false religion or teaching, regardless of the color of the man’s skin that is purporting it!

RACIAL LINES!

The truth is that the Christian Church has been divided across racial lines. In the political arena, we have the majority of black Christians voting for the Democratic Party because they are led to believe Democrats more readily promote minority equality. And, on the other side, we have the majority of white Christians voting for the Republican Party because they believe this is the party that stands for “Christian” morals. Can’t we as Christians see that this is really just a trick of the Devil to divide and conquer the Body of Christ? Why didn’t the Church recognize the danger of America’s two-party politics a long time ago? Jesus clearly stated: “...Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand” (Mat. 12:25). There is an excellent article on the News With Views website that I recommend everyone should read. It was written by Dave Daubenmire and entitled, “What Color Is Your Christianity?”

JESUS ALONE DESERVES YOUR LOYALTY

(Click here for this article. Mr. Daubenmire states: “Black Christians are voting for candidates who won’t stop the killing of unborn black babies ... ‘white churches,’ for the most part have been oblivious to the needs of their black brothers and sisters in Christ. . . . We have turned the duties of the Church over to the god-of-government and we wonder why our black brothers look to elected officials for salvation.”

Daubenmire continues, “‘White Christians’ pray to their ‘white God’ for more stuff, while ‘black Christians’ pray to their ‘black God’ for justice and equality . . . Tragically, most blacks have been taught to be more loyal to the Democrats than they are to their Lord and how about you, my white Christian brother? Did Jeremiah Wright’s comments make you angry or sad? Are you voting Republican so you can beat the Democrats when you should be voting for Jesus so he can destroy the works of Satan? We have become convinced that Party allegiance trumps allegiance to Christ. The Devil runs both Parties. A vote for either is a vote for Slew-foot’s agenda. What kind of nation would this be if 90% of the Christians voted for the same values? . . . Blacks and whites serve the same Jesus. We just don’t know that we do.”

God, forgive us all for being so blind! The Apostle Paul said: “Be ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ” (I Cor. 11:1). All True Believers must begin disregarding cultural backgrounds and start choosing leaders, both political and spiritual, whose actions are directed by Christ rather than his race. Do not allow race to become an idol. It is only Jesus who deserves your loyalty.

Isaiah 44:3-4 – “For I will pour Water upon him who is thirsty, and floods upon the dry ground: I will pour My Spirit upon your seed, and My Blessing upon your offspring (this Promise had a fulfillment at Pentecost; but the future only will bring the total fulfillment.

“The ‘Water’ here is a figure of the Holy Spirit; the ‘willows,’ a figure of the sons of Israel.

“This is the Promise to which Peter pointed in Acts 2:39. It is a Promise to Israel and to her children. As such, and as other Scriptures show, it was to overflow from Israel to all the nations of the Earth. It will yet do so!

“And they shall spring up as among the grass, as willows by the water courses. (Israel rejected their ‘Pentecost’ some 2,000 years ago. But now at the Second Advent of Christ they will accept, and gladly! At this time, He will ‘pour Water upon him who is thirsty, and floods upon the dry ground.’

“This infusion of the Holy Spirit upon and within Israel shall cause them to blossom as ‘willows by the water courses.’

The literal meaning of this Passage refers to Israel during the Kingdom Age when the Holy Spirit, symbolized by the use of the word “Water, “ will be poured out and Blessings unparalleled will rain upon Israel. However, the spirit of the Text can definitely apply to us today, which is what I am dealing with in this article.

THE HOLY SPIRIT, GOD’S GREATEST GIFT TO THE CHURCH

As Salvation is God’s Greatest Gift to the world, the mighty infilling of the Holy Spirit with the evidence of speaking in Tongues is God’s Greatest Gift to the Church. Everything done in the Church and in our lives today is done through the Person, Office, and Work of the Holy Spirit.

As well, during the Ministry of Christ, everything He did was as a Man filled with the Holy Spirit (Lk. 4:16-19), and if Christ had to have the Holy Spirit, how much more do we who are flawed and frail need the Holy Spirit?

“I WILL POUR WATER UPON HIM WHO IS THIRSTY”

There is a thirst in man that cannot be satisfied outside of the person and indwelling of the Holy Spirit. Religion cannot satisfy that thirst and the world cannot satisfy that thirst. Jesus, in John 14:16-18 said, “And I will pray the Father, and He shall give you another Comforter, that He may abide with you forever; even the Spirit of Truth; Whom the world cannot receive, because it sees Him not, neither knows Him: but you know Him; for He dwells with you, and shall be in you. I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you.”

Water, a Symbol of the Holy Spirit, speaks of life. Just as the ground must have water for crops to grow, just as the physical body must have water to live, Spiritual man must have the Living Water of the Holy Spirit flowing in their lives.

