THE RELIGIOUS TREATY WITH IRAN

Most would object to the statement, “religious treaty with Iran,” however, that’s exactly what it is. We do not think of it in those terms, but that’s exactly the way the Iranians think of it.

Everything they do is according to what they believe the Koran teaches. And the following is what the Koran teaches about treaties:

First of all, no treaty is to be signed by any Muslim leader unless it favors Islam. And then, if the treaty seems to turn a different direction where it does not favor Islam, at any time, they can break the treaty, etc. So what does that mean?

It means that you cannot have any type of treaty with Muslims. It’s a total waste of time. If they think the treaty is no longer favoring them, they can break it. So any effort to try to form some type of agreement with them is pointless.

So what do we have now? We don’t have anything. The Iranians have $150 billion that we’ve given them, their money I might quickly add which was frozen, plus they can build any type of atomic bomb they so desire. The upshot is, they are going to build an atomic bomb, treaty or no treaty. But our leaders do not understand the religion of Islam. And by not understanding it, we are getting taken to the cleaners, so to speak.

WHERE DOES THAT LEAVE ISRAEL?

That’s a good question!

I think it’s the right thing to say, that the present administration in Washington is no friend of Israel whatsoever. And to be frank, that is a tremendously dangerous situation in which we find ourselves. The Lord meant what He said when He spoke the words to Abraham, “I will bless those who bless you, and I will curse those who curse you” (Gen. 12:3).

Israel is surrounded by a sea of Muslims. Many if not most of these Muslims have sworn the destruction of Israel, which the Koran states that which must be done. Actually, the Muslim world hates both Israel and America, with the anger going back against Israel some 4,000 years. They are called the little Satan, while America is called the great Satan.
view of Israel. Both things are critical, but especially that concerning Israel. Adolf Hitler set out to exterminate all Jews. His effort concluded by the whole of Germany being totally destroyed. Our leaders should not forget that.

PRAY FOR OUR LEADERS

To be sure, those who govern this country are facing problems that no one else before them ever had to face. And more and more of these problems are spiritual, even though the powers that be do not understand that. The truth is this: if believers will join together in believing prayer, tremendous things can be done, and I’ll tell you why—whatever of significance is done on this earth, it first takes place in the spirit world.

What do I mean by that?

It means that powerful righteous angels actually do combat with evil angels (those who rebelled with Satan), and the outcome is predicated on the condition of the church. Regrettably, the church is in worse condition spiritually than it’s been in its history in this country. So that means that the darkened forces of the spirit world have an upper hand.

The Lord has given this responsibility to the church, but I’m afraid we’re not using it very wisely. We need intercessors! We need men and women who are godly and who know how to pray!

THE SONLIFE BROADCASTING NETWORK

At the time of this writing, we are now airing in 83 million homes in the U.S. We are airing in nearly 200 million homes in other countries of the world. That is beside the Internet and satellites. Actually, almost the whole of Africa is covered by satellites, and we are on all of those satellites. I’m told, and whether it’s correct or not I cannot really say, that those who would desire to see the network in one way or the other—over 2 billion people—can tune it in any time of the day or night. That’s a staggering number of people. And yet, the gospel of Jesus Christ is the single most important thing on the face of the earth.

Please note the following very carefully:

“As long as the gospel of Jesus Christ is America’s greatest export, the jackbooted heels of foreign invaders will never walk on American soil.”

You need to read that statement very, very carefully. It is true.

In this work of God, I personally believe that this ministry (Family Worship Center) is playing a tremendously important part as it regards the work of God all over the world. I desire your prayers. I ask that you would intercede on our behalf. As Paul said, “Pray for us that the gospel will have free course.”

MEDIA CHURCH MEMBERS

How thrilled we are about the thousands who are becoming a part of the Family Worship Center Media Church. How glad and how honored we are to have you. We pledge to you to be careful that we preach the gospel of Jesus Christ without compromise and without fear or favor.

YOUR SUPPORT

I’m asking for that support, both spiritually and financially. And I thank God a thousand times over for those of you who do stand in the gap in respect to both needs. Without you, we simply could not do what God has called us to do.

But yet, the Lord has called you the same as He has called me. Thank you for discharging that responsibility as you should. But this one thing I would ask of you:

• Pray for us daily, please.
• Set aside something each month that you may help support financially the network. Many of you already do this, but I’m asking that all of you do so. I’ll promise you this, God will bless you, and that I’ll guarantee.

Thank you and God bless you,

Jimmy Swaggart
ELISHA, SINCE CALLED OF GOD, had now been with Elijah for approximately 10 years. His training had been by firsthand observation. It most definitely would prove to be sufficient, which would result in a tremendous visitation for Israel.

Elisha knew that Elijah was about to be taken, but at this stage, not how he would be taken; consequently, he would not let the great prophet out of his sight.

THE PERSISTENCE OF ELISHA

There is a tremendous lesson to be learned here as it regards the last days of the great Prophet Elijah, and the persistence that Elisha evidenced as it regards that which he desired. We must take note of that persistence.

It is the persistent soul who reaps the benefits of what Christ has done for us at Calvary, and only the persistent soul (Lk. 11:5-13).

The things of God are not come by easily. We cannot merit them, and neither can we earn them. They are freely given. Yet, the Lord does not hand out His gifts indiscriminately. In other words, they aren’t easily possessed.

We must know and understand that whatever it is that we’ve received from God, and I mean whatever, is received by grace.

What do we mean by receiving by grace?

THE GRACE OF GOD

The grace of God is simply the goodness of God extended to undeserving saints. In a sense, that could be said of the entirety of mankind. In fact, God can deal with mankind only from the premise of grace for the simple reason that if we had to earn it or merit it, we would be found woefully wanting.

We must understand that grace is made possible entirely by the Cross of Christ. In other words, our Lord is the source of grace, while the Cross is the means by which this great grace is given unto us.

God did not have any less grace 3,000 years ago than He does now. It’s the Cross that has made grace available to us and it’s the Cross alone. That’s what we mean when we say the following:

• Jesus Christ is the source of all things we receive from God.
• The Cross of Christ is the means, and the only means, by which these things can be given to us.
• With that being the case, the Cross of Christ must ever be the object of our faith. In fact, the entirety of the story of the Bible is “Jesus Christ and Him crucified.” So, when one has his faith in Christ and the Cross, that is having his faith in the Word.
• With this being done, understanding that Christ is the source, and the Cross is the means, and having our faith anchored in Christ and the Cross, the Holy Spirit, who works exclusively within the parameters, so to speak, of the finished work of Christ, will then work mightily on our behalf. He doesn’t require much of us, but He does require one thing, and on that He will not bend, and that is that our faith be exclusively in Christ and what He did for us at the Cross (Rom. 6:1-14; 8:1-11; 1 Cor. 1:17-18, 23; 2:2; Gal. 6:14; Col. 2:10-15; Phil. 3:17-19).

THE SPIRIT OF TRUTH

“Howbeit when He, the Spirit of truth, is come (which He did on the Day of Pentecost), He will guide you into all truth (if our faith is properly placed in Christ and the Cross, the Holy Spirit can then bring forth truth to us; He doesn’t guide into some truth, but rather ‘all truth’): for He shall not speak of Himself (tells us not only what He does, but whom He represents); but whatsoever He shall hear, that shall He speak (doesn’t refer to lack of knowledge, for the Holy Spirit is God and knows everything, but rather He will proclaim the work of Christ only): and He will show you things to come (pertains to the new covenant, which would shortly be given).

“He shall glorify Me (will portray Christ and what Christ did at the Cross for dying humanity): for He shall receive of Mine (the benefits of the Cross), and shall show it unto you (which He did when He gave these great truths to the Apostle Paul [Rom., Chpts. 6-8; Gal. 1:12]).

“All things that the Father has are Mine (has always been the case; however, due to the Cross, all these things can now be given to the believer as well): therefore said I, that He shall take of Mine, and shall show it unto you (the foundation of all the Holy Spirit reveals to the church is what Christ did at the Cross [Col. 2:10-15])” (Jn. 16:13-15).

As we shall see, the various places named in this scenario hold a lesson for us as it regards the persistence of Elisha.

