THE CREATION of MAN
Part V | By Jimmy Swaggart

“...Jesus was the living Word.”
The Cross
The reason for the failure is because of not knowing and understanding the Message of the Cross. Paul said, "For the preaching of the Cross is to them who perish foolishness; but unto us who are saved it is the power of God" (1 Cor. 1:18).

The Greek word here translated "preaching" is logos. It should have been translated "word" or "message." It would then have read: "For the message of the Cross is to them …"

Regrettably and sadly, very few Christians know the Message of the Cross. They don't know it simply because it's not being preached and taught behind their pulpits. Considering that "faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the Word of God," if the Word of God is not taught in this capacity, then the person can have no faith in that which he does not know (Rom. 10:17).

For one to properly understand the Word of God, one must understand the word of the Cross. In fact, the story of the Bible is the story of the Cross simply because it's the story of man's redemption. So, to try and understand the Bible apart from the Cross simply will not work. That's why Paul also said, "For I determined not to know anything among you, save Jesus Christ, and Him crucified" (1 Cor. 2:2).

Faith
I am sure that every believer knows and understands that faith is the currency, so to speak, that spends in God's economy. In fact, it's the only currency that He will accept, but let the reader understand the following: When Paul spoke of faith, which he did constantly in one way or the other, without exception, he was always speaking of faith in Christ and what Christ did at the Cross.

In fact, he even referred to this great Christian experience as "the faith" (Gal. 2:20).

However, if the faith of which we speak is not faith in Christ and Him crucified, then it's faith that God will not recognize. Regrettably, as it pertains to the Lord, most Christians presently have faith in about everything except the Cross. They claim to have faith in the Word, but they fail to understand that if it's not faith in the Cross, then it's not faith in the Word. The two—faith and the Word—are synonymous.

The Word Became Flesh
Listen to this: John said, "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God" (Jn. 1:1).

This tells us that Jesus was the living Word.

He then said, "And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us" (Jn. 1:14).

The Lord became flesh in order to be the last Adam and, thereby, to go to the Cross.

When John introduced Christ, he then said, "Behold the Lamb of God, which takes away the sin of the world" (Jn. 1:29).

We now know why the Word became flesh. It was that He might go to the Cross, which was demanded, that is, if man was to be redeemed. So, if we claim to understand the Word or to have our faith based on the Word,
“He made a helpmate for Adam and made it possible for all men who would follow thereafter to have the same. What a blessing!”

which is certainly correct, that is, if we know what we’re talking about, then we must understand that the Cross must ever be the object of our faith. Then the Word will begin to come into sharp focus.

Now, let me make this statement; I know it’s controversial, but it needs to be said: If the believer doesn’t properly understand the Message of the Cross, then in some way, everything he thinks he understands about the Word of God will be more or less perverted.

Spiritual Death

Genesis 2:17 reads, “For in the day that you eat thereof you shall surely die,” and refers to spiritual death, which is separation from God. In other words, at the moment that Adam partook of that particular fruit, whatever it was, he died, i.e., was separated from God. Regrettably and sadly, spiritual death brought on physical death. Unless one turns to Christ, the concluding result will be “the second death,” which is the lake of fire, forever and forever (Rev. 20:14).

We know, as we shall see, that Adam had an amazing intelligence. In fact, I think that no man since has had the intelligence level of Adam, at least that which he had before the fall. But yet, I’m not sure if he fully understood what the word die actually meant. Considering that he was created to live forever by virtue of the Tree of Life, death, as it is presently, was not in his thinking or understanding.

Even though the Bible doesn’t exactly say, I do believe that God explained to him what all of this meant, even as he gave him the command not to eat of the fruit of the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil. Knowing the detailed account of the creation and the meticulous way in which God does things, I must believe that He meticulously explained all of this to our first parent. Regrettably, as we shall see, Adam chose to disobey.

A Companion

“And the Lord God said, It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him an help meet for him” (Gen. 2:18).

As we shall see, these statements are not meant to imply that the creation of woman was an afterthought. There is no plan of God that is incomplete!

The phrase, “And the Lord God said, It is not good that the man should be alone,” was not an idea that suddenly presented itself to the Lord. God is omnipotent (all-powerful) and omniscient (all-knowing), meaning that there are no surprises with God or any situation that presents itself of which He doesn’t have full knowledge. From the time that the Godhead had made the decision to create man, whenever that may have been in eternity past, the creation of woman was planned as well.

Helpmate

The phrase, “I will make him an help meet for him,” proclaims the fact that the Lord did exactly that. He made a helpmate for Adam and made it possible for all men who would follow thereafter to have the same. What a blessing!

All that Adam’s nature demanded for its completion—physically, intellectually, and socially—was to be included in this one who was soon to stand by his side. Thus, in man’s need, and woman’s power to satisfy that need, is laid the foundation for the divine institution of marriage, which was afterwards prescribed not for the first pair alone, but for all their posterity. I remind the reader that it was Adam and Eve, not Adam and Steve.

Brought Them Unto Adam

“And out of the ground the Lord God formed every beast of the field, and every fowl of the air; and brought them unto Adam to see what he would call them: and whatsoever Adam called every living creature, that was the name thereof” (Gen. 2:19).

Out of dust, the Lord God formed every beast of the field and every fowl of the air. Adam gave names to all of these creatures. In the name he gave to each creature, we find the entirety of the characteristics of that particular animal or fowl. This proves that this man was brilliant beyond compare.

The phrase, “And out of the ground the Lord God formed every beast of the field, and every fowl of the air; and brought them unto Adam,” pertains to specimens.

We must understand that this chapter is not intended to be a chronology of creation. The narrative runs according to what is being done at the moment.

Living Creatures

The phrase, “To see what he would call them: and whatsoever Adam called every living creature, that was the name thereof,” presents two things:

1. As we have already stated, the name that Adam gave to each one of these creatures presents the characteristics of that particular animal or fowl. Let the reader understand that the name hasn’t changed from then until now.

2. Before the fall, Adam walked with God every day in the cool of the day, which gave him an education of unparalleled proportions (Gen. 3:8-9). This proclaims to us the fact that Adam was of such intelligence as to defy all description. What type of intelligence does it take for one to know all the characteristics of these creatures!

So, I think it should be overly obvious that we aren’t speaking here of a dolt or an animal-crawling primate, as suggested by some.

To do all of this, Adam had to have a distinct knowledge of speech, the meaning of all words, and the capacity for attaching words to ideas.

Why not? Adam had the greatest teacher that man has ever had—the Lord God.

Names

“...and Adam gave names to all cattle, and to the fowl of the air, and to every beast of the field; but for Adam there was not found a help meet for him” (Gen. 2:20).

Verse 20 proclaims the amazing degree of intelligence possessed by earth’s first man. When we understand that these names incorporate every characteristic of each particular creature, and that these names come down to us unto this very hour, then we are forced to recognize the amazing intelligence possessed by Adam.

If man had not fallen, the world would have been a far different place, which is actually a gross understatement. In fact, there’s really no way that we can even remotely comprehend what would have been. We get some idea from the prophets as they spoke of the coming kingdom age; however, even then, there will still be sin in the world, despite the fact that Jesus will be personally ruling from Jerusalem.
But yet, at that particular time, the world will come close to that which God originally intended.

Sin

Man has repeatedly attempted to rebuild this Paradise himself. He has done so with socialism, communism, dictatorships, etc. That which points in the right direction is biblical democracy, one might say. However, let it quickly be understood that a true democracy cannot be built and cannot be brought into being without the Bible being its foundation. America spent a trillion dollars and wasted over 4,000 lives in the quagmire of Iraq, trying to build a democratic nation without addressing the religion of Islam. It cannot be done. As one man said, “Democracy and Islam aren’t even on the same planet.”