Notice the Lord said, “I will,” an emphatic statement meaning nothing can stop Him from doing what He says He is going to do. Likewise, nothing can stop us from receiving, except ourselves, whether through lack of Faith or a lack of yielding, but Satan cannot stop the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon those who hunger and thirst after Righteousness.
The word “pour” means to overflow. This tells us that what the Holy Spirit desires is to overflow us, saturate us, literally consume us in the Water of the Holy Spirit.

“And Floods upon the Dry Ground”

The world and religion is dry ground, parched and starved, but there are “floods” of Living Water available to us. The Holy Spirit through Ezekiel describes the Holy Spirit “as flowing river” (Ezek. 47:5). He then said, “And everything shall live whither the River comes” (Ezek. 47:9). When the Holy Spirit begins to flow, the dry ground becomes a veritable ground of life and harvest.

“I Will Pour My Spirit Upon Your Seed, and My Blessing Upon Your Offspring”

Israel is Seed, but we who are Gentiles who have accepted Christ, we are now His offspring, and He has promised to pour out His Spirit upon us, which brings Blessing to not only us, but to our offspring as well.

“And They Shall Spring Up as Among the Grass, as Willows by the Water Courses”

“Willows” refers to a certain type of tree that will grow only near “flowing water.” The Holy Spirit will make you strong as a tree, Spiritually speaking. Let the River flow right where you are, open your heart to Him, and by Faith receive the Blessed Holy Spirit, and you will begin to sing:
“There’s a River of Life flowing out from me,
“Makes the lame to walk and the blind to see,

“I will pour Water upon him who is thirsty!”

OVER-THE-AIR (DTV) TELEVISION

For those of you who are not familiar with digital television, these are free "old fashioned TV channels" that are able to be picked up with a digital tuner and antenna. Most new televisions are equipped with built-in digital tuners or you can purchase a tuner from your local electronics store (Best Buy®, Radio Shack®, etc.). As well, you can purchase the proper antenna at your local electronics store. Many viewers under the broadcast signal of the television station can use a small, digital antenna inside the home. For those on the outer edge of the signal or to receive the best signal, an outdoor antenna may be required. Both indoor and outdoor antennas are available for less than $50!

Dear Brother Swaggart,

My parents gave me an Expositor’s New Testament in 2005. I could hardly wait to dive in. Immediately I could sense the Anointing of the Holy Spirit, and knew that this was the unadulterated Holy Word of God. My folks and I were so excited about the true Revelation of the Cross of Jesus Christ. It has blessed us beyond words.

We have had some very serious issues and illnesses in our immediate family, but praise God we were equipped to stand firm in what our Jesus Christ has done for us at the Cross. And it was The Expositor’s Study Bible that lined up our Spirit, soul, and body with the Finished Work of Jesus Christ. Glory be to God. Then we each ordered the Regular Print Bibles as soon as they were printed, and then JSM came out with the iPods and we each ordered one. My parents became Bible-of-the-month members and started giving them away to extended family and friends. So then the Lord used me to give Bibles away. Even during my battle with cancer, I was still able to give Bibles away along with giving my Testimony of my Faith in Jesus Christ and Him crucified. We are believing that the Lord will open the hearts of our remaining immediate family to receive the True Message of the Cross of Christ, and also support SonLife Broadcasting Network and Jimmy Swaggart Ministries. I am a Media Church member and tithe monthly.

Thank you for your extraordinary Faith, we love you all!

THE EXPOsITOR’S STUDY BIBLE

Dear Sister Frances,

I just felt I had to write to tell you what a blessing it is to have SonLife Broadcasting Network (SBN)! I’m an elementary school counselor and found SBN on Dish while off on summer break. The only time SBN was off was when we had thunderstorms and Dish Network was out. And since I am back at work I have SBN on my radio at school, so when students or other staff members come in, they too hear God’s Word being boldly taught! I feel like I’ve found preaching like I grew up with. It is so refreshing to have preachers and teachers bold enough to stand on God’s Word!

I also wanted to share with you what a blessing your Ministry has been to my family. In 1983 my father had a massive heart attack, and had to retire on disability. During that time he was a faithful supporter of Jimmy Swaggart Ministries (JSM). His doctor told him he might have 1 to 2 years to live, and Dad knew that my mother’s part of his military pension would be cut tremendously if that were the case. My Dad prayed about it, and promised the Lord that if He would let him live 3 years so that Mom would receive full benefits, that he would tithe to our church and JSM. Dad was faithful in his tithing, and the Lord not only blessed him with 3 years, but gave him 7! When dad went Home to be with the Lord, there was not a struggle, he simply went to sleep. God is so Faithful and Merciful!

God bless you as you keep proclaiming the Message of the Cross.

SONLIFE BROADCASTING NETWORK

Dear Reverend Jimmy Swaggart,

I want you to know that here in Brazil, I watch your programs. Today I am 46 years old, but when I was a teenager I was very blessed by your messages and music. I felt the Anointing of God in your life. I went to Rio de Janeiro to see you preaching. It was a very happy day for me. I love you so much, and really like your music and messages that I hear on the Internet. God continue to bless you and use you more and more each day to preach the Gospel of Christ, and the blessing of many lives.

