DIFFERENT . . .

This Book is different than any Book you have ever read before regarding the Holy Spirit. And how is it different? We not only deal with the Holy Spirit as it regards the Book of Acts with which all Pentecostals are familiar, but, as well, we deal with the Holy Spirit as it regards the teaching of the Apostle Paul, relative to our Sanctification, in other words how we live for God. Please believe me, this is very, very important.

THE WORKING OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

Most Believers do not understand how the Holy Spirit works within our hearts and lives. They sort of take Him for granted. In other words, whatever He does that’s what He does, and we have nothing to do with it. Nothing could be further from the truth.

If that were so, that the Holy Spirit just automatically does what He wants to do, there would not be another failure in the heart and life of any Christian. In other words, no Christian would ever sin again, because the Holy Spirit would just automatically stop it. But we know that’s not the case, don’t we!?

The Holy Spirit does not require much of us, but He most definitely requires one thing, and that is that our Faith be exclusively in Christ and the Cross. In fact, the Holy Spirit works entirely by and through the Cross of Christ, meaning that it is the Cross of Christ that gives the Holy Spirit the legal right and the legal means to do all that He does.

Such teaching is hardly known by most Believers, not even by most preachers.

So, the reason we say there is material in this Book that you won’t find, we think, anywhere else, that is the Truth.

I would urge every one of you to get a copy of this Book. It is $29.95 plus regular postage, shipping, and handling.

What Should Be The Christian’s Position In Respect To Alcohol?

Part I

By: Jimmy Swaggart

“What should our stand be as a Christian, as it regards alcohol?  Is moderate drinking permissible?  Is alcoholism a disease or a sin?”

Due to the seriousness of this matter, I think it would be proper for us to give it a little more thorough treatment.

ALCOHOL

Back in the 1980’s, the News Media seemed inordinately preoccupied with nuclear energy protestors, as if it was their civic duty to convince the American public that nuclear power was extremely dangerous. In view of this constant media barrage against this particular industry, which incidentally caused the stoppage of all construction of nuclear power plants, we are now experiencing a severe power shortage.

In view of this, I would like to focus on another subject of even more consequence — and I’d like to use the Media’s rhetoric regarding nuclear power plants, as they then claimed such to be:

• What if 40-50 people were killed every day by malfunctioning nuclear power plants?
• What if such malfunction seriously injured 1,500 more every day?
• What if the presence and influence of nuclear plants caused 8-20 people per day to commit suicide?
• What if the secondary effects of nuclear power caused 200 broken homes each day?
• What if it caused 250 people each day to suffer permanent brain damage — besides the injuries already described?
• What if it caused some 3,000 parents to abuse their children, or to assault loved ones each day?
• What if it caused 50 billion dollars a year in direct...
“For every ten automobiles on the road, one is driven by a drunk. It’s no wonder that 40,000 people a year are killed because of alcoholics behind the wheel.”

 damages, and an inestimable amount in indirect damages every year?

Awesome and disturbing statistics? Well, if you will “double” every figure I have just cited, you will have a fragmented picture of the effects of alcohol on American society today. In view of the fact that after decades of use, there hasn’t been a single case of a person in the public sector being injured by nuclear power plants, one would have to question why the Media remains silent on alcohol’s effects, while carrying on a scathing campaign against other things. I can’t answer that, but we can probe the reason behind the Media’s silence on the alcohol question. But first, remember this. Alcohol is responsible for:

- 50 percent of all automobile fatalities.
- 80 percent of all home violence.
- 30 percent of all suicides.
- 60 percent of all child abuse.

WHAT IS THE CAUSE OF ALCOHOLISM?

According to statistics, there are about 20 million alcoholics in this nation, a figure which is equivalent to two out of every five heavy drinkers. Actually, I find it hard to see the difference between the alcoholic and the heavy drinker. Think about it:

For every ten automobiles on the road, one is driven by a drunk. It’s no wonder that 40,000 people a year are killed because of alcoholics behind the wheel. In addition, over one million are injured — some never to function normally again.

Incidentally, it is a scientific fact that if it takes ten beers to make a person drunk, one beer makes them one tenth drunk. That means, according to the amount of alcohol consumed, whether little or much, that a person is not in full control of his faculties. That’s the reason for the accidents. Accidents?

SICKNESS OR SIN?

I picked up an article some time back written by a Minister. Unfortunately, his name wasn’t credited, so I have no way of acknowledging him for his state- ment. What he said was excellent, however, and I want to share it with you. He asked the question, “What is wrong with the drunkard?” And then went on to say this:

“Years ago, while holding a city-wide Meeting in Salinas, California, I was attracted through an article in the daily paper, to a Convention to be held in a Northern California town. Psychiatrists from all over America were coming out to the coast for this Convention.

“The object of the Convention was the thing that attracted me. They announced as their project . . . the discovery of what causes alcoholism, and then to suggest a cure. Here is the sum of the findings of this body.

“They stated that an alcoholic is not a moral degenerate, but a sick man. He

"No, the problem isn’t a sickness, and it’s not in the genes. It’s not heredity, and it’s certainly not God."

can’t help being sick anymore than an asthmatic or arthritic. (Notice the lack of personal responsibility.)

“He should not be picked up in a police car and thrown in jail, but should be picked up in an ambulance and put in a hospital. He shouldn’t be treated as a moral degenerate, but a respected member of society who is sick.

“That was the trend of thought all through the deliberation, and not once during the Convention was whisky mentioned. The closest to it was the word ‘alcoholism.’ They never said if a man simply didn’t drink, he would have no problem. No such ugly insinuations were made.

“The final session was the clincher. Headlines in the San Francisco paper stated: ‘Psychiatrists decide,’ then, in smaller print, ‘alcoholism is caused by an unknown quantity that we shall choose to call “X” . . . until this unknown quantity can be isolated and defined, we have no suggested cure.’"

The Minister went on to state, “I would hate to be an alcoholic depending on psychiatrists to help me!”

I can only say “Amen” to that.

I am not a psychiatrist, but I know what makes men and women alcoholics. I’m certain it is not, as one alcoholic figured it: he railed against God for having done this to him. He shook his fist at his genes, at his heredity, at his father. He felt he had been programmed before birth to be a victim of alcohol.

No, the problem isn’t a sickness, and it’s not in the genes. It’s not heredity, and it’s certainly not God. The problem is “sin” — which results in an even more frightening word — bondage.

TODAY THE BIG EXCUSE FOR ALMOST EVERYTHING IS “SICKNESS”

Today, everyone is sick: the alcoholic, the thief, the child molester, the rapist, and the murderer. As one august Supreme Court Justice said some time ago, “Everybody ought to be turned out of prison, because the prisoners are not really guilty; it’s all of society that’s responsible.” This statement might be humorous if it weren’t so “stupid.”

You see, the Bible says that men are liars, thieves, drunkards, immoral — and all the other things mankind is inevitably prey to — simply because they are sinners. They have turned their backs on God. Man is a product of the Fall. His Salvation lies not in treatment of a sickness, but in treatment of his sin — and Jesus took care of this at Calvary. Until men accept this treatment, they will not be cured. And, in fact, treatment is not really the correct word that should be used, but rather “deliverance.”

Our Lord said concerning this: “The Spirit of the Lord is upon Me, because He has anointed Me . . . to preach Deliverance to the captives” (Lk. 4:18).

When Jesus died on Calvary’s Cross, He addressed every sin, every bondage, every perversion, and every aberration that may attach itself to mankind, and did so by the giving of Himself as a Perfect Sacrifice, which was accepted by God. When the believing sinner places his Faith in Christ and what Christ did for us at the Cross, the Holy Spirit will then help such a person, Who, to be sure, has the Power, and because He is God. In fact, this is the only cure, the Deliverance afforded by Christ.

THE GREAT PROBLEM

But the problem is people want to escape the bondage of alcohol, without accepting Christ. I’m sorry, but there is no other answer to the ills of man.

No, alcoholism is not a disease. So this crutch that is being used by the medical profession, the Psychiatrist, the Psychologist, and many others is merely that — a crutch. It serves to shift blame (and thus, remove the responsibility) from the one who is actually to blame, and that is the individual himself.

WHO PROMOTES ALCOHOL?

Constant attention is drawn to the terrible use of such mind-destroying drugs as heroin, marijuana, and cocaine, etc., and this should be done, but very little is being said about the most sinister drug of all — alcohol — the drug that is destroying our nation. It causes untold pain and suffering, and there is scarcely a word said against it. The newspapers are silent, newsmen seem unaware of the problem, and the pulpits (sad to say) are almost silent. As one realizes the tremendous amount of physical, financial, moral, and spiritual damage wrought by alcohol, one can’t help but ask, “Why?”

