“We should well understand that something, which was planned in the Mind of the Godhead from eternity past and will extend to eternity future, should not be taken lightly.”

QUESTION:

IS IT WHO HE IS OR WHAT HE DID?

ANSWER:

It is both!
No one but Jesus could have redeemed mankind; however, Redemption was carried out by Jesus going to the Cross.

DEMEANING THE CROSS OF CHRIST

I certainly won’t say all, but most people who ask the question, “Is it Who He is, or what He has done?,” are demeaning the Cross. They have formed another manner of Redemption, another manner of Sanctification, in their minds till they are rejecting the Cross. It must ever be understood that the Cross of Christ, what Jesus did there, affected the whole of Atonement. That’s where the contest took place and that’s where the victory was won. The Cross of Christ is not a last minute adjustment, in other words, something that just happened, but rather was formulated in the Mind of God from before the foundation of the world.

BEFORE THE FOUNDATION OF THE WORLD

Peter said:

“Forasmuch as you know that you were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold (presents the fact that the most precious commodities [silver and gold] could not redeem fallen man), from your vain conversation (vain lifestyle) received by tradition from your fathers (speaks of original sin that is passed on from father to child at conception);

“But with the Precious Blood of Christ (presents the payment, which proclaims the poured out Life of Christ on behalf of sinners), as of a Lamb without blemish and without spot (speaks of the lambs offered as substitutes in the Old Jewish economy; the Death of Christ was not an execution or assassination, but rather a Sacrifice; the Offering of Himself presented a Perfect Sacrifice, for He was Perfect in every respect [Ex. 12:5]):

“Who verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world (refers to the fact that God, in His Omniscience, knew He would create man, man would Fall, and man would be redeemed by Christ going to the Cross; this was all done before the universe was created; this means the Cross of Christ is the Foundation Doctrine of all Doctrine, referring to the fact that all Doctrine must be built upon that Foundation, or else it is specious), but was manifest in these last times for you (refers to the invisible God Who, in the Person of the Son, was made visible to human eyesight by assuming a human body and human limitations)” (I Pet. 1:18-20).

We should well understand that something, which was planned in the Mind of the Godhead from eternity past and will extend to eternity future, should not be taken lightly. One must understand, the only thing that stands between mankind and eternal Hell is the Cross of Christ. One could also say, that the only thing that stands between the church and apostasy is the Cross of Christ. It is not possible to make too much of the Cross, but, definitely possible to make too little of the Cross. Unfortunately, despite the clarity of the Word of God, there are enemies of the Cross.
ENEMIES OF THE CROSS

Paul addressed this in many ways, but, perhaps one of his most potent statements is found in his Epistle to the Philippians. He said:

"Brethren, be followers together of me (be "fellow-imitators"), and mark them who walk so as you have us for an example (observe intently)." (Phil. 3:17-19).

The great Apostle also stated:

APOSTASY

"Now the Spirit (Holy Spirit) speaks expressly (pointedly), that in the latter times (the times in which we now live, the last of the last days, which begin the fulfillment of Endtime Prophecies) some shall depart from the Faith (anytime Paul uses the term 'the Faith,' in short he is referring to the Cross; so, we are told here that some will depart from the Cross as the means of Salvation and Victory), giving heed to seducing spirits (evil spirits, i.e., 'religious spirits,' 'making something seem like what it isn't'), and doctrines of devils (should have been translated, 'doctrines of demons'; the 'seducing spirits' entice Believers away from the true Faith, causing them to believe 'doctrines inspired by demon spirits')" (I Tim. 4:1).

JESUS HAS ALWAYS BEEN GOD

As God, our Lord was unfounded, unmade, uncreated, has always been, always is. That might be difficult for us to understand, simply because, as it regards human beings, we always look to the beginning of something or the ending of it. But, our Lord had no beginning. He always was as He always is.

When He became man, while He laid aside the expression of His Deity, He never for a moment laid aside the possession of His Deity. Born in the home of peasants and raised in the same manner, still, He was God. But, I must remind the Bible Student of the following:

Is It Who He Is Or What He Did?

“Jesus came to this world to do many things; however, His primary Objective, which was all-important, and for which was His express purpose, was the Cross.”

As God and God Alone, not a single person was redeemed. Now, the reader must understand that. Man was not redeemed until God became Man, and did so for the purpose of going to the Cross, which He did, in order that man might be redeemed. In other words, for man to be redeemed, Jesus Christ would have to die on the Cross.

Now don’t misunderstand, God is Omnipotent, meaning that He is all-powerful, meaning that He can do anything. As well, He is Omniscient, meaning that He knows everything, past, present, and future. As well, He is Omnipresent, meaning that He is everywhere, and for all time. So, this means that God could have redeemed man without becoming man and going to the Cross; however, the Godhead, even from before the foundation of the world, through foreknowledge knew that man would be created and that man would fall. As well, it was deemed necessary that God would become man in order to redeem man. This was the best way in order for man to be Saved.

So, man was not redeemed until Jesus died on the Cross, thereby, paying the price that man could not pay and, thereby, making it possible for man to be Saved.

Jesus came to this world to do many things; however, His primary Objective, which was all-important, and for which was His express purpose, was the Cross.

MESSIAH, THE OBLIGENT SERVANT

“I clothe the Heavens with blackness, and I make sackcloth their covering. (The assertion here is that if He so chooses, He could leave all nature in absolute darkness—a power necessarily belonging only to Him Who said, ‘Let there be light; and there was light’ [Gen. 1:3].)

“The Lord GOD has given Me the tongue of the learned, that I should know how to speak a Word in season to him who is weary: He wakens morning by morning, He wakens My ear to hear as the learned. (The intent of the Holy Spirit in this Chapter is to portray to man the inexhaustible Power of God that could, if He so chose, use that Power in any capacity, but rather chose to send His Only Son to ‘redeem’ not only Israel, but the entirety of mankind.
In Verse 4, He is presented as the Perfect Disciple. He only spoke the Words, which were given Him by God [‘that I should know how to speak’]. He asserted this seven times when on Earth [Jn. 7:16; 8:28, 46-47; 14:10, 24; 17:8].

“The phrase, ‘He wakens morning by morning. He wakens My ear to hear as the learned,’ refers to the fact that God held immediate and constant communication with the ‘Servant’ — not enlightening Him occasionally, as He did the Prophets by dreams and visions, but continually whispering in His Ear.

“In fact, the phrase, ‘Morning by morning,’ is not to be narrowed to the bare literal meaning, but to be taken in the sense of ‘uninterruptedly.’ All of this was not necessarily for His Own benefit, but rather that ‘He should know how to speak a Word in season to him who is weary.’”

The True Servant

“The Lord GOD has opened My ear, and I was not rebellious, neither turned away back. (This Verse pertains to the entire willingness of Christ to hear the Father, and to do so as the True Servant, as contrasted with the professed servant, or Children of Israel.

‘Neither turned away back,’ refers to Him being most tried. Even in the Garden of Gethsemane, His final Word was, ‘Not My Will, but Thine, be done’ [Lk. 22:42].)

His Suffering

“I gave My back to the smiters, and My cheeks to them who plucked off the hair: I hid not My face from shame and spitting. (This Verse addresses itself to the hours before the Crucifixion. Mat. 26:67 and 27:26 fulfill this Passage.

“That our Lord, of such power as is described in Verse 3, could contain Himself, when His Own People would treat Him thusly, is beyond comprehension! Their response to His Love was their hate. They whipped Him, pulled His beard from His Face, and spit on Him.

“Their doing it was no surprise. By His Omniscience,

He knew before He came what the results would be.
And yet, He came anyway!)

SET MY FACE LIKE FLINT

“For the Lord GOD will help Me; therefore shall I not be confounded: therefore have I set My face like a flint, and I know that I shall not be ashamed. (Lk. 9:31, 51 fulfill this Verse. The ‘help’ that His Father gave Him was that He might finish the task of redeeming mankind. The idea of redeeming someone who responds only with hate cannot be comprehended by the mortal mind, especially when one considers what that redemption costs!