GILGAL

They began this odyssey at a place called Gilgal. It has been argued as to whether this was the Gilgal next to Jericho—where the children of Israel under Joshua came into the Promised Land approximately 700 years before—or another Gilgal up north. Scholars have debated it both ways. However, from investigation, I personally think it was the Gilgal up north instead of the one near Jericho. The reason is this: When the two prophets left Gilgal, they went to Beth-el, which is immediately south of Gilgal up north, and then to Jericho. If they had gone first of all to the Gilgal near Jericho, they would then have had to travel quite a ways north to go to Beth-el and then back down to Jericho, which does not seem to make sense.

At any rate, and as previously stated, Gilgal was the beginning for Elisha in

Find out who the Lord is anointing with the Holy Spirit and make doubly certain that it, in fact, is the Holy Spirit, and then take up your place beside that person. The anointing is the key!

the sense of him taking the role of the prophet for the northern kingdom of Israel.

Some of you reading these words are presently standing, spiritually speaking, at your Gilgal. Irrespective of the past, it can be, and, in fact, the Lord intends for it to be, your beginning. You see, the Lord does not function from a “three strikes and you’re out” syndrome, but He is ready and willing—irrespective of the past—to make this here and now your beginning, if you will only believe Him, trust Him, and consecrate wholly to Him.

BETH-EL

The word Beth-el means “house of God”; so, Elijah and Elisha came from the place of beginning, at least for the role that Elisha would play, to the house of God, which was quite a proper place to go.

And yet, all of this is symbolism, but I personally feel it spoke volumes to Elisha. Wherever Elijah went at this time, no doubt, was ordered by the Lord, and all for the benefit, it seems, of Elisha.

Beth-el was the place where Jacob had his encounter with the Lord, as it regarded the ladder to heaven, right after he left home because of problems concerning Esau. So now, as it refers to Elisha, it would in some way speak to him as well!

JERICHO

Jericho was the first obstacle encountered by the children of Israel when they came into the Promised Land after crossing the Jordan. It was one of the greatest cities in the land of Canaan. However, its walls would fall beneath the power of God, and the city would be taken with virtually no casualties whatsoever as it regarded God’s people. What had been so formidable now became a symbol of great victory. Once again, this symbolism, I am sure, was not lost on Elisha.

We begin at Gilgal, the place of beginnings, which actually means “rolled away.”

Elijah then went to Beth-el, meaning the house of God, which is where God once spoke, and I continue to refer to Jacob. Then the two prophets went to Jericho, the scene of the first great victory for the children of Israel so many, many years before, as they would go into the Promised Land. During all of this time, the great prophet was telling Elisha, “Tarry here.” The answer always was, “As the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you.”

Undoubtedly, Elisha knew that the days of Elijah were numbered. How much he knew, we aren’t told, but there was something there that pressed him—the significance of these last days. Irrespective as to what Elijah told him, at least as it regarded his place and position, he let the great prophet know that he would not leave him, no matter what. This is the persistence that God desired.

So the narrative states, “And they two went on” (II Ki. 2:6).

The anointing of the Holy Spirit was upon Elijah. Elisha knew this, so he would not let the great prophet out of his sight.

THE ANOINTING

Let the reader understand the following: The anointing is the key and the criterion for the place and position of the saint of God. Find out who the Lord is anointing with the Holy Spirit and make doubly certain that it, in fact, is the Holy Spirit, and then take up your place beside that person. The anointing is the key!

But, as we have already alluded, there is much fake anointing in the land. However, if the believer will earnestly seek the Lord and ask for leading and guidance, to be sure, he will be led to the right person and the right place.

THE SONS OF THE PROPHETS

“And fifty men of the sons of the prophets went, and stood to view afar off: and they two stood by Jordan” (II Ki. 2:7).

The “sons of the prophets” could have had, at least somewhat, the blessing as received by Elisha; however, their thoughts and interests were elsewhere.

While it would not have been proper for the sons of the prophets to have placed themselves in the same position as Elisha, for the Lord had not called them for this purpose, still, they should have been closer than merely...

to “view afar off.” This is all too often the condition of the church. At best, it views the anointing from “afar off.” There is no record in the Scriptures that the sons of the prophets had the anointing; consequently, there is very little good they did in Israel or Judah.

THE CROSSING OF THE JORDAN

This would be the last miracle, it seems, performed by Elijah. Beautifully enough, it would be the first miracle performed by Elisha after the translation of Elijah. Elijah would take his mantle, which was a robe-like affair, smite the Jordan, and the waters would open. He and Elisha would go to the eastern side of the river. This would be at the foot of Mount Pisgah, from where Moses viewed the Promised Land but was not allowed to enter in.

In a sense, Elijah and Elisha were similar to Moses and Joshua; consequently, the Lord would translate Elijah very near where He personally conducted the funeral for Moses. Only Elisha saw the translation of Elijah, and, in fact, no one saw the death and burial of Moses except God.

As the Jordan opened, the Scripture says, “They two went over on dry ground” (II Ki. 2:8).

THE DOUBLE PORTION

“And it came to pass, when they were over, that Elijah said unto Elisha, Ask what I shall do for you, before I be taken away from you. And Elisha said, I pray you, let a double portion of your spirit be upon me” (II Ki. 2:9).

Verse 9 proclaims Elijah requesting of Elisha, “Ask what I shall do for you, before I be taken away from you.”

Quite a statement! That statement, in fact, is asked of the whole church. The answer in the last few years has been very revealing: Money, fame, prestige, influence, recognition, approval, dominion, and more. Precious few have answered as Elisha, “Let a double portion of your spirit be upon me.”

Actually, Elisha was asking for the portion of the firstborn. Elijah responded, “You have asked a hard thing” (II Ki. 2:10). It could have been translated, and did actually mean, “You have staked a great claim.” The request expresses the greatness of the appetite of the heart of Elisha for spiritual power. In other words, Elijah’s response was an approval of Elisha’s request. He would then continue in this spirit in which Elisha had been functioning from the very beginning, “If you see me,” speaking of Elijah’s coming translation. Elisha’s faith that had remained so very close thus far would have little difficulty in the remainder of the distance.
THE TRANSLATION OF ELIJAH

“And it came to pass, as they still went on, and talked, that, behold, there appeared a chariot of fire, and horses of fire, and parted them both asunder; and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven” (II Ki. 2:11).

In the original Hebrew, it says, “And Elijah went up in a storm into the heavens.” There is no mention of a whirlwind, for only two of the seed of Adam, Enoch and Elijah, have passed from earth without dying.

Elijah and Elisha were on the eastern side of the Jordan River, with that body of water having just opened miraculously at the behest of the great prophet. Elijah and Elisha were conversing at this time, about what, we aren’t told.

All of a sudden, it happened.

That which was invisible to the naked eye became visible to Elisha. He literally saw a chariot of fire and horses of fire. In fact, this progression “parted them both asunder.”

The word fire in the Hebrew, as here used, is esh and means “that which is literal or figurative.” In this instance, it is used in the figurative sense. In other words, the chariot and the horses looked like fire. As should be understood, these were spirit horses, which were actually pulling a chariot.

Some claim that Elijah really did not go up into heaven in the chariot, but rather followed. However, the implication is the opposite; the Lord took the great prophet home to glory in a chariot of fire.

HEAVEN

When Jesus died on the Cross, He paid the terrible sin debt that man owed but could not pay. However, before the Cross, when believers died, they were not taken to heaven, but rather down into paradise, which, in fact, was next door to hell. This was due to the fact that the blood of bulls and goats could not take away sins. Jesus said that there was a “great gulf” which separated paradise (Abraham’s bosom) from hell itself (Lk. 16:26).

So, where did Elijah go when he was translated? Was it up to heaven, as it regards the abode of God, or down into paradise? Every evidence is that he was taken directly to heaven without going to paradise.

Approximately 900 years later, both Moses and Elijah appeared on the Mount of Transfiguration and conversed with our Lord. In fact, they were seen by Peter, James, and John, who had accompanied the Lord to the top of the mountain. Jesus was there transfigured before them, which means that a light, actually, a living light, so to speak, literally emanated from His person. It was not on Him, but rather from Him, which portrayed who and what He actually was, which was and is deity, despite His human frame, i.e., the incarnation (Lk. 9:28-31).

THE CROSS

Actually, our Lord, Moses, and Elijah “spoke of His decease which He should accomplish at Jerusalem” (Lk. 9:31).

