ONE WAY

The Lord has one way, and only one way, because only one way is needed. That one way is, Jesus Christ and Him crucified (I Cor. 1:23).

Please allow me to repeat the following:

• Jesus Christ is the source of all things we receive from God (Jn. 1:1; 14:6; Col. 2:10).

• The Cross of Christ is the means by which all of these things are given to us (Rom. 6:3-5; I Cor. 1:17-18, 23; 2:2).

• The Cross of Christ must be the object of our faith, and the Cross of Christ alone the object of our faith (Gal., Chpt. 5; 6:14; Eph. 2:13-18; Col. 2:14-15).

• The Holy Spirit superintends all of this (Rom. 8:1-2, 11; Eph. 2:13-18).

LAW OR GRACE

Every human being in the world is either under law or grace. To break it down as follows, every unsaved person in the world is under the law of God, and we speak of the Ten Commandments. They may not understand that, but nevertheless, it is true. As well, they have broken that law countless times and are under its penalty of death, i.e., separation from God. The only way out is Jesus Christ.

THE DISPENSATION OF GRACE

Many Christians believe that because this is the dispensation of grace, and it most definitely is, then that means we are automatically under grace. That isn’t so!

For the grace of God to flow uninterrupted to the believer, the believer’s faith has to be in Christ and the Cross. The Cross of Christ is the means by which grace is given to us.

The truth is, the Lord has no more grace presently than He did 3,000 years ago or more. Due to the fact that the blood of bulls and goats could not take away sins, this meant the sin debt remained, which greatly hindered the Lord from giving good things to His children. In fact, grace is simply the goodness of God extended to undeserving saints.

If the believer has his faith in anything except the Cross of Christ, such a direction will “frustrate the Grace of God.”

Paul said: “I do not frustrate the grace of God (if we make anything other than the Cross of Christ the object of our faith, we frustrate the grace of God, which means we stop its action, and the Holy Spirit will no longer help us): for if righteousness come by the law (any type of religious law), then Christ is dead in vain. (If I can successfully live for the Lord by any means other than faith in Christ and the Cross, then the death of Christ was a waste)’” (Gal. 2:21).

As well, Paul said that if the grace of God continues to be frustrated, such a believer will “fall from grace.”

The apostle said:

“Christ is become of no effect unto you (this is a chilling statement, and refers to anyone who makes anything other than Christ and the Cross the object of his faith), whosoever of you are justified by the law (seek to be justified by the law); you are fallen from grace (fallen from the position of grace, which means the believer is trusting in something other than the Cross; it actually means, ‘to apostatize’)” (Gal. 5:4).

While the Lord doesn’t require very much of us, He does require one thing, and on that He will not bend. Our faith must be in Christ and the Cross, and our faith must be exclusively in Christ and the Cross (Rom. 6:3-5; 8:1-2, 11; I Cor. 1:17-18, 21, 23; 2:2).

GRACE

“What then? (This presents Paul going back to the first question he asked in this chapter) shall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace? (If we think such a thing, then we’re completely misunderstanding grace. The grace of God gives us the liberty to live a holy life, which we do through faith in Christ and the Cross, and not license to sin as some think.) God forbid (every true believer hates sin; so the idea of living under its dominion is abhorrent to say the least!)” (Rom. 6:15).

LICENSE?

The apostle is, in essence, saying, “Don’t get the idea that just because we are under grace, it’s alright to sin. Sin is deadly!” And to be sure, no one engages in this terrible malady without coming away adversely affected. As we said in the notes above, every true believer hates sin. While the flesh at times may want something that’s wrong, the mind of the believer wants to obey the law of God (Rom. 7:25).

The only way, and I mean the only way, that one can have victory over sin—victory over the world, the flesh, and the Devil—is for one to place one’s faith exclusively in Christ and the Cross and maintain it there. This is God’s way, and His only way, because it’s the only way that is needed.

SERVANTS

“Know you not, that to whom you yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants you are to whom you obey (the believer is either a slave to Christ, for that’s what the word servant means, or else a slave to sin, which he will be if he doesn’t keep his faith in Christ and the Cross); whether of sin unto death (once again allow us to state the fact that if the believer attempts to live for God by any method other than faith in the finished work of Christ, the believer will fail, no matter how hard he otherwise tries), or of obedience unto righteousness? (The believer is required to obey the Word of the Lord. He cannot do that within his own strength, but only by understanding that he receives all things through what Christ did at the Cross and his continued faith in that finished work, even on a daily basis. Then the Holy Spirit, who alone can make us what we ought to be, can accomplish His work within our lives” (Rom. 6:16).

SIN UNTO DEATH

All sin is linked with death in some way, as death is linked with sin in some way. At this moment, millions of marriages are dying simply because of sin. Talent and ability are being wasted and will never come to fruition because they are dying because of sin. Everything in this world is dying because of sin. There will come a day that there will be no more sin, and everything will then stay beautiful, new, and fresh forever.

John said, “And I saw a new heaven and a new earth (‘new’ in the Greek is ‘kainos,’ and means ‘freshness with respect to age’; when it is finished, it will be new, as is obvious, but the idea is it will remain new and fresh forever and forever because there is no more sin): for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away (refers to the original creation, which was marred by sin; ‘passed away’ in the Greek is ‘parerchomai,’ and means ‘to pass from one condition to another; it never means annihilation)” (Rev. 21:1).

OBEDIENCE UNTO RIGHTEOUSNESS

The obedience mentioned here refers to obedience rendered to God, or rather obeying His Word.

What is that Word?

That Word is the “Cross.” That’s what the entirety of this sixth chapter of Romans is all about. Sin is the problem, and the Cross of Christ is the solution to that problem and, in fact, the only solution.

When the Lord began to open up to me the great Message of the Cross, actually that which had been given to the Apostle Paul, He said three things to me—three things which I will never forget. They are:

• The answer for which you seek is found in the Cross.
• The solution for which you seek is found in the Cross.
• The answer for which you seek is found only in the Cross.

The next verse tells us emphatically what that obedience is.

THE FORM OF DOCTRINE

“But God be thanked, that you were the servants of sin (slaves to the sin nature, what we were before we were saved), but you have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine (Jesus Christ and Him crucified; understanding that all things come to the believer from God by the means of the Cross) which was delivered you (the Lord gave this ‘form of doctrine’ to Paul, and he gave it to us in his epistles)” (Rom. 6:17).

THE DOCTRINE OF THE CROSS

The doctrine of the Cross is the foundation doctrine of all doctrine. It was established by the Godhead from before the foundation of the world (I Pet. 1:18-20). This means that every single doctrine in the Bible is built squarely upon the doctrine of the Cross. In fact, this is the way all false doctrine begins. If it’s false, it means that it is built upon a foundation other than the Cross of Christ.

When believers succumb to seducing spirits, it means they have shifted their faith from Christ and the Cross to something else.

FORM

The word form in the Greek is “tupos,” and means, “a stamp, a shape, a style, a model, a pattern.”

As we have already stated, this form is a blueprint, and a blueprint designed by God. That form is the pattern of the Cross of Christ. If we deviate at all from the form, we have just added to or deleted from the Word of God. And what does the Bible say about that?

“And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the Book of Life, and out of the Holy City, and from the things which are written in this book” (Rev. 22:19).

That has been man’s problem from the dawn of time. He does not want to accept the Word of God at face value. In fact, ever since the dawn of time, man has been trying to invent another god, and regrettably and sadder still, the church has been trying to invent another sacrifice. Tragedy is the result of both accounts.

SERVANTS OF RIGHTEOUSNESS

“Being then made free from sin (being made free from the sin nature; it has no more power over the believer, but only as we continue to look to the Cross), you became the servants of righteousness (whereas you were formerly a slave to the sin nature, you are now a slave to righteousness; if faith is maintained in the Cross, there is a constant pull of the believer toward righteousness)” (Rom. 6:18).