“I set My face like a flint,’ refers to the resolve of accomplishing a certain thing despite all the scorn and hatred)” (Isa. 50:3-7).

As stated, the Cross was the objective of Christ, in other words, the very reason that He came. While everything else He did was of utmost significance, as should be understood, still, the following must be noted:

THE MINISTRY OF CHRIST

• While the conception of Christ by the Holy Spirit in the womb of Mary was absolutely necessary, still, had it stopped there, no one would have been redeemed.
• While the Life of Christ of total perfection was absolutely necessary, still, if it had stopped there, no one would have been Saved.
• While the Miracles and Healings of Christ were, as well, necessary, still, had it stopped there, no one would have been redeemed.
• While the Incarnation of Christ, God becoming Man, was absolutely necessary, still, had it stopped there, no one would have been Saved.
• In fact, the purpose and reason for everything He did was meant to lead to the Cross where, there the price would be paid, the demands of a thrice-Holy God would be satisfied, that “whosoever will may come and drink of the water of life freely.”

Let us say it again. Jesus has always been God and never ceased to be God, not even for a single moment. Still, had it stopped there without Him going to the Cross, no one World Evangelism Fellowship was born out of a deep desire of Christians from all denominational backgrounds to reach the world with the Gospel of Jesus Christ. It was realized that when Churches and Ministries band together under the anointing of the Holy Spirit to attack the strongholds of Satan, much can be accomplished.

This is the reason World Evangelism Fellowship was formed – to channel the efforts of Churches and Preachers from all over the United States, Canada, and the world into a unified, proven plan to reach the lost and dying with the Good News of the Gospel.

The call of God to win the lost is clear. World Evangelism Fellowship is answering that call and we would like to extend an invitation to you to join us. This is not a Denomination, and we pray it never will be. It is, however, a fellowship of Ministers and Churches united in their efforts to reach the world for Jesus Christ.

How do I, as an individual, affiliate with World Evangelism Fellowship?

There are several ways to join World Evangelism Fellowship, and the method you choose depends on what God has called you to do.

• Christian Worker • Licensed Minister • Ordained Minister • Church Affiliation

"God as God did not redeem man. God had to become Man in order for this great Work to be carried out."

would have been Saved.

WHY DID GOD HAVE TO BECOME MAN?

In the first place, due to the fact that the supreme Sacrifice had to be the Cross, this excluded God as God. The reason? God is Spirit and a Spirit cannot die. So, in order to redeem mankind, that is, that the price be paid once and for all, God would have to become Man, which He did, and for the express purpose of going to the Cross. In effect, one might say that the Incarnation, God becoming Man, and the Cross of Christ, might be looked at as one and the same.

JOHN THE BELOVED

Concerning the very thing, John the Beloved wrote, saying:

“In the beginning (does not infer that Christ as God had a beginning, because as God He had no beginning, but rather refers to the time of Creation [Gen. 1:1]) was the Word (the Holy Spirit through John describes Jesus as ‘the Eternal Logos’), and the Word was with God (‘was in relationship with God,’ and expresses the idea of the Trinity), and the Word was God (meaning that He did not cease to be God during the Incarnation; He ‘was’ and ‘is’ God from eternity past to eternity future).

The Apostle then went on to say:

“And the Word was made flesh (refers to the Incarnation, ‘God becoming man’) and dwelt among us (refers to Jesus, although Perfect, not holding Himself aloft from all others, but rather lived as all men, even a peasant), (and we beheld His Glory, the Glory as of the Only Begotten of the Father,) (speaks of His Deity, although hidden from the eyes of the merely curious; while Christ laid aside the expression of His Deity; He never lost the possession of His Deity) full of Grace and Truth (as ‘flesh,’ proclaimed His Humanity, ‘Grace and Truth’ His Deity).

And finally:

“The next day (refers to the day after John had been questioned by the emissaries from the Sanhedrin)

John sees Jesus coming unto him (is, no doubt, after the Baptism of Jesus, and the temptation in the wilderness), and said, Behold the Lamb of God (proclaims Jesus as the Sacrifice for sin, in fact, the Sin-Offering, Whom all the multiple millions of offered lambs had represented), which takes away the sin of the world (animal blood could only cover sin, it could not take it away; but Jesus offering Himself as the Perfect Sacrifice took away the sin of the world; He not only cleansed acts of sin but, as well, addressed the root cause [Col. 2:14-15])” (Jn. 1:1, 14, 29).

AN EVERLASTING COVENANT

Once again, in order to redeem mankind, at least those who will believe, it was not only Who Jesus was and is, the Son of the Living God, but, as well, it was what He did, which refers to the Cross. In fact, Who Jesus was and is and what He did is, one might say, the very core of the Gospel. To impugn either one of these attributes, Who He is and what He did is, in fact, wicked. But, again we remind the reader, while Who He was presented itself as an absolute necessity, as should be obvious, that for which He came to this world to do, and we speak of the Cross, is what redeemed mankind. God as God did not redeem man. God had to become Man in order for this great Work to be carried out. And, let it be quickly said, what He did at the Cross was of such magnitude, so perfect, that the Apostle Paul said the following:

“Now the God of Peace (proclaims that Peace has been made between God and fallen man, and done so through what Jesus did on the Cross on man’s behalf), that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus (presents the only mention of the Resurrection of Christ in this Epistle to the Hebrews), that Great Shepherd of the Sheep (presents the One Who died for us, and Whom God raised from the dead), through the Blood of the Everlasting Covenant (points to the Cross and proclaims the fact that this Covenant, being perfect, is Eternal)” (Heb. 13:20).

This message was derived from the book, “Brother Swaggart, Here Is My Question About The Cross.”
BRAND-NEW TRANSLATION

The Spanish Translation of THE EXPOSITOR’S STUDY BIBLE is brand-new. It is based on the KING JAMES VERSION, and is, I’m told, the very best Spanish Translation now on the market. Jim Woolsey is the one who has done the translation work, along with all those who work with him.

A BLESSING

I believe THE EXPOSITOR’S STUDY BIBLE in Spanish, which is identical with the Text and notes with every other Edition we have, is going to be a tremendous blessing and help to our Latino friends. It’s like having a Bible School at your fingertips. The only problem you’re going to have with this Bible is putting it down. The notes, we believe, will make the Text come alive. In other words, the notes we also believe will help you understand the Word of God to a greater degree than ever before. If that proves to be the case, and I know it will, then this is a very valuable Edition. I would pray that every one of you with Spanish as your first language would take advantage of this most excellent offer. I’m going to listen for your phone call.
Recently, I was asked if we could reprint my husband’s article from our December 2004, Evangelist, magazine. The article, entitled “The Vision Of Daniel,” contained a section entitled “The Cross Of Christ, The Last Great Push By The Holy Spirit.” He was sharing with the people “The Revelation of the Cross” that was given to him by God, as well as another word from the Lord given to him in 1992. It seems some are misrepresenting what was contained in his article; therefore, we feel it would be good to offer it to you again.

When my husband used the word “revelation,” some thought he was meaning a “revelation” outside of Scripture. Of course, this accusation is false. In his article, he states, “When the Revelation began to come, which, in effect, was not at all new, but rather was that which was originally given to the Apostle Paul, it totally revolutionized my life.” He states a few sentences later, “In this Revelation, the Lord explained to me, even in graphic detail, that which He had originally given to the Apostle Paul (Gal 1:12). But I honestly think, in His explaining this Revelation to me, that He gave me more light than the Church has previously known as it regards this all-important subject.” Notice he states that the Lord gave him “more light than the Church” had previously known; he DOES NOT SAY that the Lord gave him more light than Paul had known, or more light than God had given to Paul.

THE CHURCH!

The indictment is against the church, not Paul or the Bible. He was putting the blame on the church world as a whole, including himself, for our inadequacy in understanding the fullness of the Message of the Cross. There was in no way any indication that God had not done His Part by leaving something out of His Word or that this Revelation was given to my husband exclusively. Anyone who has listened to my husband for any length of time knows that he would never even indicate, much less state, that the Word of God is by any means imperfect or incomplete, and he would never insinuate that God’s Truth was not readily available to any and all individuals who study His Word. This is not part of who he is. My husband has made it his life’s work to study this Book because he knew that, in it, God has “given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness . . .” (II Pet 1:3). This “Revelation of the Cross” was expressly written in the Bible, and copious Verses of Scripture both confirm and substantiate it!