In essence, the Cross was the topic of their conversation on the Mount of Transfiguration, which means that this was the topic of conversation in heaven as well!

If it was the topic of conversation then, before the fact, how much should it be the topic of conversation now, considering it is after the fact? I think the answer is obvious!

Moses was a type of the law, thereby, when he died, he went to paradise, which was in the heart of the earth (Lk. 16:19-31).

Elijah was a type of the new covenant under Christ and, thereby, a type of the rapture. When he was translated, he was taken to heaven, the abode of God, and not paradise in the heart of the earth.

Incidentally, Elijah will yet come back to this earth and will preach the gospel, and will do so as the prophet he was and is.

ELIJAH WILL COME BACK

This will take place at about the midpoint of the great tribulation (Mat. 24:21). At that time, both Elijah and Enoch will be brought back because they are the only two human beings who will actually have never died, other than the believers who will go in the rapture when that event takes places. They will minister for approximately three and a half years and will be a sore thorn in the side of the Antichrist. No doubt, their ministry will turn many in Israel to Christ, and possibly the entirety of the world. While the Antichrist will repeatedly try to kill them during that three and a half years, he will not be successful until the very end of that period, when the Lord will allow these two great prophets to then be killed.
JIMMY SWAGGART

That which is Coming

The following are the notes from The Expositor’s Study Bible regarding Malachi 4:5:

The phrase, ‘Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD,’ does not refer to the coming of John the Baptist, who only came in the spirit of Elijah. It actually refers to ‘Elijah the prophet,’ who was translated about 500 years before the time of Malachi, and who will be sent back to the earth by the Lord in the midst of the coming great tribulation.

At that time, he and Enoch of Revelation 11:3 will be used of God mightily as they prophesy in Jerusalem. Their ministry will last for the entirety of the last three and a half years of the great tribulation. Both will be killed by the Antichrist at the end of the great tribulation, ‘when they shall have finished their testimony.’ However, after three and a half days, they will be resurrected and raptured (Rev. 11:11-12).

As John the Baptist prepared the way for the first advent of Christ, these two, Elijah and Enoch, will prepare the way for the second coming of Christ.

Malachi went on to say, “And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse” (Mal. 4:6).

“The fathers” speak of the patriarchs and prophets of old.

The Curse

The phrase, “Lest I come and smite the earth with a curse,” proclaims the obvious fact that there is no word following “curse” in the last verse of the old covenant, meaning there is more to follow. Thank God!

In contrast, the word amen follows the last words of the book of Revelation, closing the canon of Scripture, because after “grace,” which is the theme of the ministry of Christ, there is nothing left to be said but “amen.” Thank God!

The world was not left with a curse, but Jesus Christ came and “redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us” (Gal. 3:13; Mal. 4:6).

Some claim that Enoch will not be the second witness of Revelation, Chapter 11. They claim the second witness will be Moses because he appeared with Elijah on the Mount of Transfiguration.

While that is possible, we must allow the Scripture to be the final word.

The Scripture says, “And as it is appointed unto men once to die (due to the fall, all men are under the sentence of death, and, in fact, all have died spiritually, which means to be separated from God), but after this the judgment (the answer to the spiritual death of man is Christ and what He did at the Cross; if Christ the Saviour is rejected, all will face Christ the judge; for as death was inevitable, the judgment is inevitable as well)” (Heb. 9:27).

This pertains to all of humanity, with the exception of those who will go in the rapture (1 Thess. 4:13-18).

The only two men on earth who have never died are Enoch and Elijah because they were translated; however, to fulfill this passage, both will come back and minister in Jerusalem, as stated, in the latter half of the great tribulation, which, at the conclusion of that time frame, they shall be killed. This will satisfy the Scripture.

Thus writes the chapter of the ministry and translation of Elijah; however, it definitely is not the last chapter. That will come, as stated, at the latter half of the great tribulation, and then there will be a final chapter of Elijah with all the redeemed and with the Lord Jesus Christ, which chapter will never end.

Elijah

(09-128) | Price: $30

Malachi, the last great prophet before John the Baptist, stated, “Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD” (Mal. 4:5).

The phrase, ‘Before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD,’ addresses the coming great tribulation, and, more specifically, the second coming. It will be a ‘great day’ for God’s people and a ‘dreadful day’ for His enemies.

This pertains to all of humanity, with the exception of those who will go in the rapture (1 Thess. 4:13-18).

The only two men on earth who have never died are Enoch and Elijah because they were translated; however, to fulfill this passage, both will come back and minister in Jerusalem, as stated, in the latter half of the great tribulation, which, at the conclusion of that time frame, they shall be killed. This will satisfy the Scripture.

Thus writes the chapter of the ministry and translation of Elijah; however, it definitely is not the last chapter. That will come, as stated, at the latter half of the great tribulation, and then there will be a final chapter of Elijah with all the redeemed and with the Lord Jesus Christ, which chapter will never end.

On Thursday, January 10, 1963, Florida Congressman A. S. Herlong, Jr., stood on the floor of the U.S. House of Representatives and read a list of 45 “Current Communist Goals”—an excerpt, he said, from the book The Naked Communist.1

All of these goals are listed on page 17-18, but I would like to comment on just a few of them:

Number 3: “Develop the illusion that total disarmament by the United States would be a demonstration of moral strength.” A simple comparison of the size and support of our armed forces now to what it was just 30 years ago will show how the U.S. military has been cut down again and again.

Number 26: “Present homosexuality, degeneracy, and promiscuity as ‘normal, natural, healthy.’” The president of the United States just appointed the first openly transgender man who dresses as a woman to be a recruitment director in the White House.

Number 32: “Eliminate prayer or any phase of religious expression in the schools on the grounds that it violates the principle of ‘separation of church and state.’” This goal was met more than 50 years ago. In 1962 and 1963, the U.S. Supreme Court banned state-sponsored prayer in schools.

I could go down the entire list of these communist goals and show how each one has been accomplished—completely or in part—inside of one generation.

This infiltration of communistic ideals did not happen overnight. The change happened gradually—accelerating over the past 50 years as America shifted from her capitalist foundation to reach out for socialism and communitarianism, only to find herself completely conditioned for communism.

WHAT IS CAPITALISM, ANYWAY?

Webster’s dictionary defines capitalism as a way of organizing an economy so that the things that are used to make and transport products—land, oil, factories, ships—are owned by individual people and companies rather than by the government.

We see capitalism taught throughout the Bible, beginning with the book of Genesis:

“And the LORD God took the man, and put him into the garden of Eden to dress it and to keep it” (Gen. 2:15).

God planted the garden, but He gave man... the innovation, strength, and wisdom to work it. For Christians, this is capitalism in its truest form—believing in God’s provision while doing the work at hand.

A WORD ABOUT WORK

In Proverbs, Chapter 14, Verse 23, we read, “In all labor there is profit.” I believe that God expects all those who are able-bodied to work.

Having said that, I completely understand that some people—due to circumstances beyond their control or because of sickness or disability—simply cannot work. We sympathize with these precious people; they are the very ones our government absolutely should help and assist. But there are millions of Americans out there who are capable of taking a job yet refuse to work.

Statistics show that of the 316 million people who live in the United States, 46 million receive food stamps. Think of that.

One news report claimed that the U.S. has more people dependent on food stamps than the total populations of Argentina, Columbia, Kenya, or Ukraine. The same report said, “Households on food stamps got an average benefit of $261.44 during the month, and total benefits for the month cost taxpayers $5,978,320,593.”

So, basically, those who are working support those who either choose not to work or those who cannot work.

This dependency on government lines up with the communist agenda credited to Karl Marx.

His Manifesto of the Communist Party includes Frederick Engels’ “Draft of a Communist Confession of Faith,” which is written in a question-and-answer format. One question reads, “What will be your first measure once you have established democracy?”

The Marxist answer: “Guaranteeing the subsistence (amount of food, money needed to stay alive) of the proletariat (lowest social or economic class of a community).”

WHAT DOES GOD SAY ABOUT WORK?

When the Lord established the nation of Israel, He showed them how the nation was to be governed. He set their economy in motion with instruction on bartering, commerce, free enterprise, and trade. Provisions were also made for the poor:

“And when ye reap the harvest of your land, thou shalt not wholly reap the corners of thy field, neither shalt thou gather the gleanings of thy harvest. And thou shalt not glean thy vineyard, neither shalt thou gather every grape of thy vineyard; thou shalt leave them for the poor and stranger: I am the Lord your God” (Lev. 19:9-10).