FREE FROM THE DOMINATION OF THE SIN NATURE

There are millions of Christians right now around the world, people who truly love God, who long for freedom from the domination of the sin nature. Some of these individuals pastor large churches. Others are evangelists being used of God, but still, the sin nature dominates them in some way.

WHEN THE SIN NATURE DOMINATES AN INDIVIDUAL, AS IT DOES ANY AND EVERY PERSON WHOSE FAITH IS NOT EXCLUSIVELY IN CHRIST AND THE CROSS, THE SITUATION WILL GO FROM BAD TO WORSE...

They understand the Cross as it regards salvation; however, as it regards sanctification, how we live for God, how we order our behavior, and how we live this life, the part the Cross of Christ plays in all of this, of that they have no knowledge. As a result, most simply do not know how to be free from the domination of the sin nature.

SERVANTS OF RIGHTEOUSNESS

Irrespective of the knowledge or lack thereof as it regards the Cross of Christ respecting sanctification, if anyone wills righteousness, in other words, hungers and thirsts after righteousness, the Lord will see to such that righteousness in some way is imputed to them. Admittedly, it’s not a simple journey, an easy journey, or a quick journey. But, if the person truly wants righteousness, the Lord will see to it that that person comes in contact with the message given to us by the Apostle Paul as it regards the Cross of Christ respecting sanctification.

When the Lord said, “Blessed are they who do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled,” He meant every word of it (Mat. 5:6).

THE INFIRMITY

OF THE FLESH

“I speak after the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh (‘the manner of men’ pertains to the fall, which has made the flesh weak; this speaks of our own personal strength and ability): for as you have yielded your members servants to uncleanness (which the believer will do, if the object of his faith is anything but the Cross) and to iniquity unto iniquity (without constant faith in the Cross, the believer’s situation regarding sin will get worse and worse); even so now yield your members servants to righteousness unto holiness (which, as repeatedly stated, can only be done through constant faith in the Cross; understanding that it is by and through the Cross that we receive all things, and that the Holy Spirit, who alone can develop righteousness and holiness in our lives, works exclusively through the Cross)” (Rom. 6:19).

INIQUITY UNTO INIQUITY

When the sin nature dominates an individual, as it does any and every person whose faith is not exclusively in Christ and the Cross, the situation will go from bad to worse, i.e., “iniquity unto iniquity.” Sin never remains static. It never improves itself. It always degenerates, with the ultimate idea of totally and completely destroying the individual involved.

When Paul said, “Now yield your members servants to righteousness unto holiness,” he was speaking of those who understood the Cross of Christ as it regards sanctification, which now gives them the help of the Holy Spirit, who will develop these great attributes within their hearts and lives. But, if the believer has his faith in something else other than the Cross of Christ, he may want to yield the members of his physical body to righteousness and holiness, but he will not be able to do so. A believer may read these words and claim that such could not happen to him or her; however, as we have repeatedly stated, God’s way, the way of the Cross, is the only way. Refuse that, and once again, the sin nature is going to dominate us and drag us down.

EVERLASTING LIFE

“But now (since coming to Christ) being made free from sin (set free from the sin nature), and become servants (slaves) to God (but this yoke is a light yoke [Mat. 11:28-30]), you have your fruit unto holiness (which the Holy Spirit will bring about, providing the Cross is ever the object of our faith), and the end everlasting life (so the believer has the choice of ‘death,’ which is the end result of trusting something other than Christ and the Cross, or ‘everlasting life,’ which is the result of trusting Christ and the Cross).

“For the wages of sin is death (speaks of spiritual death, which is eternal separation from God); but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord (as stated, all of this, without exception, comes to us by the means of what Christ did at the Cross, which demands that the Cross ever be the object of our faith, thus giving the Holy Spirit latitude to work within our lives and bring forth His fruit)” (Rom. 6:22-23).

As we’ve already stated, death is always attached to sin. In essence, Paul is taking the believers back to their unsaved experience. But yet, he is reminding them of the bondage of sin that held them in its death grip during those times. And, as well, he is saying that if the believer did not function according to God’s manner and way, then the believer, even though saved by the blood of Jesus Christ, will once again find himself doing things that will make him grossly ashamed.
When the United Kingdom voted and left the European Union after 43 years, a lot of people were asking, what exactly is the EU? Suddenly, there was renewed interest in this potential superpower, which is populated by more than 500 million people from 28 member countries and functions politically and economically as one country with its own money, a single market, and open borders.

After the historic Brexit vote, the Rev. Franklin Graham posted, “We don’t know what the #EUReferendum vote means long-term, but I know that this is at least a temporary setback for the politicians in this country and around the world who want a one-world government and a one-world currency.”

The desire and planning for a world government is not new; it’s as old as man’s rebellion against his Creator:

“And the whole earth was of one language, and of one speech. And it came to pass, as they journeyed from the east, that they found a plain in the land of Shinar; and they dwelt there. And they said one to another, Go to, let us make brick, and burn them throughly. And they had brick for stone, and slime had they for morter. And they said, Go to, let us build us a city and a tower, whose top may reach unto heaven; and let us make us a name, lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth. And the Lord came down to see the city and the tower, which the children of men builded. And the Lord said, Behold, the people is one, and they have all one language; and this they begin to do: and now nothing will be restrained from them, which they have imagined to do. Go to, let us go down, and there confound their language, that they may not understand one another’s speech. So the Lord scattered them abroad from thence upon the face of all the earth: and they left off to build the city” (Gen. 11:1-8).

Let us build us a City and a Tower

By Frances Swaggart

THIS ARTICLE INCLUDES CONTENT FROM THE APRIL 2012 EVANGELIST ARTICLE, “ORGANIZED REBELLION.”

The Tower of Babel

Centralization of power is a pagan tendency. Nowhere in Scripture is civil government said to have the responsibility to be the provider for, or the savior of, men. Yet, in the Old Testament that is exactly what happened—men began to pervert the purposes of civil government.

The Tower of Babel was the first public expression of humanism because it placed sovereignty in man rather than God. There, men gathered together to conspire rather than spreading out and filling the earth as God had instructed humanity to do (Gen 1:28). They wanted to make a name for themselves—save themselves—which required organized cooperation. This fleshly effort resulted in compromise and consensus thinking, turning “the state” and a “collective consciousness” into a counterfeit messiah, and, ultimately, failure. Let’s examine this a little more.

One Speech

“And the whole earth was of one language, and of one speech” (Gen 11:1). Before and immediately after the flood, there was only one language on the face of the earth, which was probably Hebrew. During this time, the Lord had told Noah and his sons to “be fruitful and multiply and replenish the earth” (Gen 9:1). The Lord wanted mankind to replenish the earth, but these people had other ideas, as seen in the story of Nimrod and the rise of the first cities.

Nimrod

“And Cush begat Nimrod: he began to be a mighty one in the earth” (Gen 10:8). Nimrod founded Babylon and the city of Nineveh. Josephus recorded that Nimrod built the Tower of Babel, as described later in the book. of Genesis. Nimrod led the first organized rebellion against God, His ways, and those who followed the Lord. He hunted them down, possibly even killing those who worshipped Jehovah. Nimrod and his city actually foreshadowed the coming Antichrist and his city.

BABYLON

The Bible says Nimrod was “a mighty hunter before the Lord,” but this had little to do with hunting for food or sport. Rather, it described his opposition or rebellion to the Lord—a sin likened to witchcraft (I Sam. 15:23). Witchcraft seeks to control its own destiny, or the destiny of others through manipulation of the spirit world; it seeks its own will.

God asks the exact opposite from us. He asks that we surrender to Him and let us make us a name lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth” (Gen. 11:4).

The words “they said” in this Scripture demonstrate the undeniable evil of the human heart. In this one verse we find the seedbed of all rebellion against God, then and now. As previously stated, the Lord had told Noah and his sons to be fruitful and multiply and replenish the earth. Instead, Nimrod and his followers were determined to gather together in defiance of God.