Of course, the answer is obvious. Whereas cocaine, heroin, and other drugs are considered to be outside the limits of “decent society,” alcohol has been socially accepted. Why is this so?

• Because it kills a little more slowly than the other type of drugs.
• Because there are vast amounts of money to be made from alcohol and the same people who control the distribution of alcohol control the dissemination of the information that influences people to use alcohol.

TELEVISION AND MOVIES PROMOTE ALCOHOL

It is a sad fact that the image of alcohol is tremendously manipulated on Television. In one recent survey it was found that alcohol related violence was twenty-five times higher in real life than on Television dramas. In other words, the sinister aspects of alcohol are greatly downplayed on TV programming. Again, I ask why? Well, one should keep in mind that the TV Networks receive millions of dollars in revenues from beer and wine accounts.

A short time ago one of our Telecasts was censored because we mentioned the name of a specific brewery on one of the programs. Should this shock us? Not if we consider beer and wine accounts that keep TV Stations operating in the black. No one who loves money will bite the hand that feeds him.

Dr. Thomas Radecki of the National Coalition on Television Violence recently stated, “With the new research in the past two years, it is increasingly clear that TV advertising and program use of alcohol is playing a major role in the increasing abuse of alcohol.”

Radecki noted that the average child will see alcohol consumed 75,000 times on TV before he reaches the legal drinking age! When he must make his personal decision in regard to drinking, what will the subliminal influences tell him? That the “in people,” those who are bright, sophisticated, and successful on Television are almost inevitably seen holding a drink in their hands. In other words, as far as Hollywood and network television people are concerned, if you are bright and smart, you too will have a drink in your hand.

He also observed that on network programming the typical viewer sees 5,000 incidents of alcohol intake per year. Ninety-nine percent of these cases of drinking will be portrayed as favorable or at least neutral!

THE REAL WORLD

Another question must be asked. Is this what life is like in the real world? The facts show us that fifty percent of real-life balance is associated with alcohol consumption! On Television, only one percent of televised violence is associated with drinking. Dr. Radecki believes that TV's benign portrayal of alcohol consumption is one of the major reasons why alcohol abuse and violence are the two most rapidly increasing causes of death in the United States.

A total of seventy-six percent of those shown drinking any kind of beverage on television will be shown drinking alcohol.

TV characters spend twice as much time drinking alcohol as tea or coffee. They consume fourteen times more liquor and beer than soft drinks, and they drink fifteen times more alcohol than water, or at least it is promoted as such, whatever is in the glass. Television viewers will see an average of three incidents of alcohol consumption for each hour they watch during prime time. Those watching daytime TV will see six instances of drinking per hour. (Obviously soap opera characters have a higher percentage of alcoholism than the evening characters have.)

World Evangelism Fellowship was born out of a deep desire of Christians from all denominational backgrounds to reach the world with the Gospel of Jesus Christ. It was realized that when Churches and Ministries band together under the anointing of the Holy Spirit to attack the strongholds of Satan, much can be accomplished.

This is the reason World Evangelism Fellowship was formed – to channel the efforts of Churches and Preachers from all over the United States, Canada, and the world into a unified, proven plan to reach the lost and dying with the Good News of the Gospel.

The call of God to win the lost is clear. World Evangelism Fellowship is answering that call and we would like to extend an invitation to you to join us. This is not a Denomination, and we pray it never will be. It is, however, a fellowship of Ministers and Churches united in their efforts to reach the world for Jesus Christ.

How do I, as an individual, affiliate with World Evangelism Fellowship?

There are several ways to join World Evangelism Fellowship, and the method you choose depends on what God has called you to do.

“They’re in the business of selling the poison they produce; however, it’s the manner in which they promote it that’s despicable.”

Contrary to what one might expect (if TV is supposed to reflect the real world), it isn’t the villains who do the most drinking. The heaviest TV drinkers are well-known stars appearing in regular series where they serve as role models for our children and young people. TV characters seldom refuse a drink — nor do they express disapproval of someone else’s drinking. In situation comedies, excessive drinking is often used as a “good natured” way to get more laughs.

It is now understandable why over three quarters of all high school seniors use liquor regularly — with one-half getting drunk at least once a month. It’s also easy to understand why the White House Drug Abuse Office states that pressure to drink begins as early as the fourth grade. It might be a fine thing if someone led a crusade to get wine and beer commercials taken from the air as cigarette ads were.

THE MAIN PROMOTERS OF BEER AND WINE

It certainly isn’t hard to imagine the producers of a product as the main promoters of that product. They’re in the business of selling the poison they produce; however, it’s the manner in which they promote it that’s despicable. Let’s take a look at this.

We’re told that beer in Australia is vitamin-enriched. Researchers at the University of Queensland report that chronic vitamin deficiencies in alcoholics could be offset if brewers were to add vitamin B-1 to their products. They assert that “A lot of heavy drinkers stand to benefit.” They also said, “The average person in the northern Territory consume 60 gallons of beer yearly!”

This will, of course, be yet another advertising plus for the breweries. They will suddenly be able to trumpet the nutritional benefits of drinking — trying to divert the consumer’s attention from the bondage that comes along with the intake of a little vitamin B.

A California winery has introduced Red Life, a light wine aimed at these soda drinkers who want something “a little stronger.” The main idea of course, is to get young people — even children — interested in drinking at an early age so they will then graduate to something stronger.

You must remember, the breweries help to manufacture customers — and they have to start with the children to do this. I’ll give you another example.

In the Oklahoma City Times, containing the report of a speech William Coors (then Chairman of the Adolph Coors Company) made to a Convention of security analysts meeting in Denver — he described the advertising of his own company as well as other breweries as “outrageous” for its lack of ethics.

ADVERTISEMENT

He referred especially to the fact that his company pays 250 college students throughout the United States to promote its beer through campus “Wet T-Shirt Contests,” “Get Drunk,” and “Chug-a-lug” parties. He said the other breweries did this so his company followed suit as something “strictly defensive.”

Coors said, “We do this — not because we think it is right — but because other brewers do it. They will steal our lunch — if we don’t do it.” He added, “I personally think it’s outrageous, and everyone in the company thinks it’s outrageous. One way or the other, the country is going to stop this because our industry doesn’t have the ethics to stop themselves.”

In legal parlance, testimony against self-interest is the most damaging type possible in a court of law. Coors certainly testified against his own self-interest when he confessed the lack of ethics among the brewery owners and managers. And by the way, his company sold nearly 15 million barrels of beer in the first nine months of last year — 15 percent increase over the same period for the previous year.

At the same time Coors was confessing his sins, he also lashed out at do-gooders who were trying to raise the drinking age from 18 to 21 — questioning the motives of such crusades. He then went on to claim that only five percent of alcohol users are abusers.

However, what he neglected to add is that the other 95 percent of nonabusers are on the way to becoming abusers — in other words, drunks. They will eventually get there if they drink long enough. Simply stated, the 5 percent who are now abusers were not guilty of drunkenness when they started drinking!

Yes, the boys who make the alcohol are their own best promoters, and they do so in the most hypocritical, and perverse manner imaginable.

POLITICIANS

Legislators in the state of Wisconsin some time back argued recently whether milk or beer should be the state drink. Wisconsin is known for both its dairies and breweries (“The Beer That Made Milwaukee Famous”) so the competition was intense. One State Representative declared his choice was alcohol, because, in his words, “Beer tempers the emotions of our hard-working adults.”

This Representative should be reminded that beer murders scores of Wisconsin motorists every year. Alcohol also compels some of those so-called “hard-working “Preachers — no matter what it costs you — stand up before your congregation and make your position known.”

Sadness, it is true, from the American pulpits, there is seldom heard a discouraging word — on the subject of alcohol.

As I write this, I am reminded of a religious periodical that stated (from a teletype news report) that one of the world’s noted Evangelists said there was nothing wrong with an occasional drink. Talking to reporters, this particular Evangelist said he didn’t believe the Bible taught teetotalism. “After all (this Preacher went on to say) Jesus drank wine,” and he pointed to the Biblical account in which Jesus is said to have turned water into wine at a wedding feast. And as the Evangelist put it, “that wasn’t grape juice, as some try to claim.” I wonder if this statement was made to please and excuse the cocktail-drinking friends of the Preacher.

(We will discuss momentarily the water that Jesus turned to wine.)