VERY BLESSED BY YOUR MESSAGES AND MUSIC

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I would love to say, “thank you” for still preaching the truth. I wrote to you years ago in 1980. I was lost in sin. I had just got home from a long night of partying, it was Sunday morning, and I was waiting for the football game to start. While watching I am hearing a preacher by the name of Jimmy Swaggart, and in the middle of your message you stopped and looked right into the camera and I heard you say, “You young man, put the beer and..."
You were preaching out of Luke, Chapter 8, and that day God began to deal with me. Now I am a Youth pastor, and I have been working for God for 31 years because of your obedience to God.

God bless you.

THE MESSAGE OF THE CROSS

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I am a Southern Baptist preacher, 54 years old, and I would just like to tell you how much your teaching of the Message of the Cross has done for me in preaching, and giving a better understanding to me and anyone that hears this teaching the Lord has given you. I have been filled with the Baptism of the Holy Spirit with the evidence of speaking in other Tongues, and it has opened my eyes in a way that I can’t explain. The Lord allowed me to have a vision of Him, and said to me not to compromise His Word. When I heard your teaching I knew, and heard Him say this is what I was speaking of that day. One day I hope to get one of your Bibles, but until then I do know this, please don’t stop preaching this message!

Thank you again for letting God use you this way, He will provide what you need to keep this going. Just let the hot coal keep burning your lips and mostly, your heart.

HIS PRESENCE

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I view SonLife Broadcasting Network on my computer, but the picture is sometimes weak and poor quality because I am in Vietnam. But, through your DVD’s, I can see everything clearly, and it is like another world! I can now see people being touched by the Power of God, and the anointing makes me cry as I experience His Presence. Bless you heaps!

YOUR WONDERFUL MINISTRY

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I simply want to express my appreciation to you and your wonderful Ministry, which has blessed me for many years. I have followed your Ministry through Music CD’s, and now through your incredible SonLife Radio broadcasts, which I monitor through the Internet. I am a Pastor of a fast growing church here in Stockholm, and I am recommending SonLife Radio to members of my congregation. This blessing is too much to be enjoyed alone. Moreover, I am raising my faith to look to a day when JSM will come and bring the good news of the Gospel to the beautiful, but not godless, city of Stockholm. Evangelist Swaggart, your Music ministry inspired and shaped who I am today as a singer and worship leader.

God bless JSM, and God bless SonLife Radio.

I GET TO GO TO CHURCH!

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I enjoy watching and listening to your messages and singing very much. I am homebound and on oxygen, but this way I get to go to church! Thank you so much for being there for people like us. God bless you.

MY TV HAS NOT LEFT SBN

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I would just like to express how blessed I have been by Family Worship Center, and all of SonLife Broadcasting Network. I am 16 years old and ordained by God to preach. On Tuesday of this week I was searching through the list of channels and found that Jimmy Swaggart Ministries was on. I had never listened to him before, so I decided to watch. Well, to make a long story short, my TV has not left SBN since Tuesday! I have gotten the greatest Blessing for all the programs and shows through SBN, and I am able to have the Church Services I am used too all week long, and I love it! I would also like to say how much I love the music and songs that are sung at Family Worship Center, they are the type of songs that I like! Many people at school, etc., cannot understand why in the world I love the older songs and hymns, but what can I say? I’m just a good ole, old-time, Pentecostal guy!

Once again, thank you guys so much for all you do!

Colossians 2:11-15 – “In Whom also you are circumcised with the Circumcision made without hands (that which is brought about by the Cross [Rom. 6:3-5]), in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the Circumcision of Christ (refers to the old carnal nature that is defeated by the Believer placing his Faith totally in the Cross, which gives the Holy Spirit latitude to work):

“Buried with Him in Baptism (does not refer to Water Baptism, but rather to the Believer baptized into the death of Christ, which refers to the Crucifixion and Christ as our substitute [Rom. 6:3-4]), wherein also you are risen with Him through the Faith of the operation of God, Who has raised Him from the dead. (This does not refer to our future physical Resurrection, but to that spiritual Resurrection from a sinful state into Divine Life. We died with Him, we are buried with Him, and we rose with Him [Rom. 6:3-5], and herein lies the secret to all Spiritual Victory.)

“And you, being dead in your sins and the un circumcision of your flesh (speaks of spiritual death [i.e., ‘separation from God’], which sin does!), has He quickened together with Him (refers to being made spiritually alive, which is done through being ‘Born-Again’), having forgiven you all trespasses (the Cross made it possible for all manner of sins to be forgiven and taken away);

“Blotting out the handwriting of Ordinances that was against us (pertains to the Law of Moses, which was God’s Standard of Righteousness that man could not reach), which was contrary to us (Law is against us, simply because we are unable to keep its precepts, no matter how hard we try), and took it out of the way (refers to the penalty of the Law being removed), nailing it to His Cross (the Law with its decrees was abolished in Christ’s Death, as if Crucified with Him);

“And having spoiled principalities and powers (Satan and all of his henchmen were defeated at the Cross by Christ atoning for all sin; sin was the legal right Satan had to hold man in captivity; with all sin atoned, he has no more legal right to hold anyone in bondage), He (Christ) made a show of them openly (what Jesus did at the Cross was in the face of the whole universe), triumphing over them in it. (The triumph is complete and it was all done for us, meaning we can walk in power and perpetual Victory due to the Cross.)”