Once God saw their unrestrained rebellion, He dealt with them by confounding their speech so they could not understand one another. At least a hundred or more languages were introduced, which made it impossible for these rebels to function together with any type of cohesion. God also scattered them abroad upon the face of all the earth.

Consider what is being said here: The Tower of Babel was the world’s first attempt at global government and it was judged and destroyed by God.

GOVERNMENT GOD’S WAY

Now compare man’s ancient struggle for a global government to the founding of Israel. Israel’s government was formed by God. God found a man, Abraham, who would surrender his own will to God’s will. God gave specific instructions to him and promised, “I will make of thee a great nation” (Gen. 12:2). Indeed, the nation that God made of Abraham has changed the whole world. It exists till this very hour. In fact, Israel still holds the key role in future world events, continuing into the coming Kingdom Age.

When we let God have His way, He brings honor not only to Himself, but also to His servants. Israel was to be a theocracy, ruled by God. Among the many pagan nations surrounding her, Israel was to be unique. God said to Abraham, “And I will bless you and make your name great and you shall be a blessing.” The word bless means “to increase.” The phrase, “and you shall be a blessing,” concerns itself with the greatest blessing of all, which is really the glory of Abraham’s faith.

You see, God would give Abraham the meaning of salvation—the meaning of “justification by faith.” Its fulfillment would come about through the Lord Jesus Christ and what Christ would do on the Cross.

Genesis 12:3 says, “I will bless them who bless you and curse him who curses you and in you shall all families of the earth be blessed.” Again, this speaks of Israel, which sprang from the loins of Abraham and the womb of Sarah, giving the world the Word of God, and more particularly, bringing the Messiah into the world. Through Christ, every family in the world who desires blessing from God can have that blessing, i.e., justification by faith.

NATION OF GODLY PRINCIPLES

In the founding of the United States, careful consideration was given to the principles God used throughout history in dealing with government. It was never the purpose of the United States to be a theocracy, but it was to be a nation that governed using godly principles. To facilitate this, careful attention was given to the division of powers within the different levels of government—local, state, and federal—and even power to individual citizens in such things as owning property.

Consider these words from the U.S. Constitution: “We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness—that to secure these rights, governments are instituted by men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed.”

Our Constitution solidified the mandate for “the consent of the governed” by carefully assigning responsibilities mostly to the local and state governments and giving only those of national interest to the federal government. America would become the envy of the world because its citizens were allowed to enjoy these God-given rights.

THE STATE EXISTS FOR MAN

Jesus Christ and His death on the Cross for the sins of the world restored man’s ability to govern self internally. Man is no longer to be dominated by government and is superior to the state; therefore, the state should be fashioned for man’s use, not the other way around. The state should exist for man, and justice, protection, and liberty for all should be the aim of every government.

It is not God’s will for man to have a government telling him everything to do, say, and think. It is His will for men to have a governing body that protects his individual rights and ability to serve the true God in freedom. 
THE TRUTH ABOUT SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST (15-632)

There is nothing in the world worse than a false way of salvation. Regrettably and sadly, even though there are many good Adventist people, still, its direction is unscriptural. Every believer needs to know what this particular doctrine teaches. Follow along as Frances & Friends' panel member, Mike Muzzera, shows and explains the various teachings of this religion.

THE TRUTH ABOUT CATHOLICISM (15-634)

Is Catholicism Christian? Are Catholics saved? Regrettably and sadly, if one believes the Bible, then no, Catholics aren’t saved. While there are many Catholics who do definitely come to Christ, if and when such happens, to maintain their position in Christ, they are going to have to leave Catholicism.

AN EXPOSÉ ON THE RELIGION OF ISLAM (15-622)

The world needs to know the truth about the religion of Islam. Unfortunately, the world seems to escape this information. Of all the religions of the world, Islam is violent beyond compare. The teaching given in this DVD is a must for every believer. You should know what Islam really is.

THE TRUTH ABOUT THE MASONS (15-633)

Many believers think that the Masonic Lodge is a Christ-like organization. It isn’t! In fact, the embodiment of Masonic teaching is anti-Bible. This DVD will give you an insight into that which is believed by the Masons and the far-reaching influence of this organization. Frances & Friends’ panel member, Jim Nations, expounds upon this all-important subject.

THE TRUTH ABOUT MORMONISM (15-606)

Mormonism is one of the fastest growing religions in the world. The great question is, “Is it biblical?”

If everything else is right, and our Lord is portrayed wrong, then the religion itself is wrong, such is Mormonism.

THE TRUTH ABOUT JEHOVAH’S WITNESS (15-607)

Christians should know and understand the method of false doctrines. The teaching taken from Frances & Friends will spell out the direction of these false ways. Every believer needs to know the truths that are vain in presentation. People perish for lack of knowledge. We are very proud to be able to offer material on this all-important subject that will be a blessing to any believer.

THE TRUTH ABOUT COMMON CORE (15-648)

In this four-segment series, Frances Swaggart and her distinguished panel of educators discuss the subject of the Common Core State Standard Initiative, now adopted by 46 states to standardize public school curriculums. Learn how this educational reform is hurting students.

THE TRUTH ABOUT ISLAM: “AN INTERVIEW WITH BRIGITTE GABRIEL” (17-003)

Few people know more about the religion of Islam than Brigitte Gabriel. In this captivating two-hour interview, Brigitte shares her experiences and insights regarding the worldwide threat—possibly the most dangerous enemy that America has ever faced.
Mark 11:22-24 — “And Jesus answering saith unto them, Have faith in God. For verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith. Therefore I say unto you, What things soever you desire, when you pray, believe that you receive them, and you shall have them.”

In Romans 12:3 the apostle Paul said, “As God has dealt to every man the measure of faith.” This means at the moment of conversion every believer is given or granted a measure of faith; however, the believer is to allow that faith to grow beyond just a measure.

Now the question must be asked, how does one’s measure of faith grow and mature? There are several variables to that question that every believer must know and understand. They are:

1. For faith to mature, the believer must have a proper understanding of the atonement, what Christ accomplished on Calvary’s Cross. Our faith, our focus must ever be placed in Christ and Him crucified. Let me break it down this way:

   • Jesus Christ is the source of all things that we receive from God (Jn. 14:6; Col. 2:10)

   • The Cross of Christ is the means and, in fact, the only means by which these things are given to us (Rom. 6:3-5; I Cor. 2:2)

   • The Cross of Christ, and the Cross of Christ alone, must be the object of our faith in order for us to receive what has been given (I Cor. 1:17, 23; Gal. 6:14).

   • The Holy Spirit, who works exclusively within the parameters of the finished work of Christ, oversees all of this (Rom. 8:1-2, 11; Eph. 2:13-18).

All error in the church begins with a faulty understanding of Calvary; hence one’s personal faith cannot mature as it should without proper knowledge of Calvary.

2. Next, one must know the will of God, which can only be learned by the Word of God. “Faith cometh by hearing and hearing by the Word of God” (Rom. 10:17).
3. Then comes fellowship and relationship with the Lord through prayer and Bible study, which help strengthen and develop our faith.

4. Finally faith has to be tested. The Lord will allow trials and tribulations to come our way in order to teach us faith and trust in the Lord.

The believer must also know that every attack by Satan against us is really an attack against our faith. Will we put our trust in the Lord, man, or self?

HAVE FAITH IN GOD

This phrase literally means, “have the faith of God.” The structure of the Greek shows God as the object of faith. Once again, let me state that the object of our faith must ever be Christ and Him crucified.

God has chosen to operate His work from the basis of faith. In Hebrews 11:3, the Word of God says: “Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.”

God’s vast creation was not created out of existing materials, but rather by faith. God spoke these things into existence; therefore His word carries not only power but creativity. His faith created His word; and as it regards human beings, His word creates faith.

God insists that man accepts everything done for him on the premise of faith—faith in the victory won on Calvary’s Cross. Christ must not be separated from the Cross, and the Cross must not be separated from Christ.