Now, when I say that a democracy must be built upon the Bible, this is not an advocating of a state church. It is far from such! The separation of church and state is biblical, but that doesn’t mean the separation of God and state as is being carried on in America presently. Unless it’s changed, it will be the ruin of this nation. It is still, “In God we trust.”

Man’s problem is that he tries to do it without the Tree of Life, which, incidentally, is the Lord Jesus Christ. Such simply cannot be done without Christ. The hearts of men are far too wicked, and, incidentally, they are hearts that can only be changed by Christ. Even then, He had to pay a terrible price by the giving of Himself in sacrifice on the Cross in order that this terrible problem of sin might be properly addressed. Regrettably, the world refuses to understand the terrible malady of sin, although it fills the earth with hatred, murder, and mayhem.

The Cross Of Christ

Even the church, I think, doesn’t fully realize the terrible horror of sin, and I’ll tell you why I say that: If the church fully understood the malady of sin as they should, they wouldn’t keep advocating foolish things as its cure rather than the Cross. The Cross of Christ is the only answer to sin. That refers to the sinner being saved or the Christian attempting to walk holy before the Lord. If we look to anything else, our looking is in vain! There is no help in any other direction. This is why Paul said, “We preach Christ crucified” (I Cor. 1:23). He didn’t say merely, “We preach Christ,” but rather, “We preach Christ crucified.” The problem with the church is that it preaches Christ but in many and varied ways other than the Cross. Many preach Him as the great example; others preach Him as the healer; and others preach Him as the great prosperity-giver. In fact, the list is almost endless. However, unless Christ is preached as the Saviour, and the Saviour by virtue of what He did at the Cross, lives will never be changed. That’s why Paul said what he did.
John 4:23 says, “But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.”

WHEN IT COMES to worship, the modern church has lost its way.

I say that because of what people write in and tell me about church services they’re attending where sanctuaries are lit low, nearly dark, and the sacred desk on the platform is set aside to make room for entertainment.

Pastors, desperate to increase attendance, especially among young people, are choosing to hook up concert lights, fog machines, and employ aerialists and choreographed dancers to enhance the “worship” part of their services. Creative and innovative, they call it, and pastors claim it works—people are coming to church.

But the Bible defines worship far differently.

In the Old Testament, we first see the word worship in the story of Abraham.

After waiting so long for his promised son, God would now ask the patriarch to sacrifice him. On a mountain of God’s choosing, He would test Abraham’s faith, to see if he was willing to give up everything—and Isaac was everything to Abraham—his stars in the sky, his sands of the sea, his joy, and his laughter.

Even so, he told his servants, “Abide ye here … and I and the lad will go yonder and worship, and come again to you” (Gen. 22:5). And what was the outcome of this kind of faith and worship?

“And the angel of the LORD called unto him out of heaven, and said, Abraham, Abraham: and he said, Here am I. And he said, Lay not thine hand upon the lad, neither do thou any thing unto him: for now I know that thou fearest God, seeing thou hast not withhold thy son, thine only son from me. And Abraham lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold behind him a ram caught in a thicket by his horns: and Abraham went and took the ram, and offered him up for a burnt offering in the stead of his son” (Gen. 22:11-13).

In the stead of Abraham’s son, God would offer up His only begotten Son.

Reverence And Respect

In the New Testament, we see several examples of people worshipping the Lord:

• The woman whose daughter was vexed with a devil “came she and worshipped him, saying, Lord, help me” (Matt. 15:25).

• The man born blind whom Jesus healed said, “Lord, I believe. And he worshipped him” (Jn. 9:38).

• A leper who came “and worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean” (Matt. 8:2)

• A certain ruler who came “and worshipped him, saying, My daughter is even now dead: but come and lay thy hand upon her, and she shall live” (Matt. 9:18).

- The mother of Zebedee’s children came, “worshipping him, and desiring a certain thing of him” (Matt. 20:20).

These instances, prior to the outpouring of the Holy Spirit, are understood to mean adoration, honor, proper respect, reverence and recognition of Christ’s divinity.

Worship After The Holy Spirit
In his commentary on John, my husband explains worship in the church today:

The phrase, “When the true worshippers...,” tells us that there is much worship, but with most of it false. Even though the word spirit as used here by Jesus, pertains to the spirit of man, the Holy Spirit also is the very person of the Godhead who makes it possible for the believer to truly worship God.

Likewise, the modern believer, without the baptism in the Holy Spirit, has some light regarding worship, but not near enough. If one is to notice, the services conducted by preachers who do not believe in the baptism in the Holy Spirit, are far more formal, and stereotyped (in other words, they are all the same). As such, there is very little, if any true worship. Most of the people who attend these churches, think that by merely showing up and listening to the preaching, etc., that they are worshipping. However, that is woefully incorrect.

So, only those who are truly Spirit-filled know how to worship God.

When the believer is baptized in the Holy Spirit, and irrespective as to his former background, certain characteristics will begin to come to the fore. There will be in him, even as Jesus said in verse John 4:14, “a well of water springing up into everlasting life,” actually referring to a gushing forth which never stops. This is the reason for the constant praises on the lips of true Spirit-filled believers. Such has nothing to do with whether they are in church, but is actually a part of their spiritual and mental make-up. Praises to the Lord become common place, irrespective of where the person may be. Of course, most is carried on very quietly, even in one’s subconscious much of the time, but it still constitutes praise and worship.

As well, there is a constant uplifting of hands in public services, as

Worship After The Cross
So how did worship change after the Cross?

My husband notes that every single prophecy of the Old Testament, all of the sacrifices, along with the feast days, as well as what the tabernacle and temple stood for, all pointed to one person—the Lord Jesus Christ. He was and is the fulfillment of all these things, and done so for the purpose of opening up the way that the Holy Spirit could come down and dwell in the hearts and lives of believers, and in a manner which could not be done previously. When Jesus died on Calvary, thereby satisfying the claims of heavenly justice, and defeating Satan as well, His resurrection would afford a place and position with the Father for believers heretofore unknown. Consequently, it would be the greatest pivot point in history, with believers becoming “an habitation of God through the Spirit” (Eph. 2:22).

So in John 4, when the Lord tells the Samaritan woman that “true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him,” we should take the time to understand what He meant.

“On your journey to worship Him, what is guiding you?”
Jesus is extolled (I Tim. 2:8), which is a result of the moving of the Holy Spirit, and not the cause. In other words, many Pentecostals and Charismatics attempt to instigate a moving of the Holy Spirit by these physical actions, but to no avail. The manner in which believers express themselves, and which is biblical, is always a result of the moving and operation of the Holy Spirit in one’s heart, and as stated, not the cause.

This is the reason I have some difficulties with much of the modern phenomenon, such as ‘holy laughter,’ or ‘roaring like lions,’ etc. While these manifestations, certainly may have some small scriptural validity, the manner in which it is presently engaged, I think little coincides with the Word of God. In other words, too many seek the manifestation, instead of Jesus.

There is nothing in the Bible which encourages us to seek manifestations, but rather the persons of the Godhead—God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit. If properly in the believer’s heart and life, God the Holy Spirit will see to it that God the Son is properly glorified, and God the Father properly worshiped. If men seek to worship the Lord only in their spirits, and devoid of ‘truth,’ i.e., the Word of God, excesses will always follow, with priorities becoming confused, and spiritual anemia being the result.