Not so long ago, one major Missionary Evangelist told me personally that in a great religious conclave (with thousands of Preachers present) he asked all the Preachers (who were Pentecostal incidentally) in the congregation to stand if they did — or would — take a public stand against any and all use of alcohol. He was startled at the number who would not stand!

I had a Preacher tell me just today that our institutions are the way they are because our Churches are the way they are — and our Churches are the way they are because our families are the way they are. I wonder if our families are the way they are because the pulpits are silent.

I want to make a statement: any Preacher of the Gospel who won’t take a public stand against any and all use of alcohol — and be vocal in that stand — is doing his people, his God, and his country a disservice. The position that many Preachers take, that they never mention alcohol because “their people already know it’s wrong,” is a cop out. Many take this position because they don’t want to offend the “sipping Saints” in the congregation.

The Preacher of the Gospel has always been the one to whip the nation into line. The Preacher of the Gospel is supposed to address the moral issues. It may not be popular at times but it is our business. And if we fail to do it — there’s no one else to do it. You could be dead-level sure that the Media aren’t going to do it, and you can also be sure that the politicians aren’t going to do it. (Although, in the last couple of years, a few politicians have stood up and taken a stand on this matter — perhaps a reaction to the dead, dry sermonizing they hear from the pulpits.)

Preachers — no matter what it costs you — stand up before your congregation and make your position known. Warn the young people of the terrible ravages of alcohol. Make no bones about it, pull no punches, and quibble not. And if you don’t have strong feelings about seeing death and carnage all around you as a result of America’s worst drug — there’s something wrong with you!

What Should Be The Christian’s Position In Respect To Alcohol? Part I
This month I am sharing with you an article that I feel every Christian and American should read and pay attention to.

A WARNING FOR AMERICA FROM SOUTH AFRICA

by Alan Stang
November 6, 2008
NewsWithViews.com

I read this warning on my daily radio talk show last week, before the election. It is even more relevant now, because the same thing that was imposed on South Africa – by the United States – is now happening here. So many people have asked for a copy of this message from a South African journalist that I post it here. My comments on her comments are in bold. Of course the parallels cannot be exact, but see whether you recognize any of this.

By Gemma Meyer (Gemma Meyer is the pseudonym of a South African journalist. She and her husband, a former conservative member of parliament, still reside in South Africa.)

People used to say that South Africa was 20 years behind the rest of the Western world. Television, for example, came late to South Africa (but so did pornography and the gay rights movement).

Today, however, South Africa may be the grim model of the future Western world, for events in America reveal trends chillingly similar to those that destroyed our country.

America’s structures are Western. Your Congress, your lobbying groups, your free speech, and the way ordinary Americans either get involved or ignore politics are peculiarly Western, not the way most of the world operates. But the fact that only about a third of Americans deem it important to vote is horrifying in light of how close you are to losing your Western character.

Writing letters to the press, manning stands at county fairs, hosting fund-raising dinners, attending rallies, setting up conferences, writing your Congressman – that is what you know, and what you are comfortable with. Those are the political methods you’ve created for yourselves to keep your country on track and to ensure political accountability.

But woe to you if – or more likely, when – the rules change. White Americans may soon find themselves unable or unwilling to stand up to challenge the new political methods that will be the inevitable result of the ethnic metamorphosis now taking place in America. Unable to cope with the new rules of the game – violence, mob riots, intimidation through accusations of racism, demands for proportionality based on racial numbers, and all the other social and political weapons used by the have-nots to bludgeon treasure and power from the haves – Americans, like others before them, will no doubt cave in. They will compromise away their independence and ultimately their way of life.

That is exactly what happened in South Africa. I know, because I was there and I saw it happen.

South Africa used to be one of the most advanced nations on earth. Then Washington intervened.

Faced with revolution in the streets, strikes, civil unrest and the sheer terror and murder practiced by Nelson Mandela’s African National Congress (ANC), the white government simply capitulated in order to achieve “peace.”

MANDELA

Mandela was in jail for twenty-seven years not because he was an innocent black man but because he was a Communist terrorist who said in court that he was planning to kill people with bombs. He could have been released at any time simply by renouncing terrorism. He refused.

Westerners need peace. They need order and stability. They are builders and planners. But what we got was the peace of the grave for our society.

The Third World is different – different peoples with different pasts and different cultures. Yet Westerners continue to mistake the psychology of the Third World and its peoples. Sierra Leone and Zimbabwe are perfect examples of those mistakes. Sierra Leone is in perpetual civil war, and Zimbabwe – once the thriving, stable Rhodesia – is looting the very people (the white men) who feed the country. Yet Westerners do not admit that the same kind of savagery could come to America when enough immigrants of the right type assert themselves. The fact is, Americans are sitting ducks for Third World exploitation of the Western conscience of compassion.

Those in the West who forced South Africa to surrender to the ANC and its leaders did not consider Africa to be the dangerous, corrupt, and savage place it is now in Zimbabwe and South Africa. Those Western politicians now have a similar problem looming on their own doorstep: the demand for power and treasure from the non-Western peoples inside the realm.

It is already too late for South Africa, but not for America if enough people strengthen their spine and take on the race terrorists, the armies of the “politically correct” and, most dangerous of all, the craven politicians who believe “compassionate conservatism” will buy them a few more votes, a few more days of peace.

White South Africans, you should remember, have been in that part of Africa for the same amount of time whites have inhabited North America; yet ultimately South Africans voted for their own suicide. We are not so very different from you.

South Africans voted for their own suicide. Did you? We lost our country through skillful propaganda, pressure from abroad (not least from the U.S.A.), unrelenting charges of “oppression” and “racism,” and the shrewd assessment by African tyrants that the white man has many Achilles’ heels, the most significant of which are his compassion, his belief in the “equality of man,” and his “love your neighbor” philosophy – none of which are part of the Third World’s history.

See my recent piece – Before the Election: What You Must Do – about the deliberate cultivation of white guilt in the Communist government schools.

The mainline churches played a big role in the demise of Western influence throughout Africa, too; especially in South Africa. Today’s tyrants were yesterday’s mission-school protégés. Many dictators in Africa were men of the cloth. They knew their clerical collars would deflect criticism and obfuscate their real aims, which had nothing whatever to do with the “brotherhood of man.”

THE QUESTION

Other tyrants, like the infamous Idi Amin, were trained and schooled by the whites themselves, at Oxford, Cambridge, and Harvard. After receiving the best from the West, they unleashed a resentful bloodlust against their benefactors.

From what I have seen and read thus far, I fear Americans will capitulate just as we did. Americans are, generally, a soft lot. They don’t want to quarrel or obstruct the claims of those who believe they were wronged. They like peace and quiet, and they want to compromise and be nice.

A television program that aired in South Africa showed a town meeting somewhere in Southern California where people met to complain about falling standards in the schools. Whites who politely spoke at the meeting clearly resented the influx of Mexican immigrants into their community. When a handful of Chicanos at the back of the hall shouted and waved their hands at them, the whites simply shrugged back into their seats rather than tell the noisemakers to shut up. They didn’t want to quarrel.

In America, the courts are still the final arbiters of society’s laws. But what will happen when your future majority refuses to abide by court rulings – as in Zimbabwe. What will happen when the new majority says the judges are racists, and that they refuse to acknowledge “white man’s justice”? What will... happen when the courts are filled with their people, or their sympathizers? In California, Proposition 187 has already been overturned.

What will you do when the future non-white majority decides to change the names of streets and cities? What will you do when they no longer want to use money that carries the portraits of old, dead white “racists” and slave owners? Will you cave in, like you did on flying the Confederate flag? What about the national anthem? Your official language?

Don’t laugh. When the “majority” took over in South Africa, the first targets were our national symbols.

In another generation, America may well face what Africa is now experiencing – invasions of private land by the “have-nots”; the decline in health care quality; roads and buildings in disrepair; the banishment of your history from the education of the young; the revolutionization of your justice system.

In South Africa today, only 9 percent of murderers end up in jail. Court dockets are regularly purchased and simply disappear. Magistrates can be bribed as can the prison authorities, making escapes commonplace. Vehicle and airplane licenses are regularly purchased, and forged school and university certificates are routine.

What would you think of the ritual slaughter of animals in your neighbor’s backyard? How do you clean up the blood and entrails that litter your suburban streets? How do you feel about the practice of witchcraft, in which the parts of young girls and boys are needed for “medicinal” purposes? How do you react to the burning of witches?

Don’t laugh. All that is quite common in South Africa today.