In the above Scripture, Paul qualifies why our Faith should remain in the Cross. In the last two installments of this series we have laid the foundation for this statement. The first two benefits have already been discussed. They were:

BENEFIT #1 – A Person is Born-Again as a result of Faith in the Cross.

BENEFIT #2 – My Faith in the Cross brings me freedom from the dominion of the sin nature.

Now let’s go on to discuss benefit number three:

“Buried with Him in Baptism. . . .”

BENEFIT #3 – My Baptism into Christ makes me one with Him. I am “in Christ.”

The term “baptism” is often misunderstood in Christendom. For the Believer there are three forms of baptism that every Believer can and should encounter. These are illustrated throughout the New Testament, making these three baptisms a “normal Christian experience.” They are Baptism into the Body, Baptism.
with Water, and Baptism with the Spirit. The Baptism into the Body is the supernatural event of the believing sinner being merged into the Body of Christ. It is the Salvation experience. In I Corinthians 12:13 the Bible states, “For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one Body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit.” This is where the believing sinner is made one with Christ. Their Faith in Christ and what He accomplished for them at Calvary gives them the position of being “in Christ.” Other Scriptures that describe this Spiritual event are Romans 6:3 and Galatians 3:27. As a result of the Believer’s new union with Christ he has become a “new creation in Christ Jesus.” Baptism with water does not bring about or complete Salvation, it is an outward Testimony to the world that a Spiritual New Birth within has occurred. The Baptism with the Holy Spirit is a second subsequent Work of Grace upon the heart of the Believer, separate and distinct from Salvation. It has the accompanying evidence of speaking in Tongues. This baptism does not save but rather endues the Believer with Power to be a witness of Christ in this present evil world. The different events regarding baptism are to be interpreted by their Scriptural setting. In this case, the benefit of being Saved and being made one with Christ is what Paul is referring to. The term “buried” is not literal but Spiritual. It describes the fact of the person I once was, dominated by the sin nature, of having been crucified with Christ. The old man was buried with Christ as well. You bury something you no longer plan on seeing. The person I once was has been crucified with Christ and buried. It is God’s Design that this Spiritual Truth remains consistent with my everyday life. Please also note that Benefits 3, 4, and 5 hold the idea of the term “co-” as in co-baptized, co-raised, and co-quickened. This simply portrays the sense that as this happened to Christ it also has happened to the Believer.

“. . . Wherein also you are risen with Him through the Faith of the operation of God, Who has raised Him from the dead.”

BENEFIT #4 – Co-raised with Him and in Him by Faith – not raised separately.

When Jesus was raised from death to life, I was in Him. Therefore, I sit now with Him in Heavenly places. Ephesians 2:6 says, “And has raised us up together, and made us sit together in Heavenly places in Christ Jesus.” Even though I have a journey to complete on this Earth in the Mind of God we who are one with Christ, have been raised from death to life, and are already a part of the congregation of Heaven. I have been co-raised with Christ.

“And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, has He quickened together with Him. . . .”

BENEFIT #5 – Co-quickened or energized by the Spirit of God.

Not only have I been co-buried and co-raised, but the potential of being co-quickened lies within my grasp. The old power source available to the sinner was the limited power of self. Now I have a new Power Source available, the Person of the Holy Spirit, and it is He who aids me in this Christian experience. Evidence of this event can be found in Ephesians 2:4-5 where the Scriptures say, “But God, who is rich in Mercy, for His great Love wherewith He loved us, (5) Even when we were dead in sins, has quickened us together with

I Chronicles 21:26 – “And David built there an Altar unto the LORD, and offered Burnt Offerings and Peace Offerings, and called upon the LORD; and He answered him from Heaven by fire upon the Altar of Burnt Offering.

(The lightning coming from Heaven and striking the Sacrifice is a picture of God’s Judgment on sin — the Judgment, we may quickly add, that should have fallen on David, and on us, for that matter, but, instead, fell upon Christ. The choice belongs to man! Man can accept the Judgment that fell on Christ, and do so by accepting Christ, which sets the sinner free. Or he can rebel against Christ, and suffer the lightning-strike of Judgment upon himself. There is no alternative!)"

SIN ALWAYS CARRIES A CONSEQUENCE

Despite David being known as “the man after God’s Own Heart” (I Sam. 13:14), and despite David being used of God to bring Israel into a place of complete authority and power, still, David was not immune to the consequences of his actions. As David disregarded the whole purpose for taking the national census, he was visited by Gad the Prophet, who instructed the king as to the Lord’s Punishment: three years famine, three months being destroyed by his enemies, or three days pestilence.