REVELATION

When you look up the word, “revelation,” in the dictionary, it can be described as “an act of revealing or communicating divine truth or an enlightening or astonishing disclosure.” Another dictionary I looked at used the word “illumination.” Now, I’m sure all of you who read your Bible have had a verse or passage of Scripture just suddenly seem to jump off the page as you read it, and you felt like you were seeing it or better understanding it much more than ever before. You may have read that verse a thousand times, yet it had never fully sunk in until it was illuminated or revealed to you by the Spirit of God in a special, personal way. Some have called this experiencing a “rhema” word from God. It is as if you hear the Voice of God in your spirit (although not in an audible voice) teaching His Word to you.

It’s seriously sad to have to say that some wannabe apologists have written blogs and/or articles, accusing my husband of saying that “he was given a revelation greater than Paul’s.” As we have just explained, this was just not correct. No, my husband has not said that this Revelation of the New Covenant was greater than Paul’s. And no, his Revelation is not separate from the Bible. Unfortunately, when you begin to explain to someone, particularly many church leaders, that there has been something in Scripture he previously did not understand to its full extent, it often insults his pride, especially if he doesn’t want to accept the Truth that’s being accentuated by the Holy Spirit. Most do not take correction well, and if you accept the Scriptural Revelation of the Cross, you may have to accept the need for changes in your church programs, teachings, and activities. The Cross is the only Way for both Salvation and Sanctification, and any church activity that doesn’t strictly adhere to it must go.

In these last days, we true Christians know all too well that the enemy is working overtime to discredit the things of God and those working for Him. I consider it a privilege to have this opportunity to expose his evil activities by emphasizing this important teaching in my husband’s article and providing it to you to read for yourself:

THE CROSS OF CHRIST, THE LAST GREAT PUSH BY THE HOLY SPIRIT

I am going to divulge something, which I believe the Lord gave to me in 1992, to which I have seldom alluded.

It was either late winter or early spring when a few of us had gathered for prayer at 10 a.m. that particular morning, which was our custom. The Spirit of the Lord was to Move in a tremendous way in that prayer meeting.

I was seeking the Lord for help as it regards my own person, and this Ministry, and was being greatly moved upon by the Holy Spirit to intercede on behalf of specific needs.

Realizing and graphically seeing my own shortcomings, and crying to the Lord for help, the Lord spoke to me.

In essence, He spoke graphically to my heart, certainly acknowledging my personal needs, to which I will direct more attention in a moment; but then, He began to speak to me as it regards the Church world as a whole.

To do so, He took me to the statements of the Prophet Isaiah. The Prophet said: “Ah sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evildoers, children who are corrupters: they have forsaken the LORD, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are gone away backward.

“Why should you be stricken any more? You will revolt and putrifying sores: they (the sores) have not been closed, neither bound up, neither mollified with ointment” (Isa. 1:4-6).

The Lord was telling me that not only did I need help, but, as well, the entirety of the Church World fell into the same category.

As stated, this was in 1992, approximately five years before the Lord would give to me the Revelation of the Cross.

When that Revelation began to come, which, in effect, was not at all new, but, rather, was that which was originally given to the Apostle Paul, it totally revolutionized my life. In this Revelation, the Lord explained to me, even in graphic detail, that which He had originally given to the Apostle Paul (Gal. 1:12). But I honestly think, in His explaining this Revelation to me, that He gave me more light than the Church has previously known as it regards this all-important subject.

In effect, the Revelation of the Cross, for that’s what it was, is the understanding and explanation of the New Covenant; therefore, one could say that “The Story of the New Covenant is the Story of the Cross.” Consequently, it could also be said, “The Story of the Cross is the Story of the New Covenant.”

THE HOLY SPIRIT

That which the Lord gave to me, which I believe sheds more light on what was originally given to Paul, pertains to the manner in which the Holy Spirit works within our hearts and lives.

To make it brief, the Lord Jesus Christ is the Source of all that we receive from God, with the Cross being the Means. It is this “Means” in which the Holy Spirit works; in other words, the death of Christ on the Cross was a legal Work, hence, it affording “Justification by Faith” (Rom. 5:1). The Holy Spirit works strictly within the legal parameters of this Finished Work. In fact, He works so strictly within these legal parameters of the Cross that His Work is referred to as “the Law of the Spirit of Life in Christ Jesus” (Rom. 8:2).
THE CROSS, OUR FAITH, AND THE HOLY SPIRIT

Putting it all together, the Lord showed me, and as stated, that the Cross is the Means by which our Lord gives to us all things, and that He does this by and through the Person, Work, Ministry, and Office of the Holy Spirit (Jn. 16:7-15; Rom. 8:1-2, 11).

Every single thing done in our hearts and lives which is from the Lord is carried out completely by the Holy Spirit. As it regards the Believer, we, within ourselves, have no power to change anything. It is the Holy Spirit Who Alone does the changing, and Who does so by His mighty Power. That’s the reason that Paul said: “For the preaching of the Cross is to them who perish foolishness, but to us who are Saved, it is the Power of God” (I Cor. 1:18).

The “Preaching of the Cross” is the “Power of God,” because the Holy Spirit, Who Alone has the Power, works exclusively within the parameters of the Finished Work of Christ. In other words, when the Preacher “preaches the Cross” and the people believe what is being preached, this opens the door for the Holy Spirit to work mightily on our behalf.

He demands of us very few things, but He definitely does demand that we understand that Christ is the Source, and the Cross is the Means, and that we, at all times, place our Faith and confidence in that Finished Work. Doing that, and I speak of our Faith ever having the Cross as its Object, the Holy Spirit gives us the power to live a Holy life. In fact, that’s the only way that it can be accomplished (Gal. 2:20-21).

I have always preached the Cross; however, it was not until 1997 that I understood the Cross as it regards victorious living. To show me all of that, the Lord took me to Romans, Chapters 6, 7, and 8.

FALSE WAYS

I grieve when I see preachers promoting one scheme after the other, claiming that such will bring about victorious living. There’s only one Message that can bring about such Victory, and it is “Jesus Christ and Him Crucified” (I Cor. 1:23).

Sometime back, a preacher, with whom I was not acquainted, wrote me a lengthy letter, explaining one of these latest “fads.” I answered him by saying, “My Brother, the answer for which you seek, and the only answer, is the Cross of Christ.”

It is amazing, the modern church completely discounts sin, with many in its confines actually ignoring sin altogether, as if it doesn’t exist.

The truth is, as “sin” is the problem of the unredeemed, most definitely, it is also the problem of the Redeemed. Listen again to Paul:

“For what the Law (Law of Moses) could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh (man, in his fallen condition, didn’t have, and doesn’t have, the ability, within himself, to properly obey the law), God sending His Own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh (the Incarnation, God becoming man; this doesn’t say that the humanity of Christ was sinful, but rather that the humanity of our Lord was in the likeness of sinful flesh), and for sin (meaning that sin is the very purpose and reason that God became man, was born of the Virgin Mary, and went to the Cross), condemned sin in the flesh (meaning that Christ made it possible, through the Cross, for us to live a victorious, overcoming life)” (Rom. 8:3).

SIN

In other words, the very reason that the Lord came to this world and went to the Cross, for that was ever His Mission (I Pet. 1:18-20), was that sin might be defeated in its entirety. In His Perfect Life, He perfectly kept the Law of God, all on our behalf. But then, at the Cross, He paid the penalty for sin, which was death, and did so by offering up His Perfect Life and Perfect Body, which completely made ineffective the sin nature, at least for those who will believe. Listen again to Paul:

“Knowing this, that our old man (what we were before Salvation) is crucified with Him (when He died on the Cross, in the Mind of God, we died with Him) that the body of sin (the sin nature, which came about as a result of the Fall) might be destroyed (made ineffective) that henceforth we should not serve sin (would not have to serve the sin nature) “(Rom. 6:3-6).