RACISM?

Don’t imagine that government officials caught with their fingers in the till will be punished. Excuses – like the need to overcome generations of white racism – will be found to exonerate the guilty.

In fact, known criminals will be voted into office because of a racial solidarity among the majority that doesn’t exist among the whites. When Ian Smith of the old Rhodesia tried to stand up to the world, white South African politicians were among the Westerners pressuring him to surrender.

When Robert Mugabe of Zimbabwe murders his political opponents, ignores unfavorable court decisions, terrorizes the population and siphons off millions from the state treasury for himself and his friends, South Africa’s new President Thabo Mbeki holds his hand and declares his support. That just happened a few weeks ago.

Your tax dollars will go to those who don’t earn and don’t pay. In South Africa, organizations that used to have access to state funds such as old age homes, the arts, and veterans’ services, are simply abandoned.

What will happen is Western structures in America will be either destroyed from without, or transformed from within, used to suit the goals of the new rulers. And they will reign either through terror, as in Zimbabwe today, or exert other corrupt pressures to obtain, or buy votes. Once power is in the hands of aliens, don’t expect loyalty or devotion to principle from those whose jobs are at stake. One of the most surprising and tragic components of the disaster in South Africa is how many previously anti-ANC whites simply moved to the other side.

Once you lose social, cultural, and political dominance, there is no getting it back again.

Please note. Once it’s gone, it’s gone. Whatever you do later, however hard you fight, you cannot get it back.

Unfortunately, your habits and values work against you. You cannot fight terror and street mobs with letters to your Congressmen. You cannot fight accusations of racism with prayer meetings. You cannot appeal to the goodness of your fellowman when the fellowman despises you for your weaknesses and hacks off the arms and legs of his political opponents.

To survive, Americans must never lose the power they now enjoy to people from alien cultures. Above all, don’t put yourselves to the test of fighting only when your backs are against the wall. You will probably fail.

Millions around the world want your good life. But make no mistake: They care not for the high-minded ideals of Thomas Jefferson and George Washington, and your Constitution. What they want are your possessions, your power, and your status.

And they already know that their allies among you, the “human rights activists,” the skillful lawyers and the left-wing politicians will fight for them, and not for you. They will exploit your compassion and your Christian charity, and your goodwill.

They have studied you, Mr. and Mrs. America, and they know your weaknesses well. They know what to do.

Do you?

I Thessalonians 4:13-17 – “But I would not have you to be ignorant, Brethren, concerning them which are asleep (refers to Believers who have died), that you sorrow not, even as others which have no hope. (This concerns those who do not know the Lord who will have no part in the First Resurrection of Life and, therefore, no hope for Heaven.)

“For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again (the very Foundation of Christianity is the Death and Resurrection of Christ; it is the proof of life after death in a glorified state for all Saints in that life, which incidentally will never end), even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with Him. (This refers to the rapture of the church, or the resurrection of all Believers, with both phrases meaning the same thing, even as Paul describes in I Cor., Chpt. 15. At death, the soul and the spirit of the Child of God instantly go to be with Jesus [Phil. 1:23], while the physical body goes back to dust. At the Rapture, God will replace what was the physical body with a Glorified Body, united with the soul and the spirit. In fact, the soul and the spirit of each individual will accompany the Lord down close to this Earth to be united with a Glorified Body, which will then make the Believer whole.)

“For this we say unto you by the Word of the Lord (presents the Doctrine of the Rapture of the Church as the ‘Word of the Lord’), that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord (all Believers who are alive at the Rapture) shall not prevent them which are asleep. (This refers to the fact that the living Saints will not precede or go before the dead Saints.)

“For the Lord Himself shall descend from Heaven with a shout (refers to ‘the same Jesus’ which the Angels proclaimed in Acts 1:11), with the voice of the Archangel (refers to Michael, the only one referred to as such [Jude, Vs. 9]), and with the Trump of God (doesn’t exactly say God will personally blow this Trumpet, but that it definitely does belong to Him, whoever does signal the blast): and the dead in Christ shall rise first (the criteria for being ready for the Rapture is to be ‘in Christ,’ which means that all who are truly Born-Again will definitely go in the Rapture):

“Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up (Raptured) together with them (the Resurrected dead) in the clouds (clouds of Saints, not clouds as we normally think of such), to meet the Lord in the air (the Greek word for ‘air’ is ‘aer,’ and refers to the lower atmosphere, or from about 6,000 feet down; so, the Lord will come at least within 6,000 feet of the Earth, perhaps even lower, with all the Saints meeting Him there; but He, at that time, will not come all the way to the Earth, that awaiting the Second Coming, which will be seven or more years later): and so shall we ever be with the Lord. (This presents the greatest meeting humanity will have ever known.)”

Due to space restraints I will not be able to go into great detail concerning this all important subject, therefore, I want to include a very special offer that will give you more information. The offer is the book entitled, “BROTHER SWAGGART, HERE IS MY QUESTION ABOUT BIBLE PROPHECY” and two Study Guides, “GOD’S PLAN
The primary purpose of this article is to deal with the two words “caught up” in Verse 17. But first I feel it’s important for you, the reader, to know that many theologians believe I Thessalonians was the first Book that the Apostle Paul wrote. If that is true then the Holy Spirit inspired Paul to include this great Doctrine in the first Book written in the New Covenant.

“CAUGHT UP”

Though the word Rapture is not used in the Text, it does come from the words “caught up.” The Latin word is “Raptus,” from which in English we devise the words “rapt” and “rapture,” meaning “to be lifted up and carried away.” Also it means “ecstasy or joy.”

In the Greek Text the words “caught up” is “Harpazio” and has four distinct meanings. These are:

“TO CARRY OFF BY FORCE”

This tells us that Satan and his demon spirits who rule the world’s system will not be able to stop the departure of the Saints of God, with the Lord using force, if necessary, against Satan’s powers. Paul, in Ephesians 6:12, wrote, “For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.” THE EXPOSITOR’S STUDY BIBLE notes state: “For we wrestle not against flesh and blood (our foes are not human; however, Satan constantly uses human beings to carry out his dirty work), but against principalities (rulers or beings of the highest rank and order in Satan’s kingdom), against powers (the rank immediately below the ‘Principalities’), against the rulers of the darkness of this world (those who carry out the instructions of the ‘Powers’), against spiritual wickedness in high places. (This refers to demon spirits.)”

SONLIFE BROADCASTING NETWORK

Dear Brother Swaggart,

We are sure enjoying SonLife Broadcasting Network. It has been a wonderful addition to our home. One of the best parts of my day is seeing our one year old twins dance and clap when the music comes on. It is a true joy to witness. God bless you all, and this wonderful Ministry. I praise the Lord for the Work He is doing through you, and I feel honored to be sharing your views and teaching the same Message from the pulpit each and every week.

I CAN’T SEEM TO TURN THE TV OFF OF SBN

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I just want to say how much I appreciate and thank the Lord for your Ministry and all involved in the daily operation of the Ministry. I purchased both the e-Bible and a Crossfire Bible for my stepdaughter, and just today received the ESB Large Print Edition for myself. I also want to tell you that because of the stir your Ministry started in my Spiritual soul to find a church home, my stepdaughter and husband have come to know the Lord. I just praise the Lord for the reawakening of the Holy Spirit in me and for my family as well. I can’t seem to turn the TV off of SBN, there’s always either a word in a sermon that grabs my ear, or a song I just have to listen to. Unless the SonLife Broadcasting Network is down, at least one of the TV’s in my house is tuned into SBN. Also, everyone knows that when “Frances and Friends” is on, either sit or be quiet!

May the Lord bless the Ministry, your family, and all involved in keeping this Message moving into the hearts and souls of all the people it can possibly reach.