Notice that the landowner did not gather the food and hand it over to the poor. No, his part was to leave some of the harvest—some of the work—for the poor to do.

We see this “law of gleanings” carried out in the Bible story of Boaz and Ruth:

“And when she was risen up to glean, Boaz commanded his young men, saying, Let her glean even among the sheaves, and reproach her not: and let fall also some of the handfuls of purpose for her, and leave them, that she may glean them, and rebuke her not. So she gleaned in the field until evening, and beat out that she had gleaned: and it was about an ephah of barley” (Ruth 2:15-17).

Gleaning barley is hard, physical work, yet we see Ruth out there from morning until night doing what she needed to do to feed herself and her mother-in-law.

Nowhere in the Word of God will you find laziness rewarded in any shape, form, or fashion. Instead, you will find Scripture after Scripture condemning slack hands and slothful living:

“He becomes poor that deals with a slack hand: but the hand of the diligent makes rich” (Prov. 10:4).
“The hand of the diligent shall bear rule: but the slothful shall be under tribute” (Prov. 12:24).

“He also that is slothful in his work is brother to him that is a great waster” (Prov. 18:9).

“The desire of the slothful kills him; for his hands refuse to labor” (Prov. 21:25).

“But if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel” (I Tim. 5:8).

In America, we are guilty of rewarding laziness with our welfare programs. People who won’t work (but laugh) go out and buy their alcohol and drugs with money for which we have worked very hard and paid in taxes to the federal government. Then the federal government doles it out to people with no accountability for the money they receive. That’s a sin.

God had no welfare program for Israel. He made no provision for people who were lazy. In Bible times, people who refused to work were looked down upon; they were outcasts of society, and they didn’t exist for long.

God gives us the ability to work and expects us to work to provide, not only to help meet the needs of ourselves and our families, but also to have some left over to give to others.

In Ephesians 4:28 we read: “Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labor, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needs.”

Christians are instructed to give to the Lord. The Bible shows Israel giving to build the tabernacle so the presence of God could dwell among them. Then we see the temple constructed, again so that the people could experience the presence of the Lord. Today we have the tithe, which helps support the place we worship the Lord and finances the propagation of the gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ.

America is a blessed nation because it has always been a Christian nation, a nation built on a strong work ethic—a capitalist nation. And it’s the capitalist countries, not the communist ones, that are producing and have overflow.

I’ve been on the docks in foreign countries where goods are shipped in—food, water, and medical supplies—in response to something like a natural disaster, and all the food that’s being brought in is coming from the United States of America. It’s a patriotic feeling to see that huge ship and know it’s from the United States of America. However, as patriotic as that may look or feel, goods and services are not this country’s greatest export.

As you’ve probably heard my husband say many times, “As long as the gospel of Jesus Christ is America’s greatest export, the jackbooted heels of foreign invaders will never walk on American soil.”

Karl Marx may be the founder of communism, but God the Father is the founder of capitalism, and we must hold fast to God’s way as outlined in His Word.

As Christians, we must continue to seek the face of the Lord and pray—especially heading into this most important election year—that America returns to her roots as a capitalist and a Christian nation.

45 COMMUNISTIC GOALS

Mr. HERLONG: Mr. Speaker, Mrs. Patricia Nordman of De Land, Florida, is an ardent and articulate opponent of communism, and until recently published the De Land Courier, which she dedicated to the purpose of alerting the public to the dangers of communism in America. At Mrs. Nordman’s request, I include in the RECORD, under unanimous consent, the following “Current Communist Goals,” which she identifies as an excerpt from The Naked Communist, by Cleon Skousen.
ACCOMPLISHED?

1. U.S. acceptance of coexistence as the only alternative to atomic war.
2. U.S. willingness to capitulate in preference to engaging in atomic war.
3. Develop the illusion that total disarmament by the United States would be a demonstration of moral strength.
4. Permit free trade between all nations regardless of Communist affiliation and regardless of whether or not items could be used for war.
5. Extension of long-term loans to Russia and Soviet satellites.
6. Provide American aid to all nations regardless of Communist domination.
7. Grant recognition of Red China. Admission of Red China to the U.N.
8. Set up East and West Germany as separate states in spite of Khrushchev’s promise in 1955 to settle the German question by free elections under supervision of the U.N.
9. Prolong the conferences to ban atomic tests because the United States has agreed to suspend tests as long as negotiations are in progress.
10. Allow all Soviet satellites individual representation in the U.N.
11. Promote the U.N. as the only hope for mankind. If its charter is rewritten, demand that it be set up ‘as a one-world government’ with its own Independent armed forces. (Some Communist leaders believe the world can be taken over as easily by the U.N. as by Moscow. Sometimes these two centers compete with each other as they are now doing in the Congo.)
12. Resist any attempt to outlaw the Communist Party.
13. Do away with all loyalty oaths.
14. Continue giving Russia access to the U.S. Patent Office.
15. Capture one or both of the political parties in the United States.
16. Use technical decisions of the courts to weaken basic American institutions by claiming their activities violate civil rights.
17. Get control of the schools. Use them as transmission belts for socialism and current Communist propaganda. Soften the curriculum. Get control of teachers’ associations. Put the party line in textbooks.
18. Gain control of all student newspapers.
19. Use student riots to foment public protests against programs or organizations which are under Communist attack.
21. Gain control of key positions in radio, TV, and motion pictures.
22. Continue discrediting American culture by degrading all forms of artistic expression. An American Communist cell was told to “eliminate all good sculpture from parks and buildings, substitute shapeless, awkward, and meaningless forms.”
23. Control art critics and directors of art museums. “Our plan is to promote ugliness, repulsive, meaningless art.”
24. Eliminate all laws governing obscenity by calling them “censorship” and a violation of free speech and free press.
25. Break down cultural standards of morality by promoting pornography and obscenity in books, magazines, motion pictures, radio, and TV.
26. Present homosexuality, degeneracy, and promiscuity, as “normal, natural, healthy.”
27. Infiltrate the churches and replace revealed religion with “social” religion. Discredit the Bible and emphasize the need for intellectual maturity, which does not need a “religious crutch.”
28. Eliminate prayer or any phase of religious expression in the schools on the ground that it violates the principle of “separation of church and state.”
29. Discredit the America Constitution by calling it inadequate, old-fashioned, out of step with modern needs, a hindrance to cooperation between nations on a worldwide basis.
30. Discredit the American Founding Fathers. Present them as selfish aristocrats who had no concern for the “common man.”
31. Belittle all forms of American culture and discourage the teaching of American history on the grounds that it was only a minor part of the “big picture.” Give more emphasis to Russian history since the Communists took over.

32. Support any socialist movement to give centralized control over any part of the culture-education, social agencies, welfare programs, mental health clinics, etc.

33. Eliminate all laws or procedures which interfere with the operation of the Communist apparatus.

34. Eliminate the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

35. Discredit and eventually dismantle the FBI.

36. Infiltrate and gain control of more unions.

37. Infiltrate and gain control of big business.

38. Transfer some of the powers of arrest from the police to social agencies. Treat all behavioral problems as psychiatric, which no one but psychiatrists can understand or treat.

39. Dominate the psychiatric profession and use mental health laws as a means of gaining coercive control over those who oppose Communist goals.

40. Discredit the family as an institution. Encourage promiscuity and easy divorce.

41. Emphasize the need to raise children away from the negative influence of parents. Attribute prejudices, mental blocks, and retarding of children to suppressive influence of parents.

42. Create the impression that violence and insurrection are legitimate aspects of the American tradition; that students and special-interest groups should rise up and use united force to solve economic, political, or social problems.

43. Overthrow all colonial governments before native populations are ready for self-government.

44. Internationalize the Panama Canal.

45. Repeal the Connally reservation so the United States cannot prevent the World Court from seizing jurisdiction over nations and Individuals alike.

Matthew 28: 18-20 – “And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto Me in heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen.”