The word, “destroyed,” does not refer here to annihilation, but, rather, that the sin nature is made, as stated, “ineffective.” The secret is, we, as Believers, as a result of the Cross, are to be dead to the sin nature (Rom. 6:11). It doesn’t say that the sin nature is dead, but that we are to be dead unto that nature.

WHY IS THE SIN NATURE ITSELF NOT YET DEAD?

It is because our physical bodies are not yet redeemed. Paul said:

And not only they (speaking of the creation) but ourselves also (all Believers), which have the Firstfruits of the Spirit (meaning that we do not have presently all that Jesus accomplished at the Atonement, but only the firstfruits), even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body (which will take place at the Resurrection, i.e., the Rapture of the Church)” (Rom. 8:23).

At that time, our physical bodies will be Glorified, and there will be no more sin nature. Paul also said:

So when this corruptible (our present status) shall have put on incorruption (the Glorified Body), and this mortal (our physical bodies are now dying) shall have put on immortality (the Glorified Body will never die), then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in Victory” (I Cor. 15:54).

The “corruptible” pertains to the sin nature, which is still within us, even the godliest of Believers. At the Rapture of the Church, there will be no more “corruptible” in the Glorified Body, which we will then receive.

But until then, the Lord has given us a means by which we can walk in Victory, in that the sin nature no longer rules or controls us in any fashion, which is done by our Faith exclusively in Christ and what Christ has done for us at the Cross (Rom. 6:14).

THE LAST PUSH OF THE HOLY SPIRIT AS IT REGARDS THE CHURCH

It is my belief that the Holy Spirit bringing the Church back to the Cross is the last great push that He will make before the Rapture. Those who look to Christ and the Cross, for Christ and the Cross must not be divided, will make up the “True Church.” Those who reject the Cross, even though they may claim Christ in some manner, will be those who make up the “apostate church.” In fact, to accept Christ without the Cross is to accept “another Jesus” (II Cor. 11:4).

The Lord spoke to my heart, and I speak of the prayer meeting, which I mentioned some paragraphs back, that He would begin a Move in our particular Church and Ministry (Family Worship Center), which would girdle the globe. Of course, the Lord will be using many others, as well, but this Ministry will definitely be a part of that which He is using.

He informed me that not only did I need, and desperately so, His Help and Grace, but, as well, the entirety of the Church World fell into the same category. He showed me that by giving me, as stated, the words of Isaiah, which I quoted many paragraphs back.

That Move began, at least as far as this Ministry is concerned, in 1997. It began with the Message of the Cross. The Church came in with the Cross, and the Church will go out with the Cross. This means that the Lord has changed nothing, and simply because nothing needs to be changed. The Message of the Cross is “The Everlasting Covenant” (Heb. 13:20).

THE HOLOCAUST AND BEYOND

World War II had a far stronger Spiritual connotation than most would know.

Satan is privy to some information concerning the future (Job, Chpts. 1-2); consequently, he knew that God was going to use the United States to take the Gospel of Jesus Christ all over the world. Even though such began at the turn of the Twentieth Century, still, its greater thrust awaited the completion of World War II.

The Evil One raised up Germany and Japan to oppose this nation and, hopefully, to defeat it, which would stop that Spiritual onslaught all over the world. As is obvious, he did not succeed.

In fact, this Ministry (Jimmy Swaggart Ministries) played a part in this thrust of the Gospel on a worldwide basis, and still does unto this hour.

As well, and to which we have already alluded, Satan, knowing that the State of Israel must be restored, all of which the Prophets predicted, set about through Adolf Psalm 73:1-3 – “Truly God is good to Israel, even to such as are of a clean heart. (This is the third Book of the Psalms, referred to as ‘The Leviticus Book.’ Its subject is the Sanctuary, as that of the first Book was the Blessed Man [Christ], and that of the second, Israel [His People].

Israel, as a worshipper in her future time of trouble, is the subject of this Book rather than the Messiah and the Remnant, which are that of the first two Books. Most definitely, God was good to Israel.)

“But as for me (Asaph), my feet were almost gone; my steps had well nigh slipped. (Asaph was the leader of the choral worship under David [I Chron. 16:4-5]. So he held a very high Spiritual position in Israel.)

“For I was envious at the foolish, when I saw the prosperity of the wicked. (Asaph, perplexed with the problem that the ungodly prosper and the Children of the Kingdom suffer, learns the lesson that outside the Sanctuary, the mind is distracted and the heart fermented, but that inside, all is peace. Looking in confounds; looking out confuses; looking up comforts.

“‘Asaph’s problem was ‘self.’ Preoccupation with ‘self’ always leads to spiritual distraction. Men have ever tried to improve ‘self;’ men have ever failed. Even Christian man fails, when endeavoring to improve ‘self.’ ‘Self’ can only be conquered when it is hidden in Christ [Jn. 14:20].’"

This Psalm was written by Asaph who was in charge of David’s music program as it regards musical worship to God.

Music is the second greatest force for God in the world, second only to the preaching of God’s Word, under the anointing of the Holy Spirit.

In the Bible, music is never for entertainment, but for worship. It is to prepare one’s heart to enter into the Presence of God.

The Book of Psalms contains five Books corresponding to the five Books of the Pentateuch.

They are as follows:

• BOOK ONE: Psalms 1-41 – GENESIS
• BOOK TWO: Psalms 42-72 – EXODUS
• BOOK THREE: Psalms 73-89 – LEVITICUS
• BOOK FOUR: Psalms 90-106 – NUMBERS
• BOOK FIVE: Psalms 107-150 – DEUTERONOMY

Therefore, Psalm 73 is the first Psalm of the third Book, which corresponds to Leviticus.

The subject of the first Book (Ps. 1-41) is the Blessed Man (Christ).

The subject of the second Book (Ps. 42-72) is Israel (His People).

The subject of the third Book (Ps. 73-89) is the Sanctuary (His Place).

The subject of the fourth Book (Ps. 90-106) is the wanderings of the wilderness of which Numbers is about.

The subject of the fifth Book (Ps. 107-150) is the Promise of prosperity if God’s People would be obedient to the Word of God.

ASAPH’S PERPLEXION

Psalm 73, Verse 3 says, “For I was envious at the foolish, when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.”

Asaph is perplexed with the problem that the ungodly prosper and the Children of God suffer at times. This same question plagued Job along with untold numbers of Christians.

The wicked prosper for a number of reasons, such as:

• If they are smart enough to acquire great wealth, the Lord allows such to be because they are not a part of His Program and Plan.

ASAPH’S TRUE PROBLEM

Asaph’s true problem was the problem we must all face and that is “self.” Preoccupation with “self” always leads to “self” absorption and spiritual distraction. Self-will has always been mankind’s Achilles heel. Even the Christian must recognize that “self” will continually rear its ugly head. Most problems in a church are caused by self-will. “Self” will always lead one downward. If one is not careful “self” will become in one’s heart like a raging fire in the woods that destroys everything in its path.

Jeremiah, in Chapter 17, Verse 9, wrote: “The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it?”

As stated, Asaph is being ruled by “self,” preoccupied with “self.” Notice in Psalms 73, Verses 13 through 16 the number of times he uses the personal pronoun “I.” In doing so he is forgetting what Salvation really is. Salvation is not the abundance of things that one can possess, but peace with God.

ASAPH’S REPENTENCE

Psalms 73, Verse 17 says: “Until I went into the Sanctuary of God; then understood I their end.” The Sanctuary is where God dwelt. Now, He no longer sees the alleged prosperity of the wicked, but the Glory of God.

The Sanctuary presents the Spirit of the Lord and when one enters into God’s Presence, one sees the Lord and not himself. Then and only then does “self” become swelled up in Christ. There is an old song that says, “Let Me Lose Myself And Find It, Lord, In Thee” – that’s the only answer for “self.”

True prosperity is having your sins forgiven and being in right relationship with the Lord. John said in John, Chapter 3, Verse 30, “He must increase, but I must decrease.”

Don’t let self-will dominate and destroy your life. The Cross is the answer to self-will and the only answer.