Faith in God ensures salvation and produces miracles. Hebrews 11:6 says, “Without faith it is impossible to please Him: For he who comes to God must believe (have faith) that He is and that He is a rewarder of them that diligently seek Him.”

If God can speak the word and create something out of nothing, then our faith in Him can turn our nothing into something.

Your salvation proves the power of faith, for it is by faith through grace that we are saved (Eph. 2:8). So the command from the Lord is, “Have faith in God.”

FOR VERILY I SAY UNTO YOU

This phrase is meant to announce a truth of great consequence. This great truth concerns faith in God. In this verse Jesus tells us what faith in God will do.

WHOSOEVER

In this one word we find that there is no discrimination with God as to who can have mountain-moving faith. It doesn’t matter if you are a preacher or a layman, anyone can have faith to move mountains.

SHALL SAY

These two words proclaim the power of proper scriptural confession. Whatever we say shows where our faith actually is, and the direction we are headed. Faith speaks; faith is never passive. True faith always speaks what the Word of God says and how it applies to one’s particular needs, which should always incorporate the will of God. Therefore, we must seek the face of God for the will of God regarding the situation we are facing.

UNTO THIS MOUNTAIN

The word mountain as it is used here is a metaphor and is not speaking of a literal mountain. The Lord used the word mountain to describe the great problems of life we all face. The Lord is actually saying that whatever we are facing is not bigger than a mountain. In effect, the Lord is saying, “All things are possible.”

BE THOU REMOVED

This statement proclaims the word and power of faith. Faith doesn’t ask how it can be done or whether it’s possible. Faith says, “Be thou removed.”

BE CAST INTO THE SEA

Faith in God not only moves the mountain, but it puts the problem in a place where it cannot harm others.

AND SHALL NOT DOUBT IN HIS HEART

The word doubt in the Greek is diakrino, which means “to judge between two.” In this case, it means to judge whether faith in God can or cannot do what it says. However, I want to impress upon you that we serve a God who can.

BUT SHALL BELIEVE

Not only are we not to doubt God, but we are to also believe what He has said in His Word. The Lord is telling us that if we have proper faith in God and we know the will of God as it regards the mountain we are facing, then we can say to any mountain “Be thou removed into the sea.” We are to believe what God says.

THOSE THINGS

This speaks of our particular needs. We are to take everything to the Lord in prayer to get proper direction so we are not asking for things that are not God’s will for us.

WHATSOEVER HE SAYS

Once again the Lord is telling us to say what we want. We are to confess it, however let me state once again that a proper confession is only proper when it is aligned with the will of God.
To use as an example, someone can go around confessing day and night that they are going to be the next president of the United States, however if that’s not God’s will, it’s not going to happen.

SHALL COME TO PASS

In the Greek text, these words are in the present tense, as in “comes to pass.” The idea is that it may not happen instantly, but faith keeps believing and faith keeps confessing. As the old saying goes, “Delay is not denial.”

HE SHALL HAVE WHATSOEVER HE SAYS

If it is the will of God, and we keep believing, asking, and confessing, then the outcome is certain. Once again, let me stress that what we are believing for must be the will of God.

THE IDEA IS THAT IT MAY NOT HAPPEN INSTANTLY, BUT FAITH KEEPS BELIEVING AND FAITH KEEPS CONFESSING. AS THE OLD SAYING GOES, ‘DELAY IS NOT DENIAL.’

WHAT THINGS SO EVER YOU DESIRE

This verse is greatly misinterpreted by many Christians; we must understand that what we desire must be what God desires. If it is not that which God desires, then it’s not going to happen.

WHEN YOU PRAY

In the Greek, pray means, “To offer prayer addressed to God, to Him as the object of faith and the one who will answer one’s prayer.” If God is the object of faith, then one’s desire will be God’s will and not our will.

BELIEVE THAT YOU WILL RECEIVE THEM, AND YOU SHALL HAVE THEM

Believe means, “to put in trust with.” It means that we have to trust not only for our request to be granted, but also in God’s time.

The phrase, “And you shall have them” refers to a present tense with a futuristic conclusion. He doesn’t say exactly when we shall have them, but that it will be done. We must entrust the timing to Him.

In conclusion, the Lord wants His children to “have faith in God” regarding every situation in their lives.

Romans 5:1-2 – “Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ: by whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God.”

When a person makes the decision to come to Christ, that person is wholly justified, cleansed, and washed by the blood of Jesus. Consequently, this means that there is no such thing as a partial justification, for you are either wholly justified or not justified at all. God does not forgive some sins and leave the rest to be unaccounted for. Rather, He washes and cleanses from all sins—past, present, and future—those who would simply believe. I know that this statement might come as a surprise to many of you, but believe me, there are people who believe in a partial justification.

Is There Such a Thing as a Partial Justification?

I can remember the first time that I ever heard of partial justification. I was attending a particular college in the great state of Oklahoma. In chapel one morning, the individual preaching, at the end of his message, told the entire college chapel audience to stand, which we did. He then proceeded to proclaim to the entire Christian college campus that none of us were “fully saved,” but that we needed to say his prayer and then we would all be “fully saved.” Well, upon hearing this, I immediately sat down. My friend who was sitting beside me asked me what I was doing and why I was sitting down. I told him that I may not know much, but I do know that when I accepted Christ, I was fully saved.

You Are a New Creation in Christ Jesus

The Bible, which is the authority on all matters, states, “Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new. And all things are of God, who has reconciled us to Himself by Jesus Christ, and has given to us the ministry of reconciliation” (II Cor. 5:17-18). This statement, made by Paul under the anointing of the Holy Spirit, is a universal statement, meaning that this applies to anyone of any race, nationality, creed, age, or socio-economic background.

When a person comes to Christ, there is a change that takes place internally, thereby transforming that individual from the inside out. And, it doesn’t matter how bad that person was before; when Jesus Christ saves him, he is now a “new creation in Christ Jesus.”

Being a new creation entails the wonderful phenomenon of regeneration (Titus 3:5), which speaks of being re-gened. All men were born in original sin, which means that all men were born lost and in spiritual deadness. However, when that man or woman has a personal encounter with Jesus Christ, the Holy Spirit begins the work of cleaning that person up, to where he or she becomes a new person. Their motives are different. Their attitudes are different. Their demeanors are different. The conversion is so profound, so deep, and so transparent that “new creation” is the only phrase that properly describes it. Everything that characterized a person before salvation—the old nature, the old lifestyle, the old way of doing things—it’s all gone. All of that person’s sins have been washed away in the precious blood of Jesus Christ. Not only have they been washed, but God has also erased and forgotten them.

The Scripture says, “As far as the east is from the west, so far has He removed our transgressions from us” (Psalm 103:12). What this means is that it is utterly impossible to bring the east and west together. It is the same with the believer and his sins. It is utterly impossible for the forgiven sinner to be brought together with his forgiven sins. When sins are properly confessed before God, and if there is true, heartfelt repentance, then the removal of those sins is absolutely guaranteed, and they will never be brought up again.

HOW DARE WE BRING UP PAST FAILURES

Christians, listen to me very carefully, please. If God has forgiven the sin in question, and has forgotten that particular sin, then what makes it right for us, as believers, to drag up sins of the past against a fellow Christian? If that person has truly repented of his sin and has asked the Lord to forgive him, then we should do the same.

It is wrong, and I daresay evil, for a person who claims to be a follower of Christ to bring up the past failures of a brother or sister in the Lord. Not only have those sins been covered by the blood, but also taken out of the way. Those sins, no matter how grievous, have been washed away, and God will never bring them back up to the forefront of that person’s life ever again. If God has forgiven them and no longer remembers what has taken place, then we should do the same.