The phrase, ‘for the Father seeketh such to worship Him,’ means that by the word seeketh that such are not easily found. As today, so then, the sinner tried by a proposed religious discussion about churches to put aside the matter of her shameful life, but Jesus gently and courteously explained to her that the true way of salvation had been revealed to the Jews, even though it was little heeded, and that the true place of worship was the heart, not either Gerizim or Jerusalem, for God is Spirit and Truth. Worship, therefore, must be spiritual, and must be in subjection to the Word of God.

Many in the church have concluded that God seeks holy worship. He does not. He seeks holy worshippers. There is a vast difference.

A Lesson In Seeking
The wise men sought Jesus, to worship Him, and both their journey and their arrival in Nazareth offer believers a beautiful picture of what it means to worship the King of kings.

They came from the east and were found asking, “Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him” (Matt. 2:2).

They saw His star, which is to say they were guided by revelation and not appearances. On your journey to worship Him, what is guiding you? As my husband notes, if a heart is earnest, honest, and sincere before God, that “star,” which is the guiding light of the Holy Spirit, will appear to any and all who truly seek the Lord, and they will be led to Christ, for the Holy Spirit always leads people to Christ, even as Christ always leads believers to the Holy Spirit.

After the wise men sought Him, they saw Him.

“And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down, and worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh” (Mat. 2:11).

The Lord’s house was of humble design. No acrobats, fog machines, or concert lights. No dancers or people waving flags. Wise men and women search for and see Him, and when they do, they worship Him.

Like these traveling kings, true worshippers also open their treasures—their hearts—and present to Him gifts: their faith in Christ, which is, like Abraham, their everything; offerings of thanksgiving that propel the work of God, and praise and worship anointed by the Holy Spirit, which is what the Father seeks.

Church, the hour cometh and now is to worship the Lord in spirit and in truth.

“Wise men and women search for and see Him, and when they do, they worship Him.”

Brother Swaggart, Why Doesn’t The Cross Work For Me? (09-127)
Two thousand years ago, the Lord revealed the meaning of the new covenant to the Apostle Paul. Under inspiration of the Holy Spirit, Paul recorded this foundational doctrine in his epistles to the early church. His preaching and teaching of Christ and Him crucified began to unveil the mystery of how the Holy Spirit works within the parameters of Christ’s finished work and within the hearts and lives of believers. So, why is the church today still plagued with personal failures caused by sin? The answer to this question is still the Cross, and men of God are still preaching Jesus Christ and Him crucified. For the past 17 years, Brother Swaggart has been preaching and teaching the same message Paul received so long ago, the Message of the Cross—the answer to complete victory over the sin nature. In this book, Brother Swaggart explains the revelation the Lord gave to him regarding the Cross of Christ as the only answer for believers, even when the question is, “Why doesn’t the Cross work for me?” (276 pages, hardcover)

Brother Swaggart, How Do I Live A Victorious Life? (09-107)
The Lord gave the apostle Paul the meaning of the new covenant (the meaning of the Cross), which incorporates the entire plan of God. Throughout his epistles and especially the book of Romans, Paul tells believers how to live a victorious life in Christ Jesus. In this volume of the Here Is My Question series, Brother Swaggart offers an in-depth revelation of the Cross—its power and how it relates to the sin nature a clear definition of the true gospel, and teaching on how to walk after the Spirit. In the good fight of faith, Satan will, of course, continue his efforts to hinder, which is why it is so important for believers to understand that all victory is found in Christ and made possible only by the Cross. (283 pages, hardcover)

Brother Swaggart, Here Is My Question About Bible Prophecy (09-106)
The rapture of the church will be the most epochal moment in the history of Christianity, but what exactly is this catching away of the saints? When will it happen and who will be considered ready to meet the Lord in the air? In this volume of the Here Is My Question series, Brother Swaggart offers biblical answers to frequently asked questions regarding the rapture, when the Antichrist will reveal himself, the great tribulation, the battle of Armageddon, and the second coming of the Lord Jesus Christ. These scheduled events will occur sooner than most people think. In Revelation—the only book in the world that gives a preview of the future—John hears, “Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book; for the time is at hand.” (300 pages, hardcover)

Brother Swaggart, Here Is My Question About The Holy Spirit (09-114)
The Lord told Zechariah that everything done for the Him on earth was done by the power of the Holy Spirit: “Not by might, nor by power, but by My Spirit, says the LORD of Hosts.” That means miracles—the parting of the Red Sea, the collapse of Jericho’s walls, and the deathblow to Goliath—were all done by the power of the Holy Spirit. From Genesis until now, everything done by our Lord has been done through the power, office, ministry, and person of the Holy Spirit. But how does He do it? How does the Holy Spirit work in Christian lives? In this book, Brother Swaggart addresses these questions and more as he stresses the need for believers to know, understand, and be filled with the Holy Spirit. (304 pages, hardcover)

Brother Swaggart, Here Is My Question About The Cross (09-103)
When Brother Swaggart received the revelation of the Cross from the Lord in 1997, it changed his entire life and his ministry. It is a revelation still unfolding to this hour. As such, he is doing everything possible to ensure that the Message of the Cross penetrates the church and the world. Since modern churches rarely preach on the Cross, Christians today are curious about the need for Jesus Christ and Him crucified. They want to know how the Cross relates to their sanctification. How were people saved before the Cross? And why doesn’t the Cross work for me? Brother Swaggart answers these questions and more in this volume of the Here Is My Question series. Learn why the Cross of Christ is the most important part of God’s plan. (452 pages, hardcover)

“And when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place. And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.” —Acts 2:1-4

THE WIND AND THE FIRE

THERE ARE SEVERAL symbols used in the Bible for the Holy Spirit. Their purpose is to illustrate, illuminate, and to give insight and understanding.

Those symbols are:

Oil—represents the anointing of the Holy Spirit. When kings or priests in Israel were consecrated to their office, oil was poured over their heads.

Living water—another symbol representing the life of the Spirit (Jn. 7:37-39).

There is no life outside of the Holy Spirit. The final two symbols are the only two symbols represented in the Acts, Chapter 2, account of the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. I believe that this is because the final two symbols—wind and fire—represent the two most important works of the Holy Spirit in the life of the believer. Let’s take a closer look at these two.

Wind

The rushing mighty wind of Acts, Chapter 2, is symbolic of the power of the Holy Spirit. The true church of the Lord Jesus Christ is to be a church of power—power that is greater than the powers of Satan.

Without the power of the Holy Spirit, there is no reason to have church, but with the power, sinners are saved, and believers are healed and filled. We see the power of the Holy Spirit in operation during Pentecost as 3,000 were saved. In Acts, Chapter 3, the lame man is healed. This is what the power of the Holy Spirit can do.

Jesus And The Holy Spirit
There is no doubt of the importance that Jesus placed on the Holy Spirit. In Luke, Chapter 3, we see the visible appearance of the dove descending from heaven and coming upon Christ. In Luke 4:1, the Scripture states that Jesus was “full of the Holy Spirit,” and in Luke 4:18, the text states, “The Spirit of the Lord is upon Me, because He hath anointed Me.” Every miracle performed by the Lord during His earthly ministry was done as a man operating within the power of the Holy Spirit. If the Lord had to have the power of the Holy Spirit, then how much more do we have to have the power of the Holy Spirit?

The Purpose Of The Power
The purpose of the power of the Holy Spirit within our lives is to fulfill the Great Commission as given to us by the Lord in Mark 16:15-18. To do the works of Christ is one of the greatest honors that any believer could ever have. To be able to lay hands on one who is sick in body and see him healed, to lay hands on a poor demon-possessed soul and see him set free, or to proclaim the good news of Christ’s atoning work is what the power of the Holy Spirit is all about. We must have the wind of the Spirit blow again as He did on the day of Pentecost. Wherever the wind is blowing is where you will find the Lord, and that’s where I want to be.