JESUS CAME AND SPOKE UNTO THEM

The words of Christ as given in Verses 18-20 would constitute some of the last words He would speak before His ascension. Therefore what He said should not be dismissed or ignored. That which the Lord spoke in these verses is known as the Great Commission (Mk. 16:15-18 would also apply). This commission or command was to the church, to take the gospel message to the world. It is God’s desire that all men everywhere have an opportunity to hear the gospel. We understand that not all will accept it, but it is still the responsibility of the church to do what it can to propagate the gospel of Jesus Christ.

SAYING ALL POWER IS GIVEN UNTO ME IN HEAVEN AND IN EARTH

Regarding this statement, Williams said: “This power is not given to Him as Son of God; for as God, nothing can be added to Him or taken from Him; it is rather a power which He has merited by His incarnation and death at Calvary on the Cross, which was foretold in the Old Testament by psalmists and prophets, and with which He was endowed on the day that He rose victorious from the grave: Therefore when He said, ‘all power,’ He meant ‘all power.’”

In Philippians 2:8-11, the Apostle Paul would say: “And being found in fashion as a man, He humbled Himself and became obedient unto death, even the death of the Cross. Wherefore God also hath highly exalted Him, and given Him a name which is above every name: That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.”

That name is Lord which means “master of all.”
The Lord Jesus Christ has all power, in heaven, in earth, and under the earth. He has the power, and He alone.

GO YOU THEREFORE

This statement applies to any and all who follow the Lord Jesus Christ. In other words, you are the “you” He is speaking of. You have been given a commission by our Lord to help proclaim His gospel around the world.

It is a privilege and an honor to know that the Lord has made a place for us in His work. Now, most of you reading this are not called into the five-fold ministry callings, so you may wonder, What is my part? What am I supposed to do?

Here are things that everyone can do:

• Pray. James 5:16 says “The effectual, fervent prayer of a righteous man avails much.” Pray for those whom God has called to proclaim His Word.
Pray for a greater anointing. Pray for wisdom and guidance. Pray for a great harvest.

• Have faith. Matthew 18:19 says: “If two of you shall agree on earth as touching anything that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven.”

• Give. Every Christian should set aside something over and above their tithe, to be given for world evangelism. This biblical principle can be found in Romans 10:13-15. Let me state it this way: All should set aside “a handful on purpose” in order to send those whom God has called.

PREACH TO ALL NATIONS

In Matthew 28:19 it says, “teach all nations.”
However a better translation would be “preach to all nations.” In the Greek, the word teach is matheteus and means to “make disciples.”

Preaching proclaims truth which makes disciples while teaching explains truth which is what the word teaching in Matthew 28:20 says. The Greek word is didasko and means “to give instruction.”

In Verses 19 and 20, we see the divine order of the Holy Spirit as it regards world evangelism:

• The gospel is to be preached to the lost in order to call attention to the truth of Jesus Christ and His saving grace.
• After conversion, they are to be taught which means “to explain truth.” That which is to be taught is the truth of the sacred text both Old and New Testaments.

The SonLife Broadcasting Network (SBN) has been raised up by the Lord to be a church for the nations. SBN has been raised up to preach the gospel and to explain the gospel. SBN has been raised up to teach proper worship and praise, and you have been called to help fulfill this command of our Lord—called to pray, to join your faith with other believers, and to give so that others may know.
I JUST FEEL LIKE SOMETHING GOOD IS ABOUT TO HAPPEN  PART I
BY GABRIEL SWAGGART

Acts 2:1-4 – “And when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place. And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.”

GOD’S GREATEST GIFT TO THE CHURCH

It has been stated many times from behind our pulpit that salvation is God’s greatest gift to the world, and the baptism with the Holy Spirit with the evidence of speaking with other tongues is God’s greatest gift to the church. We are living in a day when the preaching of the baptism with the Holy Spirit is little taught or preached anymore from behind our Pentecostal pulpits. To add further damage to our congregants, most preachers will not even allow the people to speak in tongues in the actual service, which is a complete tragedy.

For most churches today, the Holy Spirit is on the outside looking in, not allowed to have a place in and among our churches. This means that the church is a church without power, and as a result, will little be able to do anything for the cause of Christ. If the early church did not have the outpouring of the Holy Spirit, then those who had been filled with the Holy Spirit would not have been able to turn a world right side up for the Lord Jesus Christ. I want to say unequivocally that the early church was born in power, and if the early church needed the power of the Holy Spirit, where does that leave the modern church today?

OBEEDIENCE TO THE COMMAND OF CHRIST

I want to take you back for a moment to the beginning of the early church. As I have written previously in past articles, the last words of Jesus Christ on this planet before He ascended into heaven were that His followers were to venture to Jerusalem and wait for the promise of the Father, which would be the baptism with the Holy Spirit. This was not a mere suggestion, but rather a command, which is still relevant today. Many did not heed the command of Christ, just as many do not heed that command today; however, some did, and some do today. Those who obeyed the command of Christ found themselves in the upper room seeking the Father for something that they did not quite understand. However many days these individuals sought the Lord, I cannot say, but what I do know is that day after day, these people (whomever they may have been) came seeking and asking that the Lord would fulfill His promise that He made to them. They found themselves in the temple courtyard, once again seeking the Lord as to what He would give them and wanting to draw closer to the Lord. All of a sudden, from out of nowhere, something took place that forever altered and changed for time and eternity the course of the lives of these people.

WHAT IS TRUE UNITY?

Before I get into that, I want to draw your attention to the fact that these people were in one place and in one accord. This is extremely important, and we must understand what is being said here. The ones who were gathering during this time did not have multiple mindsets or multiple views of what should take place. Rather, they all had one mindset, which was to seek the Lord for something that they did not quite understand. There was a unity among them as they sought the Lord for the promise of the Father. What was taking place was what true unity is all about. The church has a misunderstanding of what unity really is, for they believe that to have unity, they need to be in agreement with other religions and with other faiths. In other words, they believe that they must “go along to get along.”

That is not what true unity is. Unity is not meeting with people from other faiths and trying to find common ground, but rather true unity is a people seeking the Lord for the same thing—to see a true move of God take place and to see souls saved and lives changed for time and eternity. There must be one mindset of what we do and one message at the heart of what we do—Jesus Christ and Him crucified.

PRAYER IS VITAL TO A MOVE OF GOD

Prayer is a big key to this, for we see that these people of whom Luke writes in the book of Acts were praying. Without prayer, there will be no real relationship with our heavenly Father, which He truly desires to have with all of His children. To be able to call upon God and know that He is able to meet our needs, that He is all-powerful, and that He is able to do more than what we can even ask or think is beyond our understanding.

Knowing that we have the opportunity to seek the Lord regarding a move of God in not only our lives but in our church, as well, is truly a blessing of which many fail to take advantage. Every day, we as believers should take advantage of the time that we have and take a few moments to seek the Lord and believe Him for the impossible, for God is a God of the impossibilities. This means that He is able to move mountains. He is able to tear down Jericho walls. He is able to part the Red Sea or the Jordan River. He is able to make the sun stand still. He is able to heal the sick. He is able to raise the dead. He is able to provide money in the mouth of a fish. He is able to do what we cannot do for ourselves. Do you believe that? Do you choose to believe that? I choose to believe that God is able to do the impossible.

“I’M LOOKING FOR THE POSSIBLE”

A few years ago, someone was telling me a story that was featuring a little girl with an extreme disfigurement, which would leave most with a negative view of themselves. She attended a school for kids with physical impairments in a particular state up north. A local television crew was sent to follow her throughout the day. What was seen by the local crew caused absolute dismay, for this little girl, with her extreme disabilities, never once had a frown on her face, but rather was beaming throughout the interview. The host asked her about her difficulties and why she was able to smile through those difficulties. The little girl’s response was telling. She responded by saying, “I’m not looking for that which is difficult, but I’m looking for that which is possible!”

As a believer, quit looking at the difficulties and start looking to a God who is able to do the impossible! We sing a song that is quite apropos for what has been said:

Got any rivers you think are uncrossable?
Got any mountains you can’t tunnel through?
God specializes in things thought impossible.
He’ll do for you what no other power can do!

Start believing that today and start claiming that God is able to do for you what no other power can do. God is able to do for you what you cannot do for yourself, and it makes no difference how difficult the situation may be—He is able!

Without prayer, there is no relationship, and there is no petitioning the Lord for His will. Prayer is vital to a true move of God that we need in this nation and around the world. Those individuals were gathering together on that day and praying and seeking the Lord for His will. We should take a lesson from the early church and establish a prayer life and believe God to do great things within our lives and within our church.