SONLIFE BROADCASTING NETWORK

Dear Brother Swaggart,

My husband and I have been so blessed the last two weeks, we have been watching your SonLife Broadcasting Network on our computers. We have been so blessed, and it has brought us so close to God and each other, we hardly watch TV anymore. Frances and Friends, one of my personal favorites, has blessed us as we listen to all the different speakers you have on. We got so blessed the other evening listening to Loren Larson preaching and teaching on Romans, Chapter 1. I just wanted to say thank you so much, you truly have changed our lives. You have helped us grow stronger in the Lord and also in our own relationship as husband and wife. It feels wonderful to be informed about what is happening to this modern day church. We have been taking the time to pray together as a couple for different needs as we listen to your programs.

I AM FELLOWSHIPPING WITH YOU ALL OVER THE INTERNET

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I wanted to let you all know how blessed I have been by the Message of the Cross. I cannot tell you what an eye opener it has been. I realize the Holy Spirit is very much at work in my life. I have never felt so free as I continue to look unto Jesus and His completed Work for me at Calvary. I don’t know how to thank you all enough for bringing this Message to God’s People. Truly His Church is being held captive to all manner of traditions of men. One day I cried out to the Lord, “Please help me to know the truth and help me find a Christian radio station where the Gospel is preached.” The churches where I live are following something other than our Lord. I am fellowshipping with you all over the Internet.

THE TV IS LEFT ON 24 HOURS A DAY, 7 DAYS A WEEK!

Brother Donnie,

My husband is a soldier in the Army and we travel around the country a lot. It has been so hard on us finding a new church every two to three years. We have been saddened by the fact that so many of America’s churches no longer welcome God’s Holy Spirit in their midst. We had become so hungry to see a mighty Move of the Holy Spirit. Unfortunately we haven’t been able to find a church with that same hunger. We had resorting to having our own services in our home where the Holy Spirit was welcome to have His Way as He pleased.

As you know, television in America is a joke! One night I was channel surfing, I surfed some channels I’d never tried before. Guess what I “happened” upon? That’s right, SonLife Broadcasting Network! We have been having a Holy Ghost good time. The TV is left on 24 hours a day, 7 days a week! Especially the one in our bedroom! We “attend” your Service every Sunday morning, and enjoy the Move of the Holy Spirit with all our hearts.

Thank you all so much for Church as it was intended to be. We once again love Church, and once again I am ministering with a fire burning in my bones! Thank you Swaggart Family!

GLORIFYING OUR LORD AND SAVIOUR, JESUS CHRIST

Dear Brother Swaggart,

When my husband and I became Born-Again back in 1971, it was our listening to Jimmy Swaggart’s preaching and music that really touched our hearts and spirit. We came out of the Catholic Church and have never heard the Word preached. Tears welled up in our eyes as the words and songs again touched us. We just want to say, “Thank you!” to Rev. Swaggart for using his talents for glorifying our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

PREACHING THE CROSS

Dear Brother Swaggart,

My son and I were out at your Church several weeks ago and loved it. While watching Brother Donnie one night, my son received the Holy Spirit, and my daughter-in-law got Saved while they were at home. They had to get outside of the church they attended to get what they needed. We support your Ministry monthly and enjoy it.
I have been traveling and preaching the Cross for 15 years. It is the only Message. Now it has changed my family, and they now travel with me. There are captives being set free!

WHAT AN AWESOME MESSAGE

Dear Brother Donnie,

I just wanted to say what an awesome message I just heard on SonLife Broadcasting Network. It was from a Campmeeting, and you preached on the Holy Spirit. It is just what I needed to hear. I was just feeling very low in my faith, and when I turned on the channel to the program, I was reminded, since I have the Baptism with the Holy Spirit, I can do anything! It was the best message I think I've ever heard since I have been listening to you for five years via radio, and now television. The Lord has used your Ministry so much and will continue to do so!

I AM NOW A FAMILY WORSHIP CENTER MEDIA CHURCH MEMBER

Dear Sister Frances,

I would just like to say thank you. I was in a church that had accountability partners, and you had to tell them personal things about your life. I really grew to trust no one in that church, even the pastor and his wife. I was so messed up when I left that church, but one day I was going through the channels on my TV. Up popped Son-Life Broadcasting Network and I went past the channel, but then I thought in my mind, that looked like Pastor Jimmy Swaggart and I went back so fast, and it was! I was so happy!

The Lord has been restoring stability back to my mind ever since, I used to think that I was in trouble with Jesus. They judged me so hard at that church that I was walking in a defeated state of mind. But, now because of your Ministry, the preaching of Jesus and Him Crucified, and the anointed songs all the time, with you always lifting up Jesus; I am being healed everyday more and more. To God be all the Glory. I am now a Family Worship Center Media Church Member.

MAKE YOUR DECISION FOR ME TODAY!

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I am rejoicing today and want to share my testimony of God's intervention in my life.

My husband and I were standing near the door to enter divorce court, in January of 2010. Our finances had been depleted, our marriage had become intolerable, and we were living a sham. I began listening to your Ministries on SonLife Radio. I had grown disillusioned with the church world, had not been active in a Pentecostal church for 30 years. I am 63 years old and I had become addicted to anti-depressant prescription pain medications, and sought numerous physicians for “relief.” Each day for four years, I experienced insomnia, despair, all-over body pain, and constant mental anxiety. I started seeking my God, my Lord Jesus, and started praying for deliverance. I was praying to be taken home. The Holy Spirit began speaking to me, and He revealed to me that He was not ready to take me home; He had much work for me to do here. I listened as often as I could to your pipeline of Ministers through SonLife. While praying openly in the Spirit one morning, my husband was present in the room, and the Holy Spirit shouted at him, “This is your day, you have played around long enough! Make your decision for Me today! This is your day!” I remained faithful thereafter in my giving, and two months later our financial debts were cleared, our marriage restored, and God has tripled what was in our bank account in January. We’ve been together for 28 years, and this is the happiest we’ve ever been.

We both love you, the Word, your Ministry, and we will always support you. May God continue His Blessings on you!

YOUR COMMENTARIES

Dear Brother Swaggart,

Just a quick note to let you know about your Commentaries. So far, I have only one, Acts, and it is tremendous! I am learning so much, and refreshing knowledge I’d forgotten over the years.

I RECEIVED MY EXPOSITOR’S STUDY BIBLE TODAY

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I received my Expositor’s Study Bible today. It is the first time in 13 years that I really had the desire to open up the Word of God again. Thank you for being there.

EACH PARAGRAPH COMES ALIVE LIKE NO OTHER BIBLE THAT I HAVE EVER READ BEFORE

Dear Brother Swaggart,

I just recently received my Expositor’s Study Bible, the Loose-leaf Edition, and I want to tell you how much I love it. I have a smaller 3-ring folder where I move the section that I am currently studying into. Right now I am on Exodus and I am so thrilled with reading it everyday. Each paragraph comes alive like no other Bible that I have ever read before. Pastor Jimmy, thank you so much for God's anointing on you in being able to explain all the verses so clearly that they can be understood, it is so helpful to me. The giant print is great and so wonderful to be able to remove the pages.

MINNEAPOLIS
“THE TRUE DISCIPLE” – PART I

Matthew 16:16-17 – “And Simon Peter answered and said, You are the Christ, the Son of the Living God (the Great Confession).

“And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed are you, Simon Bar–jona (Peter is the son of Jonah, as Jesus is the Son of God): for flesh and blood have not revealed it unto you (mere human ingenuity), but My Father Who is in Heaven (all Spiritual Knowledge must be by Revelation).”

TWO REVELATIONS

In order to live for God successfully, there are two Revelations that are required for every Believer. They are:

1. The Revelation of the Person of Christ and
2. The Revelation of the Work of Christ.

In the Text of Matthew, Chapter 16, both are seen. The first, the knowledge of Who Jesus is was quickly embraced by Simon Peter. The second Revelation, Christ’s Work at Calvary was soundly rejected by Peter, perhaps within just a few hours after the first. While a person can be Saved and qualified for Heaven by accepting the Person of Jesus Christ, no Believer will experience full abundant life without the accepted and applied knowledge of what Christ accomplished for mankind at Calvary. The Gospel must always be, Jesus Christ and Him Crucified!