Fire
Fire is symbolic of purity. This speaks of the sanctification process of the believer. It is our re-creation into “the image of the heavenly” (I Cor. 15:49) by the flame of purification. As this is the final symbol used in the text, this makes me believe that this specific work of the Holy Spirit is by far His most important task.

Though we are saved, still, there is much in each of us that is of the flesh and not of the Spirit. Actually the doctrine of sanctification is just as important to the believer as the doctrine of salvation to the sinner. The process of sanctification is a lifetime process, and it is a process that can be violent to the flesh but pleasing to the Spirit.

The Words Of John The Baptist
In Matthew 3:11-12, John addressed this very process. He said: “I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but He that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: He shall baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire: Whose fan is in His hand, and He will thoroughly purge His floor, and gather His wheat into the garner; but He will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.”

At the time of the harvest, the grain would be taken to the threshing floor, a large round rock that sloped downward. The grain would be laid on the floor and trampled under the feet of oxen or the wheel of a wagon. The purpose of this was to separate the grain from the chaff or husk. The grain would be tossed into the air while people who stood around the edge of the threshing floor would wave large palm leaves that would create a current of wind that would blow the chaff to the edge, with the grain falling to the floor. The wheat would then be stored in the garner with the chaff then being burned by fire.

Chaff
The chaff attached to the grain is a type of the flesh that all of us battle. The fire of the Holy Spirit is the only way that separation can come. Our works and our good intentions cannot and will not benefit our sanctification. It is strictly the work of the Holy Spirit that we must desire and yield to daily.

Wheat
The wheat is the finished work of the Holy Spirit and the only thing accepted by the Lord. If we allow the Holy Spirit to burn off the chaff, then as grain or the finished product, the Holy Spirit can then “present you (us) faultless before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy” (Jude, Vs. 24).

I pray that your desire as a believer is to walk in holiness, a vessel of honor, purified and sanctified by the fire of the Holy Spirit.
Church, Read The Book Of Acts And Get Ready! (09-150)
The book of Acts is perhaps summarized best in two words: And suddenly. From the time those early believers heard that rushing mighty wind and were all filled with the Holy Spirit, the first church was suddenly baptized with fire and spoke with other tongues; suddenly empowered to preach the gospel; and suddenly emboldened to stand for the Lord Jesus Christ in the face of deadliest persecution. While much of the church today both grieves and ignores the Holy Spirit, there is a growing remnant of people who believe that the book of Acts is a necessary blueprint for Christians today. In this anointed book, Evangelist Donnie Swaggart educates the saved and the unsaved on the person, power, and role of the Holy Spirit. Readers will rediscover the book of Acts—a miraculous sampling of what the Holy Spirit can accomplish as the Comforter and Helper through a believer’s faith in Jesus Christ and Him crucified.

“But without faith it is impossible to please Him: for he who comes to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarde of them who diligently seek Him.”  —Hebrews 11:6

FAITH Part IV

IN OUR KEY VERSE in this series, Paul continues with his thought, referring to prayer when he writes, “for he that comes to God.” Prayer is one of the greatest resources that we have as believers, but very few really take advantage of it. God desires that we come to Him with every single one of our problems, needs, and troubles, for He is the only one who can truly help. He also desires a relationship with His children, but few actually desire a relationship with Him.

How sad it is when Christians, when faced with a problem, will tell a neighbor, friend, relative, or significant other and never, at one time, tell God. There’s an old saying that I heard years ago that says, “If you have a problem, tell God or your dog, but never tell your neighbor. If you tell your dog, the only thing that your dog can do is wag its tale. But if you tell your neighbor, that neighbor will wag his tongue.”

As Christians, why do we settle for help from people when all they can do is offer sympathy or empathy, when God is able to meet our needs? We should consider it an advantage to bring our needs to the Lord, for He alone is the only one who can provide what is needed for that very moment. Remember, He is all-powerful, all-knowing, all-sufficient, and the Scripture tells us that He is our very present help in time of trouble (Ps. 46:1).

He Is

Not only are we to come to God in prayer, but we are to believe that “He is.” Now, this is so much more than just believing that He exists, but it really points to the fact that God is whatever we need Him to be, at the very time we need Him to be. This is such an outstanding promise, to know that God is whatever we need Him to be, in order to meet our need.

Let me give you a biblical example from the Old Testament. Moses, the great lawgiver, was on the verge of doing something that, in the natural, was utterly impossible: to stand before the mightiest monarch on the face of the planet and declare to him to release the children of Israel from captivity.

This was a monumental assignment. One man, with one stick and with one message—“Let My people go!” I’m sure you can imagine the consternation Moses was experiencing at that moment, but God was specific in this task, and it must be done. In prayer, Moses would ask, “Whom shall I tell them that sent me?” to which God responded, “I AM THAT I AM; and He said, thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, I AM hath sent me unto you” (Ex. 3:14).

What He was saying to Moses that day can be stated as, “I was, I am, and I shall continue to be.” It is what we can refer to as a blank check, meaning that He will be whatever we need Him to be. If we need Him to be a banker, He’s our banker. If you need a doctor, He’s the best doctor in the world. If you need a lawyer, then He’s the greatest lawyer that’s ever lived. He is whatever we need Him to be. Now, we need to bring clarification to that statement, for some people will take that out of context. We need to understand that whatever is being asked has to be in the will of God for our lives. If it’s not the will of God, then we are asking amiss. God will only work according to His will, and we must never forget that. There are going to be times that we ask the Lord for something, but it will not be answered, because it’s not God’s will. We must seek His will in every aspect of our lives, and never base things off of presumption.

A Rewarder To Those Who Seek Him

This last phrase, “He is a redivider of them that diligently seek Him,” is extremely important to the believer. This really lends itself to the fact that God will do whatever is needed, providing, as mentioned above, that whatever is being asked is in the will of God. We must acknowledge that God only has good things in store for us, His children. He desires to provide and take care of whatever His children need.

As parents, Jill and I want what’s best for our children, and we desire to provide what is best for our children, but this doesn’t mean that we give our children whatever they want, especially if we know that whatever is being asked for will hurt them. When see something that could hurt them, we choose not to provide it for that very reason. God, our heavenly Father, does the same with us. And if we want what’s best for our physical children, then how much more does God want to provide what’s best for His children?

The word rewarder means “to perform, recompense, render, requite, restore, or yield.” When a person comes to Christ, he automatically enters in into God’s economy, and in God’s economy there will never be an economic downturn, recession, loss in stocks, uncertainty, or panic, for God will take care of us.

No matter what the need is, God has promised us in His Word that He will provide whatever is needed. But let me make this point, these things will not come to us automatically, nor will they come without us seeking His will. We are to diligently seek Him—seek Him out and believe Him for that which is needed. Not every request we ask God for will come right away; if it happened that way, we would never learn to trust and depend upon Him to meet our needs. It won’t be easy, and there will be times where you feel discouraged that your promise will never come to pass. But continue to press through and believe Him regardless of the circumstances that are before you; believe Him in spite of what is happening around you. When you do this, if whatever you are asking for is in the will of God for your life, then it will come to pass.