This article will be continued in the December issue of The Evangelist.
This announcement is in response to the many calls, emails, and social media posts we receive at Jimmy Swaggart Ministries from people asking for SBN to be included on channels offered by their local cable providers. To make this happen, we need your help.

If SBN is currently unavailable through your cable provider, please call your provider and request that SBN be added to their channel lineup.

We also want you to be aware that there are other convenient ways that you can receive SBN at very little or no cost to you.

Over-the-Air: Remember the days of rabbit ear antennas or antennas on the outside of your home? With the rising cost of cable and satellite TV, many people are “cutting the cord” and going back to watching free TV. We are committed to adding SBN in as many cities as we can to make our channel available free of charge to viewers under its broadcast signal. An outdoor antenna is always the best method of reception, but indoor antennas are also available and have tremendous reception. A complete list of our broadcast channels can be found on page 26.

ROKU: If you have high-speed internet connection in your home, Roku is the simplest and easiest way to watch SBN. Starting at just $49.99, Roku is available as either a small box or an HDMI stick that plugs into your TV using an HDMI cable. (If you have an older TV that doesn’t have an HDMI input, the ROKU 1 will use composite cables). If you do have an HDTV, you can watch SBN in HD quality. The one-time purchase of the Roku box plus your regular monthly Internet bill will allow you to watch SBN on your TV. Roku is available for purchase at local electronics stores, retail stores, or online at www.roku.com.

Glorystar Satellite Systems: If SBN is not on a broadcast station in your area, and you do not have access to high-speed Internet, then you can buy a small satellite dish and receiver for a one-time cost of $199 and get SBN at no monthly cost. Glorystar can be viewed in the U.S., Canada, Central America, and the Caribbean. For more information, please contact Glorystar by phone at 866.419.5004 or online at sonlife.glorystar.tv.

UNITED STATES OVER-THE-AIR (DTV) LISTINGS

For those of you who are not familiar with digital television, these are free "old fashioned TV channels" that are able to be picked up with a digital tuner and antenna. Most new televisions are equipped with built-in digital tuners or you can purchase a tuner from your local electronics store (Best Buy®️, Radio Shack®, etc.).

As well, you can purchase the proper antenna at your local electronics store. Many viewers under the broadcast signal of the television station can use a small, digital antenna inside the home. For those on the outer edge of the signal or to receive the best signal, an outdoor antenna may be required. Both indoor and outdoor antennas are available for less than $50!

The Truth About Common Core
Education in America is being attacked by a system called Common Core. It is anti-Bible, anti-God, and anti-democracy. Frances Swaggart’s guests on her program explained the terrible direction of Common Core, and that which the people ought to know. There are four hours of discussion on the two DVDs in this package. It’s a topic which every American needs to understand.

15-607

The Truth About Catholicism
Is Catholicism Christian? Are Catholics saved? Regrettably and sadly, if one believes the Bible, then no, Catholics aren’t saved. While there are many Catholics who do definitely come to Christ, if and when such happens, to maintain their position in Christ, they are going to have to leave Catholicism.

15-648

The Truth About The Masons
Many believers think that the Masonic Lodge is a Christ-like organization. It isn’t! In fact, the embodiment of Masonic teaching is anti-Bible. This DVD will give you an insight into that which is believed by the Masons and the far-reaching influence of this organization. Frances & Friends’ panel member, Jim Nations, expounds upon this all-important subject.

15-634

The Truth About Seventh-day Adventist
There is nothing in the world worse than a false way of salvation. Regrettably and sadly, even though there are many good Adventist people, still, its direction is unscriptural. Every believer needs to know what this particular doctrine teaches. Follow along as Frances & Friends’ panel member, Mike Muzzerall, shows and explains the various teachings of this religion.

15-633

An Exposé On The Religion Of Islam
The world needs to know the truth about the religion of Islam. Unfortunately, the world seems to escape this information. Of all the religions of the world, Islam is violent beyond compare. The teaching given in this DVD is a must for every believer. You should know what Islam really is.

15-622

The Truth About Jehovah’s Witness
Christians should know and understand the method of false doctrines. The teaching taken from Frances & Friends, given on this DVD, will spell out the direction of these false ways. Every believer needs to know the truths that are vain in presentation. People perish for lack of knowledge. We are very proud to be able to offer material that will be a blessing to any believer.

Join Frances Swaggart, Donnie Swaggart, Mike Muzzerall, and Jim Nations, as they discuss this all-important subject.

15-606

The Truth About Mormonism
Mormonism is one of the fastest growing religions in the world. The great question is, “Is it biblical?” If everything else is right, and our Lord is portrayed wrong, then the religion itself is wrong, such is Mormonism.

15-607

The Truth About The Masons
Many believers think that the Masonic Lodge is a Christ-like organization. It isn’t! In fact, the embodiment of Masonic teaching is anti-Bible. This DVD will give you an insight into that which is believed by the Masons and the far-reaching influence of this organization. Frances & Friends’ panel member, Jim Nations, expounds upon this all-important subject.

15-633
The Sin Nature
The meaning of the sin nature, as Paul gave it in Romans, Chapter 6, presents the very first thought the Lord gave to Paul in His giving of the new covenant. It, in essence, is the Message of the Cross. If the Christian does not understand the sin nature, the Christian is, by and large, helpless.

Includes the songs:

- Days Of Elijah (Robin Herd)
- Nothing But The Blood (FWC Choir)
- He Bought My Soul (Jimmy Swaggart)

I’ve Left This Pea Patch My Last Time
Includes the songs:

- My Eyes Are On The Prize (Quintet)
- We Shall See Jesus (Jimmy Swaggart and FWC Choir)
- Precious Lord, Take My Hand (Tabitha Pimlott and Roy Chacon)

The New Altar
This service derived from the June 25, 2000 morning Family Worship Center Service.
Includes the songs:

- Choir, Praise and Worship
- He’s Here Right Now (Tabitha Pimlott)

Remember Me
“Remember Me” will serve not only as a tremendous blessing to believers, but will be an excellent tool for witnessing as well. In other words, you will have a video that can be an excellent witnessing tool.

Demon Oppression & Demon Possession
This teaching will answer the questions:
- Can Christians be demon possessed?
- What is the difference in demon oppression and demon possession?

Let My People Go! (Deliverance)
The deliverance of the children of Israel from Egyptian bondage was not a type of salvation as many think, but rather a type of the deliverance of the believer from under the yoke of Satan. We learn from this message that Satan does not let go easily or quickly. A must for every believer! Includes the songs:

- Great Is Thy Faithfulness (FWC Choir)
- Who Am I? (Robin Herd)
- The Cross Is Not Greater (Jimmy Swaggart)

The Truth About Islam: An Interview With Brigitte Gabriel
There are few people who know more about the religion of Islam, its aims, its direction, and its intended goals, than Brigitte Gabriel. This lady addresses possibly more governmental leaders and heads of state regarding this problem of Islam, than anyone else. This two-hour interview with Brigitte, which every American needs to hear and see, is a must for every believer. You need to know and understand the threat to the nation — possibly the greatest the nation has ever faced.

I Do That Which I Hate! Why?
Why is it that Christians do things they don’t want to do, and in fact should not do, and try not to do? I think the teaching contained on this CD is and will be of utmost help.

07-508

God’s Prescribed Order Of Victory
Millions of Christians are trying to live for God in all the wrong ways. To have what the Word of God promises us, we must do things God’s way. The teaching contained on this CD, if heeded by the Christian, will change every life from defeat to victory. It is the Word of God.

07-507

The Cause Of Sin In The Life Of A Christian
Millions of Christians have no idea as to the cause of sin in their lives, especially considering that many are trying so hard not to fail. We will show you how the Cross plays such an important part in victory over sin. The teaching contained therein is a must for every believer.

07-506

How To Be An Overcomer
On this CD, we give you the biblical way of being an overcomer. The irony is, through Christ, every believer is already an overcomer. So the idea is for you to actually be what you already are.