We must take the Bible for what it says, and when it comes to the subject of justification, the Bible is clear and succinct. John the Beloved wrote, “If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness” (I Jn. 1:9). This means that when we ask for forgiveness, and do so from a pure heart, He will always forgive us, no matter how bad the sin may be, and will cleanse us from all unrighteousness. Now, either the Bible is right or it’s not, and I believe that it’s right. ☝

THIS ISN’T A MAN’S MESSAGE
BY TORRANCE NASH

As a little boy, my family and I attended a Mormon church. On Sunday mornings, while getting dressed for church, my mom would always watch Brother Swaggart’s telecast—a habit that ultimately led to her giving her heart to the Lord. That happened in 1988 when I was only 7 years old. I would grow up in the Church Of God In Christ church where I was introduced to Christ, but, as a young child, never fully surrendered my heart to the Lord.

By the time I finished high school, all of my mind was on sports. I went to college on a football scholarship and pursued that career goal until one day, at the age of 21, a knee injury ended my season and football career. The day I had knee surgery was in the same week that a local church—All Nations Christian Fellowship Church, pastored by Brother James Verdell—held its first service.

I mention this church because on March 17, 2002, I attended a service at All Nations and there it happened: the presence of the Lord filled that church (as it always did) and conviction filled my heart. Tears ran down my face as Brother Verdell led me through the sinner’s prayer and I gave my heart to the Lord. That day changed my life forever.

Just a month after I accepted Christ, Brother Donnie Swaggart came to my hometown of Columbus, Mississippi, and preached at our church. Sunday night service was Holy Spirit night, and I went to the altar where the Lord baptized me in The Holy Spirit with the initial physical evidence of speaking with other tongues.

A month or so after I was filled with the Spirit, I felt the Lord begin to deal with me and call me into the ministry to preach. I accepted the call and on Sept. 25, 2005 at All Nations Church, I preached my first sermon. The next year I began to travel, and my first engagement as an evangelist was on Oct. 25, 2006, in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, at Crossfire Youth Ministries with Pastor Gabe Swaggart.

I learned so much about the Message of the Cross under my former pastor, James Verdell, who introduced it to me early on in my salvation, which helped to shape me and the ministry that the Lord has given me. As I look back over my life and think about growing up in the holiness church, I am grateful for what my family received, but it could only take us so far. My mom heard Pastor Loren Larson teaching and preaching the Message of the Cross one weekend and it changed her life forever. She went home to tell my dad what she had heard, and, despite being reluctant at first, he went to hear this great truth for himself and his life was forever changed as well.

On Sept. 18, 2010, by the leading of the Lord, we launched Dunamis Ministries, Inc. and our home church, Freedom Worship Center, in Columbus, Mississippi. We preach the Message of the Cross, and we have seen the Lord do great things.
At the beginning of my ministry, the Lord told me to follow the example that He placed before me. At that time, I wasn’t aware of what the Lord meant, or who the Lord was referring to, but, unbeknownst to me, on the same day that we launched our church, the SonLife Broadcasting Network launched as well. As many others have said, what is aired and preached on SBN, along with the music, is anointed by the Lord and is life-changing. One of my favorite programs is The Message of The Cross. The teaching on this message has been vital to me as a young pastor/evangelist; I have learned so much.

My brother, Mario, and I pastor together, and we watch the network as much as possible. We have learned so much, and we give the Lord all the glory. As young boys, Mario and I lived in legalism, law, and under so many rules and regulations. We realize now that the church meant well, but through the Message of the Cross, we've learned that religious rules can never sanctify the believer. As kids, we tried to be saved, but we never held on to the Lord.

Today we both are saved, we love the Lord, are adherents of the Message of the Cross, and we preach the Message of the Cross. We realize that this isn’t a man’s message; this is God’s Word, and it’s the only message of the Bible. Christ paid an awesome debt that He did not owe, and He did so for whosoever will. Everything that we stand in need of, He has already accomplished it at His Cross.

I have to say thank God for Brother Loren Larson; his public preaching has been life-changing, as well as all of the godly advice, instruction, and, at times, even correction. Thanks also to my friend, Gabriel Swaggart, and his family. This has been an awesome journey, and we believe that our best days are ahead.

The Message of the Cross has impacted my life in so many ways. It has changed my family’s life, and I will forever be grateful to the Lord for what He has done.

UNITED STATES OVER-THE-AIR (DTV) LISTINGS

For those of you who are not familiar with digital television, these are free “old fashioned TV channels” that are able to be picked up with a digital tuner and antenna. Most new televisions are equipped with built-in digital tuners or you can purchase a tuner from your local electronics store (Best Buy®, Radio Shack®, etc.). As well, you can purchase the proper antenna at your local electronics store. Many viewers under the broadcast signal of the television station can use a small, digital antenna inside the home. For those on the outer edge of the signal or to receive the best signal, an outdoor antenna may be required. Both indoor and outdoor antennas are available for less than $50!

Friends from Different Countries Participate in FWC Media Church

DEAR EVANGELIST: I invited my new friend to church via sonlifetv.com. I told him that he could come and go with me into my Father’s house. We can’t come and go to each other’s countries, but how wonderful to be able to go to church together. I really love my church family. Thanks for letting me be a member of FWC.

SBN’s Study in the Word Blesses Homebound Believer

DEAR EVANGELIST: Dear Study In The Word panel, thank you for your wonderful Bible study. I am disabled and mostly homebound since my 30s and am 65 now. I have been unable to go to church for a long time. I live alone and am a born-again lady who very rarely gets company. SBN is such a blessing to me in so many ways and helps me to be a blessing to my caregivers, others, and I hope many more as I never give up on getting well. I love the way y’all sit in a group with me, sitting (where the camera is) in my chair with a couple Bibles, and my DirecTV remote because I record and watch every show. That way I never miss it; I can rewind to listen again, stop to find a Scripture you quote, and get a good look at the great and helpful maps. Thank you so much for displaying the Scriptures that you so beautifully and wisely quote by memory as you teach and share.

A Study in the Word Simplified The Meaning of the Cross

DEAR EVANGELIST: I can’t express enough the teaching from Brother Swaggart on A Study In The Word and how much it has simplified the true meaning of the Cross for me. I was in the works of the flesh for all of my Christian years, always battling, until I watched A Study In The Word and was enlightened by the teaching of the Cross! Keep preaching the Cross as it is new life to many.

Thank You So Much for Telling the Truth

DEAR EVANGELIST: Ever since I found your station, I can’t watch any other Christian program, or should I say that I don’t want to. Thank you so much for just telling the truth, and I love my new Expositor’s Study Bible. We pray for your ministry everyday, and I know God is doing a great work through you: Donnie, Gabriel, and of course I love Frances! Her program is wonderful. God bless you.

Parent Who Blamed God for Son’s Suicide Repents After Watching IYC

DEAR EVANGELIST: I want to praise and thank God for all of the ministry at SonLife Broadcasting Network. Thirteen years ago my eldest son committed suicide, and I blamed God for not taking care of him. I turned my back on God and didn’t want to know Him anymore. I am now 72 years old, and I watched the International Youth Conference services, and I wept to see these young people worship and come to the Lord. That brought me to my senses, and I repented and asked God to forgive me. I can’t thank you enough for your teachings. I found my Jesus again, just where I had left Him, and praise His wonderful name. I’m forgiven and I’m back in the fold because of your wonderful teaching. I couldn’t have done it without your network. God bless you all.

Topics on Frances & Friends Are Not Heard in the Churches

DEAR EVANGELIST: I watch Frances & Friends on DIRECTV. I just wanted to let you know what a blessing your program has been. The topics discussed are topics and subjects we would never hear in our Christian churches. This is truly a dry barren ground not only geographically, but spiritually. Your program makes me really think what I have been taught and what I believe and why I believe it! It makes me study more closely. Keep up the good work and the good word.