“This was a monumental assignment. One man, with one stick and with one message—‘Let My people go!’”
Great Women Of The Bible, Old Testament (09-120)
Since the creation of mankind, God has used women to help fulfill His plan of redemption. In this powerful book by Brother Swaggart, he informs his readers of scriptural details of the lineage, circumstances, and immovable faith of several women named in the Old Testament. Included in these chapters is Sarah, the barren wife of Abraham, who bore a miracle child at the age of 90; Rahab the Gentile, whose plea for salvation for her and her house was granted; Naomi and Ruth, who modeled types of Israel and the church; and Esther, who was chosen over all other women to be queen of the Persian Empire. Also included is the beautiful story of Rebekah and her marriage to Isaac, which is symbolic of Christ and His bride, the church. (Over 450 pages, hardcover)

Great Women Of The Bible, New Testament (09-121)
This volume looks into the lives of New Testament women who made phenomenal contributions to the plan and work of God. Nearly 200 pages are dedicated just to the story of Mary—from her lineage in the house of David to her miraculous role as the mother of our Lord. Even so, Mary’s humble response to God’s favor was, “Behold, the handmaiden of the Lord.” In this book, Brother Swaggart also explores the tremendous faith of these women: Mary Magdalene, who announced the resurrection of Jesus Christ; Mary and Martha, who watched Him raise their brother Lazarus from the dead; Phebe and the elect lady, and Lydia, who hosted the first church in her home. Two chapters also address the roles of women in the home and in the church. (Over 490 pages, hardcover)

Noah (09-118)
Noah walked with God, the Bible says, and he was just and perfect in his generations—his lineage. Noah also found grace in the eyes of the Lord, which happens to be the very first time that the word grace is mentioned in the Word of God. So, what was it like for Noah to hear the Lord say that He would destroy all flesh on the earth? God told Noah, and Noah alone, that the flood was coming. For decades, the people around Noah watched his struggle to build an ark based on pure faith in God. Still standing on dry ground, they mocked the man of God while eating, drinking, and refusing to heed Noah’s warning that rain was coming. Then, just as God said, the flood came. (240 pages, hardcover)

Abraham (09-119)
In the great plan of God, Abraham occupies a unique position all to himself. The call that God placed on his life more than 4,000 years ago still echoes in the hearts of believers today. But who was this man whom the angel of the Lord had to shout, “Abraham, Abraham,” to stop him from sacrificing his son to God? How was his faith counted as righteousness, and why was he called the friend of God? In this captivating book, Brother Swaggart takes his readers to Genesis and introduces them to Abram, whom God transformed into Abraham through revelation, covenant, and promise. Outside, in the desert night, we see this patriarch looking up, trying to count the stars, as the Lord speaks to his heart, “So shall you seed be.” (Over 500 pages, hardcover)

U.S. OVER-THE-AIR (OTA), LISTINGS

For those of you who are not familiar with digital television, these are free “old fashioned TV channels” that are able to be picked up with a digital tuner and antenna. Most new televisions are equipped with built-in digital tuners or you can purchase a tuner from your local electronics store (Best Buy®, Radio Shack®, etc.). As well, you can purchase the proper antenna at your local electronics store. Many viewers under the broadcast signal of the television station can use a small, digital antenna inside the home. For those on the outer edge of the signal or to receive the best signal, an outdoor antenna may be required. Both indoor and outdoor antennas are available for less than $50!

The Benefits Of Prayer (07-586)
In this revelatory teaching, Pastor David Borg takes believers layer by layer through the Lord’s Prayer and describes the connectivity between its 66 words and the Cross, the power of the Holy Spirit, and the meaning of the new covenant.

The Covenant Of Prayer (07-585)
When the disciples asked Jesus to teach them to pray, part of the Lord’s Prayer included the words, “Thy kingdom come.” In this powerful teaching, Pastor David Borg reveals the meaning of this phrase and its application to every believer.

The Power Of Prayer (07-584)
In this teaching by Pastor David Borg, you’ll discover the rich revelations that tie the Message of the Cross to this new covenant prayer pattern that Jesus gave to His disciples—and us—in the opening verses of the Lord’s Prayer.

But He Gives More Grace (07-583)
In this encouraging message, Pastor Bob Cornell uses James 4:6 to show that no matter what believers go through in their lives, God’s grace is unlimited. When the need of the Christian is great, he explains, God’s grace is greater.

The Renewing Of The Mind (07-582)
One of the many benefits that Christ accomplished on the Cross was the renewing of a believer’s mind. Using Romans 12:1-2, Pastor Bob Cornell shows how the Holy Spirit renews the mind and helps believers to think more like Christ.

The Healing Wounds Of Jesus (07-581)
The Lord Jesus Christ is still the healer. In this powerful message taken from Isaiah 53, Pastor Bob Cornell teaches believers that there is healing for the spirit, soul, and body through the wounds of Christ on the Cross.

Your Due Season Is Coming (07-580)
God’s children need not grow weary while doing good. In this teaching from Galatians 6:7-9, Pastor Bob Cornell encourages Christians to keep “sowing to the Spirit” because the appointed time for God’s promises to come to pass is near.

Don’t Worry, God’s Got It (07-579)
Using Philippians 4:6-7, Pastor Bob Cornell encourages believers not to worry because God—our provider—is in control. As children of God, it doesn’t matter what believers face in this life; they don’t have to worry because God’s got it!

A Testimony Of Love & Grace
The Story Of The Conversion Of Loren Larson (07-574)
Loren Larson’s conversion testifies of what the Lord can do in a person’s heart. Brother Loren’s deliverance from alcohol, brokenness, and drugs, resonates with anyone who struggles with similar bondages and builds faith in the saving grace of Jesus Christ.

FAMILY WORSHIP CENTER CHURCH

“It has been on my heart for a long time to formally acknowledge the work Jimmy Swaggart Ministries did at the conclusion of the Zimbabwe War of Independence to assist refugees caught up in the aftermath of the conflict, particularly when Mugabe washed his hands of the problem. One of your employees, and a good friend of mine, coordinated the transportation and no doubt the actions of your ministry saved thousands. Your program aired in Zimbabwe in the 1980s and impacted our Christian walk. Every Sunday it would open with you singing “Let Your Living Waters Flow,” and often featured John Starnes singing “Jerusalem.” My wife of 45 years and daughters, sons-in-law, and five grandchildren remain committed Christians, and I continue to follow SBN in Australia. I love The Message of the Cross program as well as Frances & Friends, Insight and the FWC singers. Keep up the great work! —AUSTRALIA

Dear Evangelist: SBN is such a blessing—the preaching, the music, the study in the Word. I listen by Internet and my soul is blessed every time. Praise God! Glory to His name! —JAMAICA

Dear Evangelist: Last year, my husband of 32 years went to be with the Lord. I felt as if I was falling into a hole, and one day, as I was ready to give up, sitting on the couch, and channel surfing, I found your channel. You were singing an old song that was prevalent in the 1980s (when we got married), “Let Your Living Water Flow Over My Soul.” I felt immediately revived. From that day on, I have been able to get up and serve the Lord fervently in spite of...

my deep pain. I determined not to let that dark place conquer me. I feel God led me to your channel, and you have been a tremendous blessing to me as I learned to maneuver a new normal. I have a church home, and they have been a great support, I am not lacking there, but I believe that it was the Lord’s intent for your channel to be extra support, so I’m surrounded 24-7. Thank you and bless you! —SOUTH CAROLINA

Dear Evangelist: Wow! My 92-year-old Grams spoke in tongues tonight watching David Borg! She has wanted this her whole life. Praise Jesus, praise God! So intense! —EMAIL