MY CHILDREN WATCHED THEIR DAD DANCE IN THE SPIRIT ALL OVER OUR LIVING ROOM FLOOR

Dear Brother Swaggart,

My husband and I moved from North Carolina back home to Tennessee three years ago. Since being there, we have tried numerous churches, Pentecostal and nondenominational. We had become so discouraged! We couldn’t find a church that has anointed preaching. We couldn’t find a church that had anointed music. We couldn’t find a church where the Holy Spirit had freedom to Move. We couldn’t find a church that had discernment. What we did find was dry, dead churches. We found churches serving refreshments, having dinners, having game nights. The children’s ministries and youth groups were playing video games instead of teaching the Word! We had all but given up on finding what we were looking for. We felt guilty about not having our kids in church, yet, we didn’t want them to think that these dead churches we had visited were all that there was. One day when flipping through the channels on our DirecTV®, we found Brother Swaggart’s Church and it’s on almost all of the time at our house now. We are sitting in our living room and having Church and knowing that what we are seeing and hearing is real, because our spirit is watch you last year on SBN, I couldn’t quite understand the meaning of “Go to the Cross of Christ.” It was very hard for me to come to grips that I was still under bondage to physical acts when I knew that I was Saved and filled with the Holy Ghost. But, as I continued to watch the program and pray, the “Truth” began to appear. I am not the same I was six months ago, nor will I ever be the same again. You are the first thing we hear in the morning, and the last thing we hear at night. I am ruined to other pastors as I compare their word of truth to the real Truth that Brother SWaggart ministers on. My wife and I are both licensed ministers, and we would be proud to carry the “Cross of Christ” to other people. God bless you all.

“GO TO THE CROSS OF CHRIST”

Dear Brother Swaggart,

How can I begin? I’ve been Saved and filled with the Holy Spirit for a little over 20 years. I’ve often struggled with doing the right thing because of only relying on myself, doing what I know is right and what was expected of me to obtain Sanctification. When I first began to

“TO ME HE’S BECOME EVERYTHING”

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I just wanted to say how much I could feel the anointing and Moving of the Holy Spirit yesterday as I was listening over and over again to the song, “To Me He’s Become Everything”. I don’t care if you played it 100 times or 1,000 times, it didn’t matter, because each time it made my heart glad. Yesterday I didn’t get anything done around the house, but I didn’t care. What I did get done was important to my soul. I sang, I danced, I praised the Lord, and I called up and gave to the Ministry. I am so excited and hope I can explain this so you can understand my heart. This didn’t just start yesterday with me. God has been putting you and your songs in my heart many months ago, at that time not even knowing about SonLife Broadcasting Network. For a long time I had been so discouraged with going to church and hearing music that could never speak to my heart. My soul knew what I needed to hear, but it wasn’t finding it until now. The music that you play is anointed and it is a fresh drink of water for my soul. After hearing just one of your songs I can now say I just had Church!

YOU ARE THE ONLY ANOINTED PROGRAM ON CHRISTIAN TELEVISION

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I am so thrilled to see you both Brother and Sister Swaggart preaching and teaching God’s Word. I found you on SBN two weeks ago. In my humble opinion, you are the only anointed program on Christian television, I am saddened to say. But the difference is obvious. I have grown very disillusioned with Christian programming over the years, so it was very refreshing to see SBN. God bless you.

I FOUND MYSELF THANKFUL IT WAS PAYDAY FOR ME, AND I COULD GIVE TO YOUR MINISTRY

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I began listening to SonLife radio when I was driving to a new job for training. It was the only Christian radio station I could get on the highway. I have to be honest and say as I listened, I resisted your message. I had been saved for over 10 years, had been an elder in my church, and to be honest I thought I had all the answers. I continued to listen to your teachings, and began to earnestly pray for God to show me the truth. As I read my Bible I began to see more and more the truth of the Message of the Cross. It took some time for God to break through my mind and heart with the truth. But, praise God, He finally did. Since I really began to understand the truth, I have been delivered from cigarettes, and find myself far more passionate for the Lord than I ever thought I could be. It was interesting this morning that I found myself thankful it was payday for me, and I could give to your Ministry. I really am so thankful for you all and your Ministry.

RAISING THE FUNDS MONTHLY TO KEEP THE MESSAGE OF THE CROSS GOING OUT TO MILLIONS AROUND THIS WORLD

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I just wanted to thank you all at JSM for your dedication to the Work of the Lord Jesus Christ! As I watch you Brother Jimmy, Sister Frances, Brother Donnie, and all the rest of the JSM staff that work so hard at raising the funds monthly to keep the Message of the Cross going out to millions around this world, I feel very blessed to be a part of this Work. I just want to encourage you all to keep going, for your work is not in vain. My walk with the Lord has become much stronger, and the truth is filling my Spirit and changing my life.

Thank you all so very much!

I DON’T WANT TO GO TO BED BECAUSE I WANT TO KEEP WATCHING!

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I love Family Worship Center, and love to watch it on TV since I can’t be there in person. I have been hurting over a divorce for three years. Last night Brother Swaggart you gave an Altar call, and I got down on my knees and prayed and prayed to take away the hurt and pain I have been experiencing. And it was like immediately, the burden was lifted. I have been watching all night tonight, and I don’t want to go to bed because I want to keep watching!

I AM GOING TO FOLLOW THE LORD AS JSM FOLLOWS CHRIST AND HIM CRUCIFIED

Sister Swaggart,

I want to thank you for SonLife Broadcasting Network, A Study In The Word, and you for exposing false doctrine. I’ve been receiving a college level learning experience on how the Holy Spirit works in oneself. I know I would have committed suicide in 2006 had it not been for my brother getting the Revelation of the Cross. I was saved a few years earlier, but the powers of darkness flooded my soul that I know now must have happened to Paul too.

This Ministry lifts me. This Church is my Church, and I am going to follow the Lord as JSM follows Christ and Him Crucified. I love everyone there with a love so deep, deeper than some of my relatives who do not want this Message and they’ve cast me away. But, God told me, “I Am your Father now.” Hallelujah!

on now, is the understanding of the Work of Christ at Calvary. The Gospel in its simplicity demands that we know and hold to Christ and Him Crucified. That is, Who Jesus is and what Jesus did!

WRESTLING WITH THE MESSAGE OF THE CROSS

The Message of the Cross, plainly stated, involves the understanding of what Jesus accomplished at Calvary and the benefits that come from purified Faith in that event. Even as the acceptance of the Person of Christ for Salvation is a struggle for the lost soul, the understanding and application of the Message of the Cross is almost always a struggle of equal magnitude for the Believer. Salvation comes when we trust in Christ alone. Deliverance, liberty, and inheritance benefits come when we understand and embrace the Cross as the means to life. Why is it so hard for the church to acquiesce to the truth of the Cross? Why don’t we readily hear and receive the truths of this Message? Why is it sometimes difficult to apply the Cross to my daily life? In Peter’s life we see three areas of opposition that surface. These three areas that he wrestled with are still opposing Believers today. And might I also add, growth is an ongoing process of daily facing the opposition and pushing through to the concepts and benefits of the Cross Life.

PERSONAL AGENDA

The emphasis of the fallen human heart is I. As a result of the Fall, man’s depraved nature became focused upon sin and self. These two concepts dominate the heart of fallen men. When we come to Christ a part or portion of dependence upon self is surrendered. But, there remains a portion of self and self-interests that push for dominance in our lives. Peter had been a fisherman with a decent, perhaps even very profitable business. He had left all to follow Christ. He assumed that he would be

A QUICK REVIEW OF “PART I”

Time and space does not allow that I cover again all that was stated last month, but the key points were the following: all Believers must encounter and embrace two major Spiritual Truths in order to experience the Abundant Life that Jesus promised. The first required Revelation was the Revelation of the Person of Christ (we discussed the meanings of Revelation and illumination last month). The second Revelation, that we will focus on now, is the understanding of the Work of Christ at Calvary. The Gospel in its simplicity demands that we know and hold to Christ and Him Crucified. That is, Who Jesus is and what Jesus did!

Matthew 16:21-23 – “From that time forth began Jesus to show unto His Disciples, how that He must go unto Jerusalem, and suffer many things of the Elders and Chief Priests and Scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day (His sufferings, and the glories that should follow are always associated in Scripture [I Pet. 1:11; 4:13]; the Cross was ever His destination, the very reason He came; the Resurrection was never in doubt).

Then Peter took Him, and began to rebuke Him (Peter chides Jesus for speaking of suffering and death; regretfully, many preachers continue to do the same, as they reject the Cross), saying, Be it far from You, Lord: this shall not be unto You (at that time Peter, nor any of the Disciples, understood the Cross as it regarded its necessity).