NOW I UNDERSTAND HOW TO HAVE VICTORY AND LIVE FOR GOD

DEAR EVANGELIST: I just received The Expositor’s Study Bible this past weekend in the mail, and I can’t put it down! I just finished Romans, and I get it! I get the Message of the Cross! I keep reading Chapters 5 through 10 over and over! Every time I read it, God opens up the Word like never before. As I read Romans, I felt it in my Spirit Jesus pouring it into my Spirit what Paul was given, and Brother Swaggart too. Now I really understand how to have victory and how to live for God! Thank you and everyone at your ministry. The Expositor’s Study Bible is great, and it explains so very much. I am getting this Bible for all of my family members! I love your ministry and all who are preaching and teaching the Word of God. Thank you for carrying this burden you have for saving souls through our Lord Jesus Christ. We love you, and may God bless everyone there!

TRANSFORMED FROM DOPE DEALER TO HOPE DEALER

DEAR EVANGELIST: Brother Swaggart, I am a born-again, filled with the Spirit, devil-stomping, on fire believer, praise the Lord! I just received the new Expositor’s Study Bible that I ordered off of your website. I am excited and amazed with this Bible. I have been reading the Word of God many years, and this is without a doubt the very best and Spirit-filled Bible I have ever had. Thank you and God bless you for being obedient to your calling. You have no idea how the Message of the Cross has changed me from dope dealer to being a hope dealer because of this very message that you teach! Again, thank you and may God always have His hand on your life and ministry.

CROSSFIRE STUDY IS THE BEST PRESENT RECEIVED

DEAR EVANGELIST: I just wanted to say thanks for the Crossfire Study Bible I got. You will never know what it meant to me. It is the best present I have ever gotten!

—Georgia

KEEP TEACHING AND PREACHING IT STRAIGHT!

DEAR EVANGELIST: First, I want to say thank you for your faithfulness to the kingdom of God. The Scripture in Philippians 1:3-6 comes to my mind, because I thank God for each of you involved in Jimmy Swaggart Ministries. Thank you for proclaiming the truth of the Word, and for once again preaching the Message of the Cross of Christ. I don’t find your comments harsh at all. I am so tired of going to church and playing “patty cake,” and hearing a washed-down, seeker-friendly message. I want to hear the truth. Satan has sold us a lie and the church is in a mess. It is full of people who are bound and living in spiritual adultery, and the message coming from behind our pulpits is one of a watered-down gospel that depicts a God who accepts sin as long as a person has good intentions. Thank you for speaking the truth. Please keep teaching and preaching it straight!

EXPOSITOR’S STUDY BIBLE CHANGES MINISTRY OF UK PASTOR

DEAR EVANGELIST: Greetings in the name of Jesus. I gave my pastor The Expositor’s Study Bible Crossfire Edition, and he’s read it everyday and hasn’t been able to put it down. Listening to him yesterday was so different; he actually preached Jesus and the Cross, and he actually confronted sin head on. What a difference on his ministry, and it’s all down through the message that you have been preaching in the UK. Thank you my brothers and sisters in the Lord.

BROTHER SWAGGART’S MUSIC BLESSES BELIEVER’S PARENTS

DEAR EVANGELIST: I just received three of your CDs for my parents. They both love the Lord, and they are well in their 80s. But it is a blessing to me to see my parents listening to your music; my Mom sits there with tears streaming down her face. You are a great man of God. God bless you, Brother Swaggart.

Ezekiel 36:25-27 — “Then will I sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean: from all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you. A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you: and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh. And I will put My spirit within you, and cause you to walk in My statutes, and ye shall keep My judgments, and do them.”

THESE TWO EXPERIENCES ARE FOR EVERY BELIEVER

In the lives of those who embrace Christianity, there are two major events that every believer should experience. These are the events designed by God to produce both the character of the individual believer, conforming them into the image of Christ, and then, the second, to empower the individual to carry out their personal function in the body of Christ.

Baptism into Christ is what I will refer to as the born-again experience under the terms and benefits of the new covenant. While many mistake this term to be associated with water baptism, it is not. I Corinthians 12:13 declares that the Holy Spirit, at salvation, immerses the believing sinner into the body of Christ. This is the baptism that saves.

The baptism with the Holy Spirit is a second subsequent work of the Spirit, made available after one has been baptized into Christ. It enables the believer to receive supernatural power by which they carry out their God-chosen function in the body of Christ. Without the baptism with the Holy Spirit, which always includes the initial physical evidence of speaking with other tongues, I personally don’t believe that Christians can carry out the work of God, as God intends for them to. It takes supernatural power to carry out or fulfill any ministry function, whether it’s raising the kids or preaching to thousands from an elevated platform. In this article, we will emphasize baptism into Christ. Next month, in Part II, we will emphasize the baptism with the Holy Spirit.

BAPTIZED INTO CHRIST

When one is baptized into Christ, the Bible says that individual becomes a new creation (II Corinthians 5:17). This new creation work is carried out by the person of the Holy Spirit as declared in Titus 3:5.

Our text of Ezekiel 36: 25-27 is a prophecy that foretells what God will do for Israel when they finally accept Jesus Christ as their Messiah. This will happen at the end of the great tribulation period. However, these same benefits have been experienced by all who have chosen to believe in Jesus since the day of the Holy Spirit’s coming to superintend the new covenant. The Holy Spirit came with all the benefits that Christ died to provide us with on the day of Pentecost. Since then, He has been doing the same work in the hearts of all who would believe.

HOLY SPIRIT RECREATES THE BELIEVER

First of all, in Ezekiel 36:25, the Lord says that He will
Loren Larson

This cleansing occurs whenever a person places his faith in Christ as their Saviour. Then a description of the Holy Spirit’s work of regeneration is given in Ezekiel 36:26. Here we see a detailed description of what a “new creation” experiences.

First, God recreates the heart of the believing sinner. The heart is made up of two components, the soul and the spirit. The soul is the part of man that feels; it is his emotional center, where desire, love, and the will abide. The spirit of man is the part of man that knows. The spirit is man’s communication center. At conversion, the Holy Spirit gives the newly created spirit the ability to continually communicate with God’s Spirit. This is where revelation transpires, where inspiration and understanding happens, where illumination occurs. Therefore, when one is baptized into Christ, the Holy Spirit gives him a new soul that longs for and desires the things of God. Through the newly created spirit, man begins to communicate with God through the agency of His Spirit. By this method the believer comes to know, understand, and comprehend things which are of God. Not only that, but the hardened heart—that heart that was hardened by sin—is made a soft and pliable heart, one that is more readily yielded to operate as God desires.

Last, and most important of all, God not only gives us a newly constructed soul and spirit but He also places His Spirit into that very same heart. At the moment of conversion, the believer becomes the temple of the Holy Spirit. We receive both a new spirit and “another” Spirit—the Spirit of God.

Supernatural Power for Sanctification

The Holy Spirit immediately begins to reveal the will of God to us. Furthermore, you should note that our text declares that it is not man’s will that provides the new believer with the power or ability to keep God’s judgments and walk in His statutes. Instead, the Bible states that it is the presence of the Holy Spirit that is to become the “new source” of life—the strength that enables the believer to perform. Even with new desires and new communication abilities, even with a soft heart—one that is willing to search out, find, and follow the will of God—the believer must receive the power to overcome sin from a source other than self. This power does not lie in the newly created Christian; it resides in the Holy Spirit of God who now lives in the Christian.

So, we must learn to rely upon and receive this power for the purpose of sanctification. Faith in God’s redemption plan—Christ and His finished work—is what releases the “law of the Spirit of life” into our very beings. When we learn to keep our faith in Christ crucified, then the Holy Spirit will continually sanctify us and enable us to live this Christian life. We have a new power source within us that is activated by properly placed faith. As Paul said in Galatians 2:20, “And the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave Himself for me.”

SUPERSESSIONISM PART VII BY JOHN ROSENSTERN

At the close of World War II, it was discovered that more than 6 million Jews throughout Europe were destroyed in the Holocaust. On Nov. 20, 1947, in Lake Success, New York, the United Nations General Assembly adopted, by a vote of 33 to 13, the United Nations Special Committee on Palestine’s proposal to partition Palestine into Jewish and Arab states.