Dear Evangelist: It was back in 1984 in a motel room in Virginia Beach that I clicked on the TV and I came upon a preaching program. The fiery preacher looked directly in the camera, pointed his finger at it and said, “Sir, yes. I’m talking to you in the motel room, you are wrong and you know it, God has better for you. Come out from amongst them. Be saved by the blood of Jesus and be baptized by the Holy Ghost with the evidence of speaking in tongues!” The Holy Spirit convicted me, and I re-dedicated my life to Christ. He was Jimmy Swaggart. I started watching the broadcasts. The music captivated me and soothed my soul. His preaching opened up my heart to the truth in God’s Word. I purchased lesson packages, the lapel pin, VHS videos of campmeetings, and the original edition of Rape of a Nation, but the way Brother Swaggart played the piano always intrigues me. I am so happy that I can now view the ministry on TV. I see that Brother Swaggart’s message has not changed. I also testify to the truth that he preached 30 years ago has manifested to this very day. I thank God that the ministry has continued, that Frances has become vocal with Frances & Friends, Donnie’s preaching reminds me of a younger Jimmy with the same gestures and voice inflections, and I remember seeing a 4-year-old Gabriel once saying he wanted to be an evangelist, and now I watch a mature young man proclaiming the gospel of Christ. I support the endeavors of the ministry, the FWC music, A Study in the Word, Frances & Friends, Insight, Crossfire, the share-a-thons and the Bible-thons. One day, I will meet you in campmeeting. I thank God that He has allowed me to witness your ministry then and now. Bless His name and bless your obedience to the command of the Lord. —EMAIL
THERE'S A SONG that we sometimes sing at Family Worship Center called “Worthy of It All,” by David Brymer. The main chorus says this:

You are worthy of it all.
You are worthy of it all, Jesus.
For from You are all things,
And to You are all things.
You deserve the glory.

This song and scriptural truth has been strong in my spirit ever since we sang it at the 2018 International Youth Conference during the Friday morning service wherein I ministered. The Spirit of God moved powerfully in that service, especially during the altar call. It was unplanned, but the song went perfectly with the last point of my message titled, “The Divine Exchange.”

The last point came from II Corinthians 5:14-15, which says, “For the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead: and that he died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again.”

Paul’s point was that since Jesus gave His all and died for us all, then we who have received Christ should give our whole lives to Jesus. We should give our lives to Jesus completely because He’s worthy of it all—no reservations, no holding back, no excuses, and no half-heartedness. Why? Because He’s worthy of it all!

My prayer is that this truth consumes my heart even more, and that it consumes your heart as well.

In Revelation 4 and 5, the apostle John was taken to heaven in a vision and shown heavenly worship like no one else had ever seen before. Actually, what John saw is what every believer will experience following the rapture of the church. One of the key words that sticks out about worship in heaven is the word worthy.

In Revelation 4:11, the twenty-four elders—a type of the redeemed—cast their crowns at the feet of God and said, “Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honor and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created.”

One day, every believer will receive a crown (I Pet. 5:4), a type of all the blessings we have received from God through Christ. Why did the twenty-four elders cast their crowns at God's feet? Why will we most likely do the same thing when we get to heaven? It's because God is worthy!
The word worthy means, “having qualities or abilities that are deserving of recognition, honor, and praise. A synonym of worthy is the word deserving. God deserves all recognition, honor, and praise. From Revelation 4:11, it tells us why God is worthy: "For thou has created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created.” God's worthy of all of our praise. He’s deserving of us giving Him our lives and honoring Him because He created us for His glory.

In Revelation 5, the worship is directed toward Jesus, the Lamb of God. Again, one day, every believer will experience this pure worship of God and the Lamb in heaven. Even so, come quickly, Lord Jesus! Revelation 5:9-10 says the twenty-four elders "sung a new song, saying, Thou are worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain," and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation; and hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth.”

In Revelation 5:12, the four living creatures and an innumerable number of angels join the twenty-four elders, “Saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing.”

Our worship of Jesus in heaven will focus on the truth that He’s worthy. Why is Jesus worthy? It’s because He’s the Lamb that was slain on the cross to redeem us to God. Jesus is completely worthy of all of our praise and our lives because He redeemed us (bought us back through His blood) on the cross. If that’s what our worship will focus on in heaven, then that’s what it should be focused here on earth.

The reality is that Jesus deserves all of our lives, and every part of our lives. He deserves a heart that puts Him first. He’s worthy of a faith and a trust that is only in Him and His finished work on the cross. He’s worthy of obedience to His calling on our lives.

On the flip side of Jesus being worthy, there is an aspect of us being worthy.

In Matthew 10:38, Jesus said, “And he that taketh not his cross, and followeth after me, is not worthy of me.” In other words, “The person who will not trust Me, embrace by faith My all-sufficient death, die to self, and follow Me, will never be made worthy of any of My blessings.”

When our lives are dependent on faith in Christ and His all-sufficient death, He alone makes us worthy. God recognizes and honors us as loved, blessed, and His own children. We don’t deserve any of His blessings on our own, yet through Christ He loads us with favor, honor, and blessing.

What a privilege to be a child of God! 🙏

“Now Joshua was old and stricken in years; and the LORD said unto him, Thou art old and stricken in years, and there remaineth yet very much land to be possessed.” —Joshua 13:1

I WILL possess THE LAND

The Initial Victory
This passage speaks of a time after Joshua’s initial victory in the lands of Palestine. Because of the fact that Joshua and his armies had defeated those who ruled supreme in the area, it was now left to the people of Israel to settle and possess the land that had been won for them.

In a sense, this is what Jesus’ victory at Calvary has done for believers. His death and sacrifice at Calvary has made it possible for us to go in and possess the land. The payment for sin has been made. As well, the power of sin’s grip over the believer has been broken. Now, with sin being dealt a deathblow and the righteousness of Christ being imputed into the believer’s account, we are ready to begin the process of spiritual growth. The Holy Spirit takes up residence within us, and He will continue to perform His transforming work, as long as our faith remains stayed upon Christ’s finished work. Those who realize what Christ has done and who place their faith in His finished work will be able to enter into and maintain God’s maturing process. So, while the Cross defeats the foe, spiritual growth could be looked at as the land that needs yet to be possessed.

Growth Never Ends
Every Christian must realize that the potential for spiritual growth is unending. We can always grow closer to God. As evidence of this thought let’s look at the life of Paul. In Philippians 3:12, the Apostle Paul speaks of his unending desire for getting to know the Lord. He first states that he has not attained, which refers to the glorification of the body. Secondly, he refers to apprehending that for which he was apprehended. This statement refers to being conformed to the image of Christ. That is the reason why God saves us. Not only to deliver us from the power of sin, but to also transform us into the image of his Son, the Lord Jesus. Therefore, Christian growth and maturity is to be a “constant” in the life of the believer. So, no matter how far we have come, there remaineth yet much land to be possessed. We must live with this truth ever burning bright before us.

Applying What We Have Come To Know
When one understands the message of the Cross and places his faith in Christ’s finished work, that is when the process begins. It is a glorious day for the believer who sees the truth of Christ’s finished work at Calvary. But the revelation of the Cross is not to be learned one day and laid aside the next. Having the revelation of the Cross (how God truly works in a believer’s life) is just the beginning. After we know how God works, it will take a lifetime of applying what we know to get the job done. In this process, the revelation is experienced again and again, confirming to our hearts God’s true process of growth.

The Process Takes Time
Some believers get discouraged and move away from the right object of faith. They see the areas in their lives that need to change and feel that if they really understood the way that God works, they would experience a speedy and eternal victory. I don’t know why some areas in a believer’s life are corrected faster than others. But I do know that there is only one way by which we can experience complete victory, and that is by remaining true to God’s way, even when we don’t understand God’s timing. If we will stand fast in the liberty wherewith Christ has made us free, we will come to realize complete victory. Just don’t quit believing. Don’t let anything other than the Cross become the object of your faith. Though it tarry, wait for it—it will come!