REVELATION AND ILLUMINATION

Before we go into the discussion regarding the Revelation of the Person of Christ, we need to qualify the term “revelation.” It is true that there is no “new” Revelation. God has totally revealed His Will and Purpose to the authors of the Scriptures of the Holy Bible. The Revelation to man of God’s Redemption Plan was completed long ago. Paul called it the “Mystery” of the Gospel. However, let us not haggle over terminology. When God reveals some Spiritual Truth to a Believer, whether we call it illumination or Revelation, the result is the same. Revelation happens when God unveils a portion of His “Mystery” to the heart of a man. We may argue about whether or not illumination or Revelation is the better term to describe this Spiritual Phenomenon, but let’s not lose sight of how God Works over an argument regarding terms. In Deuteronomy, Chapter 29, Verse 29, Moses said, “The secret things belong unto the LORD our God: but those things which are revealed belong unto us and to our children for ever, that we may do all the words of this Law.” Paul said in I Corinthians, Chapter 2, Verses 9 and 10, “But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God has prepared for them that love Him. But God has revealed them unto us by His Spirit: for the Spirit searches all things, yes, the deep things of God.” Therefore, all Spiritual Knowledge must be by Revelation.

GOD REVEALS THE SON

While Jesus and His Disciples were in the region of Caesarea Philippi, alone and away from the crowds that had so eagerly pursued them in Galilee, Jesus asked His Disciples two questions about His Person. He first asked, “Whom do men say that I the Son of man am?” And then He asked, “Whom say you that I am?” To the first question the Disciples gave a variety of answers, pointing to good men, even mighty men of God who had lived before. But, to the second question, Peter answered, “You are the Christ, the Son of the Living God” (Mat. 16:13-16). To my knowledge this was the first proclamation by a man as to the True Nature and Calling of the Person of Jesus.

HIS NAME IS JESUS

First, He was named Jesus because it was said that “. . . He shall save His People from their sin” (Mat. 1:21). His Name means Saviour. Peter said later in Acts 4:12, “Neither is there Salvation in any other: for there is none other name under Heaven given among men, whereby we must be Saved.” All men must believe that Faith in Jesus alone results in Salvation. Jesus stated in John 14:6, “. . . I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life: no man comes unto the Father, but by Me.”

HE IS THE CHRIST

Second, He is the Messiah, the Ruler of the world Who would ultimately lead Israel to the headship of all nations. Isaiah said of the Messiah, “. . . and the Government shall be upon His Shoulder: and His Name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The Mighty God, The Everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. Of the increase of His Government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon His Kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even forever” (Isa. 9:6-7).

HE IS THE SON OF GOD

Third, Isaiah, in the same text would declare, “For unto us a Child is born, unto us a Son is given . . .”
II Kings 13:17 – “And he said, Open the window eastward (why eastward? The sun rose in the east; therefore, the Lord, through Elisha and this symbolism, was telling the king of Israel that if true Repentance would be forthcoming, Israel’s sun would not be setting, but rather rising). And he opened it (thus far, the king operates in faith). Then Elisha said, Shoot. And he shot. And he said, The arrow of the LORD’s deliverance, and the arrow of deliverance from Syria: for you shall smite the Syrians in Aphek, till you have consumed them (what a promise!).”

THE CROSS IS THE DIVIDING LINE

Once again, we must stress that the Cross of Christ is the dividing line, and has always been the dividing line, between the true Church and the apostate church. You can read about this “Dividing Line” in the very first pages of human history, in the story of Cain and Abel. Abel, a type of the true Church, offered his sacrifice that came from the flock. The lamb was inspected minutely, and was declared pure and spotless, and was offered as the sacrifice upon the Altar. The Altar was a Type of Calvary, and the lamb was a Type of Christ, Who was Pure, without spot or sin, and offered as our Substitute upon the Cross, to satisfy the demands of a thrice-Holy God. With this sacrifice, the Bible tells us that God accepted his offering.

However, Cain, knowing that this was the type of sacrifice that God wanted and would accept, chose to do things his own way. He chose to offer a sacrifice that was less gory and bloody, and which came from his own labor. Cain believed that God would accept his sacrifice because it came from his own hands and ingenuity. The problem is that the Lord did not accept this sacrifice, which caused the anger of Cain to be felt with the murder of his brother.

Much of the modern Youth Groups are trying to do the same thing, they have brought before God a “way” that is not the Way of God, but it is a way, nonetheless. With this “way,” they might bring in many young people, and they might become the most popular Youth Group in town, but God will not recognize it at all. That “way” which is being presented, is a “way” that leads to destruction and death. It is a “way” that leads to bondage unparalleled. But, the Way of God, which is the Way of the Cross, leads unto life, and life “more abundantly” (Jn. 10:10). It is the Way, and the only Way to unlimited Victory in one’s life, regardless of age. The Cross is what our young people need, for it still works today!

The reason why we preach the Cross, teach the Cross, and sing the Cross is that it is through the Cross of Christ Alone, where we can find true peace of mind, and true Victory over the world, the flesh, and the Devil. Without the Cross, we have to rely on self, which can never bring the desired results. And that is why the Cross is the dividing line, for it exposes what self really is and what self really can do, which is nothing.

THE PROMISE OF DELIVERANCE WAS GIVEN, BUT JOASH FELL SHORT

There was one more thing that the Holy Spirit demanded from Joash, and that was to take arrows and smite them on the ground, not once, but several times. However, Joash only smote the ground with the arrows three times, which caused Elisha to grow angry with the king. Why did Joash stop at three, and why did Elisha grow angry? The Ways of the Lord are not always understandable, but Joash, not being a Follower of the Lord, probably felt somewhat foolish for doing this, so he smote the ground only three times. Now, he thought that striking the ground that many times was somewhat big in his eyes, but not in God’s Eyes. This was a test of Faith and in reality the entirety of the Nation of Israel was at stake. If Joash would have turned to the Lord and smitten the ground more than three times, it would have meant the total destruction of Syria, and every other enemy who would dare attack Israel. But, because of a lack of Faith on the part of Joash, he would smite the ground three times. This caused Elisha to grow angry at Joash’s lack of Faith, for it only guaranteed a partial victory for this king.

How many of us now are satisfied with having only partial victory in our lives? In fact, the majority of young people living today are living their lives with experiencing only partial victory. The reason is that there is no understanding of what the Cross can do, in regards to our Sanctification. It is impossible for anyone to live a victorious life outside of the Cross of Christ. Remember, it does not matter how good you might be, or how many good deeds you might accomplish, if your Faith is not ever anchored in the Cross of Christ, then the very best that you can have is partial victory, if not defeat as a whole.

DOES THE CROSS WORK?

Some of you might say that you’ve tried the Cross and it does not really work. Well, that’s not correct, for the Cross always works, but it’s you and I that do not work too well. We must ever go back to the Cross, even every single day, for Christ said, “. . . If any man will come after Me (the criteria for Discipleship), let him deny himself (not asceticism as many think, but rather that one denies one’s own willpower, self-will, strength, and ability, depending totally on Christ), and take up his cross (the benefits of the Cross, looking exclusively to what Jesus did there to meet our every need) daily (this is so important, our looking to the Cross; that we must renew our Faith in what Christ has done for us, even on a daily basis, for Satan will ever try to move us away from the Cross as the Object of our Faith, which always spells disaster), and follow Me (Christ can be followed only by the Believer looking to the Cross, understanding what it accomplished, and by that means alone)” (Lk. 9:23).

Once again, the Cross of Christ is something that we must look to on a daily basis for complete and total Victory in our everyday lives. If we do not want sin to have dominion over us, then we must go by Way of the Cross, for Christ Won the Victory at the Cross of Calvary, and we can be partakers of His Victory through our Faith in what Christ has done for us at the Cross. I do not want to settle for a partial victory, but I want to experience total Victory in my life, and the Cross is what will bring this about.