Don’t let anyone tell you that sinning against God never carries a consequence, even if it has been properly repented of. Sin is never something that we should play around with, not even for a second. Sin has a pull to it that, in all honesty, will seem pleasurable and fun. But there will always come a time that the sin in question will become a bondage that we could never get ourselves out of, no matter how hard we try.

I’ve never taken a drug before, not one time in my life, but they say that the initial high that one receives from drugs is euphoric, to say the least. But every time after that initial drug experience, you chase that feeling from your very first hit. In other words, the first time was magical, and the other times after, not so much. It may seem harmless to try something that causes so much euphoria, but soon it becomes a bondage that is very difficult for man to break through his own ability and strength. The consequence of taking drugs is always looking for the next fix, where your entire being craves the drug and craves the high, to the point of neglecting a family to satisfy the craving.

I tell my youth group at Crossfire that sin is never something that we should play with, for when we think that we can control the sin, we realize that the sin is controlling us. There is always a consequence to sin, without fail. However, we must understand that the punishment that will be leveled against us will always come from God, and not from man. God is the One, especially for the Christian, Who says what the chastisement will be. The fact is, Christ took upon Himself the punishment of our sin at Calvary’s Cross, for if we took the punishment ourselves, no one would be alive to tell about it. Sin is an awful business, and Calvary was an awful experience. But the Cross is what addressed sin, once and for all.

I’M IN A GREAT STRAIT

In fact, after hearing the Judgment that was leveled against him, David himself said that he was in a great strait. Sin places one, even the godliest, in a great strait, for this is the only place for a person to turn to the Lord, which is exactly what David did, he threw himself towards the Mercy of God, knowing that this would be the ultimate solution. If he would have chosen the punishment of men, he would have been destroyed. He chose to put his life in the Hands of God, which should be a lesson to us today. Once we fail the Lord, we must remember that the Lord never looks at us on the basis of our sin, for if that was the case, no one would ever be forgiven. But God looks at us on the basis of the Shed Blood of the Lamb. If we ask for forgiveness, keeping our eyes upon Calvary, then the sin that we have committed will be forgiven and washed away.

But, as David chose to place his life in the Hands of the Lord, the Lord sent an Angel and slew 70,000 people in a three-day period of time. Even though we are not told as to what the pestilence was spoken of here in this Chapter, we do know that this was orchestrated by God. Whatever happens either in our lives or events on the world scene, everything is either allowed by God to happen or orchestrated by God to happen, and if it were not for the Cross of Christ, this world would have been destroyed a long time ago. It is the Cross of Christ, alone, that stands between mankind and the Judgment of God.

But once the Angel arrived “by the threshingfloor of Arunah, the Jebusite,” the Angel of the Lord stopped. The reason why the Lord stopped the Angel at this exact location was that it would be the future place where the Temple would be built during the reign of king Solomon, David’s son. The Lord would turn an awful scene into a time of great blessing, at least for those that would turn to Him.

DAVID BUILT AN ALTAR

At the command of the Prophet Gad, David went to the home of Arunah the Jebusite, wanting to purchase this place from him, in order to build an Altar unto the Lord. As many of you know, that Altar was a Type of Calvary, for it was at the Cross that the Judgment of God was handed out upon Christ, taking upon Himself the Judgment of God that we should have all taken. God must judge sin, and it doesn’t matter who was/is at fault, or even what the sin was, sin must be judged. It was the Lord Who stopped the Angel from going any further, because the ceasing of the Judgment was based upon the sacrifice that would be offered upon that Altar, which David was to build.

It was at that moment, when David built the Altar and offered Burnt Offerings and Peace Offerings, which was a Type of the Sacrifice of Christ and that once we have been forgiven, Peace with God can be shared once again; the plague that hung over Israel was stayed. This whole episode explains to us that the only remedy for sin is the Cross of Christ. There is a plague that hangs over every person that has ever lived, and if we allow it, it will destroy us. But, God has given us His Sacrifice that if we just accept and believe that Christ paid it all for us, then the plague of sin will be stayed.

In Him,

Pastor Gabe

HISTORY

Does Judaism today resemble what God had originally conveyed in the Pentateuch? What is the foundation of the modern Hebraic Roots Movement? To answer these questions, let us examine some history. In so doing, we can evaluate which element modern Judaism and the “Christian” Hebraic Movement resemble most: God’s written Word or Jewish oral tradition.