See Your Inability
The Bible says that Joshua was old and stricken in years. This indicates the lack of vitality and strength. Then, seemingly adding insult to injury, the Lord shows up and tells him that he is old and stricken with years.

What did the Lord mean by saying such? I believe that He wants us to constantly realize that in our own strength we cannot possess the land. However, in the strength that is supplied from our heavenly Joshua we can rest assured. There is yet much land that needs to be possessed. I have no strength or faith in myself. But with my faith in Christ and Him crucified, I will possess the land!

“Every Christian must realize that the potential for spiritual growth is unending. We can always grow closer to God.”

“But I do know that there is only one way by which we can experience complete victory, and that is by remaining true to God’s way, even when we don’t understand God’s timing.”
Training Vs. Academics
Training treats humans as animals. It is sensory-driven and very manipulative. The goal of training is to create an experience for the child that moves him away from free will to collective will. In order to accomplish this, Pavlovian/Skinnerian animal training methods are incorporated. The goal of these training methods is to materially reward correct answers. If a student does not supply the expected response, then he will suffer the punishment of ridicule by the other students, followed by rejection. Students will be less inclined to take controversial stands because they will be trained to know the severe outcome for the wrong answer/behavior.

This concept, however, is not just limited to students, but is also used by corporations and churches. The “cell” group strategy in churches uses this manipulative approach to move doctrinally correct believers to compromise and accept significant experiences and newer doctrinal beliefs as a basis for faith as opposed to scripturally based beliefs.

Corporations openly use training techniques for their management force. If you desire to move up the corporate ladder, then you must understand and support the corporate culture. If you desire a promotion, then you will be expected to demonstrate the “actions” that are demanded of you. If you fail to conform, then you could be demoted, moved to an undesirable location, or terminated.

In the business world they call this Total Quality Management (TQM). It is no different than Outcomes Based Education (OBE) used in the public schools. Academically speaking, you can nearly fail and be almost illiterate, but the system will pass you along if you are not viewed as a dissenter, thus meaning that you are unfit to know and think for yourself and are able to take orders. This translates into an indoctrinated new breed of citizens that will vote for those who support socialist policy, protest against those that are critical of the establishment, and be willing to take from those who are producing. The new consciousness is the collective thinking that suggests you are “entitled” to the excesses.

Academics supply the student with a fundamental comprehension of working skills that breed individuality and enables the student to see his likes and personal capabilities. Academics foster creative thinking that leads to innovation. Personal achievement and individual advancement, however, are the enemies of a socialist society. Opportunity is not a reward for proper behavior; neither is it just going along to get along. Opportunity is not sold for the price of fear and abandonment. Opportunity is the freedom to choose, followed by reward for hard work and individual development; it is freedom to trust God and His abounding supply.

Psychology, The False Science Socialization Rode In On
The roots that spread into the fertile ground of socialist thinking in education came from the seeds of psychology. This man-centered, ungodly mix of philosophy and humanism, in their minds, supplants man’s need for God. The likes of Jean-Jacques Rousseau and Swiss educator Johann Heinrich Pestalozzi believed religion should not be a guiding principle in education.

Rousseau promoted “permissive education” in which a teacher “should avoid strict discipline and tiresome lessons.” Pestalozzi believed the whole child should be educated by “doing.” Under the scientific experiments of Wilhelm Wundt, he posited... that humans were nothing more than a body, brain, and nervous system. The way to educate, according to Wundt, is by inducing sensations in the nervous system. Through these experiences, the student will learn to respond to any given stimulus with the correct response. In this setting, a student's actions are thought to be preconditioned and beyond his control. Thus, according to the student's thinking, he is his reaction.

The breeding grounds called colleges and universities that control our educators, who in turn indoctrinate our children and young adults, primarily have an agenda. Their outcome, very simply put, is socialism with its goal of total control over society. The ingredients used to accomplish their task is a mixture of so-called scientific research coupled with pre-determined results. Sadly, it is nothing more than human experimentation and war on the human mind. Satan's end-time push to pervert the mind is to create a new reality that eliminates individuality, thereby creating a new world order. If he can raise up a "new paradigm" of thinking in the church that appears to be of God but is actually another training mechanism to breed socialism, then the church will gladly follow his pernicious way, thinking all the while that they are serving God.

Satan's greatest weapon is deception, and he only needs disciples of his lie. If Satan's ministers appear to be angels of righteousness, then unsuspecting Christians will be deceived and become his servants. The infestation of church growth movements like G-12 and The Purpose Driven Life have already ripened the church world to psychological principles and techniques, and have moved many from thesis to consensus (compromise) by the crisis (lie) that the church needs to serve society (anti-thesis). Schools and businesses have done their part to move the process further into society. Television and radio news programs supply ample opportunity for so-called experts to debate various points of view on any given subject. The dialectical process is at work everywhere, as it was designed to be by the planners who desire a new world order.
THERE IS SOMETHING about knowing the love of God. I'm not talking about a head knowledge only but an experiential knowledge where there's no doubt that you have experienced the purest kind of love possible. Paul said, "For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord" (Rom. 8:38-39). I love Paul's use of the phrase "I am persuaded."

I Stand Convinced

In the Greek, the phrase “I am persuaded” is pepeismai gar. It is a perfect passive indicative verb. I know that’s all Greek to you, so let me explain the significance of this verb. It is a perfect tense, which means it was a past action which has ongoing results. It wasn't that he was persuaded in the past and no longer believed that nothing could ever separate him from the love of Christ. He believed in the past with the result he stood convinced that nothing could ever separate him from the love of Christ.

God Convinced Him

This verb is also passive. In other words, Paul did not convince himself. He became convinced by God. God did the action. He was merely the recipient of that action. God actively convinced Paul that nothing, no one, neither good nor bad could ever separate him from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus.

Unwavering Confidence

Paul not only had an unwavering confidence in the assurance of God's love, but he also understood the power of God’s love. God’s love is more powerful than: death, life, angels, principalities, powers, things present, things to come, height, depth, or any other creature. God's love is so powerful that Paul stated none of these things could ever cause a separation between him and God's love. He wasn't talking about man's love. He was talking about the agape love of God.

In Christ Jesus

God the Holy Spirit had revealed to Paul that the love of God is found in Christ Jesus our Lord. Christ is the ultimate manifestation of God's love. In Colossians, Paul explained that “…in him dwelleth all the fullness of the Godhead bodily” and that we are “…complete in him, which is the head of all principality and power” (Col. 2:9-10). Jesus is God’s expression of love to mankind. “For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son” (Jn. 3:16). The expanse of God’s love is that it was for all of mankind. The expression of that love was that He gave the world Jesus.

The Cross

The Cross is the ultimate expression of God’s love for you and for me. It is a greater expression of God’s love than the words Jesus spoke. It is a greater expression of God’s love than the miracles that Jesus performed. The Cross is the ultimate expression of God’s love.

Do You Stand Convinced?

Have you experienced God’s love? Have you come to the point that you know with certainty that His love is greater than anything or anyone who would attempt to stand against you. Can you say, “For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord”? (Rom. 8:38-39).

If not, He’s a prayer away.

“Christ is the ultimate manifestation of God’s love.”

“And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions.” —Joel 2:28

GOD IS NOT THROUGH WITH YOU YET

Part V

THIS SCRIPTURE INDICATES that God does not discriminate against women, which is verified in Galatians 3:28 when He said, “There is neither male nor female ... in Christ Jesus.” So, God is trying to tell older women that He is not through with them as seen in the examples of Sarah, Naomi, and Elisabeth.