Secretary General of the U.N., Trygve Lie, called it the “first round of positive achievement.” The British refused to participate in any collective effort to enforce the U.N. resolution and would not terminate their mandate of the land until May 15, 1948. This encouraged the Arabs to believe they could undo the will of the UN. The subsequent years of war that Israel would face were birthed during this period. Had the Arabs accepted the partition plan in 1947, an independent Arab Palestine would have been created. Instead, Israel had to fight for her life to become a nation in 1948. Wars continued in 1956, 1967, and 1973. When military efforts by the confederation of Arab-Islamic nations failed, a new strategy was implemented—“Land for Peace.” This idea originated with U.S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles. It only exasperated the problem. The reality was, and is, that Arab-Islamic countries seek Israel’s annihilation and not a lasting peaceful co-existence. This lines up with Bible Scripture, as found in Psalm 83:4: “They have said, Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation; that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance.”

REPLACE OR DESTROY

God has supplied us a magnificent witness to His Word by regathering the scattered Jews from around the world back to Israel. In previous articles in this series, we mentioned the fidelity of God to His covenant promises made to Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and David. There are many Scriptures that promise restoration—Deuteronomy 30, Isaiah 2; 11; Ezekiel 36-37, Zephaniah 3, Zechariah 14, Matthew 19:28, 23:39; Acts 1:6, and Romans 11—to name a few.

Supersessionists have not made a compelling argument that the church is the new Israel and the church now fulfills national Israel’s place. Michael J. Vlach said, “The primary error of supersessionism is this: In their desire to emphasize the unity on salvation that Jews and Gentiles have experienced, supersessionists have mistakenly concluded that such unity excludes a special role for Israel in the future. But salvific unity does not erase all the ethnic functional distinctions. Gentiles are now partakers of Israel’s covenants, and national Israel will be saved and restored with a role of service to the nations.”

PROMISE OF GOD

God used Israel as a sign of His faithfulness and mercy. In Jeremiah 31, the Lord makes it clear that He will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah:

“Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah: Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt; which My covenant they brake, although I was an husband unto them, saith the \textit{Lord}: But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the House of Israel: After those days, saith the \textit{Lord}, I will put My law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; and will be their God, and they shall be My people” (Jer. 31:31-33).

One of the outward signs of the new covenant is Israel! The promise for us to eternally benefit from the new covenant is God’s everlasting promise of Israel’s existence! Israel’s confirmation by God is as secure as His solar system:

“Thus saith the \textit{Lord}, which giveth the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, which divideth the sea when the waves thereof roar; The \textit{Lord} of hosts is his name: If those ordinances depart from before Me, saith the \textit{Lord}, then the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before me forever. Thus saith the \textit{Lord}; If heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, I will also cast off all the seed of Israel for all that they have done, saith the \textit{Lord}” (Jer. 31:35-37).

ADDITIONAL WITNESSES

In order to better understand the depths of the previous verses in Jeremiah, we must look at what the new covenant is—it is the God-man Christ Jesus! Another scriptural signature of God is found in Psalm 72:5: “They shall fear thee as long as the sun and moon endure, throughout all generations.”

All reverence and honor is given to Him, Jesus the Messiah, now and forever. When you see God using His everlasting creation in comparison to His eternal promises, that is His signature! God made it very clear that should Israel disobey Him, He would not cast them away. Instead, He would punish them by scattering them among their enemies. While in captivity, they would not be utterly cast off from God. When they would repent, then God would restore and restore them according to the covenants that He made with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob:

“If they shall confess their iniquity, and the iniquity of their fathers, with their trespass which they trespassed against Me, and that also they have walked contrary unto Me; And that I also have walked contrary unto them, and have brought them into the land of their enemies; if then their uncircumcised hearts be humbled, and they then accept of the punishment of their iniquity: Then will I remember My covenant with Jacob, and also My covenant with Isaac, and also my covenant with Abraham will I remember; and I will remember the land. The land also shall be left of them, and shall enjoy her sabbaths, while she lieth desolate without them: and they shall accept of the punishment of their iniquity: because, even because they despised My judgments, and because their soul abhorred My statutes. And yet for all that, when they be in the land of their enemies, I will not cast them away, neither will I abhor them, to destroy them utterly, and to break My covenant with them: for I am the \textit{Lord} their God. But I will for their sakes remember the covenant of their ancestors, whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the heathen, that I might be their God: I am the \textit{Lord}” (Lev. 26:40-45).

DAVIDIC COVENANT

In Psalm 89, the faithfulness of God is revealed toward the seed of David. The seed of David is Jesus Christ, Messiah. Although the psalm speaks of David and his natural seed, we must understand that it also speaks of Messiah. The Davidic covenant reveals the lineage of Messiah, Jesus Christ. In this psalm, we again see the signature of God. As I close this short series, please read the next verses and see the faithfulness of God to His promises. He will not forsake Israel. As a nation, at the conclusion of the times of the Gentiles, they shall be saved and restored. As for now, both Jews and Gentiles can be saved by grace through faith in the One, Jesus Christ, Messiah.

“But My faithfulness and My mercy shall be with him: and in My name shall his horn be exalted. I will set his hand also in the sea, and his right hand in the rivers. He shall cry unto Me, Thou art my father, my God, and the rock of my salvation. Also I will make him My firstborn, higher than the kings of the earth. My mercy will I keep for him for evermore, and My iniquity with stripes. Nevertheless My lovingkindness will I not utterly take from him, nor suffer My faithfulness to fail. His seed also will I make to endure forever, and his throne as the days of heaven. If his children forsake My law, and walk not in My judgments; If they break My statutes, and keep not My commandments; Then will I visit their transgression with the rod, and their iniquity with stripes. Nevertheless My lovingkindness will I not utterly take from him, nor suffer My faithfulness to fail. My covenant will I not break, nor alter the thing that is gone out of My lips. Once have I sworn by My holiness that I will not lie unto David. His seed shall endure forever, and his throne as the sun before Me. It shall be established forever as the moon, and as a faithful witness in heaven. Selah” (Ps. 89: 24-37).
“People who attended the 2016 International Kids Conference described it as, ‘amazing, powerful, anointed, life-changing, and the best IKC yet.’” — PASTOR MIKE MUZZERALL

THE THEME OF THE 2016 International Kids’ Conference was “Growing In Grace” taken from II Peter 3:18: “But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To him be glory both now and forever. Amen.” I know we saw that happen during this year’s IKC and we give God all of the glory.

THE FUN WAY TO LEARN ABOUT JESUS

Each year, the goal for IKC is to produce a conference whereby boys, girls, and the adults who attend these services experience the precious moving of the Holy Spirit. Our own Grace Brumley said it best when she was around 9 years old. She described the Salvation Station Kids’ Camp as, “The fun way to learn about Jesus.”

This year we had children from 16 states participate. The child who traveled farthest was a young boy from the Big Island of Hawaii. To his parents, I would like to say, Aloha and mahalo nui loa (thank you very much) for traveling such a great distance to see your son ministered to by the Spirit of God.

RECORD NUMBERS ATTENDED

The conference started on Wednesday, June 8, in a joint service with Crossfire. We had 569 people participate in that service! We had record numbers in attendance at every service. Thank you Jesus! The Crossfire worship team ushered in the presence of the Holy Spirit with their anointed singing and exhortation. From then on, the Salvation Station worship team, under the leadership of Pastor Justin Reese and Sister Tara Montpetit, ministered under a heavy anointing.

Two services a day included the ministry of these pastors: Scott Corbin from Spartanburg, South Carolina; Mario and Torrance Nash from Columbus, Mississippi; children’s evangelist Angela Schneiderman, and me. All of us saw children and adults fill the altars as they yielded their lives to the ministry of the Holy Spirit.