MINI-CAMPMEETINGS

I’m speaking, first of all, of “Memorial Day,” which always comes on the last Monday of May, and secondly, “Labor Day,” which always comes on the first Monday of September.

On the preceding Sunday of both times, we’re going to have a mini-Campmeeting. I’ll be preaching the Sunday morning Services, and Donnie will be preaching the Sunday night Services.

This is just a one-day meeting, but for all who are in driving distance, or ever how far, I think that for you to come would be well worth your time.

Most people do not have to work on those particular days, and inasmuch as these two days always follow a Sunday, this is an excellent time and opportunity to have a Spiritual boost.

Of course, the next one, which will be “Labor Day,” will be on the 5th of September. So, I would hope you could make your plans to be with us on the 4th of September, which is the Sunday preceding “Labor Day.” There’ll be some of the greatest music in the world, we think, and the Moving and Operation of the Holy Spirit, which is what every one of us needs.

If you can be with us, I think you’ll be glad you did, so we’re going to look for you.

Incidentally, we have a number of hotels and motels very near the Ministry that will give us excellent rates (See page 35 for hotel listing). So, call us for more information or go online to www.jsm.org.

OBEDIENCE TO THE FAITH

The Kingdom of God operates on Faith. Every generation throughout the Bible was given a test of Faith to believe God. “Faith” is an ambiguous statement though. Therefore, God gave to each generation an Object on which to focus their Faith. In other words, believing isn’t believing until it believes in something, more particularly, that which God gives us. The object of one’s faith determines what that individual believes and trusts in. For example, Abraham believed God pertaining to the promises of a child and an inheritance of land. Because he believed God, God accounted his Faith for Righteousness. Righteousness came by Grace (God supplying the source of Righteousness) through Faith, but Faith in God and what God promised him.

THE CROSS

Today we look back to the Cross of Jesus Christ and what He accomplished there for us. This must ever be the Object of our Faith. We must understand, that by the Cross, Jesus paid the debt of sin we owed God, which was death. “The wages of sin is death . . .” (Rom. 6:23). Because no sin was found in Jesus Christ, Satan had no legal claim against Him. “. . . That through death He might destroy him who had the power of death, that is, the Devil” (Heb. 2:14). No grave could hold Christ down! His Sinless Perfect Death was proven by His Resurrection. If one sin had not been atoned for He could not have risen from the dead. The Resurrection is proof of His Finished Work on the Cross. His Death, as stated above, is where our Victory is, and where our Faith must be placed.

TIME-TESTED FAITH

Throughout each Dispensation God would reveal a little more light on His Plan of Redemption. Although this series is dealing with God’s Land Covenant promises, we must understand that the land promised to Abraham cannot be separated from God’s Promise of Justification by Faith. Let me explain, God promised Abraham that from his seed the nations of the Earth would be blessed. Those who bless Abraham, and his seed, God would bless and to those who would curse Abraham, and his seed, would be cursed. From Abraham’s loins would come Isaac and Jacob, i.e., Israel, the seed to which the land was promised. Both the seed and the Promise of the land are intrinsic. The seed must ever cooperate through Faith by believing the light God has revealed in order to possess the promises of God.

Each generation would have to embrace God’s promises by Faith, just like Abraham. In the case of Isaac he would be constrained by the Lord to remain in Gerar, located in the land of the Philistines and better known today as the Gaza Strip, during a time of famine and was commanded not to travel into Egypt. God would tell him where to dwell and then would remind Isaac of the Promise he gave to his father Abraham in Genesis, Chapter 26, Verses 3 through 5:

“Sojourn in this land, and I will be with you, and will bless you; for unto you, and unto your seed, I will give all these countries, and I will perform the oath which I swore unto Abraham your father;

“And I will make your seed to multiply as the stars of heaven, and will give unto your seed all these countries; and in your seed shall all the nations of the Earth be blessed;

“Because that Abraham obeyed My Voice, and kept My Charge, My Commandments, My Statutes, and My Laws.”

SUBSTITUTION

Isaac grew great in prosperity before the eyes of the Philistines. But, it wasn’t until he settled in Beer-sheba that God would reveal Himself again, reminding Isaac of the promises He gave his father Abraham. Isaac would then build an Altar to the Lord. The expression, “build an Altar” meant he made sacrifices to God. Isaac knew that God was the One who supplied the sacrifice; because he was the one who God spared and substituted with a ram. The foundational Doctrine of Substitution, Jesus Christ died in my place for my sin, was established in the story of Abraham being asked by God to sacrifice the miracle child Isaac. God would call Isaac Abraham’s “only son.” He was the promised child (seed) to which all the promises of God would pass. Abraham was again tested, as was Isaac, to obey God.

ISLAMIC DECEPTION

In Islam, as we discussed in earlier articles, Ishmael is viewed as the child of promise. The fabric of contention by Muslims is they believe Ishmael is the rightful progeny and succession of Abraham, being his first born. Islam believes Jews are no longer awarded blessings by Allah because they did not embrace Allah's last prophet Muhammad. The collective Islamic nations, and virtually all Muslims, do not recognize Israel’s right to possess any of the land, today called Palestine, promised by God to her.

AMERICA AND ISRAEL PAST

Has American policy always been in favor of Israel? Harry S. Truman pledged America’s support and backing to the creation of Israel in 1948. American support of Israel enabled her to be recognized as a legitimate sovereign Nation by the United Nations. On a sad note, the U.S. often behaved in a manner that either opposed Israel or placed her on compromising grounds with her Arab Islamic neighbors. For example, soon after the British left Egypt in 1954, Egyptian President, Al Nasser, was expected to join the Middle East Defense Organization, MEDO. This was a brain child idea of U.S. Secretary of State, John Foster Dulles, to defend the Middle East region from communism and protect U.S. interests, especially with oil. Nasser would not join MEDO until Dulles agreed to address his concerns over Israel. The withdrawal of the British left friction between Israeli and Egyptian forces. Nasser insisted Dulles compel Israel to forfeit land as a down payment on peace before Egypt would join MEDO.

The offer appealed to Dulles since he “reviled the Jewish state” and called it “the millstone around our necks.” The State Department believed Israel could achieve peace by ceding land to its Arab Islamic neighbors. At the end of 1954 Dulles would arrange a mediation attempt between Israel and Egypt with a plan he devised called “Alpha.” It was a covert plan in which Israel would give up land for peace with Egypt. Israeli Prime Minister, Ben-Gurion, explained how he refused to reward Egypt for its aggression against Israel in 1948, Israel’s “War of Independence.”

A second effort by Dulles, this one dubbed, “Gamma,” was to arrange a meeting between Ben-Gurion and Nasser. Although the American emissary arrived in the region, Nasser had no intention of discussing peace.

In a third effort by Dulles to get his way in the region he authorized another plan that was called, “Omega.” “Omega” sought to strengthen and promote Saudi King, Saud, as an “Islamic pope” who would supersede Nasser as the Arab leader. It seems American policy since Dulles’ days has been the mantra, “land for peace.”

AMERICA AND ISRAEL TODAY

Israel is now facing its biggest test of tolerance. For many years it was understood and agreed that Israel and Palestine were to negotiate four primary components for a two-state solution:

- Settlement building;
- 1967 Borders;
- Right of return of refugees; and,
- Jerusalem divided, East Jerusalem the new Capitol of Palestine.

The first two negotiating legs that supported the negotiating table have been kicked out by President Obama. Will Israel be able to steer through the avalanche of obstacles created by America’s current administration? Will the Palestinian people be able to persuade the United Nations to recognize them as a full-fledged member without negotiating with Israel? Will America sacrifice our protection from God by throwing Israel aside? Next month we will address these questions and supply more from God’s Word as to what Israel must believe in order to have peace.

As a special bonus, for every Bible that you get, we want to send you a copy of the brand-new DVD/CD entitled, “I’VE NEVER BEEN THIS HOMESICK BEFORE”.

When I sang the song in FAMILY WORSHIP CENTER just a few weeks ago, the Spirit of God fell like rain. Actually, I didn’t get to preach that morning as the people were continually worshipping the Lord. It’s about 20 minutes long or longer, along with other songs that I’ll guarantee will be a blessing to you, also taped at FAMILY WORSHIP CENTER. This offer is brand-new, and powerfully anointed by the Holy Spirit, as I think will be overly obvious. For every Bible that you get, we will send a copy of this most excellent DVD/CD combination.