But He turned, and said unto Peter (respects strong action; would be the sternest of rebukes), Get thee behind Me, Satan (Jesus used nearly the same words in rebuking Peter, and the other Disciples that He had used to the Devil, and His temptation [4:10]; all denial of the Cross in any form, is of Satan): you are an offence unto Me (speaks directly to Peter, because he is now being used by Satan): for you savor not the things that be of God, but those that be of men (if it’s not the Cross, then it’s of men, which means it is of Satan).”
rewarded for that by Christ. He thought that as Christ’s position rose, so would his. He asked about his reward for leaving his house (Mk. 10:28). He fought with the others as to who would be the greatest (Lk. 9:46). Personal agenda wasn’t looking for a Cross it was looking for aggrandizement. When Jesus said He was going to die, Peter saw all his personal interests falling to the ground. He would look like a fool! Everyone would think that Peter had been an idiot for leaving a thriving business and hooking up with an itinerant preacher from Galilee. Peter saw the Cross of Christ as a negative. It didn’t fit in with his plans. He wasn’t savoring things that mattered to God, he was holding to things that mattered to him. The Cross demands an end to personal agenda. We are to become a servant, even as Christ became a Servant, obedient even to the death on the Cross. Jesus leads the True Disciple to death and denial of self. The heart of man struggles against this, not seeing the benefit.

PREVIOUS TEACHING

Every Believer, shortly after being Saved, develops an approach to living for God. True Believers desire to please God, to be pleasing to Him, to obey Him and learn of Him. Therefore, whether the approach to Relationship with God is developed by oneself or as a result of following others, a system of approach is soon embraced by the new Believer. That Believer has faith in his approach to Relationship with God and evidences it by practicing the same approach over and over, day after day! But, what if the approach is wrong? What if our walk before the Lord is not pleasing to Him? What if we have embraced laws, rules, regimens, routines, in essence, religion instead of relationship? What if, out of a heart of true love and devotion, we have embraced a wrong approach to the Lord? The Bible says there is a way that seems right unto a man but the end thereof is death. If we refuse to reject a method, a belief, an approach to God, simply because it’s what we have always done and we are familiar with it, and it is the wrong way to live for God, we are in a way of death. Peter expected the Messiah to rule and reign immediately. Sin wasn’t even a major concern of the Jews of that day. They wrongly assumed they were right with God because they were Jews. They believed that the Messiah would elevate Israel to her proper place of prominence when He came. All this talk of dying and being killed didn’t match up with Peter’s understanding of the Messiah. He should have read Isaiah, Chapter 53, a little more closely. But the standard teaching of that day formed his thinking and the Cross had no place in his mind.

POWERS OF DARKNESS

Satanic powers are pushing for both personal agenda and previous teaching to cloud the mind and heart of the Believer. Paul said in I Timothy 4:1, “Now the Spirit speaks expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the Faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils.” Therefore, a person will find all kinds of “religious reasonings” to hold to personal agendas and previous teaching. In a nutshell, we must conclude that unless we come to the end of ourselves, where all hope of the flesh has been surrendered and the Cross embraced, we are not losing our lives, we are protecting them. If a man loses his life he will find it. If not, he will lose even that which he has. The Way of the Cross is God’s Way. The Way of Faith and Grace is God’s Way. As Believer’s we are to daily embrace the death of personal agenda, surrender the error of false teaching, and recognize that our enemies are not flesh and blood but powers, principalities, and wickedness in high places. As we die daily to self we exchange our lives for His. Oh, that Christ would live through me!

I Chronicles 18:6 – “Then David put garrisons in Damascus; and the Syrians became David’s servants, and brought gifts. Thus the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went (it is the Will of God, and even the insistence of the Lord, that we subdue not just some of our spiritual enemies, but all; we must rule the sin nature, and not the sin nature ruling us [Rom. 6:3-14]).”

David is one of the greatest Bible characters found in the Word of God, and is one of my personal favorite persons to read about. In this particular Chapter, you will find David, the king of Israel, bringing Israel into a place where there are no enemies around them, for he had subdued them all. Likewise, we also find in this Chapter exactly how the Child of God should live, with all enemies subdued, living in a state of complete Victory over the world, the flesh, and the Devil. We need to understand that this is not just a Bible story, but it can be the story of every person who names the Name of Jesus Christ, Victorious!

SUBDUING THE “INWARD FOES” IN OUR LIVES

Before we get into how this story can be applied to our lives, I would like to deal with a very important point that is the case of so much failure in the life of a Believer, the death of Saul at the hands of the Philistines. The last picture we see of Saul, the people’s king, is a man lying on the battlefield, dead from a self-inflicted wound by his own sword, in other words, he committed suicide. The Philistines were known as an “outward foe,” meaning that they were an enemy outside of the territory that God had promised Abraham, many years before, and this enemy had to be defeated. But, since Saul could not defeat the “inward foe,” which was the Jebusites, this “outward foe” defeated Saul. Before we can have Victory over the external foes in our lives, the internal foes must be defeated.

How many Christians or how many young people still have Philistines in their lives? How many young people, who love God with all of their hearts, still live with Philistines dominating their lives? The Christian, no matter how long they have been living for the Lord, will find, and without exception, that the greatest foes in their lives are these “inward foes,” such as lying, gossip, pornography, lust, etc. Satan knows that if he can keep his strongholds within our lives, that this will greatly hinder our walk with the Lord. Each one of these “inward foes” must be defeated, no matter what they are, and without question. If they are not brought under subjection, then we will continue to live a life of spiritual failure. There is only one way to Victory, it is through our Faith in Christ and Him Crucified. There is no other way that the enemies of our lives can be brought down and subdued, it is only through the Cross of Christ, and our Faith in His Finished Work.

By our Faith ever being anchored in the Cross of Christ, this allows the Holy Spirit to begin to do a Work within our lives that will bring about the Victory needed.

THE ONLY SOLUTION KNOWN TO MAN: THE CROSS

The moment that David became king of Israel, the first thing that he did was to subdue the Jebusites (I Chron. 11:4), which would lead to the defeat of the Philistines (I Chron. 11:14, 18), and the Syrians (I Chron. 18:6). Once again, let me state that if we do not defeat the enemies within our lives, these strongholds of Satan, those without fail will ultimately overcome us. That is why we preach the Cross as strongly as we do, for the Cross of Christ is the only Way to have complete and total Victory over these strongholds of the enemy. Paul would write and say, “For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strongholds” (II Cor. 10:4). The strongholds that Satan has erected in the very center of our lives can be pulled down, but we cannot do it, in and of ourselves. Now, Satan is very clever at presenting another way of victory besides the Cross of Christ, and he will use much of the church world to present that way and to carry out his work. But, the truth remains that there are not several ways to obtain the Victory needed; not a way for Pentecostals, a way for Baptists, and a way for Catholics, they are all different. No! There is only One Way to experience this Victory that we are discussing now, and that is through the shed Blood of Jesus Christ! Without the shed Blood of Christ, there is no Victory. Man is burdened down with sin, and most Christians have strongholds of Satan in their lives, with no victory in sight. The only Solution to man’s problem, which is sin, is the Cross of Christ! This goes for the young and the old alike, the same Cross that Saved the old, is the same Cross that saves the young.

WILL THE CROSS WORK FOR TEENAGERS?

Simply put, yes! There is not a separate way for young people different from that which is given in the Bible! Jesus Christ did not present another way for the youth of Israel that was different from the adults, it was all the same, "Come unto Me, all you who labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you, and learn of Me; for I am meek and lowly in heart, and you shall find rest unto your souls. For My yoke is easy, and My burden is light" (Mat. 11:28-30). This "yoke" that Christ is speaking of is the "yoke" of the Cross. Once a Believer places their Faith in the Cross of Christ and that Alone, the Holy Spirit has the ability to Work in our lives, and to do for us what we cannot do for ourselves. But, notice this, there is one word that the modern church world needs to look at very carefully, "ALL." This means that the Cross of Christ is exactly what our Young People need, and the Cross of Christ will work for our teenagers and young adults.

THE LORD GAVE VICTORY TO DAVID

After David defeated the "inward foes" of Israel, he turned to the "outward foes" of Israel, of whom the Syrians were. Now that the Ark of God was seated and enthroned in the very center of Israel, David now enjoys complete Victory over all enemies, both at home and foreign. Once Christ is seated and enthroned in the very center of our lives, which speaks of our Faith being placed in the Finished Work of Christ, we can enjoy Victory over all the enemies of our lives, inward and outward. It is not the Will of God that we enjoy Victory over a few of our enemies, but it is the Will of God that we have Victory over all of our enemies. As He gave David the Victory over these enemies, He has already given us the Victory over all of our enemies, and it was done through the Cross of Christ.

In Him,

The Bible was written over a 1500 year span of time; written over 40 generations by more than 40 authors, from every walk of life – including Kings, peasants, philosophers, fisherman, poets, statesman, scholars, etc.

The Bible was written in different places. Moses was in the wilderness; Jeremiah in a dungeon; Daniel in a Palace; Paul inside prison walls; Luke while traveling; John on the Isle of Patmos.