PRE-CHRISTIAN ERA

In 165 B.C., there was a Jewish uprising of the Maccabees against Antiochus Epiphanies of Syria. At that time, the victorious Jews were, in fact, free to worship at the Temple in Jerusalem, but Rome had begun to take over the government of Syria and Israel. The Hasmonean family, to which Judah Maccabee belonged, brought forth leaders that continued to sustain Jewish independence, all the while Rome kept a watchful and observant eye on their progress. In 63 B.C., Pompey of Rome marched into Israel and invaded the Temple during a service, killing thousands of priests and worshippers. Pompey then appointed Hyrcanus – a Jew very friendly to Rome – as the new High Priest, but Pompey stopped short of giving him any royal title.

Some fifteen years after this event, Julius Caesar and Pompey entered into a civil war, of which Caesar was the victor. During the conflict, Hycanus and Antipater defected from the side of Pompey in order to support Julius Caesar. As a show of gratitude for their allegiance and help, Caesar reconfirmed Hycanus as the High Priest and appointed Antipater as procurator of Judea.

After the death of Antipater, his son Herod continued to offer allegiance to Rome. Herod supported Caesar until the latter was assassinated; consequently, Herod shifted his faithfulness from Caesar to Brutus, then from Brutus to Mark Anthony, and then finally from Mark Anthony to Octavian. In exchange for his undying consecration to Rome, Herod was appointed as King of Judea.

JEWISH SECTS AND SCHOLARS

The daily life of a Jew in Israel was directed by two components: the mitzvoth (commandments) found within the Written Law (Torah), as well as the Unwritten (Oral) Laws, which were laws and traditions that had grown up among the people. Several factions of Jewish leadership emerged during this period. The most significant group of religious leaders was the Pharisees, called Perushim. These Pharisaical rabbis and leaders placed a focus on the keeping of Jewish law in everyday life and living. They revered both the Written and Oral law, though emphasis was directed to the Oral traditions. The Pharisees believed that study and observance were essential for every Jew, and they even went as far as ruling that every town must have a school for children. The Pharisees comprised most of the seventy-one scholarly positions in the court of the Sanhedrin, the group that settled questions of Jewish law. The other major group of Jewish leaders was the Sadducees, and the leaders in this faction were the priestly and affluent “elite” of Israel. They emphasized Temple service and insisted on a literal interpretation of the Torah.

Looking outside the boundaries of Israel, at this particular interval in history, there were many Jews who lived and worshipped throughout the Roman Empire. For example, in the city of Alexandria, Egypt, one-third of the people were Jews. To the pagan people of Alexandria, the philosopher Philo actually defended the Jewish religion, explaining how the Scriptures and Jewish traditions taught people to be virtuous. The largest Jewish community outside of the Roman Empire, however, was in Babylonia. When the first Temple was destroyed in 586 B.C., most Jews were forced into exile, fleeing to Babylonia. Years later when Jews were allowed passage back to Jerusalem to build the second Temple, many of the exiles remained in Babylonia. Despite the Jewish community in Babylonia growing to nearly a million strong at this time, they still considered themselves to be in exile. Those wishing to study the Torah traveled back to Jerusalem. Perhaps the most famous of these Babylonian scholars was Hillel, who travelled to Jerusalem, becoming a leader in schools and in the Sanhedrin. Hillel studied both the Torah and the Oral traditions, and he showed how the Oral laws actually came from the confines of the written Torah.

ROMAN OCCUPATION

After the Death, Resurrection, and Ascension of Jesus Christ, the Roman occupation led to high taxation and dishonor for the Jewish Temple. In fact, the procurator, Florus, robbed the Temple and summarily had his soldiers slaughter thousands of protestors. As a result of this maltreatment, the leaders of the Sanhedrin made plans for war and revolt. They appointed military leaders that were expected to hold back the Roman legions in Galilee. The Jewish General, Josephus, quickly fell to Rome’s great General Vespasian, who was under direct charge from Emperor Nero. Consequently, Josephus defected to Rome and, although a traitor to the Jews, he recorded an account of Jewish history that was, and still is, unprecedented. The Roman forces then gathered at Jerusalem and surrounded the Temple. The Jewish zealots would not allow surrender, and on the ninth day of Av in the year A.D. 70, the Romans set the Temple ablaze, killing every defender.

Traditionally, it is said that while the Romans were besieging Jerusalem, the scholar Johanan ben Zakkai wanted to speak with the Roman commander, however, the Zealots would not permit anyone to leave the city. Therefore, Zakkai’s students claimed that he had passed away, hid him in a coffin, and carried him out the city walls. Once outside the city, Zakkai contacted General Vespasian for permission to start a school in the town of Yavne near the Mediterranean Sea. Tradition holds that Vespasian gave his approval, and the school started by Zakkai saved the Jewish people, though the Temple was destroyed.

POST-TEMPLE JEWISH LIFE

The study of the Torah continued, even without Temple services. The school established by Zakkai carried on the teachings of Hillel, interpreted the laws, and explained how each rule in the Oral Law was derived from the Torah. The Jews were instructed how they could continue to be Jews by keeping the laws of the Torah in their daily lives, even without the Temple and all associated rituals. The synagogues, which were built in nearly every town by Jews in exile, became the chief meeting places and centers of worship. Study and prayer, rather than sacrifice, became the new way the Jew showed his devotion to God.