07-503

A Revelation Of The Holy Spirit
In 1988, the Lord spoke to my heart at a time of great distress, saying to me, “I will show you things about the Holy Spirit you do not presently know.” The Lord was speaking of victorious living, in effect, victory over the world, the flesh, and the Devil, which can only be brought about through the power of the Holy Spirit. In 1997, the Lord first of all began to give me the revelation of the Cross. Then, a few days later, He showed me how the Holy Spirit works relative to the Cross, in effect, keeping His promise given to me in 1988. This could be the most important teaching you’ve ever heard. It can change your life.

07-502

Let My People Go! (Deliverance)
The deliverance of the children of Israel from Egyptian bondage was not a type of salvation as many think, but rather a type of the deliverance of the believer from under the yolk of Satan. We learn from this message that Satan does not let go easily or quickly. A must for every believer!

07-552

The Cross And The Resurrection
(Romans 4:24-25)
Many have claimed that the emphasis should be placed on the Resurrection, instead of the Cross. Is this what the Bible teaches? Misplaced faith is the cause of most, if not all, of the problems affecting Christianity.

07-544

Beyond The Cross?
(Hebrews 6:1-3)
Most Christians don’t realize what walking after the flesh and walking after the Spirit actually are, and yet, there is nothing more important as it regards victorious living, or the lack thereof, than this particular subject.

07-542

Living The Cross Life
(Romans 7:21)
The living of the Cross life is essential to all victory. But yet, the far, far, greater majority of Christendom, as Romans 7:20 describes, is living in defeat.

07-514

The Key To Victory
(Romans, Chapters 6 and 7)
If every Christian could know and understand the teaching given here, their Christian experience would be greatly enhanced. This is a must for your biblical instruction.

HUSBAND BITTER TO RELIGION AND WHO LAUGHED AT GOD GETS SAVED

DEAR EVANGELIST: I just wished to tell you that my husband and I found SBN just recently when we seemed to need the message the most. The channel wasn’t there before and suddenly there it was. My husband has told me for 20 years that he doesn’t believe in God and that He only laughs at him, if He even did exist. Even though my husband was so bitter to religion and the very idea of God, he always told me never to think badly about Jimmy Swaggart. Last week, we were watching one of the crusades from 1984. Jimmy Swaggart started to speak the sinner’s prayer. I came around from the kitchen to hear my husband’s voice reciting the prayer! On Saturday we gave $100 to SBN to receive the book about why the Cross doesn’t work for me. Hopefully, my husband will read the message from Brother Swaggart, whom he respects, and will no longer blame God.

TEARS FLOWED WHILE WATCHING “OUR CHURCH,” SBN

DEAR EVANGELIST: I felt the power of God coming from my TV, and I started to shout as tears flowed down from my eyes like I felt in church years ago. We watch SBN for our church service because you can’t trust what is coming from the pulpits in most churches today. I thank God for SBN.

COUNTRIES CAN INFLUENCE THROUGH SCHOOL CURRICULUMS

DEAR EVANGELIST: Dear Frances, I love your show and am so thankful that I found SBN. Having grown up in Germany, I can definitely concur with what was talked about today regarding the school curriculum. Just today at breakfast with a friend, we talked about how a country can totally influence the course of their agenda (fascist/communist) by taking over the school system and separating children from the influence of their parents. In the 1930s in Germany, children were the absolute property of the state and we all know what happened. Later, in communist East Germany, the legacy continued just as in Russia and China, etc. On another note, the churches have deteriorated a great deal since the 1970s, when I first became a Christian. Thank God for SBN.

I WAS FLIPPING THROUGH THE CHANNELS AND FOUND SBN

DEAR EVANGELIST: I thank the Lord everyday for you and the ministry. For several years I slid back into the world. Thank God for the prayers of others, our heavenly Father knocking me down a peg or two, or even three, and I came back to the Lord. I know He loved me that much. After many, many weeks of tears I was flipping through the channels and found SBN. I watch it from the time I get up until I go to bed. I can’t get enough. I have learned so much from your ministry. I am 63 years old. Thank you and God bless you all.

BELIEVER WANTS TO KNOW WHAT CAN BE DONE ABOUT IMMIGRATION

DEAR EVANGELIST: I am a teacher in the public school system, and I am an immigrant, first-generation American from Cuba. My parents both came here legally; I was just a baby at the time. When did it become so politically incorrect to state, “You must enter the country legally,” without being looked at as a heartless monster? Sister Frances, I can totally visualize these people not wanting to become “legal” because they are receiving so many benefits now that otherwise they would not be getting, as you have stated in one of your prior programs. My question is, what can we do about this? I literally need to make a conscious effort to not judge these people that have an attitude of entitlement, but it’s very difficult when it’s being thrown in your face daily. But on a happier note, these children are so loving and beautiful, I am truly blessed that the Lord has allowed me to have this career. I just wanted to share this with you: that every morning our school begins the day by reciting the Pledge of Allegiance, followed by singing God Bless America. I know we are the exception and not the rule. Thank you Jesus!

FAMILY BLESSED BY BROTHER SWAGGART’S NEWEST MUSIC CD

DEAR EVANGELIST: I just love this album, Instrumental Standards; it is absolutely beautiful. My granddaughters, who are 9 and 11, listen to it in the car as I drive them to their different activities. They also like to listen to it at night as they go to sleep. I do hope you are planning to do another instrumental album soon. I have almost all of the JSM albums, and right now this is my favorite.

INSTRUMENTAL STANDARDS IS MOST ANOINTED CD EVER LISTENED TO

DEAR EVANGELIST: I have been around anointed music and know it well. I just received in the mail Instrumental Standards, and I can’t turn it off in my automobile CD player. This is one of the most anointed CDs I have ever listened to. It’s playing right now as I type this email.

Thank you so much for sending this wonderful CD, and God bless Jimmy Swaggart Ministries as you continue taking the works of the Cross message to the uttermost parts of the earth.

BELIEVER BAPTIZED IN THE HOLY SPIRIT WHILE WATCHING SBN

DEAR EVANGELIST: I am a supporter of SBN, and I was watching the share-a-thon this morning. I was sitting on my couch, and the song “Is Not This The Land of Beulah” was playing. All of a sudden, I felt the Spirit of the Lord so strong, and I was baptized in the Holy Spirit! Praise God! We need SBN! SBN is light to this hurting world. I just pray that more people would do their part and support SBN. Thank you to everyone who supports and is a part of SBN.

JIMMY SWAGGART COMMENTARY ON HEBREWS: WOW!

DEAR EVANGELIST: I just received your Hebrew’s Commentary—Wow! I was a former Catholic, and in the seminary (cemetery) for two years. And I can say as a born-again, Spirit-filled Christian, the Holy Spirit has brought me a long way. I have been recently watching your TV program, and I miss this type of service in a local church. I am absorbed in your book daily, reading it with frequency every day. I am 71 years young and still kicking for the Lord my Savior. Thanks so much for all your hard work for us Christians.

ACCORDING TO THE WORD OF GOD, growth is to be normal for the Christian. In our natural bodies, growth takes place almost automatically. Providing that we eat the proper foods, get the right amount of rest, and get a sufficient amount of exercise, the growth process moves unhindered as we move from being an infant to becoming a mature adult.

In a way, our spiritual growth works pretty much along the same lines. If we will take in and digest the Word of God, properly discern it and understand it, and then begin to apply it, spiritual growth will take place. If along the line of growth any of these basics are withheld or not experienced, spiritual growth can be stifled. Peter exhorted believers to see to it that they continued to grow both in knowledge and in grace. So let’s take a look at the meaning of both expectations and grasp a hold of how to accomplish this command given to us in the Word of God.

GROW IN KNOWLEDGE

The question begs to be asked, “How do we grow in knowledge?” The answer comes back to us noting several means. The first most definitive way of gaining knowledge is to become a disciple of God’s Word. The one who wants his life dominated by the Word must spend time in it. Therefore, I am not attempting to earn my growth through works, but I know that in order to comprehend God’s truth, I must spend time in the Bible every day. I must learn that all that God says is a vital part of my growth. So I discipline myself to read that Word everyday. The Bible itself proclaims the value of knowing what is in it. Paul would emphatically state that the believer is to “study to show yourself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the Word of Truth” (II Tim. 2:15).

To understand God’s heart and to perceive what God says is right versus what God says is wrong requires spending time reading and studying God’s Word. Not only do I need to read the Word, but I must also position myself to hear it preached and proclaimed by anointed men and women of God. Oftentimes, a teacher is required to move me from an old mindset to the new one that I need. So, being around other Christians who know the Bible and talking to them about the things I’m learning helps to cement truths in my spirit. As well, the Bible tells us that there is safety in the multitude of counselors.