LIVES FOREVER CHANGED

Throughout the conference, the kids had great meals and lots of fun in the afternoons with different exciting activities. But it was during the services where we saw—and know—that their lives were forever changed. Not only did we see children coming down to the altars to be ministered to, but we also saw children laying hands on one another as children and adults were saved and filled with the Holy Spirit.
This year, we were able to present some of the services live on the Internet. We had people from across America and other nations view our postings. One lady from Maryland saw the children at the altars worshipping Jesus Christ. She was so touched that she bought an airline ticket and came down to see it with her own eyes! To God be the glory!

APPRECIATION AND PLANS FOR NEXT YEAR

It takes a lot of effort from a whole lot of people to be prepared and put on a children’s conference. I want to thank Brother and Sister Swaggart and the administrative team for their help and support, housekeeping, security, and the men and women who worked so unselfishly so that the children could be ministered to.

As for next year’s IKC, we’ve already started planning for it. The dates will be June 7-10, 2017, so please make your plans to attend and get blessed!

WHAT DOES THE BIBLE SAY ABOUT DRINKING ALCOHOL? PART III

BY DAVE SMITH

Most Christians who believe that the Bible is the Word of God, agree it is sinful to get drunk, but some do not know that the Bible teaches against any drinking of alcohol. Please look with me at the following Scriptures:

“Woe unto them that rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink; that continue until night, till wine inflame them! And the harp, and the viol, the tabret, and pipe, and wine, are in their feasts: but they regard not the work of the Lord, neither consider the operation of His hands” (Isa. 5:11-12).

The judgment of God is against those who make drinking alcohol a priority and allow it to control their lives. It causes people to disrespect, look down on, and not pay attention to the work of the Lord; it hinders them from gaining understanding and trusting in what God is doing, and it increases ungodly desires.

“But they also have erred through wine, and through strong drink are out of the way; the priest and the prophet have erred through strong drink, they are swallowed up of wine, they are out of the way through strong drink; they err in vision, they stumble in judgment” (Isa. 28:7).

“The judgment of God is against those who make drinking alcohol a priority and allow it to control their lives. This verse says that drinking alcohol causes a person to wander or go astray from God’s way because it deceives and misleads. It hinders their spiritual vision and judgment by causing instability and leaving the ways of God.

“His watchmen are blind: they are all ignorant, they are all dumb dogs, they cannot bark; sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber. Yea, they are greedy dogs which can never have enough, and they are shepherds that cannot understand: they all look to their own way, every one for his gain from his quarter. Come ye, say they, I will fetch wine, and we will fill ourselves with strong drink; and tomorrow shall be as this day, and much more abundant” (Isa. 56:10-12).

Spiritual leaders are to warn of danger, but are hindered by alcohol from seeing, understanding and preaching against false doctrine because they are asleep spiritually. They are controlled more by their selfish emotions and desires than the benefit of others. Even though they have little or no spiritual discernment, they will drink again tomorrow and be deceived into believing that it is an even better day.

“But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the portion of the king’s meat, nor with the wine which he drank: therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself” (Dan. 1:8).

Daniel and his friends asked if they could be put to a test for 10 days to prove they would be in better condition than those who drank alcohol and ate foods contrary to God’s principles. They turned out physically, mentally, and spiritually better than the others, which verified their stand for the things of God.

“They brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God which was at Jerusalem; and the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, drank in them. They drank wine, and praised the gods of gold, and silver, of brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone” (Dan. 5:3-4).

The drinking of alcohol caused the king and his nobles to desecrate the vessels they had taken from the house of God and used them in worshipping idols that resulted in the judgment of God.

Next month, we will look at some more Scriptures that deal with drinking alcohol. 📖
DOORS ARE OPENING
ALL OVER THE WORLD

And through those doors, by the grace of God, we must go. The Lord has given us a mandate, and it includes the entirety of the world. Yes, I said the entire world. Now please read the following very carefully because I think you will find it to be extremely important.

We believe that it is possible for us to place The Expositor’s New Testament into the hands of Chinese pastors. Yes, you read it correctly. To be frank, this is a miracle of unprecedented proportions. Actually, by the time you read this, we should be very close to getting it done, if not already.

I have asked the Lord for the entirety of the world, and to be sure, nothing is impossible with God. When Jim Woolsey told me of this, which he has been working on for over two years, I can’t tell you how I felt. I’ve been praying for this myself for over two years, that God would open up China. And now He is beginning to do so.

I want you to pray about this, and do so earnestly, as I know you will. Do you realize that China has the largest number of Christians than any nation in the world? Of course, it has a population of 1.3 billion, which is about four to five times larger than the U.S. God is moving in that great country, and we must get this word to them.

Incidentally, the people who interpreted the Expositor’s New Testament into Chinese are now working on the Old Testament as well. In other words, we should have the complete Bible in approximately two years.

As you must understand, translation is very delicate, very time consuming, and an extremely difficult project. It has to be done right because it is the Word of God. Somewhere on this page, I would hope that they could give you a part of the page of Chinese translation. It will be unlike anything you have ever seen.

SLOW DOWN?

Some have said that we should slow down and not try to do too much at one time. Do we have the time to wait? Is it possible that it would be right for us to wait on souls being saved? I don’t think so. The Scripture plainly and clearly says, “Today if you will hear His voice” (Heb. 3:15). There is nothing said about tomorrow. The gospel is today! The time is today! We must not wait until tomorrow, but we must do everything within our power to make the gospel available today.

Yes, I realize that we are pushing hard, and we are doing so because we believe this is what the Holy Spirit has told us to do.

YOUR PARTICIPATION

Let me ask the following of you: Pray for us daily. I solicit these prayers simply because I know how important it is.

As well, I’m asking monthly for your financial support. Of course, I cannot do all of these things unless the Lord opens your hearts. Many of you already have your hearts open and for that we are eternally grateful.

If our people tell us that they need 100,000 New Testaments for China, or possibly even 300,000 or 400,000, do you realize what that will cost? At the same time, do you realize what a miracle this would be, getting this many Bibles, if the Lord would open the door, into the hands of these men and women?

I told our people whenever I was given the news that we would immediately print 10,000 New Testaments. They said to me, “Brother Swaggart, the very least that we need is 30,000 copies.” And that’s just the beginning. Let me say it again, we can’t do all of this without your help.

So many of you are giving us your help; you have been so faithful and such a help that only eternity will be able to proclaim the worth of your efforts for this ministry. Yet I need all of you to set aside something each month for the work of God.

WHAT GOD IS DOING

Do you realize that this, which the Holy Spirit is carrying out, just might be the greatest effort in the world? We must work and labor exactly as though it is. We thank God for every ministry in the world that is truly preaching the gospel, and our prayers are with them that they will grow and do even more. Of course we do desire that. At the same time, I must conduct this ministry as though it is the only ministry on earth. And you must support it in the same fashion. Jesus told us, “Pray you therefore the Lord of the harvest, that He would send forth laborers into His harvest” (Lk. 10:2).

That’s what I’m asking for—laborers. And thank God many of you fit that category. The truth is, I need an army.

AN ARMY FOR GOD

The other day a man told Jim Woolsey, “Brother Woolsey, it’s very difficult to find a place where you can properly sow seed and realize it’s going to bring forth results for the Lord.” Then the man said, “But now I have found it,” and he was speaking of the SonLife Broadcasting Network and the entirety of this ministry. I want to say yes to that—you can be sure that your money is reaching souls for Christ. You can be certain that what we’re preaching is strictly the Word of God, “Jesus Christ and Him crucified.”

INCIDENTALLY

I would hope that you would take advantage of all of the offers in this magazine. As well, I would pray that you would by all means get the books that we offer, and when you get them, read them. They are easy to read—reader-friendly you might say. And above all, you will learn something about the Word of God, and nothing is more important than that.

AGAIN, THANK YOU

I’m speaking to the thousands of you who support this work, who stand with us both prayerfully and financially. For me to say thank you seems woefully insufficient, yet I know that what you do is not for me, necessarily, but it’s for the Lord. And I know this one thing: God is blessing every one of you and will bless every one of you who stands with us in this enterprise to touch the entirety of the world.