TELEVISION CAMERAS

The other day, Randy McAllen who heads up our Television Department walked into my office and said, “Brother Swaggart, we have got to replace all the cameras in the Sanctuary of FAMILY WORSHIP CENTER.” I looked at him and said, “Randy, can’t we repair the ones we presently have?”

“No,” he went on to say. “The ones we presently have,” he added, “are approximately 20 years old, and they don’t even make parts for them anymore.” And then he added, “Beside that, we have to convert to High Definition, and with the new cameras everything at the Ministry will be H.D.”

A DEMONSTRATION

We had three major Camera companies to come in and give us a demonstration. The least expensive ones were $120,000 each, making $600,000 for the five.

In our appeal over Television, I had stated $700,000. In fact, that was the bid of one of the companies; however, as it regarded the least expensive bid, which is $600,000, we called around over the country to people who were using that particular camera, and we got some excellent reports. So, that’s the company we’re going with.

Incidentally, the cameras we use in the Church are totally different than the ones in the Studio. In fact, I wish we could use the same kind that we’re using in the Studio, simply because they are much less expensive; however, that kind cannot be used in the Sanctuary, simply because of the size of the Auditorium.

YOUR HELP

I wish we had the money that we could simply write the check for the equipment, but, we don’t have it. So, I’m asking you for your help, please.

I have made an appeal over Television, but due to the fact that the copy for this Magazine is made up several weeks before you read it, while I will know shortly what Television has brought in, as I write this, I do not now know.

At any rate, we’re going to need your help. And for those of you who could send a gift of $100 or more, I’m going to send you five DVD’s or CD’s of our choice (EV1311). It will be Teaching and Music, or Preaching and Music, or Music altogether. I desperately need this help, inasmuch as we have got to have this equipment.

THE DIFFERENCE

I was telling our Television audience the other day, that before we established the Network, we had a one-hour program aired mostly on Sundays, and one thirty-minute program each day, Monday through Friday. But, the difference in that and airing programming 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, is the difference in a rowboat and an aircraft carrier. Both are ships, but that’s where the similarity ends.

And yet, we are getting absolutely tremendous results through the Network, as it regards people being Saved, lives being changed, Believers baptized with the Holy Spirit, and sick bodies healed, for which we give the Lord all the praise and all the glory. I believe the Lord is going to so anoint this Ministry, which in a sense has already begun, that thousands can be Saved as the result of a single program or a single Service. It’s going to happen!

THE SPANISH EDITION OF THE EXPOSITOR’S STUDY BIBLE

It’s now ready!

I’m told it’s the finest Spanish Translation in the world today. This I do know, this is going to be of tremendous help to all Latinos, in that the Word of God will literally come alive.

I have to thank Jim Woolsey, and all those who worked with him, Amanda Chow, Daniela Brown, Cherry Guidry, Jeannette Black, Jean Woolsey, Isabel de Gasc, M.A., Donna Simpson, and Sharon Whitelaw, who worked tirelessly to get this Edition finished. It is identical in every respect to the English Version, except everything, as would be obvious, is in Spanish.

You will see an ad on page 12 in this Magazine, and I would pray that if you speak Spanish, or you would like to get a copy for a Latino friend, that you would take full advantage of this offer. It wouldn’t surprise me at all, if our first printing is gone almost before it begins. Please check out the ad on page 12 in this Magazine.

CAMPMEETING

Are you making plans to be with us in our upcoming Campmeeting? The dates are November 23 through 27. It’s great to listen to the Services by Radio, or watch by Television, or the Internet; however, it is ten times better being there. Why don’t you make your plans right now?

In the Master’s Service, yours,

Jimmy Swaggart

Many people have the mistaken idea that a will is the best legal instrument for the protection and designation of the distribution of their assets. However, by and large, that is incorrect. A will can be contested and is often changed by contentious parties. The very best legal instrument for this purpose is a Living Trust. Call us for further information.

WHAT IS A LIVING TRUST?

A Living Trust is a legal document to transfer all of your property, assets, cash, or whatever you desire from your individual name to the name of your Trust.

WHAT ARE THE ADVANTAGES OF A LIVING TRUST OVER A WILL AND OTHER LEGAL INSTRUMENTS?

1. A Living Trust is one of the very best ways provided by the United States’ tax laws to save on taxes.
2. You, the principal, have total control over your Living Trust, and you can change it as desired at any time.
3. A Living Trust can be secured regardless of your marital status or age.
4. A Living Trust is the best legal instrument to protect your family, to insure the distribution of your assets according to your desires, and to benefit the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Why not call our Planned Giving Department at (225) 768-3157 and ask for information concerning Living Trusts?

PLEASE NOTICE (THE EVANGELIST)

If you would like for any Christian friend (any number) living in the United States to receive this magazine (The Evangelist) each month, postage paid and free of charge, please send us their name (or names) and address (or addresses). We will begin their subscription immediately. If they live outside the United States, please contact our office for more information.
Hitler to stop the fulfillment of these Prophecies. The slaughter of some six million Jews began in 1940, and continued throughout World War II. The sadness is, the world knew what was going on, even the Leadership of the United States. But the truth is, considering that these were Jews, most simply didn’t care.

As a microcosm of the events which transpired some few months before America entered the war, a ship, loaded with multiple thousands of Jews who had escaped Nazi Germany, sat in New York harbor for days, but was not allowed to dock. The ship traveled on to South America, but was refused there, as well. Ultimately, it went back to Europe, with most on board dying in the German concentration camps. The nations in question, including the United States, didn’t want to offend Herr Hitler.

(Taken from Jimmy Swaggart Bible Commentary, Daniel, Chapter 7.)

Frances Swaggart

(ISA. 9:6). Because the Child would be born of a woman, He would be called the son of man. He is the Second Adam. He is the last man. But, He is also the Son that was given. John 3:16 says, “For God so loved the world, that He gave His Only Begotten Son, that whosoever believes in Him should not perish, but have Everlasting Life.” He lived a Perfect sinless Life, undeleted by sin, free from the bondages of darkness and offered Himself as the penalty for our sin on the Cross of Calvary. Mankind must believe in Jesus, the Christ, the Son of the Living God in order to be Saved.

WHO DO YOU SAY HE IS?

There is no other route to God but through His Son. Our Faith must rest completely upon Him in order to be Born-Again. Faith in our own works or actions is unacceptable to God as a means of Salvation. Peter seemed to have very little personal opposition to the Person of Christ, when God revealed it to him. It is upon this Revelation that the Church begins its existence. “For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ” (I Cor. 3:11). But the Apostle Paul also said, “. . . I have laid the foundation, and another builds thereon. But let every man take heed how he builds thereupon” (I Cor. 3:10). The next Revelation that must be received and applied is the Revelation of Christ’s Finished Work at Calvary. Peter had great difficulty accepting this Revelation even as many Believers today struggle with the acceptance and application of the Message of the Cross. Next month we will prove this statement in “THE TRUE DISCIPLE – Part II.”

SALES HAVE QUADRUPLED

In the last six months, the sales of our Commentaries have jumped several fold. We give the Lord the praise and the glory for this.

We believe that THE JIMMY SWAGGRT BIBLE COMMENTARIES are one of the greatest aids to understand the Word of God that the Christian public has ever had.

EASY TO READ

These Commentaries are designed to make them easy to read. They have large print, and above all of that they are laid out in a way that makes study interesting.

EASY TO UNDERSTAND

If there was ever a time when we need to understand the Word of God better, it is now. Apostasy is rampant, and these Commentaries will keep the Doctrine straight.

THE GREATEST OFFER EVER MADE

I’m not aware that we’ve ever made a greater offer than we’re making in this particular offer regarding the Commentaries. I would pray that you would take advantage of it, whether it’s one copy, with which you will get another copy free and of your own choice, or whether it’s the entire set of 31 Volumes, or anything in-between. I’m going to wait for your call.