So I can grow in knowledge by the reading of the Word, by studying the Word, by being in services where the Word is preached, and by sharing my faith with friends. However, if this is how one is to grow in knowledge, what does it mean to grow in grace?
GROW IN GRACE

This Christian experience is to be an experience that models dependence upon God. From the very first moment when we exhibit simple faith in Jesus Christ as our Lord and Saviour, we enter into the process of grace and faith. To be honest with you, this is the only process by which God works with the human race. We are asked to believe in that which God has provided and as a result, He freely gives us what we don’t earn, labor for, or deserve. Grace can’t be obtained through the performance of religious rituals or religious exercises. To say that this is so violates the very definition of the word grace. Grace is unmerited favor; it is the goodness of God given to undeserving people; and it is unmerited divine assistance in both regeneration and sanctification. Paul would equate grace in Galatians, Chapter 3, as the effectual working of the Holy Spirit in the life of the believer. So, growing in grace would mean that the believer continually becomes more dependent upon God’s provision.

When I began, I trusted Him some. As He proved faithful, I trusted Him more. To experience growth in that which is freely received, my faith has to be active so that I achieve a level of dependence, the like of which I have never reached before. The more we mature in the Lord, the more we depend upon His grace to see us through. We are never to arrive at the place where we think or say that we are sufficient in and of ourselves to live this Christian experience. As time goes by, we are to be growing in our need for our Saviour and allowing His role in our lives to dominate us more and more.

To grow in grace means that we ever are increasing our understanding of what Christ did for us at Calvary so that we might ever be placing our faith in His giving to us freely of all things. Do you depend upon Him more today than you ever have in your lifetime? Do you look to Him to solve the problems of your life? Do you look to Him to defeat the sin and the weight that does so easily beset you? If the answer to these questions and others like them is yes, then perhaps you truly are a believer who is growing in the grace and the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. May it ever be so!

— Linda LOUISIANA
The UN was birthed out of the concept that the nations of the world could cooperate together and create a framework for just peace. Within this organization lies the panacea to war that has plagued the world from time immemorial: The Secretary-General as the guardian of peace; the Security Council as the enforcer of peace; and the General Assembly as the keeper of peace.

In order to create this utopia, there must be a universal structure that can receive and then redistribute the resources and make the rules to sustain mankind. An organization that can supply the economic foundations of peace; financing the structure of peace; and be the pioneer for a new age!

One would think that such lofty goals and ambitions would not be from a pragmatist but from an idealist. The Charter of the UN was co-drafted by a communist spy, Alger Hiss. He was not only the co-author of the UN Charter, but also served as the first acting UN Secretary-General.

For decades afterward, only sympathizers to Communism would hold the position of Secretary-General while communist leaders would fill the UN’s highest military post, Under-Secretary General for Political and Security Council Affairs.

IMPLEMENTATION OF GOALS

preceding the creation of the UN, we can look back and see the foundation laid by an eclectic mix of socialist visionaries, secret societies, new agers, all of them well financed by globalists and their tax-exempt foundations. They all share the elites’ common goals of gaining ultimate control—control of everything!

They “window dress” their appearance in democracy, but they have specific goals and standards that all must comply. They use the strategy of “gradualism.” They creep in, “under the radar,” as Rick Warren would say, to infiltrate and “mold minds, undermine sovereignty, establish social solidarity and train a mobile workforce through:

- The redistribution of human and financial resources (through migration, a global economy, and a global welfare system.)
- A uniform worldwide education system that would standardize both social learning and work skills everywhere.
- Control of the mainstream media and other propaganda channels.
- A supportive civil society (including business, community groups, the news and entertainment media, churches, etc.) prepared to lead the masses toward cultural and religious synthesis.

The Sustainable Development Agenda 30 meeting will use one of the world’s most visible religious leaders to promote the agenda, the Roman Catholic pope. One hundred and ninety-three national leaders will be asked to promote the agenda when they go home.

We can all expect a massive promotional campaign to combat climate change. While in Alaska recently, President Obama said, “The issue of whether human activity is changing the climate is settled. So let me sum up: We know that human activity is changing the climate. That is beyond dispute. Everything else is politics if people are denying the facts of climate change...we cannot deny the science. We also know the devastating consequences of the current trend lines continue.” The apocalyptic conclusions by President Obama and the UN will gain success by them using religious leaders to join this new mantra.

SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT—TRANSFORMATIVE GLOBAL AGENDA

The war against national sovereignty has begun. The UN is calling for a massive propaganda campaign at all levels to bring its transformative global agenda into being. Its new slogan: “Leave No One Behind.”

The preamble of the Agenda 30 document says:

“All countries and all stakeholders, acting in collaborative partnership, will implement this plan. We are resolved to free the human race from the tyranny of poverty and want to heal and secure our planet. We are determined to take the bold and transformative steps which are urgently needed to shift the world onto a sustainable and resilient path. As we embark this collective journey, we pledge that no one will be left behind.”

It may be science to some people but to others it’s science fiction. The reality is this: the efforts of many to control their destinies without God is nothing new. The Tower of Babel was man’s first organized rebellion against God. It was there that man wanted to make a name for himself. God scattered many and confused them with different languages so many would not become their own god and ultimately separate themselves from the true and living God.

The lie that Satan told to Adam and Eve—that they would be like God if they disobeyed God—still has wings and circles the earth. It is flying delegates in from 193 nations around the globe to come together again to make a name for them.
GOD’S PROVISION FOR HIS CHURCH

“And He gave some, apostles; and some prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers, for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ: till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ: that we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive” (Eph. 4:11-14).

In these verses we see that God made provisions for the church’s ongoing process of edification and perfection. When the fivefold ministry is properly working in the body of Christ through the working of the Holy Spirit, the result is spiritual growth.

THE FRUIT OF TRUE MINISTRY

When the ministerial gifts are properly operating in the church, then the saint of God will be seen in a constant state of maturing. Members will draw closer to God. They will love His Word more. The fruit of the Spirit will manifest in them. They will play an active part in reaching the world with the Message of the Cross, and they will not walk in error.

FALSE PREACHERS

However, that will not be the case when preachers disregard God’s Word. You see, God promises to bless His Word, not man’s word. Most preachers today have abandoned God’s Word and preach a feel-good gospel. No longer is the Scripture their source for “sermons” but instead they seek humanistic stories meant to encourage the people to feel good about themselves. When the church deviates from God’s Word, then saints cannot grow spiritually. Their spirits will not be edified. They will find themselves in tumultuous waters. Sad to say, there is no shortage of false apostles, false evangelists, false prophets, false pastors, and false teachers who refuse to make sure that their ministry lines up to God’s Word!

HERE COME THE WAVES

Unless the Bible is a believer’s foundation, they will be tossed to and fro, carried about with every wind of doctrine. Doctrine will be accepted or rejected based solely on whether you feel it’s right or not. In reality, you’ll end up following the crowd. The majority isn’t always right. Without God’s Word to evaluate the newest movements, you will do what pleases the flesh. The waves will come and beat against your boat. You will be tossed to and fro as children not discerning between right and wrong. But that shouldn’t be the case.

TEACH MY PEOPLE

Ezekiel prophetically talked about a time when those in false doctrines would be taught to discern between God’s will and man’s false ways.

“And they shall teach my people the difference between the holy and profane, and cause them to discern between the unclean and the clean” (Ezekiel 44:23).

Those genuinely operating in true ministry will teach God’s people to discern between the holy and the profane. Then the church will no longer be tossed to and fro by the newest fad or the newest revelation that goes contrary to God’s Word. Let’s fall in love again with His Word.
As far as I know, the Read-N-Grow Picture Bible is the finest of its kind in the world today. It addresses the entirety of the Bible, using over 1,800 illustrations. It is even helpful for an adult who is having trouble understanding the Bible. Also, for little one's that are too young to read, if a parent will sit that child on their lap and read from this Picture Bible, such a child will be grounded in the Word. In other words, they will understand what you are reading to them. This is for your sons and daughters, your grandsons and granddaughters, your great grandsons and great granddaughters, plus nieces and nephews, etc. Whatever you do, you want to take advantage of this outstanding offer.