The Bible was written at different times; David in times of war; Solomon in times of peace.

The Bible was written during different moods; some writing from heights of joy and others from the depths of sorrow and despair. The Bible’s subject matter includes hundreds of controversial topics. The Bible authors spoke with harmony and continuity from Genesis to Revelation. There is one unfolding story in the Bible: “God’s Redemption Plan for man.”

THE WORD OF THE LORD

There are nearly 4,000 declarations in the Old Testament by the Prophets introducing their statements, “Thus says the LORD,” “The Word of the LORD that came unto me,” or something similar. Two passages that would be an example of this are:

“And the LORD said unto Moses, Write you these Words: for after the tenor of these Words I have made a Covenant with you and with Israel” (Ex. 34:27).

“And it came to pass in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, that this Word came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, [2] Take you a roll of a book, and write therein all the Words that I have spoken unto you against Israel, and against Judah, and against all the nations, from the day I spoke unto you, from the days of Josiah, even into this day” (Jer. 36:1-2).

Each writer explained what God had revealed to him, expressing it in the same terms in which he received it from God. However, God did not dictate to the Prophets as though they were secretaries. God revealed His Truth to them and showed them how they should present it. In so doing, they expressed his Word in terms of their own outlook, interests, literary habits, and peculiarities of style. B.B. Warfield said it this way:

“The church has held from the beginning that the Bible is the Word of God in such a sense that its Words, though written by men and bearing indelibly impressed upon them the marks of their human origin, were written nevertheless, under such an influence of the Holy Spirit as to be also the Words of God, the adequate expression of His Mind and Will. It has always recognized that this conception of co-authorship implies that the Spirit’s superintendence extends to the choice of words by the human authors (verbal inspiration, but not mechanical dictation!) and preserves its product from everything inconsistent with Divine authorship – thus securing, among other things, that entire truthfulness which is everywhere presupposed in and asserted for Scripture by the Biblical writers (Inerrancy).”

PLENARY INSPIRATION

The Doctrine of Plenary Inspiration holds that the original documents of the Bible were written by men, though permitted to exercise their own personalities and literary talents, yet wrote under the Control and Guidance of the Holy Spirit, the result being in every Word of the original documents a perfect and errorless Recording of the exact Message which God desired to give man.

To better explain plenary, which means “full, complete extending to all parts,” we’ll look at II Timothy 3:16:

“All Scripture is given by Inspiration of God, and is profitable for Doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in Righteousness.”

And the Apostle Paul says in I Thessalonians 2:13:

“For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because, when you received the Word of God which you heard of us, you received it not as the word of men, but as it is in Truth, the Word of God, which effectually works also in you who believe.”

Another Scripture that describes Inspiration is I Corinthians 2:13:

“Which things also we speak, not in the words which man’s wisdom teaches, but which the Holy Spirit teaches; comparing Spiritual things with Spiritual.”

II Samuel 1:20 – “Tell it not in Gath, publish it not in the streets of Askelon; lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice, lest the daughters of the uncircumcised triumph.”

In my last article we examined the conflict between King Saul and David the anointed and future king of Israel. In this month’s article we will continue to look into the many events and trials that God would use to develop within the heart of David the leadership and character that would be necessary to lead the Nation of Israel.

As we discussed in Part One of this article, King Saul had grown increasingly paranoid and resentful of the favor that rested upon David because of the anointing the Lord had given to David. Because of the failure of King Saul to fully obey the Lord the kingdom had been taken from him. Though it would be several years before Saul would be slain upon the mountains of Gilboa in a fateful battle against the Philistine armies, in truth the anointing upon King Saul for leadership had been lifted and already rested upon David. David would become king, yet the path to the throne would not come easy. Saul would drive David from the kingdom and pursue him with a relentless hatred in an attempt to take his life and so eliminate the threat to his own legacy.

One such attempt would occur in the wilderness of En-gedi in a cave. David now found himself in an extraordinary position, the very person who was seeking to take his life was now asleep and given into his hand. Yet, as we shall see, David was being tested by the Spirit of God.

THE CAVE OF EN-GEDI

In I Samuel 24:1-3 we are told that “. . . it came to pass, when Saul was returned from following the Philistines, that it was told him, saying, Behold, David is in the wilderness of En-gedi. Then Saul took three thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and went to seek David and his men . . . And he came to the sheepcotes by the way, where was a cave; and Saul went in to cover his feet: and David and his men remained in the sides of the cave.”

Saul was driven to seek David’s life. After returning from battle against the Philistines it was revealed to Saul that David was hiding and he set off to pursue him. As we discussed in last month’s article King Saul represents the systems of men (i.e. the Flesh), whereas David represents the Move of the Spirit, therefore, we can learn much if we view the struggle between Saul and David in this light.

Saul was the consummate politician, note how in I Samuel 24:2 that Saul, “. . . took three thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and went to seek David. . . .”

Saul knew that David was loved by the people so in a political move, he chose three thousand men out of ALL Israel attempting to secure the favor of every tribe in Israel. So it is with the way of the flesh, the flesh will manipulate and do all that it can to secure favor and maintain its position of control especially in the area of religion.

The Scripture tells us that after an exhaustive pursuit of David through the wilderness of En-gedi that Saul came to rest in the very cave where David and his men were hiding.

David now found himself in an extraordinary position, the very person who was seeking to take his life was now asleep and given into his hand. Yet, as we shall see, David was being tested by the Spirit of God.
LESSONS IN THE CAVE

One of the first things that we can learn from this encounter between Saul and David is that not every opportunity that presents itself to take control of our own destiny is a license from God to do so. It was indeed the Lord that brought Saul to the cave where David was hiding, but this was not the time for David to take the throne. No, this was a test of David’s heart and leadership skills.

Imagine how David must have felt. He had served Saul with all his heart; he had fought many battles for the King; he had ministered to Saul many times in the playing of his harp, which would bring relief to the King from the evil spirit that had come to rest in his mind. David had been completely loyal to Saul. Yet, instead of being rewarded for his good deeds, he was hated and forced to flee for his life, all because of the king’s jealousy of the anointing of the Lord that rested upon him. He was forced to live a life constantly on the run. He was a man without a home, a man lied about, a man despised. Now, here was his sworn enemy given into his hand. Surely this was his time . . . or was it?

Here is the test of the believer. David now had Saul in his power. Could we blame him at this point if he stretched forth his hand and eliminated his enemy? It appears that while God was testing David, Satan also would seek to use this circumstance to tempt David into taking his destiny into his own hands. We see Satan at work in the way that David’s men reacted to Saul’s presence in the cave. I Samuel 24:4 says that “. . . the men of David said unto him, Behold THE DAY of which the Lord said unto thee, Behold, I will deliver thine enemy into thine hand, that thou mayest do to him as it shall seem good to thee. . . .”

It all seemed so logical. Here was his enemy; here was his chance to end the madness. Here was his chance to eliminate Saul and become King of Israel; to take the promise given him the day he was anointed by Samuel in his father, Jesse’s, house in Bethlehem.

BEFORE HE COMES

There is much more to see as we continue examining God’s Ways versus man’s ways in the life of David (which we shall do in Part Three of The Song Of The Bow). In these last hours it is imperative that we humble ourselves allowing God to lead us and mold us at every turn. We must allow Him to bring us forth into His Promises rather than to reap destruction as Saul did through stubbornness and pride. The Church of the Living God must rise and shine as never before in this dark hour just prior to Jesus’ return for His Bride.

Please continue to stand with this Ministry through your prayers and monthly giving as we attempt to do our part to shine the Light of Jesus Christ into a dark and hurting world.

Truly the fields are white unto harvest but the laborers are few.

Keep Looking Up,

Marty Martinez

HAPPY 59TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Yes, Frances and I, on October the 10th, will have been married 59 years. To be sure, and without question, other than my Salvation, she is the greatest thing that ever happened to me and I believe to the Work of God in general. So I thank the Lord more than I have words to express at this which He did for me so long ago.

The part that Frances plays in this Ministry is beyond my ability to portray. I’ve said it many times, and continue to do so, I actually believe that she could run General Motors if she had to do such. It has been her wisdom, her Faith, and her consecration, that has helped us to survive that which seemed to be impossible. As well, her program, “Frances and Friends”, even though she’s not a preacher, draws the largest audience of any of our programs on the SONLIFE BROADCASTING NETWORK. If there is anyone who fits the 31st Chapter of Proverbs, Frances does.