The rabbis of the learning academies deliberated on questions of Jewish law. Johanan ben Zakkai, upon building the institutions, also reinstated the religious court, which was headed by a president, referred to as a Nasi. The descendants of Hillel were appointed to these prestigious Nasi positions, otherwise known as Patriarchs. The leaders in the academies were called Tannaim, a title derived from the word meaning “to teach.” The Tannaim knew that war, persecution, and exile might cause the Jewish people to forget their law, unless it was gathered and written down in one place. The old feeling that the Oral Law should remain unwritten began to fade away.

THE TALMUD

Patriarch Judah ha-Nasi edited the Mishnayot, which were statements of Oral Law, and organized them into six Orders of the Mishnah. The Mishnah became the book of study for all Jewish schools. Scholars referred to as Amora’im, from the root “to speak,” discussed and added commentary to the Mishnah. This vast collection of commentary was compiled and dubbed the Gemara. The pairing together of the statements of the Oral Law (Mishnah) and the scholarly commentary on the Law (Gemara) became known as the Talmud. There are two Talmuds, one of which is the Jerusalem Talmud, and the other is the Babylonian Talmud, or the Talmud Bavli.

By the year A.D. 500, Rome did not permit any more Patriarchs. Actually, Christianity had become the state-sponsored religion of the Roman Empire, and converts were made by disallowing all other faiths to prosper. Though there were no descendants of Hillel that could be accounted for, Jews in exile continued to live according to the rules based on Hillel’s teachings that were established by the Nasi.

THE MODERN HEBRAIC ROOTS MOVEMENT – FAILURE

It has been said, and rightfully so, that The New Testament is the Old Testament revealed, thus it is imperative for one to embrace the substance of the New Testament before one can truly benefit from the shadows in the Old Testament; the modern Hebraic Roots Movement asserts that the opposite is true. Therefore, it is no surprise that the Hebraic Roots Movement neglects and altogether minimizes the sacrifice, which is the Lord Jesus Christ. Instead, emphasis is placed on the practice of Jewish traditions, which is entirely against the Plan of God revealed in the Bible. In reality, the modern Hebraic Roots Movement does not even resemble in the slightest God’s written Law, which pointed to Jesus Christ, and is the very thing they are trying to follow! Yes, the Church should pray for Israel; it is our indebted responsibility to pray for the peace of Jerusalem. But the debt we owe Israel does not involve holding politicized gatherings or sending money for tree planting in the Holy Land. Very simply, the debt we owe to the Jew is the same as for the rest of the world: present them with Jesus Christ as Messiah.

BIBLES FOR RUSSIA

As it regards Mexico, Central America and South America, with the exception of Brazil, we have put some 20,000 EXPOSITOR’S STUDY BIBLES into the hands of Pastors in these great countries. I firmly believe that this is going to turn aside much false doctrine. And now the Lord has told me to do the very same thing for Russia.

Whenever we gave instructions five years ago for THE EXPOSITOR’S STUDY BIBLE to be translated into Russian, I did not really know exactly why we were doing it. And then the Holy Spirit used someone, and let me explain.

It was in the middle of the Bible-thon on August 2nd, and someone had helped pay for several Bibles for Latin America. Down at the bottom of the note, they had given the information to those who answered the phones, and they had written it out. It stated:

“Brother Swaggart, what are you going to do about Russia?”

The moment I read those words the Holy Spirit quickened my heart and my spirit. The next week we called in people who are well versed in Russia, and they informed us as to what I suspected, that outside of a couple of large cities like Moscow and Leningrad, the economy could hardly be worse. In other words, while there are some few Russian Pastors who can afford whatever it is they want, I would say that 98% can’t. And let me say the following:

Whenever THE EXPOSITOR’S STUDY BIBLE is placed into the hands of a Preacher, he will not be the only one influenced, but he will influence his entire congregation. And, to be sure, he will know correct Doctrine. As the Lord is using THE EXPOSITOR’S STUDY BIBLE to a great degree in Latin America, likewise I believe the Lord is going to use it in Russia.

We have already given instructions for 20,000 Russian Bibles to be printed. We think we have worked out the logistics as it regards getting the Bibles to the Pastors, etc. In fact, we possibly could start delivering them any day now.

Once again, for $30 a Bible (10-316), we can put something into the hands of these Pastors that would be, I believe, the greatest help that they could ever come by. And, incidentally, out of that $30, we pay all printing, of course, and all shipping, etc. So, I’m asking you, please, to pray about purchasing some of these Bibles for Russia.