Sarah was married to Abraham when God told him to leave Ur of the Chaldees and go to an unknown country. This meant that Sarah had to leave comforts of living, her family, friends, and everything she knew to live the rest of her life in a tent wandering, looking for an unknown place. On top of that, she was barren and could not provide an heir to carry on the family name, or fulfill the promise of God that from them He would make a great nation (Genesis 12:2).

Besides that, at two different times Abraham was willing to give her to a leader of a foreign nation to save his own life. If God had not intervened, the promise of God would never have been fulfilled. Since she could not have children, Sarah came up with the scheme of giving her handmaid, Hagar, to have children with Abraham instead of trusting God. Hagar had a child, but it caused a lot of problems because it was not God’s will or way. Twenty-five years after His original promise, when she was 90 and he was 100 years old, God gave Abraham and Sarah the child whose offspring would lead to the birth of Jesus Christ. Certainly God had not been through with Sarah.

Naomi experienced several hardships. She and her husband lived in Israel when a famine came, and they lost everything they had. As a result, they left Israel and moved to Moab, which was an idolatrous nation, and their boys married Moabite women. Before long her husband and two sons all died, and her world was turned upside down. She was devastated, but she was still used of God to influence her daughters-in-law. After 10 years, when the famine was over, she decided to move back to Israel, but she was bitter and believed God had caused her afflictions. She told her daughters-in-law to stay in Moab because she could not guarantee that things would be better for them in Israel away from their families. But, even though she was doubting and discouraged, God was not through with Naomi, and one of them, Ruth, insisted on coming back with her because she wanted to serve Naomi’s God. When they got back to Israel, like the Holy Spirit, she advised Ruth how to receive the blessings from a kinsman redeemer, which was a picture of Jesus Christ. As a result, Boaz, the kinsman redeemer, paid Naomi’s debt, married Ruth, and they became forerunners of King David, and ultimately, Jesus Christ.

Elisabeth was the wife of Zacharias, who was a Levite. She was also barren. Even though God said she and her husband were both righteous and blameless (Lk. 1:6), not being able to have children was considered to be the judgment of God and a reproach. They gave up hope of ever having a child, and quit praying for it (Lk. 1:13) because they were both too old (Lk. 1:7). But God was not through with her, and the angel of the Lord promised Zacharias that they would have a son who would be used of God to unify families, to turn the disobedient to righteousness, and prepare people for the ministry of Jesus Christ (Lk. 1:7). They hoped against hope (Rom. 4:18) by believing the promise of God and received a tremendous miracle from God, who was John the Baptist.

So regardless of age, gender, or circumstances, God was not through with these women, and He used them in great ways to impact multitudes of people, even up to today. If a person is alive, God still has a plan and purpose for his or her life (Jer. 29:11).
In the last few weeks, I have been overjoyed at the preaching that is coming out of Family Worship Center, which is so desperately needed, not only in America, but also all over the world.

It’s preaching that you seldom hear anymore, and as well, it’s preaching that is strictly biblical—that which is so desperately needed. So, what am I saying? I am saying that SonLife Broadcasting Network is, I feel, touching this world for Christ, but only with your help.

Irrespective as to the call of God on my life and on the lives of all the ministers who are here, still, we must have your prayerful support, and we must have your financial support. We have to have it to get the work done. So I thank you so very, very much for praying for us and for supporting us financially. May God ever bless you.

Jimmy Swaggart Bible College
I feel like the Lord is going to help us to put together one of the finest Bible colleges in the world. We have already set out to become a candidate for accreditation. Above all, we don’t have to sacrifice or compromise the great standards of the Word of God. In other words, we keep preaching it just like it is. And, to be factual, I wouldn’t have it any other way. If I had to change my message, that we will not do. And I’ve been assured that we won’t have to change anything.

At any rate, once we are in the position of being a candidate for accreditation, all of the credits will count toward degrees and will allow us to offer financial aid. So that’s why we are pushing it full-bore, in other words, full speed ahead.

Too many Bible colleges that go under that name really aren’t Bible colleges at all. Our theme here at this ministry is Jesus Christ and Him crucified, in other words, the Cross of Christ. That is our purpose, our reason for being, and our reason for this ministry. As stated, and I state it again: If we would have to compromise that in any way, and I mean any way, we will no longer be a part of any type of accreditation process. However, and to repeat myself, we have been assured that we will not... have to compromise anything to proclaim that which must be proclaimed, and to gain accreditation. So we are functioning on that assumption, and, in reality, it is more than an assumption; I’m told it is a fact.

Christmas

Now Brother Swaggart, it’s still a long time until Christmas. Well, it is and it isn’t. In other words, one morning you will turn around, and Christmas will be here. Why am I saying this?

We have, I think, the finest array of books, Bibles, and music on the face of the earth today, and these would make the greatest Christmas gifts in the world. So why not beat the rush and go ahead and order what you need to guarantee getting them in plenty of time, and, above all, to give someone something that will be worthwhile.

You couldn’t give anything in the world any better to anyone than an Expositor’s Study Bible. And to be sure, we have one for just about everybody. One for the aged, such as myself, one for the young people, one for children, one for ladies, etc., etc. So you need to sit down and think about it. Who is it in your family, or even a friend, who doesn’t have an Expositor’s Study Bible? You ought to set about getting them a copy, especially considering that they are nearly half price.

So I’m going to wait for your order, and I’m believing that you’re going to get something that will be a blessing to the people and will glorify the Lord.

One lady told me the other day, “Brother Swaggart, when I order things from other ministers, all too often, when I get it, I find that it’s little more than junk. In other words, the production is awful. When I order things from your ministry, and it’s opened up in my house, it’s something I can be proud of. In other words, we are getting quality.” I appreciate that very, very much.

What The Lord Can Do

I am believing that, in the very near future, we are going to see a moving of the Holy Spirit to such an extent from the programming of SonLife Broadcasting that hundreds and even thousands will be saved as altar calls are given. We’re already seeing some, but it’s going to be greater than ever.

As well, I believe we are going to see multiple thousands baptized with the Holy Spirit, and as well the sick healed with bondages broken. The Spirit of God can do these things as would be obvious. As well, this is something the Lord has laid on my heart.

Everywhere the signal from those television cameras goes out, and I mean anywhere in the world—and we touch almost the entirety of the world—people can be saved, lives changed, and their whole world changed by the power of God.

As I’ve stated, it is already happening to a certain degree, but I believe we are going to see something the world has never seen before, and I might also state the church has never seen before either. So be praying, will you, that the Lord will do great and mighty things in this respect. I believe it’s coming, and I want to be ready.

In the Master’s service, yours,

Jimmy Swaggart

AMAZING GRACE

“YOU’VE BEEN ASKING FOR IT FOR A LONG TIME, AND HERE IT IS…”

Amazing Grace - An Autobiography By Jimmy Swaggart (09-158)
The relationship between God and man hinges on faith—the unseen evidence that eludes countless souls. That’s why, throughout the ages, God has called men to proclaim His gospel message with an anointing, a boldness, and a fire that ignites the measure of faith in every human heart. At the age of eight, God called Jimmy Lee Swaggart for the purpose of world evangelism. In the tiny town of Ferriday, Louisiana, his Spirit-filled grandmother told him, "Jimmy, you will see a harvest of souls such as the world has never seen before.” Indeed, he did see it, and so did we. But before God placed Jimmy Swaggart before the masses, He first raised him up to preach—on the streets of Louisiana, inside rural churches, into a radio mic, and, eventually, in front of a television camera. Today, the iconic evangelist preaches to the largest audience of his 62-year ministry—nearly 2 billion people—and his revelatory message is not only one of salvation, but also sanctification through Jesus Christ and Him crucified. In his own words, and in his own way, Evangelist Jimmy Swaggart now tells his personal story of God’s amazing grace.