To help us with Television, and I’m speaking of broadcasting the Word of God 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, I’m going to ask you to help Frances and I to commemorate this 59th Anniversary with an offering of $59, or $159, or $1,059, etc. We need it very much for Television, all over the world. Let me say a little more about that.

TELEVISION ALL OVER THE WORLD

I believe that God has called us to do exactly what the heading says, to take this Message of the Cross all over the world. Other than the USA and Canada, and as well the United Kingdom, most of the countries of the world where we televise, we get no financial help whatsoever. And yet the Lord has told us to do this.

We believe this MESSAGE OF THE CROSS must go to the entirety of the world.

For instance, back in July we went on the Satellite that covers some 67 million homes in sub-Sahara Africa. In other words, it covers almost the entirety of all the countries below the equator.

And then we are on Cable Systems all over Central America and South America, plus a few in Mexico (See page 21). We don’t get any financial help for this, but it must be done.

I believe what I’m about to say very, very strongly.

I believe what is happening now as it regards this Ministry and the Message of the Cross, is what the Holy Spirit is saying to the Churches. Those of you who stand with us, with thousands being added constantly, are a privileged people indeed! The Lord spoke to me in the Fundraising session in July, that every name that came through was precious in His Sight. I know that’s quite a statement, but I believe it to be true.

In other words, that which the Lord is now doing, is of extreme significance, and everyone who participates in what He is doing is privileged indeed! I pray that all of you will understand that, will not forget that, and will conduct yourself accordingly. And above all that I’ve said, I thank God for all of you the Lord has given us for this great last day outpouring. More and more I feel that the Lord is giving each of you an understanding as to how important all of this really is.

PREPARATION

Knowing what I felt the Lord was doing, and more so what He was going to do, I had mentioned it any number of times in our Telecast that this great Harvest had already begun. But the Lord spoke to my heart a few days ago (as I dictate this), and informed me that the Harvest had not begun. The preparation time for it had begun, but not the actual Harvest of souls. After that became real to me, everything else began to fall in line as well. The preparation Work being done by the Holy Spirit became very obvious.

I believe the Lord has also spoken to my heart as to when this Harvest of souls is going to begin. I will not relate that now, but I don’t feel it’s very long off.

A MOVING OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

I’m sure that some of you remember the Wednesday morning back in July, when the Lord Moved so mightily, actually in a way that I had never experienced before. It was so real, so wonderful, that I felt in my spirit that nothing must be said or done those hours that would hinder the Holy Spirit. I’ve experienced His Moving in any number of ways, and any number of times; however, I don’t think I have ever experienced anything quite like that. While we desperately needed the funds, that was not the real reason for my thanksgiving. The Moving and Operation of the Holy Spirit is to me that which is so very, very important. There is absolutely nothing in the world like it. And I believe these moments that we are experiencing this, is but a prelude of what the Lord is going to do. In fact, I believe that the anointing and convicting Power of the Holy Spirit is going to Move so mightily in some of the programs and some of the Services from the Church, that thousands of people will be Saved as the result of one particular program or Service. The Holy Spirit is God, and as such there isn’t anything that He cannot do.

In view of that, we must walk closer to the Lord than ever before. We must walk totally and completely after the Spirit and not at all after the flesh. I ask of you, even soliciting you, that you would pray for us daily that we would do exactly what the Lord wants, no more, no less.

THE EVANGELIST MAGAZINE

When someone writes or calls, we immediately start sending our monthly publication, THE EVANGELIST to that individual. But, if in a period of six months we do not hear from you in any capacity, the name is deleted from our list. We feel like if there is no contact in six months, that the individual in question is not really interested in receiving the Magazine, etc. So, if you want to get the Magazine each month, you need to do one of two things:

- If you make any size donation, or order any product, you will continue to receive the Magazine.
- If, for whatever reason, you cannot contribute or you do not need any of the things that we offer, but you still want to get the Magazine, just let us know, and it will continue to come to your door; however, you must inform us of your desires, or the name will be deleted at the end of the six month time frame.

We believe “THE EVANGELIST” contains material that every Believer needs to read and to heed. So, I would hope that you would want this Magazine continued into your home each and every month.

TELEVISION

As some of you by now know, on some of the Cables we are preempted in the early morning hours, mostly from 12 midnight to 4 or 5 a.m. in the morning. And then there are one or two other Cable Systems, such as in Atlanta and Dallas, that we have preemptions at times with which we are not happy with at all. But, we had to come to the place that we felt it was better to be on as we are than not at all. So we went ahead and took the time despite these particular problems. But please understand the following:

If it’s not one of our preachers from the Ministry that is bringing the Message, then it’s not our program.

Also, at times on DIRECTV®, we get preempted for sports activities, etc. Thankfully, we do not have to pay for that particular time. But, we’re going to go to work to try to remedy this situation to where we are not preempted at all on DIRECTV®, as well as the Cable Systems.

Do you realize, as far as we know, there has never been a Christian Network that has grown as fast as SONLIFE BROADCASTING? We give the Lord all the praise and all the glory. He told me about a year ago, that He was going to open the door wide for the placement of the programming. That He has done, and that He is doing. And thank you so very, very much, for being such an integral part of this which the Lord is doing. Without you we could continue, but not nearly as well.

And one more time, please remember the 59th Wedding Anniversary of Frances and myself. If we have been any type of blessing to you, we’re asking that you help us celebrate this by giving a gift to the Ministry, which we very much need. Thank you again.

Sincerely,

Jimmy Swaggart

The reader must understand that there is much more demonic activity today in the world than one may realize.

“TO SNATCH AWAY”

The second meaning of the word, “Harpazio” means, “to snatch away” referring to the fact that the Rapture will occur so suddenly that it will take the whole world by surprise. Can you imagine in a split second untold numbers of Believers all over the world will be taken away in the blink of an eye?

“TO SEIZE AND CARRY OFF SPEEDILY”

This refers to the use of Divine Power transferring the Believer swiftly from one place (Earth) to another (Heaven). The Holy Spirit reemphasizes the suddenness of this great event. That is why the Believer must be ready, must be expecting this great day to happen at any moment. We must not grow complacent or lethargic, but anticipating the Rapture could take place at any time. The Apostle Paul in II Corinthians 13:5 said, “Examine yourselves, whether you be in the Faith; prove your own selves. Know you not your own selves, how that Jesus Christ is in you, except you be reprobates?”

The word “examine” here means “to test, to try.” In other words, we should try ourselves to see whether Christ truly lives in our heart and life. It is not enough just to say “I believe”; we must test ourselves continually.

“TO CLAIM FOR ONESELF EAGERLY”

The idea of this meaning is that the Lord Jesus Christ as the Bridegroom who comes from Heaven to claim His Bride, the Church, is eager to take us up with Him to Glory.

What a day that will be when the Trump of God will sound and corruption will put on incorruption, mortality, immortality (I Cor. 15:51-58).

As the song says, “Some day soon, Church I’m leaving, going to a meeting around the Throne.”

Are you ready? I pray you are.

Don’t forget about the Prophecy special I mentioned at the beginning of this article. The book entitled, “BROTHER SWAGGART, HERE IS MY QUESTION ABOUT BIBLE PROPHECY” and the two Study Guides, “GOD’S PLAN FOR THE AGES, The Cross Of Christ Series” and “A STUDY IN BIBLE PROPHECY, The Cross Of Christ Series”. This is a $70 value for just $35 (EV1317).

THE PROTECTION OF YOUR ASSETS, YOUR FAMILY, YOUR FUTURE, AND THE WORK OF GOD

Many people have the mistaken idea that a will is the best legal instrument for the protection and designation of the distribution of their assets. However, by and large, that is incorrect. A will can be contested and is often changed by contentious parties. The very best legal instrument for this purpose is a Living Trust. Call us for further information.

WHAT IS A LIVING TRUST?

A Living Trust is a legal document to transfer all of your property, assets, cash, or whatever you desire from your individual name to the name of your Trust.

WHAT ARE THE ADVANTAGES OF A LIVING TRUST OVER A WILL AND OTHER LEGAL INSTRUMENTS?

1. A Living Trust is one of the very best ways provided by the United States’ tax laws to save on taxes.
2. You, the principal, have total control over your Living Trust, and you can change it as desired at any time.
3. A Living Trust can be secured regardless of your marital status or age.
4. A Living Trust is the best legal instrument to protect your family, to insure the distribution of your assets according to your desires, and to benefit the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Why not call our Planned Giving Department at (225) 768-3157 and ask for information concerning Living Trusts?