My name is well-known all over Russia, as we were on television in that great country for some two years. We received well over a million letters from people in the former Soviet Union, for that’s what it was called then, who had given their heart to Christ as a result of the Telecast. How we thank the Lord for that. And I believe the Lord is going to use this Bible even in a greater way than He did the Telecast. While we are going into Russia now by television, actually 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, still it’s in English, and only about 4% of the Russians speak English. So, I want you to pray with us about the possibility of us translating into this language. These are monumental tasks, in other words, very difficult to do. It’s one thing to translate a 1 hour program per week or 30 minute program per day, but something else again to translate 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

GERMANY, SPAIN, FRANCE

We have just gone on in some 25 million homes in the three countries listed in the heading. That which goes into Spain, which is well over a million homes, is translated into Spanish. Thankfully, some 57% of the Germans speak English, so I feel that the Lord is going to touch many hearts and lives in those areas.

THE FINANCES

And, I might quickly add, as would be obvious, we get virtually no help at all financially speaking from these particular countries. So, why are we there? Well I think the reasons should be overly obvious.

We are there because the Lord has told us to take the Message of the Cross to the entirety of the world, and that we are attempting to do. I earnestly solicit your prayers, and I earnestly solicit your financial support. You don’t have to wonder as to what our Doctrine is. All you have to do is turn on the Television programming, and it’s right there before your eyes, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Incidentally, I want to thank you so very, very much for those of you who helped us with the upgrading of the Television Studio. This was something we had to have, even though I certainly did not enjoy having to spend that type of money. However, you can’t haul 200,000 pounds in a pickup truck, you have to have an 18-wheeler. And that’s what we have had to have metaphorically speaking. By the time you read this, the work should be pretty close to being finished, and that means that all the equipment is operating.

In the Master’s Service, yours,

Jimmy Swaggart

World Evangelism Fellowship was born out of a deep desire of Christians from all denominational backgrounds to reach the world with the Gospel of Jesus Christ. It was realized that when Churches and Ministries band together under the anointing of the Holy Spirit to attack the strongholds of Satan, much can be accomplished.

This is the reason World Evangelism Fellowship was formed – to channel the efforts of Churches and Preachers from all over the United States, Canada, and the world into a unified, proven plan to reach the lost and dying with the Good News of the Gospel. The call of God to win the lost is clear. World Evangelism Fellowship is answering that call and we would like to extend an invitation to you to join us. This is not a Denomination, and we pray it never will be. It is, however, a fellowship of Ministers and Churches united in their efforts to reach the world for Jesus Christ.

How do I, as an individual, affiliate with World Evangelism Fellowship?

There are several ways to join World Evangelism Fellowship, and the method you choose depends on what God has called you to do.

• Christian Worker • Licensed Minister
• Ordained Minister • Church Affiliation

Christ. . . .” However, the Work of the Holy Spirit certainly doesn’t stop here. As the Power Source for the Christian life He energizes the Believer with Power to live the Christian life. In Romans 8:11 the Bible says, “But if the Spirit of Him Who raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, He Who raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by His Spirit that dwells in you.” To “quicken” means to make alive. Some point to this Scripture is speaking of the coming Rapture or Resurrection. However, the content of Romans, Chapter 8, is Christian living and progressive Sanctification. Therefore, as long as my Faith remains in Christ and His Atoning Work, the Spirit of God enables me to live the Christian life.

WHY SHOULD I PLACE MY FAITH IN CHRIST AND HIM CRUCIFIED?

1. Faith in Christ’s Cross causes a person to be Born-Again.
2. Faith in Christ’s Cross brings me freedom from the dominion of the sin nature.
3. Faith in Christ’s Cross causes them to be co-buried with Christ – to be made one with Him.
4. Faith in Christ’s Cross causes the Believer to be co-raised with Him and to live in Him.
5. Faith in Christ’s Cross co-quickens or energizes the Believer by the Spirit of God.

These are the first five of nine benefits. There are four more benefits that we will talk about in future segments.

THE PROTECTION OF YOUR ASSETS, YOUR FAMILY, YOUR FUTURE, AND THE WORK OF GOD

Many people have the mistaken idea that a will is the best legal instrument for the protection and designation of the distribution of their assets. However, by and large, that is incorrect. A will can be contested and is often changed by contentious parties. The very best legal instrument for this purpose is a Living Trust. Call us for further information.

WHAT IS A LIVING TRUST?

A Living Trust is a legal document to transfer all of your property, assets, cash, or whatever you desire from your individual name to the name of your Trust.

WHAT ARE THE ADVANTAGES OF A LIVING TRUST OVER A WILL AND OTHER LEGAL INSTRUMENTS?

1. A Living Trust is one of the very best ways provided by the United States’ tax laws to save on taxes.
2. You, the principal, have total control over your Living Trust, and you can change it as desired at any time.
3. A Living Trust can be secured regardless of your marital status or age.
4. A Living Trust is the best legal instrument to protect your family, to insure the distribution of your assets according to your desires, and to benefit the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Why not call our Planned Giving Department at (225) 768-3157 and ask for information concerning Living Trusts?

“Every true Move of God will always be accompanied by a Call to the Cross, which results in strong preaching, which convicts of sin and calls people to Holiness.”
